State Rifle Team Seek Collegiate Title Third Time

Twenty Men Will Shoot In Seventy-One Matches This Year

FRANK DVORAK HIGH WITH 644 POINTS

Three High Men In Veteran And Beginner Class Given Medals

The ten day tryouts of the candidates for the North Dakota State College rifle team came to an end Wednesday afternoon. A total of 93 men had competed during the preliminary stages and 46 of these survived for the final course. Of these the 20 high men will comprise the 1930 squad which starts next Monday to defend a two year National Collegiate championship.

The tryout furnished few surprises to those who have been following the daily work of the aspirants but those which did materialize were of a startling character, the chief one being the splendid showing made by Otto Wolhowe of Verendrye, N. D., who came through in the final course with a much better score than previous practice had indicated, to finish fourth among the tyro or beginners class.

Frank Dvorak, veteran of three years, led the team with 644 points, clearly demonstrating his superiority over the field. He was followed by Morris Barks of Egeland with 629 and Elmer Bothum of McVillie with 624. These three men are all seniors and this is their first year. They win the gold, silver and bronze medals offered for the high tryout scores.

Edward Comm of Fargo was sixth with a score of 607 and the high tyro, receiving an additional gold medal which was offered to the beginners and for which lettermen could not compete. Norman McKendry of Mandan and Donald Haarman of Fargo were the second and third tyros.

Other successful members were Captain Glenn Schessow of Fargo, Earl Schessow of Fargo, Arthur Johnson, manager, of Hurdsfield, K. Piper of Ashley, Vern Smith of Twin Valley, Minn., Jerome Olson of Havana. Alvin Lee of Valley City, Leslie Hanelt of Fargo, James Newton of Fargo, Clarence Vogul of Lark, Wayne Curtis of Fargo, Lawrence Ryan of Marmarth and Albert Sannes of Oriska.

Next week the team starts on a long grind which is to cover a schedule of 71 matches. During the coming week they will fire against Ohio State university, University of Kentucky, University of Maine, University of Alabama, and Connecticut Agricultural college.

Captain Ross, team coach, expressed his satisfaction as to the results of the tryout but cautioned the team members that they were a long way from being the team that they are succeeding and that continued improvement would be necessary over the coming week before they could hope to equal its record. He stated in addition, that efforts would be made to point the team for the National Intercollegiate and the Hearts Trophy matches which are held in March, saying that success in either or both of them would be the factors which would determine the success of the season as a whole.

Gamma Tau Sigma Holds Initiation

Faber, Welch, And Hodgson Become Members Of Fraternity

Gamma Tau Sigma formally initiated Anthony T. Faber, Ralph Welch, and Earl Hodgson, last night following a banquet held in the Ceres Hall green room.

Alumni who were present at the services included Richard Hackenburg, editor of The Spectrum in 1927-1928; Ralph Hollands, business manager of the Bison during 1927-1928; Eugene Fitzgerald, editor of The Spectrum in 1924-1925; Edward Yocum, editor of The Spectrum during the 1925-1926 session. T. Wordon Johnson, of the N. D. S. C. publications department, was honorary guest of this meeting.

Gamma Tau Sigma is a local honorary journalistic fraternity, and has for its purpose the recognition of State students who have shown marked ability in this field, and the discussion of journalistic problems of national and local significance.

GARAY SISTERS PRESENT THIRD LYCEUM COURSE

The third number of the 1929-30 Lyceum course under the auspices of North Dakota State college was presented Wednesday evening, Jan. 22, in the college armory by the Garay sisters' trio.

They presented a well balanced program of Hungarian and American numbers, numbering among the last, Friml's Indian Love Call, Duovork's Humoresque, and Kreisler's Old Re-frain. Their interpretation of Brahms' Hungarian Dance No. 6, was especially effective.

The piano solos were well received by the audience, and The Butterfly Etude by Chopin showed a careful technique and perfection of finish.

Charles Heilman, commissioner of Public Speaking, presented the artists.

Afternoon Dance To Be Continued

"Y" Hops Began As Experiment That Has Proven Successful

"The splendid response by State students given the 'Y' hops has convinced us that the weekly parties are appreciated by the student body," said Prof. R. Otterson today, "and the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. boards have determined to continue afternoon dances throughout the winter term."

This statement coming from the secretary of the college "Y" answers the question prevalent on the campus as to the success of this innovation in the social world. Began as an experiment, the weekly parties were well attended and proved to be popular with all.

