The military ball is the largest social event of the second semester at the college and is open to all military men of the two cities. Plans are being made for the accommodation of 150 couples. Tickets for the affair may be obtained from any member of the fraternity or from Sherdahl's. Leroy Lillie, president of the chapter, is chairman of the ticket sale committee.

HOCKEY LEAGUE TO BEGIN PLAY FRIDAY

Hockey players at the college will begin tournament play Friday at 4 p. m. when team "N" meets team "D". The schedule of play will continue throughout February, with about 40 men participating in the games.

Captain Smith, hockey coach, is negotiating for a game between the Bison puck team and that of the University of North Dakota. Smith's Varsity squad has been held up somewhat by severe weather, but regular practices are again in order.

Last week the St. Thomas hockey team defeated Minnesota's ice team by a 4 to 2 score, although the Cadets lost a previous game to the Gophers. On a comparative basis, the Bison show much promise with a .500 average against the Cadets.

ONE ACT PLAYS TO BE ON WEDNESDAY

The second program in the series of one-act plays will be given by the class in play production of the North Dakota Agricultural college at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday at the Little Country theatre.

The plays to be given are: "Newly Married Couple", directed by Amy Erickson; "The Mayor and the Manicure", directed by Floy Beatty; "Drums of Oude", directed by Eva Wilner; "The Rector", directed by Doris Boyle; "Man in the Bowler Hat" under the direction of Walter Boerth; and "Suppressed Desires", bing directed by Gertrude Walsh.

The party followed a Valentine scheme with programs being in the shape of hearts, the rooms being decorated in red and white crepe paper. Refreshments, served at midnight, also corresponded.

During the evening a special feature was given by Charlotte Blake in the form of a clog dance. Miss Ruby Grimes and Mr. Davis acted as chaperones for the evening. Out of town guests were Marion Sorlie and Stanley Wilner.

"PEER GYNT" TO BE STAGED HERE

HAROLD FOG, CONSTANCE MELCHOIR SELECTED FOR CHIEF ROLES—50 STUDENTS IN CAST

The Little Country theatre Players of the North Dakota Agricultural College have selected Henrik Ibsen's Drama, Peer Gynt, as their terms production to be presented in the Little Country theatre March 1st and 2nd. The play, a powerful drama of Scandinavian life, is being presented as an experiment for the students in play production, to determine what can be done in any small community theatre.

Scenery used in the play will be painted by members of the class and the cast which numbers fifty principals will be selected from the student body. The role of Peer Gynt will be taken by Harold Fog, a native of Denmark, who has studied the play in the original language. Mr. Fog, a student at the college, came to this country in 1920 and since that time has resided at Fort Ransom.

The part of Ase, the mother of Peer Gynt, will be taken by Constance Melchoir. The remainder of the cast has not yet been selected.

Professor Arvold in a recent interview stated that people all over the state have become interested in the play and have stated their intention of attending its presentation.

VARIED PROGRAM ON FOR FARMERS' WEEK

An interesting program has been laid out for farmers attending here this week, according to college officials in charge of the Farmers' activities.

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday will be given over to a discussion of bees, their care and management, with Prof. J. A. Munro, head of entomology department in charge.

Prof. L. T. Floyd, provincial apiarist of Manitoba, and E. R. Root of A. L. Root company, will speak. Mr. Root will give his regular Redpath chautauqua lecture at 8 p. m., this evening at the Little Country theatre. A demonstration in which 10,000 bees participate will be a feature of his program.

Other speakers on the program are: Prof. J. A. Munro, O. A. Stevens, and M. C. Tanquary.

Studies of horticulture will take up the latter part of the week with Prof. C. B. Waldron in charge. Speakers will include Prof. Waldron, A. E. Yeager, F. G. Storrs, C. A. Gillette.

FULL CREDIT TO BE GIVEN FOR MUSIC WORK AT COLLEGE

Full Time Instructor For Dr. Putnam's Department Recommended

All private instruction of both technical and theoretical nature given in the music department of the State College will be allowed credit, it was announced by Dr. C. S. Putnam, music director at the college.

Students carrying one lesson per day preparation will be given two hours credit per term, Dr. Putnam said.

Credits Honored

The credits earned in the music department can be used toward a major in the schools of science and literature, education and home economics. In all the other schools at the college this credit can only be used as an elective.

Included in the changes and recommendations that have been made in the music department is a recommendation by the curriculum committee to the faculty council that at least one and perhaps two fulltime instructors be employed to teach theoretical subjects and to direct one of the orchestras and glee clubs.

