

TWO HUNDRED TRACKSTERS IN MEET TODAY

Hackenberg and Wallum Named Editors Student Publications

BUSINESS MANAGERS POSTS ASSIGNED TO HOLLANDS, THOMPSON

Spectrum, Bison Staff Heads Elected at Board Meeting

Everett J. Wallum, Lakota, and Richard G. Hackenberg, Fargo, both sophomores in the school of science and literature, were elected editors of the 1929 Bison, yearbook of the North Dakota State College, and the Spectrum, semi-weekly newspaper of the college, respectively, for the next school year at a meeting of the Board of Publications Wednesday night.

Thompson Spectrum Manager

Lester E. Thompson, Dilworth, Minn., becomes business manager of the Spectrum for the coming year, and F. Ralph Hollands, Moorhead, was renamed to the managership of the Bison. The old officers retain their positions until the end of the year.

Mr. Hackenberg, who is editor-in-chief of the 1928 Bison, is a member of Delta Kappa Sigma social fraternity, Blue Key national service fraternity, and Gamma Tau Sigma, honorary journalistic fraternity. He succeeds Wallace Matson, Fargo, to the editorship of the Spectrum.

Wallum Bison Editor

Mr. Wallum, editor of the 1929 Bison, is a member of Alpha Sigma Tau social fraternity, and Gamma Tau Sigma. He was associate editor of both the Bison and Spectrum during the past year and wrote the famous "Ebony Blott" columns of the Spectrum, and the satire section of the Bison.

Lester Thompson has been assistant business manager of the Spectrum for the last year, and is a member of Theta Chi social fraternity, and Gamma Tau Sigma. He succeeds Earl Hendrickson, senior in the school of agriculture.

F. Ralph Hollands who takes over the reigns of the Bison managership for the second consecutive time is a member of Alpha Sigma Tau, Gamma Tau Sigma, and Blue Key.

THREE SENIORS PASS INITIAL ARMY QUIZZ

Rae Kneeshaw, Jesse Brenden, of Fargo, and Mercade Cramer, Marmath have passed the preliminary examinations for commissions in the United States army, it was announced by Captain Thomas S. Smith yesterday.

The three seniors will report for their final physical examinations at Fort Snelling, June 20. Kneeshaw and Cramer are both captains in the cadet battalion, the former having been also drum major of the Gold Star Band for the last four years. Mr. Cramer commands the machine gun and Howitzer company. Mr. Brenden is a major in the unit; and an engineering student.

LIEUT. NARUM HOME ON MONTH FURLOUGH

Lieut. Leslie Narum, aviation officer in the U. S. Marine Corps, returned to Fargo Saturday on a month's furlough. Lieutenant Narum has been stationed at Pensacola, Fla., during the winter where he was in training for the air service. Prior to his return home, Lieutenant Narum had been confined to the hospital for ten days. In a trial spin, Narum's plane failed to come out of a dive. The plane, piloted by the instructor, fell from an altitude of 2,000 feet into Pensacola Bay.

Lieutenant Narum is a member of the class of '25. He was also lieutenant colonel in command of the college battalion during his last year in school. He is a member of the Alpha Kappa Phi fraternity.

MAJ.-GEN. POORE TO REVIEW CORPS

BATTALION ASSEMBLES AT 4:15 P. M. FOR INSPECTION BY CORPS AREA COMMANDANT

A battalion review and parade in the honor of Major General B. A. Poore, Corps Area Commander, of Omaha, Nebraska, will be held at 4:30 p. m. Monday by the R. O. T. C. unit, according to Captain T. S. Smith, P. M. S. and T. An inspection of the unit will follow the parade.

President John Lee Coulter and the company sponsors will be guests of the department. Assembly of the unit will begin at 4:15 p. m. and the companies will move out fifteen minutes later.

At five o'clock Major General Poore will meet with the faculty in the Little Country theater. The Fargo-Moorhead Reserve Officers' Mess will hold a dinner in his honor Monday evening, at which the senior cadet officers, and members of the Scabbard and Blade will be guests. Major General Poore leaves for St. Paul at 11:30 p. m.

