STATE COLLEGE, NORTH DAKOTA, FRIDAY, MARCH 4, 1927

NUMBER 35

BETTER SEED TRAIN ENDS TOUR SATURDAY

75 STUDENTS TAKE PART IN PEER GYNT HERE MARCH 9, 10

Play Will be Experiment in Staging Great
Drama

Seventy-five students of State College will have roles in "Peer Gynt", five act drama in verse of Scandinavian life by Henrik Ibsen, which will be presented at the Little Country Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, March 9, 10, at eight o'clock.

To be Stage Experiment

The play is being given as an experiment by the advanced class in giving a great drama in a small theatre.

Harold Fog, as Peer Gynt, and Constance Melchoir, as Ase, Peer's mother have the leading roles in a drama which is of a youth who wanders from his picturesque Norway into a world of adventure. Thirty years elapse between the departure of Peer from his home and his return to his home.

Twelve distinct scenes have been arranged and painted by members of the class for staging the great drama.

DAKOTANS STUDY BEE LIFE BY MAIL

Twelve lessons in practical beekeeping are being taught thru correspondence by the Entomology department of State college. To date there have been about 125 persons enrolled in the beekeeping course and approximately 25 have completed the course, according to Professor J. A. Munro, state entomologist. Those who have taken the course write enthusiastically about the practical value of it.

"This course in beekeeping has been designed particularly to meet the needs of the beginner in the beekeeping industry," states Professor Munro. "as it gives the beginner a knowledge of the structure, life history and habits of the bees. It also takes up beekeeping with special reference to the conditions found in North Dakota."

Following are the twelve lessons: Beekeeping as an industry, Making a Start with Bees, Honey Regions in North Dakota, Races of Bees, The Bee Colony, Swarming Control, Comb Honey Production, Extracted Honey Production, Fall Management, Winter-Bees, Spring Management and Bee Diseases.

STATE TEAM DEBATES ST. THOMAS SATURDAY

State College debaters will meet at St. Thomas three man team at St. Paul Saturday evening.

Eloise Powers, Victor Lindgren, and Hjalti Thorfinnson made up the team that left Fargo Friday morning. Miss Edith Challey, instructor in public discussion, will have charge of the team on the trip.

Debating on the negative side of the question, "Principles of the McNary-Haugen Bill", the local trio will be the first team to debate away from home this year. Its members will spend Friday doing research work on the question in St. Paul libraries.

SCABBARD AND BLADE ENTERS RIFLE MATCH

The local chapter of Scabbard and Blade will enter the national marksmanship events for Scabbard and Blade companies which is being held this week.

Representative of State college chapter who are scheduled to compete are: M. A. Cramer, Leroy Lillie, Clarence Reed, Charles Bowers, Ronnie Millard, Harold Hulet, Paul Revell.

REGISTRATIONS TO BEGIN ON MONDAY

EXAMINATIONS FOR WINTER TERM ARE SCHEDULED ON MARCH 19, 21, 22

Registration for spring term work will begin Monday, according to A. H. Parrott, registrar. Programs for spring work will be available at that time and students are requested by the registrar to make out their schedules and register at once.

Examinations for the winter term will commence Saturday March 19 and continue during Monday and Tuesday, March 21, 22.

Saturday morning at eight o'clock classes will be quizzed. The afternoon will be for nine o'clock classes in major subjects. A like arrangement for ten and eleven o'clock classes will be made Monday and the 1:30 and 2:30 o'clock classes on Tuesday.

For minor subjects, examinations will be held during the latter half of their proper periods, thus allowing for conflicting subjects.

PHI OMEGA PI TO OBSERVE FOUNDING

Phi Omega Pi will celebrate its National Founders' Day on Sunday, by the traditional banquet. Dinner will be served at Stricker's Sandwich Shop at 5:00 p. m. A program of toasts has been arranged with Esther Skjelset as toast mistress.

Mrs. Minnie Rusk, an Honorary Member, Mrs. F. O. Olson, Deputy, Mrs. C. A. Williams, Alumni president and Erle Steen, an active alumni, and honorary members of Phi Omega Pi will attend.

Esther Skjelset has charge of the arrangements. She is assisted by Almarine Shulz, Erle Steen and Bernice Cramer.

ART CLUB INITIATES 16 MEMBERS THURSDAY

Initiation services for 16 new members of the Art Club at the North Dakota State college were held in science hall Thursday evening. Evelyn Morrow, president of the club, presided.

