

Sigma Thetas Win CoEd Dog Contest At International

1200 Attend Annual Fitting And Showing Contest Of Agriculturalists

Miss Helen Stokke, Sigma Theta pledge, showing a beautifully groomed highly bred Scotch Collie romped off with first place for her sorority at the Inter-sorority dog showing contest held in connection with the Little International Livestock show in the college pavilion on Thursday evening of last week.

This is the second win for the Sigma Thetas, Miss Dorothy Volkmar winning first last year. The Scotch Collie shown by Miss Stokke is the property of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Liberty, 916 Broadway. Miss Betty Farnham, Delta Phi Beta, showing an Irish Setter was second; Miss Joyce Peterson, Phi Omega Pi, showing an Irish Terrier was third; and Miss Glade Cowles, Kappa Delta, showing a police dog was fourth.

A silver loving cup, awarded by the Agricultural college alumni was awarded the first place winner and Fairmont Creamery company of Moorhead awarded book ends to all other contestants for the interest the young ladies have taken in the International. Other contestants were: Miss Luella Dunn, Phi Kappa Lambda, Miss Jesse Smith, Phi Omega Pi; Miss Margaret Casselman, Phi Kappa Lambda; Miss Thelma Nelson, Alpha Xi Beta; Miss Olive Onness, Sigma Theta; Bernice Streit, Alpha Xi Beta; Elsa Simmons, Delta Phi Beta. Judges were: Dr. A. F. Schalk, Dr. O. I. Catlin, of Moorhead and Miss Alice Moshier.

How They Do It

Upon interviewing Miss Marion Trowbridge, president of Sigma Theta sorority, as to whether or not they were able to buy off the judges and an explanation as to how they go about taking first place two consecutive years, she replied: "No we didn't even approach the judges, but you know our entrant last year showed this same Collie and the judges did admit last year that they liked the individual, but because of his breaking away once, his fear of the crowd and the show-mistress, he was not able to rate in the contest. With this advantage at hand and the faults in mind we decided to enter the same dog again. We sent Miss Stokke down to Liberty's three days before the contest where she spent all of her spare time before contest, in fact spending one whole day with the dog down town. Upon entering the contest, the pair were better acquainted than last year, thus making a better showing. The secret in winning is in becoming acquainted with your poodle before the night of the contest."

Milking Contest

A new feature this year was a milking contest in which a number of the "Ag" profs participated. Dr. Schalk proved to be the best delactating scientist, removing the largest amount of milk by weight, of any of the four contestants, within the span of three minutes. D. J. Griswold, specialist in the livestock department was second; Dr. J. H. Sheppard, chairman of the animal husbandry department third and Professor E. H. Jones was fourth.

One of the rules required each professor to be garbed in unionalls and to wear a straw hat.

Officials of the Saddle and Siroin club are: Ben Gorder, president; Ralph Diehl, vicepresident; Rudolph Nelson, secretary; Martin Peterson, treasurer.

Graham Fuller was show manager; Ralph Diehl, assistant; Henry Sullivan in charge of publicity; Ralph Welch, in charge of catalog; Martin Altenburg, awards; Hjalmer Foss, finance; Martin Peterson decorations and Jesse Reynolds, program.

The Gold Star band under direction of Dr. C. S. Putnam furnished music throughout and a horse parade was

Record Crowd At Annual Military Ball

180 Couples Attend First Formal Of The Term; Decorations Outstanding

Father Time has by this time recorded the Fourteenth Annual Military Ball on his books as come and gone, with a notation that everyone had a good time and that the crowd was the largest in the history of military balls at North Dakota State. The party was held in the college armory, Friday evening, January 18, 1929.

The decorations were without a doubt the outstanding part in making the party the success it was. The curtailed walls added a certain grandeur to the armory it has never had before. They were in charge of Milton Pemble.

The affair marks the opening of the college formal season and was attended by over 180 couples, including men of military rank in the state, representatives of the ROTC unit at the University of North Dakota and guests of honor in the city.

Scabard and Blade, honorary military fraternity, annually sponsors the party. As Captain of the organization, Ralph Erickson is largely responsible for the arrangements of the party. He had as his assistants: Elmer Torkelson, tickets; John Bohlig, invitations; Cecil Kingsley, music and features; Norris Olson and Robert Adam, favors and programs; and Roy Landbloom, publicity.

