BISON CLASH WITH VALLEY CITY TODAY; CLOSE 1927 SEASON

Frosh Tracksters Compete In Conference Meet Held Tuesday

Bison tracksters will close a season of progressive if not sensational cinder activities when they clash in a dual meet with the Valley City State Teachers on Dacotah field at 4 p. m. today.

It will be the third meet in which the schools have rivaled with the Viking trackmen having the better of the argument to date. Coach Saalwaechter has had the Bison spikemen training rigorously in the last ten days despite the wretched track weather.

Frosh Show Well

Results of the freshman telegraphic conference meet held Tuesday indicate that the Bison cinder coach has several track meteors in the making. Although freshman points tallied in the meet today will not count toward totals, Saaly looks for a Bison victory over the Vikings.

Bison entries in today's events are as follows: 100 yard dash: Aitken, Miller Peschel; 120 high hurdles: Clasen, Pemble, Bertelson; half mile run, Douglas, Dobrinz, Dobbert, Frey; 220 yard dash, Aitken, Miller, Peschel; one mile run, R. Weiser, Fenton, Murchie, Dobbert; 220 yard hurdles, Miller, Zeissler, Pemble; 440 yard dash, Dobrinz, Douglas, Frey, Radde; 2 mile run, Clark, Mueller, W. Weiser; half mile relay, Clasen, Zeissler, Peschel, Miller; shot put, Wahl, Gibson, Tronnes; discus, Wahl, Gibson, Tronnes; high jump, George Hays, Zeissler, Muller; pole vault, Taylor Hayes, George Hays, Zeissler, Walker; javelin, Clasen, Miller, Wahl.

Frosh Compete in Meet

The freshman tracksters competed for honors in the North Central conference telegraphic track and field meet Tuesday afternoon. The report of the points obtained by the other contenders has not been compiled.

David Aitken, running the 100 yard dash in 10.1 seconds, covered the event in 2-5 of a second less than the time which the event was run in the North Central conference meet. The mark established by Aitken should lead the way for this event in the telegraphic meet. Aitken also grabbed off first

DELTA SIG FORMAL TO BE TOMORROW EVENING

Forty-five couples are expected to attend the Delta Kappa Sigma fraternity's annual formal dinner and dance at the Fargo Country Club tomorrow evening at 6:30 p. m., according to Howard Swinney, chairman of the arrangements committee.

Baskets of American beauty roses will decorate the tables and roses will be given as dinner favors. Informal dancing will be enjoyed from 7 to 9 and formal dancing until 12.

Dr. W. C. Hunter, Dr. C. S. Putnam, Dr. L. L. Carrick, Mr. Alfred H. Parrott, and Mr. Alvin Rigg, honorary members of the fraternity, will be honor guests.

Earl Olson and his Collegians will furnish the music.

HERE'S A NEW SLANT ON OUR COLLEGE

The above picture gives State College students a glimpse of their campus as the airmen see it. Although two vital building units, the agricultural hall and science hall are not shown, the picture is an excellent view of our college's appearance in the summertime. The men's dormitory to be built soon will be located on thirteenth street along the hedge row north of Ceres hall and the tennis courts.

COULTER ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR BUILDING TO BE CONSTRUCTED

Work on $150,000 Structure North of Practice House To Begin Soon

Building plans for the new men's dormitory to be built at State college this summer have been approved by the State Board of administration at Bismarck.

The site north of the practice hall was approved by the board and construction work will get underway soon

Holding Corporation Formed

Passage of the Schlosser-Hamilton law at the last session which provided for the forming of holding corporations by educational institutions makes possible the building of the $150,000 structure. This college, at the action of President Coulter, will be the first to take advantage of the new law.

The new structure, stated President John Lee Coulter, will be modern in every particular. It will offer accommodations for 192 men students and six resident instructors. No dining rooms will be provided since facilities at the Ceres hall dining rooms will care for the 200 additional students. The students will live two in a room, making the total number of rooms about 100.

All Modern Structure

The building will be fireproof and is to be three stories high with a full basement which will be used for recreation purposes. In area it will be equivalent to a building 300 feet long by 37 feet wide. The contemplated design is an "H" shaped building with a court facing Thirteenth street and another facing the main college quadrangle.

