NEWGARD ELECTED CAPTAIN OF BASKETBALL QUINT

CORTRIGHT MAKES 23 GAME SCHEDULE FOR BISON NETMEN

Local Cagers Meet All Schools In Conference; Team Plays
Illini On Holiday Trip

George "Jug" Newgard was named captain of the Bison basketball team at a meeting of four of last year's lettermen on Wednesday afternoon. The vote was unanimous.

Newgard is playing his fourth and final year of basketball and has played a stellar game at forward during his sojourn at college. His prep work was spent on teams of the Mandan high school. Newgard has also pastimed at an end job on Bison grid elevens for the past three seasons. He is a junior in the School of Education.

Bison Play 23 Games

The quint schedule for the Bison basketball season was given out last week by Ion J. Cortright, athletic director, prior to his leaving for the annual meeting of the North Central Conference coaches at Chicago. The coaches attended the Army-Navy game Saturday.

Coach Saalwaechter, new basketball tutor, will put his men through 23 games during the next three months. Included on the Bison schedule is a jaunt during the Christmas holidays into Illinois territory where the local team meets the University of Illinois quint, four other Illinois teams as well as Minnesotan contenders.

December 17 marks the opening of the Bison schedule. Valley City Teachers invade Fargo on that date and the Bison return the visit on December 22. A week later, or December 28, (Continued on page four)

DOLVE RETURNS FROM SCIENTISTS' MEETING

Prof. R. M. Dolve, acting dean of the School of Mechanic Arts, returned recently from the Association of Land Grant colleges convention in Washington and a technical conclave held at Carnegie Institute of Technology at Pittsburgh.

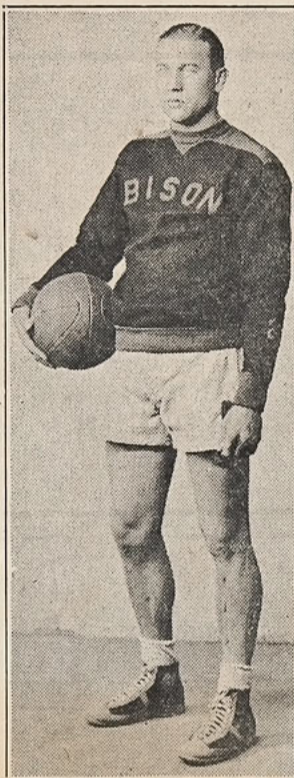

Mr. Dolve attended the Pittsburgh meeting prior to the Washington convention of Land Grant college presidents and deans.

Dr. Cecil H. Londer, director of fuel research of the department of Scientific Research, London; and Dr. Friedrich Bergins, Heidelberg, Germany, were foreign representatives attending the Carnegie Institute meeting.

Dr. Bergins discussed the processes of transformation of coal into oil by means of hydrogenation.

While at Washington, D. C., Professor Dolve attended the sessions of the engineering section of the Land Grant college convention and also the convention of the Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education. The latter has conducted a nationwide study for its problems for the past three years and the meeting consisted largely of a report on the findings. Bulletins have been published on the material collected by the national body.

CLASSES RIVAL IN PLAYS THURSDAY

BE STAGED BY CLASSES IN THEATRE.

The Seventh Annual One-Act Play contest for classes of the North Dakota Agricultural College will be staged at 8 p. m., Thursday, in the Little Country Theatre at the college.

"A Mountain Wedding", by Pearl Franklin, will be presented by members of the senior class. The play is based on a scene taken from "Thunder—or Howdy, Folks", by John Golden.

Its cast members are: Jorgen Birke-land, as Pa McBirney; Constance Mel-choir, in the part of Ma McBirney; Mercade Cramer, as Jeff Coulter; Beatrice Sjoquist plays the part of Mandy Coulter, and Walter Clasen as Dick Babb. Grace Bayliss is directing the play.

The juniors present "Mansions", by Hildegard Flamer. Those having parts in the play are: Geraldine Ewald, as Harriet Wilde; Margaret Revell, in the role of Lydia Wilde; and John Bohlig, as Joe Wilde. Virginia Wright will direct the play.

"The Passing of Chow Chow" will be staged by members of the sophomore class. Curtis Balard plays the part of Mr. Russell, the attorney; Evelyn Blakeslee plays the role of Mrs. Standish, and Fossum Narum, of Mr. Standish. Margaret Donovan directs the play.

