

Powers Hotel Pays $415 For Champion Steer

Boys And Girls Will Return Home After Election Of Officers This Afternoon

343 North Dakota 4-H Club boys and girls will leave North Dakota State today knowing that they have taken part in the most successful Annual Achievement week ever held in North Dakota.

The stock was judged Wednesday morning and sold yesterday morning at public auction bringing exceptional prices. Power's Hotel led the other buyers in the bidding, buying the steer of John McDonald, that was declared champion the day before, and also the grand champion hog from Charles Measer, Tower City, N. Dak. Mr. Powers was forced to pay 42 cents per pound for the 989 pound champion making a total of $415, and 30 cents per pound for the grand champion hog which totaled $75.

Armour and Co. bid in the grand champion sheep at 60 cents a pound, but when the reserve champion was bid in at 75 cents per pound by J. W. Haw for the Northern Pacific, they raised their bid to 75 cents that the reserve grand champion might not sell for more than the grand champion. The reserve and grand champions belonged to brothers Frank and Roy Stoverson from Readings, N. Dak.

A list of the buyers of stock who in reality make this Achievement institute possible include: The Fargo Forum, First National Bank of Kindred, Viking Hotel, Peoples Co-operative Commission Company of South St. Paul, Fargo Rotary Club, North-western Fair of Minot, Powers Hotel, Great Northern, Minot Association of Commerce, Leland Parker Hotel of Minot, Northern Pacific, Dakota National Bank of Larimore, Soo Line Railway, Northern School Supply, Manchester Biscuit Co., Fargo Laundry, North Dakota Harness Co., Hanson Auto and Tractor School, Crescent Jewelry Co., First National Bank of Minot, Grand Hotel of Minot, Enderlin Kiwanis Club, Merchants National Bank of Gardner, Grand Forks Kiwanis Club, Northern States Power Co., Wahpeton Commercial Club, (Continued on page four)

County Agents Will Meet December 15-19

Members of the staff of the North Dakota Extension division including the county agents of the state will hold their annual conference, Dec. 15 to 19 at the North Dakota State college.

Most of the program will be devoted to a discussion of methods of conducting extension work, according to Director C. F. Monroe. One of the outside speakers will be F. R. Crane of Crookston, Minn., organizer for Farmers Union in this state. Mr. Crane will discuss the Farmers Union program and will comment on the possible relationships of the county agent with the Farmers Union.

Two speakers from the United States department of agriculture will appear, H. R. Tolley, assistant chief of the bureau of agricultural economics, and A. B. Graham, in charge of extension specialists. B. E. Groom, chairman of the agricultural committee of the Greater North Dakota Association, will tell about the agricultural work planned by that organization during the coming year. Wm. Guy, manager of the Chaffee farms at Amenia and a former county agent in Cass county, is scheduled for some constructive criticism of extension work from a farm viewpoint.

Marie Smith Miller is visiting her family for the week end.

State Debaters

Ralph Erickson (right) and Nicholas LeFor (left) represented the North Dakota State College last night when they met the Idaho University debating team in the first debate for the season held in the Seminar room of the Public Discussion Department at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Erickson and Mr. LeFor upheld the affirmative side of the question: "Resolved, that the United States shall cease to protect, by armed force, American investors and investments in foreign lands, except after a formal declaration of war." The negative side of the question was upheld by George Huber and Walter Slaughter of Idaho University. They left here for Illinois where they will debate the Loyola University and the University of Chicago, going from there to the St. Louis University before returning home. Lunch was served in the Lincoln Log Cabin following the debate.

Committees To Plan Brevities During Vacation

Wallum Urges Every Organization To Be Represented At Meet This Afternoon

"Every organization must have a representative at the meeting this afternoon," state Everett Wallum, president of Blue Key in speaking of the meeting in the Little Country Theatre today at four p.m., when a representative from every fraternity and sorority will meet with the committee from Blue Key to make plans for staging the Bison Brevities downtown this winter.