The student rooms will be about 14 by 14 feet and will be served with hot and cold running water. In-door beds will be used, two in each room, so that students may have plenty of room for work.

The contemplated charge is $2 a week for each student, or $72 a year. On this basis, Dr. Coulter figures the bonds could be retired in 15 years even if rental were charged only on a nine month school year basis. He would expect to obtain additional revenue from rents collected from summer school students, he said. Bonds issued to finance the structure also will be guaranteed by income from other dormitories already in use, the Schlosser-Hamilton bill permitting the college to pledge such assets.

SIGMA THETAS TO HOLD SPRING FORMAL TONIGHT

The Sigma Theta sorority will hold its annual spring formal at the Fargo Country club this evening. An informal reception from 8:30 to 9 will precede the formal dancing. Six senior members of the sorority, Misses Catherine Hannaher, Catherine O'Connor, Dorothy Stoudt, Rebecca Keene, Constance Melchoir and Marjorie Gulickson, will be in the receiving line.

The spring idea will be carried out as far as possible. Baskets of flowers will be used in the decoration of the rooms and porches. The arrangements committee, headed by Miss Rebecca Keene, has planned features in conjunction with the formal dance program.

BLUE KEY FRATERNITY HOLDS DINNER MEETING

Blue Key, national honorary service fraternity, held their regular business meeting at a banquet at the Powers Hotel last evening. John Spielman, president, presided. The Blue Key fraternity holds their meetings on a Rotary plan, having bi-monthly dinners in conjunction with their meetings.

SADDLE, SIRLOIN TO HOLD CONTEST

CASS COUNTY CLUB MEMBERS TO COMPETE—POULTRY JUDGING AWARDS GIVEN

A special meeting of the Saddle and Sirloin club was held in Room 210 of the agricultural building at 7:00 p. m. Wednesday. At this meeting plans were laid for an eliminative judging contest to be held at the college Saturday for about 100 boys and girls of Cass county doing club work.

This will be the first of a series of such contests to be conducted under the supervision of H. N. Kaldahl, assistant county agent for Cass county, with the purpose of developing a club judging team to compete at the various fairs this summer. If successful the team will have earned a trip to Chicago at the time of the International Livestock Show to be held this fall.

During the meeting Prof. O. A. Barton, head of the Poultry Department, on behalf of the club presented

MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial day exercises Monday will call for the participation of a large number of State College students. Last year, the Memorial Day parade consisted chiefly of the cadet battalion and the Gold Star band. More cooperation on the part of other civic and military organizations has been promised Captain Smith this year.

Several students may deem it an incringement on their personal rights to be called out on parade on a legal holiday. Other students will waver between spending Monday at the lakes or enjoying other forms of amusement. There are two days prior to Memorial day that may be spent in such leisure, the one day devoted to memory of those no longer with us should be observed fittingly.

Taking part in the exercises and parade is but a brief task, one that is a privilege.

There is an element of selfishness involved. Students cannot afford to forego any activity that will stimulate interest in their college. Their college spirit may also be sincerely expressed Monday.

"THE ONE HOSS SHAY"

"The one hoss shay." How long will it run before falling to pieces?

Since expression is a vehicle of intelligence, we take a fleeting chance to express our views on the publications problem at this college. You may judge whether or not they are intelligent.

Being the sole operator of "The One Hoss Shay," otherwise known as The Spectrum for the last year, we feel that the buggy needs overhauling. It's an open secret that for an indefinite number of years, our newspaper has been a "one horse outfit."

When our worthy board of publications decided on the title of "editor-in-chief" for the editor of the Spectrum, they added the "chief" to further emphasize his duties. Part and parcel, he is, editor, sports writer, copy reader, copy boy, society editor, office boy, devil, editorial writer, betimes; head writer, and emphatically night editor. Truly, the title "chief" bespeaks much.

The system, each succeeding editor inherits, is thus not an infallible one. Obviously the editor, after writing nine galleys of linotype metal, simply has not many pellets to throw in the way of editorials. His chief satisfaction comes in the reverberation caused by the highly indignant English teacher. "Jargon," he shouts tossing up his hands in despair.

