

Gold Star Band To Give Concert At Convocation

Band Will Be Recruited To 75 Pieces For Tuesday's Convocation

The Gold Star Band, directed by Dr. C. S. Putman, will make its initial public appearance for the present college year at a Convocation Concert in the Armory on Tuesday, November 27 at 9:40 A. M. The band will be recruited to its fullest strength and should have a total of fifty pieces in the main body and twenty-five pieces in the Bugle and Drum Corp.

Captain Smith, a march composed by Dr. Putman, will be the first number of the program. This is dedicated to Captain Smith, now of Fort Benning, Georgia, who for the past four years has been professor of Military Science and Tactics in this college. This number will be played by the entire band including the Bugle and Drum Corp.

The second number is the first movement of an English orchestral suite titled Northwards. This was taken from the suite "Four Ways" composed by Eric Coates and has been especially arranged for this band by Dr. Putman. This orchestration was featured by the London Philharmonic Orchestra last season.

Dr. Putman has chosen the third number, Prelude by Jean Beghorn, from the 1928 High School Band Contest. This is a symphonic arrangement.

The fourth number Ballet suite-La Source is by the French composer Debises and consists of four numbers. The numbers are: Pas de Voiles, Andante, Variation and Dance Cirasienne.

Chloe, a popular one, has been made over from the original orchestration into a band number by Dr. Putman and will be the fifth selection.

The concluding selection will be "El Captain" one of Mr. Sousa's most popular marches. This number is being played by special request.

Dr. Putman has had special rehearsals of late in an effort to have the band at its peak for the concert. Dr. Putman feels that the band has accomplished much and will make excellent showing for the period of time that rehearsals have been held.

STEVENS SEES MANY HARRIS SPARROWS

From the middle of September to the last of October thousands of little black hooded birds flew over our heads in the course of their migration to Southern Nebraska and Central Texas. They are known as the "hooded" or Harris Sparrow. The migration of this bird is peculiar because of the fact that it is confined to a narrow belt of territory and outside of this belt the bird is a curiosity. This corresponds to the tall grass regions along the edge of the oak and hickory belt.

Mr. Stevens of our biology department, in the course of his study of the Harris Sparrow, has trapped and "branded" a great number of these birds. Two years ago one bird came back to his trap thirteen times; this year one bird came back ninety-nine times. In this manner many interesting habits of the bird can be observed. One particularly interesting characteristic of the bird is its gentleness. When caught it never attempts to peck at the hand of its captor. In the trap it is very noisy at first but soon becomes calm.

This might be called one of Mr. Stevens' hobbies and a very enticing hobby it has proven. The paper which he is to give at the meeting of the Wilson Ornithology Club this month is an interesting account of the habits of this bird as gleaned from surveys both here and in Nebraska.

PLEDGES OF THETA CHI WILL ENTERTAIN ACTIVES

The active and alumni members of Phi chapter of Theta Chi fraternity and their ladies will be honor guests at a dancing party to be held at the Waldorf Hotel Saturday evening, Nov. 24.

Stanley Raymond is directing the work of the rookies in their role as hosts at the party.

Volley Ball League Being Reorganized

Students, As Well As Faculty Men Are Organized Volley Ball Teams

College boys are not the only ones interested in sports according to Christ Jensen who assisted in organizing the faculty men's Volley Ball League on the North Dakota State College Campus for the fall term. College professors desire for better physical condition is greatest incentive leading to forming of the group.

Seven teams captained by experienced men comprise the league. The schedule is arranged to permit each team to play every other team three times during the season. Games are played daily from 5 to 6 o'clock P.M. on the Campus Y floor. Players are asked to appear promptly to avoid unnecessary delay. Everyone should be present but those finding it impossible are requested to furnish a reliable substitute.

Faculty Volley Ball is not a new idea on the Campus. It is one that has long been found practical, among professors who felt the need of a pleasant method of gaining necessary exercise. Among the veterans of the game are: Leon Metzinger, C. A. Nelson, A. F. Yeager, Al Severson, T. H. Hopper, C. L. Swisher, and F. C. Householder.

In past seasons an all faculty team has been selected to play outside teams. Last year they played against the faculty of Concordia College and the Fargo Young Mens Christian Association. This year college young men are organizing under the leadership of Byron Olson and it is hoped that several interesting games may be played between professors and their students.

