

Classes Excused Students Visit Capital By Radio

Columbia Broadcasting System Thru WDAY Pictures Day's Events Colorfully

Students and members of the faculty jammed the Little Country Theatre to capacity Monday morning at 10:30 a. m. when classes were excused that they might listen in on the inaugural ceremonies at Washington, D. C.

Everyone present was enthusiastic over the manner in which the program was presented to the large radio audience. Speakers at different locations in the capital city took their turns following the crowds and picturing the activities to the listeners. Perhaps the outstanding feature of the day as far as masterpieces are concerned was one journalist's description of the senate and some of its past history. He vividly pictured the appearance of the hoary ruler, its settings and told what the senators were talking about at the present time.

President Hoover and ex-President Coolidge were described with their cortege going down Pennsylvania avenue from the White House to the senate chambers for the inauguration of vice-president Charles Curtis and 32 new or re-elected senators. The oaths and closing and opening remarks of the two heads of the senates came over the air very plainly.

From the senate chambers the crowd moved to the steps of the White House for the inauguration of President Hoover. A shower in Washington Monday morning dampened the atmosphere, "wettened" the seats and caused quite a unique display of varicolored umbrellas to appear on the scene. The oath of office administered to President Hoover by Chief Justice of the Supreme Court Taft, with the executive's "I do" came in extremely clear with his inaugural address following in the same manner.

The program in the Little Country Theatre came in over a Kolster radio made possible by the courtesy of the Stone Piano company.

High School Debate Series Opens Friday

A. M. A. High School Will Debate Morris And Crookston Aggies On Foreign Policy

The seventh annual high school triangular debate series will be held on Friday, March 8, with the representatives of the Agricultural and Manual Arts High School of the North Dakota State College, Fargo, N. Dak., West Central School and Station, Morris, Minn., and the Northwest School and Station of Crookston, Minn. competing.

The question to be debated this year is: "Resolved, that the United States should cease to protect by armed force capital invested in foreign lands except after a formal declaration of war." Each of the three participating schools is represented by an affirmative and also a negative team.

The members of the A. M. A. team who will support the negative side of the question at Morris are: Clifford Benson, Ole Rice, and Jesse Krienke. Crookston is sending their negative team here and will be opposed by Julia Pillsbury, Evelyn Nelson, and Enid Pratt, affirmative representatives of the A. M. A.

The debate with Crookston will be held in the Little Country Theatre at 4 p. m. Friday afternoon.

Miss Hannah Bunge, Moorhead High School; W. H. Mashek, Fargo High School; and T. H. Quanbeck, Oak Grove Seminary are the judges for the Crookston-A. M. A. contest.

Alpha Xi Beta broadcasted over the radio Friday evening.

TRACK MEN TO RUN MINNESOTA RELAYS

All candidates desiring to try out for track should report to Coach Saalwaechter immediately. At the present time there are a number of cindermen working out daily in the Dugout. More aspirants are wanted to take advantage of the early training, for the Bison are to be represented at the Minnesota Relays which are to be held in Minneapolis April 6. The Bison will also be represented at the Dakota Relays which is held a week later. A triangular meet is to be held with Jamestown College, and Valley City Teachers College. The triangular meet will be followed by a dual meet with Valley City. The University of North Dakota will also be Bison opponents in a dual meet.

Best Stock Judge To Secure Key

Prominent North Dakota And Minnesota Stockmen Will Act As Judges

A beautiful gold key with the Saddle and Sirloln Club insignia set in black enamel will be given to the winner in the annual student's stock judging contest to be held on Friday of this week. Up until last year winners have been awarded a gold medal, but at that time the members of Saddle and Sirloln club, who sponsor the show annually, declared the medals impractical, consequently a key similar to the one presented last year will be in vogue.

The contest will start promptly at 8 a. m. and last the greater part of the day. Dr. Walster, dean of the School of Agriculture, has arranged to have all students taking part in the contest excused from classes Friday, but promises that a careful checkup will be made that no student who does not take part in the contest will be excused.

To stimulate interest, judges for each division have been selected from among prominent livestock breeders of North Dakota and Minnesota. The following men will act as judges: Fred Schroeder, Valley City, horses; W. W. Brown, Amenia, beef cattle; Obert Skrei, Glyndon, Minn., dairy cattle, and Harry A. Marsden, Hendrum, Minn., sheep. William Guy, Amenia, will judge the hog division. The purpose of the contest is to further interest in livestock husbandry, provide valuable experience to candidates for future judging teams who represent the college at national contests.

