

Gorder Names Heads Of Annual Showing Contest

Graham Fuller Is In Charge Of Little International And Adam Of Banquet

Graham Fuller, Hamilton, and Robert Adam, Anamoose, both seniors in the school of agriculture, have been named by Ben Gorder, president of the Saddle and Siroin club to take charge of the Little International and Portrait Hanging Banquet respectively.

These two activities are both features on the program of the Thirtieth Annual Farmers' Week which will be held here during the week of January 15-18. They are sponsored by the Saddle and Siroin Club annually.

For the program this coming year two general sessions have been planned, one on the combine and one session on cooperative shipping of livestock. There will be short course work in beekeeping, poultry, crops, livestock and gardening, and also in foods and feeding the family, clothing, household management and art. As a special feature shelterbelts is to be given. Other phases of the short course will cover such subjects as new farm machinery and economical power on the farms.

The different breed associations of North Dakota will hold their annual meeting at set hours some time during the week. A meeting of the North Dakota Livestock Breeders' association has been scheduled for Friday, Jan. 18.

To make the week entertaining as well as educational, the special evening programs are scheduled. On Tuesday one-act plays and other home talent features will be presented in the Little Country Theater; on Wednesday evening a banquet and honoring of master farm homemakers, and on Thursday, the Little International Livestock show takes place at the stock pavilion. The North Dakota Breeders' association and Saddle and Siroin Club banquet will take place on Friday night, at which time the portraits of master farmers will be unveiled and admitted to the Agricultural Hall of Fame.

The following are on the committee in charge of the Farmers' Week: Dr. John Lee Coulter, president; Dr. P. F. Trowbridge, director of Experiment station; C. F. Monroe, director of Extension; Alba Bales, dean of home economics school; Dr. H. L. Walster, dean of school of agriculture, and W. C. Palmer, secretary of the Week.

Mr. Fuller, who has charge of the Little International Livestock Show, has named as his assistants the following: Ralph Diehl, assistant manager; Martin Peterson, decorations; Jesse Reynolds, program; Henry Sullivan, publicity; Ralph Welch, catalog; Helmar Foss finance; and Martin Altenberg, awards. In addition to these committees, superintendents for each division of livestock have been named who are as follows: Wilfred Plath, beef; Rudolph Nelson, hogs; Floyd Ewing, horses; Theodore Olson, sheep; Jerome Olson, dairy; and Mike Sullivan, poultry.

As "Bob" Adam is at Chicago on the judging team at present, he has not been able to appoint those who will assist him direct the Portrait Hanging Banquet.

ERICKSON WILL ATTEND MINN. BALL

Ralph Erickson, cadet colonel of the North Dakota State R. O. T. C. battalion, will leave Thursday of this week for the Minnesota University where he will attend their annual military ball.

The Minnesota Military Ball will be held Friday evening, December 7th at the Radisson Hotel in St. Paul.

Everett Wallum was elected president of the board of publications at their meeting on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Henry Presler was named vice president.

"Y" ATHLETICS NOW RUN ON SCHEDULE

The college "Y" athletic program is now in full sway. On Tuesdays and Thursdays from 3:00 to 10:00 o'clock, six fraternities have basketball practice. The pre-season intramural league composed of six teams have games scheduled for Monday and Wednesday.

Because of increased interest in Lieut. Fay Smith's wrestling classes, there will be three instead of two classes each week.

Employment Bureau Makes Good Progress

Seventy-five Business Concerns Are Using Student Help At Present

Few students of North Dakota State College, besides those who have been benefited, realize the importance of the Student Employment Bureau connected with the school. But this worthy enterprise has made considerable progress this year, due to the efforts of Mrs. P. M. Gooden, who has charge of the bureau. Her record is one to be proud of. Of the 300 students working through the bureau not one has had to leave school for want of work as yet. There are 800 jobs, big and small, secured that aggregate over $26,000, 195 of these being steady. The reports coming in on the work of the students are only of the best, and Mrs. Gooden has received but 8 complaints out of 800 jobs.

"I appreciate the cooperation of the down-town business men," says Mrs. Gooden. 75 business concerns are using our people on steady work. We have handled several big jobs of advertising successfully, and I hope they will come to depend on us more and more."

The attitude of the students connected with the bureau is worth while, and helps to make it a success. They are really trying to give the type of work that will satisfy. The boy or girl who wants to work their way through college is to be commended, and so the organization that helps them should be given due consideration.

