

Frances Koss Has Charge Of Classes In Bison

Upperclassmen To Start Having Pictures Taken Monday At Owl Studio

Today marks the formal opening of the campaign for junior and senior pictures in the 1930 Bison, according to Frances Koss, classes editor of the yearbook. Assisting Miss Koss in her work are Milton Pemble, Fargo; Harry McLachlin, Hunter; Esther Douglas, Gilby; F. Ralph Hollands, Moorhead; Evelyn Blakeslee, Fargo; and Ralph Erickson, Skaar; Harold Phillips, Fargo; and Clifford Booke, Williston.

A. R. Scherling of the Owl Studio has been recently declared the official Bison Photographer and all individual and group pictures will be taken at his studio which is located at 113 Broadway. Pictures for the classes section will begin with a regular schedule of appointments Monday, November 12, and will be completed by Dec. 15. Three dollars, the usual fee for individual pictures will be charged again this year.

That every upperclassman in the school may have his picture in the classes section is the aim of the class editor. "Efforts will be made to make this a 100% representative division of the book for the sake of the student body as a whole," declared Miss Koss when talking of the work. "A picture in the school annual is lasting and will be appreciated by the student in after years even more than now."

A. A. Segal, manager of the college department of the Bureau of Engraving, Minneapolis, is expected this week to confer with the editor-in-chief and business manager to complete plans for the annual. The contract for the engraving was given to the Bureau last spring and work on the book has been done during the summer months.

Amos Wallum, Lakota, has been named associate editor of the Bison by Jessie McLachlin, editor-in-chief. Florence Fleming and Alf Akaret, Fargo, are taking charge of the art department assisted by June Vorse and David Train. William Haslam, Devils Lake, is handling organizations with the aid of Robert Adam, Drake, clubs; Margaret Casselman and Edris Probstfield, Fargo, sororities; Raymond Gregerson, Moorhead, and William Rundquist, Fargo, fraternities. Administration will be planned by Jayne Sudro, Fargo, editor, with the following helpers: Ruth Whitney, Fargo; Frank Seebart, Lakota; Doris Sommers, Barnesville, Minn.; Ralph Welch, Grafton; and Dorothy Norby, Lake Park, Minn. Henry Presler and Margaret Miller, Fargo, who will edit the Bison Life section, have not appointed assistants. Rita Morris, New Rockford, has been selected as typist for the book. Charles Arneson, Fargo, is athletic editor and has Milo Hoisvee, Grafton, as an assistant while Billie Eastgate, Larimore, and Georgina Brindle, Fargo, will manage the women's athletic section. Satire will again be handled by Everett Wallum, Lakota, whose humor is well-known to all students.

Additional members of the business staff appointed by Frank Hannaher, Fargo, are: Adolph Pahl, Lidgerwood, assistant business manager; F. Ralph Hollands, Moorhead, advertising manager; and Henry Winch, Grafton, and Harold E. Peterson, Glenwood, Minn., assistants.

FIVE ONE-ACT PLAYS WERE GIVEN WED. EVE

Prof. Arvold's class in play production staged a series of five one-act plays, which is a part of the regular class work, on Wed. evening Nov. 7, in the Little Country Theater.

Ruth DeKleinhans chose "Bread," a one act play by Fred Eastman, with the following cast of characters: John Curtis, Theodore Laibly; Martha Cur-

SORORITY PLEDGES HONORED AT PARTY

Pledges of the Alpha Xi Beta sorority were guests of the active members at an informal party at the Y.M.C.A. building at the college Saturday. The hours were from 8:30 p.m. to 11:30 p.m. Hazel Harris had charge of the general arrangements; Florence James, programs; Minnie Wilmer, music, and Frances Brummond, decorations. The sorority colors were used in the decorations.