Knutson Is Named Junior President

Commission Will Send The Band And Special Train To "U" February 15th

In the absence of Jake Wahl, Everett Knutson was named president of the Junior Class, by the Student Commission at their meeting Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Knutson was elected vice president of his class at the fall elections; the president, Jake Wahl, dropped out of school at the close of the fall term; and to avoid another election the commission appointed Knutson president. He is a member of Sigma Phi Delta fraternity, was only recently elected Junior Prom manager, and is associate editor of the State College Engineer.

Election of Rooter King

The rooter king for next year will be elected at the last rally of the year, according to an agreement reached Sunday at the meeting of the Student Commission. All students who are interested in yell leading are urged to come out and display their wares as well as work up some popularity before the election.

Plans for the trip to the University are also well under way. The commission will have charge of sending the band and the special train up to the "U" on February 15th and 16th.

Pledges of Delta Kappa Sigma entertained the active members at an informal dancing party Saturday evening in the Y. M. C. A. Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Carrick, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Hunter, and Professor K. L. Bird and Miss Betty Sheldon were chaperones.

Hammer Honored At Final Banquet Of Farmers Week

Members Of Judging Teams Received Their Medals At Banquet

The banquet of the North Dakota Livestock Breeders association put on by the Saddle and Siroin club on Friday evening of last week, at which time H. P. Hammer, Cooperstown, was honored, brought to a close the Farmers and Homemakers week at the college.

At the recognition banquet at which Mr. Hammer was honored, Dr. J. H. Shepperd, chairman of the animal husbandry department of the college presided as toastmaster, and there were addresses by Dr. John Lee Coulter, president of the college; Henry Arens, vice president of the Land O' Lakes Creamery company; Sam Fletcher, alley City, one of the men whose portraits hang in the hall of fame; William Butler of Cooperstown, lifelong friend of Mr. Hammer and son of E. C. Butler, one of the men previously honored by having their pictures placed in the college hall of fame; Manley Champlin, University of Saskatchewan; Mr. Crabbe and Dr. H. L. Walster, dean of the school of agriculture.

Mr. Hammer was not able to be present in person, but two of his sons, William P. Hammer and Henry Hammer were present. William Hammer, who was accompanied by his wife, acknowledged the honor paid his father, in a brief address of appreciation.

Mr. Butler unveiled the portrait and paid a remarkable tribute to Mr. Hammer as a citizen of the state, as a father and as a great livestock man, after giving a short history of Mr. Hammer's career.

Mr. Hammer spent two years on Northfield farms and in 1881 he went to Nelson county, North Dakota and took a homestead. In 1886 he removed to Cooperstown, and with him he took the first purebred stallion that had ever entered Griggs county, a Clydesdale.

In the meantime Mr. Hammer had developed a number of large business enterprises. He established an implement business, with a string of implement houses in various towns, was engaged in the real estate business, owned a string of elevators and a number of banks.

Mr. Butler told of Mr. Hammer's interest in the Griggs county fair and other community activities.

Mr. Hammer is president of the First National bank of Cooperstown and has other banking interests, but is now devoting his time largely to his implement business and his large land holdings. His sons, William P., Henry and Ralph A., are associated with him in these enterprises and in Hammer Brothers, one of the big livestock farms of the state.

Student Awards Made

During the evening, awards were made to members of the agricultural college livestock judging team, which went to the International Livestock show at Chicago, where they won 14th place in a class of 21 teams. Those who received awards from E. J. Thompson, coach, were: Wayne Weiser, Gilbert Moen, Victor Lindgren, Harry McLachlin, Paul Abrahamson and Robert Adams.

Gilbert Moen, Graham Fuller and Harold Evans, members of the Dairy judging team who went to Memphis last fall were presented with medals by their coach, Prof. J. R. Dice.

The poultry judging team coached by O. A. Barton that took part in a national intercollegiate contest in Chicago during the Christmas holidays also received their medals. The men who were on the team are: Graham Fuller, Joseph Lindgren and Jesse A. Reynolds.

Howard Lewis, Wahpeton, and H. W. Herbison, Minnewauken, returned to their respective counties Sunday after spending a few days here attending the Farmer's Week.

