Finnegan Promotes Athletics For All

Intra-mural Track Meet Larger Than Ever Before; Dug-out Assists In Work

By MILO HOISVEEN

A great stride in promoting "athletics for all" has been made during the past year, by C. C. Finnegan, director of athletics, who has been conducting an extensive intramural athletic campaign.

The re-converting of the vacant dormitory basement into a gymnasium, which is now called the Dug-out, proved to be a great boom to the intramural program. This move enabled Director Finnegan to procure Lt. Fay Smith as boxing and wrestling instructor, two sports heretofore untried at this institution. More than 60 students entered the boxing and wrestling elimination cards conducted by Lt. Smith. The Dugout is also equipped with a large indoor cinder track which gave L. T. Saalwaechter, track coach, an opportunity to give his candidates some valuable pre-season training.

Competition in intramural basketball interested more students than any other intramural sport on the campus. Approximately 160 students were members in the two leagues formed for basketball. Teams representing eight fraternities played in the Campus league loop, and an equal number of teams competed in the "Y" League held at the college Y.M.C.A. Much interest shown in the sport was stimulated by the elimination of the traveling trophy and the introduction of a permanent trophy.

The turnout for the intramural track meet was the largest since Coach Saalwaechter introduced the sport three years ago. 135 athletes participated in the annual spring classic.

Director Finnegan has put Bob Lowe, Freshman coach, in charge of the intramural baseball league. The entire system of the championship playoff was altered and a much better method substituted. In previous years the elimination series was used, but this proved undesirable as many teams played but one and two games during the season. The new system makes it necessary for each of the nine teams entered to play eight games. Practically 125 athletes are participating in the Campus league baseball league now being held.

Tennis a sport which in previous years has been given little attention is fast becoming an important sport at the college. Plans are being made for a tournament to be held at the college in order to determine the doubles and single champions of the campus. Trophies will be awarded by the N.D. Lettermen's club.

WAECHTER IS ATELIER CHAT NOIR PRESIDENT

Raymond Waechter of Glen Ullin, N. Dak., was elected president of Atelier Chat Noir, architectural club, for the coming year. Other officers elected at the time include Chester Comeau, vice-president; Ernest Nystrom, secretary-treasurer.

Retiring officers of the club are Lawrence Parsons, president; Neal Baldwin, vice president; and Donald Best, secretary-treasurer.

Captain Conmy Ordered Here By War Department

ROTC Will Join Fargo Memorial Day Parade; New Captain A N. Dak. Product

Due to the increased registration in the ROTC department, Captain Joseph B. Conmy, now at Fort Benning, has been ordered to be here July 1, 1929, according to word recently received in the military offices. The addition to the teaching staff is due largely to efforts exerted by Dr. John Lee Coulter, president, according to Major L. A. Lathrop.

Captain Conmy is a North Dakota man, being born in this state and graduated from Fargo High School. He later graduated from St. Thomas.

This addition will give this department four commissioned army officers and two sergeants. Besides Captain Conmy, they are Major L. A. Lathrop, Lieut. Frank S. Ross, Lieut. Fay S. Smith and Sergeants Chris Culpepper and Charles G. Sears.

Parade Thursday

Classes will be excused on Memorial Day, but all men enrolled in ROTC work will be expected to form out in front of the armory in the afternoon and join the Fargo Memorial Day parade. Compensation for this parade will be made by dismissing the regular military classes on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of the ensuing week.

Convocation Soon

Plans for a convocation at which time the members of the National Championship Rifle team will be honored are under way according to Major Lathrop. The date is not definitely set, but will very likely be Wednesday, June 4th. Several outstanding athletes will also be honored at this time according to "Casey" Finnegan, director of athletics.

ENGLISH PROFESSOR COMMITS SUICIDE

Roland L. Loos, English instructor, was found dead in his bed Monday morning at his rooming house. The Cass county coroner declared the death a case of suicide, death having resulted from a pistol shot.

Mr. Loos came here last fall from the University of Nebraska where he had just completed his work on his Master's degree. He was born in 1899 and his permanent address was Grand Rapids, Nebraska.