"The Rise Of Silas Lapham" Is Fall Play

Emerson Huey, A Freshman, Will Take The Leading Title Role Of The Play

The Edwin Booth Dramatic Club chose at their meeting, "The Rise of Silas Lapham" for their fall term long play to be given within a few weeks. The Rise of Silas Lapham is a four act comedy and dramatization of William Dean Howells' novel by Lillian Sabine. This excellent dramatization of the famous story pictures the middle class of American life in the 70's and tells the story of the development and interesting life of an American family in Boston.

Emerson Huey, a freshman of the North Dakota Agricultural College, will play the title role. He will interpret the part of Silas Lapham. Jerry Martin will play the part of Bartley; Edris Probstfield the part of Persis Lapham; Grace Swanson, Katie; Raymond Gregerson, Milton Rogers; Phyllis Heimark, Penelope Lapham; Ruth Boerth, Irene Lapham; Foss Narum, Tom Corey; Alta Berg; (Mrs. Bromfield Corey) Anna Bellingham Corey; Arthur Anderson, Bromfield Corey; Floy Beatty, Nanny Corey; Irene Hudson, Lily Corey; Margaret Richardson, Ethel Kingsbury; May Suntag, Mrs. Henry Bellingham; Lyle Phillips, Charles Bellingham; Elene Weeks, Mrs. James Bellingham; Earl Welch, Mr. James Bellingham; Theodore Laibly, Mr. Sewell; Marion Stone, Mrs. Sewell; Anthony Faber, Mr. Seemour; Myles Stricker, Robert Chase; Malvin Bolmeir, Mr. Dunham.

tis, Mable Game; Grandma, Mable Wenzel; Stella, Esther Dauglas; Bethy, Gwendolyn Lollis; Jim, LaVerne Vodder. Margaret Moore coached the cast in "Miss Civilization" by Richard Davis. Ruth Boerth playing the part of Alice Gordner; Curtis Thompson, the part of Joseph Hatch; George Sheldon, "Reddy" Brick Meaker; Clair Peterson, Harry Hayes; Wesley Moore, Captain Lucias. "Cabinman No. 93", was the third play, coached by Jane Eddy. Jerry Martin played the leading role as Mr. Udalpho Hallway; Bill Olson, Joseph Capsize, No. 93; Marion Stone, Clara Hallway; Grace Swanson, Nelly Meddlesome. "The adolescent Young" by Poulaine Phelps, was coached by Ada Coulter with the following cast: Mrs. Johnston, Alice Putney; Mrs. Smith, Virginia Yirchatt; Nora, Doris Abel; Mrs. Sanford, Aletha Winn; Zaye Johnston, Frances Webster; Tom Smith, Leonard Luther; Mrs. Parmarlee, Helen Rustad; Louise, Edith Byerly; Madge, Billie Veich; Gertrude, Emily Samelson; Miss Case, Eleanor Erickson; Mrs. Hamilton, Lois Minard; a daughter and four others take parts.

EDUCATION CLUB TAKES NEW MEMBERS AT MEET

Dr. Tanner was the speaker of the evening at Education Club, Tuesday night. He talked on the purpose of such a club. A piano solo was given by Maude Westby, and a reading by Mabel Wenzel.

Inez Jahr was elected treasurer to take the place of Carrol Anderson. The following students were elected to membership; Treasure Kuehl, Inez Jahr, Ione Tucker, Mae Bohlig, Ilae Tucker, Noami Apland, Grace Lamont, Addie Oscarson, Dorothy Moffit, Grace Sjordal, Ruth Henning and Ann Nichols.

Two Members Of Commission Will Be Elected

Special Election Will Be Held On Wednesday, November Fourteenth

A special election was called this week by Foss Narum, president of the student commission, for Wednesday, November 14th, at which time a commissioner of elections and a commissioner of social affairs will be named.

Candidates for the office must have their petitions signed by twenty-five (25) bona fide students of North Dakota State and at the bookstore in hands of Foss Narum by Monday, November 12th at 2 p.m. The names of the candidates as they will appear on the ballot will appear in Tuesday's Spectrum.

These positions were filled at the election of the student commission last spring, but due to the fact that the two commissioners in question are attending other schools, it is necessary to hold a special election at this time, to elect candidates to hold office until the spring election.

