Campus Groups Try Tomorrow For Brevities

Judges Will Pick Five Fraternity And Four Sorority Acts

HIGH SCHOOL CHOSEN FOR PRESENTATION

Competition Is Strong Because Of High Standard Set In 1929

Culminating fraternity and sorority practice sessions, tryouts for the Second Edition of the Bison Brevities will be held at the college Y. M. C. A. Saturday afternoon, Jan. 18, from 1 to 6 p. m., it was announced today by Everett Wallum, manager of the 1930 production. Judges will select nine acts, four sororities and five fraternities, from the 15 organizations competing.

The college Y. M. C. A., which did not enter an act last year, has signified its intention of trying out Saturday.

Heated competition among the groups because of the high standard set last year has led managers of the event to predict an unusually hard job of picking the winning entries.

This Blue Key event will be held in the Fargo High School Auditorium, March 3 and 4, according to word received from the manager yesterday. The Orpheum theater where the show was held last year will be used by a Stock Company on those dates and was therefore not available.

The tryout schedule is as follows:

Alpha Kappa Phi.....	1:00 to 1:15
Sigma Phi Delta.....	1:20 to 1:35
Phi Kappa Lambda.....	1:40 to 1:55
Delta Kappa Sigma.....	2:00 to 2:15

Architects Begin Prize Competition

Winner of National Contest Is Given Scholarship to Paris

The first preliminary elimination in the annual Paris Prize competition, which is open to students in the Department of Architecture, will be held on Saturday morning, Jan. 18, at 10 o'clock, according to Mr. Homer Huntoon, head of the department.

This contest is sponsored by the Institute of Beau Arts of New York and is entered into by architects throughout the country. Any American citizen under 27 years of age is eligible to enter his work in the contest. The winners of the contest in the various parts of the country are eliminated one by one until finally one man is elected to receive the Paris Prize which consists of a scholarship to Paris.

The contestants have 12 hours in which to complete their problem, being supervised throughout this time to insure their work being original. The usual problems assigned are of a classical nature, church facades and memorial monuments being the theme for the past two years.

YMCA Basketball Directed by Hanson

Sixty-four college men are participating in a basketball contest held every Wednesday and Monday evening at the Y gym. The games are under the direction of Oscar Hanson with the assistance of Rod McMillan and is called the "Y. M. C. A. Basketball League." Through this organization basketball enthusiasts who are not members of either the varsity or fraternity teams are given the opportunity to take part in actual competition.

The eight teams are: the Y-A team, Y-B team, Tappa Keggs, Collegiate Comets, Farm Husbandry, Volden's team, Bison Babies, and Campus Shieks.

Garay Sisters To Appear Wednesday

Featuring the Garay Sisters, distinguished musical artists of Budapest, the third number of the 19th annual lyceum series will be presented in the college armory next Wednesday evening at 8:15 o'clock.

The musical concert will be presented by two sisters, the Misses Elizabeth and Yalanda Garay. Miss Elizabeth is a violinist while Miss Yalanda is a violincellist. Assisting the Garay Sisters will be their pianist and accompanist, Miss Helen Lindsey.

Engineering Society Enters State College

Association Will Be Closely Affiliated to Engineer's Organization

At a recent meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers Council a petition from the Mechanical Engineering department at N. D. S. C. for a Student Branch was acted upon and sanctioned.

The work of the society consists largely in the promotion of technical research and standardization, the holding of meetings where members, gathering to hear papers read and discussed by the prominent technologists regarding the latest developments in particular phases of Mechanical Engineering, profit by the contact of mind with mind; the dissemination of technical knowledge through the distribution of printed matter in the Quarterly Professional Division Section of "Transactions", the monthly journal of the society, "Mechanical Engineering", and other media. Engineering progress can best be secured through concerted action by a well known organization.

Acquaints Students With Practical Side

The principal objects of a Student Branch are: to give the student some acquaintance with the practical side of the field of mechanical engineering; to furnish the student the principal publications of the society and to keep him in touch with engineering progress; to develop the student's initiative and ability to speak in public, and to familiarize him with parliamentary procedure and organization of learned societies; to enable the student to establish fraternal contact with his fellow students in engineering, and to meet older men actively engaged in mechanical engineering; and to permit the student to attend as a welcome guest the general meetings of the society.