MEMBERS OF STATE BOARDS ADDRESS STUDENTS TUESDAY

Administrative and Budgeting Bodies Recognize Needs of Growing College
Members of the State Board of Administration and of the Budget board addressed students at Convocation Tuesday morning, and made a general tour of inspection of the college during their two day stay here.

Budget Board Here

Three of the five members of the Budget Board were present Tuesday. Mrs. Minnie D. Craig, Esmond, one of the first woman legislators in North Dakota, and vice-chairman of the House of Representatives appropriations committee; P. T. Kretschmar, Venturia, chairman of the Senate's appropriation committee, and John Steen, Rugby, state auditor and secretary of the Budget board, were in attendance. Governor A. G. Sorlie, chairman of the Budget body, and Attorney General George F. Shafer, Watford City, were unable to be present.

Members of the Board of Administration present were, R. B. Murphy, Grafton, chairman; F. E. Diehl, Bowman; W. J. Church, Leeds; Minnie J. Nielson, Bismarck, superintendent of public instruction; and Joseph A. Kitchen, Sentinel Butte, commissioner of agriculture and labor.

Dr. John Lee Coulter, president of the college, presided at the convocation, and introduced R. B. Murphy, administrative board chairman.

Murphy, Kitchen Speak

Mr. Murphy outlined the work of the boards and some of their problems. Budget board members showed themselves to be aware of the needs of the college and virtually assured students that every consideration possible would be shown towards filling such needs.

Mr. Kretschmar reviewed the history of the Budget board and the many duties placed upon it. It has to apportion 13 million dollars appropriated for the maintenance of state institutions and governing costs.

Joseph A. Kitchen stated, in effect, that he recognized the dire need for an athletic building and armory at the college, and would urge its erection.

COLLEGE EXPERTS GIVE RADIO TALKS ON RUST

"Rust and Its Control" was the theme discussed by Dean H. L. Bolley, of the North Dakota Agricultural college, on the regular radio program broadcasted from WDAY by the college from 7:30 p. m. to 8:15 p. m. Monday.

George Mayoue, state agent in plant pathology and in charge of barberry eradication in the state, outlined the Barberry campaign in its relation to rust prevention as the second speaker.

Programs are being broadcasted from station WDAY at the stated hour every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday by a special arrangement made by college officials with the city station.

FORMER STUDENT HEADS NEW CONCERN IN CITY

Morris Orton Winter, a student in the School of Mechanic Arts during 1913, has recently been transferred to Fargo as manager of the northwest branch of the Western Harvester company of California.

Mr. Winter had been stationed at Long Beach, California for several years but was transferred to Fargo when the Western Harvester company established a branch here.

STUDENT HIT BY TRAIN IN SHELDON

THEODORE TORGESON, FRESH-MAN PHARMACIST, INJURED ON THANKSGIVING DAY.

Theodore Torgeson, Jr., freshman in the School of Pharmacy, was struck by a Northern Pacific train at Sheldon when he had gone to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents.

Mr. Torgeson was taken to St. John's hospital, Fargo, shortly after the accident in a semiconscious condition. He sustained a broken arm, and bruises about the head. It was first thought that he might have a fractured skull. Mr. Torgeson was released from the hospital Friday noon.

The accident occurred about 10 a. m. Thursday when Torgeson was crossing the tracks was struck by a passenger train leaving the station.

It is thought that the student observing a freight train on a side track failed to see the approaching train which struck him, according to E. L. Farnham, station agent at Sheldon. The freight train was moving east, and the passenger train which struck Torgeson, was going west.

A snow plow attached to the passenger engine is thought to have saved the student from further injuries by shunting him from the path of the train.

Theodore is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Torgeson, farmers near Sheldon, with whom he was to spend Thanksgiving vacation.

LAW BANS NIGHT LIFE OF INDIGO REVELERS

"Night Life" on the campus has been banned. Dick Kraft, superintendent of grounds, and several of the more intolerant professors are responsible for the "Cleanup"—so a gloomy architect hinted to a Spectrum reporter.

It is no longer possible for an architect's mother to mistake her son, as he comes home at breakfast time, for the new milkman. The devotees of art and drawing are driven from the engineering building at midnight. No architect student is allowed to work his problem after that hour.

Sundry scandals instigated action by Mr. Kraft and the all-suffering professors. Architects insisted on using the study benches for daybeds, and Boyle's and Newton's laws were unscrupulously neglected.