Outside activities have hindered a perfect attendance at games thus far this season. Coming of colder weather, it is thought, will turn many professors from their outdoor hobbies to Volley Ball.

TWENTY-FIVE SHOPPING DAYS BEFORE XMAS

What with only twenty-five more shopping days until Christmas and all, Juniors and Seniors can't afford to put off having their pictures taken. At the close of the third week of the drive, the staff of the classes section of the Bison hopes to have well over half of the individual class pictures taken. The staff appreciates the cooperation of the following students who have had their pictures taken during the past week: Donald Best, Gudlong Wick, Frances Kapuscinski, Mable Wenzel, Clathis Nagel, Theodore Laibly, Walter Nelson, Doris Wilner, Esther Boyer, Patrick Brindle, Gertrude Willmert, John Wolfe, Kenneth Sundberg, Percival Peightal, Lawrence Debing, Lawrence DeSautel, Alben Nymoen, Jean Lilico, Robert Rasmerson, Ray Witt, Phyllis Heimark, D. C. McLeod, Curtis Ballard, Robert Kvennoen, Grace Reynolds, Georgina Brindle, Marion Stone, Michael Fogarty, Lyman Bjerken, Jerome Lindstrum, A. M. Codile, Inez Lunder, Gladys Barton, Jane Jordre, Jane Eddy, William McRoberts, Mae Borgan, Beatrice Hilber, Dorothy Berrigan, Alice Cheshire, Luella McDunn, Naomi Meilicke, Dorothy Bain, Anna Baker, and Myrtle Klovstad.

Parents Of Two State Students Master Farmers

Eastgate, Who Was Honored By Saddle And Sirloin Is Master Farmer

Billie Eastgate's father, J. E. Eastgate of Larimore, this state, and John Plath, the father of Wilfred Plath, Davenport, this state, have been in St. Paul this week being designated as "master farmers of the northwest."

These men were selected along with a number of men from the northwest states by a farm paper in cooperation with agricultural colleges in the district.

Billie Eastgate is a junior in the school of Home Economics and a member of Phi Omega Pi sorority. Her father, J. E. Eastgate has a beautifully located farm near Larimore, North Dakota. For several years Mr. Eastgate was prominent in farm institute work, lecturing on the methods which have brought success on his 600 acre farm. Last winter his portrait was hung in the Saddle and Sirloin Hall of Fame of this institution as one deserving the honor for the service he has rendered the state. Edward B. Eastgate, one of Mr. Eastgate's sons is also an alumnus of this institution having graduated from the school of Agriculture in 1924. He is a member of the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity.

Wilfred Plath is a senior in the school of Agriculture and a member of the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity. His father, John Plath of Davenport operates a stock and grain farm of one and a half sections near Davenport, N. D. He has been one of the outstanding farmers, in a community noted for excellent farming. His homestead is a model of neatness and he has had excellent success in his farming operations using hogs, beef cattle and grain in combination to build up his land and bring profitable results.

P. O. P. PLEDGES WILL ENTERTAIN ACTIVES

Active members of the Phi Omega Pi sorority will be guests of their pledges at an informal dancing party Friday evening from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock at the Waldorf Hotel.

Joyce Peterson has charge of the general arrangements and she will be assisted by the following committees: Grace Reynolds, Bernice Emmons, Lois Julian, music; Francis Webster, and Jessie Smith, decorations; and Bernice Emmons, features.

Chaperones for the affair will be Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dice, and Mrs. Mary Smith.

ATTENTION SENIORS!

There comes a time in the life of every college graduate that will prompt her or she to take from the book case the year book of their Alma Mater. With pride the graduate turns to the page where his or her picture stamps the owner as being in that graduating class. There beside the picture stands the college record of the "grad". There, is the section, are the pictures of those classmates who meant so much to them at college who later went a different path.

We, the members of the Class of 1929, do little realize what our year book will mean to us after we graduate. It is not only an honor but a privilege to be listed among our classmates in that beautiful book, "The Bison."

Therefore, in order that we may be real college men and women, let us sign up and have our picture taken at the earliest possible convenience so that the "Bison of 1930" may be a truly representative year book.

Sincerely,
M. FOSS NARUM,
President of the Senior Class.

BUDGET BOARD WILL BE HERE SATURDAY

President John Lee Coulter who has been attending the meeting of The American Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities at Washington, D. C. this week has arranged to be home on Saturday morning of this week to meet with the budget board of the Legislature who will be here on that date.