ART CLUB INVITED TO FINE ARTS MEET

An invitation to become the guests of the Art Section at the March get-together meeting of the Fine Arts Club has been extended to the Art Club of this campus. The meeting will be held Wednesday afternoon in the American Legion Hall. Tea will be served from 3 to 4 with Mrs. John Lee Coulter and Mrs. H. G. Saylor presiding.

The program arranged for this meeting dwells on the colonial period of modern art. Miss Harriet Pearson, librarian of the college, will give an illustrated talk on "Samplers." Piano selections, typical of the period, and an old colonial dance, the minuet, will complete the program.

Frances Brummond is general chairman for the Education Club dance to be held on Friday, March 8, in the college Y. M. C. A. Those assisting her are: Elene Weeks, programs and patrons; Frances Webster, music; Dorothy Moffitt, refreshments; Marian Tobias, decorations; and Claytus Nagel, tickets. Hours will be from 8:30 to 11:30.

Pugilists Will Entertain Fight Fans Tomorrow

Twelve Bouts Will Be Staged In College Armory Commencing At 7:30 P. M.

Tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. marks the opening of the boxing tournament which is to be held in the Armory. Twelve bouts of four two minute rounds constitute the forty-eight rounds of boxing to take place in the first elimination series.

Featuring Wednesday's card is the bout between Leonard Friberg and Al Schrader. The two boxers are in the light heavyweight class and it is expected that the crowd will be treated to plenty of action when they meet. Friberg is reputed as being the more agile of the two, but what Schrader lacks in speed he makes up in punching ability.

The Molitor-Griffin bout is attracting much interest in the lightweight division. This will probably be the fastest bout of the evening both boys possessing all kinds of flash. The dopsters put the two lightweights on even terms.

In the middleweight class Lt. Smith promises a fast setto when Herb Karges and "Liberty" Bond swap punches. This is another bout which has attracted much attention among the railbirds and will be fought on comparatively even terms.

Heavy, lightweight, middle, light, welter, and featherweights will all be given a chance to show their leather in tomorrow's bouts. Lt. Smith has been working with the men in these classes for the past quarter and much progress has been noted in the candidates boxing. Lt. Smith attempted to schedule the University of North Dakota team to oppose the Bison team and it is more than likely that these two teams will be brought together next year.

In many eastern colleges and universities boxing has been made a major sport. It has its advantage over other sports in that the candidates are not handicapped by weight in trying out for the sport.

Besides the boxers taking place in the first elimination series, Lt. Smith has a number of men who drew byes in the initial clash. This was done in order to cut down the number of bouts in the tournament. Herseth, a heavy weight has shown much promise in the class. Frankie Devorak, welterweight, plans on making the going tough for the members of his class. Altenberg and Hintz have also shown much skill in their divisions. There are about thirty other candidates who are available for bouts in the near future.

Allen King, of the Northern States Power company, Sam Chesley, Pat Purcell, and Lt. Ross have been named to officiate the bouts. Lt. Smith may also do some of the refereeing but the instructor will have nothing to do in the awarding of the decisions. The date for the second round in the elimination tournament has not been set.

"Mary Gold" Attends Annual Co-Ed Prom

Francis Ross, Margaret Green, Mildred Grant, Myrna Ottinger, Lois Julian Win Prizes

"Throw dignity to the winds and have the best time you ever had" was the motto of the Co-ed Prom Thursday evening.

Prizes were awarded to Margaret Green and Mildred Grant as the most comical couple, who were dressed as an organ grinder and his monkey respectively. The most original costumes were those worn by Myrna Ottinger and Lois Julian as Rhode Island Red chickens, while prizes to the most original man and girl costume went to Virginia Lundquist and Frances Ross attired as a golfer and

DISTRICT TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD IN ARMORY

The annual district high school basketball tournament composed of teams representing District No. 2 will be held at the college Armory Friday and Saturday. Eight entries have been made up to date. The teams represent: Fargo, Hillsboro, Page, Hope, Hunter, Casselton, Buffalo and Tower City.

