Davis To Speak At Convocation Monday Morning

President Of Chicago Seminary Will Address Students At 9:40 A. M.

Dr. Ozora Stearns Davis, Ph. D., D.D., LL.D., President, The Chicago Theological Seminary, will speak at convocation Mon-day at 9:40. His subject will "The Hot Place in Conscious-

William Byron Forbush says of Dr Davis: "To anyone whose conception of a minister is that of a slender knocked-kneed ascetic, dressed in black, wearing a shovel hat, and carrying a blue cotton umbrella, President Davis may be a disappointment. A sturdy body, attached to Chippendale legs, and surmounted by a bulldog profile— that is your first impression of him. Afterward his twinkling eyes and his gigantic laughter would attract you. But you could never guess his profession. On a long trainride, it would be he who would be tak ing care of some tired woman's baby or fathering a seat-full of stray boys and girls. He would never think of calling anybody "Brother," but before the Limited reached San Francisco he would have proved himself the brother of everybody who was riding behind the engine."

Born in 1866

Dr. Davis was born in Wheelock, Vermont, July 30, 1866, and grew up in White River Junction, Vermont, where he learned to know the typical rail-roader-with all his faults and all his rugged loyalties; the boy picked up telegraphy as a Western Union messenger boy, and he was an expert operator at fifteen.

Principal Putney of St. Johnsburg Academy headed him away from the telegraphers key by setting him to work on latin and algebra instead of Dartmouth bookkeeping. Hartford Theological Seminary, and three German Universities completed his schooling. He has the degree of D.D. from Dartmouth and Grinnell, of LL.D. from Colorado and Washburn

Named President In 1909

Following pastorates in Springfield, Vermont. in Newtonville, Massa-chusetts, and in New Britian, Connecticut, Dr. Davis came to Chicago in 1909 as president of the Seminary and professor of Practical Theology. During his administration the Seminary has moved from the West Side to its new location in connection with the University of Chicago.

President Davis is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, and of the Quadrangle and Union League Clubs of Chicago. He is the author of John Robinson, The Pilgrim Pastor, The Pilgrim Faith, Meeting the Master, Interna-tional Aspects of Christianity, The Gospel in the Light of the Great War, Evangelistic Preaching, Comrades in the Great Cause, Preaching the Social Gospel, and Preaching by Lawmen.

President Davis is in constant demand as a preacher in educational and metropolitan centers, as a counsellor in church affairs, and in denominational enterprises.

OLSON NAMED TO OFFICE

A special election to break the tie in the vice-presidential race of the Sophomore class between Morris Olson and Walter Lagerberg was found unnecessary when it was learned that Mr. Lagerberg is ineligible for the office. Mr. Olson is therefore named vice-president, according to Dick Hackenberg, Commissioner of Elections.

Coach Saalwaechter Is Not Discouraged By Gopher Victory

Cross country is taking rapid strides in gaining popularity at the North Dakota State college. In spite of the defeat of the Bison harriers at the hands, or rather feet, of men, Coach Leonard Saalwaechter is drilling his candidates for the conference meet at Brookings, S. D.,

Minnesota scored an overwhelming victory over the Bison team, chiefly because the buffalo runners had a late start in conditioning and practice, according to Coach Saalwaechter, who

NOW THAT'S SETTLED!

At a meeting held Tuesday afternoon, the Student Commission decided to accept the plan as proposed in The Spectrum for Tuesday, Oct. 25, in the matter of annually choosing a Rooter King, namely: that a Rooter King will be chosen every year late in the basketball season by the student body beginning this winter at a date to be set by the commission. Mr. Carroll's office will terminate at that time, and he will be eligible for re-election, or another may be chosen. The entire subject of cheer-leaders was placed under the supervision of Cy Peschel, Commissioner of Athletics.

A rough and tumble session with neighboring college varsity teams has brought out the good and bad points of the freshman attack. One scrimmage especially showed the Baby Bison to be strong on offense and stubborn on the defense. A wealth of backfield material was given a chance to show, and passing, punting, plunging and running, all with amazfinished as a green-clad team can be.

Bassett, at quarter, looked great on the starting end of a well-performed aerial at-tack, while Blakeslee and Bryson skirted the ends for long runs. In the line, Shamp, of Fargo high, giant tackle, opened up holes that ceased to be holes and merged on the great open juries on his spaces. McCully also shows wonderful possibilities as a lineman.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Last spring the Student Commission, which is supposed to be recognized as the government of the students, by the students, and for the students on this campus, made several rulings which are still in force but which have not been obeyed to even a slight extent by the very people who elected this commission to make the

One of these rulings was that no form of athletics be played on the campus green, that all sports be restricted to the place provided for it, that is, on Dacotah field. This measure was adopted by the commission to keep the campus looking as beautiful as possible, to make the campus exactly what it should appear to be. For a while the students co-operated, but this fall the usual number were found on the green kicking footballs about, or playing baseball.

Now we note that girls' soccer is being played on the campus east of the library, that goal posts have even been erected there, and that the grass at this place is beginning to be trampled down. The east campus is beginning to look like an athletic field, when as a matter of fact, it should be one of the beauty spots of the school, set off by the new flag pole and flag. These goal posts near the flag pole certainly detract from the beauty of the scene.