Scabbard And Blade Initiates Capt. Anders

Adj.-Gen. Fraser Was Also To Have Been Initiated, But Did Not Arrive

At the initiation held by the Scabbard and Blade, honorary military fraternity, Sunday morning in the Armory, Captain Anders of the United States Army was made an honorary member of the organization. The initiation ceremonies were followed by a formal breakfast held at the Bluebird Cafe.

Captain Anders has been a member of the United States Army since enlisting prior to the Spanish American War. In recent years Captain Anders has been prominent in the activities of the State National Guard. During his service in the Spanish American War he was awarded the Medal of Honor. This is one of the highest military awards to be given an American soldier and is a congressional issue.

Adjutant General Fraser was also to be initiated with Captain Anders but the General was unable to be present at the meeting. General Fraser will possibly be initiated during the coming week. Major Lathrop and Lt. Smith, instructors in Military Science and Tactics will be made associate members of the Scabbard and Blade at this initiation. The associate membership is limited to officers of the institution, in which the chapter is located, and to active and retired officers of the United States army. Dr. C. S. Putnam and Lt. Ross are associate members active in the college.

The initiation of active members was also announced by Captain Ralph Erickson, head of the Scabbard and Blade. The initiation will take place within the next three weeks and the following pledges will be initiated; Milton Pemble, and John Johnson of Fargo; Cy Peschel, Wahpeton; Robert Adams, Elder Torkelson and Norris Olson.

BAND WILL ACCOMPANY TEAM TO BROOKINGS, S. D.

Doc Putnam will take 45 members of the band to Brookings, South Dakota, for the big game Saturday if enough cars can be found to take them. The South Dakota State band has invited the Gold Star band to dinner Friday and Saturday nights and has offered lodging. It is expected that the band will leave this noon.

16 Are Named To Pi Gamma Mu At Meeting

Ruth Henning, Senior In The School Of Education, Was Elected President

Twelve North Dakota State College seniors were recently elected to membership in Pi Gamma Mu, National Social Science Honor Fraternity, according to Dr. W. C. Hunter, secretary of the local organization. A dinner will feature the initiation services, which will be held at Ceres Hall, Tuesday, November 13. The program will consist of a discussion evaluating the recent 1928 presidential election.

Newly elected members are: Helen Ballard, Gladys Barton, John Brady, Raymond Gregerson, Beatrice Hilber, Marvin Huckle, Treasure Kuehl, Theodore Laiby, Jessie McLachlin, Cyril Peschel, Leonard Rygg, and Marion Schroeder.

Faculty members elected are Alva H. Benton of the department of marketing; E. W. Pettee, Political Science; C. A. Severinson, History; and Paul E. Zerby, Economics.

Ruth Henning, Fargo, was elected president of the organization for the coming year, succeeding Ruby Oscarson who graduated last June. Everett Wallum, Lakota, is the new vice-president, while Dr. W. C. Hunter, of the faculty, was named secretary and treasurer. Dr. W. L. Airheart, head of the Wesley School of Religion, was elected faculty member of the executive committee.

Frances Brummond was named chairman of the program committee with Phyllis Heimark and W. C. Hunter as assistants. The social committee consists of Bertha Strand, chairman, Matt Bierman, and Laurel Kingsley. Everett Wallum was given charge of publicity.

Pi Gamma Mu, which is located at 47 of the largest colleges in the country, installed the local chapter in the spring of 1927.

FRATERNITIES WILL BE HOSTS AT DANCES

Three North Dakota State College fraternities are giving parties this evening.

Epsilon chapter of Sigma Phi Delta are giving a dancing party at the Powers Hotel in honor of their pledges.

Actives and pledges of Delta Kappa Sigma are staging a party at the Waldorf in honor of their friends.

Epsilon chapter of Alpha Gamma Rho are giving a house warming party at the chapter house at 1303-13 street North.

College hours, 8:30 to 11:30 will prevail at all three of the parties.