Since the architects' unfortunate "lockout," the journalistic clique revel alone in the campus vestige of "Night Life."

MARGARET TAYLOR VINCENT ST. JOHN GIVE SONG RECITAL

New York Artists On Program
Of Popular, Folk Song,
Opera Selections

Margaret Taylor and Vincent St. John will appear in a concert and operatic recital as the second number of the Sixteenth Annual Lyceum series of the North Dakota Agricultural college at 8 o'clock this evening in the college armory.

Mrs. Taylor, a soprano, and Mr. St. John, a tenor, will present a varied program of popular and grand opera numbers.

Opera Selections Given

The New York artists' operatic selections will be taken from scenes of the Italian opera, "Cavalleria Rusticana" and the Spanish classic, "La Dolores." In the former, Mr. St. John interprets the part of "Turiddu," and Margaret Taylor plays the role of "Santuzza."

Their repertoire of popular songs, besides several of the later selections, will include Irish and Spanish folk songs.

It will be the second appearance of the New York opera singers in Fargo during the year. They were here last April.

CO-ED ATHLETIC CLUB HAS BOWLING TRY-OUT

Members of the Women's Athletic association of the college are practicing bowling from 6:30 to 8:30 p. m. every Tuesday and Thursday at the College Y. M. C. A. alleys, according to Charlotte Blake, who has been elected team manager and bowling instructor.

A class tournament, in which four members of each class compete, will be run off soon. The outstanding performer on each quartet will then be chosen to make up the varsity four. At the close of the season, the two high scorers of the varsity team are designated college champions. They receive letters which are awarded on a point basis.

Members who have reported for team practice are, Ruby Oscarson, Anita Mary Blake, Gladys Bockwaldt, Edna Steeres, Elfe Hans, Luella McDunn, Grace Swanson, Frances Douglas, Mary Jongeward, Clara Murie, Leah Carlson, Gertrude Walsh, Mary McCoy, and Charlotte Blake.

DELTA KAPPA SIGMA PLEDGE PARTY FRIDAY

Active members of Delta Kappa Sigma fraternity will entertain their pledges at a informal dancing party at the Elks Club on Friday evening, December third, commencing at eight o'clock.

Howard Swinney heads the committee in charge of arrangements and is assisted by Oliver Radde, Hugh McMath and Thomas Early.

Patrons and Patronesses will be, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Parrot and Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Hunter.

SO WILLING NOW

The Bison basketball schedule is a grand reversal of the one experienced last year. In so much that coaches of the different schools in the North Central conference have shown a change of heart since the last quint season, it must signify something.

Have they decided that maintaining the integrity of the Conference is more important than a championship. Are they beginning to live the creeds of sportmanship as well as teach them?

To other members of the Conference, the question may seem a "dragging out of skeletons. The fickle paper championship that coaches chose to hand another college last spring when the Bison were actual champions, is not soon to be forgotten here. It may have had some bearing on the ease that the local team had in scheduling games this year. To climax it all, Creighton is coming north.

The change in the manner of contracting games from the verbal form to the written one is an excellent one. But it only emphasizes the weaknesses of men professing to be sportsmen. Coach Spears' action in taking a step that may rob his team of much of its power, and which will certainly affect the famous "Minnesota shift" is an example of "bigness." Spears might have sulked. When other coaches hesitated, he took a step that made for harmony in the Big Ten.

Insomuch that the coach's job depends upon his ability to win games, the self-centered, often unfair, actions of coaches may be excused in part. But giving the other fellow a fair proposition means that he'll come back and trade some more. The particular conference we are in calls for plenty of trading—fair trading—not the bickering cabal type. Then we should practice what we teach.

"THIRD—AND LAST CALL!"

The masthead of the Spectrum has assumed such proportions that it is in danger of becoming the ship. There are several members of the staff that have no license to their present position. They have done absolutely nothing. Promises do not make a newspaper.

In justice to the staff members who are sincerely trying to contribute news, to make the Spectrum representative and progressive, the editor has decided to give them due credit and scrape off any barnacles that parade themselves as "journalists." Action will be taken this week. Incidentally, the editor is kept too busy putting out the sheet and trying to acquire book knowledge to be bothered with the individual that comes to the editor to get news instead of scouting the sources. News is everywhere on the campus; if the editor knows about it, he'll publish what is fit.

