

GAY CAT DAY FROLIC OPENS TOMORROW

Annual Inspection Of Cadet Corps By Federal Board Friday

MAJORS BONESTEEL, DANFORD TO REVIEW COLLEGE BATTALION

Bison Unit Has Busy Week With Two Inspections On Brief Notice

With inspections by the 7th Corps area commander, Major-General B. A. Poore, Omaha, Neb., and by the Federal inspection board sent out by the War department, the cadet battalion has swung into a week of incessant work at military tactics in theory and practice.

Capt. Thomas S. Smith, P. M. S. and T., received notice of the federal inspection of the local cadet unit Friday. Only ten colleges in the Seventh Corps area are being inspected this year. State college was placed on the reduced list of inspections through a last minute change of the War department's plans for the inspection of northern colleges in the corps area.

Washington Officers on Board
Major Robert M. Danford, former commandant at West Point and at present on duty in the office of the chief of field artillery, Washington, D. C.; and Major Charles H. Bonesteel, in the office of the chief of infantry, Washington, will make up the inspection board this year that reviews and quizzes the State College unit on Friday and Saturday.

The general program, subject to change by the Inspectors, for Friday May 20 follows. Saturday program, if any, by verbal announcement the preceding day.

The day will be divided into two parts. In general, the morning program (A) will be devoted to ceremonies, drill and practical exercises; the afternoon program (B) will cover class room work including the practical drills, and mechanical features pertaining to weapons. In case of inclement weather, part "A" will be substituted for "B" and vice-versa, providing that is possible.

A—Morning (Friday)

8:00—Assembly—Battalion formed and reported as usual.

8:15—Adjutant's Call — Battalion Parade followed by inspection of arms and personnel.

9:15—Completion of above.

A platoon will be selected by inspectors to obtain packs, march to parade ground east of Library, pitch tents and display equipment. Remaining two platoons of this company will stage Formal Guard Mount Ceremony, remaining personnel organized as Old Guard.

Runner to report when platoon selected for tent-pitching is ready for inspection.

Four Platoons remaining will do close, extended order, and physical drill. Practical test in command and leadership by sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

Other work as outlined by Inspectors.

11:00—Formal Guard Mount on main parade.

11:30—Conference with President Coulter.

FARGO WINS MAY FESTIVAL MEET

GRAND FORKS TAKES SECOND PLACE—ELLENDALE IN THIRD POSITION

Fargo high school, largely through the efforts of the field event men carried off first honors at the 20th annual May Festival track and field meet staged here Saturday.

Fargo amassed a total of 44 points to win first honors, while Grand Forks trailed the Midgets for second honors with 36½ points. Ellendale had no trouble in taking third place with 24 counters.

Ellendale Shows Speed

It was a great trio of tracksters that represented Ellendale high school in the meet. Two records fell and one was tied by the fleet down-state runners. Earnest Robertson clipped a fifth of a second from the previous 100-yard dash record, running the distance in 10.1. He also tied the 220-yard dash record which was established last year. Besides capturing 10 points in the dashes, he entered the shot put event where he was only bested by the record tying toss established by Shamp, Fargo high weight man.

Although no records are credited to Schave, the Grand Forks athlete annexed the high point honors with 16 tallies, winning three firsts in the 220-yard low hurdles, javelin throw, and the 440-yard dash. He also won fourth places in the 100 and 220-yard dashes.

BISON SCHEDULE MEET WITH STATE TEACHERS

A varsity track meet with the Valley City State Teachers college will be held on Dacotah field on Saturday, May 28, according to Coach Leonard T. Saalwaechter. The Viking aggregation presents a formidable lineup in the track and field events, having beaten the Bison twice before by narrow margins.

A freshman meet will be scheduled in the near future, Coach Saalwaechter announced, and all freshmen should remain out for track in anticipation for this meet. The two weeks following the May Festival are the two best weeks to prepare for this event.

MORE THAN 600 AT 20TH ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL MAY FETE

Benson Wins Home Economics Honors—Walsh High In Agriculture

With a new attendance record set of more than 600 entrants, the 20th Annual Inter-High School May Festival closed Saturday successful in every way. Every section of the state, and parts of Minnesota were represented.