PLANT PATHOLOGIST LEAVES FOR STUDY

Lynton W. Boyle, assistant plant pathologist, U.S.D.A., left Wednesday evening of this week for Madison, Wisc., for special study. His absence will be in the nature of a temporary transfer, as he will still be connected with the Department of Agriculture. Mr. Boyle plans to make a special study of flax diseases during the winter months. The time of his return is indefinite but he will be back in the spring to continue field studies. He has been connected with the North Dakota State College for three years.

Morningside Defeated; U Frosh Lose To Bison

McMillan Stars In Frosh Game; Varsity Will Meet S. Dak. State Saturday

(By Alan Dotson)
The Bison turned in their first North Central conference victory Friday by defeating Morningside College at Sioux City, 12 to 0, in a sea of mud that rendered fast playing impossible according to Coach Stanley Borleske, Tuesday. Borleske stated that a six inch fall of snow and a thaw Friday made the playing field a swamp, mud shoe high and pools of water in other places, making straight football necessary after the opening minutes during which Morningside had the ball.

After the first five minutes the players never moved faster than a good walk due to the mud that had collected on their feet.

The Bison first chance to score came in the latter part of the third quarter after Leo May had recovered a Morningside fumble on the Maroon's 35 yard line. The Bison advanced the ball to the Maroon's five yard line as the quarter ended and the change of goals found the Bison on the Morningside five yard line and first down, and goal to go. Pete Gergen went over for the first touchdown on the third play.

The second Bison counter came in the fourth quarter also, after Ordahl blocked a punt on the Morningside 30 yard line. Straight plays by the Bison took the ball over the goal line for their second touchdown, Hanson doing the heavy work.

Borleske found it necessary to shift Leo May over to a half back post and

Next Week Will Be College "Y" Week

The week of November 11 will be "Y" week on the campus under the direction of the College Y.M.C.A. and Lt. Fay Smith of the Military department. The realization of athletics for all will probably materialize under Lt. Smith who is well known in the Army as a wrestler and boxer. At the present, he is writing a book on wrestling for use in the army posts. The week will begin with usual Sunday activities.

A convocation will be held at 4 o'clock Monday in the Y Auditorium under the direction of Lt. Smith. Plans for wrestling classes and an elimination tournament will be made at that time.

The plans for the remainder of the week are: pre-season intramural basketball tourney Monday night; Basketball contests, Tuesday; Smoker for men, Wednesday evening; Discussion groups for Freshmen under the direction of Dr. W. C. Hunter and for upperclassmen under Dr. Airheart, and the Y cabinet will meet in the Y on Thursday; Friday, Saturday, and Sunday will be the convention dates of the Older Boys Conference for which delegates from Minot Normal, Valley City Teachers Colleges, Jamestown College, Ellendale Normal and the University of North Dakota will be present. Ralph Hollinger, national student secretary will be present at the meetings.

DELTA PHI BETA PLEDGES ENTERTAIN

An informal dancing party in honor of the active members of Delta Phi Beta was given by the sorority pledges Friday, November 2 at 8:30 in the dining hall of the Powers Hotel.

Fifty couples attended the party. Patronesses included members of the Fargo Alumnae Association of Kappa Kappa Gamma, namely; Mrs. N. C. Young, Mrs. R. E. Weible, Mrs. Harry Woolledge, Mrs. John Woolledge, Mrs. R. T. Barnard, and Mrs. G. M. Black.

ELECTION WEDNESDAY

On Wednesday of next week two new members will be elected to the student commission, the governing board of North Dakota State. That the election be satisfactory and truly representative of student government it is necessary that students get their heads together and pick out a suitable person for each job, draw up a petition with twenty-five signers and have it in the hands of the proper authorities by Monday noon. Take part in the nomination and thus avoid the usual alibi, "I wouldn't vote for either one of those candidates, because I don't even know them."

