PHI KAPPA PHI HONORS 22 AT CONVOCATION

GAMMA RHOS WIN BALL TITLE FROM KAPPA PHIS, 7 TO 4

CHAMPIONS TAKE THIRD SUCCESSIVE TITLE TO RETAIN CUP; KAPPA PHIS LOSE GAME BY BAD INNING.

The Campus League baseball championship again rests with the Alpha Gamma Rho team. By taking advantage of a bad third inning for the Alpha Kappa Phi nine, the Rhos gained a five run margin that the Kappa Phis were unable to overtake. The third time champions had a 7 to 4 score at the close of the nine innings. They now hold permanently the cup.

The first two innings found Toussaint and Hermes in little difficulty. As the third opened, the Rhos batted around before subsiding. Three errors and as many hits allowed the five runs. The Kappa Phis had difficulty in solving the combination of Toussaint and Mach. Not until the fifth did they start an offensive. Sailer singled and was quickly followed by George Hermes with a triple and Hahn with a double. Two runs resulted.

The Rhos tallied again in the sixth and eighth. A final desperate rally netting three hits and two runs was made by the Kappa Phis in the ninth. Dutch Hermes began the rally with a single. Steedsman and Bobby Hahn doubled in succession.

Tuesday's game was played in anything but baseball weather. Several odd and scintillating plays were made. Bobby Hahn robbed himself of a double in the seventh on a freak play. Rapping a slow roller to Hanson, Rho shortstop, Hahn was struck on the temple when Hansen threw the ball wildly to first ten feet inside the base. Hansen made a difficult catch in short left field back of third, and Hahn achieved fast play to tag Sullivan out at second unassisted. Cy Arnold also retrieved a foul fly at the Rho bench. Johnny Mach led the Rhos in the field and at bat.

The box score for the game was as follows:

	ab	r	h	po	a
Rhos:	ab	r	h	po	a
Toussaint, p	5	0	2	0	3
Hanson, ss	5	1	1	2	1

FIFTEEN GAMES ON BISON QUINT CARD FOR NEXT SEASON

COACHES AWARD MORNINGSIDE CHAMPIONSHIP BECAUSE OF BISON DEFAULT; REVISED SCHEDULING TO BE USED.

Fifteen North Central Intercollegiate conference basketball games were scheduled for the Bison quint by Coach Ion J. Cortright at the annual meeting of the coaches at Sioux City recently.

Nebraska Wesleyan's quint will make its first invasion of Bison precincts on January 13 to open the Dakota school's conference season. The Bison team plays its first four games at home before starting on its southern trip. A departure from past schedules will be the breaking up of the University game schedule from double-header games to separate dates. Also, the Nodaks will test the Bison's metal early, playing their first game here Jan. 22.

Morningside Awarded Title.

A revelation came to northern schools of the conference when the coaches upheld Coach Sanderson's claim to the championship for Morningside University on a technicality. The Bison team, actual champions of the North Central circuit, were defaulted by failure to play five conference games. Creighton, scheduled to play Coach Cortright's quint last year, cancelled what would have been the Bison's fifth loop game. The local quint closed the season with the highest percentage and dropped but two games, these to the strong Nodak team. To prevent occurrence of another fiasco, coaches agreed to ban the informal schedule system and to formally make contracts for their games.

The conference schedule for the Bison quint follows

- Jan. 13—Nebraska Wesleyan at Fargo.
- Jan. 14-15—S. D. U. at Fargo.
- Jan. 22—N. D. U. at Fargo.
- Jan. 28—S. D. State at Fargo.
- Jan. 31—S. D. U. at Vermillion.
- Feb. 1—Morningside at Sioux City.
- Feb. 2—Creighton at Omaha.
- Feb. 4—Des Moines at Des Moines.
- Feb. 11-12—S. D. State at Brookings.
- Feb. 1—Creighton at Fargo.
- Feb. 22—N. D. U. at Grand Forks.
- Feb. 26—N. D. U. at Fargo.
- March 3—N. D. U. at Grand Forks.

FRED BYERLY PLAYS IN ROCHESTER BAND

Mr. Byerly, a junio in the School of Chemistry and member of Theta Chi and Alpha Phi Omega fraternities, plays first trumpet in the Gold Star Band, is a graduate of Fargo High school and has played in various musical organizations. In 1923 he won first place in the North Dakota brass instrument solo contest. He has studied under Dr. C. S. Putnam and A. J. Stevens.

James Stamp, former student here and cornetist in the band, also a member of the Alpha Kappa Phi fraternity, will also be playing with the Rochester band. Mr. Stamp has been with the Gold Pheasant orchestra in Minneapolis until recently.

COYOTES ROMP OFF WITH CINDER TITLE

ZEISSLER SCORES LONE BISON TALLY; SIX RECORDS BROKEN; KEAN SCORES HEAVILY

Honors in the North Central conference field and track meet were again handily taken by the University of South Dakota. Piling up a total of 49 points the Coyote margin was far out of reach of Creighton's cinder total of 31 points. The Creightonians last year with a total of 48 points finished within three points of the South Dakotans. South Dakota State took third with 28 points and the University of North Dakota slipped into fourth with 18½, Nebraska Wesleyan, 10.