Walsh Co. School First

Walsh County Agricultural school, Park River, carried off the sweepstakes in the stock judging events. Later figures showed them to have won the agriculture sweepstakes in all three branches of competition, animal husbandry, crops, and poultry events. Mohall ranked second; and Drake and Larimore were tied for third place.

Albert Lewis of the winning team was high scorer of the contestants. Roy Markart, Maddock; and Melvin Frantzen, Velva, ranked next.

Sweepstakes honors in the home economics contests went to the Benson county agricultural school, Maddock. The Benson county school took first place in the economics contests for class B schools with other honors.

Fargo High School won in the Class A home economics, with Valley City second. Fargo won the industrial arts Class A contest. Cooperstown ranked first in Class B for the industrial arts.

Mayville was second in class B home economics competition, with Wyndmere and Grafton tied for third. Edgeley won first place in class B food exhibits.

MILLER AWARDED CUP AS FOREMOST ATHLETE

Claude Miller of Bison football fame was honored by the alumni and former student association at the May Festival banquet Saturday night with the award of a silver trophy. The trophy, a model of a football player in action was awarded him for being the most outstanding athlete during his school career and for his capabilities as a student.

The work of Miller's achievement on the gridiron and basketball court has brought him many honors. Twice all state guard and all state half back in high school basketball and football, he gained similar awards in the North Central conference Besides being given all-American mention on teams of national critics. Last fall, Miller received a unique honor by being made "Chief See the eBar" in the Sioux tribe.

Not alone active on the gridiron, court, or cinder track, Miller is active in student affairs. Besides having held student commission offices, and a class presidency, he is a member of Alpha Kappa Phi and Blue Key fraternities, and the Lettermen's club.

7TH CORPS AREA COMMANDER HERE

MAJOR-GENERAL B. A. POORE REVIEWS BISON BATTALION MONDAY AFTERNOON

Major-General B. A. Poore, commander 7th corps area, Omaha, Neb., reviewed the Bison battalion at 4:30 p. m. Monday and briefly addressed the student cadets after the review.

"Any blow aimed at the R. O. T. C. in our college is a blow aimed at our national defense, and a blow at the life of this nation," stated Major-General Poore, in stressing the fact that the preparedness program of the nation is in a large part in the hands of military trained civilians.

The cadet unit was reviewed and inspected by Major-General Poore, and also by sponsors of the battalion. President John Lee Coulter and the Fargo-Moorhead Reserve officers were also present.

Sponsors of the unit are, Mrs. John Lee Coulter, honorary Lieut.—Colonel of the unit; Betty Sheldon, band; Eleanor Johnson, bugle and drum corps; Beatrice Sjoquist, A company; Marjory Gulickson, B company; Alta Berg, C company; Dorothy Volkamer, D company; Dorothy Stoudt, E company; Madelyn Parrott, F company; Artrude Paul, machine gun and howitzer company.

A salute of 13 guns, the military saulte due a major-general, formed a part of the day's ceremonies.

Following the review, Major-General Poore met with the college faculty in the Little Country theater, and was the honor guest at dinner given by the Fargo-Moorhead Reserve Officers Mess.

PROF. ZIMPEL SPEAKS ON GERMAN SCHOOL STATUS

Overpopulation and a movement of people away from the farms were problems of the new Germany, Prof. Max Zimpel, instructor in modern languages, told members of the history section of the Fine Arts club Thursday evening at the Commercial club.

Professor Zimpel stated that people in Germany will not remain on the farms, but crowd into the cities to undergo the evils of unemployment and poverty. The older generation is also having difficulty in forgetting the days of the monarchy, a condition that tends to place Germany's future in the younger generation's hands.

PROGRAM INCLUDES SPORTS, CLEANUP, ACTS, CEREMONIES

Bison Out at 4 P. M.—Prizes Given—Party At Armory In Evening

Beginning with reveille and morning gun by the Bison Battalion at eight o'clock tomorrow morning, Gay Cat Day, the long awaited fun-fest, will swing into action with a gusto.

The American flag will be raised to the peak of the new flag pole for the first time, and with it is inaugurated a new Gay Cat Day with new and finer traditions than ever before.

Following this, each platoon will be given an area of the campus to clean and when the dust settles at approximately 9:30, Captain Smith will have a cup for the platoon whose area is the cleanest of the bunch. Until ten o'clock coffee and doughnuts will be served by the college co-eds.