Student Directory Shows 1350 Persons At College

GUIDES MAY BE OBTAINED AT REGISTRAR'S OFFICE THIS WEEK

The official directory of the North Dakota Agricultural college, containing the names of 1109 students and of 241 college faculty and staff residents, was released this week by A. H. Parrott, registrar.

Students may obtain the directory at the Registrar's office.

A feature added to the directory this year is the listing of every social and technological organization connected with the college as well as the officers of such organizations, class officers, and students affiliated with college publications.

241 Not Students

The 241 names listed in the faculty section of the directory are placed in four classes; resident instructors, experiment station workers, extension department workers, and those who are not officially associated with the college. The actual instructional staff is less than 241 persons, although experts attached to the experiment and extension departments serve as instructors in state educational movements.

There are 19 social or social professional organizations listed, of which six are sororities and thirteen fraternities.

Sororities listed are, Delta Phi Beta, Kappa Delta, Phi Kappa Lambda, Phi Omega Pi, Phi Upsilon Omicron, Kappa Delta and Sigma Theta. Kappa Alpha is a professional pharmaceutical organization, aid Phi Upsilon Omicron, a professional home economics group.

Social, social professional and honorary fraternities at the college are, Alpha Kappa Phi, Alpha Sigma Tau, Delta Kappa Sigma, and Theta Chi, social academic groups. Social professional organizations are, Alpha Gamma Rho, agriculture; Alpha Phi Omega, honorary chemistry; Alpha Zeta, honorary agriculture; Delta Pi, engineering; Gamma Tau Sigma, journalism; Kappa Tau Delta, architecture; Kappa Psi, pharmacy; and Scabbard and Blade, military.

Fifteen technological clubs are affiliated with departments of the college. Organizations so listed are, the Agricultural, Architectural, Art, Chemists', Edwin Booth Dramatic, Education, Home Economics, N. D. Letterman's, Engineers', N. D. A. C. Pharmacy, Saddle and Sirloin clubs, and the Women's Athletic Association, YMCA and YWCA.

Student publications and staffs listed are, the Bison, college yearbook; the Spectrum, semi-weekly newspaper; and the State College Engineer, technical quarterly.

Officers of student activities groups such as the Bisonites, and Bisonettes, cheer clubs; Senior Staff, and Student Commission, student governing body, are also listed.

EBULLITIONS OF EBONY BLOTT

By Everett Wallum

MYTHICAL ALL-COLLEGE ELEVEN

Thousands upon thousands of letters have recently been sent, and I have been asked to pick an all-college football team. I don't know who the letters were sent to, but anyway someone dared me to do it under penalty of expulsion from the 400.

With the aid of a deck of cards, the four winds, and a questionable dream, the following choice was made:

CENTER—Hans Tronnes.

RIGHT GUARD—Fossum Narum.

RIGHT TACKLE—"Doc" Putnam.

RIGHT END—Ralph Hollands.

QUARTERBACK—Dick Hackenberg.

RIGHT HALF—Forest Whedon.

FULL BACK—Kenneth McCullough

ASKANASE, as left end and captain of this formidable aggregation, is supreme in his position. His ability to dispute decisions stomps him as a leader, and whoever follows him is sure to elect to something or other. True, his arms are a trifle short to act as an end, but he can talk just as fluently with his short upper extremities.

AXEL'S experience as janitor removes all doubt as to his efficiency at left tackle. He is good on paper anyway, and will be indispensable at cleaning up the opposition.

CRAMER absolutely can not be left off this selection so he will be left at home, as water will be piped to the playing field.

ANDREWS, who was an aviator in the war, should prove a good man at diagnosing an aerial attack. Two signal flags shall be entrusted to his keeping with which he will signal to the backfield the direction of the forward pass.

TRONNES is chosen for the important center job because his hair is light enough to prevent anyone confusing it with the ball. The placing of Tronnes next to Andrews shows the integrity of the chooser. These two have a mutual understanding as to what is good humor, and they can keep the morale of the team at a high pitch by virtue of their gishing, boy-ant banterings.

NARUM, the battering bambino of the bookstore, is placed at right guard because he always has the punch. The team he plays with will have plenty of chance to win—at a dime a throw.

PUTNAM, at right tackle, can make the enemy dance to his music. If he can decompose the opposition like he can compose music, his gridiron future is made.