Students who became members at that time are: Margaret Greene, Ashland; Mae Borgen, Moorhead, Minn.; Dorothy Bain, Fisher, Minn.; Irene Albers, and Gertrude Ferguson, of Sherwood; Althea Wynn, Jane Eddy, Marion Schroeder, Mrs. R. Ottersen, and Dorothy Lieb, of Fargo; Ethel Benedict, Sabin, Minn.; Elva Lynn, Hope; Alice Peterson, Twin Valley, Minn.; Dorothy Berrigan, Moorhead, Minn.; Frances Brummond, Havana; and Doris Abel, Beach.

THREE GIRLS GET SWEATER AWARDS

Christine Rud, Helen Ballard, and Evelyn Morrow were presented with sweaters by the W. A. A. Wednesday in the gym at eight o'clock. These are the official sweaters with the N. D. monogram. The girls have earned 1,000 points in various sports. They are the first girls this year to receive sweaters. Other Co-ed athletes who have already been awarded sweaters are Gladys Bockwalt, Anita Mary Blake, Ruby Oscarson, Grace Bayliss, and Charlotte Blake.

The University of North Dakota team cinched state honors Thursday evening by turning back the Bison 24 to 22 in their final clash of a four game series. Claudie Miller, Jug Newgard and Carl Hansen made their last appearance in a basketball lineup for State College.

COLLEGE IN CHARGE OF DEMONSTRATIONS MADE IN 63 TOWNS

Dean Walster to Speak at Jamestown Banquet
Tomorrow

The Better Seed Special train in charge of a staff of seed and agriculture experts from North Dakota State college completes its state tour at Jamestown Saturday evening. A seed laboratory on wheels, the special has stopped at 63 points in the state and has been inspected by thousands of North Dakotans.

Walster Speaks

Dean H. L. Walster, head of the School of Agriculture, will be the principal speaker at a banquet to be given at Jamestown Saturday evening. Dr. Walster speaks on the theme, "Giving Good Seed a Square Deal".

The annual Alfalfa banquet, sponsored by the Jamestown Chamber of Commerce, will inaugurate an alfalfa campaign in Stutsman county under the direction of Harper Brush, '23, county agent there.

P. J. Olson, agronomist of the extension department, will also speak at Jamestown on "Recommended Varieties of Field Crops." Rex Willard and Orville Fuller are other speakers. Other college officials on the train are C. F. Monroe, director of the extension department, L. Bolley, head of the pure seed laboratories; T. E. Stoa, agronomist, and Sydney W. Hooper, publication department as well as several assistants.

College Officials in Charge

The North Dakota State college has had charge of the special while in the state. The United States Department of Agriculture, the three railways, and the Northwest Smut Prevention committee, representing commercial interests and farm magazines through out the northwest have also cooperated.

The train began its tour at Fargo, Feb. 10 and has traveled over the main and branch lines of the Northern Pacific, Great Northern and Soo railways, that furnished transportation. Putting a clean, disease-free, high quality seed of approved varieties in the ground this spring was the immediate object of the demonstration.

Towns being visited today are Mad-dock, Leeds, Minnewauken, with Sheyenne, Carrington, and Jamestown concluding the stops. Three stops daily have been made during the month's tour, morning, afternoon, and evening.

At each stop the farmers of that community inspected the exhibits, which were carried in two specially constructed 70-foot baggage cars. All the latest machinery for cleaning and treating seed was on display, germinating seed and growing plants were shown, samples of the best types and varieties and many other features. Short talks by college officials were given at each town on seed selection, treatment, disease control, cleaning of seed, sources of good seed, and probable future prices for farm products.

A TEXAN—ON CULTURE

The seat of culture is the skull, and not the school. Simple enough the saying is, scarce calling for proof. Yet many be who ignore it.

School is an admirable convenience. Yet at best it is but a place where one may educate himself, if he choose. Or rather, it is where one may begin educating himself. For education is a continuing process as long as the brain fiber holds out to burn.

The delusion lurks about that schooling is scholarship and bookishness is brain-power. There is little enough in it, but yet enough to account for much that is wrong and much that gets wrong with schools of communities and with schooling of individuals.

We can't get on without schools. Nobody in his senses would have us try. And books are even more indispensable. Without them each age would have to start afresh, unlettered and unled.

Books gather up the deeds and the aspirations of the past for our instruction and admonition. So may we begin where philosophers and statesmen left off and build with a sureness born of their travail.

But slavery to books begets slavishness only. It binds one to the doorpost of wisdom's house, yet denies him a place in the household of the wise.

