

Evergreen Forest Will Be Setting For Xmas Festival

Thirteenth Annual Christmas
Festival To Be Held Sunday,
Dec. 9th at 4 p. m.

Old Main will be converted into an evergreen forest for the Thirteenth Annual Christmas Festival in the Little Country Theater Sunday afternoon, December 9th, at four o'clock, according to Dorothy Moffitt chairman of the decoration committee. Seventy trees have been ordered and will be placed in the halls and stairs to make the forest real. Trees will also be used in all the rooms of the second floor in keeping with the holiday season. The theater itself will be converted into a miniature Cathedral for the event.

A dozen characters portraying the toys of Christmas will make a magnificent toy shop in the Seminar room. Evelyn Blakeslee, head of the toy shop committee, is personally in charge of that part.

The presentation of "The Story of Christmas", a play in four scenes, under the direction of Mable Wenzel, will be shown in the theater. This play is a powerful story of the coming of Christ and the adoration of the Holy child by the people. Shepherds, Wisemen, Angels, King Herod and the people of Bethlehem will all be shown in the part they played in the first Christmas.

A pipe organ to be played by Thomas Caniff will furnish the music for the presentation. The organ has been procured especially for this occasion, according to Doris Boyle, chairman of the music committee.

May Sontag, chairman of the story telling committee, has procured the aid of the story telling class to tell Christmas stories in the library. Six members of this class will begin the narratives immediately following the presentation.

The foods of six nations will be featured in the lunch to be held in the Lincoln Log Cabin. Only the foods characteristic of Christmas of these countries will be served. Anna Baker is the chairman of the refreshment committee.

The Christmas festival is an annual event presented by the class in festivals of the Public discussion department. Prof. A. G. Arvold is the instructor of this class and has directed these festivals since they were originated. Every one is urged to be present to this year's event and preparations are under way to take care of a record crowd according to Agnes Schlanser chairman of the promotion committee.

Victor Lindgren was high man of the contest in sheep judging and Wayne Weiser was second high in hogs.

In his letter, Prof. E. J. Thompson, coach of the team, states that this year's International is one of the finest shows he has ever witnessed.

Following her graduation she went to New York for special work at the National Recreation school, graduating from that institution last June. During the last summer she was with the Philadelphia Playground association and is now employed by a private recreation school in New York. She is a member of Phi Omega Pi and Delta Psi Kappa sororities.

Mr. Waldron is a graduate of Rutgers' college, class of 1928 and is now associated with the Brule Construction Company of New Brunswick. He is a member of the Zeta Psi fraternity.

CHISHOLM INVENTS NEW KITCHEN KNIFE

Haile Chisholm, instructor in metal working, has constructed a new "fangled" kitchen knife which differs from the older models in that every time the knife is used some dirt and grease does not get in between the handle and the tang where it cannot be cleaned out. (The tang of a knife is that part to which the handle is attached.)

This new knife is made of one piece of metal, therefore it can be sterilized as long and as often as the user desires. The handle is a strip of metal one-fourth inch square, with rounded edges to fit the hand, instead of the wooden handle. This gives the user a good grip, makes the knife very durable and no heavier, and lastly may be easily cleaned as there are no cracks for grime to accumulate in.

The cost of this knife is only ten percent more than the cost of an ordinary kitchen knife.

P. O. P. XMAS BAZAAR WILL BE SAT. DEC. 9

Fancy articles suitable for Christmas gifts will be featured at the Phi Omega Pi Christmas bazaar which will be held in the lobby of the Graver Hotel Saturday, December 8, from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m.

A speech on communities by Foss Narum was the opening number of the Typical Community Program held in the Little Country Theater last Tuesday evening, December 4. Mr. Narum was general chairman of the group. The entire program was made up of numbers that could be shown by any community group.

Staging a community program is part of the work in the class in programs at State College and every number of this event was supervised by the members of the class. The program included: Community singing, led by Fred Gronvold; a plant exhibit by Dr. A. F. Yeager; vocal duet by the Emmons Sisters; a basket ball demonstration by George Hays; a reading by Doris Fischer; a mandolin solo; a one act play, "Keeping Him Home", directed by Mable Wenzel; and an ensemble of twelve violins under the direction of Betty Sheldon.

Following the program a lunch and social was held in the Lincoln Cabin. Coffee, doughnuts and carmeled apples were served by the costumed girls in charge.