OUR YEARBOOK

North Dakota State is far ahead of some of our neighboring schools for every year the book is assured thru the student activity fee, rather than a big drive for the sale of the books before they are published. This advantage often times gives people the impression that "Bison heads" are on "easy street." This is not exactly true or they still have to hustle to make ends meet financially, but their biggest problem is to make the book truly representative. A one hundred per cent book, as the staffs attempt to put out every year, will not be published until the picture of every junior and senior on the campus is included. This is your part of Beginning Monday Juniors and Seniors are to start having their pictures taken for the classes section. Do this at once and at the same time work on your classmates to get theirs taken at once, thus doing your bit towards putting the book well on its road towards success.

FRESHMEN MID-TERMS

Now that the freshmen of us have—or have not!—successfully passed that first barrier in their college career, the mid-term examinations, it is time that we philosophized upon the situation. To the faculty, the primary purpose of these tests was to determine how much the students had learned during the first six weeks. To us, it seems, the great thing determined was the individual student's reaction to the college system. For the college has a very distinct and peculiar system of education when contrasted with high school. The great, distinguishing feature is the responsibility that rests upon the student. Gone are the extremities of paternalism, the compulsions, the disciplines of secondary schools. In their stead is placed the idea that we are reasoning, responsible, and discerning persons—students going to school because we wish to learn. So now the Freshmen, made wise by experience, pass on into the second half of the term. The high barrier of final examinations looms ahead. May the Freshmen appreciate the trust placed in their ability to be responsible for themselves, and act accordingly—as men and women! —K. G.

THOSE TWO football victories helped a bit.

THE SCHOOL went on much as usual in spite of the holiday.

DR. JAMIESON'S lectures were well attended and the team is in splendid physical condition and the one-act play season has begun.

WHERE ARE the debate teams?

BUT TAKE the case of the Lyceum Course, whose programs generally take place on Monday evenings. More than one student has come down to object to the office cat that fraternity or sorority meetings make it difficult to attend the above attractions. Is someone going to suggest a remedy?

AND THE Spectrum staff got an enjoyable rest.

THOUGH THE editor is still looking for student opinion.

WE HEAR that the college Y.M.C.A. is about to launch a membership drive. The Spectrum wishes the "Y" cabinet every success. Their service to the school and the individual student has set a wonderful example. Have you been over to the building?

THOSE MID-terms, the social season, and cold weather came all at once.

Among Our Contemporaries

If we all felt as the students of the South Dakota "U" do, we would not have a column telling about the affairs of our inter-collegiate friends. Quoting from the "Volante", they say: "State college has already mentioned the "U" several times in their juice paper but we have been too busy in the Wail talking about important them. When we run out of things and have to resort to discussing the weather, the crops or the value of fertilizer we may consider them." Their respect for other colleges

A new armory is being built at the University of South Dakota at a cost of $300,000. This new building will have a swimming pool, a band room, class rooms, locker rooms, office, and a main floor large enough for three basketball courts.

Don't some people have all the luck though?

On Sunday, October 28, all of the Presbyterian churches of South Dakota devoted their services to recognition of Huron College. The purpose of this special service was to stress the value of a Christian education.

An observatory dome will soon be placed on the roof of the Chemistry building, and this will facilitate the teaching of astronomy at the S. D. State College.

OLD FOOTBALL TEAM BACK FOR HOMECOMING

Nine of the eleven men who played on the first North Dakota State team to beat the University were in the sidelines at the homecoming game, watching the boys fight for supremacy. Eight of these were regulars in 1900. These were N. R. Olson, J. F. Jensen, Minneapolis, Minn.; L. B. Greene, D. A. Thompson, Edgely; Byron Wilde, Elbow Woods; John Swenson, Aneta; James McGuigan, A. W. Fowler and W. G. Probstfield, Fargo. They met in the armory before the game to talk over old times and to formulate definite plans for a more complete reunion next year.

Ebullitions of Ebony Blott
By Everett Wallam

A Spectrum headline informs us that "Coulter Believes Agriculture Is A Sound Industry". We'll say so and, boy, what sounds!

But it is the first time we knew farming was an industry. We thought it was a punishment.