The A. S. M. E. Student Branch together with its sister organization, the A. I. E. E. Student Branch, are closely affiliated with the Engineers club.

Election to membership in the Student Branches is made in the Junior year from members of the Engineers club. Student members upon graduation become Junior members of the national societies.

The officers of the newly formed Student Branch of the A. S. M. E. are as follows: Albert W. Anderson, chairman; Amil J. Lund, vice-chairman; Melvin W. Hunt, secretary-treasurer; Victor M. Madsen, Harvey F. Groves, programs; and Dean R. M. Dolve, member of the A. S. M. E., honorary chairman.

RALPH ENGER WEDS MISS ESTHER BOYER

Ralph Enger, '29, an alumnus of Kappa Psi fraternity, and Miss Esther Boyer, '29, an alumnus of Phi Omega Pi sorority, were married Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 15. The services were read by Rev. Sorenson of Moorhead. Members of the two fraternal groups discovered the intended secret in time to personally give the couple their congratulations before they departed on their honeymoon.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA TO ENTERTAIN ELUMNI

Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority will entertain alumnae of Delta Phi Beta and Kappa Kappa Gamma at a tea Sunday, from 4 to 6 p. m., in their chapter rooms. Elizabeth Woolledge has charge of the arrangements.

Because of the large number of girls out for basketball, the girls have been divided into classes. The Freshman and Seniors practice on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights. The Juniors and Sophomores practice on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday nights.

NOTICE!
This afternoon is the last day for entering the college declamatory contest. L. C. T.

Football Team Sets Scholastic Record

Every Man Earning Letter Passes Required 12 Hours

A record which has not been equalled in many years at North Dakota State college or for that matter at any college or university, has been established by the 20 Bison players who won letters in varsity football last fall.

Every man made his required 12 hours in the fall term which ended with the Christmas holidays.

"It may be tough on the athletic association's purse to buy all these sweaters but mighty gratifying just the same," is the way Director of Athletics C. C. (Casey) Finnegan summarized the situation. He pointed out that this accomplishment was no easy feat when it is remembered that the Bison football team went through one of the toughest schedules in many years. There were several long trips which took considerable time away from classes. Finnegan believes that a system of study hours which he instituted on these long jaunts may have been of some help in keeping the athletes up in their studies.

It is also a matter of record that the institutional average of 81.6 points at North Dakota State for the fall term was 1.5 points higher than for the same term a year ago and 2 points above the past five year average.

Leading the field for the football men was the stellar young sophomore tackle, Horace McGrath, with an average of 85.9. Close behind him was Alf Skaret, veteran guard, with an average of 84. Rod McMillan was third with 83.2. The other members of the team above 80 in order of standing were Johnny Smith, 82.1; George Fairhead, 81.9; Arthur Howland, 81.5; Leo May, 80.2.

Rod McMillan, Oscar Hanson, Leonard Friberg, Johnny Smith and Leo Thomasson carried the heaviest scholastic loads for the team during the term. All four of them passed in 19 hours of work.

Inter-Fraternity Competition Keen

Kappa Psis, Kappa Phis, Sigma Taus, and Delta Sigs Win Openers

The favorites in the Inter-Fraternity Basketball league came through with wins in the opening games played so far.

The Kappa Psi quint completely overpowered the Sigma Phi Delta five in the opening contest by a 31 to 7 score. Osman and Grove were the mainstays for the Kappa Psi troup, while Madsen and Hall did the best work for the Engineers.

The well organized Sigma Tau aggregation was too much for the Kappa Sigma Chi to handle and as a result the Taus were on top of a 27 to 16 score at the completion of hostilities. Braus with five field goals and Allison with five points were high scorers for the victors. Jordre and Grieve showed up well for the Kappa Sigma Chis.

The Alpha Kappa Phi basketballers started off the second night of play with a win when the Theta Chis fell before their onslaught by a top heavy score of 38 to 13. The Kappa Phi presented a well balanced team that held the upper hand throughout. Hanson and Hermes looked the best for the winners while Raymond and Hiltz showed up well for the Theta Chis.