The meeting at this time will afford the representative of the fraternity or sorority to present the plans to the organization at the regular meeting Monday night. A committee may then be appointed and in case they have not already conceived of an idea for an act, they may ponder on it over the coming vacation.

Organizations are urged by the committee to start work on their acts at once, for rumor has it that one organization on the campus has already been rehearsing their act for two weeks. They were unaware of the fact that the brevities were to be given down town and planned on securing first place on Gay Cat Day.

New Term Will Start Wednesday January 2

Registration For Winter Term Is Now In Full Sway And Must Be Completed

Registration for the winter term began on Monday of this week and according to Alfred H. Parrott, registrar, must be completed before Saturday, December 22, 1928.

December 22nd is the date that all class cards and programs must be in the hands of the registrar, but if the student desires to mail the check for his registration fees after going home, he may mail it anytime before the 31st.

To aid in earlier registration, the maximum limit has been removed and the penalty per day has been doubled. Any student who neglects to be registered by the dates set will be required to pay one dollar ($1.00) per day until registered with no maximum amount.

Budget Board Again Promises Assistance

Armory Was Packed To Hear Members Of State Budget Board Tuesday

President John Lee Coulter introduced R. B. Murphy, chairman of the board of administration, F. E. Diehl, and W. F. Church, members of the board of administration, Mrs. Craig and Mr. Watt, both members of the legislative appropriations committee, to the student body at a crowded convocation on Tuesday morning at 9:40 a.m.

Each members of the budget board seemed to be of practically the same opinion, that it was North Dakota State's turn to receive some appropriations with which to build some new buildings to take care of the ever increasing enrollment.

A number of interesting facts were brought out at the convocation. It takes approximately five million dollars every biennial year to operate and maintain North Dakota's institutions of higher learning. Members of the board realize the building needs, but ask "Where is the money to come from?" Mr. Watt stated that the farmers of the state are paying seventy per cent of the taxes today.

Mr. Diehl paid the school a compliment in closing by elaborating upon the fine work the school has carried on over the state and told that people over the state are noticing it more and more stating that "the personal friends that have been made, personal interest created, and personal contacts made has insured the future development of North Dakota State."

SIGMA TAU XMAS PARTY TONIGHT

Santa Claus will make a personal appearance to distribute presents to members of the active and rookie chapters of the Alpha Sigma Tau Fraternity at their chapter house this evening.

The Sigma Taus have planned a little Christmas party and get-together. Presents will be distributed by "Ebony Blott" who will impersonate "Kris Kringle". Each member of both chapters was given a name of another to purchase a simple gift for. Besides this the members have combined into four groups each of which will buy a gift for the chapter house.

Musical entertainment will be furnished by the Sigma Tau Rookie Trio composed of Burt Kilbourne, Bob Anderson, and Bob Schultze. The fraternity will attend a movie and then return to the chapter house for cards and a smoker. At the end of the evening the Christmas presents will be presented.

Gil Moum's father from Carbury visited the Kappa Sigma Chi house over the week end.

Coulter Calls Convocation For 8:45 A.M. Today

Building Needs Will Be Stressed And Interest Aroused In Student Body

President Coulter announced yesterday afternoon that there would be a convocation this morning at 8:45. The whole thing seems to have a mystery about it. President Coulter will have charge of the convocation and states that he has a very important message for the student body and an important announcement. He says, "Be there!"

The main purpose of the convocation is to form an organization with which the various representatives and senators over the state may be reached during the coming Christmas vacation. Students from each county will be organized and the facts presented to them as President Coulter sees them, so that they may be broadcast throughout the state during the next two weeks.

Bison Pictures Must Be Taken Today

Today marks the last possible date for upperclassmen to have their pictures taken for the classes section of the 1930 Modernistic Bison, according to Frances Ross, editor of the section.