Globe Trotters Give Banquet Monday Evening

Members Of Public Discussion Class Take Part In Annual Event Monday

The Globe Trotters held their annual banquet in the Lincoln Log Cabin, Monday evening, November 19. Foss Narum presided as toastmaster while Dorothy Moffit acted in the capacity of toastmistress. The Globe Trotters is an organization of travelers who return once every year bringing tales of wonder from all parts of the world.

Tired as they were, they were able to satisfy their appetites with a banquet of food characteristic of many lands. Fruit cocktail followed the puree of pea soup greeted the travelers as they found their places. Spanish stak, mashed potatoes and gravy, buttered beets, tomato aspic salad, lefse, parkerhouse rolls, olives English pudding with hard sauce, and coffee completed the menu. Toasts were given by all the wanderers and interesting experiences in many countries were retold. The toasts in order of continents were as follows: Asia: Aribia, LeRoy Hoff, Persia, Geyrl Gardner, India, Tyler Helland, Macedonia, Robert Olson, Japan, Wallace Loveness, China, Harvey Heller; Europe: Denmark, Albin Benson, Norway, Ole Sand, Sweden, Theodore Lagerberg, Iceland, Roger Deyoe, France, Floyd Ewing, Germany, Herman Zeissler, England, Harold Hiemark, Holland, Ralph Hollands, Russia, Frances Kapuscinski, Ireland, Horace McGrath, Scotland, Charles McKimmie, Finland, M. E. Mattingly, Wales, Thomas Micka, Belgium, George Pardoe, Poland, Russell Paulson, Greece, Martain Rosen, Yugoslavia Glenn Schoesow, Portugal, Herman Skaret, Czechoslovakia, Donald Spencer, Turkey, Charles Zaludsky, Bulgaria, Henry Zwerg, Spain, Eugene Sinner, Italy, Cyril Peschel; North America; Mexico, Ralph Erickson, Canada, Earl Schoesow, Panama, Vernon Salmonson; Australia, Floyd Roberts, South America, Brazil, W. A. Wallgren, Argentina, Cecil Carroll, Ecuador, George Probstfield, Peru, Peter Stensgaard, Chile, Ralph Stockstad, and the Island Hawaii, Farwick Dutee, Cuba, Ernest Larson, New Zealand, Robert Kvennoen, Phillipines, R. W. Carlson.

After the banquet the travelers donned their packs and started to go to their homes in the far corners of the earth with this vow on their lips, "We are coming back next year if it's the last thing we do."

ART CLUB WILL FINISH CERES HALL

The girls of the Art Club are working on a worthy project this term. They have undertaken to put the finishing touches on the vast improvements made in Ceres Hall parlors this year. The first hanging was made by Miss Hatch, and the rest of the work is centered about that. The velvet tapestry print for the piano was the next to be made. There are to be several different types of art design in the completed work, such as block prints, batik work, and tied and dyed scarfs. Those working on this project are Naomi Milieke, Dorothy Bain, Marion Trowbridge, Frances Brummond, Dorothy Berrigan, Doris Able, and Helga Restvedt. The idea is to put special attention on giving life and a personal touch to the rooms which constitute the dormitory girls' home for a year.

Ralph Erickson And Nick LeFor To Debate Idaho

Tryouts Monday Revealed A Number Of Others For Later Debates

Nicholas LeFor of Dickinson, N. D., a junior in the school of Pharmacy, and Ralph Erickson of Sidney, Mont., a senior in the school of Pharmacy, have been chosen to represent the North Dakota State college in a debate with the University of Idaho on Thursday, December 13.

Tryouts for all of the college debaters were held last Monday afternoon. Announcements will be made later as to the personnel of the other State college debating teams.

The debate with the University of Idaho is the first contest for the year on the schedule outlined by the Board of Public Speaking Control. The question of U. S. armed intervention in foreign countries to protect American investments is the topic to be discussed with the invaders from Idaho. The representatives from the University of Idaho are making a prolonged tour this fall. They debate a number of other American institutions en route to Fargo and from here they are to make their return trip through Canada with contests scheduled with many of the central and western Canadian colleges.

Christmas Festival To Be Sunday, Dec. 9th

In observance of tradition, the Little Country Theatre Players will again present their Christmas Festival on a Sunday afternoon, which this year will fall on December ninth.