ARCHITECTS' PARTY GIVEN THURSDAY NIGHT

Members of the L'Atelier Chat Noir club, an organization made up of the architectural students and their friends entertained at an informal dancing party in the architectural department's rooms Thursday evening. The party was given after the dance festival in the college armory. Prof. and Mrs. R. M. Dolve, M. W. Eaton and A. E. Rigg acted as chaperons for the evening. Avery Chadwick was chairman of the committee on arrangements.

PHI UPSILON OMICRON FORMAL IS SATURDAY

Miss Eva Wilner is in charge of the arrangements for the Phi Upsilon Omicron annual spring formal party which will be held at the Fargo Country Club tomorrow evening. Dancing will be enjoyed between the hours of 8:30 and 11:30 p. m. About thirty couples are expected to attend including several invited guests.

14 STUDENTS, FOUR OF FACULTY NAMED TO PHI KAPPA PHI

Five Juniors Elected to Honorary Scholastic Society

Fourteen students and four faculty members of the North Dakota State college have been honored for scholarship by their election to Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary scholastic society, at the last regular meeting of that organization.

Recognition services for the newly elected members will be held at a student convocation, the date of which has not been set.

Five Juniors Elected

Five of the student group to be elected this year are juniors, an unusual honor, in that elections are usually deferred until a student's senior year of classwork.

The juniors to be elected and their courses are, Christine Rud, Portland, science and literature; Clarence Reed, Fargo, civil engineering; Allan Meinicke, Fargo, architecture; Geraldine Ewald, Fargo, science and literature; Carl L. Olson, Sanborn, civil engineering.

Seniors elected to membership in Phi Kappa Phi and their courses are, Mrs. Ruth Otterson, Fargo, science and literature; Sister Xavier, Fargo, science and literature; Eva Wilner, Tower City, home economics; Walter Lillicrap, Sheldon, agriculture; Paul Dickey, Fargo, science and literature; Raymond Douglas, Eckman, agriculture; Marion Wyatt, Sabin, Minn., education; George Landsverk, McIntosh, Minn., agriculture; and George Sampson, Fargo, pharmacy.

Faculty members to be elected to membership in the honorary scholastic organization are, Dr. W. C. Hunter, head of the history department; Rudolph Otterson, instructor in history; Miss Elvira T. Smith, associate professor of home economics; and Mrs. Myrtle Gleason Cole, dean of women.

ALPHA SIGMA TAU FORMAL IS FRIDAY

Alpha Sigma Tau fraternity will hold its annual formal party this evening between the hours of 8:30 and 11:30 p. m. at the Fargo Country Club. Elmer Marks, who is in charge of arrangements, is preparing for the entertainment of fifty-five couples.

Extensive plans are being made and the unique date, Friday the thirteenth distinguishes the formal without casting an unlucky atmosphere about it.

ALPHA GAMMA RHO TO HAVE PARTY MAY 21

The Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity will hold its annual spring party at the country club on Saturday, May 21. The music will be furnished by Earl Olson. The committee in charge of arrangements is composed of Craig Montgomery, Wilfred Plath and Clyde Barks.

SENIOR CLASS NAMES GRADUATION OFFICERS

Wilfield Hurt was named chairman of the senior swingout, the last social function of the senior class of the North Dakota State college, to be held Saturday night, June 11, at a meeting of the senior class, when plans for graduation activities were made. Rebecca Keene was elected class historian; Ruth McCarthy, class poet; Mercade Cramer, class prophet. Crimson and gold were selected as class colors, the yellow rose as the class flower, and "Nil Desperandum" as the class motto. Erble Steen was named alumni secretary of the class of 1927. Rae Kneeshaw, president of the class, was in charge of the meeting. Other officers are: Elrey Young, vicepresident, an dFred Byerly, secretary and treasurer.

PREP STUDENTS VIE FOR MAY FESTIVAL LITERARY HONORS

Exhibit Awards To Be Made At Annual Dinner Tonight

Twenty-two schools, making up 191 individual entries, will be entered in the track and field meet to be held on Dacotah field today and tomorrow, according to Ion J. Cortright, athletic director.