The neatly clad Delta Sigs took a torrid contest from a strong Gamma Rho quint in the best game so far. This game was a battle from beginning to end with the Sigs eking out a win in the last few minutes of play. Weible and Viel were the high scorers for the Sigs while Robertson and McKinnon were the Rhos' best bets.

Students under 18 years of age at the University of Omaha will be arrested if they are found on the streets of that city after 8 p. m. The resolution was made by the W. C. T. U. of Omaha.

Boys of 14 nationalities and 16 religious sects are in attendance at the American school for boys in the old city of Bagdad, Iraq, founded four years ago.

Two Hundred Couples To Attend Military Ball

Delta Psi Kappa To Give Benefit Bridge

Delta Psi Kappa, honorary physical education fraternity will give a benefit bridge on Jan. 25, in the Ceres hall parlors, from 3 to 5:30.

Each girl is in charge of four tables. The tallies will be made in the form of the Delta Psi Kappa insignia. During the refreshments, a trio composed of Belle Shalit, Velv: Rudd and Gwen Lollis will entertain the guests.

Luella McDunn has charge of the refreshments. Althea Winn, president of the fraternity, is general chairman.

Excellent Glee Club Material Is Found

Homer Huntoon Expects to Have Chorus of Fifty Blended Voices

The future of the North Dakota State College Men's Glee club looks very bright indeed, according to Professor Huntoon, director of the club. Twenty-seven men attended the tryouts on Wednesday at the Alpha Kappa Phi house, and many more were present at the tryouts on Thursday. Mr. Huntoon expects to have a glee club of 50 or 60 men in all.

"My material so far is excellent," states Prof. Huntoon. "I have four outstanding basses, three above-the-average tenors, and the remaining material is excellent."

"I knew that this college had some good musical talent, but the tryouts have succeeded my fondest hopes. I am more than enthusiastic about the interest the boys are taking in this organization, and I expect this glee club to be second to none."

Business Courses Offered Thru Mail

Four business courses are now being offered to the public through the mail by the department of correspondence at the North Dakota Agricultural college, according to an announcement by T. W. Thordarson, director of correspondence. The courses are bookkeeping I, typewriting, shorthand I, and business letter writing.

The purpose of the business courses, points out Mr. Thordarson, is to acquaint the average person with business methods that come in handy in every day life. It will give farmers and young people who cannot leave the farm in the winter a chance to study business courses. More detailed information concerning these courses is available by writing the department of correspondence at the college.

More than 500 persons in all parts of the country, and especially in North Dakota, will be enrolled in college correspondence courses during year.

Winter Term Finds Nearly 1500 Enrolled

School Of Mechanic Arts Is Still Largest With 278 Students

Two hundred and forty more students are registered at N. D. S. C. than were enrolled at this time a year ago—1,475 is the total registration to date. At this writing there were 10 or 12 who had not completed their registration which is an indication that the enrollment within a week will reach approximately 1,485 or nearly 1,500.

There are 921 men and 386 women in attendance. Freshmen number 507, sophomores 320, juniors 263, seniors 299, and graduates 11, and specials 7. The school of mechanic arts with 278 claims the largest number. The school of science and literature is second with 242, and the school of education with 208 ranks third. One hundred and sixteen are enrolled in the vocational courses in agriculture and engineering.

Each Program Dance to Be Announced by Corps Bugler

RED JACKETS PROMISE MUSIC OF QUALITY

Decorations of Army Life Are Featured by Committee

The Grand March of 200 couples, led by Captain Neal Baldwin and Miss Helen Carstenson with Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Lawrence Parsons, and Honorary Lieutenant Colonel Miss Glade Cawles second in line, will formally open the 15th annual Military Ball of the North Dakota State college at 9 p. m. tonight in the Crystal Ballroom. The line will pass through an arch of sabers formed by the cadet officers of the senior class.

Ted Lagerberg of the Drum and Bugle corps will announce each of the 12 dances of the program by a bugle call. The Crystal Ballroom Red Jackets, led by Mike Doty, will furnish the music which includes several military arrangements. Informal dancing will precede the Grand March and the formal dancing will continue until 12 o'clock.

