Brevities Ticket Sale Competition Begins on Friday

Fifteen Campus Organizations Plan On Entering Competition

BEAUTIFUL CUP IS OFFERED THIS YEAR

Wallum Appoints Madsen To Manage Campaign For Blue Key

Competition for the Bison Brevities ticket sales cup opens Friday, Feb. 7, with 15 campus organizations having signified their intention of entering, it was announced today by Everett Wallum, manager of the 1930 revue. Group sales chairmen will meet in the Alumni-Faculty clubroom at 4:30 p.m. Thursday for initial allotment of tickets for the production which will be held in the Fargo high school auditorium, March 3 and 4.

Victor Madsen, Starkweather, has been selected by Mr. Wallum to take charge of the ticket sales campaign for Blue Key fraternity, sponsors of the event, and will make daily checkups of progress made. The campaign will close Friday, Feb. 28.

Organizations trying for the cup are Alpha Gamma Rho, Alpha Xi Beta, Sigma Phi Delta, Phi Kappa Lambda, Kappa Sigma Chi, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Psi, Phi Omega Pi, Kappa Delta, Alpha Kappa Phi, Theta Chi, Alpha Sigma Tau, Delta Kappa Sigma, and the Y. M. C. A. Delta Sigma captured the cup last year.

"The cup offered this year is by far the most beautiful ever offered at the college for a competition of this nature," the manager stated. The trophy will be displayed within a week or ten days. "The Brevities will be held for only two days, which means that the demand is going to be so great that those wishing to attend had better get their tickets early to avoid disappointment."

Howe Speaks During Convocation Period

Dr. H. E. Howe, editor of Industrial and Engineering Chemistry, spoke this morning at convocation in the North Dakota State college armory to a large audience of students and professors on the "Discoveries of Tomorrow".

The art of bell ringing was first revealed to America in the 1840's by P. T. Barnum. While touring in England Mr. Barnum heard a group of church bells ringers practicing upon hand bells. From this experience he conceived the idea of using a larger peal of bells and of playing more elaborate music. Touring concert companies were established by Mr. Barnum, and since that time the bell Barnum, and since that time the bell ringing art has retained its popu-

CAMPUS CASTES

If colleges and universities are supposed to be the cradles of the country's future leaders, and if customs in the higher institutions of learning are pre-cursors of national habits, then America is headed toward autocracy.

In the colleges of today it is the same as the feudal systems of old—a well-regulated caste system with as careful and exacting divisions as the most rigid of ancient ones.

We have royalty-the athletes. They are untouchable in their aloofness from the common herd. They are not to be condemned, it is an inheritance, the same as the young princes in ancient times who stood in line to take their fathers' crowns when vacated. They are accepted, envied, and above criticism. The king can do no wrong and we have our first division of our modern feudalism.

we have nobility—the activity men. They are not of royal blood but they are the controlling element. They run campus activities and are the lords of old, the ruling class. Theirs is the power and the glory which is almost as untouchable as the athletes' except that the activity men are not born to it. men are not born to it.

We have the fashionable gen-We have the fashionable gentry—the well-dressed, wealthy student who has but to loll and bask in the reflected light of his father's gold. After this upper stratum of campus society is named, we have but to add the long list of students, grinds, men and women working their way through, and those who do little

THE SPECTRUM or nothing. It is sad, but true, in our present college feudalism, that this last class named is easily likened to the serfs in medieval times, a necessary part of society and yet unheralded, their work unsung, and their individual existence as unimportdividual existence as unimport-ant to the whole system as the life of an ancient vassal, but their existence as a body a vital part in our accepted system, colpart in our accepted system. legiate feudalism.

These classes as painted are true to campus life. It is regrettable that such should be the truth. It is as hard to vault the truth. It is as hard to vault from one stratum to another as it was in ancient times; the honest, hard-working, unassuming man is pushed down, stamped out. He has his friends, but they are of his own "class." His four years of college are soon over and he passes on, never tasting the fruits of the "lord" or sharing the "king's glories." —Michigan State News. -Michigan State News.

ADDITIONAL ASSETS

The chicken house just north The chicken house just north of the college farm house, is alive with poultry of every description. Professor O. A. Barton and his assistant, Goodearl, work out experiments during the year in breeds, classification, elements of breeding, judging, culling and caponizing.

Attention is given in this department to the production and exhibition judging. Actual work is carried out in this phase of poultry work and study at the numerous county and state fairs where much and many are the birds to be picked aud chosen. During the time of the North Dakota State Fair at Fargo, one usually finds Professor Barton supervising the poultry exhibits in the chicken building.

Quite often eggs, strictly fresh, and even chickens to fry and eat are to be had at the market price from this department.

