Rhos Break Sod For New Chapter House Saturday

Is To Be Ready For Occupancy When School Opens In September

Sod breaking ceremonies preparatory to the building of a new modern fraternity home were held by the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity on their lots on the corner of Thirteenth street and Thirteenth avenue north Saturday morning.

This is the first actual step that any fraternity on the campus has taken towards the building of a new chapter house.

Fifteen years ago Homer E. Dixon, of Grand Forks, attended the national Alpha Gamma Rho convention at Purdue University and secured the charter that made the Kadona Club a chapter of the national fraternity. Saturday Mr. Dixon broke the sod where the basement of the new home will be dug next week. Professor J. H. Shepperd, who had charge of the ceremonies, made a few remarks before Mr. Dixon broke the sod and gave a short talk. Dr. O. O. Churchill then outlined the building plans briefly and the many alumni and actives who were present returned to the present chapter house at 1327 Tenth avenue north.

"Night In Araby" Is Theme Of Senior Ball

Ticket Sales Campaign To Begin Next Week; 150 Couples Will Attend

"A night in Araby" will be the theme to be carried out in the decorations for the 1928 Senior ball which will be held in the Armory at the North Dakota State college on June 2, according to Allan Meinecke, chairman of the decorations committee.

Richly colored drapes will be used to decorate the interior of the armory to give the merrymakers the impression that they are the guests in an aristocratic Arabian home. A large canopy will be built on one side of the armory for the chaperones, and on the opposite side, a large fountain, flooded with colored lights, will be installed.

General arrangements for the party are progressing very nicely, according to Vernon Peterson, ball manager. The armory, as the scene of the party, was chosen because of traditional reasons, and because the campus is considered the best place for the year's dance finale.

The ticket sales campaign will begin next week according to Phil Keene, chairman of finance. About one hundred and fifty tickets will be put on sale as the party will be limited to that number of couples.

Favors, very unique in character and design, have been ordered by Walter Davidson, chairman of that committee, and are expected to arrive within a week.

The remainder of the committee heads are: Frances Simonitch, assistant manager; Alex Dickey, light effects; Lester Thompson and Ralph Hollands, publicity; Madelyn Parrott, patrons and patronesses; Peter Koval, floor manager; Lillian Opfer, refreshments; and Roy Peterson, assistant on the decorations committee.

Annual College Festival Of Fun Open Tomorrow

1929 Bison Will Not Be Issued; Building Addition Ceremony Will Be Held

Plans are complete for the annual Gay Cat Day program which will be held tomorrow under the supervision of the student commission of the college, according to an announcement made by Foss Narum, president, yesterday.

An unforeseen setback to the original plans was made known yesterday when Everett Wallum, editor-in-chief of the 1929 Bison, announced that the yearbook would not be ready for distribution tomorrow as planned. This was caused by a delay in obtaining the necessary paper stock for the book, and by the fact that Gay Cat Day as originally planned was set ahead one week. The book will be ready for the student scrutiny by May 23, Mr. Wallum said.

The program for tomorrow's fun fest will start at 8 a.m., when the Bison battalion will form to undertake a campus cleanup of allotted platoon areas. The platoon having the cleanest area will be awarded the Captain Smith cup. Last year the prize was won by "C" Platoon, Captain Reed, commanding.

At 9 a.m., a lunch will be served the cadets in front of the armory.

Ceremonies Begin

At 9:30 a.m., sod breaking ceremonies for the new addition to the Main building will begin. The Gold Star band will play and President Coulter will give a short talk.

At 10 a.m., a general convocation will be held in the armory. "Cabages," a one-act comedy, will be enacted by members of the Edwin Booth Dramatic club. The cast includes Floy Beatty, Arthur Anderson, George Howell, Foss Narum, Margaret Richardson, Gladys Whitney, and Ruby Oscarson.

