

Idaho Debaters To Meet State Thursday Night

Nicholas LeFor and Ralph Erickson Represent N. D. State Thursday

This season's first debate on the forensic program of the North Dakota Agricultural College will be held in the Little Country Theatre on Thursday, Dec. 13, 1928, at 7:30 p. m.

The question to be debated under the open forum, non-decisive plan is: "Resolved, that the United States shall cease to protect, by armed force, American investors and investments in foreign lands, except after a formal declaration of war."

Mr. Leonard Rygg, treasury of the Board of Public Speaking, will act as chairman of the debate.

The affirmative will be upheld by Nickolas Lefor of Dickinson, North Dakota, and Ralph Erickson of Sidney Montana, Junior and Senior, respectively in the school of pharmacy at the local institution; while George Huber and Walter Slaughter, who accompanied by Coach J. J. Garland, representing the University of Idaho, will take the stand of the negative.

The two visiting debaters are juniors in the School of Business Administration at the University of Idaho and have three years of debating experience to their credit, Mr. Slaughter being this year's student debate manager of that institution.

Mr. Huber and Mr. Slaughter left Idaho University on Dec. 9, and have arranged debates with the following institutions: University of Montana, Montana State College, North Dakota Agricultural College, Loyola University, University of Chicago, St. Louis University, and University of Duquesne. The team will consequently travel as far east as Chicago and south to St. Louis Missouri, covering a distance of nearly 2800 miles, and have prepared four debate questions for use on the trip. These are:

"Temporary Insanity as a defense for Crime," "Armed Protection of Foreign Investment," "The Power of the Press," and "Abolition of Trial by Jury."

They will return to the University of Idaho during the Christmas holidays.

The question for debate here is very much in the public mind at the present time owing to its application to the relationship between the United States and Latin America.

President-elect Hoover's "Good Will" trip to Central and South America is creating a question as to whether or not Mr. Hoover contemplates any change from the present administration's foreign policy.

This debate, therefore, should be of interest to the entire student body as well as to the general public.

MISSIONARIES WILL VISIT STATE NEXT SUMMER

To many of the faculty members and most of the alumni it will be of interest to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Wolsted '16 who are engaged in missionary work in India will visit the United States during the coming summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolsted are outstanding alumni of the North Dakota State College. After receiving his B. S. degree from State College, Mr. Wolsted attended a theological school from which he received a degree. Upon graduation he and Mrs. Wolsted who was Miss Mable Ewen, '16 accepted a missionary position in far India where Rev. Wolsted has been in charge of social and agricultural development in his parish.

News has just been received that Mr. and Mrs. Wolsted intend to spend their vacation in their native land and will be in the United States from May 1, 1929 to August 30, 1930.

CHEMISTS CLUB MEET WELL ATTENDED

The large group of chemists who attended their monthly meeting on Thursday evening report an excellent meeting with the musical numbers by members of the faculty as the outstanding features.

R. A. Truby, local manager of the Guardian Life Insurance and regional head of the Boy Scouts, gave an interesting speech on leadership.

Y Makes Special Offer To Groups

Any Basketball Team May Use "Gym" For Season For $15

That club memberships offered by the college Y makes a big appeal to college organizations is the opinion of Byron Olson, Pres. of the cabinet. A majority of the fraternities have taken advantage of the exceptionally low rates.

Sponsoring "triple plan" membership drive will greatly increase the list of members it is thought by Byron Olson. Under the plan three types of memberships are offered for choice. A five dollar membership will entitle any individual to all privileges of the Y. The plan entitles clubs to join the "Y" at a special rate based on the number of active members in the organization. Any organized group holding the club offer is permitted to use the gymnasium for basketball, dances, and parties. Individuals enrolled in groups may at any time take out personal memberships by paying an additional three dollars. For those interested only in basketball a special membership has been provided which permits them to use the floor for practice and games. Any teams interested may enroll for the season at the low rate of fifteen dollars.