This proposed arrangement for the coming academic year will relieve the present director from some of the work he is handling and give him more time to spend with the Gold Star band, research work and composition.

Establishment of a school of music at the college is expected by faculty members who are closely in touch with the work, Dr. Putnam said.

CADETS TO FIRE 7TH CORPS AREA MATCHES

The Cadet rifle team is scheduled for a busy gunning season during February, it is shown by the team's schedule.

Firing of the first stage in the annual Seventh Corps area competition will begin this week, according to Captain Albert E. Andrews, who coaches the team. The remaining stages of the area match will be fired in the next three weeks and collegiate competition will begin February 19 when the Bison riflemen compete in a match with Michigan State college and Culver Military Academy teams.

The local team fires against the University of Illinois February 26 and against the University of North Dakota and Western Maryland teams March 5. Rhode Island State, Iowa University, and University of Illinois teams compete with the Bison marksmen March 12.

Following a match with the University of Nebraska on March 19, the local team will enter the National Hearst Trophy match in April.

Alpha Gamma Rhos Have Pledge Party Friday

BISON, MORNINGSIDE MEET IN IMPORTANT LOOP GAME TONIGHT

South Dakota State Loses to Local Quint in Sluggish 28-20 Game

The Bison lost to South Dakota University by a 27 to 23 score at Vermillion, Monday night.

The Bison, through a fast breaking attack, in the first quarter, piled up enough points to assure a 28 to 20 victory over the Jackrabbit five in the game at the Armory Friday evening that was a new departure from good basketball.

Whenever the Bunnie attack brot them within a few points of the Bison lead the Saalymen retaliated with a rally which again placed the Bison at a comfortable lead over their opponents.

Bison Get Early Margin

Hahn started the scoring with a field goal, and a counter from the foul line gave the Bison a three point lead. Schaefer scored a long shot for the Jackrabbit quint. The Bison then started out on a scoring rampage which placed them seven points ahead of the South before they were able to do any further scoring.

The second quarter, lacked the fast play which characterized the first quarter the teams playing on equal terms. The half ended with the Bison leading 21-13.

Ekern, State Star

South Dakota, led by Ekern and Schaefer, came back with a strong attack in the opening period of the second stanza. Ekern succeeded in getting within close range of the Bison basket but his scoring attempts were repeatedly quelled by the superb guarding of Captain Newgard.

The shooting in this period was erratic, both teams missing numerous short shots. The scoring of the final stanza was even, giving the Bison the maximum 28-20 count.

Schaefer, State forward, was the outstanding performer for the Southmen. Schaefer tied for scoring honors with Hermes who compiled a total of nine points, eight of the points resulting from field goals.

Newgard's defensive work was a big factor in the Bison win. Claudie Miller displayed excellent offensive work as well as on the defense.

BEING HUMAN

Now that the appropriations bill for the North Dakota Agricultural (State) college has gone before the legislature, we may sit back and as a student body, twiddle our thumbs. What puny efforts the students may have put forth to endow our college with a conventional and fair name, and otherwise to impress the visiting boards with the need of a new armory, a new library, and sundries will more than likely pass off the backs of these astute economists like water off a duck's back.

Interesting at least is it to read newspaper accounts of what may be happening at Bismarck. One can readily see the immensity of our demands for a new armory and elbow room in which to study. We should not be taking up the legislators' time with foolish requests for enclosed playgrounds and study halls.

There is much more urgent business. Just now the newspapers tell us, the timeprest legislators are having a sociable game of "bridge". The game is evidently being played in accordance with Fargo-Moorhead rules. With $5,000 spent here and $5,000 there for surveying bridge sites along the Missouri river, North Dakota will soon have its millionaire Indians also.

Two other legislators are reported to be having troubles with their personal barbers. Of course the impertinence of the Moler college graduate must be cared for just as are our own appropriation requests.

The newspapers also tell us that other legislators rode a hobby to its grave in the way of a coffin factory at the State training school. Just how or where they were to get the wood in North Dakota for even roughboxes to say nothing of coffins this writer does not know. They buried the issue anyway, so should we.

But nevertheless students at our own state institution are very much alive. We're watching faithfully for the outcome of President Coulter's plea of further architectural embellishments of our campus, even though they be in substance, mere cowbarns. We need buildings of every size, shape and manner just now. That's a personal matter with each and every student; he feels it every day.

