

Edwin Booth Dramatic Club Play Tonight

Charles Heilman and Ruth Boerth Play Leads in Clever Comedy

SEVERISON HAS CHARACTER LEAD

Ken Wyard and Ruth Barrett Play Opposite in Tomorrow's Play

The Edwin Booth Dramatic club will present the Devil in the Cheese, a fantastic comedy in three acts, by Tom Cushing, tonight and Wednesday evening in the Little Country theater. The story concerns an American business man and his family who fall into the clutches of Greek bandits. The daughter falls in love with a steward against the wishes of her parents. The father is enabled to read his daughter's thoughts after eating a piece of ancient cheese, resulting in the clever dramatization of what the daughter thinks, including scenes on a desert island and a yacht. The party is rescued in the last act by the right young man who saves the entire family from the bandits.

Cast Is Excellent

An excellent cast will interpret the play both nights. Charles Heilman as Jimmie Chard and Ruth Boerth as Goldina Quigley, play the juvenile leads in tonight's performance. Noral Severison as Quigley and Jean Pote as Mrs. Quigley, have the character leads. Elsamere Chamberlain portrays the part of the bandit chief, Father Petros. The remainder of the cast includes Ronald Pearce as Dr. Pointel Jones; John Hamrie as Chubbuck; Joe Paulson as Constantinos; Ruth Whitney as the Little God Min; Victor Lundeen as Chief; Dorothea Olson and Lois Klinsman as Pages; Raymond Begg, Harold Albrecht, William Heller, Lloyd Zimmerman, and Harold Lundgren as Monks; and Myrna Ottinger and Lillian Lindsay as Greek Shepherds.

The cast for tomorrow night is as follows:

- Joseph Quigley, of Kansas.....
- Donald McKechnie.....
- Theodosia Quigley, his wife.....
- Elene Weeks.....
- Goldina, their daughter. Ruth Barrett.....
- Jimmie Chard, a young steward.....
- Kenneth Wyard.....
- Dr. Pointel Jones, young American doctor.....
- Jesse Reynolds.....
- Father Petros.....
- Anthony Faber.....
- Chubbuck, Mr. Quigley's man.....
- Gerald Garlid.....
- Clark Frederickson.....
- The Little God Min.....
- Jane Eddy.....
- Charles Ginerich.....
- Two Pages.....
- Helen Jensen, Doris Burnson.....
- Six Monks.....
- Grace Swanson, Jane Canniff, Georgie Metzinger, Mary Healy, Katherine Engebretson, Laura Watkins.....

Bison Organization Formed At Minot

The newly formed organization, the Minot Bison Booster, named A. M. Christianson, a Minot seedman, as president of their chapter, at a banquet held there Thursday for the alumni and former student association of the North Dakota State college.

Beatrice Sjoquist, Velsa high school instructor, was elected secretary-treasurer. There were 50 alumni who attended the meeting from Minot and nearby points.

A. G. Arvold, head of the public speaking department at the college, outlined the history of land grant colleges and the Justin act which created these institutions.

M. E. Tindall, alumni secretary, detailed the program of the alumni association for the coming year and plans for further chapter organization throughout the state. The A. C. Banquet was the feature of the three day program of the North Dakota Education association in session there.

SULLIVAN ELECTED TO BLUE KEY OFFICE

Henry Sullivan was elected vice-president of Blue Key, national social service fraternity, at their last meeting Thursday, Nov. 7.

Sullivan is a member of Alpha Gamma Rho, Gamma Tau Sigma, honorary journalism fraternity, and edited the Spectrum last year.

Judging Team To Leave for Chicago

The North Dakota State College stock judging team will leave Wednesday, Nov. 13, for the International Livestock show at Chicago. Carl Ashe, Don Laurence, Leonard Luther, Alvin Lee, Lyness Loyd, and Byron Olson are the members of the team. An alternate is being taken this year, and will be chosen by the time the team reaches Chicago. Professor Thompson will accompany the team.

The University of Minnesota will be first stop for the team. They will spend two days there. From there, they will go to Owatonna to work over the Chassman herd of Herefords. Farmington, where the H. O. Tillier herd of Shorthorns is located, is the next stop. From there, they will go to Greely, Iowa, to work over three herds of Belgian Draft Horses; to Ames, Iowa; to the University of Illinois; to Pekin, Ill., and to Champagne. The team will arrive at Chicago Nov. 30, in time for the judging contest.