The college Y at the North Dakota State College is one of the very finest in the whole northwest. According to Mr. Otterson students should feel fortunate having such a splendid building at their disposal. Mr. Rudolph Otterson, "Y" Secretary and Byron Olson, his assistant hope that many may find it possible to enjoy privileges at the Y. For this reason they urge the clubs and individuals to enroll early so as to get in on all the fun from the first.

Interclass Debates To Be In January

The first annual Interclass Debate Contest will be held in the Little Country Theatre on Jan. 9th and 10th, 1929, at 7:30 o'clock.

The subject of the debate is "Resolved—that the influence of modern advertising is detrimental to public welfare."

On Jan. 9 the Juniors represented by Russell Weiser and Alvira Brown will uphold the affirmative against Joseph Paulson and Karl Gerteis, representatives of the Freshman Class.

The following evening the same subject will be treated by Raymond Gregorson and Harold Fog who in behalf of the seniors will uphold the affirmative against Carrol Anderson and Cecil Carroll, members of the Sophomore class.

The two winning teams will, at a date to be decided later, make a final effort to win the trophy which will be awarded by the Lincoln Debate Club, according to Prof. A. G. Arvold.

The contest is being sponsored by the Lincoln Debate Club and is being assisted by the class in debating. Douglas Summerville, Harold Peterson, and Edmund Burke will make an endeavor to carry their respective teams to victory.

Pi Gamma Mu, national social science honor fraternity, meets tonight in the dining room of the Y.W.C.A. The multilateral treaty will be discussed by the members. Lunch will be served immediately following the discussion.

Crowd Packs L. C.T. For Annual Xmas Festival

"The Christmas Story" Given As A Pantomime With Pipe Organ Music

Completely packing the Little Country Theatre, a large crowd enthusiastically received the Thirteenth Annual Christmas Festival last Sunday afternoon. Altho the presentation was scheduled for four o'clock, the crowd began to collect at three and all the seats were occupied before four. Many were turned away, thus missing a delightful performance.

"The Christmas Story" was chosen for this year's event and all four scenes were successful in depicting the story of Christmas. The first scene showed the shepherds watching their flocks by night when an angel appeared to tell them of the fulfillment of the prophecy. The shepherds after conquering their fears go in search of Christ.

The elaborate court of King Herod was the setting for the second scene. Herod's wrath on learning of the Saviour is shown when the Wise men tell their experience. The scene showed the attendants, scribes and dancers in their connection with the King.

A street scene of Bethlehem was the third part of the play. Children playing in the street and the people of the city learned of the messiah from the shepherds, who came in search of the Child.

Mary, holding the Holy Child, and Joseph were in the fourth scene, which showed the manger. Simeon, Ann, the shepherds, the wisemen, and the people all came to give gifts and to pay homage to the new born king. A group of carol singers sang a christie final scene.

Music for the presentation was played on a pipe organ by Thomas Caniff. The organ was procured especially for the occasion.

Immediately following the presentation the spectators were entertained in the Seminar room. In this room was a toy shop where the different toys came to life to dance. Each toy in turn danced his mechanical steps and returned to his rigid state. Some of the toys represented were: Jumping Jacks, a dog, a doll, a tin soldier, a rabbit, and Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Dan.

In every room of the second and third stories of Old Main were placed story tellers who told the different stories of Christmas time. The story telling class was employed for this. The library was used as an exhibit of Christmas literature.

To cap the event a lunch was served in the Lincoln Log Cabin. The foods of six nations were displayed and served. After every one had his coffee and cookies, the day was considered ended and very one departed with a very good time behind him.

In presenting the festival the following committees and chairmen were made: presentation, Mable Wenzel; Toy Shop, Evelyn Blakeslee; story telling, May Sontag; refreshments, Anna Baker; decorations, Dorothy Moffitt; and promotion, Agnes Schlanser.

UNSIGNED ARTICLES

The Spectrum has announced innumerable times that everything handed in must signed. The names are never used but for our own protection we must know. In the case of Student Opinions the initials will be used.

At this time we have a first class student opinion in our drawers without even any initials on it and a letter to Ebony Blott signed with the initials Q. E. D. We want to run both of these and wish that the authors would come in and introduce themselves at once so that they may be published in Friday's paper.