The scheme of decorations, according to Lieutenant Alf Skaret, head of the committee, will mark the party as one of the outstanding Military Balls given at the college. Military decorations will transform the ballroom into a Cadet palace with sentries, the guardhouse, rolling kitchens, army cooks, and a bugler present for atmosphere. The favors are something absolutely different and will be in keeping with the Military spirit.

Honored guests who will be present at the affair are: Col. D. S. Ritchie, 7th Corps Area, Omaha, Neb.; Col. E. M. Norton, 7th Corps Area, Omaha, Neb.; Col. W. C. Sweeney, Commandant, Fort Snelling, Minn.; Capt. F. L. Anders, Fargo; Adj. Gen. G. A. Fraser, North Dakota national guard; Lieut. Miller Haskell, 7th Corps Area, Inspector of Scabbard and Blade, Minneapolis; Governor G. S. Schafer, Bismarck; and Cadet Col. Francis T. Hillman and Hollis Selson, Second Lieutenant in Scabbard and Blade, from the University of North Dakota.

Assisting Cadet Captain Baldwin, Ball manager, is Lieutenant Colonel Parsons, Associate Ball Manager, and the following committee heads: Alf Skaret, decorations; Victor Madsen, tickets; Elmer Torkelson, finance; Lloyd Clark, door manager; Dorland Konichek, invitations; Archie Solberg, music and features; Russell Amidon, refreshments; and Everett Knutson, publicity.

Geiken Portrait Will be Unveiled

Long years of service in the livestock industry of the state by "Daddy" D. J. Geiken, will be rewarded Friday, Jan. 17, when Saddle and Sirlain club members and North Dakota Livestock breeders meet at the North Dakota Agricultural College in a banquet to pay tribute and unveil the portrait of this veteran herdsman.

Dr. J. H. Shepperd, acting president of the college, will unveil the portrait of "Daddy" before more than 300 in attendance at the banquet. The picture will be placed later in the Saddle and Sirlain Club Hall of Fame at the college where the portraits of 14 similarly honored North Dakotans now hang.

Competition Matches To Determine Rifle Team

The rifle team, according to Lieut. Frank Ross, coach, will be recruited from approximately 75 men that are now entered in competitive shooting matches. This competition will continue until sometime next week, at which time the personnel of the new team will be announced.

During the last few years riflery has attracted an increasing number of men, which is largely due to the remarkable success of past teams. With several veterans of last year's team and a practically unlimited supply of fine new material to draw from the future is decidedly rosy.

Topics in Brief

Military Ball tonight, Everybody out. And by the way let's thank the Herbst Department Store and Black's for their window displays featuring this party.

Interfraternity basketball should claim the attention of local fans. The season got under way last Tuesday evening. Here are some interesting games.

Bison Brevities tomorrow. This is this phase of our college life formally opened. Keener competition is expected for places in the show to result from the tremendous success of last year's undertaking. We believe the Bison Brevities to be one of the few outstanding events of the school year, for the participants and for this institution.

We congratulate the managers on the success of the Little International.

This term is a good one in which to dig in and study. It is easier to make that fraternity or sorority average now than in the spring session.

OFFICERS ARE NAMED BY SORORITY MOTHERS' CLUB

Mrs. F. W. Peterson was reelected president of the mothers' club of Phi Kappa Lambda sorority at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Harry R. Hill, 1145 Broadway, Monday evening.

Mrs. Ira Eddy was named vice-president; Mrs. Lief Henning, secretary; and Mrs. Anna Schroeder, treasurer.

A social hour and refreshments followed the business session.

A new international language is being perfected in Paris which bids fair to become a rival to Esperanto. It is called Occidental and is said by its adherents to be the "universal tongue of peace." Its vocabulary is of a mixture and modification of the majority of European languages with English, French, Italian, Spanish, and German furnishing the nucleus.

Dartmouth College officials claim that it costs approximately $200 to outfit each man on the Big Green team. Shoes being the most costly item.