And whose goes to school as to a warehouse where he may be laden with learning in so long a time goes on a fool's errand and will receive a fool's burden for his pains.

Bigger than the book—if we except the Book of Books—is the man who reads it. Bigger than the school is he who presides over it.

Books are the tools and the school is the shop. Except as the prentices learn there the will to learn, both they and the master of the shop labor in vain.

The teacher guides his pupil. But he can not carry him. Hand-in-hand they set out to come at the truth, the teacher a little way in front, to be sure, because he has been that way before. But every man must make his own footing and stand in his own tracks.

Truth is wonderfully alluring and wonderfully discouraging. It challenges and it flees away. It startles us with the suddenness of its popping out of its secretiveness. The curiosity to seek it, the constancy to pursue it, and the courage to face it when haply it is found—herein is the stuff to make learning of. And the greatest of these is courage.—Courtesy Dallas News.

1928 Yearbook Will Have Large Bison Life Section

SOCIETY, LITTLE COUNTRY THEATRE, PUBLICATIONS AND SNAPSHOTS AMONG FEATURES

One of the most outstanding features of the 1928 Bison is the representative Bison Life section, edited by Becky Keene, and consisting of seven pages of snapshots, Publications, Occasions, Society, the Little Country Theatre, Music, and other branches.

The snapshots under the head "Activities" have been taken at random about the campus during the year and throw humorous lights as well as informational on the everyday routine of the college student.

The Publications section carries the staffs of the Bison and Spectrum, Industrial Course Uni, College and State and other school publications, together with a short write-up about each.

Has Homecoming Scenes

Occasions includes a special Homecoming layout which presents for the readers' approval pictures of prize-winning floats, action pictures of the Bison-Nodak clash, and a picture of the crowd at the game. This latter picture was taken from the roof of the Chemistry building during the game and presents a birds-eye view of the 5,000 people attending the tussle. The picture was taken by Roy Corbett, college photographer.

The Society part of the section contains an attractive double-page spread of the Junior Prom, one-page spread for the Charity Ball, Senior Ball, and other social events of the year.

Doc Putnam, campus exponent of pep, will be represented with his famous Gold Star Band under the caption "Music". The Little Country Theatre section will contain brand new ideas set forth by Mr. Arvold and embracing the huge field of the theatre in all its aspects.

MAY FESTIVAL TO BE ON MAY 11-14

TWENTIETH ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL FETE WILL HAVE ATHLETIC, INDUSTRIAL, AND LITERARY CONTESTS

The Twentieth Annual Inter-High School May Festival will take place at the North Dakota State college, May 11, 12, 13, and 14, according to A. G. Arvold, chairman of the May Festival and head of the department of public discussion at the college.

Will be of General Interest

From the present outlook the contests of the festival will be exceptional in their nature, states Mr. Arvold, and they will not only prove interesting to those who participate in them, but to the general public as well.

The contests, which are open to all bona-fide high school students, have been divided into three distinct groups—athletic, industrial and literary. The athletic contests will in turn be divided into two groups, those for men and those for women.

Industrial Contests Stressed

Each industrial contest will be in the nature of a demonstration and exhibit of the work done in the high schools in art, mechanical drawing, sewing and wood-work. Contests in stock, poultry and crop judging are some of the many features in the industrial groups.

A declamatory contest, a dramatic contest, a story telling contest, the presentation of a one-act play, an extempore speech contest, an exhibit of miniature stage settings and a newspaper contest together with an exhibit of high school publications, will comprise the literary group of contests.

The May Festival is sponsored by the North Dakota State college each year for the benefit and competition of the high school students of North Dakota. This year there will be 100 prizes awarded to the winning contestants.

LIBRARY MUST ADOPT DEPARTMENT SYSTEM

Many of the books purchased by the College library in recent months have been placed in the departmental libraries of the college. This arrangement has become necessary, reports Harriet Pearson, assistant librarian, because of crowded conditions in the present library. The books are still available, however.

A select list of recent purchases for different departments, are: American medical association, Annual Reprints of the reports of the Council on pharmacy and chemistry; R. L. Buell, International Relations; W. Dallmore, The Pruning of Trees; Noel Heaton, Volatile Solvents; G. A. Hool, Concrete Practice; W. W. Jennings, History of Economic Progress in the United States; R. M. McCurdy, Garden Flowers; P. T. Moon, Imperialism; G. F. Moore, History of Religions; H. A. Overstreet, Influencing Human Behavior; M. J. Rosenau, Preventive Medicine; Johann Schiller, Sammtliche Werke; and G. A. Schmidt, Projects and the Project Method in Agricultural Education.