JOURNALISM STUDENTS WILL VISIT FORUM

First hand knowledge in the operation of a daily newspaper plant will be given 90 State college students on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 13, when T. Worden Johnson, instructor in journalism, will conduct a tour through the Fargo Forum. On account of conflicts in classes the tour has been divided into two sections, one section meeting in the Forum at 1:30 and the other at 4 p. m.

Friends of students making the tour are invited, according to Mr. Johnson.

Dr. Charles Sumner Howe, president Emeritus of Case School of Applied Science at Cleveland, was recently married to Mrs. Ida E. Puffer, North Amherst, Mass. The wedding climaxed a friendship of over 40 years. The bride was a life-long friend of Mrs. Howe who died recently.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Wednesday morning, Nov. 13, at 9:40, separate convocations will be held. The boys will meet in the armory and the girls in the Little Country theater.

Coed Prom Slated For December 5

Katherine Knerr Announces Appointment of Committees

The annual Coed Prom will be held Thursday, Dec. 5. The committee for the party have been appointed by Katherine Knerr, social chairman of the YWCA.

All committees are asked to meet Friday, Nov. 15, in the YWCA rooms. The committee on music includes Marion South, chairman, Mary Powers, Dorothea Ward, Norma Cavett, and Dorothy Chard. The committee on programs is headed by Helen Carstenson with Margaret Fleming, Viola Geaburg, Alpha Knight, and Lorrissa Sheldon as assistants. Kathryn Engebretson heads the committee on publicity with Maurine McCurdy, and Joyce Peterson as her assistants. The features committee has Gertrude Lee, chairman, Frances Wright, Emily Samuelson, Doris Lathrop, and Frances Anderson.

The refreshment committee is headed by Dorothy Lieb, with Blandie Herda, Emaline Olson, Kathryn Gregory, Ruth Semingson, Amanda Adams, and Delphine Van Houten as her assistants.

The judges and awards committee includes Jane Sudro, chairman, Hazel Redman, and Shirley Johnson. The decorations committee is headed by Irene Hudson with Marjory Miller, Lucia Roach, Georgina Brindle, and Ruth McKinnon as her assistants.

The tickets will be handled by Edith Jensen, Gwen Gregg, Ethel Dahl, Dorothy Adams, Iola Osness, Irene Johnson, Blanche Fletcher, and Irma Askerman.

SENIORS ATTENTION!

Your last year of school is well on its way and the last annual of your time is being formulated. That means, classmates, that this year is your last to, have your picture in the book.

We will all look back on our senior year with much pride, and much of this pride will be lost unless you have an annual with your picture prominent among those of your classmates.

Our duty then, is to heed the call of the Bison heads and report with the photo fee in their office. This must be done at once as only a short week remains to have the work done. Let's all work together and make the 1931 Bison a real leader in representation.

Clifford Booke,
Senior Class President.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA WILL PLEDGE THREE

At the last meeting of Alpha Phi Omega, honorary chemistry fraternity, three prospective pledges were passed on, according to Kenneth McCullough, president.

Bill Streible, Louis Larson, and Arthur Niclay will be pledged at the next meeting of Alpha Phi Omega.

Cuts Is Subject For Class Debates

Throwing the new "cut" system into formal debate for the first time, interclass debaters will lay down preliminary barrages of oratory and logic next Thursday evening. It will be a double campaign. Freshmen will engage the Seniors, and the Sophomores the Juniors in fights to the finish. The battle site is the Seminar room, Old Main. The first gun will be fired promptly 7 o'clock.

The dual quarrel is based upon the Seniors and Juniors belief "That North State college should adopt an attendance system allowing an unlimited number of unexcused absences from classes." The Sophomores and Freshmen are expected to disagree. The forces mustered for the conflict are as follows: Freshmen, Martin Vogel and Donald McKechnie; Sophomores, Harold Lundgren and Melvin Johnson; Juniors, Fred Gronvold and Chester Walla; Seniors, Ole Sand and Douglas Sommerville.

Three judges will watch over the battle-field and amid the echoes of the final vocal outbursts will award, collectively, the respective palms of victory to the two forces surviving. These two, recuperated, will battle in the following week for class and issue supremacy.

Competition is expected to be keen between freshman-senior soccer team and sophomore-junior team. Games begin Tuesday, Nov. 5, and will continue to be played on Wednesday and Thursday.