THREE SORORITY INSPECTORS HERE THIS WEEK

North Dakota State is the host of three national sorority inspectors this week.

Mrs. Blanche Agnell, Minneapolis, an alumnae of the Minn. U. chapter of Phi Upsilon Omicron is here inspecting the local chapter; Miss Thelma Chisholm is here inspecting the Kappa Delta sorority; and Mrs. J. E. Finley is inspecting the Sigma Theta sorority.

Achievement Institute Draws 300 Boys, Girls

Club Stock Will Be Sold At Public Auction Thursday

North Dakota State is host this week to more than three hundred 4H club boys and girls who started coming in yesterday for their annual achievement institute which opens here today, and will terminate on the 14th.

Program arrangements have not yet been completed. A conference will be called by Lee Ferguson of Kenschel, president, this afternoon for the purpose of completing the arrangements. The forenoons will be devoted to class room and campus demonstrations with the afternoon and the evening being occupied with sight seeing trips and recreational activities.

Featuring the annual show will be the sale of fat livestock, fitted by the junior students. The animals to be put on display will be 25 beef calves, 20 pigs, and 20 lambs. Officials of the college livestock department state that the quality of this year's animals excel that of last year. The animals are to be judged Wednesday, Dec. 12.

A public auction will be held Thursday forenoon for the purpose of disposing of the stock judged on Wednesday. In addition to the various railroads and corporations a number of North Dakota cities will have bidders present at the sales.

A. G. Arvold, head of the public speaking department, will have charge of a number of the entertainment features in the Little Country Theatre. The Fargo Chamber of Commerce will entertain club members with a sight seeing tour about Fargo. A number of the business places will be visited during the tour. The annual banquet which is also under the auspices of this organization will be given Wednesday evening.

Trophies will be given to the outstanding club boy and the outstanding club girl. The trophies will be presented by Alpha Gamma Rho, national agricultural fraternity, and Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics sorority.

Ralph Welch, president of Epsilon Chapter of Alpha Gamma Rho, won this award a number of years ago when he was president of the institute and a representative of Grafton high school.

The members of the 4H club will represent from 30 to 35 counties. Each county will have one or more chaperones, some of whom are instructors in agricultural subjects in high school.

REYNOLDS RECEIVES SADDLE-SIRLOIN PIN

The Saddle and Sirloin club now has a paid up membership of close to 90 members as the result of a recent membership drive and contest put on in the school of Agriculture.

It has been the custom of the club to award a Saddle and Sirloin pin to the member who secures the largest number of memberships, and this year Jesse A. Reynolds, Van Hook, was awarded the pin. He nosed Clarence Swallers out of the reward by securing 34 memberships while Swallers had but 31. Several other members of the club entered in the contest bringing in the remaining twenty-five memberships.

'Bison Brevities' Will Be Planned At Friday Meet

Blue Key Will Sponsor Program Program Downtown This Year

The "Bison Brevities" of last year's Gay Cat day will be given in a downtown theatre at some date this winter to be announced later and will be sponsored by the social service fraternity of the campus, Blue Key, according to letters recently mailed out by the fraternity.

One representative from each sorority and fraternity has been asked to meet with a committee appointed from Blue Key in the Little Country Theatre on Friday, December 14th at 4. P. M. Each organization is urged to send their outstanding member, that he or she may capably present the plans as laid out at this meeting to their respective groups.

Everett Wallum, president of Blue Key has named the following on the committee from Blue Key to work out the details with the committees to be named from the sororities and fraternities at the meeting Friday: M. Foss Narum, president of the Student Commission; Wm. Rundquist, senior in the school of Engineering; Ben Gorder, senior in the school of Agriculture; and George Hays, senior in the school of Education.

Kiddies Party On Saturday, Dec. 15

Poor Children Of City Will Be Entertained By Campus Organizations

The Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. will entertain the children of the city of Fargo at their annual kiddies party to be held in the College "Y" on Saturday, Dec. 15.

Each fraternity, sorority and campus organization will bring children to the party and will be their hosts and hostesses for the evening. The entertainment is planned for the children who will not see such a bountiful Christmas as the richer of the city.