The first "Y" hop was held last term shortly after the beginning of the basketball season prohibited the staging in the armory of the dances sponsored by Scabbard and Blade military fraternity. A wish that some other place be found for the social events was expressed by a majority of the student body and the college Christian Associations undertook the responsibility for their continuance.

The hops are now held in the lobby of the college "Y" building each Thursday afternoon at 4 p. m. except when otherwise announced.

New Farm Films Listed In Catalog

A list of new agricultural moving picture films are included in a catalog of films and lantern slides which has just been issued here, according to W. C. Palmer, director of publicity and visual instruction service.

Articles on the care of films, fire precaution and general regulations are set forth in the pamphlet as a guide to film users in the various parts of North Dakota who make use of this service.

Comedies, general films and feature films of both educational and entertaining nature are also available to schools, clubs, county agents and communities wishing to enlighten their programs with the cinema, Mr. Palmer stated.

"Demand for this service has increased rapidly during the ten years since the department was started," Mr. Palmer pointed out, "and we have received requests from every county in the state."

Varied list of educational, agricultural and religious lantern slides are also listed in the catalog which may be obtained by writing the Visual Instruction Service, State College Station, Fargo.

COLLEGE DECLAMATORY CONTEST AT 4 O'CLOCK

At 4 o'clock this afternoon, in the Little Country Theatre, nine students will compete in the 35th annual college declamation contest. This is the outstanding public speaking and oratorical event of the year. A gold medal will be presented to the winner of first place. Contestants and their declamations are as follows: Earl Hodgson—"A Different Pair of Shoes."

Glen Hoople—"How Tom Sawyer Whitewashed the Fence."

L2brecht Klebe—"John Graham."

Von McKechnie—"Appeal to Arms."

Margaret Morris—"Confessions."

Ruth Olafson—"The Perfect Tribute."

Dorthea Olson—"The Sign of the Cross."

Mart Vogel—"The Eleventh Commandment."

Joe Paulson—"The Sign of the Cross."

Ross Rewarded By Promotion To Captaincy

Guided Two Rifle Teams To Intercollegiate Championships

AWARDED DISTINGUISHED MARKSMANSHIP MEDAL

Entered Army Service 14 Years Ago; Came Here In 1927

Being promoted to the rank of Captain in the United States Army from that of First lieutenant, is the distinction accorded Frank M. Ross, a member of the North Dakota State college military staff, according to a message received last Saturday.

Having entered the army service 14 years ago, Captain Ross came to the college in 1927, being transferred here from Fort Snelling. Of the many accomplishments he has made, both before and since coming to the college, many of them are in rifle team work.

Only three years after entering the service, Captain Ross was successful in becoming a member of the Infantry Rifle Team composed of the ten outstanding riflemen in the infantry branch of the army. He maintained membership in this team for the next four years, playing in the Army Team in 1922. Men were selected from the different branches of service for this team. In 1925, Captain Ross was honored by being awarded a distinguished marksman medal.

Among his many accomplishments since becoming a member of the military staff at this college, is the coaching of two national rifle teams. In May, 1928, and again in the following year, the college rifle team won the highest honors in the National Intercollegiate Gallery Rifle matches.

During the time he has served in the United States Army, Captain Ross has spent some time in foreign service, being stationed at Manila for two years. He also made a tour of the Orient and of the East Indian countries at that time.

Captain Ross is to be the guest of honor at a stag party to be given by Alpha Sigma Tau fraternity, of which Mr. Ross is an honorary member. The party will be held Sunday afternoon.

Night School Shows Attendance Increase

New Courses Boosted From 225 In The Fall To 320 In Winter

An increase of 35 percent in the attendance at the night classes in business and mechanic arts courses offered at Fargo high school, city Y. M. C. A., and the North Dakota State college over last term, has been announced by Dr. P. J. Trowbridge, director of the experiment station at the college.

In the fall term the attendance reached the 225 mark and this quarter it has increased to 320. The classes are held the first five nights of every week at the three institutions and are open to anyone interested in the work offered.

Several new subjects have been added to the curricula—they are: commercial law, salesmanship, extemporaneous speech, parliamentary law, the American novel, the short story, mathematics of finance, window decoration and show card writing. These are added to the fall list which included the following: public speaking, general science, freshman English, accounting and bookkeeping, French, German, history, free hand drawing and philosophy.