The Bison again sought the cellar from the cinder avalanche with Herman Zeissler taking a lone point with fourth place in the high jump. Ted Fuller, the other entrant failed to place.

Six records were toppled. They were those in the discus throw, mile run, 440 yard, shot put, half mile run and pole vault.

Sas Keane, Creighton, with four firsts in the 220 yard dash, broad jump, 220 yard low hurdles and 100 yard dash was high point man.

Wiberg, Nebraska Wesleyan, broke the shot put record with a throw of 45 feet 3 inches. Drew, North Dakota, made a new 440 dash record with 50.6 seconds. Sorbel, South Dakota State, vaulted his way to a new record of 11 feet 9½ inches. Keane equalled his broad jump record of last year.

South Dakota University also took the half-mile relay with a veteran team comprising Jacquith, Sterling, Clark, Stanton, and Harney.

BAND, BUGLE AND DRUM CORPS HOLD BANQUET

About 70 student members of the Gold Star Band and the bugle and drum corps held their annual banquet at the Commercial Club Thursday evening. The band at present has a membership of 48 students, 20 students make up the drum corps. Dr. C. S. Putnam is in charge of the organization.

Honor guests at the banquet were Dr. and Mrs. John Lee Coulter, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Parrott, Capt. and Mrs. Thomas S. Smith, Capt. and Mrs. W. W. Millard, and Capt. and Mrs. Albert E. Andrews.

Miss Bety Sheldon, sponsor of the band, and Miss Ruth Von Sien, sponsor of the bugle and drum corps were also guests of honor.

A NEW REGIME.

It was only yesterday that the writer read in his history text of the British Empire, the statement, "This change was undoubtedly influenced by 'The Times'." The author was referring to Lloyd George's rise to power during the World War. So, more and more, the "press" is breaking into print and being given its due as an agent of influence.

Realizing in part the greatness of the heritage handed on to him through the editorship of even a college newspaper, the new editor steps in with not a little reverence and pride possibly for his opportunities.

Eugene Fitzgerald, the retiring editor-in-chief, leaves the Spectrum for wider journalistic endeavor with the Fargo Forum. During his regime, the college publication was definitely shaped into a semi-weekly. Editing a paper, particularly the Spectrum, has not entirely been what the term implies, that of butchering copy, accepting, rejecting as the editor may see fit, and occasionally taking up the banner of a waning or worthy cause. No, Editor Fitzgerald's task has been all that overshadowed by greater tasks.

It is easy to play the editor with all the tools at hand. Characteristically, however, the Spectrum as with many college papers, has lacked in machinery. A feeling somewhat of dread lurks in the editor's mind—as he realizes his duties. He had at times failed Mr. Fitzgerald. He knows of uncountable times when the late editor bore the reportorial duties hand in hand with those of editing. To do so calls not only for versatility but sacrifice and perseverance.

In these Eugene Fitzgerald has been unstinting. Perhaps he has already been repaid in part by professional experience. His accomplishments have been his mite towards building for a greater college and self. Some will argue "that is his business, putting out the paper" and then revert to preening their feathers for the morrow's academic inspection.

As Dean Crowley-Carroll implied at convocation Thursday, scholarship and life itself are futile if the desire to construct, create is not present. His avowal that education is to teach one to observe, his definition of research as the spark of divine curiosity are ancient truths practiced in journalism. They are not narrowed. The journalist's laboratory is every day life with its commonplace happenings. He gets a cross section of life whether on the campus or elsewhere. It is only by cooperation and sacrifice of his patrons that he is able to record the truth.

With full appreciation of the late editor's achievements, his opportunities utilized and passed on, the present editor assumes his duties. Being a student, he will uphold the student cause. With a professional bent rather than a political or patronizing one, he will to the best of his ability, being given cooperation, present all the phases of activities at the North Dakota Agricultural college. His apprenticeship under Mr. Fitzgerald has been a rigorous one. He will attempt to maintain standards set by the retiring editor and where possible improve upon them. It is his one hope to make the Spectrum a representative paper so that in years to come as well as at present the color and vitality of collegiate life at the Bison institution will not be lost to those who follow after.

EBULLITIONS OF EBONY BLOTT

By Ebony Blott—Himself.

No wonder the University beat us at track. They followed track for eighty miles before the got here. And they always were good at jumping issues, hurling taunts, and running amuck.

Two weeks ago today was "wild west" day at the local college. The campus was thronged with daughters of Pocahontas in the morning, while the Spectrum office was infested with bland Commanches in the afternoon, who clamored bloodthirstily for a Bison.

Sheriff Cramer, the knight of the wilted dandelion, made good use of his official capacity. In the race to get the first Bison, he ordered his rivals back, after which he triumphantly strolled in the office to claim his two dollars.