The party will assemble in the "Y" at 5:00 p.m. and a dinner will be served at 6:00 p.m. The Christmas atmosphere will prevail during the dinner and a Santa Claus will make his appearance and distribute gifts to the youngsters.

The chairmen of the committees are as follows: Decorations, Byron Olson; Table Setting, Margaret Zimmerman; Waitresses, Doris Wilner; Foods, Christine Johnson; Finance, Margaret Ballard; Transportation, Ethel Jones; and Cleanup, Stanley Bernston.

SIGMA THETA PLEDGES ENTERTAIN ACTIVES

Pledges of Sigma Theta sorority were hostesses for active members and their friends at the Waldorf Hotel Saturday evening, December 8. Hours were enjoyed from 8:30 until 11:30 by informal dancing.

Miss Dorothea Ward was in charge of general arrangements. Patrons and Patronesses were Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Hunter and Misses Dorothy Cole and Nancy Elliott.

GAMMA RHOS ENTERTAIN FRIENDS AFTER GAME

Members of the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity staged a dancing party and served a light lunch at their home at 1303 - 13th St. No., Saturday evening after the Bison-Viking game.

Chaperons for the party were Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Shepperd, Prof. and Mrs. O. A. Barton, and Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Weisner.

Dean Dinan and Mrs. Williams were dinner guests at the Phi Omega Pi house on Sunday.

BISON BREVITIES

When the Blue Key fraternity undertook to put on the "Bison Brevities" down town this year, making a mammoth proposition of the acts, they struck a real idea and have undertaken a big proposition.

The success of this venture will prove their place on the campus as an organization worthy of the explanation "honorary social service fraternity." They cannot do it alone though and do not intend to. They want and must have the cooperation and backing of every North Dakota State student. Organizations must send their representative to the meeting Friday.

As planned now the Brevities will probably be given in the Orpheum theatre late in February. An extensive ticket sale will be put on thru the organizations selling tickets to the entire populace of Cass and Clay counties.

The question arises "Why remove these from our Gay Cat day program?" Blue Key contends that our Gay Cat day is over crowded, many other things that should be taking place on the day are neglected for the Brevities. Also last year many first class acts were given, considerable unknown talent was brought out and fifty per cent of last year's program was far superior to any vaudeville staged down town.

So we ask in unison with Blue Key, "Why not have a secret elimination contest, stage the best six or eight acts down town, make a startling success of the project, start a new tradition and annually put on a program that will do our Alma Mater, North Dakota State up proud.

TAKE IN YOUR COAT

"There are certain activities that are most active on the eve of a holiday." Thus read a notice in the Spectrum before Thanksgiving.

Another holiday season is coming on and one that more will take part in, thus we would suspect that the pre-season activity would be more active.

As to a word of explanation, it is the general consensus of opinion that no one would dare to wear a stolen coat or hat on the campus, but steals them and takes them home for his or her "kid" brother or to possibly make a sale. This sounds like good logic and is very likely true in a number of cases.

Now for a cure. How can this be stopped? At this time we would like to and do suggest that anyone owning better than a $22.50 coat take them in the class room with you for the remainder of the term and especially during the exams next week. Few, if any, instructors will object and the action will make a number of them more at ease rather than to learn afterwards that one of their students coats had been taken while they were "jabbering on."

WISE and OTHERWISE

By Henry Presler

THE BISON, playing without their captain, Bobby Hahn, opened the basketball season with a victory over the Vikings. As the critics have pointed out, the game was a typical early season contest, many errors being made by both teams. The work of the veterans was pleasing and that of the sophomores encouraging. It was anticipated that the attendance would not be large as the towns people thought this game to be unimportant. Yet the number of students present more than exceeded expectations.

OUR FRIENDS from the University opened the season by trouncing the University of Minnesota. The Minneapolis Journal, it seemed, did not know exactly what to make of it, and points out that the Nodaks were aided by several pre-season practice games while Minnesota had none. The Journal write-up appeared quite anxious to bolster up the hopes of local fans. Undoubtedly, North Dakota "U" has a strong basketball team.