CHEMISTS CLUB IS WELL ATTENDED

The Chemists club had a large attendance at their meeting Thursday evening, Jan. 23, according to the president. The program was especially attractive, offering the second of a series of class programs by the Junior Chemists, and a talk by Prof. John Doerr on the Relation of Chemistry to Geology.

Refreshments were served after the program.

Miss Arlene Burt, having completed two weeks at the practice house, has returned to her home.

TEXTILE EXHIBIT SHOWS ROOM SETS

Materials for seven complete room sets are included in the textile exhibit which has been on display in the art studio for the past week. This exhibit is sent out by Mrs. Winnifred Fales from the Studio of Decorative Arts and Crafts in New York City, under the auspices of the Federation of Women's Clubs.

Included in these sets are materials of mohair for the drapes, chair coverings, glass coverings and the lounge of a living room, man's den, and two bedrooms, as well as similar combinations in silk.

There are over 50 materials, a great many being imports from France, England, and the Orient.

Revamped Pep Club Will Entertain

New Outfits And Cheerleader Will Make Initial Debut

The newly organized Pep club will make its premiere debut of the season with a bit of entertainment between halves at the Bunny-Bison game tonight, according to Leonard Luther, president of the club.

The costume to be used this year will consist of white shirts and trousers, as formerly, the monotony of which is broken by green and yellow sashes and similarly colored gloves.

At a recent meeting of the club Art Cayou was unanimously elected Pep club cheer leader. Having an individual cheer leader for the Pep club is a new departure which, it is thought, will be a big advantage.

The Pep club now consists of the following 45 regular members: Leonard Luther, Bob Olson, Arthur Ziegler, Ross Cook, G. Widdifield, Morris Barks, E. Bothum, Art Knight, C. Albrecht, Glen McCleary, Orville Call, Jim Moore, Jim Parkins, John Owen, Tom Fisk, L. Reager, Adolph Pahl, B. Benid, Verne Skjonsby, Chet Co-meau, Walt Lagerberg, Vic Madsen, R. Schroeder, E. Booth, G. Strong, R. Simonson, C. Fredrickson, Ralph Huff, John Rooney, H. E. Peterson, Melfred Monson, Bill Strible, H. Scott, Bob Danstrom, Milt Hagen, Carl Hanson, Paul Kasson, John Kleine, R. Willert, G. Grieve, E. Ellingson, Art Cayou, Frank Clark, Fred Anderson, and John Dixon.

Blakeslee Announces Sight Seeing Class

Hours Credit To Be Given In New Course To Aid Singers

Miss Adda Blakeslee of the Musical Department of North Dakota State announces that a class in Sight Reading of Music will organize and begin work in the near future. As it is planned, this, consisting of 20 or more members, will meet every Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the North Dakota State Glee club rehearsal room in the Mechanic Arts building.

This course in the Sight Reading of Music will entitle the students participating to one full credit.

Miss Blakeslee feels that candidates who recently tried out for the glee club and found themselves handicapped by not being able to read music will appreciate this opportunity to learn more of music and to become better equipped to sing in the club itself. Many excellent singers will be unable to join the glee club because they are not versed in the rudiments of music. Any of the girl students who wish to take advantage of this opportunity to learn more of this art will be welcome.

There will be an entrance fee of $1 to help defray some of the expenses of the course which will cover a series of ten classes.

TAUS TO HONOR ROSS WITH BIG STAG PARTY

Captain Ross will be the honored guest of the Alpha Sigma Tau fraternity Sunday afternoon when the members gather at the chapter house for a big stag party.

Mr. Ross has recently been promoted from a lieutenancy and is now a captain of the ROTC unit here. The captain is an honorary member of the fraternity. Bernie Benid is general chairman of the arrangements.

The Women's Athletic Association will have a swimming party at the Fargo High School pool on January 30, at 8 o'clock. Myrna Ottinger is in charge of arrangements.

Bunnies Invade Bison Stronghold In Game Tonight

Bison Stand At Head Of Conference Percentage Column

ENGLEMAN OUTSTANDING FOR SOUTH DAKOTANS

Nodak Victory Turns Title Chase Into Big Free-For-All

Thanks to an inspired Nodak team North Dakota State college sits alone at the top of the North Central Intercollegiate conference percentage column today. After tonight's battle with South Dakota State they may be either one game nearer a title, if they win, or dropped to third place in the conference standings, if they lose.