Mercade believes that no stones should be left unturned to uphold the law. He is the law.

Percy Newton, the extemporaneous loud speaker, gushed, in an official proclamation, that he is going to vigorously agitate a campaign that will furnish funds for the purchase of seats for the standing army.

The above quoted gentleman, of the jumbled jaragon, will be vividly remembered as the praiseworthy one who issued the fiery oration when his company received the Culpepper cup.

The Culpepper Cup is not a culpable cup.

Richard Hackenberg will be the youngest editor the Bison ever boasted. Stewart Scslipf was probably the most diminutive, and there is no doubt but what Carrie was the most ladylike of them all.

A Freshie,

Is but the
Yeller and the green.

Those in need of plug hats need only apply at the Sigma Tau house where these inflated atrocities are as plentiful as green neckties in Ireland.

Jay Crooks doesn't play tennis all the time. He must have his sleep.

Ebony Blott has been accused of going out with Ink Stain. This accusation is unfounded, however, because ink stains always go out with lemon juice.

HOCKEY AND RIFLE MEN GET LETTERS

CAPTAIN SMITH AWARDS LETTERS FOR NEW SPORT; SEVENTEEN RIFLE MATCH AWARDS.

Ten members of the varsity hockey squad have been awarded letters for the winter activity by Captain Thos. S. Smith, hockey coach.

Seventeen others have also received emblems from the military department as members of the Bison rifle teams of this year and that of last year.

Those receiving letters in hockey are Sanford Munson, Kenneth McDowell, A. Severtson, Robert Hahn, Gabriel Joseph, John Johnson, Willard Trumbull, Lloyd Landbloom, "Bud" Strand, and George Fisher.

The emblem awarded is circular in design, with the letters N. D. superimposed in green. A pair of crossed hockey sticks distinguishes and adds to its attractiveness.

Of those competing in rifle matches, ten holding the highest scoring percentage for the season received letters. They are: Ronald Millard, Theodore Fuller, Curtis Ballard, Peter Nygaard, Raymond Hack, Stanley Town, Warren Shook, George Hermes, Peter Wahl, and Albert Bjorge.

Seven others awarded letters from last years competition, received their monogram. They are: Leonard Reager, Clarence Reed, Theodore Fuller, Knute Henning, Charles Bowers, Walter Clasen, and William Toussaint.

The letter for marksmanship is in general design like the hockey letter, but has a black target to identify the sport.

STUDENTS BACK FROM ISASCA-CASS LAKE TRIP

A student touring party of fifteen in the class of landscape gardening and forestry under Prof. C. B. Waldron returned home Sunday after a three day tour of Minnesota's national forests and parks.

Leaving here Wednesday morning the party went to Cass Lake stopping Lydick's resort there. Thursday and Friday were spent in inspecting the national forest tract of 30,000 acres. Forest fire effects were studied and the students were told of conditions by Forrester Marshal in charge of the tract. Friday morning was spent at Star Island, a small tract in Cass Lake.

In the afternoon the party left for Itasca Park by way of Bemidji. A thorough study of the Minnesota State Forest nursery operated by the State University there was studied. A school is kept at the park where forestry students spend the summer in practical work.

The students also visited the headwaters of the Mississippi and Itasca, DeSota, Elk and Bemidji lakes about its source.

Those who made the trip were Walter Clasen, Sidney Grieve, Mrs. Pearl Herbison, Leonard Severson, Prof. C. B. Waldron, Willard Trumbull, L. Deidrichs, Christine Walhood, Mary Austin, Gladys Brockwaldt, Olive Winsloe, Jorgen Birkeland, Mrs. B. Olson, Lucille Piper, Gertrude Paul and Myrtle Quam.

Where two steam locomotives formerly puffed and strained to pull a 360-ton freight train up the steep slope of Maltrata incline, two electric locomotives haul a 660-ton train with power to spare.

Electricity levels the Mountains

In Mexico, romantic land of pretty señoritas and languorous minstrelsy, practical American engineers have harnessed streams so that mountains may be leveled.

The winding thirty-mile Maltrata incline on the road from Vera Cruz to Mexico City is now electrified. Ten electric locomotives replace twenty-three steam engines. The electrics haul twice the tonnage of the steam locomotives—and in half the time, with obvious benefits to traveler, rail-roader, and shipper.

Yet Maltrata is but an example of electrical progress. For electricity is conquering the grades of railroads and of industry alike, the world over.

Impressive, no doubt, but still modest when compared with the possibilities of electricity in years to come. And it remains for college-trained men, with trained capacity for initiative and leadership, to become ambassadors for further electrical conquests in foreign lands.

The General Electric Company required but eighteen months to electrify Maltrata incline—locomotives, power plant, transmission equipment complete. Engineering skill, backed by vast manufacturing facilities, has enabled G-E to serve humanity in many ways.

A series of G-E advertisements showing what electricity is doing in many fields will be sent on request. Ask for booklet GEK-1.