Evelyn South, captain of the freshman-senior team, and Minerva Streed, captain of the sophomore-junior team will elect their respective teams. Players are required to have attended one-half or five practices to be eligible for the teams.

A greater number of students were graduated from public schools in North Carolina in 1928 than were enrolled in all public schools in the state 25 years ago. Enrollment for the session 1907-08 was 7,144 students. The total number of graduates in 1928 was 12,512.

Students at Henry Ford's old school, recently moved to Dearborn, Mich., will have to study by old oil lamps to preserve the atmosphere.

Candidates To Seek Officers On Thursday

Petitions Must Be in Registrar's Office by 4 O'clock Tonight

FINANCE COMMISSIONER WILL BE CHOSEN

Vacancies Left by Marks, Hannaher, Pahl and Presler to Be Filled

A new member of the student Commission and three members of the Board of Publications will be chosen Thursday at a general college election. The balloting will take place at the registrar's office.

Simon Mark, -Commissioner of Finance and Frank Hannaher, Senior member of the Board of Publications have not returned to school. Adolph Pahl and Henry Presler now hold positions on the Bison and Spectrum staffs and therefore are ineligible to hold Board of Publications positions. According to Victor Maason, Commissioner of Elections it will be necessary to hold a special election to fill the following positions: Commissioner of Finance, one Junior and two Senior members of the Board of Publications.

Candidates desiring to run for office must have a petition signed by 25 students of the college. The petitions must be in the registrar's office by 4 o'clock this afternoon.

PRACTICE CLASS TEACHES YOUNGSTERS

The junior practice class in Miss Dorothy Cole's physical education department are teaching the older nursery school students (11 in number) little games and songs, every Wednesday and Friday at 9 a. m. The following girls are in the class: Grace Reynolds, Myrna Ottinger, Clara Mohagen, Marjorie Metcalf, Minerva Streed, Velsa Rudd, Gwen Lollis, Bertha Southerland, and Mona Davies.

There was a meeting of the Dakota Alpha chapter of the Pi Gamma Mu on Thursday, Nov. 7, at 5:30 p. m., in Ceres hall, Room A, for the initiation of new members.

Dinner was served at 6:30. E. A. Willson, of Rural Life Studies, gave a talk on "Rural Social Agencies in North Dakota." W. C. Hunter, Professor History, is the secretary-treasurer of the Dakota Alpha chapter.

Eight new members were initiated, two of whom are faculty members, namely:

- E. A. Willson, Rural Life Studies.
- F. M. Lichtenheld, Commercial department.

The six students that were initiated are: M. A. Glordigen, senior, Miss Grace Lamont, Miss Jean Lillico, Senior, Miss Belle Shalit, Forest Willey, and Miss Aletha Winn.

Women Math Students Will Be Entertained

Miss Thompson and Miss Grimes of the Department of Mathematics will be hostesses to the women of the department at a Mathematical tea, Tuesday afternoon, in Room 209, Science hall. The hours are from 4 to 5.

Mathematical ideas will be expressed in the form of poems and pictures of famous mathematicians. Among these pictures is an autographed picture of David Eugene Smith, who is internationally recognized as an authority on the teaching of mathematics. This picture was presented to Miss Thompson while she was studying Columbia university.

Mrs. A. W. Fowler will preside at the tea table. Misses Cally Berrigan, Mary Russell, Ruth McKinnon, and Ethel Renwick are assisting hostesses.

Directories

At this late stage of the game students advise us that the annual student directory has not been issued. If our memory serves us right the Office of the Registrar has usually presented the student body with the invaluable directories before the end of the first six weeks of school. As this is the eighth week we are wondering if said booklets are to be distributed.

Convocations

We miss them. So does everybody else. The high class talent appearing on the convocation programs of the past was a boon to the school. Everyone appreciated this fact, and enjoyed the lectures, musical entertainment, etc. Is the "booking" agency functioning?

A Crisis

Petitions have been circulated on the campus against the cut system. A large number of signers have been secured, according to reports. We are convinced that this helps to prove our conviction that the student body is against the ruling. If, however, you fail to turn out en masse for these debates the faculty will note the fact and your cause will be belittled. Thursday night will be a crisis in the campaign. This fact is serious.

Coed Smoking

An enraged flaming beauty got hot about our recent editorial and proceeded to burn us up with some scorching language. Read her letter elsewhere in this issue. The question is: Does she say anything? We should appreciate some real thought on this subject.