Arrangements for the tournament are being made by C. H. Kimball, Fargo High coach and district chairman of the tournament board. Fargo high, up to date undefeated by a North Dakota high school team, is picked to win the district honors. The preliminary games will be held Friday afternoon and evening. The semi finals Saturday afternoon and the championship contest will be played Saturday evening.

Manitoba "Aggies" On Forensic Program

"Agricultural Tariffs And Other Forms Of Government Assistance To Be Debated

For the second time this year international debates are on the forensic program of the North Dakota State College. In the latter part of January the University of Sydney, Australia debaters were here and on Friday, March 8, a dual debate with the Manitoba Agricultural College, Winnipeg, Canada will be held. This meeting with our northern neighbors marks the re-opening of debate relations which we hope will be continued.

This international competition is concerned with a moot question: "Resolved, that the farmers in the grain growing areas of the United States and Canada can find the best solution to their marketing problems through agricultural tariffs or other forms of government assistance rather than through cooperative marketing organizations."

Glenn Smith, Dickinson, and Harold Fog, Fort Ransom, North Dakota, are the delegates of the North Dakota State College to uphold the affirmative side of the question at Winnipeg. The members of the Manitoba Agricultural College affirmative team who will come to Fargo are Bruce B. Strachan, Faulkton, South Dakota, and Rudolph F. Peterson, a native Manitoban. They will be opposed by Loyal Gast, Beltrami, Minnesota, and Karl Gerteis, Fargo, N. Dak. upholding the negative side as representatives of the home institution. The debate will be held at 7:30 p. m. Friday in the Little Country Theatre. All students admitted upon presentation of registration card. The admission for the general public is twenty-five cents.

SIGMA TAUS HOLD FOUNDER'S DAY BANQUET

60 members and pledges of Alpha Sigma Tau fraternity met at Ceres hall dining room last evening in commemoration of the fifth anniversary of the founding of the group.

The program included talks by Judge L. J. Monson, Thomas Canniff and Everett J. Wallum. Milton Pemble acted as toastmaster.

Charter members of the fraternity are as follows: Clarence Fiske, Stanley; Thomas Canniff, Fargo; Lawrence Burnett, Devils Lake; Stewart Schlipf, Fargo; Archie Gerard, now with the Marines in China; Raymond Fisher, Chicago; Aubrey Hook, Omaha; Llewelyn Howell, Chicago; Milo Brandmeyer, San Francisco; Jack Knapp, New York; and Hugo Thompson, Milwaukee.

"Mary Gold" respectively.

Among other gallants of the evening were "Tom Carr," the wild cave man, Spanish caballeros, French messieurs, and Mexican dudes. Sticks of wrigley chewing gum and sheet music intermingled in throngs.

According to the participants "a scrumptious supper" was served by the visory board of the Y. M. C. A.

Robert Schulz Wins First In Essay Contest

Clayton Quinnild And Lois Minard Secure Second And Third Place In Chemistry Contest

Winners in the local prize essay chemistry contest, which has caused so much comment during the past month, have been announced by the School of Chemistry. They are Robert Schulz, Fargo, freshman in civil engineering, who wrote on "Chemistry and Its Relation to National Defense;" Clayton Quinnild, Woods, freshman in agriculture, who wrote on "Chemistry and Its Relation to Agriculture;" and Lois Minard, Fargo, sophomore in home economics, who wrote on "Chemistry and Its Relation to the Enrichment of Life." Prizes will be awarded March 14 at a meeting of the Chemists club of the S. C.

Students receiving honorable mention are Karl Gerteis, Fargo; Max Hughes, Fargo; Fanny Zimmerman, Fargo; Lyle Phillips, Bismarck; Burton Pinkham, Fargo; William C. Ball, Sidney, Mont.; Norma Cavett, Lisbon; Harold Lindgren, Argyle, Minn.; Clarence E. Bryant, Powers Lake; Daniel Howell, Fargo; Cally Berrigan, Moorhead; Vernon Nichols, Center; and Virginia Davis, Fargo.

The local contest included all students enrolled in freshman chemistry. The best papers of the local contest will be sent to the national contest, being conducted by the American Chemical society. The national contest is open only to freshmen.

The Chemists' club at the college will present the local prizes, consisting of loving cups for first and second place given by Alpha Phi Omega, national honorary chemical society, and the Chemists' club, respectively, and a set of five volumes of chemical essays given by the chemistry department will be presented to the third place winner.