Preparations for the production are already in progress, and Mr. Avid plans to make it even more unique than former festivals with the assistance of the following committees: play committee Mable Wenzel, Jane Eddy, Margaret More, and Arlene Burr; music, Mary Alice Boyle, Dorothy Greene, Gladys Barton, Elizabeth McDonald; decoration, Dorothy Moffit, Almarine Schulz, Marion Hartley, Harold Fog; refreshments, Anna Baker, and Miss Holtritz; promotion, Agnes Schlanser, Gwendolyn Gregg, Bilina Brindle, Amos Wallum; Toy Shop, Evelyn Blakeslee, Helen Swanson, Ruth Simonson, and Sarah Moore.

RHINES RECEIVES ALPHA ZETA CUP

Chester Rhines, a sophomore in the school of Agriculture, was presented with the freshman scholarship cup on Wednesday evening of this week.

This is an annual award made to the student in agriculture who receives the highest grades during his freshman year. The award is made by Alpha Zeta, national honorary agricultural fraternity, and is usually termed "The Alpha Zeta Cup."

Ruel Wije, a member of Alpha Zeta and a N.D.S.C. graduate gave a talk on the packing industry following the presentation of the loving cup. Refreshments closed the meeting.

COLLEGE "Y" HAS EXCELLENT LIBRARY

The college "Y" library is known as the best library of any campus in the "Y" conference. Although the quantity of the volumes is not overwhelmingly large, the variety and quality of them is unexcelled. These volumes include the most recent books sent out by the Book of the Month club and books on travel, history, and biography.

Next week's Spectrum will give a detailed account of the "Y" library.

The college "Y" has entered five men in the City "Y" bowling league which meets on Monday nights. Two wouldbe bowlers are wanted for alternates. See Prof. Ottersen if you are interested.

IN THE NAME OF THE LAW

It appears that there is some practical-minded anarchist or socialist abroad on the campus. From the number of articles reported stolen, the inference must be drawn that addicts of either one of these two unpopular theories of human behavior are fervidly doing their best to make practice coincide with theory—much to the embarrassment and annoyance of the rest of us.

We wish to say that the State College has no room for such fanatics. This school, established in a sober community, is perfectly conventional in its attitude toward private property. This we cannot countenance a person taking someone else's property except by processes outlined by business "ethics" and the law of the land.

So we give fair warning. If you wish to steal, steal legally. You practice your pet theories as to ownership of property at your own risk.

THE STUDENT OPINION

In answering the student opinion which appears elsewhere in this sheet, we might say that we believe there was a decided improvement last Friday evening over any previous all college party held this fall.

Those in charge might have taken more drastic action in certain instances, but they were so pleased over the improvement of the crowd that the few stragglers there were unmolested.

We have been assured though that the rule will be the law at the next hop and all peoples not escorted by N.D.S.C. students will be politely or otherwise escorted to the wide open spaces.

RETURN THOSE CANVASSES!

In the want add column there appears a want add which hurts the school considerably. Some fraternity, sorority or campus club borrowed some canvasses from a downtown concern for their homecoming float and hasn't returned same.

Upon borrowing the canvasses they were asked to leave their name at the office but walked out without doing so. The offended concern has no one to "bless" except the school as a whole, for they don't know where the canvasses are.

On the behalf of North Dakota State we appeal to the group that has the canvasses to get them back at once and thus evade the undesirable advertising that is bound to follow if they are not returned.

HOW IT IS PUBLISHED

Few students or faculty members appreciate how and under what conditions every issue of the Spectrum is issued. Every issue contains a number of mistakes and about eighty per cent of them are brought to our attention every week.

Lack of time, money and interest in journalism at North Dakota State prevent us from issuing a more nearly correct issue twice a week. A final proof is never read on the paper, thus accounting for the unpardonable mistakes which occur occasionally.

Regarding items that are omitted, kindly bear in mind that only occasionally are items left out because they are not desired, and at practically all times leave outs are due to a shortage of space. Remember it is the advertising that must "foot the bills", so it is run and "John Doe spent the weekend at home" is left out.

For the past several weeks The Spectrum is indebted to Mr. Johnson's Journalism class for every members is required to turn in five stories to receive their credits in the course. This helps unburden the staff to a considerable extent and gives us an idea of how easy it would be to run a paper where there was a school or department of journalism cooperating with the publications throughout the year.