Because students at Northwestern university left buttons, slugs, and pebbles in place of nickels and dimes at the "Honor" candy shop, the ath-letic association announced that vending machines would replace the old system.

Sideline Synopsis

By Bob Allison Several occurrences of the past weekend indicate that "Saaly" and his boys are going to have a rough road to travel for the rest of the conference race. Fairhead suffered a broken leg, and Goodwin missed the South Dakota State game as a result of a bad "charley horse". The absence of the "Sophomore Aces" is a severe loss to the squad.

The Coyote machine looks more powerful at each start. We predict a hot argument at Vermillion Thurs-day night when the Jackrabbits and Coyotes are turned loose at each Chances for the Bison to cop premier honors in the Conference hinge on the contest between the two South Dakota schools, Thursday. More Dakota schools, Thursday. More power to South Dakota State—they'll probably need it.

chances of bringing the pennant to North Dakota State are still pretty

It looks as though the welterweight division will be pretty much of an open fight this year. Gordon McGregor, the rangy Scot from McIntosh, should be a tough one for Skjonsby, and the rest of the welters to figure out.

Standing room will be at a premium Friday night, when Jim "The Great" Slattery, meets Walt Schoenfelder in another grudge fight. If "Whispering Jim" stays in the competition much longer, Lieut. Smith will have to get a more substantial ring for him to feelt in earl out of fight in and out of.

The Kappa Phis' and Sigma Taus' joint possession of first place in the Fraternity loop will end after these two teams meet tonight. Braus and Hermes should put up a great battle for individual honors.

Although the Delta Sigs and Gamma Rhos have both lost one game, they are still to be reckoned with, and regardless of the outcome of tonight's game, there will still be at least four good teams in the race.

John Plank, Jr., whistles his way through school. When Plank started school at the University of Minneschool at the University of Minnesota two years ago he needed funds. So he began whistling, an art he acquired as a youth. He soon went on the stage and at present is playing on the west coast. But Plank is after an education, so next summer he will resume his work at the university. His plans however, are to continue whistling to pay his way through college.

With the Bison defense functioning as it did in the last half of the Morningside game, and Bliss continuing to play the best ball of his career,

St. Louis university boasts of having 120 foreign students from 27 countries enrolled in the college departments. The countries represented are: Alaska, Austria, British Columbia, British Honduras, Canada, Czechoslovakia, Egypt, France, French West Indies, Germany, Hawaii, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Jugoslavia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Mexico, Newfoundland, Panama, Philippine Islands, Poland, Porto Rico, Russia, Switzerland, Eyria and West Indies.

The Junior class will chose their ball manager at a meeting to be held this afternoon in room 26, Chemistry building, according to Horace Mc-Grath, president of the third year men.

The Junior ball is one of the big social events of the season and will probably be held the middle of April.

TWO PENS

for the Price of One

-a Pocket Pen for Classroom Notes, and a Desk Pen for Your Room -Guaranteed for Life!

If you buy a Parker Pocket Duofold you now can have a Desk Set without buying a second pen. Or if you buy a Parker Duofold Desk Set you also now receive a Duofold Pocket Pen guaranteed for life. Either way, you save the price of a second pen—$5, $7 or $10, according to the model.

By adding a tapered end, you convert your Duofold Pocket Pen to a Desk Pen in 10 seconds. By removing the taper and putting on the Pocket Cap you restore it to a Pocket Duofold on leaving office or home.

Thus every owner of a Parker Pocket Pen owns half a Desk Set. Getting a Desk Base completes it. We now include pen taper free with that.

> Streamlined shape, sets low in pocket ble Barrels Pencils to match, $3.25 to $5

And to every buyer of a Parker Desk Set, we now give a Pocket Cap with Clip. Thus his Desk Pen is also a Pocket Pen—like 2 Pens for the price of one Set. Be sure to ask for the Pocket Cap with your Desk Set.

Parker's new streamlined Duofold Pens (and Pencils to match) set lower in the pocket than others because the clip starts at the top—not halfway down the cap. This smart, balanced shape feels "at home" in the hand—and writes with our famous 47th improvement—Pressureless Touch.

Go see this revolutionary Convertible Duofold at any nearby pen counter.

Twenty girls, chosen for their charm and conversational brilliance as well as for their knewledge of dentistry, have failed to induce Columbia students to have their teeth cleaned at the university's dental clinic, according to the New York Times.

Dr. Anna V. Hughes, in charge of the clinic, said that there had not been enough business so far to keep one assistant active.

It is believed that any attraction offered the students by the pretty assistants was more than offset by the fear of the students in admitting that their teeth needed cleaning.