KIDDIES PARTY this Saturday! This is one event that is always enjoyable and successful. Plans are being made to serve three hundred at the supper. Too much attention cannot be given this event. All organizations on the campus are firmly supporting the party as are members of the faculty. If you do not know all the details about this affair call at the college "Y" and find out how you can give some youngster a happier Christmas.

THE NEW University Arts Building as being erected at Grand Forks is a beautiful structure. The building will house thirteen departments, the postoffice, University press, etc. When we succeed in persuading the powers that be to finish our dormitory, it will be time enough to hope for something similar.

Our Honor Organizations

Alpha Zeta

Alpha Zeta is an honorary agricultural fraternity and has the distinction of being the first national fraternity at North Dakota State.

It was founded at Ohio State University in 1897 and Dacotah Chapter was organized here in 1909.

Alpha Zeta has as its purpose the encouragement of scholarship and interest in agriculture.

The officers of the organization are Robert Adam, president; Glenn Smith, vice president; Ralph Diehl, treasurer; and Marvin Huckle, secretary. The other members are Harry McLachlin, Leonard Rygg, Loyal Gast, Wayne Weiser, McLoed Duncan, and Russel Weiser.

Student Opinion

I'll be getting a reputation as a habitual crank pretty soon, but there are some things that need mention. We need a crank where there isn't a self-starter. In the matter of courtesy we need a few or more self-starters.

Did anyone by any chance notice at the Christmas Festival that a goodly number of strong, healthy-looking young men occupied seats near the door throughout the performance and neglected to offer them to some of the grayhaired and elderly persons who had to stand? Some of the girls gave up their seats we noticed, and then they had to stand. I think we could very well go to the "old fogies" who are our fathers and grandfathers and learn a few lessons in common courtesy. And if anyone should defend his lack of action by the fact that he attends the A. C. and is entitled to a place, don't forget these people are our guests and should be treated as such. E. P.

So Chisholm invented a new kitchen knife. Imagine, cutting up at his age!

The knife differs from others in that it doesn't collect dirt and grease when used. If housewives would only wash their hands, this knife would be unnecessary.

The invention comes a little late, however. Housewives are using guns these days.

In answer to the query, "Has Jessie Her Doctor's Degree?", we would like to say that she might be a chiropodist. She gets at the foot of a lot of this campus gossip.

When Jessie was informed that she had been designated as a Doctor, she broke down completely. "Ah, me," she moaned, "have my parents been keeping things from me."

As soon as the news leaked out, all the young blades in the Bison office stopped eating apples.

Jessie admits that she might be a Dentist. "I took the teeth out of a clause once," she stated.

Just because she operates on a grand scale is no sign she is a specialist in the diseases of fish.

Being Editor of the Bison, Jessie has got to learn to be called things.

"Maybe it's because I was out with that pill the other night," conjectured the surprised victim.

"Fahrenheit or Centigrade?" inquired Jessie when told that she had a degree.

It could have been worse, though. She might have been called a lawyer.

When asked if she was going to put out her shingle, Jessie stated that she likes a windblown best.

"If you see spots in front of your eyes", says the Doctor McLachlin, "tell your roommate to take off those polka dot pajamas."

Now that Jessie's an M. D., she can cut all her classes.

"If you have high blood pressure," she says, "try driving with both hands."

When asked what she thought of herbs, she said impressively: "I don't know many Herbs, but Johns and and Franks are awful nice."

Our idea of tough luck is a Veterinarian in a one-horse town.

Jessie's final word to the public is: "If anyone wants any setting-up exercises, he can set up to a lemon-coke."

Bison Take Opener From Vikings, 38 To 33

Bison Rally Saves Contest At Finish

Bliss, Smith, and May Lead Bison Scoring; Vikings Lead At Half, 19-17 In Fast Play

The Bison won their first start of the 1929 basketball season Saturday when they sent the Vikings down to a 38 to 33 defeat in the opening contest of the year for both teams.

