Dean Keene Traces Development Of College; Satire Again Outstanding

Featuring a historical North Dakota State college theme, the 1929 Bison yearbook will make its appearance on the campus tomorrow afternoon, according to Everett J. Wallum, editor-in-chief. The printing has just been completed, and students may call at the Bison office for their copies from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m.

E. S. Keene, now Dean Emeritus of the School of Mechanic Arts and one of the pioneer instructors of the college, is author of a history of State college which is accompanied with a half-tone of each of the past presidents from the opening of the institution to the present time. The book is dedicated to Dean Keene.

Borders In Tint

In contrast to the make-up policy followed during the past few years, the 1929 yearbook is dressed with head and tail pieces instead of the usual borders. All border work is in brown tint. The scenic section, drawn by Allan Meinecke, follows the opening section. Divisions of the book having special borders include the administration section, football section, and activities section.

History of the school is not neglected in the Hysterical section which is edited by Ebony Blott and his Blotters who seep up a bit of the traditional berry juice to the edification of all concerned. But—see for yourself tomorrow.

Watson Protested In Music Contest

William Watson, one of N. D. S. C. high school students, went to Grand Forks Thursday with Dr. Putnam, his teacher, and Mrs. Olivia Tarbell, accompanist, and competed in the high school music contest held at the university.

With his clarinet solo Watson won a place in the finals, but was protested. The protest was based on the fact that Watson was playing in the Gold Star Band and was, therefore taking college work contrary to the rules of the contest. Dr. Putnam argued the point with the committee and they agreed to allow Watson to play in the finals. After winning his point, to prevent any possible hard feelings toward our college and high school, Dr. Putnam withdrew Watson from the contest and returned to Fargo that night.

Watson's contest solo will be heard at the band concert next Thursday evening.

COLLEGE WOMAN'S CLUB TO HOLD ANNUAL PICNIC

Husbands and children of the members of the Woman's club of the North Dakota State college will be guests at the annual club picnic to be held Wednesday on the college campus. Supper will be served at 5:30 p.m. and a program of entertainment has been planned for the evening. Mrs. Edgar I. Olsen is chairman of the arrangements committee.

Engineers' Greek Letter Society Founded In 1913 Now Epsilon Chapter of National Brotherhood; Status Unchanged.

Delta Pi, local professional engineering fraternity, founded on the North Dakota State campus 15 years ago, Monday became Epsilon chapter of Sigma Phi Delta, national organization, at installation services held at the chapter house.

Sigma Phi Delta is a national professional engineering fraternity that has chapters at the Universities of Southern California, South Dakota, Texas, and Illinois. The North Dakota State chapter is the fifth, and the only one in a state college.

Installation services were conducted by Maurice Nelles, Vermillion, S. D., national president of the organization. Officers of the new chapter aided in the ceremony. They are: William Rundquist, president; Cecil Kingsley, vice-president; Walter Nelson, secretary; and Percival Peightal, treasurer.

Will Continue Policy

The former status of Delta Pi will not be changed through its becoming a chapter of the national group, Mr. Rundquist stated. The new chapter will continue its policy of professionalism and will also carry on the activities of a social fraternity as formerly.

Sigma Phi Delta was founded at the University of Southern California in 1926. Its aim is scholarship and the provision of a bond to keep engineering students together.

Delta Pi was founded May 13, 1913. In 1919 but one member returned to school following the Great War. Elmer Dynes, now deceased, undertook the reorganization of the fraternity in that year. Since that time the organization has enjoyed a rapid growth and has now become a part of a national fraternity.

Worst Is Honor Guest At Commencement

Former President To Be Speaker At Alumni Banquet In Ceres Hall

Dr. John H. Worst, Fairview, Mont. who for 20 years was president of the North Dakota State college, and is prominently identified with the development of North Dakota from its pioneer days, will be honor guest of the Alumni and Former Students association at the 34th annual commencement of the college, which begins June 8 and continues through June 11, according to T. W. Thordarson, secretary.

Dr. Worst will be the principal speaker at the alumni banquet, which will be given June 8 at Ceres hall, and which, it is expected, will be attended by 250 former students, who will come to the college in large numbers to greet the former president.