Like all groups of people, the Spectrum staff has members who pay dearly for their positions on the staff and others who are not as valuable to the editor. Some feel the honor is all ours in having their name on the staff. In fact, though, journalism has taken a decided step forward this year at North Dakota State for at this time there are about four promising journalists working daily with the editor-in-chief's position as a goal.

Just Comment
WISE and OTHERWISE

By Henry Presler

THE RESPONSE to the Bison snapshot contest has been immediate. A large number of excellent photographs have already been turned in at the office. It is possible to secure a large number of campus pictures from the college photographer, but the individual pictures and those pertaining to student activities can only be secured through the students. Hence, the snapshots contest.

More pictures are needed of Homecoming features and particularly of the parade. The editors also find that they need snapshots stressing the activities of the various departments. Be sure to have yours represented in the Bison Life Section of the annual.

RECENTLY THE College "Y" boards staged a membership campaign. The Y.M.C.A. cabinet offered a system of group membership to fraternities which was eagerly taken advantage of.

It has been the erroneous opinion of the student body and the town as a whole that the Y.M.C.A. is an organization made up almost entirely of non-fraternity men. This mistaken belief has made it extremely difficult when efforts have been made to put across a successful membership campaign. This year it seems that this stumbling block has been eliminated to quite an extent.

Of course it is true that there are more non-fraternity than fraternity men members of the "Y", but the difference is of no consequence. If all of the former should get together and join the "Y" it is certain that they could control the student affairs of the college.

WE THINK that those in charge should be congratulated on securing the recent Lyceum course offering—The Cotter's Saturday Night. This program was certainly well received, a fact which gives evidence that the Lyceum program is popular among the student body.

WHEN CAN we hear a concert by the Gold Star Band, someone asked?

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

Among Our Contemporaries

At the South Dakota State College all student publications must be submitted to the publications council before they may be issued. Evidently the wisdom of the staffs is doubted.

The following headline was found in one of the exchange papers: Square Freshman to Hold Class Election Tomorrow. Now, just what do you think of that?

We have a lot of war veterans on the campus. Yeh—they were in the Battle of Sedan.

Still discussing Hoover and Smith, the following sentences are quoted from an article printed in the New York University News.

The picture of Hoover and Smith made the paper more realistic and original than it has ever been before. Hoping for more and better pictures, etc.

Are there really enough boys in the world to supply all the photographs girls have on their dressers?

Student Opinion

Not long ago an editorial in the Spectrum said that the all college dances were to be "all college" dances in the future including the one which was held last Friday night. No high school student was to be allowed to attend the dance unless he or she was accompanied by a college student. There were, however, quite a number of high school couples at the dance and yet there seemed to be no authority to send them away.

Where should that authority come from? We should think it to be the duty of either the chaperons or else the duty of some member of the student commission to take the needed action against such high school students. These high school students seem to be just like "cattle" in that they go where you don't want them to go. They will continue to go to those places until ordered out.

If need be, the students can gang up and put such violaters out but it seems to us that it should come from some authority.

AT THE THEATRES

Pola Negri, who hasn't been active for some time, portrays a role especially suited to her in "The Loves of an Actress," which is booked for Friday and Saturday at the Fargo.

John Gilbert takes the leading role in "The Masks of the Devil," which is showing at the State the last three days of this week. Gilbert takes the part of a romantic hero, and has Theodore Roberts, the grand old man of pictures playing with him. Roberts was forced to leave filmdom two or three years ago because of ill health, but is back again in one of his best character roles.

Ebullitions of Ebony Blott
By Everett Wallum

Mr. Flowers, in his second local appearance, states that class averages are not "exchangeable for food and shelter". Judging from class room scenes, however, they are exchangeable for sleep.

A prof is a fellow who tells you that you don't go to school to get marks—and then goes on to prove it.

For that exam, ask the man who bones one.

We hope the legislature doesn't give us a couple wings for our buildings. Our building program has been up in the air enough as it is.

A fellow looked over the school the other day and admitted that we needed another physical education building. What does he mean, "another one"?

If the armory is a physical education gymnasium, the Barracks is a parliament building.

We note that the Sigma Taus had "rare lighting effects" at their party. Someone must have got his cigar lighter going.

And the Kappa Psis had a Mr. Knight, Sandman from radio station KOA, for a Sunday guest. Which shows to what extremes a college man will go to get sleep.

What else can they expect from a Knight?

If they would stop muzzling Fargo dogs, and muzzle the people who eat the hot ones, community welfare and health would take a step forward.