Dr. Kolb Shows Relation of Rural Economics, Sociology

WISCONSIN AGRICULTURE ECONOMIST ADDRESSES STUDENTS ON RURAL PROBLEMS

There is a distinct relation between our rural economic and rural social life on the farms, Dr. J. H. Kolb, rural sociologist, Wisconsin College of Agriculture, pointed out in an address at the college Tuesday night.

"In the past as well as now, we are assuming that the marketing of what we produce on the farms will all take care of itself. This is not true, for the business management is an essential part of the farming operations in order that the farmer may make a profit. 'And these profits,' stated Dr. Kolb, 'must somehow result in the standards of living.'"

Dr. Kolb has been visiting at the college several days, and during that time he has been studying the methods and procedures used in rural sociology research at the college by A. H. Benton and E. A. Willson, both of the economics department, and A. G. Arvold of Little Country theater fame. Other midwest colleges are on Dr. Kolb's itinerary. He expects to pool all the experiences of the rural sociologists, and in that way, with the findings of several other men, create a better working plan for the entire new field of rural sociology.

In his talk, Dr. Kolb related three problems that he recently discovered in his study in California. The farmers of that state were doing some "honest-to-goodness" thinking, according to the impression given by Dr. Kolb.

Their first problem was to find some sort of a local group in the rural districts in which people could gather and talk their problems over.

Schools was the second problem. For the farmer has, in the case of the high schools especially, too often said, "let George do it." Or in other words, let the other fellow run the school, the speaker pointed out.

The third problem was a revision of the institutions for religious education. A farmer may purchase his physical wants in the nearby town, but when it comes to his spiritual wants they must be obtained in a rural church that has been fostered by the farmer himself. The farmer must have something to say about those things that touch his inner most self, concluded the rural sociologist.

Dr. Kolb goes to Grand Forks today to continue his study at the University of North Dakota.

Y.W.C.A. CABINET HOLDS ORGANIZATION MEETING

Starting a new program of YWCA activity, an organization meeting was held Wednesday evening at 8 p. m. in the "Y" library. This is the first attempt of any sort to give all YWCA members a chance for active work in the association and is an encouraging beginning.

A short program of talks was arranged with different cabinet members explaining their year's work and plans. Jennie Grant outlined the Big Sister movement for next year and announced plans for the annual Geneva Picnic, to be held Monday, June 6. Gladys Barton, social chairman, gave a brief survey of the social program for next year. Beatrice Sjoquist, last year's YWCA president, gave a very interesting talk on the purpose of our National Student YWCA. Geraldine Ewald, active president, led an informal discussion on the place of "Y" work on our campus, and plans for regular monthly meetings next year made. It is hoped that the association can undertake and sponsor some phase of campus improvements or better student life, according to Miss Ewald.

Several splendid musical numbers were furnished by Misses Grace Gregerson and Gladys Myre. Refreshments were served after the meeting was adjourned. Marie Webster, meetings chairman, had charge of all arrangements.

E BULLITIONS OF EBONY BLOTT

By Everett Wallum

Judging from appearances, our campus must have an acute attack of yellow jaundice.

This China trouble has to take a back seat. The dandelion is the real yellow peril.

The mathematics student can get a lot of pointers from the dandelion about fast multiplication.

A COLUMN ON DANDELIONS IS YELLOW JOURNALISM.

If all the dandelions on the campus were utilized for wine and sold, we'd have enough money to build a new armory, run for senator, and buy Sweden.

The dandelion is one thing that has to use its head to make wine.

The "dandelion," it is said, came from the quotation of Azibiades, gate-keeper at the lion's den, who, by way of guiding the biblical Daniel, bowed and announced with a wave of his hand: "Dan, de lion!"

Of course we can make greens from the dandelions, but there aren't enough Irishmen here to eat them.

WE ARE ONE OF THE FEW COLLEGES IN THE COUNTRY THAT GROW THE SCHOOL COLORS ON THE CAMPUS.

The dandelion must be a daughter flower. It is brighter than the sun. You may be able to eat dandelions, but you can't look at them.

WHY DON'T THESE SCIENTISTS CROSS THE DANDELION WITH THE MILKWEED, AND GET BUTTER?

We have yet to see a scientist cross the road with murder in his eye.