Gorman To Preside

N. D. Gorman, president of the association, will preside at the banquet.

Dr. Worst was made president of the college, and director of the government experiment station connected with the college, in the winter of 1895, resigning the latter position in 1913 and continuing as president of the college until February 28, 1916.

Under Dr. Worst's guidance the college grew constantly in its service to the farmers of the state. He manifested a high order of executive ability, and became recognized as one of the leading educators in his special field in the country.

In the fall of 1916 Dr. Worst became editor-in-chief of the North Dakota Farmer, a monthly agricultural publication, printed at New Rockford.

Appointed Commissioner

He was appointed commissioner of immigration and began work Aug. 7, 1919, being reappointed Aug. 8, 1921, for a term ending July 1, 1923. He and Mrs. Worst are now visiting on a farm at Fairview, which also is the home of their son, Clayton.

The former college president was raised in Ohio and came west for the first time in 1883, visiting Fargo and Bismarck with a party of Ohio friends while on a deer hunting trip to the badlands of the Yellowstone valley.

He was so favorably impressed with the wildness of the undeveloped Missouri slope county, that he filed on a homestead in Emmons county, 40 miles southeast of Bismarck. The Worsts lived there 12 years.

Lieutenant Ross Guides Shooters To Championship

Ballard Is High Man in Contest; Team Scores 7,620 Out Of 8,000 Points

By Alan Dotson

The Bison rifle team is continuing to heap honors upon itself. A special bulletin was received by Lieutenant Frank S. Ross, coach, announcing that the State college rifle team had scored 7,620 points out of a possible 8,000 to win the National Intercollegiate rifle title.

Earlier in the season, the Bison team won the Seventh Corps area title. There were approximately 100 shooting in the finals of the national matches from the eight corps areas of the United States.

Fire Four Stages

The Bison sharpshooters fired four stages, scoring 1,946; 1,900; 1,814; and 1,960 respectively. This gave the team an average of 95 1/4 percent. The ten members of the team who fired are Curtis Ballard, 780 out of a possible 800; Frank Dvorak, 772; Clarence Reed, 761; Glenn Schoessow, 760 (Schoessow has never fired before coming to the school and has been under the instruction of Lt. Ross); Arthur Johnson, 759; Raymond Hack, 759; Ronald Millard, captain of the team, shot 756; Earl Schoessow, 754; Tom Palmerlee, 748; Morris Barks, 745.

Lt Ross had 84 men answer his call for participants last September. He reduced the squad to 18 men, four of which left school. The rules allow 15 men to a team. The matches are fired 15 men taking part and the ten high totals are sent in. All matches were fired on the local range in the Armory under the supervision of Lt. Ross.

Imported Clocks Are Given As Beta Favors

Imported German clocks, with tortoise shell faces engraved with the Greek letters of the Delta Phi Beta sorority, were given as favors at the 20th annual party of the organization held at the Fargo Country club Friday. The clubhouse was decorated with baskets of appleblossoms and other spring flowers for the party which was attended by 45 couples. A specialty number was "The Beta Waltz," written by a member of the sorority.

Patrons and patronesses were President and Mrs. John Lee Coulter, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Simmons, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Rennix. Harriet Phillips and Mary Ellen Parker were in charge of the decorations and Betty Farnham and Mariam Morrow were on the frappe committee. Morris Olson and his Collegians played for the dancing.

SEVEN GIRLS BECOME KAPPA DELTA MEMBERS

Sigma Psi chapter of Kappa Delta held initiation services Sunday morning at 8 o'clock at the Gardner hotel for the following girls: Marion South, Casselton; Gwendolyn Lollis, Warwick; Gwendolyn and Grace Morgan, Walcott; Marion O'Leary, Lake Park; Lillian Flatner, McIntosh, Minn.; and Blenda Melaas, Fargo. Following the initiation services the members were the guests of their president, Marie Webster, in the Ceres hall tea rooms.

CHAMPIONS

Today the collegiate eyes of the nation are turned upon North Dakota State college. Today ten college marksmen, and their instructor, a master marksmen, are basking in the brilliancy of the national spotlight. Today, members of the Bison rifle team, coached by Lieutenant Frank S. Ross, are national champions!

For seven or eight long months, fourteen men couped themselves up in a stifling, ill-ventilated, powder-smelling cubbyhole which serves as both rifle range and gun room, and punctured targets for scores which vanquished seventy-two of eighty opponents during the year, fourteen men competing to win ten minor sport letters! Under these same conditions these men won the corps area title, and now the national championship!