A final drive to secure the maximum number of juniors and seniors for this part of the book has been conducted by members of the staff during the past week. If any junior or senior wishes to pay his photo fees and be represented in the college yearbook, he or she may come to the Bison office at any time today and receive an appointment.

The Bison is the annual of the entire student body, and, in order to make a true expression of the whole school, upperclassmen are urged to avail themselves of this final opportunity to have their pictures in the book.

Architects "Heartily" Welcome All Visitors

At least one department on the campus believes in mixing sociability with learning. Our architects, under the guidance of Prof. Phil Keene and Bill Shine, have prepared a most hospitable notice for all probable guests of the School. Of course you may not think this prepared list a model welcome, but you can decide for yourself. Here 'tis—

VISITORS WELCOME

Visitors entering the library leave the door open or apologize.

When drawings are in view, be sure to look them over and give your advice as we have no instructors for that purpose.

Lean against our desks or put your feet on them—it aids us in our work.

Talk loud, argue, sing or whistle—it may have the effect you desire.

If we are in conference with our instructors, don't wait—butt right in.

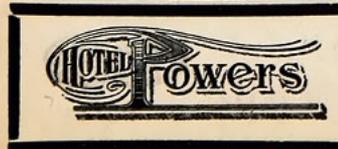

If you wish to know where your roommate hid your sox, call the department as our instructors have nothing to do but answer important phone calls.

Use the library, but don't put your books away—let that be our pleasure.

Those having no business please remain as long as possible—remember open house each nite 7:15—10:30.

Make this your meeting place for all occasions.

The house girls of Kappa Delta will entertain their friends at an informal party at the chapter house Sunday evening.

SPEND A GOOD VACATION

This morning at convocation our president, our alumni secretary, and various other campus officials with the aid of Blue Key fraternity presented a plan to aid the school in securing all of the desired appropriations at the next meeting of legislature.

President Coulter with the aid of senior members of Blue Key told the situation as they saw it, emphasizing the facts that North Dakota State has had no new buildings since the building of the "Ag" building, but on the other hand has had a continual increase in enrollment every year since then. At the present time we have the largest freshman class of any institution of higher learning in the state.

With all these facts presented to the last session of legislature, they refused to build us a single building. They heard not our needs or else did not care to see us grow by furnishing us with additional classrooms with which to handle the ever increasing enrollment.

Now the student body has had a plan presented to them whereby they may help in this great movement. With the cooperation of every student on the campus we will undoubtedly receive our new armory, a wing on Science, a wing on "Ag", a wing on the library and the completion of the boy's dormitory.

When you are home don't forget to remember the duties assigned you and go and tell your representative or senator or both of the needs of North Dakota State.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

The Spectrum staff wishes each and every one of you a very merry Christmas and a happy New Year. Santa Claus will undoubtedly be good to you in filling your sock, bringing you joy and taking all cares away, so that you may be back at work with a new spirit at 8 a.m., Wednesday, January 2, 1929.

Among Our Contemporaries

An article has appeared in several college papers which criticises the voices of college coeds. Martin B. Ruud, professor of English at the University of Minnesota, says that the voice of a modern coed sounds like a cross between the cawing of a crow and the shrieking of a hawk.

Aviation is to be included in the curriculum of the College of St. Thomas. Students will be given an opportunity to study the construction of airplanes and to acquire a general knowledge of aviation.

Since we have been promised "four, or five, or six" new buildings it may be possible to have a course in aviation here some day too.

Women students of Northwestern University, in working towards good dates for all men, are going to operate a "dress clinic" and standardize the appearance of all the girls, whether they are too short, too tall, or too stout.

The Y. W. C. A. members of Jamestown College recently had a discussion on "How to be at Home with Men" - believe it or not.

Just Comment
WISE and OTHERWISE

By Henry Presler

FOR SOME time we have been promising you that a Cadet Hop was forthcoming. It seems definite enough that this afternoon at four o'clock the Scabard and Blade fraternity will sponsor a dance. This party will be given in the college "Y" gymnasium. Let us get our minds off of exams for a few hours and attend the last dance of the term en masse.