Funeral arrangements have not been made, but it is anticipated that his body will be shipped to his home in Nebraska, as his folks were here visiting him only last week. The cause for the action is unknown, although his friends have known for some time that he was quite depressed in spirit.

CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM HONORED AT BANQUET

Promise of a lasting memorial to their prowess if they win possession of the National Intercollegiate Indoor Rifle match cup in 1930 was made by President John L. Coulter to the members of the championship R. O. T. C. team at a banquet in the Powers hotel Friday night. The occasion was in honor of the 15 riflemen who set a new match record in the matches this year to retain possession of the cup won in 1928. Victory next year would give them permanent possession of the trophy.

It was also announced that the athletic department would give some form of reward to the team members. Brief talks were also made by Dean H. L. Walster, Dean I. W. Smith, Dr. A. F. Schalk, Lieutenant Fay Smith and Lieutenant Frank Ross.

Lieutenant Ross, team coach, was presented with a fine fishing rod as a token of esteem by members of the team.

OUR "SWAN" SONG

Each spring every college editor finds the news growing scarcer with the approaching final examinations, thus an apparent effort is made to discontinue the sheet a week or so before school is actually out. This is also done with a certain selfish motive in mind; that of securing a little time to turn in due and past due reports, as well as "cracking" a couple of books. The most evident lack here at North Dakota State during our regime was an interest in Journalism. Apparently students like to receive the sheet, but none seem to have any great desire to work on it for the valuable experience it offers. Of course we cannot say that there are not a lot of offers of assistance, as many are clamoring for staff positions as an activity. But when they get it, with it comes a certain feeling that the editor should be mighty proud to have their names on the masthead with his own. This so-called feeling is very general and it is hoped that some Spectrum editor in the very near future will take it upon himself to eradicate it. This year though there has been a few exceptions to the rule and those exceptions have been a pleasure to work with. Every issue of the paper was improved with "Blott's" column. The author was easily our most outstanding aid, as when called upon he was always only too willing to write sports and society as well. Others like Elene Weeks, Arlene Burt, Dorothy Anderson, Alan Dotson and Milo Hoisveen have seldom shirked any responsibility placed on them.

This school year the institution which this paper is a part of has made three major achievements. They are securing appropriations for the two new wings and the physical education building; the national riflery championship; and an old local sorority going national. That we may keep on making greater strides forward each year, lest we be overshadowed by our past, each student must play a part in the game. Much valuable work may be done during the summer. Talk to all of the prospective college students. You, yourself feel that North Dakota State is the best institution. You are doing them an injustice if you don't tell them of its advantages. Besides selling prospective college students, the school needs to sell more people in general. Through them come the appropriations. This work cannot be done by anyone better than students. If the faculty members go out and work along those lines, the people at once see in their efforts a selfish viewpoint. On the other hand, at a cost of nothing, you may sing praises of North Dakota State this summer that will bring back additional students and add a few boosters for us out over the state.

As a whole the year's work as your official scribe has been a pleasure. Much has been learned while at the job and a few "pannings" experienced. Two very capable men have been elected to manage the paper next year in the personages of Henry Presler and Ralph Welch. The retiring editor at this time wishes them all the luck in the world.

ALUMNUS SEES OUR POINT

In the student opinion column there appears a letter from an alumnus. Please read it and give it some thought. We still maintain that the next step of advancement for North Dakota State can only be made with a weeding out of some of the relics about the institution termed "professors." The writer doesn't cite Michigan as an example to bring out his beliefs, but this past winter the college paper there conducted questionnaires on the different campus professors, their good and bad points, etc. They were signed by the critic and the mark the student secured in the course was also entered on the sheet; then they were submitted to the president for his consideration. This would be a worthy enterprise for The Spectrum to undertake in the near future. A few student opinions on the subject early next fall would undoubtedly help the situation a bit, as we feel that they carry considerable weight. If you see our point and feel the same, help the good cause along with an "opinion" in The Spectrum columns next fall.

'Tis high time the class of 1931 comes out of their trance and causes the erasing of the 1932 blots about the campus side-walks. It is up to you as a class to remove them, before the incoming frosh of next fall see them. Don't fall down on the job this late in the year.