MENORAH SOCIETY TO HAVE DEBATE TONIGHT

A regular meeting of the Menorah Society will be held at 7:30 p. m. Friday in room 27 of the Engineering building. The program will consist of a debate between two members and several topics to be reported on by individual members.

SAALY HAS FRIENDSHIP OF DIVERS CLEANERS

Coach Leonard Saalwaecher, better known as "Saaly", had need of a tin hat last Saturday. His team combination of McPherson, Miller, Newgard, Hermes and Hahn took 58 famous shots at the hoop—nine went in. That despite a supposedly good luck omen, he received the Friday before.

One Henry Brown gave the Bison coach a hat that has just turned 125 winters. Mr. Brown's letter follows:

Dear Saaly:

This Hampshire Mascot which I am entrusting to your care is a hundred and twenty-five years old. Please keep this in your possession until called for. This has got the old hand-shake beat forty miles. I did not want to tell you before but I have been keeping this as a secret.

Win or lose we are all for you a hundred percent.

For God's sake don't let any of our enemies get a hold of this mascot.

With kindest regards,

From all the Gang,
signed, Henry Drycleaner Brown.

EBULLITIONS OF EBONY BLOTT

By Everett Wallum

Three Bison athletes, Newgard, Miller, and Hanson tucked away their yellow and green suits for the final time last night. That's nothing to call a holiday for.

MILLER AND NEWGARD HAVE WON ENOUGH LETTERS TO QUALIFY THEM AS INSTRUCTORS AT A CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL.

While Hanson, though he hasn't been a regular in the full sense of the word, wins a bronze meshed loving buttercup for hard work and determination displayed under fire.

Jug is coming back for football next fall, so maybe we ought to have a quarter holiday anyway.

IF CLAUDIE WAS COMING BACK FOR FOOTBALL, THERE WOULD BE NO ISSUING OF HOLIDAYS AT THE UNIVERSITY.

Being an Indian chief, Claudie should have made the All-American football team last fall. Indians, we have been led to suppose, are all American.

And just to prove that there is something in the sound of a name, at least, Newgard proved to be a good new guard for Saaly this basketball season.

Claudie made more points, in his college athletic career, than there are on all the cactus in Arizona.

Claudie has a reputation for being modest, but he hasn't been a bit backward about scoring points when needed he black haired athlete received more newspaper space, in this part of the country, than if he was president or a champion coffee drinker.

Now that these three capable cagers are leaving, we will soon painfully realize the truth of that old adage: "You never miss the milk 'til the well runs dry".

If all the men who frantically yelled "Claudie", in a basketball game, were laid end to end, they ought to change their socks.

Carl Hanson bears the nickname of "Hawk". A Hawk, we once learned at school, likes chickens.

And now dear students, we will hear a soul stirring ballad "When we're gone you'll soon forget us" sung by C. Miller, G. Newgard, and Carl Hanson. Following this, the trio will render that popular hit: "I'm glad 'cause I made 'U' cry".

SADDLE AND SIRLOIN NOMINATES OFFICERS

Members of the Saddle and Sirloin club met Tuesday evening in the Agricultural building. Clyde Challey, president of the club, presided.

Nominations of candidates for club offices were made at the meeting. Elections will be held two weeks later.

Dean H. L. Walster addressed the members on horticulture and landscape gardening as a means of beautifying the home.

Arrangements for a students' stock judging contest to be held soon were also discussed.

Refreshments were served.

The Lamplighter

GOOD old Leerie, the lamplighter, worked cheerfully to make the streets bright. And the lamps sputtered a friendly glow into the darkness.

The citizens of the country have taken Leerie's job. They are the lamplighters of today, and they spend 3½ cents of each tax dollar that their streets may be bright.

Good street lighting means more flourishing business sections, safe traffic, convenience, and protection.

Leerie, the faithful, has gone—but streets still need lighting. And in whatever communities college men and women elect to live, they should take a lively interest in civic improvements—including street lighting.

G-E products help light the world, haul its people and goods, turn the wheels of industry, and lessen labor in the home. Whether on MAZDA lamps, or on large or tiny motors, or on the multitude of other means of electrical service, you will find the G-E monogram wherever you go.

"For we are very lucky, with a lamp before the door, And Leerie stops to light it as he lights so many more."

March 3, 1927.