Sports are extra-curricular pursuits at this college. But they are necessary. Only last week, we again demonstrated the great part sports play in our students' life.

Last Tuesday night, student basketball teams played basketball until 12:20 a. m. Wednesday morning, because the armory floor was available at no other time. The idea of playing basketball after midnight may seem ridiculous, but what do you think of building a coffin factory at Mandan, surveying half the Missouri river bed and taking time out to get in 'some barber talk':

We could go on to enumerate other hardships here. At the last convocation, the speaker kept her coat on, as did the students, for want of better protection. Crowded conditions have been generally described before.

The fact that the state lawmakers are dawdling with bills for coffin factories, and other seemingly inane bills show one thing. They are very human.

We only can hope that the lawmakers will be human when they consider the college needs. They aren't on the campus every day, but they need not go far afield to see the handwork of this college.

MUSIC CREDIT

Credits for music work are to be honored in the different schools of the college. Recognition of the importance of work being done in Dr. Putnam's department could not help but come. The part music plays in our own student life has always been recognized by the students. We feel, without undue pride, that our band has no equal. Students putting in time at band practice and private lessons should get credit.

Music as one of the arts cannot be given too much leeway at State college. A student who has developed musical talent at once gets a margin on another who cannot. Just now there are several student orchestras made up of students working their way through school. The visit of the Hamline Glee Club illustrates another activity that might be developed.

THETA CHIS LOSE LEAD TO SIGMEN

KAPPA PHIS TROUNCE THETA CHIS TO PLACE IDLE DELTA SIGMA FIVE AT TOP

The league leading Theta Chis in campus basketball play were toppled from first place Saturday by dropping their game with the Alpha Kappa Phi quint 25 to 16. The Theta Chis had regained first place Thursday by defeating the Alpha Sigma Taus 11 to 8, only to drop to second place Saturday.

First place honors were held mutually by the Alpha Gamma and the Delta Kappa Sigma quints. The Gamma Rhos jumped into a tie by winning a hard fought contest from the Kappa Psis 20 to 16. Mach starred for the Gamma Rhos and Miller for the Kappa Psis.

The Delta Pi basketeers lost their fourth straight game in a slow contest with the Kappa Phis 26-9. Wambach starred with three field goals and a free throw. The Delta Pis are the only team that has been playing consistently this season.

As the feature game of the week, the Theta Chi's loss to a fast, hard breaking Kappa Phi team. They showed their first real basket ball this season to gain an early lead in a game featured by clever passing and good guarding although marred by fumbles. With the half ending 11 to 4 in favor of the Kappa Phi men, the Theta Chis started a rally in the second half to bring the score to a 11-8 basis. The rally, however, was short lived and the teams played on an even basis the remainder of the game.

Olsen and Wambach played stellar roles for the Kappa Phis while Millard and Burgess featured the Theta play. Burgess and Wambach divided scoring honors with eight points each.

The team standings to date are:

	W.	L.
Delta Kappa Sigma	3	1	.750
Alpha Gamma Rho	3	1	.750
Theta Chi	3	2	.600
Alpha Kappa Phi	2	2	.500
Kappa Psi	2	2	.500
Alpha Sigma Tau	2	3	.400
Delta Pi	0	4	.000

CUPID'S QUIVER IS KAPPA DELTA PRIZE

Harken onto this, ye bachelors.

Seven bejeweled pins—sorority pins—have been lost recently by members of Sigma Psi chapter of Kappa Delta, national sorority at State college.

Co-Ed life has been in a furore since rumors of the happening were wafted in upon the campus. Presidents of their respective sororities have already begun counting noses at regular meetings.

Even charter members of the bachelor clubs at several fraternities, men who have survived more than one of Dan Cupid's arrowy assaults, are wearing sodden looks and saying less.

But to call roll, and to allay worries of the several sorority heads, Sir Cupid has taken in pawn the Kappa Delta pins of, Beatrice Sjouist, Robina Wylder, Bertha Sommerdorf, Carroll Pepper, Clara Berg, Alice Flaten, and Ida Anderson.

NON-SORORITY, PHI OMEGA TEAMS WIN

Displaying a tight defense and an accurate offense, the non-sorority basketball team easily defeated the Delta Phi Beta team, 23 to 4, Wednesday afternoon. After leading at the half, the Sigma Thetas fell before a Phi Omega Pi rally and lost 23 to 15.