These entries include Grand Forks, Fargo, Moorhead, Hankinson, Frazee, Bismarck, Mandan, Valley City, Sheldon, Mayville, LaMoure, Sykeston, Mott, Lakota, Fergus Falls, Wahpeton, Lisbon, Enderlin, Hillsboro, Edgeley, Belfield, Walsh County Aggies, and many others.

Valley City Enters 26 Men

The Valley City Hi-liners are going to raise some havoc in the point-getting if numbers mean anything. The valley school is represented by 26 delegates competing in the various events. Mandan and Bismarck have listed 21 entrants each, and Grand Forks, second place team of last year's meet, will pin its hopes on a dozen versatile performers.

Preliminaries for the events will be held on Dacotah field at 1:30 p. m. this afternoon. Semi-finals for all events found necessary after the field is narrowed this afternoon will be held tomorrow morning at ten o'clock. The finals, the big event of the festival will be run beginning at 1:30 tomorrow afternoon. Awards for places in all events will be made in the armory at eight o'clock tomorrow evening.

Track in Shape

Extensive work on the track is expected to put it in good shape as an added incentive to the 200 athletes to shatter previous records. At least two records are going to be dented some when Captain Joe Blakeslee of the Fargo Midgets tops the woodwork in the pole vault. Blakeslee has already passed his last year's record several times during the season. Walter Shamp, who tosses a mean hunk of iron in the shot put has sent it at a distance of 42 feet consistently all season which is somewhat better than the mark of 41 feet 6 inches that he established a year ago. The 220 yard dash, the discus throw, the

ENGINEERS TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE FRIDAY

The annual Engineers' open house to be held today from 1 to 10:30 p. m. under the management of William Brindle, senior student in mechanical engineering, is a striking feature of the entertainment prepared for the May Festival students of the State College.

All civil engineering, mechanical, electrical, physics, steam and gas apparatus will be on display, much of it operating under service conditions. In addition, many surprising "stunt" displays are provided. Students of of the school of mechanic arts will act as guides. The exhibit is open to everyone.

WELCOME!

Today North Dakota State College is host to five hundred high school students from all parts of North Dakota and Minnesota. The campus is thrown open to them, the hand of welcome of every loyal Bison should be extended to greet them. Every effort should be made to make these students realize what a wonderful college we have here, how great it would seem for this college, and what a splendid opportunity exists for them to be able to call this their Alma Mater within a few years.

The incoming high school students, on the other hand, should make this college their home while they are here. The campus is yours, the buildings are yours. Now is your chance to get the "inside dope" on college life as it really is. Scout around, ask questions, and thoroughly enjoy your visit here. And then boil your impressions down to one outstanding idea, one determination, to grasp the opportunity for a college education that lays in your grasp. Of course our version is that there is no school that can compare with North Dakota State, and we sincerely hope that the welcome we extend to you will never wear off, that next year, or perhaps the next, you will again come through the Main Gate, down the walk toward Old Main, TO STAY.

HONOR STUDENTS

Fourteen students and four faculty members of this college have been honored for scholarship by their election into Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary scholarship fraternity. Student leaders in the primary purpose of the founding of colleges, these fourteen students have labored some three, some four, years to attain their goal at the peak of North Dakota State scholarship. Five of the fourteen honored are juniors, an exceptional and unusual accomplishment, since elections to this honor society are usually deferred until the senior year. A student convocation will be set aside for the recognition services and every student on the campus should be there to do honor to honor students, who deserve praise for their achievements in that often neglected field of scholarship.

BATTALION REVIEW MONDAY

The cadet battalion will be reviewed by Maj.-Gen. B. A. Poore, at 4:15 Monday. Although the unit has again been handicapped by the incessant rains, it may be expected to do its best. The honors it has won in other years and which were lost last year may be redeemed by the showing made Monday and at future inspections.

BISON PROSPECTS FOR FALL RACE ARE GOOD

Bison gridders completed a brief spring football campaign that has made Coach Ion J. Cortright optimistic for grid prospects next fall.

Byron Berntson, stellar guard on the Bison eleven last fall, was the only casualty during the spring workouts. His injury will not keep him from the lineup next fall, however.