BOOKS

THE METHODIST FAUN

By Anne Parrish

Anne Parrish has once again closely approached that goal which she sees so clearly, but is somehow removed from it by heavy veils of over-sentimentality and pathos. With a technique for plot coordination, a talent which amounts almost to genius for character delineation and dialogue, she still fails imperceptibly in her ultimate reach. In "The Methodist Faun" she tells the story of a crystallized adolescent from 18 to 30, who, turning against the Methodist conventionalism of his small town and his family, struggles to find a greater beauty. He is handicapped not so much by opposition as by his own inability and lack of strength, both of vision and execution, and what he has most desired in the end, destroys him.

With an opportunity for sensitive penetration and crystalline tragedy, Miss Parrish seems to have tired suddenly and covered the delicate tracks by heavy footmarks, and as the man who has loved the beauty of the woods and trees and sunset, frustrated by his failure in life, walks out one night in the grip of pneumonia into a blinding snowstorm and is lost, we feel only a mild pity, where we had expected something great. It is too bad that Miss Parrish should have to resort to the methods of the best-sellers with her ability for something far finer.

FIVE AND TEN

By Fannie Hurst

"Five and Ten" reminds of an old game called "Find the Needle in the Haystack." Under masses upon masses of detail and description, too sophisticated dialogue, and psycho-analyzing of the characters, there is the thin shining point of truth. The four characters who comprise the household of Rarick, thirteenth richest man in the world, his wife, his daughter, Jennife, and his son, Avery, who at eighteen kills himself because he can't fight through to the real meaning of life, are all too wrapped in the cotton wool of super-luxury to give their cramped wings room to free themselves. Jenny, Rarick's wife dies after the suicide of their son. Jennifer finds herself unable to cope with the problem, not of existence, but of life. Rarick alone realizes what has happened.

"I am worth one hundred and eighty million dollars. And yet, personally, I have never succeeded. My success succeeded. . . . In my youth I wanted one thing out of life . . . My success snatched it away." With this realization, he determines to give back to the people the money which has been begotten from millions or millions of dishpans, and ten cent rings, and paper napkins, and cheap scent. Before he dies he must accomplish this.

Life has suddenly become clear, and with it the point which Miss Hurst wishes to drive home. Read it, for there is nothing like an inoculation of truth.

New Books at Library Attract Students

Heads of the various departments of the college have ordered books for the library that are of interest to all students. Many of the 75 or more books received since Jan. 1 were published in 1929 and among the authors are such as Theodore Dreiser, E. H. Wylie, and Phil Scheidman, prominent student and writer of German history.

Among the new books are: Meaning of Culture, by J. C. Powys; Philosophy of Fiction, by G. M. Overton; Theater Practice, by Stark Young; Guide to Novels, by Jonathan Nield; Making of New Germany, two volumes, by Phil Scheidman; and Book About Myself, by Theodore Dreiser.

Don't Forget The Military Ball.

Ebullitions of Ebony Blott

By Everett Wallum

GASSING IS EXPECTED TO BE THE LEADING TYPE OF WARFARE AT THE MILITARY BALL TONIGHT.

Dashing officers will be carrying "44's" and buxom matrons will be wearing them.

A Helen is leading the grand march. While we do not believe in exact repetition of history, it may be recalled that Helen of Troy caused one of the greatest conflicts in history.

But maybe this is Helen of Avoirdupois.

And most Helens are concerned about their weight.

AND WE HEAR THAT PARTY IS BEING STAGED ON A BIG SCALE

There is no truth in the rumor that the skirmish is to have a pacifist setting.

Most parties have sponge-cake settings—a little flat.

Coed chatter will be the firing line, and it must be remembered that the gun is deadlier than the sword.

Lots of the fellows are going to wear cadet uniforms. This undoubtedly means that the dances will not tango—most probably slow waltzes.

A COUPLE OF LONG STEPS IN HOSE TROUSERS, AND THERE'S ABLE TO BE A SPLIT IN THE RMY.

So it seems, anyway.

For this event, at least, blind dates will be termed blank cartridges.

Though not for any lack of powder.

The Red Jackets are going to play. We know some Red Flannels that we just made us itch to dance.

Some of the more ardent cadets are using water pistols to subdue the girls with the permanent waves.

The floor manager is anticipating a busy evening. He had to floor about 'em at the party last year.

MANY SOLDIERS WHO DATED GIRLS AFTER JUST AN INTRODUCTION WILL FIND THAT THEY WEREN'T RIGHT ABOUT FACE.