Student Opinion

Dear Editor:

Your recent editorial regarding the qualifications of professors is very interesting. How much influence has student opinion at this institution? The professors and instructors who measure up to your standard should appreciate the students' endorsement, and surely the college authorities who have the interests of the State College, would be glad to learn of the student's approval. They should also know of the student's disapproval, if they would register it instead of "belly aching" around the halls. One or two students might be wrong (have a grudge) but surely the majority can't be wrong. Student petition raised one professor to deanship, it could—

At the University of Purdue, a set of questions has been circulated among the students to be answered by them regarding the merits and qualifications of instructors and professors. A similar experiment at N. D. A. C. might prove to be very interesting. Contemplation and analysis of courses offered might lead the student to a better appreciation.

In How many courses or classes in this institution is the student treated as a reasoning human being?

In How many and in which classes is he treated as a grade or high school student?

Does the student approve of high school methods of instruction? High grade colleges use the lecture system, why not N.D.A.C. (It is used in a few instances.)

Have the students the courage of their convictions?

—An Alumnus.

Diamonds More Precious Than Nature Can Yield---

Once upon a time there lived a certain man out on the African veldt. He had a perpetual grouch. He railed at the sun and he wailed for the rain. And all the while he grappled with starvation, his little sons played marbles with pretty stones in the yard. He later was the original owner of the Kimberley diamond mines, richer than fabled Golconda.

There's a second Kimberley at your very door. In it you can mine knowledge which is more precious than the diamonds of the African veldt. There you can obtain a "priceless" college education at low cost. Even though the expenses are small the training is of the best.

A Bachelor of Science degree is offered in Agriculture, Science and Literature, Home Economics, Architectural Engineering, Architecture, Biology, Chemistry, Civil Engineering, Education, Electrical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, and Pharmacy.

Special work may be taken in paint chemistry, physics, botany, mathematics, public speaking, and dramatics, economics (agricultural and general), and social and political sciences.

Bison Swamp University Track Squad Saturday

Relay Event Won By University Men

Leo May Is High Point Man; Shepperd First In Javelin; "U" Has Good Jumpers

Coach Saalwaechter's Bison trackers registered a decisive and impressive 82 1-3-48 2-3 point victory over the University track team in the annual dual meet held between the two schools on the college field Saturday. The Bison captured 10 first ribbons out of 15 events of the meet.

Leo May again lead the Bison as high point man. May garnered two firsts, winning the discuss throw and shot put. May also kept the Nodaks from slamming in the high jump by counting third in the altitude leap. Konichek and Sand closely followed May, both athletes gaining two firsts. Sand acquired the leading positions in the century and 220 yard dash. Konichek ran two beautiful races in the middle distance runs to lead the field in the 440 and 880 yard runs.

Sand running the 100 yard dash against a strong wind clipped the event off at 10 seconds flat, remarkable time for the adverse weather conditions. Sand also made the 220 in 22.7.

Coach West, Nodak mentor, had three broad jumpers who could not be denied a slam in the long distance leap regardless of the Bison effort. The Bison counteracted the Nodak slam by taking all places in the 2 mile grind where Weiser, Rhines, and Nelson counted first, second and third respectively for the Bison.

Saaly's javelin throwers showed surprising strength by winning the first two places in the shaft tossing duel. Shepperd and Hiltz were the two spear tossers unearthed by Saalwaechter who robbed the Nodaks of what appeared to be a certain slam prior to the meet.

In the 1/2 mile relay final event of the meet, Coach Saalwaechter kept his star dashman Sand on the sidelines because of a knee injury sustained several weeks ago. May, Konichek, Peschel, and Carroll, was the team chosen by Saalwaechter to match strides with university the quartet. The Bison gained an early lead which they retained until Jarret, Nodak anchorman, nosed out Carroll at the tape.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

A business education is a practical education that prepares one for every-day living. It gives the training necessary for entrance into the business world where the demand for trained workers is much greater than the supply. The business world pays a salary twelve months out of the year with two weeks' vacation on full pay.

Hon. W. T. Harris, Ex-Commissioner of Education, said, "Without a thorough and practical commercial education, a man is like a ship at sea without a compass or rudder."