Convocation At Ten

Ageneral convocation at 10 o'clock will include a band concert, a talk by President John Lee Coulter, a song contest between the freshman and sophomore classes and acts by the different organizations of the college.

At 1:30 p. m. the athletic events will begin for bot hboys and girls of the freshman and sophomore classes. The boys' program contains a 100-yard dash, a 120-yard low hurdles, and a medley race, an 880-yard relay, a tug of war, and a 20-yard wheelbarrow race. The girls' program includes a 50-yard dash, 60-yard low hurdles, pushball, and 200-yard relay. A sack shuttle relay will include both boys and girls. Each person is allowed in only one event besides the pushball contest. Coach Saalwaechter and Commissioner of Athletics Peshchel want all the class members out. Places count 5, 3, 2, 1. Following this will be a tug of war between the freshmen and sophomores, and one between the Juniors and Seniors. The winners will then settle the championship.

At 3:45 p. m. the cadets will execute the ceremony of evening gun and Battalion Parade, and the flag will be lowered.

Promptly at 4:00 the 1928 Bison will be distributed in the Bison office in the basement of Old Main. A prize of ten dollars in gold will be given to the person receiving a book with the

COLLEGE AND STATE SENIOR ISSUE OUT

The high school senior issue of College and State was released Friday with 3,500 copies going to high school seniors in the state, according to T. W. Johnson, editor of the publication.

Each school and department of State College is described in articles written by the deans and department heads. The work and facilities of the college branches of instruction are taken up from the graduating student's angle. Opportunities for State College students are many, the articles show.

A unique feature of a former student who has made a marked success in medicine, and general news of alumni and students is contained in the issue.

PLAYING CHESS FOR STARS

The big game of chess is to be played Friday. The odds are fairly even, 400 cadets are staking their all against the judgment of two majors, Major Robert Danford and Major Charles H. Bone-steel, who make up the federal inspection board. This game of chess is scheduled to last all day.

Federal boards are not known to leave their castles be swiped off by a bishop's oblique march. On the contrary, they often outflank the cadets by such charges as "rusty muskets," "failure to salute," and sundry maneuvers. Nevertheless, we're betting our poke on the cadets. The Board has already conceded the possibility of a stalemate. They're willing to play it off Saturday.

The stakes on this two-day match are high. The Bison seek their fourth gold star rating. They won three chess matches and last year dropped one to the Board. Experts dope out the loss variously. In vulgar parlance, it seems that the boys raised the ante but lost out in the draw.

You are the chess pieces. Each false move you make Friday whether of mind or foot will mean the loss of a pawn, if not a castle. You as an individual cadet may determine the winning or losing of this match for a fourth gold star.

The gold star represents not necessarily military proficiency but personal proficiency. Might we not say that the winner in life has many stars, stars marking individual progress?

GAY CAT

The day of days is tomorrow. Class work for the last week has been largely a case of sitting on the inside looking forward to Gay Cat Day.

Cadets will police the grounds in the morning so as to start things with a clean slate. Only able bodied men will be honored with that duty; the flat-footed soldiery are being detailed to assist with firing the morning and evening guns.

The sponsors will review the battalion and otherwise add moral stamina to the "Clean-up offensive." The Gay Cat committee has made provisions for every emergency. When the moan surges down cadet ranks, "When do WE eat?" there'll be an answer. Captain Smith, through the eats committee, has confiscated 75 dozen doughnuts and a city flusherfull of coffee for his hungry troops.

Organizations will represent themselves in ten minute acts at the armory at ten o'clock tomorrow morning. Folks talented in musical discord, dubious comics, and mimicry, that's not, will carry the heavy parts.

The day closes with military ceremonies and the distributing of the Bison yearbook. But the party Wednesday evening will round out a new Gay Cat Day that should make for a better Bison spirit and more fun than in other years.

Bison to be Out Gay Cat Day Is Attractive Book

ILLUSTRATIONS AND ART OF BOOK SURPASS ANY OF PREVIOUS ANNUALS

After one solid year of research, formulation and preparation, the 1928 Bison staff will tomorrow present the students with the finished product of their labors, "the bigger, better Bison."

First and foremost, the 1928 Bison is a college book, bubbling over with the college spirit, displaying college life with a vigor characteristic of that life itself.