Community Program Tomorrow Evening

Featuring the five essential parts of a community program, the class in programs at the North Dakota Agricultural College will present a typical community program in the Little Country Theater Tuesday December 4, 1928 at seven thirty o'clock. The five essential parts are: Music, athletics, spoken word, social functions and exhibits.

The music committee with Miss Mable Wenzel as chairman will present community singing, a musical saw, vocal duet, and an ensemble of seven violins. George Hays as chairman of the committee on athletics, will give a basket ball demonstration as that part of the program.

Foss Narum, who is the general chairman, will give a talk on community programs and will announce the numbers. To complete the spoken word an illustrated lecture on the topic of the modern rural home, and a reading will be presented.

An exhibit of house plants by Dr. A. F. Yeager will take care of that end of the program according to Miss Vivian Johnson, chairman of the committee on exhibits.

For the social functions a lunch and social hour is featured in the Lincoln Log Cabin. Miss Woolidge is the chairman of this committee. Preparations are being made to have the activities begin promptly at seven thirty o'clock. A charge of fifteen cents will be levied to defray the expenses of the presentation in addition to a small charge for the lunch in the Log Cabin.

The Chemist's Club will meet Thursday evening in the Chemistry building. A program has been arranged which will consist of a talk by B. A. Truby and musical numbers by members of the club.

1929 Bison Leader

Ordahl, who was selected by J. A. Purcell as center on the second all-conference eleven for 1928, at the end of the Grafton lad's second season at the pivot post, was elected captain of the 1929 eleven recently at a meeting of the lettermen.

Bison Pictures Must Be Taken By December 15

Those Who Have Not Had Them Taken Will Be Solicited By Committee

December 15 is the deadline set for all individual junior-senior pictures for the classes section in the 1930 Modernistic Bison. Today is December fourth. You upperclassmen may draw your own conclusions, for you'll undoubtedly decide that you must get your picture taken immediately.

Appointments for these pictures must be made at the Bison office as soon as the three dollar photo fee has been paid. Mr. Scherling of the Owl Studio, the official photographer of the annual, has his studio open evenings as a special accommodation to the students. Sittings can be taken in ten or 15 minutes. All very easy, and so it seems a bit strange that more pictures haven't been taken.

A meeting of all members of the classes section staff will take place at 12:45 today in the Bison office for another checking in and for final instructions. Students who are working under Frances Ross, editor, include Esther Douglas, Evelyn Blakeslee, Doris Wilner, Ralph Hollands, Ralph Erickson, Everett Knutson, Leonard Rygg, Clifford Booke, Milton Pemble, Harold Phillips, and Marvin Huckle.

Juniors and seniors who have not signed up yet will be solicited by members of the staff this week in an endeavor to make the classes section a truly representative one.

Christmas Festival Will Be Sunday

The thirteenth annual Christmas Festival scheduled for next Sunday at four o'clock will be divided into five parts. These parts are: the presentation, the toy shop, the exhibit of Christmas foods, the story hour, and the social hour. All the rooms in the second and third floors of the administration building will be decorated in keeping with the Christmas season.

The presentation will be a four scene play, "The Christmas Story", and will be held in the Little Country Theater. This play is a powerful story of the coming and adoration of the Christ child.

In the toy shop characters will portray the many different sorts of toys so popular at Christmas. The library of the public discussion department will hold the exhibit. The story telling class will conduct the story telling hour.

As a fitting close to the event a lunch and social hour will be in progress in the Lincoln Log Cabin. Every one, old and young, is urged to attend this annual event.

72 PIECES RENDER EXCEPTIONAL CONCERT

"Doc" Putnam's Gold Star Band played a convocation band concert in the armory last Tuesday morning at 9:40 a.m. The concert was well received by the student body and even Doc was enthused saying, "that was the largest group I ever had on the stage; they gave a fine program and never before have we ever played before such a large crowd at convocation or as enthusiastic a crowd."

Band Will Broadcast Wednesday Evening

Radio Program For Balance Of Term Includes Many Interesting Subjects

With a six musical number radio program the 50-piece North Dakota State college Gold Star band will play its way into the homes and hearts of the people of the northwest on December 5, 8:30, over WDAY. The band, a true representative of the spirit of the college student body, is under the directorship of Dr. C. S. Putnam, who for the past 25 years has led the college bands.