President Coulter Goes To Capital Saturday

Effort Will Be Made To Increase Tariffs To Protect North-West Farmer

President John Lee Coulter left Saturday for Washington, D. C., where he will appear before the house ways means committee as spokesman for the Northwest Agricultural foundation.

This foundation was organized recently in an effort to protect the farmers of North and South Dakota, Montana and Minnesota by raising the tariff on sugar beets, flax, sweet clover and various feed crops. For months, economists here and at the other three Agricultural colleges of this spring wheat area, have been delving into the situation, digging out pertinent facts and figures and arranging them so that an intelligent presentation of the case for the farmers of this area may be made.

Dr. Benton Already There

Dr. A. H. Benton, economist in charge of the marketing department here has been in Washington for more than a month, making a final intensive study of the information bearing on possible tariff changes that would benefit farmers of this territory, and getting this material in shape to present before the ways and means committee.

Procedure of Committee

Briefly, the committee in Washington which consists of President Coulter; M. W. Thatcher, St. Paul, manager of the Farmer's Union Terminal association; Harry N. Owen, editor of Farm, Stock and Home, Minneapolis; and I. D. O'Donnell, Montana farmer; will recommend and illustrate why the tariffs on sugar, flax and feed crops should be increased. In 1923 the United States consumed 5,668,000 tons of sugar and less than one-quarter of it was produced in the United States. As flax is used almost entirely for its oil content, a special classification will be asked for in which will increase the tariff from 42c per bushel to 84 cents per bushel. A tariff of approximately 1-2 cent per pound for the feed grain group, will be asked for, which will mean 16 cents per bushel for oats; 24 for barley and 28 and 30 cents for corn. A special classification will also be asked for in the case of sweet clover as from 6,000,000 to 7,000,000 pounds of sweet clover seed is being imported annually due to insufficient tariff protection for American producers.

Australian Debaters Here January 29th

Byron Olson, Harold Peterson, And Raymond Gregorson Will Be State Debaters

On the evening of January the 29th three students representing North Dakota State College will be pitted against three students of the University of Sydney, Australia, in the third annual international collegiate debate contest.

The Little Country Treater will have on its stage a round-the-world debating team upholding the affirmative side of the question, Resolved; that the scientists should have a ten year layoff.

The men composing the Australian team are: H. G. Godsall, trip manager and a recent graduate in law; W. S. Sheldon, an undergraduate in law, and N. C. L. Nelson, a law graduate and a solicitor of the Supreme Court of his country.

The personnel of the opposition will be composed of Byron Olson, a student in the school of Agriculture with two years collegiate debating experience at the Jamestown College; Raymond Gregorson a senior in the school of education and he also has had several years of debating at the state Teachers College at Valley City; and the third member, Harold Peterson. The trio will uphold the negative side of the question.

The Australian team has debated 25 American Universities since October 20, and, upon completion of half a dozen contracts in western Canada and northwest United States, they will proceed homeward via Europe and Asia.

The manager in completing negotiations with the Lincoln Debate Club said, "the men possess a quaint sense of humor which ingratiates them with their audience and enlivens their speech, while underneath their jolly exteriors is a sincere and earnest effort to get at the truths of the worlds problems."

The Board of Publications will participate in a luncheon in Ceres hall this noon at 12:15.

NOTICE!

All students must enter the Northwest corner door downstairs for all of the remaining conference games in the armory. Sections reserved for students include both end bleachers and the North Balcony. The section on the South side is reserved for faculty and Bison boosters.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

It goes without saying that the Delta Phi Beta sorority is to be congratulated on its recent attainment of being granted a charter by the national organization known as Kappa Kappa Gamma. All members of the school and faculty are certainly pleased to have a chapter of the national sorority on this campus. Though we do not wish to appear to be over-anxious to shower praise on the Betas, it must be said that the name of Kappa Kappa Gamma alone adds a certain prestige to the school and campus.

Taking as a basis that the members of Delta Phi Beta proved themselves worthy of their new charter, it must be remembered that the national organization also had confidence in the school itself. The fact that Kappa Kappa Gamma believed that North Dakota State College is on the road to future success and development, is a distinct compliment to the school and a confirmation for the belief that the rest of us hold. So the Betas must pardon us if we contend that The Spectrum is nearly as elated as they over the recent attainment.