Since it is to the state of North Dakota that this college owes its existence, it is to the state of North Dakota that the 1928 Bison pays tribute. Its Greater North Dakota theme is the noblest that could be chosen for a yearbook. The first section of the book, following the opening section, is called "Greater North Dakota" and contains a brief account of the beauty spots, the resources and the future of this state. The section is profuse with illustrations of state industries and scenic grandeur.

The opening section of the book is the most extravagant ever before placed in a Bison. It is printed on Charcoal Book paper with gold and gray colors, an expensive though beautiful creation. The dedication to President John Lee Coulter, whose picture is in full color is one of the outstanding features of the book. A frontispiece in three-color effect is a thing of beauty.

The scenic section immediately following the opening section contains a picture of a state industry in three colors, which is followed by a series of campus scenes, each one of which is linked with some state activity or scene.

The division pages which introduce subjects such as "Athletics," "Administration," etc., are in gold and gray on the Charcoal Book stock of paper, but their pictorial illustration depicts a state industry, either of the present or of the future, rather than the subject which follows.

Ebony Blott's satire section is without doubt the greatest funnybone tickler ever put into an annual. Clever cracks, witty remarks, and satirical glances are cast at prominent campus figures without in any way causing embarrassment. Critics who have seen the book pronounce it the "best ever."

A special prize of ten dollars in gold will be conferred upon some lucky student who calls for his Bison tomorrow. One of the books will contain somewhere between its covers a caption placed there by a rubber stamp, and reading "BISON (FAR-GO)". The person who receives this book, and who finds the above words somewhere within will please notify the Bison officials at once and receive a ten dollar gold piece at the party tomorrow evening along with the other awards of the day. Someone is going to be lucky, so on receipt of your book try to find the magic words.

The campus organizations will please note also the policy of the business staff of the book: not to allow the books to be distributed until every page is paid for by the groups ordering them.

The 1928 Bison will be given out to the students in the Bison office in the basement of the Main Building. Students who have been here three terms during 1926-27 receive their books without payment; students here two terms must pay $1.25; and students here one term must pay $2.50. To all others the price of the book is $4.00.

E BULLITIONS OF EBONY BLOTT

By Everett Wallum

The Gay Cat committee promises we students an all-around good time. This probably means that they're going to have a merry-go-round.

Politicians have an all-around good time by beating around the bush.

VOLSTEAD PUT AN END TO THE CORKING GOOD TIME...

A dance constitutes an all-around good time—if the partner's waist isn't too expansive.

THE "RATTLING" GOOD TIME WAS ORIGINATED BY A FELLOW WHO HAD RIDDEN IN A "COLLEGIATE" FLIVVER.

The Gay Cat committee was going to have the boys play "Ring 'round the rosie," but banned the idea when it was discovered that most of the fellows would rather play "Ring 'Round Rosie's left hand third finger."

Those participating in the cleanup campaign will receive doughnuts and coffee. We knew there would be a hole in the proposition.

After the coffee and sinkers, the "tired and hungry" soldiers will have ceased to be tired.

WE'D HATE TO HAVE TO PICK UP ALL THE GUM WRAPPERS AROUND CERES HALL.

As soon as it was announced that Captain Smith would award a cup to the platoon having the cleanest area, twenty men washed their necks thoroughly.

The best way to get the campus cleaned up is to let it be known that twenty nickels have been distributed over the ground.

The Sophomores insisted upon cleaning up the freshmen, but the committee substituted the campus as the next greenest college commodity.

TROOPS WILL BE DESPATCHED TO WATCH THE ARMORY DURING THE CLEANUP CAMPAIGN.

They ought to have the Freshman-Sophomore song contest as the last number on the convocation program so the juniors and seniors can hear the rest of the program.

If the singing doesn't raise the roof, the juniors and seniors will in order to get out quickly.

THE BISON WILL BE OUT AT FOUR O'CLOCK. THE SATIRE EDITOR REPORTS THAT THINGS LOOK CALM AND PEACEFUL IN CHINA.

Organizations are hoping that there will be a lot of mosquitos in the armory at convocation so it will sound like they're getting a big hand when they present the program.

Forty letters have been received at this office asking what makes the gay cat gay. We don't know, unless it would be a high board fence and a sleeping neighborhood.

THE TUG O' WAR PRESENTS AN OPPORTUNITY TO THOSE WHO THINK THEY HAVE A "PULL" AT THE COLLEGE.