Grace Bayliss starred for the Beta team in their tussle with the independents while Christine Rud was the outstanding player in the latter line-up, bearing the brunt of their offensive tactics.

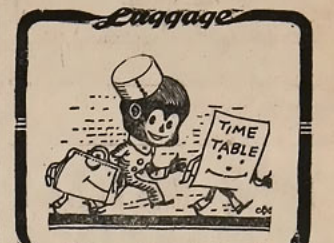

Marion Burnett took all the scoring honors for the Thetas and Ruby Oscarson did most of the point getting for the Phi Omega team.

EBULLITIONS OF EBONY BLOTT

By Everett Wallum

The college library, we note, is on a new schedule. Let's see, what league are they playing in?

NOW THAT THIS CHEERLEADING CONTROVERSY IS ON IN FULL BLAST, WE HAVEN'T HAD SO MUCH FUN SINCE THE CO-ED FROZE HER KNEE.

The editor probably wrote the thing under the assumption that the editorial may not have been constructive, but neither was the World War which had to be fought, nevertheless.

While the cheerleaders probably find contentment in the thought that the Editor wouldn't look so cute in cheer-ing togs either.

ANYWAY, HURT AND BALLARD HAVE A BIG BACKER IN KNEESHAW WHO HOLDS AS MANY OFFICES AS THERE ARE WARTS ON A DILL PICKLE.

Editor Matson has been traveling incognito ever since the upheaval.

There may be a lot of fraternal jealousy on the campus, but we never see the Menorah society and the P. O. P.'s fighting over a pledge.

This thing ought to blow over pretty soon. There is enough hot air propelling it.

Kneeshaw said that the Editor wrote a scurrilous editorial. We haven't looked the word up yet, but if it's what we think it is, something ought to be done all right.

It may have been scurrilous, but it wasn't scareless.

Fraternal jealousy does manifest itself sometimes, all right. Only last week a Sigma Tau reported that a Kappa Phi had placed a tack on his chair in a classroom.

NO DOUBT THE SIGMA TAU HAD TO STAND FOR IT.

This school, we are told, is too small for fraternity jealousies. Just wait till we get these new buildings and a couple thousand more students. Then we can all be jealous and have a swell time.

KNEESHAW SAID THAT THAT TYPE OF EDITORIAL WAS A SEASONAL AFFAIR. SEASONAL, ALL RIGHT. LOTS OF SPICE.

Now if Cramer will only give his viewpoint, the case can rest with the jury.

If fraternity men were as good at cheerleading as they are at pledge leading, there wouldn't have been any trouble.

Well, we suppose that all the world's a stage, and that somebody has to play the villain.

It was implied that a couple stuwanted to do yell leading in order to get a trip to the "U". They would have to pay some of us to go there.

"The fact is, that civilization requires slaves. The Greeks were quite right there. Unless there are slaves to do the ugly, horrible, uninteresting work, culture and contemplation become almost impossible. Human slavery is wrong, insecure, and demoralizing. On mechanical slavery, on the slavery of the machine, the future of the world depends."
—Oscar Wilde

SLAVES

In a quarter-century the General Electric Company has produced electric motors having a total of more than 350,000,000 man-power. Electric light, heat, and transportation have also contributed their part to the freeing of men. These are America's slaves. Through their service American workers do more, earn more, and produce quality goods at lower cost than anywhere else in the world.

The college-trained man is the first to grasp these facts which raise man from a mere source of physical power to be a director of power, thus realizing the true economic value of the human mind.

You will find this monogram on all kinds of electrical machinery. To insure quality, ask for it on equipment when you buy for factory, office, or home.

A series of G-E advertisements showing what electricity is doing in many fields will be sent on request. Ask for booklet GEK-18.

BISON FROSH SMOTHER HANKINSON FIVE 41-9

The Baby Bison dribbled and passed their way to a 64-16 victory over the Hankinson high quint in a game which was an attraction to the Bison-South Dakota State tilt.

The Yearlings received some stiff opposition during the first few minutes of play, but their scoring machine was soon underway and the half found the high school team practically smothered under a 41-9 count. The high school men furnished more opposition in the closing stanza and held the yearlings to a 23-7 score.

Hickerson proved the star of the contest as he often stopped the Hankinson offensive attack and brought the ball back to the Hankinson basket with the fast breaking Frosh offensive. Hayes worked well for the Frosh netting nine field goals and a free throw.

Zander, Hankinson forward, was high score man for the high school making three field goals. King, high school center, also played well.