Cortright will have a team combining both speed and weight to enter in the 1927 conference race. Thirteen lettermen were in the squad of fifty gridders that turned out for chalk talks and outdoor work.

Letter men who reported for spring football were: Captain Peschel, Ranes, Sullivan, DeSautel, Hermes, Barney, Berntson, Fisher, Newgard, and Clasen.

Line candidates for the Bison grid machine averaged 180 pounds per man, reports Coach Cortright. With the backfield netting 163 pounds per capita, the Bison will be balanced by a combination of weight and speed. Incoming frosh candidates for the big show looked exceptionally good and will cause a merry tussle for some of the cherished positions. The Bison line will be an all-veteran aggregation, reading from left to right, Newgard, Sullivan, Barney, Fisher, Berntson, DeSautel, and Tilton. In the backfield Hermes, Peschel, and Clasen are the nucleus of veteran character that Cortright will have to work with.

SIX FINED AT FIRST COMMISSION COURT

Six convictions for violations of parking and trespassing laws on the campus were made at the first session of student commission court held Tuesday. John Spielman, commissioner of judiciary, presided at the court that convened at 4 p. m.

Those pleading guilty were each fined fifty cents.

Six other persons against whom complaints are filed failed to appear in court. These cases will be brought up again at the next session of court, stated Mr. Spielman. Tuesday, at 4 p. m., has been set as the date for the next holding of court in the lettermen's club room of the college armory.

EBULLITIONS OF EBONY BLOTT

By Everett Wallum

Welcome, visitor. During your stay here, may your heart be as light as a Co-Ed's conscience.

Just because you are a stock judge, it is no sign you have to feel sheepish.

If you try to carry home the bacon, you might get squealed on.

THE GIRLS, OF COURSE, CAN CARRY HOME THE BAKIN' WITH A PRIZE RIBBON ON IT.

Wear your socks at half mast when passing the armory. Age demands respect.

The starter at the track meet is like the head of a thrifty German family when the tax collector comes in view. "On your marks."

The extempore speech makers, who talk on their feet, sometimes have a broad, strong subject.

CHIROPODISTS ARE NOT THE ONLY ONES WHO TALK ON THEIR FEET.

It is better to be an orator and talk on your feet than a dancer who talks on somebody else's feet.

AS SOON AS THE STUDENT GUESTS HAVE SEEN CRAMER, THE MAY FESTIVAL CAN BEGIN IN EARNEST.

Poultry judges should bear in mind that a Rhode Island Red is not a Bolshevik from America's smallest state.

AND THAT A PERCHERON IS NOT A FISH.

Noah was the original stock judge. We'll bet he picked the pair of mosquitos with the longest stingers.

One student visitor confided to us that he brought along a couple extra suits of "next to myself" in case he gets a chance to enter the track meet.

STUDENTS ARE INVITED TO "GO THROUGH" THE BUILDINGS. WE WISH SOME NEW BUILDINGS WOULD GO THROUGH THE LEGISLATURE

We may not have any new buildings, but we have many remodeled faces.

If the girls in the pie making contest "sling a feed" we hope they don't sling it our way.

IT IS JUST AS HARD TO MAKE A CHERRY PIE AS A LAMBDA PI. BOTH ARE CRUSTY, BUT THE CHERRY PIE IS SWEET.

Our idea of a useless project is having a garter making contest for boys.

ABOUT THE ONLY KNITTING THE GIRLS DO THESE DAYS IS THEIR BROWS.

The magician who put a rabbit's foot in a plugged hat and pulled out a live bunny had nothing on Jack Horner who put in his thumb and pulled out a plum.

We extend the hand of sympathy to a friend of ours named William. His sweetie's father never fails to foot the Bill about eleven every evening.

He ought to go before the foot-lights.

THE ARCHITECTS' CAT IS "LIT UP" DURING THE MAY FESTIVAL. ONE OF SPRING'S BAD SIGNS.

PAN-HELLENIC TEA GIVEN ON SATURDAY

The Pan-hellenic Council is giving an informal tea in honor of all the girls who are contestants in the May Festival. It will be at the Practice House on Saturday from 3 until 5 p. m.