Following the play the Freshmen-Sophomore tug of war will be staged in the main aisle. The freshman team will have four frosh picked by a sophomore and four picked by a freshmen, and the same idea for the sophomore team will be worked out. The winning side will lead a sextette picked from the ranks of the losers.

The annual Frosh-Soph song contest will be held next, the winning class to be awarded a silver loving cup. The cup was won by the sophomores last year. Judges will be Dr. C. S. Putnam, Capt. W. W. Millard, and Mrs. Olivia Farrell.

Stunts To Be Given

At 1:45 p.m., the fraternities and sororities will present the annual "Bison Brevities," as Blott has it. Each act will be of 15 minutes duration. A prize of ten dollars will be awarded the organization putting on the best act. Judges will be Professor W. T. Rolfe, Professor John E. Doerr, and Miss Matilda Thompson.

At 3:15 p.m., the freshman-sophomore pole rush will be held on Dacotah field. Each class president will pick 20 men from his class to do battle with the opposition. The losers will have to scrub the "31's" off the campus buildings and walks.

At 5 p.m., the Bison battalion will again form to enact the ceremonies of "Evening Parade" which consists of evening gun, retreat, and Star Spangled Banner. Decorations for the year will be presented by 150 cadets.

At 7 p.m., "Quo Vadis" will be presented by the Little Country Theatre Players in the theatre.

At 9:15 p.m., the annual Gay Cat Day dance will be held in the armory. Collegiate clothes will be in order, and students may attend dressed in

PREP SPORTSMANSHIP

The annual May Festival brought many things to the attention of the college. The various forms of competition, the response accorded exhibits and open houses, and the attitude of the student of high education for the student of secondary education and vice versa. Prizes were awarded for first, second and third places in nearly all contests. Competition was keen, and rivalry high.

In the newspaper contest in which some fifteen papers were entered one thing stood out glaringly above the first, second, and third place awards. It was that old, battered, time-worn and editorial-worn extraction from Webster's collection,—sportsmanship.

The editor of The Spectrum was accorded the honor of being one of the judges in the contest, and in a survey of the publications two excellent illustrations of the afore mentioned attribute were outstanding.

Grand Forks, you will recall, won the state basketball championship and compiled an excellent record in the national race finally annexing third place. Upon this latter event, the Bismarck Pep blazoned forth with heavy black headlines on their sport page, outdoing The Ceneralian, the Grand Forks high school paper, in the space and prominence given the event. The huge picture of the Grand Forks team appeared in its columns and the Pep demonstrated as much enthusiasm over the honor as though the Demons themselves had won national recognition. In the Minot Times, high school publication, Coach Bob Cortright was lauded for being instrumental in bringing about the new gymnasium for Grand Forks high school.

This interest manifested in the other school, free from petty jealousies which so often exist among prep institutions and are not absent by any means from collegiate edifices of higher learning, puts North Dakota high schools in a distinct class. It is only fair to say that, for the high school paper cannot help but reflect the student opinion of the school itself. The Spectrum is glad to see this manifestation of sportsmanship in the state's high schools for it is a prediction of future harmony and good will.

TOMORROW'S THE DAY

Tomorrow morning State college's annual fun frolic will open in a blaze of glory when the Bison battalion does its yearly "picking-up" exercises on the campus green.

Tomorrow isn't a vacation in that students may stay away from the campus. It's a day that requires your presence as much as though you had classes. Remember that.

Tomorrow is a day that is filled chuck full with fun and entertainment, a day that you'll long remember. Enjoy yourselves. Freshmen who will take part in their first Gay Cat Day are bound to remember it. The Sophs will see to that.

Tomorrow is a day that you'll want to be on deck early, and stay late. It's a day of events that you won't want to miss, and events full of fun that will make you sorry if you do miss them. Tomorrow's the day!

Just Comment

WISE and OTHERWISE

By Henry Pressler

THEY CALLED it the best May Festival.