Just because a Baldwin is Baller it is no sign that the event will be applesauce.

Out of 50 students who registered at the ground school in flying at Huntington University, only 15 have passed all the examinations required, as announced by the naval science department. These students who have passed both the regular physical exam and the flight physical exam will soon be announced.

The University of Toledo has turned ten acres of sod around the University for a new campus. Plans include a new football field, baseball diamond and tennis courts.

Bison Seek Revenge Over Science School In Game Tomorrow

Anything May Happen Unless Saalmen Are On Their Toes

MINOR INJURIES HANDICAP STATE

Wildcats Defeated Cobbers In Game Earlier In Season

When the Bison take the floor against the Wahpeton Science Wildcats Saturday night at 8 o'clock, they will be out to revenge a bitter defeat suffered at the hands of this same crew two years ago. The prospects for victory are not as bright as they might be, due to minor injuries sustained by three of State's performers, Goodwin, Seitz, and Blakeslee. Coach Saalweachter expects that Goodwin will be in shape to play if he is badly needed, but will probably start Fairhead and Bliss at the forward positions.

Undoubtedly the most salient point in the Wildcats' favor is the fact that Coach Earl Bute has virtually the same team with him for this game as he had two years ago when they defeated the Bison. Saalweachter is of the opinion, however, that his charges will come through with a victory unless they fail to take the game seriously. It is certain that the Science team will be inspired to maintain their jinx, and it will take some pretty good basketball to best them under the circumstances.

Bute's team defeated the powerful Concordia college, and it will be remembered that the Cobbers downed the North Dakota university team at Grand Forks early in the season. If the Bison click in the same manner as they did against South Dakota last Saturday, they should have no difficulty with the Wildcats, but if they should happen to be a little bit overconfident, anything might happen, for it is certain that Bute's men are looking for victory, and will make a determined bid for it.

Half of last year's freshman class at the University of Wisconsin did not return this year as sophomores. These students were found to be lacking in academic ability. Others with intention of making the campus a playground will eventually be barred.

Wrestling Tourney Near End of Term

Konichek, Jahr, Haehr, and Quam Head List of Grapplers

Wrestling will make its debut in college athletic circles when a team representing this institution will meet the Fargo Y. M. C. A. stables the latter part of this term.

Wrestling is a new sport in this school and should prove to be a popular one, according to the interest shown to date. Coach Lieut. Fay Smith has four experienced men around which to build a strong aggregation. Haehr, a heavyweight, is a wrestler of real ability and should give any amateur wrestler in these parts an interesting battle. Jahr, a light heavyweight, is plenty tough and is known especially for his grit and determination. The welterweight division is probably the best fortified class as far as experienced men are concerned. Quam leads the list with the crown won at the meet held at the Fargo Y. M. C. A. last year. This welter will have plenty of competition from Dorland Konichek who won the title at the R. O. T. C. camp last summer from an unusually large field.

The wrestling team has a standing invitation from the South Dakota School of Mines of Rapid City. This meet probably will not be held until a much later date.

Coach Smith will be able to instruct the candidates in this manly art every Monday afternoon at the college Y. M. C. A., and has able assistants to handle the workouts the remainder of the week.

COSMOPOLITAN CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

The Cosmopolitan club, only non-fraternity social organization on the campus, held its first meeting this year last Monday evening in the YMCA. Of the 86 members 27 were present. A social committee consisting of Arthur White, chairman, David Carlson, and June Fredeen, was appointed by the president to arrange for a dancing party which will be held next week. It was agreed that the party should be open to members only.

Although the club meets regularly every other Monday it was decided to hold a special meeting next Monday, Jan. 20, for which a special program of entertainments is being arranged. The club is composed of college men and women, any student interested being eligible for membership.

Seniors, graduates and faculty members were eligible, and were judged on their scholastic records, recommendations from university officials, personality, and ability to benefit from such a cruise.

The solid walnut bedroom suite occupied by President U. S. Grant in 1874 has been presented to Mount Union college by the family of the late Lewis Miller. The gift came to the college through Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miller of Akron, Ohio, and has been installed in the guest room at Miller Hall, the boys' dormitory, made possible by the generosity of the Miller family.