Doris Wilner Wins Scholarship Prize

Miss Isabelle Filmore, Phi Omega Inspector Spends Weekend At Zeta Chapter

Miss Doris Wilner, a junior in the School of Home Economics, was awarded the Albina Foster prize at the Founder's Day banquet of the Phi Omega Pi sorority of the North Dakota Agricultural college at the Gardner hotel at 7 p. m. Saturday. This prize is awarded annually by the sorority alumnae to the active member of the group attaining the highest scholastic average during the year.

The sorority colors, blue and white, were used for the appointments and bowls of white spring blossoms were used on the tables. Covers were laid for 50 including the patronesses, alumnae, active and pledges. The honor guest was Miss Isabelle Filmore, Minneapolis, national inspector and grand treasurer of the sorority, who has spent several days in Fargo inspecting the chapter. Miss Wilner acted as toastmistress and talks were given by Miss Filmore, Mrs. F. O. Olsen, sorority deputy, Miss Alice Chandler and Ruby Grimes. Miss Chandler gave the chapter history and Miss Grimes presented the prize to Miss Wilner.

Preceding the banquet, Miss Filmore, was the honor guest at a formal tea, served at the chapter house, from 2:30 until 4:30 p. m. Corsages of valley lilies were presented to Miss Filmore, Mrs. Mary Smith, housemother and Mrs. Fred Olsen deputy, during the afternoon. Miss Esther Boyer had charge of the arrangements.

Miss Filmore returned to Minneapolis Saturday evening.

SUGGESTIONS FOR FRESHMEN

Practically every individual at some time in his or her life has wished that a new leaf might be turned over; either life started all over again or at least college days to do all over again. In the writer's three years of college he has yet to meet the man or woman who would not like to start college over again. They would do many things in a different manner. Our message this week is then intended for the 500 freshmen on the campus that they may profit from the experiences of those who have preceded them. As a suggestion as to the correct way to go through college we are reprinting herewith what Thomas Arkle Clark, dean of men at the University of Illinois and one of the best-informed men on college and fraternity affairs in the country, would do were he to begin his college days anew.

1. Develop concentration.....work harder but not so long.
2. Learn to work while others are around.
3. Put more stress on learning how to get information than upon the information itself.
4. Find more difficult tasks to do.
5. Learn to speak in public.
6. Learn to play well some athletic game.
7. Learn to do one line of work particularly well.
8. Get better acquainted with his instructors.
9. Take fewer courses which are strictly practical.
10. Have an avocation which would bring him into close touch with men.

WHY NOT PRAISE?

Advancement is made as much by commendation as by criticism. There has been more of the latter in this paper of late, some assuming that forces are only at work to abolish the old and advocate the new. We have realized that some very tangible successes and improvements have been made on the campus this year. As evidenced by the Student Opinion we have recently printed it is apparent that such forward steps have been noticed in a vague way but have not received the careful attention of the attendants at this institution. Everyone is too prone to forget his joys in bewailing his griefs. We hope that our correspondents will consider the point, and, though not in the least discouraging criticism, may it be more kindly. To antagonize is easy; to persuade difficult.

In line with the foregoing we wish to discuss the past basketball season briefly. It was successful; let us sincerely congratulate the coach, the members of the team, all others concerned. The number of games won and our present position in the conference standings seem ample evidence to the fact that North Dakota State is in the upward swing of an athletic cycle. Prospects for the next year confirm the assumption. The favorable reception by the legislature to the bill to provide us with a new athletic building and gymnasium encourages our hopes. Look ahead!

In conclusion—the support of the student body. It improved. Due credit must be given to the season's rooter kings. They believed that attendance at the games was of paramount importance. The old idea of a rally before every game was done away with, as an experiment, resulting in a more whole hearted support as given by the student body.

Successful? Certainly!

Student Opinion

What's the matter with the men of N. D. S. C.? Have they lost all curiosity? Do they lack the courage to venture forth into a hen party? Have they lost the ability to impersonate feminine characters? Or do they just shrink from "seeing themselves as others see them?" The co-ed Prom has been and gone and not a single member of the unfair sex tried to crash the gates.