AND IT WAS! From the track meet to the exhibitions through the last dance Saturday night, the spirit shown was exceptional. The various departments vied with one another in displaying the best exhibition. It would be a fine thing if a trophy were offered each year for the most interesting and artistic manifestation. The large crowds that attended the exhibitions Friday evening are proof of their popularity and worth.

THE DISPLAYS are put on for the guests but the students learned a thing or two about their school also.

THE BARNYARD fowl in the Ag building, the mysterious faucet of the engineering exhibit, the delicate shawls of the Art department, etc., gave all an idea of the versatile courses offered at the N. D. A. C.

SUCCESS GREETED the track meet. Besides breaking two records the participants romped through the races in a thrilling manner. With almost perfect weather large crowds turned out for the preliminaries and the finals. A good deal of interest was also shown in the tennis matches. City team sharks were on deck to see the future state stars.

FARGO HIGH had a good day of it. But with Charley Kimball's record of eight May Festival championship teams, it was almost to be expected, according to the out-of-town participants. "Fargo has everything sewed up," they said.

THE DANCE Saturday night was also successful being well attended by the high school guests. Very few Bison saw fit to attend the dance, however. This was disappointing as it was expected that the student body as hosts would be there to meet the guests and help make it a "collegiate" party.

BUT ENOUGH of it. The 1928 Festival exists more in the memories of those who took part in it than in the minds of the student body.

IN THIS evening's performance of Quo-Vadis Fargo is offered a treat. Do not miss it.

GAY-CAT day tomorrow. Read about it in today's Spectrum. It is our day so make the most of it. Remember that the student body voted to wear old clothes. Big time! Nuf sed.

AND WE are eagerly awaiting the 1928 edition of the Bison Year Book which is promised for us a week from tomorrow.

BEWARE OF disobeying the ordinances of the Student Commission. A large number of students have been hailed into court and fined. Those who did not show up during court session, we are told, are to be brought in by the student "cops." Even members of the faculty have felt the iron hand of the law. It pays to keep order, seems to be the motto of the judiciary.

Frank Roth, a member of the Freshman class left Monday night for his home in Rochester to enlist in the Spruce production corps. Izzy as he was better known, had a berth on the second team in football, and this spring was initiated into the Theta Chi Fraternity.

Eugene Ross of the class of '18 left on the same train with Roth. Crabby has gone here since prep school days, and was one of our best linemen on the football team, did good work on the Agassiz staff and was a member of Alpha Kappa Phi fraternity.

PHI UPSILON OMICRON HOLDS ANNUAL FORMAL

Henry Pressler and his Vagabonds furnished the music for the annual Phi Upsilon Omicron formal Saturday at the Waldorf hotel. The garden idea formed the theme for the decorations and the pastel colors were featured. Thirty couples attended the affair. Dean and Mrs. H. L. Walster and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar I. Olson were the patrons and patronesses.

Mildred Sheldon Sagmoen, a Pop Alumna of the class of 1924, came from Minneapolis on Saturday to spend a month visiting her sister Betty.

Bullitions of Ebony Blott

By Everett Wallum

The tug of war will sober a lot of the students who think they've got considerable pull on the campus.

The one-act play "Cabbages" is so old it should be called "Sauer Kraut."

We hope the requesting of students to wear sport clothes at the Gay Cat dance won't bring anyone with a basketball uniform.

"Wear sports garb" advises The Spectrum. After analyzing the request, we come to the conclusion that garb is an abbreviation for garbage.

It may be Gay Cat day for some, but it will be a black cat day for the fraternity entertainers.

Instead of having students climb a greased pole on Gay Cat Day, it would be more appropriate for them to climb a fence.

Students rushing the greased structure, however, will find that everything's oil right.

That's one way for travel-loving students to get in a different clime.

We only hope that climbers will wear caps so that the pole won't get more greasy than it is.