Coach Leonard Saalwaechter feels reasonably confident that his Bison aggregation can take the Bunnies' measure if they continue the fine style of basketball play they have exhibited in previous home games this season. The Yellow and Green mentor feels just a bit uneasy over the condition of his star guard, Pete Gergen, who has been ill most of a week with a severe cold. Gergen's condition may prove a vital factor in tonight's game.

When a North Dakota university lineup upset the Jackrabbits on their home floor on last Monday night it became evident that there are no weak sisters in the N. C. I basketball race this season. The Nodaks with fewer veterans than some of the other organizations seemed headed for the cellar position after losing three straight conference contests. When Coach Letich turned loose a new combination to decisively beat the Bunnies it became more apparent that the title fight was going to be a free-for-all. South Dakota State lost nothing of its championship prestige in this surprise defeat. The 1929 title holders appeared still out of condition from a long and tiresome 2,500-mile tour through the middle west. Coach George Edmonds believes that by the time his charges take the floor at Fargo tonight they will be back in their own form and hot in pursuit of another championship.

In this test of strength the Bison team will find themselves arrayed against five finished basketekers. Engleman, Nicholson and Herting are all conference holdovers from last year and around these veterans Edmonds has built a smooth running machine. Hamann and Lowe are likely to be the other two in the starting lineup.

Wert Engleman, giant center, is without doubt the most colorful player in the eyes of local sports enthusiasts. For three years he has been an outstanding performer on conference gridirons and basketball courts, and his name in the lineup has always helped to boost the gate receipts. Engleman is also one of the greatest track stars in the N. C. I. loop. His appearance in a South Dakota State uniform tonight will be the last on a Fargo court as he graduates with the June 1930 class.

Putney Leads In Bison Competition

Classes Section To Be Most Representative In History Of College

In a cut selling competition between assistants for the classes section in the Bison, Alice Putney topped her nearest competitor by 16 and accumulated a total of 39. Ben Kouba was second in the race, it is announced by Adolph Pahl, business manager of the book. Other contestants were: John Mund, Joyce Peterson, Everett Knutson, Hazel Harris, Ruth Whitney, Agnes Weible, and Joe Paulson.

Credit must be given to the people who entered the competition for the unusual success of the classes section in the year book, which promises to be the most representative in the history of the college, according to Mr. Pahl.

ATTENTION!

All students will enter the west door on the south side of the armory for the remaining basketball games.

C. C. Finnegan.

COLLEGIATE PEOPLE

The word "collegiate" is the most misused word in the English language today. No one knows for sure where this word originated, or who originated it. The dictionary definition for "collegiate" is—of or pertaining to—a college. This definition must have been written before the World war because it would not fit the use of the word since then.

Nine-tenths of the people who have collegiate Fords, wear collegiate clothes and do collegiate dancing are not connected with a college in any way, and many of them never expect to have anything to do with one. The students in the universities and colleges who are supposed to set these fads and styles really do not set them and most students do not participate in them. How many students in this school have collegiate Fords with writing all over the body? How many students are seen doing the varsity drag at a school dance? It is true that supposed collegiate clothes are worn by students, but this is because they are the style and are handled by all the clothing stores. It would be rather hard to find a suit with narrow pistol-leg breeches in a clothing store today.

To be really truthful about it, collegiate clothes are introduced by clothing manufacturers, collegiate dances are given to the public by stage dancers, and all collegiate Fords are owned by high school students. College students do not have a thing to do with the creation of these new fads, and hardly any of them have anything to do with the fads, but they are still given credit for these new ideas.—Southern California Daily Trojan.

TWO ROADS

In every walk of life there are two roads, the easy road and the hard road—to failure or success. They run very close together. They are separated only by fear and fearlessness. Fear is man's worst enemy. Those who have risen to immortality have cast fear aside as a hindrance to creative thought. Those who appear in our halls of fame are the visionaries who have carried on because they were determined to win.

The dreamers are the saviors of the world. Humanity cannot forget them; it cannot let their ideals fade; it lives in them; it knows them as the realities which it shall one day see and know. These are the architects of heaven. Without them laboring humanity would perish.