The radio program for the remainder of the year is as follows:

Friday, Dec. 7, 9:00 p. m.: Physiology of Bacteria, by Dr. C. I. Nelson, professor of bacteriology. Obtaining and Maintaining a Dairy Herd, by J. R. Dice, professor of dairying.

Monday, Dec. 10 9:00 p. m. Home Economics Talk, by Miss Alba Bales, dean home economics school. Feeds for Milk Cows, by J. R. Dice, professor of dairying.

Wednesday, Dec. 12, 8:30 p. m. Program by Little Country Theater Players, under direction of A. C. Arvold, professor of oratory.

Friday, Dec. 14, 9:00 p. m.: Feeds for Milk Production, by J. R. Dice, professor of dairying. A Better Way to Spend the Winter, by Dr. H. L. Walter, dean of the school of agriculture.

Monday, Dec. 17, 9:00 p. m.: Home Economics Talk, by Miss Alba Bales, dean home economics school. Rammled Earth in Building, by R. C. Miller, agricultural engineer.

Wednesday, Dec. 19, 8:30 p. m.: What the Homemaker Should Know about Furs, by Miss Julia Brekke, field agent in clothing. The Cow Testing Associations and the Story they Tell, by A. M. Challey, field agent in dairying.

Friday, Dec. 21, 9:00 p. m.: Breeding the Dairy Herd, by J. R. Dice, professor of dairying. County Agent Work, by R. C. Dynes, assistant county agent leader.

The next program will be on January 2, 1929.

CREAMERYMEN ARE OFFERED SHORT COURSE

A one-week short course in dairying for experienced creamerymen will be given by the department of dairy husbandry of the North Dakota State college from Jan. 28 to Feb. 2, 1929.

This course is designed to meet the requirements of the creamerymen now in practice. Studies on grading and selection of cream for butter-making, neutralization and pasteurization of cream, the preparation, selection and use of starters, testing of milk, cream and buttermilk, butter scoring and factory analysis of butter, as well as the problem of marketing the butter, will be taken up in laboratory and lecture work.

The instructional work under the direction of Prof. J. R. Dice, in charge of the department of dairy husbandry, will be carried on by Prof. A. W. Rudnick, extension professor of dairy industries, Iowa State college. Regular members of the institutional staff will be assigned to do work for which they are best fitted.

Detailed information in regard to the short course will be furnished to anyone who is interested. It may be obtained by writing the department of dairy husbandry, State College Station, Fargo, N. D.

Good Delegation At International From N. D. S. C.

Ralph Welch Is In Chicago Attending National A. G. R. Convention

School opened this week finding a goodly number absent around the school of Agriculture when the roll was called. The absent are attending the International Livestock Show at Chicago, Illinois this week.

A fat stock judging team including Paul Abrahamson, Victor Lindgren, Robert Adam, Harry McLachlin, Wayne Weiser and Gilbert Moun are there where they took part in the national inter-collegiate fat stock judging contest which was held Saturday. Reports from Chicago indicate that the team placed 13th in the contest and that Victor Lindgren was high man in sheep. There were 23 teams entered.

Dr. J. H. Shepperd, dean of the animal husbandry department, has managed this contest every year and is down there again this year for the same purpose. Howard Lewis, a State graduate and assistant county agent of Cass county, accompanied him this year to assist in conducting the judging contest.

Prof. F. W. Christiansen, "Feeds and Feeding" instructor, is attending the International this year and will deliver an address before the American Society of Animal Production on "Feeding Potatoes to Livestock", a subject to which he has given considerable study.

Ralph Welch, noble ruler of Epsilon chapter of Alpha Gamma Rho left here on Wednesday of last week to visit a brother in Wisconsin and go on to Chicago to attend the national convention of his fraternity which is being held at this time.

Martin Altenberg, a junior in the school of agriculture, and Clyde Barks, a graduate of the same school are in Chicago attending the show and making their expenses by taking tickets for the management of the show.

Our Exhibit

The college has two carloads of livestock in Chicago to take part in the contests. They are showing five fat steers, 19 sheep and five Belgian horses. The stock is in charge of Professors D. J. Griswold and Albert Severson who are also in Chicago this week.