The school is growing and growing and growing.—H. P.

HIGH SCHOOL DEBATE TRYOUTS THURSDAY

Tryouts for the Agricultural and Manual Arts High School debate teams will be held in the Little Country Theatre on Thursday afternoon, January 24, at 4 P. M. Arrangements have been completed for debates to be held with the Northwest School of Agriculture, Crookston, Minn. and with the West Central School and Station, Morris, Minn. These debates will be held early in March, possibly on March 8th.

There will be three speakers on each of the debate teams representing this high school so it will be necessary to select six contestants at the tryouts.

Any high school student is eligible to participate in these contests. Those desiring to tryout should have a five minute talk prepared on any one of the following suggested topics:

1. The foreign policy of the United States.
2. Intervention of the United States in Central America.
3. Is the United States imperialistic?
4. Should Americans ask for protection of their property in foreign lands.

Bruce McNeil, Howard Myster, and Ronald McKinnon, University guests at the Military Ball, were guests at the Delta Sig house while they were here.

The Misses Evelyn Walker and Jean Olson were guests of Jessie McLachlin during the week end.

Ebullitions of Ebony Blott

By Everett Wallum

Five women were named Master Homemakers, but not a posie for the can opener.

Three Master Homebrewers will be hung in Chicago's Hall of Maim tonight.

The ordinary mother is forced to see people point towards her children, saying to her: "What did you have to bring that up for?"

Our idea of conflict would be a Master Homemaker marrying a Bolshevik.

Some big money and mortgage men from the east are going to organize a Hometakers Club.

For admittance to the select circle of Master Homebreakers, we suggest: Golf, Greta Garbo, Gin, and John Gilbert.

One Master Homemaker defined the home as "the place where you do your bestliving". And worst loving, probably.

While modern youth thinks home is just a coaling station between Pleasure Island and Cape of Good Dope.

Which means that there are probably no Master Homeneckers.

The Master Homemakers were given gold pins, while non-skid rolling pins would have been more appropriate.

We note that a man by the name of Hammer was hung the other night by the Saddle and Sirloin club. Maybe it's this hammer murderer we've heard so much about.

Maybe they just call him that because he hit the nail on the head in a speech once.

The beekeepers met too, and they decided that just because a person has got hives is no sign he is a rash man.

We feel sorry for the poor mormon, who stoically said: "I regret that I have but one wife to give my country."

The maxim "two can live cheaper than one" has caused a drouth of bachelors in Scotland.

Our investigation brings out the salient fact that the husband looks cheaper anyway.

Bison Win From South Dakota University At Vermillion

Second Game Of Trip Won By Morningside

Morningside Wins 36 To 32 As Both Teams Go On Offensive Rampage

By MILO HOISVEEN

The Bison met and easily defeated the South Dakota University quint at Vermillion by 29-17 score. The South Dakotans will attempt to even this defeat Saturday when they play the Bison at the College Armory.

At half time the Bison had displayed their superiority and led the Redmen by 17-7 margin. In the deciding half Saalwaechter's men were satisfied to play the Southerners to an even count.

Bobby Hahn was the star of the game as it was through his accurate passing that the Bison on many occasions were able to work the ball through the South Dakota defense. Hahn was tied by Bliss for the scoring honor, each forward being credited with eight points. G. Patterson, University's guard, starred for his team compiling eight points from the guard position.

The deeds of King Midas were again repeated, but this time the role of the king was played by Crippen, Morningside guard, and in place of turning everything he touched into gold he needed but to toss the ball in the air and it would sail through the hoop for the desired two points. It was largely through the shooting of this stellar guard that Morningside was able to defeat the Bison 36 to 32. See-sawing back and forth the lead of either was never over a few points over the other. However, Morningside had to overcome a difference of 21 points in order to upset the dope and win from the Bison. It was only a week before that the Bison had won from the Maroons by a decisive margin of 17 points.

Bobby Hahn walked off with the scoring honors for the Bison with a total of 10 points. He was closely followed by Gergen who counted seven points.