The Gay Cat Day dance will be 'collegiate in every sense of the word' The Spectrum informs us. Which is all very well if there was any sense in it.

If the Student commission really wants a good campus cleanup, we know a certain gambler—

In staging a cleanup campaign, a special watch must be kept on the armory. These college students are so careless.

We were going to have a may pole dance, but there are too many strings attached to it.

We have no authentic proof that Scotchmen won't wear rubbers because rubber gives.

The co-eds were going to wear gaudy ribbons in their hair for Gay Cat Day, but it is too late for them to grow hair again now.

If women must shingle their hair, the hot-headed females had better get asbestos ones.

Anyway, Gay Cat Day is one time that the fellows don't want to put on the dog.

We don't know why they call it Gay Cat Day anyway. All the cats we've seen are gay only at night.

Convocation Recital Called Outstanding

E. Clifford Toren, head of the voice department of Wesley college and instructor of singing at the Mayville Normal, gave a delightful informal recital at convocation in the armory yesterday.

Mr. Toren's recital was as well received as his appearance here a year ago, and one of the season's most enjoyable convocation programs was presented State college students.

The program of Mr. Toren's recital is as follows: I—Invocazione di Orfeo, In the Silver Moonbeams, Memory, Some Rival Has Stolen My True Love Away. II—Hunger Song, Zueingnung, Nichavo, The Last Hour. III—The Time For Making Song Has Come, Obstinat, Mother Carey, A Spirit Flower, Song of the Open. Mr. Toren was accompanied by Merritt Johnson.

Fargo Retains Boys' May Festival Track Title

LaMoure Girls First In Championship Race

Bismarck Takes Second Place In Boys Meet; Moorhead Is Close Third; Gregory Stars.

BY ALAN DOTSON

The purple and white of Fargo high swept through every event except the shot put to score its eighth consecutive May Festival triumph on Dacotah field Saturday. The Fargos scored 49 1-3 points to assure themselves of the title. Bismarck finished second with 25 points barely nosing out Moorhead who totaled 23 1-6. Grand Forks scored 9, Bottineau 8, Walsh county aggies 5, Mandan 4 University high of Grand Forks 4, Sheldon 4, Jamestown 3, Anamoose 2, Grafton 2, and Frazee 1 1-2.

Two records went into discard Saturday although the shot record had been broken Friday. Iver Bjornstad of Bottineau, who put the shot 42 feet 10 inches in the preliminary trials, made a new festival record when the iron ball sailed 44 feet 1 inch on his final heave. The former record was held by Shamp of Fargo, 41 feet 6 inches. The record stood from 1926.

Enders of Fargo was the other man to set a new record Saturday. Enders threw the discus 113 feet 1 inch for a new festival mark. The previous record holder was Baake of Detroit Lakes who threw the platter 111 feet 5 1-2 inches in 1925.

Gregory of Fargo was high point man of the meet scoring 16 points. Gregory won the low hurdles, tied for first place in the pole vault and broad jump and placed second in the high hurdles following DuChene of the Forks across the tape.

LaMoure Wins Girls Title

LaMoure high school won the girls track meet with 37 points while their nearest competitor, Moorhead scored only 12. Fargo scored 11 points for third with Valley City 6, Noltimier 3, and Cooperstown 2.

Mona Davis was high in the meet winning the javelin and baseball throws and finishing third in the basketball throw for 11 points.

In the tennis competition Fuller of Fargo defeated his doubles partner, Callahan, to win the singles title and later in the day matched with Callahan to win the doubles title.

Helen Gruchalla of Jamestown won the girls singles title from Katherine Yocum of Fargo. Georgina Metzinger and Katherine Yocum, the Fargo doubles team, won the festival title by defeating Lenore Platou and Marjorie Briskoe also of Fargo.