He who cherishes a beautiful vision or lofty ideal in his heart, will one day realize his hopes. Columbus, Copernicus, Buddha, Christ—fostered visions that were unquenchable. Cherish your visions, your ideals, the music that stirs in your heart, the beauty that forms in your mind, the loveliness that drapes your purest thoughts, for out of them will develop the ideal environment for the production of something that the world will remember.

The Vision that you glorify in your mind, the Ideal that you enthrone in your heart—upon these will you build your life; these you will become.

BOOKS

FUGITIVES RETURN

By Susan Glaspell

Here is one of the most beautiful books of the year, one of the loveliest prose narratives we have read. Without the blatant heraldry of the high power press agents, without the brilliant ballyhoo of publishers' agents and newspaper reporters, of book club boards and ladies' literary societies, Susan Glaspell has quietly, almost silently, moved into the front.

With the sensitive biography of her husband, George Cram Cook, and the story of their relations with the Provincetown players and their years in Greece, "Road to the Temple", and the exquisite sketch, "Brook Evans", Miss Glaspell showed herself an artist of achievement, of perfection of detailed breadth of vision. She can color each thread to the exact shade of iridescent loveliness and tie it with carefully concentrated attention, and yet she never, as do so many authors, lose sight of the great pattern.

"Fugitives' Return" is only one more proof of her consummate artistry. It is a sensitive portrait of the emotions of a woman who has loved greatly, both her husband and her child, and who has lost both, and with them her life, and almost her reason, but who returns to gather up with courage what is left and wait for death. In its perception and depth of feeling, of complete understanding of mood and nuance, it is a picture in part or whole, of the emotions of almost every woman. This alone would be enough to place the book on a high place, but beyond this it is a thing of beauty, of sheer loveliness. It is an experience.

26 Counties To Hold Farm Outlook Meets

Trend Of Agricultural Prices Will Be Studied In Detail

Twenty-six county agricultural outlook meetings, starting Feb. 10, have been scheduled by Rex E. Willard, extension farm economist here, who left for Washington, D. C., Jan. 14 to study the outlook material accumulated by the United States Department of Agriculture. T. D. Johnson, agricultural economist of the department of agriculture, is to accompany Mr. Willard on the coming outlook meetings.

Nine of the 26 outlook meetings will be held in conjunction with county economic conferences this winter. O. M. Fuller, farm economist, will be in charge of this group.

The outlook information for this state will be from the standpoint of world, national and local production and consumption conditions, with particular consideration to trends and probable production in foreign countries for the coming year. Imports, exports, effect of tariff and general trend of prices under varying market conditions are to be considered. Wheat and flax are to be taken up in detail. Probable prices of dairy products, sheep, wool, beef and hogs will be discussed.

At all of the meetings facts and information contributed by farmers will be welcomed, according to Mr. Willard. Any farm product will be considered in detail if desired. The meetings will be held in cooperation with the county extension agent. Printed copies of the agricultural outlook for North Dakota will be available at each meeting. The yearly outlook will take the place of the February outlook pre-

"Go To Meetin" — The Crystal Where Everybody Meets Saturday Night

Ebullitions of Ebony Blott

By Everett Wallum

Ominous signs of approaching boxing tournaments cause us to note that Jimmy Slattery's opponent will put a Tang in the struggle.

Girls can watch the battles if they wish, Lieutenant Smith needs no powder to strike off these matches.

THERE'S NO SUCH TUSSELS SLATED FOR THE GIRLS, SO WE GUESS THE COEDS WILL HAVE TO SCRATCH ALONG THE BEST THEY CAN.

In an interview with Bollman and Dvorak, the two scrappers admitted they would win.

"Porcupine" Dvorak says he has the stiffest beard as ever pierced the lobe of an ear.

AND BOLLMAN AVOWS THAT THE SOCK ON HIS RIGHT HAS MORE STRENGTH THAN THAT ON HIS GREAT AUNT'S TOOTSIE.

The fighters are so hard they're brittle, so when the referee says "break" it'll mean just that.

"Canada Dry" McCullough will enter nothing but a riot. He's the best mixer in a crowd.

"DOC" PUTNAM IS HOPING SOMEONE WILL GET A CAULIFLOWER EAR. HE NEEDS A SOUSAPHONE.

The boxing season must be in earnest. We can't get one of Shakespeare's books at the library any more.

In a lot of ways this scrapping is black eye to the institution.

Prohibition officers will be present see that combatants withhold their nch.