Collegiate

"How long would it take a clever chap to change his habits acquired in childhood, to learn to work alone, without stealing the time of his instructors and fellow classmen?" asks Dr. Alfred Adler, Australian physician.

According to Dr. Adler, the average child is spoiled for school life because Mother has done too much for him. Because he has shirged and daddled his way out of work at home, he believes he can continue to be Mother's darling and get out of real work everywhere by taking up the time of his fellows.

Our average collegiate fellow boasts vividly about his bluffing prowess, but slumps miserably out of sight when the mid-term report confirms necessity for honest labor.

Sacrifice is made by Mother and Dad at home in innumerable ways that you may receive an education. Surely you can afford to sacrifice this bluffing in return, since the lack of it will only demand true thinking resulting in splendid terms—even an increased check from Dad.

Chemists Meet Thursday

A special meeting of the Chemists is called by President Amos Van Vorst for Thursday at 7:30, at which time initiation services will be held for new members. All students enrolled in the School of Chemistry are requested to be there whether they are members or not.

Donald Bishop is in charge of the initiation. Refreshments will be served.

Newmans Meet Tonight

The Newman Club of North Dakota State College will hold its regular meeting at the K. of C. hall this evening. All the Catholic students on the campus as well as the regular members are urged to be present. Father Vincent Ryan from St. Anthony's parish will be the speaker. He will give an illustrated lecture on his last trip to Europe and his audience at Rome last spring. He will have both moving pictures and colored slides.

Brilliant, witty, diverting — two hours of unalloyed delight. The most amusing play on Broadway.

In a letter to Charles Hopkins, Beatrice Hereford wrote: "Once in a while in a burst of enthusiasm over a play, I think I will write and tell the producer how much I like it, then I cool off and dont.

"This time I can't cool off, and I want to tell you how very much I enjoyed The Devil in the Cheese. I hope everyone will see it, and, of course, they will. It is all perfectly delightful."

The play will begin promptly at 8 o'clock and the tickets will sell for 35 and 50 cents.

SMOULDERING COALS

What ho! The rock of ages has again spoken, the head of the Sunday school class, his curls basking in the light of the goo and the right has again mewed forth his platitudes, the shades of Queen Victoria and Anthony Comstock have risen once more to protect the purity and sweetness of us females, the all conquering male has decided—woman must not smoke!

Hearken, oh my sisters, to that vast noise, without the gates, bow down and tremble, the lords of the creation have signified their displeasure, and hereafter when you reach for a Lucky instead of a sweet, your pale hand will falter and withdraw again to your trembling bosom, if you walk a mile for a Camel you must turn around and come back and call it exercise, be nonchalant without a Murad. We are but poor quaking females, and the smoke from our cigaret will in the beyond damn our souls to utmost hell, but the souls of our masters being of greater and much stronger mould shall float gen-ly through the golden gates upon vast clouds of smoke.

For we, oh my mellow worms, are of an insignificant and totally inferior cast, we are weak and easily led downward to destruction, our pedestal is tottering, and our mighty brethren are supporting it with determined eye and grimly compressed lip.

With tears in our eyes we thank you for your protection of our innocence and light, which flickers wanly in this advanced and unholy age, and we await your further orders.

The tiny bee is the subject of study for two of the courses in the Department of Agricultural Entomology. In these courses the habits, life, history, behavior, activities and structure of the honey bee are detailed together with the methods of honey production on a large scale, factors of climate and soils which influence secretion of nectar and the preparation of honey for market.

Beehives and their occupants are kept throughout the winter by Professor J. A. Munro for experimentation.

Exhibits of beelife are usually on display in or about his office in the Agricultural building.

One course in sanitation deals with insects that carry disease and their relation to public health.

If the Spectrum is successful in getting the coeds to stop smoking, what are the Bison heads going to do for cigarets?

The only way the coeds can get a drag on the campus is to smoke.

SOME OF THE GIRLS WHO SMOKE CAMELS GO DAYS WITHOUT DRINKING ANY WATER.

It is alleged that 75 percent of our girls smoke. We suppose the other 25 percent get yellow-stained fingers from chemistry.

Since the coeds have taken up the habit, campus caretakers have found it increasingly difficult to locate the butts.

WHEN THE MIDTERMS WERE HANDED OUT, SOME OF OUR COEDS LEARNED THAT THEY DID NOT HAVE TO SMOKE FATIMAS TO KNOW WHAT A WAIL OF DIFFERENCE A FEW SENSES MAKE.