The State forces entered the game with a determination that found speedy results and gained a 6 to 1 lead in the opening minutes of the first half before the visitors got control of the ball. The game was tied shortly after when Murdock, speedy Viking forward, found his shooting eye and with three quarters of the first half gone by the Valley City quint was leading by one point, 12 to 11. Matt Braus came through his field goal to put the Bison ahead for a short time but McQueen, lanky center of the visitors again put his team in the lead with two well directed tosses from the foul line. Johnny Smith got his fifth field goal of the period from the side of the court and Cec Bliss put the Bison in the lead again with a set up shot under the basket. McQueen again tied the score for the visitors and the Vikings took the lead as the half ended 19 to 17, when George Burchill succeeded in finding the net with two free throws.

The Viking forces made an auspicious start in the second half when Eddie Burchill tossed a basket from the foul circle. The Bison went into the lead again when Bliss and Leo May found the net for three baskets but Simons, a reserve guard of the Vikings tied the score with a long heave from the center of the floor. Bliss and May again put the Bison to the fore and the Bison held a comfortable lead until the finish.

Cec Bliss, Johnny Smith and Leo May were the leading scorers of the Bison with six, five, and four field goals respectively while Eddie Burchill, Murdock, and McQueen led the losers.

Both teams showed plenty of potential power in defense and offense, with the Bison leading, as the visitors hardly had a single shot inside of the foul circle most of the shooting being done from the corners and center of the floor.

The Bison will play the Vikings on the Valley City court Friday in a return engagement this being the final contest before the Bison leave on their trip through Illinois during the Christmas vacation playing the majority of colleges in Illinois. The summary:

BUSINESS EDUCATION

A business education is a practical education that prepares one for every-day living. It gives the training necessary for entrance into the business world where the demand for trained workers is much greater than the supply. The business world pays a salary twelve months out of the year with two weeks' vacation on full pay.

Hon. W. T. Harris, Ex-Commissioner of Education, said, "Without a thorough and practical commercial education, a man is like a ship at sea without a compass or rudder."

Take your course in business training in an accredited school. Call or write for particulars.

Dr. Schalk, Finnegan Return From Chicago

Athletic Director Charles Casey Finnegan and Dr. Schalk have returned from Chicago where they attended a meeting of the North Central conference members on the 5 and 6 of Decembr and the Big Ten meeting the 7 and 8.

Schedules were drawn up for basketball and football and the all conference team was selected by the coaches.

South Dakota State was awarded the conference tennis tournament while Morningside college was given the conference track meet.

All schools of the conference agreed to send track squads to the Dakota Relays at Sioux City in the spring.

Tentative dates were arranged for a hockey invasion of Minnesota and Wisconsin. Games have been scheduled with Minnesota, Wisconsin and Marquette with a possible clash with Ft. Snelling.

Among the new rulings of the conference is one concerning the junior colleges. Players appearing in contest in the junior colleges will be looked upon as playing the same period in college thus cutting down the number of playing years for such transient players.

NEW MINOR SPORT FOR WOMEN ORGANIZED

Swimming is the new minor sport to be organized in the Women's Athletic Association in the near future. It is classified with other minor sports such as tennis and riflery. Participants are awarded ten points toward membership in the Women's Athletic Association. It has a distinct advantage over other sports in that it is a year round sport and not confined to seasons. Rosemary Frost, a new member of W. A. A. has been designated manager of this sport.

Mary MacGregor was a dinner guest at the Alpha Xi Beta house on Sunday.

Ronald Millard spent the week end at the Theta Chi house.

Alpha Xi Beta pledges entertained the active members at a Christmas party, Monday evening in the chapter house. Santa Claus was a part of the entertainment. A program was also given by the pledges.

Obert Skrie visited the Theta Chi house during the week end.

Epsilon Chapter of Sigma Phi Delta announces the formal initiation of the following men: Wallace Lovesness, John Wolfe, Robert Carlson, Vernon Ellingson, and Joseph Lange-naut.

Harry Critchfield, '25, county agent at Spearfish, S. Dak., spent the week end at the Rho house. At present Mr. Critchfield is working towards a master's degree in agriculture that he expects to receive next spring. While in school Mr. Critchfield was a member of the dairy judging team of 1924, and Noble Ruler of the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity.

Elrey Young and Lawrence Reiten, Smith Hughes instructors at Glyndon and Buffalo respectively, were visitors at the Rho house over the weekend.