At the larger universities of the nation, fifteen picked men from a male enrollment of three to five thousand shot at similar targets in a range scientifically heated and ventilated, where the air changes every two minutes, where the lighting is the result of years of scientific adjustment, and where every precaution is evident to make the marksman's aim accurate in spite of himself. And still these big universities could not best Lieutenant Ross and his little band of Bison sharpshooters, working under severe handicaps, but with a spirit and a determination that must be served.

It was a dramatic bit of sport, this national rifle match. Some time ago, with the reports from headquarters slow in coming, it was learned that the Bison were on top of the list then compiled, but with six schools yet to be heard from. Later it was made known that the buffalo bulleters were sure of fifth place with four scores yet to come in. At last the report came that but one score was still outstanding and that the Bison were still leading the field. Would that lone score best the mark made by the North Dakota State team? There were days of anxious waiting in the military office until Saturday morning the wire ticked off, the championship note to Lieutenant Ross. All scores were in, and the Bison still led the nation!

This is Lieutenant Ross' first year here as coach of the rifle team, and the national championship is already ours. Much credit is due him, and through this medium the sincere appreciation of the student body is extended him. To the ten men whose scores added up to an insurmountable total, The Spectrum, as representative of the students, offers its heartiest congratulations.

THE HISTORICAL BISON

For one year the 1929 Bison staff has labored to publish a historical yearbook, a book that traces step by step the remarkable growth enjoyed by this college. Tomorrow that book will be issued to the students, a chronological survey of North Dakota State's history.

Nothing has been spared to make the Historical Bison complete. Dean E. S. Keene, one of the oldest professors of the institution, was chosen to write the historical section of the volume. The book has been dedicated to Dean Keene, an honor which is unquestionably justifiable.

Tomorrow should be a red letter day on the campus, for it is the day which is looked forward to all year by the student body. Tomorrow the seniors will receive their final annual, and the juniors will receive the book published by their class. The freshmen and sophomores will begin, and add to, respectively, their collection of four State college yearbooks. It is a major event in the college calendar.

Just Comment

WISE and OTHERWISE

By Henry Presler

The BISON finally took the Nodaks into camp. It was a big day for the Yellow and Green track men. Zeissler, Peschel, and their mates evidently sprung a big surprise if the pre-dopsters at the University are recalled. Citizens of Grand Forks, we are told, got a big laugh out of the affair for the up-state school figured that it had things sewed up. The athletic relations between the University and the N. D. S. C. this year have been highly commendable. Reviewing the past a bit: We find that the 1928 football classic, the Bison-Nodak game, was played in the University stadium. A large crowd of Bison boosters accompanied their team. The spirit displayed at the game, the orderly conduct of the rosters, the hospitality of the University, were proofs of the friendly relations existing between the two schools. The Nodaks won the game.

Continuing, we remember the basketball season. The memory of the first game of the four-game series with the University will linger in the minds of the townspeople for a good while. How the Bison, playing without the services of their captain and star center, came from behind in spirited drives, and played the University to a standstill, will remain a story worth telling. Our student body supported their team in a manner which amazed even the opposing group. With the efforts of the Pep club and the Gold Star band to aid, basketball history was made. The Bison lost all the games to the Nodaks.

And then came the track meet. After battling on an even basis the Yellow and Green relay team flashed across the finishing tape to end one of the most interesting and uncertain dual track meet in the history of the two schools. It was great to watch.

Now that the athletic year is about over we find a record of basketball and football victories for the University and track and hockey victories for us. The athletic situation at the Forks was in a turmoil during the major part of the season. In the last year or so the University has expanded abnormally, perhaps, along athletic lines. Their new stadium is an achievement in itself. In some far off, hazy distance some dreamy Bison have perceived a genuine stadium for this institution. But for this age we seem doomed to go without even the basic necessity.

The coaching staffs of both schools have undergone almost complete change. A new athletic era looms ahead. With a foundation in the past conflicts and with fresh impetus lent by the new system we look forward with optimism. The fine morale of both student bodies should lend the inspiration. The friendliness between the schools will continue, for after all, we are all North Dakotans.