Why, 'long 'bout in 1920, Stewart Kelly made up in Professor Arvold's department and went over to the party. He actually danced with President Ladd's wife twice and nobody was the wiser. Tommy Rae tried to get in, but he got caught. Bobby Sanders—you all know Bob—got by more than once. It got to be so usual that they had to get Mr. Parrott to act as door man to investigate suspected guests. But they don't need him anymore. 'Smatter? Surely the costumes are still worth a risk to see. But nobody tries it. How comes it?

—A Disappointed Co-ed

Editor's Note: We are told that two Kappa Psi pledges did attempt to attend the party Thursday evening, but failed in that they went into the men's cloak room over in the "Y", instead of going into the ladies' dressing room, and were apprehended there.

Among Our Contemporaries

The Huron debaters have recently completed a successful tour throughout their state. During the trip they met representatives of six colleges and only one was a decision contest—losing only to the Wesleyan debaters at Mitchell.

A picture of the cast of "The Fool" appeared in the February issue of the Purple and the Gray. Miss Eloise Powers, a former N. D. S. C. student, who is now attending St. Catherine's College, is a member of this cast.

There seems to be rejoicing in a number of schools because semester exams are all over. We can rejoice too, for mid-term exams are ended and there are five whole weeks before term exams begin.

The students of Oakes High School show no partiality toward the two large state educational institutions. They have named their library societies "Bison" and "Flickertail". Here's a cheer for the Bisons!

It is surprising that there are so many modest people attending college. A large number of colleges are deploring the fact that so many students have not submitted their pictures for the college annual.

A new sorority has been organized on the Creighton University campus by a number of Catholic girls. The sorority has been named Chi Mu Kappa and promises to be a very active group.

Two all-student recreational centers have been opened at the College of St. Thomas. At these places the students may obtain refreshments and be entertained by radio programs.

Kappa Psi and Kappa Sigma Chi will play the first game of the week Tuesday at 7 p.m. This game will be followed by the Delta Sig-Sigma Phi Delta contest. The Delta Sigs will play their second game of the week on Wednesday at 7 p.m. when they meet the Theta Chi quint. At 8 p.m. the Gamma Rhos and the Kappa Sigma Chis will battle for fifth place. Thursday the Sigma Taus and the Sigma Phi Deltas will meet at 7 p.m. Following this contest the Theta Chis and Kappa Phis will clash for third place honors.

The K. D. mothers meet next Saturday at the chapter house.

"Cafeteria Will Serve Spectrums", says headline. Freshman diners will have more brains in their stomachs than they have in their heads.

We've always known the students were goats, but it's the first time they've regulated our diet accordingly.

"Waiter, I'm still hungry, bring me a three-column head."

Student opinion writers, however, can't get anyone to digest their stuff.

"I can't stomach those editorials," said the co-ed, as she ordered a plate of ads.

They don't need to serve Spectrums to get students chewing the rag.

"Bring me an ad," moaned the editor, "I can't eat my own stuff."

One student is trying out all the papers in an effort to be his sweetie's type.

"They're serving the sheet," says Hank Sullivan sagely, "to find out if it really is a lot of bologna."

Maybe it's a movement to get faulty journalists to eat their remarks.

"That's what I get for eating the 'Whiz Bang', remarked the student guiltily, as he surveyed his smudgey fingers.

"Bring me Blott's column," says another, "I must have my irony today."

Because the Spectrum does not cater to yellow journalism, chinese students are expected to stick to rice.

We hope the Spectrum doesn't have any scoops. The students use their fingers as is.

Students who start the meal with the usual soup overture will be expected to eat all musical items.

Kenneth McCullough, editor of the Retort, feels hurt that his publication is not given like prominence. "They can use my squeak to wash down the food with," he stated, "it's all wet anyway."

AT LAST

Anyway, this new practice will put teeth in the Spectrum editorials.

Baby Bison Defeat Nodaks Saturday Afternoon

Varsity Teams Loses To Nodaks At Mandan

University Yearlings Severely Trounce Frosh Friday Eve. In Poor Game

By MILO HOISVEEN

The Baby Bison playing a different brand of basketball than the night before, when they were smothered by the Nodak Frosh under a 37-20 count, flashed to a 27-22 victory over the same opponents in Saturday afternoon's contest. The Bison Yearlings fought an uphill fight most of the way but established their superiority in the last eight minutes of play.