The radio is a great boon to the farmer. Now, for the first time, he is able to get something out of the air that politicians have been giving him.

In the last election, politicians claimed that nothing is too good for the farmer. Maybe it is, but they can't give him any less.

So the farmer feeds the world. Well, well! We always thought the Greeks did it.

The reason some people don't want us to change our name to State College of Agriculture is because agriculture is in an awful state.

Rivalling the attempt of the college to change its name is the frantic efforts of the Co-ed to change hers.

The farmer may have fields of waving grain, but it's waving goodbye.

These "wide open spaces" we hear so much about must be in the farmers' pocketbooks.

Now that the automobile has displaced the horse, we can understand what made the old mare gray.

"The farmer regulates the Nation," said a politician. He's a great stabilizer, all right.

Whenever a farmer gets any money, he puts it in his sock so he can get a kick out of it.

The farmers rotate their crops all right. They turn them over to the creditors.

"This is the shell game," cackled the hen as she laid an egg.

You can tell an egg is bad after it reaches a certain stage, says a farm expert. A lot of these ham actors can verify that, but there's no special stage.

And, we might say that they call them ham actors because they draw so many eggs.

It's funny that so many of these experts who tell the farmers how to raise crops on barren land are bald headed.

The only thing a farmer can raise that hasn't got a mortgage on it is a mustache.

A Homecoming cry—"You tell 'em, grad, you've Senior Days!"

Bison Gridders Win Two Contests

use Oscar Hanson at full in order to secure the drive necessary to make the yardage through the mud.

The Bison squad left Thursday for Brookings where they will engage South Dakota State in an all important game for second place in the North Central conference standings. Coaches Borleske and Finnegan took between 20 and 24 men with them by bus. Borleske expects the toughest battle of the year at the hands of the State team as the latter is regarded as far more powerful than the North Dakota University team that defeated them 6 to 0 at Grand Forks earlier in the season. The State team has been improving as the season progressed and their last conquest of Creighton Saturday establishes them without doubt as the most powerful squad in the conference.

Bison Frosh Win From Nodaks 18 to 0 Friday

By BILL CHAMPLAIN

The Bison Frosh succeeded in beating the University yearlings for the first time since the freshman rule was inaugurated, 18 to 0 on Dacotah field Friday after they had suffered their usual defeat at Grand Forks late in October.

The Bison carried the fight to the University from the beginning of the game and refused to give up the ghost after the Flickertails had gained a point advantage near the end of the third quarter, 7 to 6; the Bison leading up to that time 6 to 0. Late in the third quarter the Bison took the ball on the Flickertail's 28 yard line. The North Dakota safety man dropped a punt and Carl Miller recovered for the Bison only to lose it a second later when the ball slipped from his fingers. Verne DuChene, scooping up the ball for the University ran but three yards before he lost it and Sam Westgate ran to the Nodak's 14 yard line before he was downed. The ball was called back and declared dead after Miller lost possession of it on the Nodak's 28 yard line. The Bison backfield carried it to the Nodak's two yards line and "Cy" Lonsbrough carried the University's secondary defense back through the hole that Alvin Hong had made in the Flickertail's line, for the last score. The game ended with the ball in possession of the Nodaks in midfield.

The game opened up a new lineman in Rod McMillan who hails from Mott, N.D. The stalwart youth was in the game from beginning to end and was a constant threat to the Flickertails. He stopped the University backfield on the line of scrimmage if they came his way, downed them from the rear when they tried the other side of the line, and frequently threw them for losses. The University seldom had time to get set before the giant guard was on top of the ball carrier. Old timers say that such fight has not been seen on the local gridiron for some time past and that McMillan is ready to step into a varsity berth next fall when his rough spots have been rubbed off. Among the other outstanding stars of the contest were Alvin Hong, Cy Lonsbrough, Sam Westgate, Stan Raymond, Alfred Jaeger, and Carl Miller.