A. M. "Boots" Anderson of Wahpeton, Malve McKone and Mike Murdahl were visitors at the Delta Sig house Saturday.

KAPPA PSI PLEDGES ENTERTAIN ACTIVES

Pledges of Kappa Psi were hosts to the active chapter and their friends in the college Y. M. C. A. Saturday evening. Decorations were in keeping with the holiday season and Santa Claus was a feature of the entertainment. Simon Mark was in charge of the arrangements. Chaperones were Dean and Mrs. W. F. Sudro and Professor and Mrs. M. Jongeward.

Seniors Win Annual Class Play Contest

Harold Fog Of Journalism Class Sees Interesting Race In Play Contest

The Ninth Annual Interclass Play Contest which was held on Thursday evening, Dec. 6, was fairly well attended and each class very ably presented a one act play.

The contest disclosed considerable dramatic talent and the judges found it a difficult task to chose the winners. However, the final race was between the two upper classes, the juniors and seniors running side by side in the last round, and it appeared to the spectators as though the juniors were going to carry away the laurels, when, in the last moment, Jerry Martin, who was the leading jockey for the juniors, imitated the Prince of Wales by falling off his horse in a fit of laughter, thus leaving the track clear for the seniors, who took advantage of the opportunity and won the contest.

The plays presented and the casts were:

Seniors: "Thread o' Scarlet" by J. J. Bell.

The Cast:
Migworth Marvin Huckle
Smith John Bohleg
Butters Foss Narum
Landlord of the Inn Harold Fog
Breen Arthur Anderson
A Traveler Raymond Gregorson
Juniors: "Peas and Beans" by Pauline Phelps.

The Cast:
Lottie, the maid Grace Swanson
Alicia Hargrave Alta Berg
Betty Hargrave Dorothy Adams
Prof. Peas Jerry Martin
Sophomores: "The Valient" by Hol-worthly Hall and Robert Middlemass.
The Cast:
James Dyke Leonard Luther
The Girl Charles Heilman
The Warden Elmer Pariseau
The Attendent Harold Peterson

Freshmen: "A Night in an Inn" by Lord Dunsany.
The Cast:
A. E. Scott Anthony Faber
William Jones Lyle Phillips
Albert Thomas Kenneth Wyard
Jacob Shith Earl Welch
First Priest George Sheldon
Second Priest Don Alstrup
Third Priest Frank Liebart
Klesh James Konen

whose youth and art are most appealing, heads the cast in "Three Week Ends" which is being shown at the State the first three days of this week.

The Fargo is showing "The Man Who Laughs," the first four days of this week. It is a strange story of a boy, nobly born, whose face has been mutilated into a horrible grin by order of James II.

"The Michigan Kid," a story of the gold rush days, will be shown at the State the last three days of this week. The story is taken from the novel by Rex Beach and is that of Jimmy Rowan, the Michigan Kid, a notorious gambler in Alaska.

"Skirts," starring Sydney Chaplin, at the Fargo the last two days of the week is a rough and ready comedy, the star having concentrated on speed, deftness and laughable situations in this comedy, the critics say.

For the most part these firms are typical of the group whose financial aid means so much to the success of innumerable Bison projects.
They are members of the Bison Boosters, an organization that backs our athletic program every year.
They advertise in the Bison, the yearbook of the college, and aid in making the book a success.
They back school programs, the Baby Bison Bible, the Homecoming Program, etc. In a hundred might succeed in various enterprises such as the annual Homecoming event. They do their Share. Now will you do YOURS? Your share is this: PATRONIZE These Firms!

When you make a purchase in any of the stores mentioned let the clerk or the manager know that you're a student at the college. Get the habit of doing this.
All these firms are dependable and handle the very best merchandise.

It is not our purpose to place firms that do not advertise on any "blacklist" but we do want to stress the absolute necessity of making advertising worthwhile to the advertisers.
As you read this issue of the Spectrum don't skip over the "ads". They carry a message designed especially for YOU. They aim to save you money, to inform you as to where certain merchandise may be bought, to help make your school life as pleasant as possible.