"Grads" There

Many graduates from North Dakota State are also attending the show. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Toussaint of Circle, Montana, stopped off here several hours on their way there Saturday. H. W. Herbison has a 4-H club team there and placed sixth with them with teams from nineteen other states entered. Mr. Herbison is county agent of Benson county being located at Minnewauken, N. Dak. Wm. Guy, manager of the Chaffee farms, of Amenia, this state is attending the show.

Inter-Class Plays Thursday, Dec. 6

With competition stronger than ever before, the class play contest will be held Thursday, December 6, at seven thirty o'clock in the Little Country Theater. The present senior class has won this competition for the last two years, and the other classes are especially anxious to prevent the seniors from repeating.

The annual play contest has, in the past, always been a great event in the school activities, and is a tradition that is looked forward to with keen interest. The plays selected for this year are: Senior, Threat O' Scarlet; Junior, Peas and Beans; Freshman, A Night in the Snow. The Sophomore class has not as yet made a selection but they promise a clear cut performance.

BACK TO WORK

After a Thanksgiving vacation of three or four days, whichever way you want to figure it, the student body has again settled down for the last two weeks of school and the three days of exams.

Thanksgiving this year was the same as every other year. Some took the day to heart and were dutifully reverent as the day was intended for; others had a good time and gave their minds a complete relaxation; others got their work caught up, getting in all back reports and work of that nature; but all committed the old sin and punished themselves by eating an over abundance of turkey, making the vacation a necessity and truly a success.

But, speaking to the frivolous group, if there ever was a time to put in a little extra time on school work, now is the time for there is hardly two weeks left and then it will be too late for anything but regrets.

STUDENT OPINION

Plea after plea has come from the Spectrum staff of today and yesterday for more student opinions to be expressed via the Spectrum columns, but to no avail. Occasionally, some student forgets about the old tradition of sending in no student opinions, but this is so seldom that we are inclined to say we have no student opinion up-to-date.

Truly we have had no student opinion column as a college publication like the Spectrum is expected to have. For the past two years the Spectrum has placed third in the conference, and in both cases one of the criticisms has been the fact that there has been no student opinion column.

Why not break the old tradition and get out and "ride" someone or something? Is everything really going on as nice as it appears to be from the Spectrum columns? Can't you improve on the way college dances are conducted, on college politics, school spirit, school athletics, or any old thing if for no other reason than to break the old tradition.

WHO IS GOING T K E?

In the October issue of Banta's Greek it states that "T K E at its eighteenth biennial conclave definitely settled the problem of its future expansion when it adopted a list of forty-nine universities and colleges into which it will place chapters and entertain petitions." The name of North Dakota State appears in the list.

This is a possibility for one of our locals and a good one due to the fact that they have already noticed North Dakota State. In our opinion North Dakota State could well afford to have another national fraternity and a national sorority enter our midst this school year as an evidence of growth.

Just Comment

WISE and OTHERWISE

By Henry Presler

THAT LOOKED for concert by our Gold Star Band as enjoyed in last Tuesday's convocation was appreciated. If Doctor Putnam heard the comments made here at the office, we are sure that he would feel highly gratified. The concert was a fine exhibition of the versatility of a properly trained military band. The program included military marches, popular, light-classical, classical and symphonic arrangements, if you will permit that classification. The Doctor has always been noted for his arrangements and original compositions. The first number of the program—"Northward"—was received in a manner which is sufficient proof of the former statement. We are looking forward to the big musical concert of the year—the annual Gold Star Band Concert.

IT IS amusing to observe the way our official name is buffeted about. The old controversy over it seems to exist the same as ever. It appears that wherever it is necessary to officially designate the school it is called the North Dakota Agricultural College. Whenever there is the least leeway offered, we are students of the North Dakota State College. On the front page of this paper it is called State College, on the masthead—Agricultural College; sport news in this publication and in the Forum usually prefers the former. The Minneapolis Journal calls us the North Dakota Aggies as do other eastern papers. When broadcasting speakers use both names. No wonder there is doubt in the minds of many as to just what institution this is. Well, someday the argument will be settled and until then we are subject to both appellations.

BUT TO set any misguided one on the right track, N. D. S. C. offers not only a splendid agricultural course but also a Bachelor of Science degree in ten other departments.

IF YOU want hops to continue be present at the trial one to be given in the college "Y" gymnasium this coming Friday afternoon.

AT THE THEATRES

"Craig's Wife," starring Irene Rich and Adolph Menjou in a sophisticated bachelor drama is being shown at the State the first half of this week.