They ought to pick cigar smokers for the tug o' was teams. They're used to pulling at the rope.

LaMoure Wins Girls' Meet
LaMoure high school with five individual entries romped off with the girls' field and track meet. Four first places, two seconds, and two third places netted the winners 29 points.

Cooperstown and aVley City high schools tied for second honors with 13 points each. The remaining schools finished, Fargo, 8; A. C. Preps 6; Comstock, 3; and Moorhead, 2.

Fargo won three of the cups offered for girls' events. Wins in the singles and doubles tennis events and in the dancing contest are credited to the Fargoans.

Comstock high school battered out a baseball victory over Moorhead high school to win the cup in that event. The Comstock girls retain the cup, having won it the third successive time.

In the literary contest, Grace Haugen, Wyndmere, won first in story telling.

Gordon Gilbertson, Velva, won the extempore speech contest with Doris Fisher, Fargo taking first place in the declamation contest. Miss Fisher gave "The Three Things" by Andrews.

Ralph Pierce, LaMoure, took first place in the oratorical contest and Prentice Rice, Breckenridge, Minn., was second.

The Festival was marked by an unusually large number of exhibits, both in the high school and college classes. All home economics work by the high schools was shown in Ceres hall. A college exhibit in home economics are work was held in Science hall Friday. The architects exhibition in the engineering building was an outstanding feature. Open house was held by the engineers Friday.

The Festival closed Saturday with the annual dinner in Ceres hall and the Festival party in the armory following the dinner.

This Pen Must Stay in Perfect Order or we make it good without charge

The custom of sending Gifts to Graduates has now been extended by general accord to include those in the lower classes who have manifested sufficient industry to pass their final exams.

To know what to give, one needs but observe the students' own expressions of preference for the Parker Duofold Pen and Pencil.

To have earned the favor of the younger generation is our reward for serving it with studied personal interest. We have lifted the crowns from student brows [among others] by giving the world a writing pair that are inspirations to work with and beauties to possess.

All those in favor of owning, or giving the finest—whether for Graduation, Birthday or Wedding Gifts, or for prizes at Bridge or Golf—will signify by stepping in to the nearest Parker pen counter. The first thing to look for is the imprint, "Geo. S. Parker," on the barrels. Then nobody will be disappointed.

May Festival

Friday withstood the attempts of the other athletes to better the mark for a new festival record. The Grand Forks star gained a total of 11 points by finishing second in the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

Robert Aldrich, a slight built youth from Hankinson, stepped into the limelight by traversing the half-mile run in two minutes and seven seconds for a new record. Paul Airheart of Fargo made a gallant attempt to beat his speedy rival but his efforts were in vain for the Fargo youth collapsed, regained his feet and tottered over the line to win fourth place, all happening within ten yards of the finish line.

The pole vault record which was predicted to fall before the attempts of Joe Blakeslee, Fargo High cinder captain, remained intact. Blakeslee had previously bettered the record in other meets but was greatly hampered by the strong wind which persisted during the two days of the meet. Blakeslee won first place by clearing the bar at 10 feet.

Relay Record Falls

The relay race, the closing event of the meet proved to be the most spectacular, for the Ellendale quartet erased the two-fifth fraction from the previous record by running the half mile classic in one minute and thirty-six seconds flat. Jarret, running in second position for Grand Forks, had established a substantial lead for his team when the baton was placed in the hands of Earl Robertson who overcame the ten yard lead of the Forkers and then passed the baton to his brother who outdistanced his rival anchor man and crossed the tape for the new record.

The standings of the teams to gain points in the meet are: Fargo 44, Grand Forks 36½, Ellendale 24, Bismarck 11½, Hankinson 6, LaMoure 5, Valley City 5, Mandan 3, Sheldon 3, Moorhead 2, Edgeley 2, Oakes 1. The summary:

220-yard low hurdles—Schave, Grand Forks, first; Ludwig, Grand Forks, second; Gregory, Fargo, third; Crabtree, Ellendale, fourth. Time: 27 seconds flat.

100-yard dash—Ernest Robertson, Ellendale, first; Jarrett, Grand Forks, second; Knauf, Moorhead, third; Schave, Grand Forks, fourth. Time: 10 1-5 seconds. New Festival record.