Georgina Brindle Defeats Ruby Oscarson For Title

Bison Will Meet Nodaks Saturday

Leonard B. Saalwaechter, head track coach at the State college, said today that he expects the toughest meet of the year when the Varsity clashes with the Nodaks at Grand Forks Saturday. While the Bison have been meeting strong teams so far this season the University will be by far the strongest yet.

Visitors from the University Saturday said that the Nodak track squad had been working out daily even though adverse weather conditions prevailed to fit themselves for the Bison-Nodak struggle there.

With only victories over the U in hockey and marksmanship to the credit of the Bison a victory would certainly be sweet and the Varsity track squad is out to secure a win at all costs, Saalwaechter said.

The Frosh will hold a meet on Dacotah field Friday and another hard meet will ensue. The Grand Forks frosh have the reliable trio that Grand Forks lost by graduation last spring, Jarrett, Shave, and Larson. These three men make competition sure and are a hard type to conquer as they never quit. Along with these the Nodaks will present a balanced squad that the Bison frosh will have to work hard to win over.

costume if they wish. A prize for the best costume seen during the entire day will be awarded at the dance. Judges are Lieutenant Frank Ross, Mr. T. W. Thordarson, and Mr. A. H. Parrott. Other awards will also be made at the dance.

Gay Cat Day will be a dress-up day this year and students are urged to wear costumes while on the campus throughout the day, Mr. Narum stated. "The day is to be a fun frolic for State college students and indications point to a successful affair," he stated.

Tennis Finals Culminate Two Weeks of Elimination In Girls Tourney

Georgina Brindle, sophomore in education, defeated Ruby Oscarson, senior, in the finals of the women's tennis tournament on the faculty courts yesterday for the championship of State college.

Miss Brindle took the first set, 6-3, lost the second, 4-6, but rallied to take the third, 6-0. Morris Washburn refereed the contest.

The game culminated two week's elimination in the girls' tennis tourney in which 24 girls were entered. This was the largest entry list in the history of the annual affair.

Third Dance Recital Successfully Staged

Members of the dance classes of the physical education department at the North Dakota State college, in presenting their third annual dance recital at the college Thursday, delighted an audience of more than 600 with their interpretations of a large variety of selections.

Perhaps the most enjoyable of the numbers was the "Pirate" offering of Misses Evelyn Blakeslee, Hazel Heald and Harriet Phillips. A second dance by the same trio, "L'Allegro," also met with approval, largely because of its rapid movement.

The recital was divided into four parts, the final section of which was an interpretation of the Mardi Gras of New Orleans, featured by the crowning of the carnival queen and a Spanish dance by Miss Phillips.

Costuming and electrical effects added much to the color of the recital.

Kappa Phi, Theta Chi Nines Play To 1-1 Tie

By Oliver Radde

Alpha Kappa Phi and Theta Chi ball tossers fought to a 1-1 tie in five innings in the opening game of the campus baseball championship race on Dacotah field yesterday afternoon.

Gilly Johnson and Ray Bassett were hooked up in a close pitching duel and an error in the second inning gave the Kappa Phis a one run lead. This seemed to be sufficient to put them in the win column but in the last of the fifth, Gilly weakened and Leo May clouted out a neat triple. The Theta Chi marker came when Hiltz bounced a hot one off Cy Peschel's shins. Ben Gorder then took up the mound work for the last year's champs and retired the side.

Bassett chalked up five strikeouts in the five innings while Johnson got seven and Gorder one. Sorenson did the receiving for the blue-clad boys while Hermes handled Johnson's slants in fine style. These two teams will play another game at a later date to settle the issue.

This afternoon the Y. M. C. A. and Kappa Psi teams will play their first contest; Wednesday's game between the Delta Sigs and the Gamma Rhos has been postponed because of Gay Cat Day, and on Thursday the Delta Pi team meets the Sigma Tau pill tossers.

John Spielman, having finished all of his school work, left this morning for Anaconda, Montana, where he has accepted a job in the Anaconda Copper mines.