Dolores Del Rio dances her way out of the whirl of the Russian revolution into fame and power in "The Red Dance," which is being shown at the Fargo the first four days of this week.

"Varsity", a story of a son at Princeton University whose father is dean of janitor's at the same institution, is being shown at the State the last three days of this week.

The Fargo is showing "His Private Life," starring Adolph Menjou with Kathryn Carver in the leading feminine role on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Many Go Home For Thanksgiving

Those who spent Thanksgiving at home include: Billie Eastgate, Ruby Steedsman, Larimore; Mabel Wenzell, Doris Wilner, Tower City; Verna Johnson, Kinsal; Bernice and Esther Boyer, Lake Park; Helen Rustad, Dwight; Frances Brummond, Havana; Margaret Zimmerman, Casselton; Emily Belle Craig, Minneapolis; Delphine Van Houten, Valley City; Matt Braus, Valley City; Lawrence Parsons, Ada; John Mund, Milnor; Bernhart Bennett, Adolph Dahl, Albert Libke, Ben Kouba, Ligerwood; Amos Wallum, Frank Seebart, Lakota; Alvin Hong, Arnold Koffman, Hillsboro; Thomas Rogers, Devils Lake; Edgar Crewe, Anthony Faber, Bob King, Bill Lenhart, Bismarck; Bill Priss, Garrison; Verne Skjonsby, Hickson; Mabel and Emily Samuelson, Underwood; Marion Hartly, Staples; Edith Byerly, Velva; Grace Reynolds, Westhope; Ada Coulter, Park River; Leonard Bowman, Lamoure; William Frey, Chaffee; Bernice Cusey, Detroit Lakes; Wilfred Plath, Davenport; Arthur Ziegler, Tower City; Lawrence Ranes, Lisbon; Wm. Institutional Directory Is Being Distributed

The registrar's office is busy this week passing out copies of the institutional directory which is now off the press to students desiring one. They have also mailed out a copy to each member of the faculty.

Like everything else around North Dakota State, the directory is "bigger and better" than ever before containing 104 pages with approximately 18 names on each page. The directory also contains a few of the school songs and yells and a list of the Fargo churches.

We note that there is a mounted Bison head in main building. All true Bisons will now stand up and sing: "I Ain't Got No Body".

Women may or may not be catty, but the gossipy ones sure do a lot of howling over the neighbor's back fence.

And women aren't naturally two-faced. They just buy the other one at drug stores.

And the "Y" served a Thanksgiving dinner for homesick students. We wonder where they got all the turkey necks.

The fact that the dinner was prepared entirely by students insured the success of the affair, the diners being more homesick than ever.

We suppose the dinner was a part of the "Y" program to fill a space in the student body.

Stafford Ordahl Named To Lead 1929 Bison

Twenty-six Men Are To Receive Letters

Nineteen Freshmen Are Given Numerals; Medals Awarded To Four Harriers Also

Stafford Ordahl, center on the second all conference honorary eleven, was named captain of the 1929 Bison football machine at a meeting of the lettermen in the Athletic office last Monday night. Ordahl has served for the past two years in that position gaining the above recognition this fall.

The Board of Athletic Control also met and passed on the recommendation of Coaches Borleske, Lowe and Saalwaechter,arsity football, freshmen football and cross country coaches respectively.

The Board awarded sweaters and letters to Captain "Baldy" Hays, Captain-elect Stafford "Cod" Ordahl, Gerald Barney, John Blair, Ed. Babcock, Joe Blakeslee, Ray Bassett, Lawrence DeSautel, Pete Gergen, Ben Gorder, Oscar Hanson, George Hermes, Bill Hilts, Leo May, Gil Moe, Elmer Pariseau, Cy Peschel, Lawrence Ranes, Alf Skaret, and Mike Sullivan.

Six lettermen were recognized in cross country by the boards; they are: Vergil Weiser, Carroll Anderson, Chester Rhimes, Roy Jordre, all of whom will receive medals and letters and Russell Weiser and Walt Nelson who received their medals last fall. The above squad won the second consecutive cross country North Central title at Brookings, this fall.