The committee heads were: Mable Wenzel, music; George Hays, athletics; Gladys Barton, spoken word; Elizabeth Woledge, social functions; Vivian Johnson, exhibits; and Amos Wallum, promotion.

N.D. State To Be Represented At Student Congress

Foss Narum Will Leave Sunday
For Congress At "U"
Of Missouri

M. Foss Narum, president of the Student Commission, will leave Fargo on Sunday evening, December 9th, to attend the Fourth Annual Congress of the National Student Federation of America.

The Congress is being held at the University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri this year on December 12, 13, 14 and 15th, which will enable Mr. Narum to be back on about the 19th of December.

The National Student Federation of the United States grew out of the Inter-collegiate World Court Congress which met at Princeton University in December, 1925. This will be the third consecutive year that North Dakota State has been represented at the Congress, William Gray, now in Chicago, making the trip two years ago, and F. Ralph Hollands, last year.

This is the only official national gathering of student leaders held in the United States during the year. The aim of the congress is to provide an opportunity for the most prominent students in the country to discuss together their common problems, to decide on concerted action in regard to the responsibilities of the National Student Federation to the world federation of students, and to further student contract by meeting on a social as well as a business basis.

The trip is made possible by a donation made by President Coulter and a small amount from each class fund.

A CALL FOR RIFLEMEN

Lieutenant Ross, the coach of the rifle team that became nationally famous last spring, has issued a call for material for the future. Every man interested in riflery should turn out to the meeting which will be held in the armory at 4 p.m. today.

Inexperience should not keep one away, for the "greener" the student the better Lieut. Ross likes it, for then he may teach one how to shoot correctly. The man who knows is often a poor student.

Riflery is very likely one of the best sports to take part in here at North Dakota State, in that it has a very rosy outlook for the future. The team were national champions last year, scoring 7,620 points out of a possible 8,000 to win the National Intercollegiate rifle title. Every member of last year's team, except one, will be shooting again this year. Some of these will show some more improvement with more practice and those that don't will be crowded off by the new men who come out this year.

Riflery is only a minor sport, but last year exception was taken to the rule, and upper classmen on the team were given a fitting reward for their achievement, the coveted "N. D." which every Bison athlete dreams of obtaining.

WISE and OTHERWISE

FRATERNITIES AND sororities! Have you handed in your snapshots?

IN THE October 2nd issue of The Spectrum we published the Spectrum editorial platform. As the term gathers toward its close, we find it worth while to look over the work of this paper and note just what has been done towards accomplishing its purposes, and also what other forces are aiding.

First of all, we aimed to better acquaint Fargo and Moorhead and the Northwest with the college and what it offers. By the publishing of all available news we believe that we have upheld this aim. The college radio hour has aided tremendously. Of equal importance are the efforts and cooperation lended us by the Fargo Forum and the college alumnae association. Our active exchange system should also be mentioned.

To better acquaint the state legislature with the growing needs of the college—this was the second purpose of the editorial policy. This item has been neglected somewhat but it must be remembered that our efforts cannot be concrete, but rather they must be indirect. This phase of the Spectrum platform is somewhat difficult to handle.

We believe that the staff as a whole has worked toward greater journalistic achievements and it is certain that more students are taking a active interest in journalism than ever before.

We also feel satisfied that all available news has received our careful consideration. It has not been possible to publish all however. This fact has caused some comment from those concerned but it should be realized that limited space forces us to judge the most important. Our judgment has undoubtedly been in error a number of times.

Our efforts to encourage student opinion have not met with much response, a fact which is most disappointing.

To cooperate with advertisers—this was the fifth policy. The staff has done all possible to encourage and urge the student body to aid us in this matter. Whether or not the students have responded as fully as possible is open to question. Their action has been commendable, nevertheless, which is appreciated.

We feel satisfied that all activities on the campus have received our support and encouragement, that all problems of the student body have been carefully reviewed, and all rules of the faculty and student commission upheld.

The staff has always endeavored to be fair in news articles and constructive in editorials and with these aims in mind we have not made many serious errors.

As to the last editorial rule, the Spectrum has not instigated any special move for a change for the better but rather has contented itself with supporting and encouraging special ones which have not been initiated from the outside.