Runners Leave For Conference Meet

Coach Saalwaechter and six cross country runners will leave at 12 o'clock today for Brookings where the North Central Conference cross country meet will be held between halves of the South Dakota State-North Dakota State football game. Accompanying Saalwaechter are Ray Jordre, Russell Weiser, Virgin Weiser, Carroll Anderson, Walt Nelson, and Ches. Rhimes.

The members of Coach Saalwaechter's squad placed in the above order in the home meet that was held last Friday between halves of the Nodak-Bison Frosh encounter. Jordre, Anderson and Rhimes will receive medals.

UPPER-CLASS GIRLS WIN SOCCER TITLE

The Junior-Senior soccer team won the inter-class tournament by defeating the Freshmen and Sophomore teams 4 to 0. The Freshmen team won from the Sophomores by a score of 2 to 1 and thus placed second in the tournament.

The Soccer tournament will be over some time this week, as soon as the games between the various gym classes can be played off. This is an added feature to this year's tournament and is being tried as an experiment. Early in the season the classes were divided into two teams, and practice has been held between these teams all season. Games are to be played off in each class and the winning team in each class will play the winning team in some other class. Games will be played in this manner until all of the teams but one have been eliminated. The girls on this winning team will be given points in W.A.A.

The varsity soccer team will be picked later on this week, according to Aletha Winn, manager.

THE air map of America is now in the making—on the ground.

Ten years ago, there were 218 miles of air mail routes with two station stops; to-day, a network of sky roads bridges the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico.

Can you imagine this growth without electricity—without illuminated airports—without trunk lines studded with electric beacons?

Men of vision are building for increasing traffic of the air. Soon, the skies will be filled with commerce.

Just as electricity is helping to conquer the air, the land, and the sea to-day, so to-morrow it will lead to greater accomplishments in aviation and in every human activity.

A majority of the beacon lights used in airport and airway illumination have been designed and manufactured by the General Electric Company, whose specialists have the benefit of a generation's experience in the solution of lighting problems.

DR. JAMISON WAS HERE FOR SEVERAL LECTURES

"When I hear criticisms of modern young people, my chagrin is not with them, but with their parents," said Dr. Auleene Jamison in her talk on "Growing into Life" which she gave during the convocation period in the armory Monday morning. She continued, "I believe that the trouble lies in the fact that not nearly enough has been done to train our young people for good personality." She believes that good personality depends not only on good appearance showing health and cleanliness, but the ability to think and live freely as well.

When a young girl who wants to be popular asks, "Shall I be mild or shall I be wild?" Dr. Jamison's answer is "Be yourself. You cannot express your true personality by assuming either pose."

Dr. Jamison was here for two days, during which time the students were given numerous opportunities to hear her. On Monday personal interviews were granted, a talk to upper-class women on "Engagements and Courtships," and a dinner in Ceres Hall for the Freshmen girls at which time Dr. Jamison talked on "Understanding Ourselves Biologically." On Tuesday, there was a group discussion for girls on "Marriage," a discussion for men in the Y.M.C.A. when they chose the subject, a meeting in the green room for the Inter-sorority council, and the final meeting with the Boards and Cabinets of the "Y" organization.

THORSTINA JACKSON TELLS STUDENTS ABOUT ICELAND

Icelanders are not the small black-haired aborigines they are commonly thought of as being, according to Miss Thorstina Jackson who gave a stereoptical lecture on "The Land of the Hundred Thousand," Tuesday morning during the convocation period in the armory. Miss Jackson explained the title referred to the small number of true Icelanders left in the world. They are descended from the Vikings with a mixture of Irish, Scotch, and Orkney.

According to Miss Jackson, the country is not the land of ice and snow it is commonly believed to be, as the friendly gulf stream warms it so that even the northern part is no colder than Chicago at its coldest.

Students of Scandinavian descent who "kid" their parents for insisting on afternoon coffee were surprised to learn that even the business houses of Iceland often close for half an hour for this purpose.

The lecture was particularly interesting because a number of pictures of well-known Icelanders who have lived in North Dakota were shown.