Yesterday afternoon in the Little Country Theatre the O. J. deLendrecie Co., sponsored a style show in which the very latest in collegiate garb for the young lady was displayed. Several N. D. S. C. girls acted as models.

Les Bullard, Lakota; John Mach, Mohall; Carl Hansen, Sherwood; Gilmore Sondreal, Ray; Alden Baillie, Drake; Leon Johnson, Hankinson; Bernie Cusey, Detroit Lakes, Minn.; George Landsverk, McIntosh, Minn.; Fred Wilson, Park River; Clyde Challey, Mandan; and Raymond Douglas, Starkweather, all alumni members of the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity were guests at the house during the May Festival.

The girls at the Phi Omega Pi house were hostesses over the weekend, to a large group of alumnae who were in Fargo for the May Festival. Most of the girls brought High school students up to enter into contests in the various departments of the Festival. Those who were here were Eva Wilner, from Grafton; Lyla Mallough, from Beach; Myrtle Sagen, from Larimore, Wyoming; Nellie May Root, from Mayville; and Marguerite Joneward, from Carrington.

Saddle and Sirloin Is Lauded For Work

The success of the sixth annual state high school agricultural judging contests, during the May Festival is due entirely to the Saddle and Sirloin club, according to Professor E. H. Jones.

The Saddle and Sirloin club sponsored the contest in a manner that was a credit to North Dakota State college, according to critics interested in the work done by the club.

There were 50 teams that competed in the contest. Of these 50 teams all but one were interested in livestock. Fifty-five of the teams were interested in crops and thirty-five were interested in poultry. The Walsh County Agricultural school were high in the livestock judging contest, and for the second year won the bronze cup. Anamoose high school had the high team in poultry, and Hazelton high school's team was high in crops. The Walsh County Aggies won the grand sweepstakes prize of the contest. Hazelton high was second and Larimore high took third in the general sweepstakes. Awards were made to the winning teams last Friday night at the Vocational banquet. Clyde Barks, retiring president of the Saddle and Sirloin club, was the speaker and gave the awards.

The Saddle and Sirloin started a rotating Bison trophy which is to be given to the high school represented by the highest individual in the judging of livestock. Ben Gorder, new president of the Saddle and Sirloin club sponsored this contest. Lenhart Schafer of Hazen high school won the Bison trophy for his high school this year.

Professor Jones looked with favor on the work of the Saddle and Sirloin club saying, "The Saddle and Sirloin club did a wonderful piece of work and we want to give them credit for it."

Chisolm Gate Is To Be Erected At N.D. Capitol

A huge iron gate, said to be one of the most beautiful of its kind and representing a year's painstaking labor of a 75 year old metal worker, was completed this week in the mechanical arts department of the North Dakota State college and late Friday was loaded aboard a special freight car bound for Bismarck.

Upon its arrival there it will be erected, with appropriate ceremonies, in the gap marking the entrance to the grounds surrounding the Roosevelt cabin on the state capitol grounds to serve a dual purpose; first, that of becoming a lasting memorial to the former North Dakota ranchman and president of the United States, and secondly, to protect the little log shelter from the ravaging hands of hundreds of souvenir hunting tourists who visit the historic spot annually.

For the actual building of the elaborate handwrought iron memorial, Haile Chisholm, instructor in metal work at the college should be given all honor, department heads say. The veteran craftsman, declared by Dr. John Lee Coulter, president of the college, to be the outstanding artist in metal work in the northwest, spent a full year on the delicate task. During the year however, he was ill for a time, and sometimes a week elapsed while other duties kept him away from his work. Last week it was completed and painted.

One thousand six hundred and seventy-three pieces of metal went into the making of the 1,100 pound memorial, instructors say. It is seven feet and eight inches wide and 11 feet and eight inches high. It contains 994 pieces of ornamental metal, 394 rivets, 285 spacers, 344 welds and 1,141 holes.