HOLLANDS is placed at right end because he is business manager of the Bison. Anyone that's at the money end of anything is at the right end. First down can always be made by letting Ralph fall down with the ball in his outstretched hands.

HACKENBERG is given the pilot post because he is good on passes. Especially railroad passes. As Dick is used to throwing things at Ralph, the Hackenberg to Hollands passing combination should prove a sensation—if not a riot.

WHEDON is honored with the right halfback position because his work in the zoological laboratory stamps him as one who can pick the line to pieces. He will be a slashing halfback.

MATSON is placed at left half because he always leaves half of his copy in some out of the way place. Wally would be a good man to get an eighteen point lead.

McCULLOUGH, at fullback, is the masterpiece in this selection. Little reck the opposition what fiendish cunning ticks behind that ethereal face! The opposition will think that he came on the field to tell his dad that mama wants him, and won't watch him when he carries the ball to the goal on his little wagon.

What a team. What? A team! What! A team?

MENORA CHAPTER FORMED ON CAMPUS

A local chapter of the Inter-Collegiate Menorah Association has been organized on the campus. Membership in the club which has as its purpose the study of Jewish culture and ideals, is open to all college students.

A temporary organization was effected recently at which time Burnie Rutz, junior in the school of Chemistry, and Pauline Yuster, freshman in the school of Science and Literature, were elected temporary chairman and secretary, respectively.

The association, which was founded in 1913, has branch chapters in most of the larger universities and colleges throughout the country.

Ruth Bavy has been instrumental in organizing the local unit and plans are already being completed for various activities which are to be participated in during the coming season.

NICODEMUS ELECTS COURSE IN SCIENCE

A new student has come to reside on our campus in the form of a wise old owl. Yes, you're right. He has taken up residence in Jerry's old cage in Mr. Miller's laboratory. The owl was shot in the wing by a game warden who brought it to Mr. Miller to be cared for, according to the zoology instructor. The bird, being wise, and unlike most caged wild birds and animals, made friends at once.

What to name the wise old bird was a great topic of discussion for three days after the bird's arrival. Nicodemus was finally decided upon as the most appropriate name and so it will be called when it looks down on future students from inside its glass cage.

REORGANIZATION OF ART CLUB IS MADE

To raise the standards of membership, a reorganization program of the College Art Club was approved by its members at the regular meeting Thursday evening, reports Evelyn Morrow, president.

Under the new plan the Club will become an honorary organization instead of entrance requirements being based on completion of one term of art.

For the first time in the history of the organization it will have a club room devoted entirely to its own use. The clay modeling room in science hall has been given over to the club to be used as a club room by Miss Hatch, art instructor.

GIRLS QUINT TEAMS STAGE TOURNAMENT

Managers for the class and sorority basketball teams have been chosen. Practice is being held each day except Friday at 4:30 p. m. and there has been a large number out. Prospects for the tournaments are very favorable. A class tournament will be held at the beginning of the winter term and it will be followed by the sorority tournament. The managers are, Freshmen, Olive Osness; Sophomores, Ethel Smith; Upper Class, Ruby Oscarson; Phi Omega Pi, Virginia Sands; Phi Kappa Lambda, Grace Bayliss; Sigma Theta, Ethel Grimson; Non-sorority, Clara Murie.

First Bison Harrier Team Shows Well

Coach Saalwaechter's harriers ended a successful introductory season of cross country running in their final meet which took place on homecoming day. In the initial run the long distance men made an impressive showing by traversing a three mile course at a fast clip. The runners were next entertained by the Minnesota hill and dale men in a dual meet; the Bison furnishing their hosts with worthy opposition. In the homecoming meet the harriers competed among themselves for the medals which were awarded to the runners finishing in the first four positions. Those who received medals were; Nelson, first; Weiser, second; Ziessler, and Millard, third and fourth respectively.

they play Loyola University at Chicago; the University of Illinois is played two days later.

It is the third Big Ten clash for Bison quintmen. Wisconsin was taken into camp last year and Iowa beat the Bison the previous season.

Games with Milliken, Lombard, and Bradley Polytechnic teams are other Illinois game on the schedule. Following the clash with the Plowmen at Peoria, the Bison hop back to Winona, Minn., for the St. Mary's game.