We wish some of our profs would stop giving us these blindfold tests.

A lot of girls who would walk a mile for a camel get roller skates when they go out riding with an architect.

WE ARE STILL SKEPTICAL THAT THE GOLD DIGGER REACHES FOR A LUCKY INSTEAD OF A SUITE.

It seems only logical that a hot mamma should smoke.

We don't mind them playing with fire, as long as the fire isn't applied to our cigarets.

THE SPECTRUM CALLS CIGARETS COFFIN NAILS. THAT IS A GRAVE STATEMENT.

A girl isn't necessarily old fashioned just because she doesn't smoke. She may have a big sister that outgrows her clothes.

Girls who start at the end of a novel to see how it turns out have started chewing climax.

KOPPA NU CIG: DO CHESTERFIELDS BITE THE TONGUE?
MUGGA ROOK: I CAN'T SAY, I'VE NEVER BEEN NECKED BY ANY OF THEM.

We'd like to see some of these coed volcanoes being nonchalant rolling a Bull Durham.

Maybe the coeds are taking to cigarets so that they can learn how to strike matrimonial matches.

AND HAVE SOME RINGS BLOWN THEIR WAY.

Bison Lose by Point Margin To Montanans

Mount Saint Charles Scores Second Win Over a North Dakota Team

FINNEGAN MEN MAKE FIRST SCORE

State Gains Fifteen First Downs to Westerners for the Thirteenth

Mount St. Charles college of Helena, Mont., extended its jinx on North Dakota football teams to two consecutive years, when Dame Fortune guided them to a 7 to 6 win over North Dakota State at Helena last Saturday. As the game had no bearing on either of the team's Conference standings, both opened up with everything they had in the way of passes, tricks, and unorthodox football, in which the Montana aggregation was a little luckier than the Bison.

Both teams were cautious the first quarter and nothing exciting happened, but in the second period the Bison swept the Saints back with a rush of well-executed passes. The attack culminated in a touchdown for State when Lonsborough found an opening in the line and crashed over for a counter. Pete Gergen tried a pass for the extra point, but failed to connect. The score was still 6 to 0 for State when the gun ended hostilities for the half.

The Bison showed a clean-cut advantage in the first half, and a bad break was all that kept them from scoring again. They engineered a pass-attack late in the second quarter, the last one giving them first-down with inches to go for a touchdown, but it was to no avail because the half was over just as the last play was completed.

The tide turned in the second half, and Mount St. Charles flashed the best form they have shown this season, when, led by Johnny Brace, speedy half-back, they worked the ball to the Bison one-foot line, from where John Good, Saint quarterback, plunged over. The try for extra point was made successful by a clever play over the center of the line, which worked just because it wasn't expected. The score was 7 to 6 for the Montana team, and this proved to be the margin which gave them the victory.

State tried hard to score in the last period, and was able to drive the ball deep into St. Charles territory on numerous occasions, but did not have the punch to score again. Much ground was gained by both teams in mid-field, but the lines always braced and held whenever their goal was in serious danger. State made 15 first-downs to 13 for the Saints. The summary:

CAMPUS COMMENT

ACQUAINT YOURSELF

We are urging women students on the campus who are members of the YWCA to acquaint themselves with the program of that organization for the school year. You will find that the association is making a special effort to keep in touch with its student members—in short to bring each member into active Y service. The Y is one of the finest types of associations to which college women may belong. The work which it undertakes is a credit to the organization and to the campus. In this article we are endorsing the YWCA and its activities and we suggest that other Y members do likewise by turning out for the next Y meeting.

We need your help in placing the YWCA in the rank of prominence which such an organization of N. D. S. C. women should rightfully occupy. Marian Hartley, Margaret Ballard, Margaret Moore, Frances Ross.

CAN YOU?

Can you read the 10,000 books that are published yearly? In other words, are you human?

Some are good, some bad; some hot, some cold. Between numerous book reviews and tips from well meaning, well informed friends, you lose sight of the things that you yourself intend to read; things that vitally interested you.

Select the list that appeals to you—gives enjoyment to your sensibilities and then, if no time remains to read further, skim over the reviews so that you may not be ignorant where unread things are talked over. But know a few thoroughly. Be able to converse and compare those which interest you, be fluent in yours. A man succeeds along his own interests.