All in all the staff feels that it has learned much, profited by its errors, and still has a good deal to find out. But the work has been enjoyable and the support of the student body encouraging.

Among Our Contemporaries

An editorial appeared recently in the Volante which disapproved of the large number of plays given at the University of South Dakota. Fewer plays were requested and better acting by the participants. It was speculated that this would result in a larger attendance at the plays.

Maybe this criticism will apply to other schools too.

Two sorority houses, the Pi Phi and the Kappa Alpha Theta, at the University of South Dakota were recently burglarized. Let's hope that this won't put ideas in any N. D. S. C. student's head.

Student's Prayer

Upward and onward, oh, time be your flight,
Lord make the bell ring before I recite.

Hamline University now sends out general statements concerning the students' work instead of exact marks.

Thou shalt not covet thy room-mates neckties; thou shalt not covet his top-coat, nor his new scarf, nor his gin, nor his mama; thou shalt not covet anything that is thy roommate's or the terrible wrath of him shall be visited upon you and you will groan and cringe on thy side of the bed all night.

ALL-COLLEGE FOOTBALL TEAM

After noting the weather and calmly reviewing the Farm Outlook for December, we have finally completed the painstaking task of selecting our annual All-College grid aggregation for the edification of the anxious and throbbing public. Each one of these athletes stands on his merits, and we would consider it highly insulting if some campus funster sends each member of the team a chair.

THE TEAM:

- L. E. .... Homer Huntoon
- L. T. .... Haile Chisholm (Capt.)
- L. G. .... Dick Craft
- C. .... Ralph Erickson
- R. G. .... Harold Fog
- R. T. .... Jessie McLachlin
- R. E. .... Ebony Blott
- Q. B. .... Emily Dakin
- L. H. .... Marvin Spielman
- R. H. .... Eugene Crum
- Full .... Dr. W. C. Hunter

If HOMER HUNTOON, professor of architecture, is so good with the pencil, maybe we have somebody at last who can draw in the opposing right end. Anyway, he would have designs on the enemy.

The choice of HAILE CHISHOLM, instructor in forgery, for the tackle post, will meet with the approval of both my followers. His iron craftsmanship stamps him as the logical man to give the opposition the gate. The dignity of such a team as above must not be ruled by financial embarrassment, and such a thing might happen if they didn't have Mr. Chisholm to forge a check. He is placed as captain because his knowledge of tools enables him to file complaints.

To DICK CRAFT goes the cut glass pin cushion and the unanimous choice for guard. Any man, even a campus caretaker, who can keep the fun loving public from stealing the armory, is good enough for my team.

RALPH ERICKSON wins the center position without a murmur. Ralph's tenacity in hanging on to that mustache insures the safety of the football in a mud soaked field.

For right tackle, we have the redoubtable JESSIE McLACHLIN. She can throw the entire opposing forward line in a panic by calling each one a "snip" accompanied by a long hiss. Her ability to absorb punishment is remarkable. She is Editor of the Bison.

HAROLD FOG, at guard, has lots of drive--two years behind Dobbin. His ability as an actor enables him to be in every play, and to put the neck of his opponent in a cast.

EBONY BLOTT, at end, would give the opposing flankman a dark outlook. He catches the dickens from everyone and should have no trouble on the receiving end of passes. He is the only player picked by popular acclamation. Everyone says: "That Blott, he's sure the limit". And doesn't limit mean end? Anyway, he's got the only ball.

Vikings Will Meet Bison With A Strong Team Saturday In Armory

The North Dakota entry as far as the North Central race engaged with the Bison yearlings in a fast display of considerable amount of potential power in its attack and nearly as much in its defense Tuesday although the fine points of the game could be mastered a little more surely before conference opponents are to meet shortly after the first of the year.

Results are beginning to show since Coaches Saalwaechter and Lowe divided the Varsity and yearling squads. Saalwaechter put fourteen capable men on the court Tuesday while Lowe found a like number to oppose the Varsity in its fast workout.

Varsity Leads Frosh 25 to 7

After twenty minutes of play the Varsity led, 25 to 7 and new players were injected into the fray by both coaches. The Varsity's pace slackened slightly as the new men engaged the Frosh. The Varsity was represented by Baldy Hays, John Brady, Eric Tonn, Ray Bassett and Chief Parisseau. Lowe countered with Bill Meyers, Walt Olson, Vern Goodwin, Sam Westgate, and Gam Thomasson.