The first North Central Conference game is with the Nebraska Wesleyan five at Fargo, on January 13. Home games with South Dakota University follow in rapid succession. Every team in the conference is on the Bison schedule. The situation of last year in which cancellation of games by southern schools of the conference robbed the Bison of a clear basketball title is thus obviated. Morningside and Des Moines Universities are the only teams not appearing on the Bison court.

The initial clash with the Nodaks comes on January 22 at Fargo.

The South Dakota Bunnies invade the Bison stamping grounds the following week and the home team begins their swing around the southern circuit three days later on the last day of the month when they meet the Coyotes at Vermillion, S. D.

The Bluejays make their biennial appearance here February 19. Three decisive clashes with the Flickertails closes the Bison court activities. The final game is at Grand Forks, March 3rd.

Schedule follows:
Dec. 17—Valley City Teachers at Fargo.
Dec. 22—Valley City Teachers at Valley City.
Dec. 28—Loyola University at Chicago.

Dec. 30—University of Illinois at Champaign.

Dec. 31—Milliken at Decatur, Ill.

Jan. 1—Lombard at Galesburg, Ill.

Jan. 3—Bradley Polytechnic at Peoria.

Jan. 5—St. Mary's at Winona, Minn.

Jan. 13—Nebraska Wesleyan at Fargo.

Jan. 14—South Dakota at Fargo.

Jan. 15—South Dakota at Fargo.

Jan. 22—North Dakota at Fargo.

Jan. 28—South Dakota State at Fargo.

Jan. 31—South Dakota at Vermillion.

Feb. 1—Morningside at Sioux City.

Feb. 2—Creighton at Omaha.

Feb. 4—Des Moines at Des Moines.

Feb. 11—South Dakota State at Brookings.

Feb. 19—Creighton at Fargo.

Feb. 22—North Dakota at Grand Forks.

Feb. 26—North Dakota at Fargo.

March 3—North Dakota at Grand Forks.

HIGH SCHOOL HOLDS
18th DECLAMATION

The 18th annual declamation contest for students in the Agriculture and Mechanic Arts high school of the North Dakota Agricultural college was held at 8 p. m. Monday in the Little Country theatre at the college.

Students who entered the competition and their selections are, Erik Thomsen, "The Skeleton in Armor"; Arthur L. Roe, "Toussaint L'Ouverture"; Clarence Putnam, "Mark Twain and the Interviewer"; Stanley Bernston, "Woman's Rights"; Mildred Stiles, "Poor Little Joe"; Genevieve Gillmore, "A Mother that was not Decided"; Irving Wood, "The Raven"; and Della Piper.

Judges of the contest were, D. M. Bavy, Phyllis Heimark, and Daniel H. Verder.

LIVESTOCK SHIPPERS ORGANIZED BY BAKER

A co-operative livestock shipping association was recently organized at Pettibone, Kidder county, by George J. Baker, field agent in livestock of the extension division of the college. Mr. Baker returned from Pettibone last week where he was assisted by County Agent Carl T. Carlson in organizing the Association.

About forty farmers attended the meeting at which a constitution and by-laws were adopted, officers elected, and a manager hired. Kidder county has now four active livestock shipping associations among the 175 such organizations within the state.

Other projects being supervised by Mr. Baker are the promotion of bays and girls club work with beef, cattle, sheep and hogs; improvement of the ton-litter and hogging off corn projects; and the care and management of sheep.

BLUE GOOSE BUS LINE

Members of State Boards Address Students

The agriculture and labor commissioner stated that people throughout the state are beginning to realize the importance of physical education in the public schools. Gymnasiums are being built at many points in the state to meet such needs.

Mrs. Minnie Craig, and the remaining members of the boards addressed the students briefly.

The two budgeting groups are spending this week at state institutions in the northern part of the state. They returned to Bismarck following their visit here last week to study the needs of the state penitentiary and Industrial school. The board members will make a second visit to the college sometime next week, according to President Coulter.

Tuesday's convocation was also marked by several musical selections given by the Gold Star band and the Bugle and Drum corps, under the direction of Dr. C. S. Putnam.

STOCK JUDGING TRIO ATTEND CHICAGO SHOW

Three students of the school of agriculture will comprise the next stock-judging team which leaves for Chicago December 8. Members of the trio are as follows: Reuben Stende, Carl G. Ash, and Frank E. Moore. Due to other urgent matters, Moore may be unable to go to Chicago. Arthur J. Johnson will then act as alternate.