Frosh Lose Both Gamss Saturday

The double header which the Frosh quints played Saturday evening went to the Kappa Psi and Waldorf netmen by a score of 26-17 and 36-15 respectively. The Kappa Psi's played the initial tilt and polished off the frosh for the oncoming Waldorf crew.

At quarter time the Frosh were trailing the fraternity champions by a 6 to 0 count. The Yearlings found their stride and evened the count at half time. Shortly after the opening of the final stanza the Psi's rallied and from then on their lead was never endangered.

Eric Tonn and Walt Olson, centers on their respective teams, were tied for scoring honors with four field goals each. Walsh, Westgate, Walker, and Olson showed up well for the frosh. Shepherd, Hanson, and Tonn were outstanding on the Kappa Psi team.

Waldorfs, who last week met defeat at the hands of the yearlings, came back with a group of veterans who avenged their defeat by a commanding majority. During the first half if the Baby Bison had had no basket to shoot at their scoring would not have been affected. Shoot as they would, the Frosh were unable to make any of their efforts count, and half time found them trailing the Waldorfs 18 to 3. The three points were the result of free throws.

Had it not been for Redhorse Johnson, who counted from the field four times on follow up shots, the missing complex of the First year men would have continued as in the first half. Fairhead, Freshman forward, also rang up a field goal to end the scoring for the Yearling quint.

The Waldorf crew had in their ranks three netmen who had starred on Big Ten conference teams. Cy Arnold, former Bison guard and one-time All-Conference guard was also one of the stars pitted against the Frosh.

Powers and Arnold were outstanding on the Waldorf team. Johnson, Nordstrom, and Fairhead starred on the Frosh quint.

BUSINESS EDUCATION
A business education is a practical education that prepares one for every-day living. It gives the training necessary for entrance into the business world where the demand for trained workers is much greater than the supply. The business world pays a salary twelve months out of the year with two weeks' vacation on full pay.
Hon. W. T. Harris, Ex-Commissioner of Education, said, "Without a thorough and practical commercial education, a man is like a ship at sea without a compass or rudder."

Kappa Phi and Sigma Phi Deltas Will Open Fraternity Play This Evening

Fraternity League basketball will receive its first impetus this evening when the Alpha Kappa Phi and Sigma Phi Deltas play the initial game in the armory. Immediately following this tilt the Kappa Psis and the Kappa Sigma Chi quints will continue the play.

Thursday evening the Gamma Rhos and the Delta Sigs will be pitted against each other. This game will be followed by the Theta Chi-Sigma Tau fray. All games are to be played on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Director Finnegan states that the play for the traveling cup will be discontinued, and that the fraternity winning the cup will gain permanent possession of it. Prior to this arrangement it was necessary for a fraternity to win the championship three consecutive years in order to retain the cup. Under the old ruling a group winning the cup for one or two years had nothing to show for their efforts after relinquishing the trophy to another organization. It is generally understood that the new system is more favorable and it will promote a keener interest in the tournament.

A schedule has been arranged so that each fraternity will meet twice in the play off.

No Independent Team Has As Yet Been Able To Defeat Y. M. C. A. Team

Play in the Independent Basketball League has been under way for the past week, 8 games of the 56 game schedule having been played. Up to date the "Y" team representing the College Y. M. C. A. has successfully disposed of all oponents and is in first place.

The league consists of eight teams, some representing campus organizations and others being independent teams. The teams participating in the league are: Y. M. C. A., last year's champions, Farm Husbandry, Farm Machinery, representative of their respective groups, Architects and Barracks. The independent teams are: the Ramblers, Jensions, and the Olsons were recently replaced by the Tappa Kegs. Oscar Hanson, Ben Gorder, and Stanley Raymond are supervising and officiating the play of the league.

With the exception of the "Y" no other team has enjoyed a clean slate. The Architects defeated the Farm Husbandry team 15 to 4, and in turn were defeated by the Barracks 30 to 18. The "Y" men defeated the Ramblers twice and won from the Jensions, the latter defeating the Farm Husbandry quint. All teams are scheduled to play during the present week.

The Writers Club held its fifth meeting Thursday evening at the home of Marvin Engebretson. Mr. Kuhn was a guest of the club and gave some valuable suggestions to members. Carro Trace was accepted as a new member. Mr. Loos and Miss Waldrun are faculty advisers of the Club.