THE KIDDIES party will complete this term's social calendar. All organizations on the campus have cooperated with the "Y" boards. Preparations for the affair seem to forecast success. Tomorrow evening at six o'clock is the time. The place is the Y. M. C. A. building. Be there!

DOWNTOWN BUSINESS houses decorate our city for the coming holidays. Churches of the city sponsor special programs; public schools stage Christmas plays. The Kiddies Party is our bit toward bringing cheer to others.

WEDNESDAY EVENING'S Forum declared that members of the state budget board realized the necessity for better facilities in handling our ever growing student body, and the pressing need for more buildings. Will the board act favorably on Dr. Coulter's proposed building program? We hope so.

DURING THE last few years this college has made the largest growth of any state institution, they declared.

IF, AS Saint Nick went by, a couple buildings fell out of his sled The Spectrum would feel satisfied. Perhaps a few more dormitory stories would be acceptable and we need not mention the armory. The big point to carry home with you is that your college is growing faster than ever before. Its power and prestige is mounting. Educational opportunities are plentiful at this institution. Sell the school to some high school graduate during your stay at home. We need him, but he probably needs us more.

It is gratifying to have the assurance that members of the board have felt necessity for what all of us have been asking for: a larger school for a greater student body.

Brindle Passes Physical Aviation Examination

Pat Brindle, a Senior in the School of Engineering, passed a physical examination for entrance to the Army air corps last Thursday in the Area squadrons office at St. Paul.

This examination has a national-wide reputation of being the "stiffest physical examination in the country" and Pat took his examination under a surgeon with a reputation of "being the stiffest doctor in the Area." Brindle passed the examination with "colors flying" and is a very happy young man at this moment.

Within the next few weeks Brindle will be notified of the time that he is to report. He will go into training at Brooks and Kelly field in Texas. This is the field that graduated Lindberg.

The Christmas Children's party at the "Y" tomorrow presents an opportunity for State college students to kid themselves.

The reason they're bringing so many children is to cause some of this traffic jam for the youngsters.

Kiddies probably won't hang up their stockings on account of the thieves on the campus.

If these guests are all poor children, they should stage the party in the Armory to make them feel at home.

Or else take the youngsters slumming the barracks.

If there really is a Santa Clause, why doesn't he put some mistletoe over Ceres Hall.

A committee from the W. C. T. U. is going to be on hand to quiz Santa as to his red nose.

And Santa will reply that he never got a red nose by poking it into other people's business.

Santa's ability to come down a soot-ridden chimney without besmirching his lily-white thicket has led an enterprising soap company to approach him for an endorsement.

Those who want to make pop corn for Xmas had better find out first what kind of corn pop likes.

We hope St. Nick visits members of the State Legislature in order to set a good example.

We hope Santa doesn't give the kiddies a jumping-jack. That's the trouble with all the jack we've had—it jumps too fast.

If Santa Clause fills the stockings half as well as our Co-eds fill theirs, he's some boy.

There is a rumor to the effect that that the jolly old gentleman is using collegiate flivvers instead of rattles this year.

Some of the fellows won't have to hang up their socks. They can just set 'em right up.

Remember that old story of the bad boy who got only a stick and a lump of coal in his stocking? Lucky boy, if it happened today.

Bison Will Meet Viking Five There Tonight

Johnson, Blakeslee, To Be Out Of Contest

Frosh Practice Cut Short; Bison Leave On Trip Through Ill. And Minnesota Dec. 18

The Bison basketball squad will leave for Valley City today where they will play the Valley City Vikings in the return engagement that is scheduled for tonight. Coach Saalwaechter is in high hopes of conquering the Vikings on their own court and the Vikings are equally determined in their preparations for the State five whom they led a greater part of the contest here only to lose out as the Bison rallied in the closing minutes of the game.