Both teams employed more football than basketball tactics in the initial contest. The Nodaks having the heavier team, coupled with the fast breaking DuChene and their forwards ability to sink long shots, piled up a 20-9 lead at half time. DuChene counted four times from the field during this period.

In the remaining two periods of play the Bison Frosh displayed a more effective attack and played their opponents to a 17-11 count. Westgate, Bison Frosh center, was always a scoring threat due to the vicious manner in which he drove under the basket to follow up his team-mates shots. Fairhead lead the Bison scoring department counting 9 of the Bisons 20 points, all but one point being the result of field goals.

Saturday's game was featured by the radical change of play apparent in both teams, each quint playing a much better brand of ball than that of the evening before. The play opened with Nordstrom sinking a field goal for the Bison. The Nodaks then jumped into the lead but were overhauled as the count reached ten. They regained their lead and held a slight advantage at half time the score being 15-13. Goodwin, Bison center, counted four field goals for the Bison during this period. The fast center flipped in his field goals under the Bison basket after receiving passes from his team-mates.

DuChene, speedy Nodak guard, was constantly threatening to raise the Nodak score so at half time Bob Lowe inserted Walsh, who packs more speed than an express train, to shadow the Nodak menace. Walsh performed his duties perfectly sewing up his opponents when he gained possession of the ball, and keeping him scoreless during the last half.

The Nodaks although finding the going much tougher than that of the first half clung tenaciously to their meager lead. It was not until twelve minutes of the first half had past that the fighting Bison yearlings tied the count when Fairhead dribbled thru to register a counter. Fairhead counted again from the field to put the Bison in the lead. Seitz worked under the basket for a goal and was fouled while shooting. The Bison guard made one of his gift chances good to give the Bison a five point lead. The Nodaks were held scoreless during the great Bison rally which was terminated by the final whistle.

Bob Low's aggregation is composed of a personalae which seems capable of adding greatly to the strength of the Varsity team for the coming season. Members of the team playing in the contests are: Fairhead, Bunt, Olson, Walker, forwards; Johnson, Goodwin, Westgate, Freeman, centers; Seitz, Westgard, Walsh, Hanson, Thomasson, Nordstrom, and Peterson guards.

Varsity Loses At Mandan

Bison basketball followers have grown somewhat optimistic over the outlooks of gaining the conference bunting next season. A Bison team which was recruited chiefly from the junior and sophomore classes put up a great battle with the Nodaks at Mandan Saturday evening. Although the Bison did not gain a superior lead over the Nodaks they were with in one of doing so the score being 16-15 at one phase of the game. The Nodaks largely through the efforts of Lee were able to defeat the Bison 33-25.

Neither Captain Bobby Hahn or Matt Braus were in the lineup. John Brady and Dutch Hermes were the only seniors having the opportunity to show their wares against the Flicker five. The team was composed of Leo May, Johnny Smith, Sophomore forwards, Gil Johnson sophomore guard, Pete Gergen, junior guard, and Cecil Bliss, junior forward.

Johnny Smith showed the way to the Bison scorers counting three field goals and a free throw. The work of Gergen and May was outstanding for the Bison, while Lee led the Flicker attack.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

A business education is a practical education that prepares one for every-day living. It gives the training necessary for entrance into the business world where the demand for trained workers is much greater than the supply. The business world pays a salary twelve months out of the year with two weeks' vacation on full pay.

Hon. W. T. Harris, Ex-Commissioner of Education, said, "Without a thorough and practical commercial education, a man is like a ship at sea without a compass or rudder."

This is the student's pen par excellence. The Parker Duofold's polished iridium-tipped point glides gently over paper. Ink flow starts immediately and continues evenly at any speed with merely the feather-light weight of the pen itself to bring it into action. Finger-pressure is relieved. No effort. No strain. No interruptions, no intrusions by the pen. The track is cleared for THINKING, so you do better work. Action so responsive that pen can be made 28% lighter than rubber (though non-breakable) and still require no weight from your hand.

To please you even more, we offer in the Duofold five flashing colors and a new Modern Black and Pearl—the latest mode—from which to select. Then we add a *guarantee forever against all defects, to make these better features everlasting. Don't take a lesser pen. See the Duofold at your nearest pen counter today. See "Geo. S. Parker—DUOFOLD" imprinted on the barrel to be sure you have the genuine.