Nineteen freshmen will be given their numerals and jerseys on the successful completion of 12 hours of work. They are: Frank Secora, Breckenridge, Minn.; Dan Regan, Devils Lake; Roderick McMillan, Mott; Alvin Hong, Hillsboro; Arnold Kauffman, Hillsboro; Harold Dale, Willmar, Minn.; Alan Moe, Moorhead, Minn.; James Law, Ayr; William Folendorf, Fargo; Carl Miller, Fargo; Stanley Raymond, Grafton; Leo Thommasson, Park River; Donald Walsh, New Richmond, Wis.; George Fairhead Rockford, Ill.; Johnny Fischer, Hillsboro; Sam Westgate, Grafton; Alfred Jaeger, Hankinson; Cy Lonsbrough, Fargo; and Blair Seitz, Mandan.

Kenneth Bute will receive a letter as manager of the Varsity squad.

Basketball Practice Will Be "Closed"

In order to secure better results from the basketball squad, Coach Saalwaechter has requested that students remain away from the basketball practices except on open nights which will be announced in The Spectrum.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

A business education is a practical education that prepares one for every-day living. It gives the training necessary for entrance into the business world where the demand for trained workers is much greater than the supply. The business world pays a salary twelve months out of the year with two weeks' vacation on full pay.

Hon. W. T. Harris, Ex-Commissioner of Education, said, "Without a thorough and practical commercial education, a man is like a ship at sea without a compass or rudder."

Take your course in business training in an accredited school. Call or write for particulars.

PAN HELLENIC WILL MEET THURSDAY P. M.

Marion Trowbridge, president of Pan-Hellenic, announced yesterday that the group will meet Thursday afternoon at 4 p.m. in Dean Dinan's office.

TIME OF COLLEGE RADIO HOUR CHANGED

A change in the hours of radio broadcasting by the North Dakota State college over WDAY was made recently in compliance with the Radio Commission's request. The period of 7:30 on Monday and Friday nights is changed to 9:00, while the 7:30 period for Wednesday is changed to 8:30.

This change in the College broadcasting time was made at the same time as the station increased its power from 250 to 1,000 Watts. College radio programs consist of music, talks on agricultural and home economics subjects and also on general subjects of interest to the people of North Dakota.

NO WRITTEN MATTER IN LAUNDRY BAGS

"Students who are in the habit of putting notes and written matter in their laundry bags, had better discontinue the practice, or they will pay dear for their negligence," stated John Pannebaker, State College Station postmaster, Monday morning of this week.

R. S. Regar, third assistant postmaster general at Washington, D. C. has issued the following:

The season of the year is again here when young people leave their homes to attend the higher institutions of learning. These students are extensive users of the mails for their suit cases, laundry bags, supplies from home, etc., and postmasters at college and university towns report that in many instances the suit cases, laundry bags, etc., contain unauthorized written matter, such as note books of school work, old letters, memoranda books and magazines bearing marginal notes, etc., on which postage at the fourth-class rate only is prepaid. Such parcels are rated up according to their classification and the deficient postage collected on delivery. One postmaster states that such postage ranges from $2 to $12 a parcel at his office. In many instances these collections work hardship on students. Postmasters and postal employees are directed to give special attention when accepting suit cases, laundry bags, and other parcels intended for students in college and university towns and see that action is taken to prevent the dispatch from their respective offices of parcels offered for mailing at less than the first-class rate of postage which contain written matter not permissible with the class of matter as offered, thus improving this situation and making the service more satisfactory to its patrons and at the same time avoiding unnecessary labor, expense and criticism. Eternal vigilance at the office of mailing is the only way to stop this trouble-making practice.

R. S. REGAR,
Third Assistant Postmaster General.

For the most part these firms are typical of the group whose financial aid means so much to the success of innumerable Bison projects.

They are members of the Bison Boosters, an organization that backs our athletic program every year.

They advertise in the Bison, the yearbook of the college, and aid in making the book a success.

They back school programs, the Baby Bison Bible, the Homecoming Program, etc. In a hundred might succeed in various enterprises such as the annual Homecoming event. They do their Share.

Now will you do YOURS? Your share is this:

PATRONIZE These Firms!

When you make a purchase in any of the stores mentioned let the clerk or the manager know that you're a student at the college. Get the habit of doing this.

All these firms are dependable and handle the very best merchandise.

It is not our purpose to place firms that do not advertise on any "blacklist" but we do want to stress the absolute necessity of making advertising worthwhile to the advertisers.

As you read this issue of the Spectrum don't skip over the "ads". They carry a message designed especially for YOU. They aim to save you money, to inform you as to where certain merchandise may be bought, to help make your school life as pleasant as possible.