Dear Brother Torg,

Well, I've joined up with that Taka Sipa This fraternity. It's a great bunch of boys, Torg, and once in awhile we take sip o' something. Like, for instance, the new Chicken Whiskey Ever hear of it, Torg? Chicken Whiskey is the kind that you take one drink and there you LAY.

These boys are strong on preparedness, too. That's why we take sip o' so many things, getting our innards hardened up for the grub we'll have to assimilate in the next war. Some of the boys taking this Military Training aint so far-sighted, but college should teach you to look a long ways ahead. I'm already planning on buying my cap and gown from Flaten, and that'll probably be about 1933. Also, maybe by 1940, I can have some of my college debts paid.

But I started to tell you about this Military Training. I have a uniform that some bantamweight wore thru the poppies and mud of France many long years ago, and it aint what it used to be either in size or quality, but if I do say it myself, I make a pretty snappy figure dressed up as one of Uncle Sam's fightin' dough-boys, though I haven't got much dough and I think they ought to let Flaten make the uniforms.

I have to go out to drill right now, but I'll tell you more about this war business in my next letter. It's hell, all right. Hoping you're the same,
Olaf.

JENSEN SPEAKS ON VALUE OF BIRDLIFE

"Birds" was the subject of an illustrated lecture delivered by J. P. Jensen at convocation Tuesday morning. Mr. Jensen is working under the auspices of the Extension Division of the University of Minnesota.

Birds are worth their weight in gold in destroying insects and rodents. Without them, within six years we would not be able to raise crops, Mr. Jensen stated, but added that we should prize the birds not only for their economic worth but also for their atsthetic value.

The Red River valley is one of the large immigration areas for birds. Consequently we should recognize this particular asset and show our appreciation by protecting these friends, Mr. Jensen said.

Accompanying the lecture on our domestic birds was a series of colored slides, some of which were prepared by Professor A. F. Whedon, of the Department of Zoology and Physiology here.

RIFLE TEAM FIRES 3
MATCHES THIS WEEK

Rifle matches are being fired with teams of the University of Nebraska, Lincoln; University of North Dakota, and Western Maryland college, Westminster; by State College marksmen this week, according to Sergeant Chris Culpepper, in charge of the rifle team.

Next week the team will compete with the Virginia Military Institute, Rhode Island State college, Kingston, and the University of Iowa, teams.

Men firing in competition this week are: A. Bjorge, L. Plath, R. Hack, R. Millard, C. Reed, G. Barney, N. Arntson, L. Lillie, A. Johnson, F. Dvorak, A. R. Halvorson, M. Cramer, G. Hermes, J. E. Haedt, C. Ballard, H. F. Goves, T. Palmerlee, J. P. Olson, and J. E. Long.

The Hearst trophy match will be fired during the week of March 14-19 by the five man with the highest score to date.

THETA CHI PLEDGES TO GIVE PARTY SATURDAY

"Basketball" will be the theme of the dancing party to be given by the pledges of the Theta Chi fraternity for members of the active chapter and their ladies at the chapter house Saturday night.

The decorations and refreshments will conform with the idea of the great indoor game. Those in charge are: Harold Phillips, decorations; Julius Docktor, refreshments; George Hayes, general arrangements.

WILT RESISTANT FLAX STUDIES COMPILED HERE

A bulletin on "The Nature of Wilt Resistance in Flax", has recently been issued by the Agricultural Experiment station at the college.

Dr. Casper I Nelson and Mayme Dworak are the coauthors of the journal which contains scientific data on resistant qualities of flax. Graphs of the many experiments conducted to establish the data are included in the bulletin.

GAMMA RHOS LEADING IN FRATERNITY LEAGUE

The Alpha Gamma Rho quint of the campus fraternity league seems scheduled to win the cup this year. Two games out in front of the Theta Chis, the "Ag" five are in small danger. They have still to play two games in the second round, but victories over their closest rivals, the Theta Chis by an 18-17 score, the Alpha Sigma Taus zy a 22-11 count leave the Rhos quite secure.

Other games run off in the past week include: Theta Chi winning from Sigma Taus, 15-12; Sigma Taus from Kappa Psi, 17-11; Delta Sigs from Kappa Psi, 25-7; Rhos from Kappa Psi, 26-6; Kappa Phis from Delta Pi, 24-9 and the Theta Chis from the Kappa Phis 15-7.

MOVIES HURT SOME PEOPLES' EYES

Apparently these folks have not heard of the special lenses we supply for eyes that are sensitive to light and the movies. These lenses prevent all annoyances from these causes. There is no reason why YOU should be bothered in this way, if you ARE bothered. Glad to explain further to you at any time.