IF THEY'RE MORE THAN 1/2 OF PERCENT DIZZY, THEY'LL AVE TO THROW IN THE TOWEL.

Boxers who accept pointers often t stuck.

ANDY GUMP HAS POSTED $500 TO THE FIRST BOXER WHO HITS HIM ON THE CHIN.

We'd enter the tournament, but the les say that a fellow can be eliminated—not extinct.

JUST SO THEY DON'T HAVE NY LONG COUNTS. WE DON'T KE THESE TALL FOREIGNERS.

ADDITIONAL ASSETS

Every evening around 5 o'clock a steady stream of customers make their way to the side door in the basement floor of the dairy building to get their supplies of milk and cream for the next day. The making of cheese, icecream, butter and buttermilk in laboratory is a daily occurrence to Prof. James Dice and Chris Jensen, supervisors of this department of the School of Agriculture. Another important function of the dairy work is that of judging dairy products, also that of sampling, analyzing and testing the products.

Judging of dairy cattle also comes under the direction of these two men and North Dakota Agricultural college has reason to be proud of the teams they have turned out. They come into prominence during the time of the Little International show.

STUDENT OPINION

Dear Editor:

Members and officers of the Cosmopolitan club wish to correct an erroneous conception or lack of conception of the purpose of their club. Prevalent among a few students is the idea that fighting the fraternities is the aim of the organization. No one affiliated with the club has ever had such intention or entertained any like notion, or acted from any such motive. The club is simply non-fraternity and not anti-fraternity. Its work at the present is to encourage acquaintanceship and friendship among the students and to hold several social functions throughout the year.

Bison Pucksters Chase Disc With Moorhead Sextet

Strong Comet Hockey Stars Boast One Of Fastest Outfits In N. W.

PURCELL DEVELOPING ALL-AROUND SQUAD

Captain McGrath Has Brilliant Sophomore Stars In Lineup

Captain McGrath and his pucksters are rapidly rounding into shape for their initial appearance on the home rink Saturday, at 2:30 p. m., when they will oppose the All-Star Comet sextet from Moorhead. The Moorhead aggregation boasts one of the strongest independent hockey teams in the Northwest. Some of their well-known stars are: the hard-driving Wambach brothers, Rene and Lottie, Eddie Norman, "String" Swenson, Jimmie Konen, and numerous other stars of less distinction.

Coach Purcell has one of the best all-around squads developed at the State college in recent years. Competition for positions is so keen that no starting lineup is yet available, but with men like Captain McGrath, Blakeslee, Knight, Stefferud, Anderson, and Kilbourne in the forward line, the Comet defense is sure to have a busy day, while the Bison defense can be handled by McLaughlin, Bollman, Quam, and Brown, all of whom are capable under fire.

The former Bison goalie, Jimmie Konen, will be guarding Moorhead's net, with Amos Van Vorst, and Wesley Moore performing similar duties for State. Van Vorst, although new to Bison hockey, has shown much ability in stopping the black disc, and will undoubtedly see plenty of action throughout the season.

The members of the Women's Athletic Association elected Lillian Lindsay and Ellen Kelly secretary and skating manager to take the places of Lillian Wangness and Camille Alfred, former executives who did not return to school.

INTERFRATERNITY BASKETBALL RULES

1. A letterman of basketball of this college is not eligible to compete in the interfraternity basketball league. (This revision is to be in effect starting with the school year of 1930-31.)

2. No player is eligible to play in the league if he has played with or has been a member of either the varsity or freshman squads until Christmas of that year. He must receive permission to quit squad, from coach concerned.

3. A player must be a bona fide student of the North Dakota State college to be eligible to compete.

4. Each team will play every other team once in the first round of the league. Rating the teams on a percentage basis, the four highest teams of the first round play for the chamampionship of the league by only a three game elimination.

5. Each fraternity must submit to Coach Lowe a list of the ten men that comprise the squad.

6. If for any reason a team is not able to play a game at the scheduled time, Coach Lowe must be notified in ample time (without exception) to receive his permission to have the game postponed.

7. In case a team is not present 15 minutes after the scheduled time without special permission from Coach Lowe, the game is to be forfeited to the opposing team that is present.

Without the cooperation of each fraternity in abiding by these rules, the interfraternity league cannot be a success, consequently care should be taken that each rule is observed.

8. Games won by any team playing an ineligible man will be forfeited.