Joe Blakeslee, Weenie Miller, Dutch Hermes, and Captain Bobby Hahn were sent into the scrimmage by Coach Saalwaechter and Cake Walker, Bob Freeman, Clair Peterson and Ike Edwards performed the same duty for Bob Lowe.

The Bison hopes were raised when Captain Bobby Hahn appeared on the court but he will not be eligible until next term and although he has not found his shooting eye in the three days of practice that he has had access to, he proved that he had lost none of his clever floor work that made him outstanding last season.

Bison Meet Vikings

The Bison will meet the Valley City State Teachers quint on the Bison court Saturday at 8. The Vikings will furnish an exciting game and a severe test to the Bison at that time as in the past seasons they had good teams and lost only one veteran by graduation last spring. Several members of the outstanding teams of the state are playing on the Viking quint this season.

Friends of "Al" Gudmestad '28, Sigma Phi Delta, will be interested to know that he was married Sunday, Nov. 25. Mrs. Gudmestad was formerly Miss Gusta Forness of Fargo.

Before Going To Chicago Schalk Tells Of Rabies

Doctors A. F. Schalk and L. M. Roderick of the veterinary department, have been in Chicago this week attending various conventions dealing with their lines of work. Before leaving Dr. Schalk elucidated upon rabies to a Spectrum reporter and the following is the result.

Rabies is commonly known as hydrophobia; hydro meaning water and phobia meaning fear. All domestic animals and man are susceptible. The nervous system and salivary glands are the parts of all the members of the canine family including dogs, coyotes, wolves and foxes, that carry the disease. The animal's teeth inoculate the disease during the bite similar to a hypodermic needle.

There are two kinds of rabies, dumb rabies in which the animal stares blankly for many minutes and furious rabies in which the animal is very affectionate at first and gradually slumps into a period of melancholia, finally becoming mad. During the time of madness a dog has been known to run fifty miles biting as many as eight to ten people.

Before the dog dies the victim of the bite should be treated by the Pasteur method which is not altogether infallible. An infection usually does not start for three or four weeks after the bite in the case of a human.

This Changing World

To-day, you can see big buildings erected noiselessly--by electric welding.

The structural steel worker is dropping his clattering hammer for the electric arc. Silently, swiftly, rigidly, economically, buildings are being fabricated by electric welding, which knits steel with joints as strong as the metal itself.

Building silently! Nothing seems impossible in this electrical age.

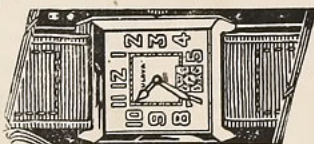

Not only in building construction, but in every human activity, we instinctively turn to electricity to add to the comforts of life and to eliminate the wastes of production--another evidence that the electrical industry is maintaining its leadership in this changing world.

Not only industrial equipment, but electric refrigerators, MAZDA lamps, and little motors that add to the comforts of home, are manufactured by the General Electric Company. All are identified by the G-E monogram--a symbol of service.

Has Jesse Her Doctors Degree?

"Moorhead, Minn., Dec. 1—Dr. Jesse McLachlin of the North Dakota Agricultural College will speak on the multilateral treaty at a community meeting in the high school auditorium at Moorhead Tuesday."

The above item appeared in a Minneapolis daily recently. Miss Jesse McLachlin is the editor of the 1930 Bison. Hunter substituted for Miss McLachlin in Moorhead in case she was supposed to deliver the lecture.

for quarterback diabolical ingenuity. We'll introduce her to the captain of the opposing team, and he'll say: "Oh, you are Mis Dakin". She'll think he said "Oh, you are Mistaken". And you know how women are. Just watch her go.

EUGENE CRUM is placed at right half. A scientist says that the more a person sleeps, the more aggressive you are when you wake. If this is true, and if we can rouse the slumbering Crum from his class room, he ought to be a wow!

MARVIN SPIELMAN, at half, will be used only in aerial attack. He's so smart, he can pass anything. The combination, Spielman to Blott, would be just too bad.

The need for a consistent hard-plunging fullback, gives Dr. W. C. HUNTER the position. As Dr. Hunter knows all about History, and as History repeats itself, all we'll have to do is to give him a four yard gain for a starter and then watch him repeat himself whenever yardage is needed.