"College Student Aboard Lost Ship In Pacific Ocean," says a Spectrum headline. We know a lot of students who have been at sea right on the campus.

If the ship was really lost and was buffeted around by an irresistible storm, Billy Euren is well qualified by experience to embark in the sea of matrimony.

The Orient is "described as a peculiar mixture of the old and new." According to this definition, the armory should be wearing pigtails.

With Sullivan, McLachlin, Hannaher, and Phillips controlling the publications next year, the Scandinavian element on the campus will have to put out their own sheet.

An enterprising student, who has just had twelve of his teeth filled, suggests giving a prize to the best drilled cadet.

Again a Spectrum headline: "Two Members Of Research Faculty Win Fellowships". Sounds like a companionate marriage.

Mr. Willard is going to Harvard, which makes it kind of tough if he likes to watch college athletics.

Some of these college profs would make good ventriloquists. They're always talking to themselves.

State Relay Quartet Wins Deciding Points

Zeissler Turns In Brilliant Performance; Lee Is High Man In Dual Meet.

The State varsity won the dual meet with the University of North Dakota at Grand Forks Saturday morning by a scant margin of 1 2-3 points. The Bison totaled 66 1-3 for the Nodaks 64 2-3. This was the first time that the Bison and Flickers have met in a dual meet since 1919.

Herm Zeissler turned in the best performance of the meet when he jumped 6 feet to beat out Brown of the "U" in the high jump and then ran first in the 220 low hurdles besting Lewy Lee to the tape in 26.8 seconds. Lee of the Nodaks won scoring honors with first in the javelin and pole vault and second in the low hurdles.

Zeissler and Jake Wahl, both of the Bison squad, tied for second each gathering 10 points for the State total. Wahl won the shot put and discus throw while Zeissler won the 220 low hurdles and the high jump.

Bison Track Squad Enters Loop Meet

Leonard B. Saalwaechter and 14 of his charges will leave Wednesday for Sioux City, Iowa where they will take part in the North Central Conference track and field meet the 25th and 26th of May.

While the Bison will hardly be strong enough contenders to win the title this year the squad is likely to win enough places to make the meet divided enough to give them a place.

The preliminaries will be run off Friday and the finals Saturday.

Baby Bison Lose Meet To Flicker Yearlings

Nodak Frosh Upset Dope Bucket By Winning Relay; Neither Team Sweeps Single Event.

Breaking even in the track and field meets with the University of North Dakota, the Bison are now preparing for the conference meet.

The Bison yearlings lost to Nodak frosh on Dacotah field, Friday, 75 to 56. The Nodaks presented a better balanced squad than the Bison could offer, winning many seconds and third while the Bison Frosh were taking firsts.

Ole Sand was the high point gatherer of the Bison frosh, winning firsts in the 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash and 440 yard dash. Curtis Shave of the University was the high man of the meet taking places in five events. Shave won the 120 high hurdles, javelin throw, second in the hundred, 440 yard dash, and the 220 yard low hurdles.

Neither of the two teams scored a clean sweep in one event.

The Flicker half mile quartet sped to victory over the Bison four in the final event, but Ole Sand, anchor man for the State quartet, picked up 15 yards on Shave only to be beaten out by a scant three yards when the tape was reached. Judges estimated his time in the 220 to be under 23 seconds.

A. C., third. Height, 6 feet.
Half mile—Won by Doane, U. N. D.; Woolan, A. C., second; Nelson, A. C., third. Time: 2:04.

Broad jump—Won by Scheerer, U. N. D.; Lukins, U. N. D., second; Hays, A.C., third. Distance, 21 feet 6 inches.

Relay—Won by A. C. (Konichek, Peschel, Zeissler, Aiken). Time: 1:33.8.

Ship Motif Used In Lambda Decorations

The ship motif was carried out in decorations, programs and favors at the annual formal party of Phi Kappa Lambda sorority which was held in the Crystal ballroom Friday night. Gold and black card cases containing playing cards were the favors which were presented by two little girls during the eighth dance. The card cases had handpainted Spanish galleons, the Greek letters and the date of the formal embossed on them. The same idea was used on the programs.

Members from other sororities, guests at the party were Marion Hartley, Phi Omega Pi; Alta Berg, Delta Phi Beta; Edith Thorsell, Kappa Delta; and Marion Trowbridge, Sigma Theta.