Why those responsible for picking on this part of the campus for their sport happened to choose a place of scenic beauty to destroy is beyond comprehension. Why they so choose to detract from the power of the Student Commission is more baffling, and why the Student Commission was not at least consulted in the matter is perhaps most perplexing.

THE COLLEGE Y. M. C. A.

We note with pleasure the fact that the college Y. M. C. A. building is now open to all male students of the school. By lifting the restrictions of former years the"Y" is now filling the need of a common recreational center on the campus, a center without strings, open to all.

ALL ABOARD! Loyal Bison will hop the "Special" tomorrow morning at ten bells. About one hundred and seventy-five students are expected to minute enthusiasts are rapidly swelling this estimate. The trip should be one continuous round of fun. All Bison are urged to use descretion in the working off of their enthusiasm, however. Remember we are follow-an athletic team. All our energies should be used in the support of that team and not to raise ned. Those who go by train and the much larger number who are expected to drive up, are urged to join on reaching the destination. We can accomplish our purpose most satisfactorily by sticking together before and during the game. A solid mass of three hundred rooters can put more punch into the team than seven hundred disorganized steam whistles.

Everybody out now and get one more Bison up there. The more the merrier! Let everyone be on time at the train tomorrow morning; everyone stick together, follow the cheerleaders, yell, boost, have a good time, and Beat The "U"!!

I'M THE INVERTEBRATE

I'm the invertebrate that can never wait until "Doc" Putnam and his Gold Star Band quit playing the 'Yellow and the Green" before I dash out of the armory. As soon as convocation is over and the band strikes up the school song I start for the door. I know that this is one of the most disrespectful and disloyal things I can do, and it plainly shows a lack of decency, brains, and genuine Bison spirit. Others give me dirty looks, and some even speak about it to me, but I go right on leaving before the song is finished. Why should I wait until everyone leaves? It's too congested then. I'd rather run out before the song is finished. I save a lot of time that way, even if it does cost me my self respect.

The Spectrum takes this opportunity to commend the action of the student body in its almost unanimous vote to send our Gold Star Band with the team tomorrow. Enough tags have been sold now to guarantee fares for each member of "Doc's" gang of pep-producers. All who will be present are urged to follow the musicmakers in their annual parade down the streets of Grand Forks. This parade is something the citizens of the up-state city always expect. Lets make it a big one.

PROF. ROLFE certainly hit the nail on the head in his convincing talk in convocation last Wednesday. At all Pep Rallies each and every student makes a lot of noise and promises to support his own team. Usually about two hundred get out to the game. This wouldn't be so bad for the fact that it is always the same two hundred. The other students simply don't get there. As Rolfe so ably pointed out, most of these slackers have a sneaking resolve or belief down in the back of their brains that they won't be at the game even while they are lustily promising to ABSOLUTELY be there! To those whom this may concern, if you don't intend to be at the game, why not at least be honest about it?

TONIGHT IS the night of the "Y" Mixer, or all college dance. We understand that the boys of the "Y" have several surprises in store for the evening in the way of special entertainment. At any rate, the evening should be a delightful one for the college students who attend. Aside from the entertainment our college dances afford, they are a strong force helping students to get acquainted. Some noted men have said that half of college education consists of developing individual perconality through acquaintances one makes in the week to put them on edge. After a tough scrimmage with the frosh Tues day afternoon, lighter signal drills and running of formations have filled most of their program. The squad is in good shape with only two casualties, Hickerson and Christianson being on the hospital list. Gergen, Moe, and Barney are ready for service again and have been going good during the past week.

In past years, the spirit exhibited by the students has had much to do with the showing of the team. Rallies held Wednesday and Friday mornings showed that the same old pep is present, which is a bad omen for the University. Grand Forks will be awakened suddenly tomorrow morning when the Bison special arrives as there will be an enthusiastic, howling mob that will be there to back our team in their struggle for the football supremacy of North Dakota. A COLLEGE FOOTBALL STORY BY ARGY AITCH

SYNOPSIS

BOB CRAWFORD, regular quarterback on the Stamford College eleven, has promised MARY MALONE, that he will accomplish three great deeds while a senior in college. If he succeeds Mary will promise to marry him as soon as he begins his practice of law. As one of the deeds Bob is determined to outclass RALPH NOR-TON, captain of the Northeastern University team, and his rival. In this he is encouraged by his friend, JOHNNY GRANT, captain of the Stamford eleven. The two teams are facing each other in Chicago on Thanksgiving day. Norton has just kicked off to the Stamford players.

CHAPTER EIGHT

Back in the little town of Norfolk, in the Malone home, a small group sat around the radio while Mary worked with the dials in an effort to bring Soldier's Field out into the west where all the "homefolks" might witness the gridiron classic that was bringing two Norfolk boys together finds Mr. Gilmer's voice very musical on rival teams. One Symptom Of Eyestrain

A person arises in the morning feeling fit and ready for anything. He starts to work with enthusiasm, but in two or three hours begins to lose his energy. This is particularly true of those who use their eyes for close work. If your eyes are a handicap to you, first we could convince you of the fact, then give you the necessary help.