Copernicus, our sad-eyed turtle terrier, wants to know who's going to muzzle the fleas.

And Disraeli, English Bull and veteran of seven tin can episodes, says he doesn't mind being muzzled, but how can he enjoy his "arf and arf"?

Now if they'll only put gloves on cats, our domestic serenity will remain intact.

There are still optimists in Germany. A fellow in Berlin recently put limburger cheese in a mouse trap.

The laziest farmer we know is a rustic who feeds his cow Mexican jumping beans so she will give butter.

Dan McDip, the big gutter and yegg man, says that they call the Armory "Coulter's Barn" because, in the winter, the old shed gets coulter and coulter.

So we won the Conference Cross Country championship? Well, it was the Weiser thing to do.

Well.

Bison Will Prepare For Basketball Season

Saaly Takes Varsity Squad On Monday

Five Veterans, Two Reserves, And Eight Sophs Form Bison First String

The preparations for the 1929 North Central Basketball championship will get under way in fact Monday when the Varsity squad will be separated from the Bison yearlings and Coach Saalwaechter prepares for the title chase.

Captain elect Bobby Hahn will appear in suit shortly after the first of December.

The State squads have been working out together for the past two weeks under the direction of Coaches Leonard Saalwaechter, varsity coach, and Robert Lowe the freshman mentor. The fundamentals of the game have been stressed the entire two weeks and a well drilled squad with a thorough knowledge of the rudiments of basketball will take the floor the evening of December 8 for its first clash with the Valley City Vikings on Bison court, and there on December 14.

The Bison schedule has been made to include three contests with two new opponents, Augsburg College of St. Paul, Minnesota, a member of the Minnesota Conference, will be met in a home and home plan and the Austin, Minnesota Independents will also be met at Austin.

The preseason includes a barnstorming trip beginning December 20 at Galesburg, Illinois where Lombard college will be met. Bradley Polytechnic will be the next opponent on the following night at Galesburg, Ill. The Bison court squad will probably engage Loyola in a furious session between December 22 and December 26 if Coach Saalwaechter receives a favorable answer to his telegram in the immediate future.

Millikin University will be met at Decatur, Ill., and Illinois Wesleyan at Bloomington will conclude the Illini invasion. Austin Independents will be met at in a double header at Austin and Augsburg College on January 2 will see the finish of the barnstorming tour.

The conference schedule begins on January 11 when Morningside furnishes the first conference fire for the Bison Varsity here. The Bison will leave on a trip through the southern end of the conference for a three day stand when South Dakota University, Morningside and South Dakota State will furnish the Bison competition over the weekend of January 18.

On successive Saturdays the Bison will attempt to repel the thrusts of the South Dakota entrants, playing South Dakota University January 26 and South Dakota State on February 2. Augsburg College will furnish a breathing spell from conference competition on February 9 before the four game series with the University of North Dakota which will close the Bison basketball schedule. The first encounters will be played at Grand Forks, Friday and Saturday, 15 and 16 of February, while the second series will be played on the Bison court the following weekend, February 22 and 23.

The varsity squad that will be in suit Monday for its initial practice include five lettermen from the 1928 campaign. They are: Gergen, Hays, Cecil Bliss, Matt Braus, George Hermes; while ten others: Cy Peschel, and Harvey Steedsman, last years reserves, and eight graduates from the last years frosh squad: Leo May, Gil Johnson, ohn Smith, John Brady, Ray Bassett, Eric Tonn, Oscar Hanson, and Chief Pariseau, will be aiding the lettermen.

Faculty Volleyball Reorganized Today

The number of teams in the faculty volleyball league has been cut from seven to five in order to retain the YMCA basketball court for play. Under the new schedule play will be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday between five and six P. M. At the beginning of the winter term the league will again be reorganized with the purpose of rewarding the team with the largest, percentage of games won with a trophy.

The new teams are as follows: Nelson, captain; Solheim, Stevens, Jongeward, Bird and Ikenberry; Swisher, captain; Hooper, Fuller, Householder, Yott, Chapman, Johnson; Yeager, captain; Lindstrom, Smith, Parshall, Pinkney, Bavy, Hill; Severson, Captain; Beckel, Jensen, Wykoff, Trowbridge, Lathrop, Bolley; and Hunsaker, Captain; Sunde, Hoffman, Braun, McMurray; Keene.