No wonder the dandelion is yellow. Every time you look at one, you yell ow!

THE LION MAY BE KING OF THE BEASTS, BUT THE DANDELION IS KING OF THE YEASTS.

Apoc is a poet indeed who can enthusiastically write a dirge to a dandelion.

Some enterprising salesman ought to bring a bunch of smoked glasses for the students who are really too young to go blind looking at bright yellow foliage.

Either that or someone ought to contract to smoke the dandelions.

It can be proven, however, that we love the dandelion. A look at the dandelion means blindness; love is blind; therefore a look at the dandelion means love.

A dandelion in the buttonhole is worth two cigar butts in a barrel of water.

Dandelion, thy name is profanity! We don't know where the dandelion came from, but any student can tell you where it ought to go.

PHARMACISTS HOLD DINNER WEDNESDAY

DEAN SUDRO GIVES ENCOURAGING REPORT OF GROWTH OF PHARMACY SCHOOL

The twentieth annual North Dakota Pharmacy Club banquet was held in the main dining room of the Powers Hotel Wednesday evening. Over seventy people were present at the dinner including members of the club, alumni, and guests.

Stephen Sleight acted a stoastmaster. Responses were given by Mr. Halbosien and Mr. Hallenburg, members of the state board of pharmacy; Albert Doerr, president of the club; George Sampson, ex-president; Norman Welch; and Mrs. Murphy. The main talk of the evening was given by W. F. Sudro, dean of the school of pharmacy.

Dean Sudro gave encouraging reports of the growth of the school of pharmacy and outlined its future as being even more prosperous than the past, due to the inauguration of the three-year minimum course which went into effect last year. He remarked that this would keep the total enrollment in pharmacy at a higher figure, which would call for an increase in the instruction staff, and consequently give the student a greater curricula along the pharmaceutical line.

Awards were also made by Dean Sudro to those students having the highest scholarship. George Sampson received the Lehn and Fink medal for the highest grade in pharmacy as well as the prize in chemistry. Mr. Sampson was recently elected to Phi Kappa Phi, honorary scholarship fraternity. Norman Welch and Albert Newman were awarded prizes in pharmacy and materia medi respectively.

PLANT ASPARAGUS, IS URGE OF A. F. YEAGER

Is there asparagus in your garden? This is a question asked by A. F. Yeager, horticulturist, at State College. If properly handled, asparagus is the easiest of all vegetables to grow, with the exception of rhubarb and horseradish, he claims.

Plant strong one-year plants of the Washington variety to obtain good results, suggests Professor Yeager. From a patch of asparagus, stalks may be cut each year for 20 years. The length of the season is from about corn planting time to the first of July.

The custom of sending Gifts to Graduates has now been extended by general accord to include those in the lower classes who have manifested sufficient industry to pass their final exams.

To know what to give, one needs but observe the students' own expressions of preference for the Parker Duofold Pen and Pencil.

To have earned the favor of the younger generation is our reward for serving it with studied personal interest. We have lifted the frowns from student brows [among others] by giving the world a writing pair that are inspirations to work with and beauties to possess.

All those in favor of owning, or giving the finest—whether for Graduation, Birthday or Wedding Gifts, or for prizes at Bridge or Golf—will signify by stepping in to the nearest Parker pen counter. The first thing to look for is the imprint, "Geo. S. Parker," on the barrels. Then nobody will be disappointed.

CLUB MEMBERS TO GO TO WASHINGTON

North Dakota will be represented by four boys' and girls' club members at the National Boys' and Girls' club camp to be held at Washington, D. C., June 16 to 22, according to Harry E. Rilling, state club leader at the college. Funds for the trip are being provided by the agricultural committee of the Greater North Dakota association.

The delegates are from four counties, Charles L. Measor, Tower City, Cass; Melvin P. Johnson, Wahpeton, Richland; Agnes Wilcox, Eckelson, Barnes; and Alice Karlenzig, Drayton, Pembina county.

"The action of the Greater North Dakota association in meeting the expenses of these four club members to Washington is in line with its agricultural development program," declares B. E. Groom, chairman of the association's agricultural development committee. "We believe in North Dakota, and we appreciate the important part which will be played in the affairs of the state by this coming generation of trained boys and girls."