Mrs. Coulter, Dean Cole, and the presidents of the sororities, Loretta Nilles, Geraldine Ewald, Virginia Wright, Corrine Brauer and Edith Thorsell will be in the receiving line. General arrangements are in charge of Ruby Oscarson, president of the Pan-hellenic Council. She is assisted by Mary Klinmann, Marian Schroeder, Evelyn Blakeslee, Dorothy Volkamer and Beatrice Sjoquist.

R. C. DYNES TAKES UP EXTENSION WORK HERE

Roy C. Dynes, agricultural agent of Richland county for the last six years, has resigned to become assistant county agent leader in the extension division of State College. He will begin his duties at the college July 1.

Mr. Dynes has been active in many duties while county agent at Wahpeton. Besides developing boys' and girls' club work in the county and the launching of campaigns for improvements in grains and livestock, Mr. Dynes has been secretary of the Richland County Fair association.

1928 BISON NOW ON DISPLAY DOWN TOWN

An attractive display featuring the 1928 Bison is being shown in the windows of the Knight Printing Company, publishers of the book, this week.

The display shows the development of the yearbooks, beginning with the first "Agassiz" in 1908, a flimsy, flexible-covered book. Next comes the books with cheap cardboard covers and still labeled "Agassiz." These are followed by the books from 1923 to the present time, an interesting study in the advance of the "Bison." Every book shows a distinct improvement over the year before and the 1928 Bison tops them all as the most outstanding and beautiful creation yet produced by a Bison staff.

Around the line of books are different printing processes used in the making of the various parts of the book. Borders, and tints are shown in their process of completion. Across the bottom of the display is a series of color plates showing the steps in the process of making a three-color picture for the iBson scenic section.

The display was originated by Miss Mosher, of the Merchants National Bank, and will reward any inspection that the students may make.

PROGRAM FOR GAY CAT DAY PLANNED

MILITARY CEREMONIES, CLEAN-UP, EATS, CONTESTS, ISSUE OF BISON, DANCE SCHEDULED

An all-around good time is promised students for Gay Cat day next Wednesday by the committee in charge of plans. The program for the day, which was drawn up at a recent meeting, is crammed full of good tidings and anticipated fun.

Beginning at 8:00 in the morning with a military ceremony, reville and morning gun, the Bison Battalion will start in on a cleanup campaign which will not cease until 9:30 when the girls of the college will serve cocee and doughnuts to the tired and hungry soldiers. Captain Smith will award a cup to the platoon having the cleanest area of ground following the cleanup.

At ten o'clock, a general convocation will be held in the armory. This will consist of a band concert, a talk by President Coulter, a song contest between the Freshman and Sophomore classes, and acts by the different organizations on the campus. Prizes will be awarded. It is expected that the indoor joy festival will last until noon.

At 1:15 the athletic events between classes will be staged on Dacotah field with Coach Saalwaechter in charge. At 3:45 the aBttalion will again be called on for a Battalion Parade and the evening gun, closing the military ceremonies of the day and allowing everybody to be on hand for the distribution of the 1928 Bison at four o'clock.

In the evening a party in the armory will start at eight and last until eleven or twelve. Evelyn Blakeslee is in charge.

Organizations are urged by the commission to start to prepare their acts for the general convocation, since every organization on the campus must take part in this program. The acts must not exceed ten minutes time.

high hurdles, and perhaps several others will undergo an alteration tomorrow.

A tennis tournament will also be held in conjunction with the track and field events. Entries for this tournament are expected to reach twenty-five. Athletic contests for women and a women's tennis tournament will also be held.

Literary contests held in connection with the festival, under the supervision of Alfred G. Arvold of the college public discussion department, cover a wide range of activities.

Eight schools have entered contestants in the declamatory division and several have enrolled for the prize in the oratorical contests. Five one-act plays will be presented in competition for awards. Newspaper and annual contests will determine championship journalistic enterprises. An extempore speech contest will be held at 11 a. m. today, seven entries being listed. Six entries have been received for the story telling contest.

Exhibit awards will be announced and trophies given at the annual vocational contestants' dinner to be held at 6:15 p. m. today in Ceres hall.