Since the game with the Vikings Saturday, Saalwaechter has been drilling his squad on offense and defense, as he expects stiffer opposition than the Valley City quint offered here. Wednesday the Bison rushed through a long scrimmage which is expected to lessen the errors that cropped out during the initial competition.

The Bison will leave on their 12 day invasion of Illinois and Minnesota shortly before the beginning of the Christmas recess, playing their first contest December 20 at Galesburg, Illinois with Lombard College as their opponent. Bradley Polytechnic and Millikin University will be met on succeeding nights, while Illinois Wesleyan concludes the Illinois invasion.

The Bison will play the Austin Independents in a two game series and the Rochester American Legion quint. The final game of the trip will be with Augsburg college January 2.

Joe Blakeslee, sophomore guard, turned his knee in practice and will be unable to play until the middle of the winter term. Gil Johnson is still unable to start and Saalwaechter is waiting until he has thoroughly recovered from the removal of his tonsils and Cy Peschel has recovered from his sickness of last week.

Saalwaechter will probably take ten or more men to Valley City this week. The starting lineup will in all probability be the same that started against the Vikings here.

Freshman basketball practices were cut short for the holidays, the last practice being held Wednesday night in order to give the Frosh a chance to study for their examinations.

State Warriors Down Struggling Animals

BY ALAN DOTSON

Three North Dakota State hunters, Professor Kenneth Keating, Curtis Ballard, and Red Peterson, got 26 jackrabbits by fair and funny means recently.

Professor Keating proved to be a remarkable shot, hitting several of the long legged animals, while his mates succeeded in scaring a few others to death.

It was a bad day for the rabbits, when this terrible trio entered the fray. According to reports, offered by the three rabbit exterminators but unfortunately unsupported by eye witnesses, Ballard removed the tips of the ears from one rabbit at a distance of 250 yards, shot another between the eyes at even a greater distance, while his companion Peterson, shooting at another of the furry balls sent the bullet through the head and broke the left hind leg, this evidently spoiling the rabbit's good luck as Peterson was able to overtake the rabbit after a long chase and subdue his struggles by kicking it in the head. The members of the trio then voted Red a brass medal for preventing cruelty to animals.

Y. M. C. A. PLANS TEN TEAM BB LEAGUE

The Y. M. C. A. basketball league will begin to function shortly after the beginning of the winter term according to Gil Moe and Ben Gorder who will again have charge of the League this year.

Last year there were ten teams throughout the 18 game schedule. The Y. M. C. A. quint went through its schedule undefeated while the Kappa Psi team was victorious in its 13 contests. The Kappa Psi team won two of the three game series to decide the campus championship.

Professor Rudolph Otterson announces that four entrants have already been secured for the tentative ten team organization. Moe and Gorder announce that the organizations of the campus should enter their teams before the term is over in order that the league may get under way with the beginning of the new term.

Last year teams were the Y.M.C.A., Whippets, Nighthawks, Demons, Ramblers, Barracks, Tappa Kegs, Arkeetex, Mavericks, and Farm Husbandry. Entries should be given to Professor Otterson in the Y. M. C. A.

BARRACKS CLUB INITIATES FIFTEEN

CAMPUS HAS FOUR PAIR OF TWINS

That the North Dakota State college has four pair of twins on the campus was recently discovered when a check of the student body was made.

First, the Palmerlee twins, Al and Tom are introduced. They are seniors in Education and members of Pi Gamma Mu and Phi Kappa Phi. Havana is their home town and their favorite haunt is the library.

The senior class also has another pair of twins. These are Cecil and Laurel Kingsley. Laurel is registered in Education and belongs to Pi Gamma Mu and Phi Kappa Phi as well as Alpha Xi Beta. Cecil is an engineer and a Sigma Phi Delta. Their home town is Mohall.

Ila Mae and Ione Fae Tucker are from Moorhead. They are juniors this year in Science and Literature and their organization is Phi Omega Pi. If you know one you know the other for you never find them separately.