Rifle Team Will Shoot Sixty Matches

The college rifle team will participate in about fifty or sixty matches this year according to Lieutenant Ross who is arranging the schedule.

Matches have already been arranged with seventeen colleges and Lieutenant Ross is now corresponding with other schools in regard to dates for matches. These matches will be held in February and March.

The date for beginning of practice has not been definitely set yet. Lieutenant Ross says it depends on when the intercollegiate rifle meet takes place. This will probably be either the first week in January of the first week in February, and he plans on getting a month of practice prior to this meet.

Our Honor Organizations

Rho Chi

Rho Chi is an honorary pharmaceutical fraternity which has as its purpose the promotion and advancement of the pharmaceutical sciences.

Rho Chi was founded at the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1922. Kappa chapter of Rho Chi was founded at North Dakota State College on June 10, 1928. It is the newest honorary organization to make its appearance on our campus. There are ten chapters.

The chapter members of the organization are Vance Vaupel, William Berg, and J. Katz, all of the class of 1928. The active members and officers are Olaf A. Slinde, president; Ted Maier, vice president; Len Hammargren, secretary; and Charles Hayford, treasurer.

Alpha Gamma Rho announces the formal pledging of Alex Robertson, Langdon, and Clifford McKinnon, Mapleton, N. Dak.

J. A. Purcell Will Be Hockey Coach Here

J. A. Purcell, well known hockey enthusiast of the northwest and sports writer of the Fargo Forum was appointed North Dakota State's hockey coach near the beginning of the fall term, according to Athletic Director Charles "Casey" Finnegan.

Coach Purcell has been interested in the winter sport for a considerable length of time having played in a Grand Forks league and with the Winnipeg Canadian Falcons.

A recent meeting was held for the supporters of hockey and several practices have been held in the armory.

COURTS REPAIRED FOR SPRING PLAY

Tennis enthusiasts will be able to enjoy themselves next spring, for the work of rehabilitating the school tennis courts is nearly finished.

Workmen have been busy the last month in repairing the playing surface and patching the fences which surround the courts. The surface of the courts has been covered with a mixture of screened clay and sand, to a depth of about four inches.

Repairing of the courts was done this fall in order that the new dirt might have time to settle and insure a firm fast playing surface early in the spring.

TWENTY-FIVE FRESHMEN OUT FOR BASKETBALL

The freshman basketball squad is now working every afternoon in the armory under the supervision of Coach Saalwaechter.

There are about twenty-five freshmen out now and more are expected to come out when evening practice starts. There doesn't appear to be any "all americans" in the roster, but as a whole they show enough class to warrant the prediction of a successful season for them.

FRANCIS HALL NAMED AFTER GIRL'S GR'FATHER

Long years have passed since O. W. Francis, one of the founders of the college and after whom Francis Hall was named left our midst, but now his grand daughter, Miss Elizabeth McMillan is a student in the school of Science and Literature.

Miss McMillan graduated from Central High School, Minneapolis, where she took part in musical and journalistic activities. She is specializing in art and stenography here at the college.

Francis Hall, which housed the first students here, is the second oldest building on the campus. It is located north of the agriculture building and now houses the experiment station and extension departments.

TOM COMPARES N.D.S.C. TO A LARGE CITY

"It's like moving from a small village to a large city," says "Tom" Canniff as he returns after two months of teaching in a junior college at Highland, Kansas.

The enrollment at this junior college is very small, there being but fifty-four students. Junior colleges are as yet in the experimental stage and students prefer attending a university or college if possible. Due to its recent organization and to the fact that it is an endowment institution the laboratory equipment is very meager. It feels "great" to be back in a well equipped laboratory again and back on the scenes of my own college days, further comments "Tom" as he speaks of his new position as chemistry instructor. Mr. Canniff is to take over all of Dr. Stowe's classes except the advanced inorganic chemistry classes. Although his own college days are just over he says he intends to make the students work.

Mr. Canniff is a member. Alpha Sigma Tau social fraternity, Alpha Phi Omega National Chemistry Fraternity, and Scabbard and Blade Military fraternity.

The precise key to new colors

From a style standpoint these numbers are exquisite achievements. More particularly they reflect the advanced idea of the world's foremost colorists in the new off-tones—shades that are a wee bit away from the full color. Vanity—an off-Beige; Sundown—an off-tone Sunburn; Peach—a more subtle Naturelle, are styled in the mode of the day. 3 pairs, $5.60.
