ANNUAL INSPECTION OF CORPS DUE MONDAY

FESTIVAL TRACK MEET OPENS TODAY AT DACOTAH FIELD

FURTEEN HIGH SCHOOLS ENTER PRELIMS; FARGO CHAMPION RELAY TEAM BACK; FOUR TEEN EVENTS TO BE RUN OFF.

By Dick Hackenberg.

Fourteen eastern North Dakota and western Minnesota high schools have entered the track and field events of the annual May Festival which swings into action this afternoon. Three record holders of last year will defend their honors against a field embracing 130 contestants.

Moorhead high school will enter the meet but up to last night had not filed a list of entries with Coach Cortright. Other contestants are Mayville, Kensal, Glyndon, Cooperstown, Frazee, Valley City, LaMoure, Enderlin, Gilby, Fargo, Sykeston, Mohall, Dilworth, Minn., and Grand Forks. Fargo high sends 28 men, Grand Forks 20, Valley City 17, and LaMoure 12. Others are sending from one to eleven into the fracas.

Fargo Relay Team to Defend Title.

Fargo high school's crack relay team will defend the record set by them last year, running the half mile in 1.36½. The home aggregation consists of veteran material and should have no trouble in either retaining their honor or setting a new ace for the festival entries.

11-Records Made Last Year.

Haven, of Grand Forks, will shove Mother Earth into reverse in an effort to retain his half-mile run record which he established last May by doing the 880 in 2.08.¼ A new broad jump record was hung up in the 1925 meet by McKecknie of Gilby high who hurtled through space for 20.5 to set a new mark for high school circles. Other records are likely to be broken by ambitious high school tracksters are the century, done in 10 2-5 by Powlison of Fargo high; the high jump, established by McCracken of Grand Forks in 1923; the high hurdle mark set by Fuller in 1924; and the mile performance of Allen, Forks track star. Reports from the LaMoure stronghold have rumored that a wing-footed Hermes in the person of Finch, cinder expert, will shatter all records for the century and the 220.

The tennis and horseshoe tournaments have five entries each and will cause considerable interest. Glyndon has devoted all of her attention to these two departments in her entry blank.

DR. SWISHER SPEAKS BEFORE EDUCATION CLUB

Dr. C. L. Swisher, head of the physics department gave a brief address before the Education club Tuesday evening upon standards of education. Mr. Swisher stressed the purpose and ultimate good of maintaining ideals in education. Employers making inquiries as to students seeking positions, the speaker found, never fail to ask "Is he reliable?"

Marcella Schlasinger and Dorothy Berg gave several duet numbers. Dorothy Kretschmar entertained with a humorous reading after which the club held its regular business meeting.

HERBERT ZIMMERMAN, '21 IS VISITOR AT SCHOOL

Herbert "Pinkie" Zimmerman, '21, visited at the Alpha Kappa Phi house this week. Mr. Zimmerman is a graduate of the School of Chemistry and has been with the Cook Paints and Varnish Company, Kansas City, for the past three years. He has charge of the putty department. Mr. Zimmerman is also visiting at his home in Casselton.

ENGINEERS' OPEN HOUSE IS TODAY

LABORATORY TESTS, DISPLAY OF HANDIWORK AND EQUIPMENT ON PROGRAM.

Students of the School of Mechanic Arts hold their annual Open House this afternoon and evening from 2:00 to 6:00 and from 7:00 to 10:00 o'clock. The engineers annually make the event a feature of the May Festival.

Student guides will conduct visitors through the different laboratories. In the testing laboratory, a variety of material strength tests will be made. There will be several novel engineering demonstrations under the direction of Prof. D. M. Bavy.

Corlis and Erie engines will be in operation in the steam laboratory. Experiments demonstrating electric phenomena will be made in the electrical laboratories. A small Pelton water wheel will also be shown in the electrical rooms.

The visitors will then be conducted to the second floor where a series of experiments demonstrating fundamental laws in physics will be made. A large group of mechanical drawings will also be arranged in the hall. The exhibit presents the work done by members of the mechanical drawing department.

From the physics laboratory guests may top their tour of inspection with a visit to the architectural rooms. Here will be on display a labyrinth of drawings, an exhibit of wood blocks done in color, as well as a collection of Caproi plaster casts.

During the Festival, the engineers will illuminate the building with spot lights. A college truck is also being operated by the students to carry visitors to and from the college grounds.

PHI UPSILON OMICRON HAS FORMAL SATURDAY

The annual spring formal party of Phi Upsilon Omicron sorority will be held Saturday evening at the Country club. Dancing hours will be from 8:30 to 11:30.

Sorority colors and large baskets of spring flowers will make up the decorations for the party.

Honor guests for the evening are to be Dr. and Mrs. John Lee Coulter and alumnae members of the sorority. Mary Ross, Dickinson, Myrtle Euren, Cooperstown, Agnes Johnson, Ortonville, Mrs. Clayton Smith, Casselton; Letitia Jones, Edgeley; Carrie Hovland, Fergus Falls; Mrs. Jensen, Park River, alumnae, will attend.

Several committees have been making preparations for the annual party. Dorothy Stoudt, Mavis Peterson and Della Johnson are the committee on favors, music and decorations. On the features committee are Eva Wilner and Alice Dahlen. Ethel Jones has charge of the programs.

CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES DEFEATED AT POLLS 96 TO 68

FAILURE OF COMMISSION TO DIFFERENTIATE MEASURES IS THOUGHT CAUSE OF DEFEAT OF AMENDMENTS.

The proposed changes in the constitution of the Student Commission were defeated at the polls Wednesday by a vote of 96 opposed to 68 in favor of the amendments. The puny total of 164 votes is perhaps due to misunderstanding and friction that was evidenced about the campus.

Failure of the commission to allow voters to differentiate in the various changes and the fact that a blanket form of ballot was used was an unforeseen obstacle to a representative vote.

An announcement appearing on the bulletin board by the President of the Commission may have also discouraged voting. The constitution requires that the polls be open from 8:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.; the bulletin announced the polls as being open from 10:00 a. m. to 2:00 p. m. Placarding of signs "Vote No" about the various buildings was the only visible protest other than failure to vote indicated.

Emery Putnam, commissioner of judiciary, admitted a shortsightedness on the commission's part in not allowing voters to discriminate on the various measures.

"We supposed that insofar as the measures were progressive there would be no objection to them," stated Mr. Putnam. "On the other hand the Commission desires a closer contact with students. Commission meetings are open and dissenters might well have registered their complaints in time to rectify any error on the commission's part."

DELTA PHI BETAS HOLD FORMAL THIS EVENING

Members of the Delta Phi Beta sorority will hold their eighteenth annual formal party tonight in the American Legion hall between the hours of 9 and 12 o'clock.

Decorations for the spring formal are to be intermingling of green, yellow and lavender. Accentuating the spring setting will be a fountain with apple and plum blossoms adding to the color scheme.

Honor guests of the evening will be Louise McIntyre, University of Minnesota, and representatives of the sororities on the campus. They are: Eva Wilner, Phi Omega Pi; Marjory Gulickson, Sigma Theta; Mary Austin, Phi Kappa Lambda; and Alice Dahlen, Kappa Delta.

The reception of guests will begin at 9 o'clock with Helen Newton, president, and Donald Peet, Miss McIntyre and Eugene Ostman, Helen Curran and Claude Miller, Dean Alba Bales, and Marie Cray and Thomas Regan, will be in the receiving line.

Marie Cray is in charge of the arrangements; assisting her in decorations are Susan Freeman, Genevieve Boise, and Margaret Richardson. Other committees are Mary Ball and Edith Skurdal, refreshments; Alice Bender and Grace Ross, patronesses; Lillian Pearson, features; Madeline Parrott, programs.

COACH CORTRIGHT WILL LEAVE ON SHORT TRIP

Coach Ion J. Cortright will leave Monday to make visits at several high schools in the southwestern part of the state. He will speak at Breckenridge, Minn., Oakes, LaMoure, and Enderlin on Monday and Tuesday. Dr. William T. Pearce, Dean of the School of Chemistry, will return Saturday from a week's visit to the state high schools.

FORTY-FIVE TEAMS IN JUDGING EVENTS

HIGH SCHOLS FROM ALL SECTIONS OF THE COUNTRY ENTER A. C.'S LARGEST CONTEST.

Forty-five high schools entered three-man teams in the stock judging contests which were held yesterday and this morning. Judges will give their final decisions today. Schools as far west as Beach entered the contest.

The Salde and Sirloin club, made up of students in the school of Agriculture had charge of the contests. Prof. J. H. Shepperd was general superintendent at the judging.

Schools to enter teams were: Cooperstown, Balfour, Larimore, Kenmare, Sherwood, Kramer, Anamoose, Flaxton, Rolla, New Salem, Dunn Center, Beach, Bisbee, Sykeston, Harvey, Grafton, Neche, Drake, Hazen, Buffalo, Columbus, Casselton, Milton, Bucyrus, McClusky, Larimore, Mohall, Crosby, Cavalier, Mayville, Maxbass, Dawson, Villard, Minn., Towner, Epping, Berthold, Flaxton, Maddock, Walsh County Agricultural and Benson Agricultural and Training schools.

LaMoure and Buffalo high schools entered girls' teams in the poultry and grain events held this morning.

Judges for the contests were D. J. Griswold, sheep; Prof. A. J. Dice, dairy cattle; Prof. A. J. Severson, hogs; Prof. E. J. Thompson, horses; and George Baker, beef cattle.

SIGMA TAUS WIN OVER KAPPA PHIS

The Sigma Tau baseball team trounced the Kappa Psi nine in a five-inning Campus league fracas here Monday afternoon by a 3 to 1 score. This put the Tau team in a four-cornered tie for the lead. Martin, Sigma Tau moundsman, allowed the Psi aggregation but one hit while his mates were slugging the offerings of Holicky, veteran pitcher, for four safe blows including a double by Andrist and a triple by Zeissler. The latter had a perfect day at bat garnering two hits in two trips to the plate and putting himself at the head of the hitting list.

The box score:

UNIT TRIES FOR FOURTH GOLD STAR AT BOARD REVIEW

LIEUT.-COL. LEWIS BROWN, JR., MAJOR MARTIN C. WISE ARE INSPECTING OFFICERS; MESS TO BE HELD.

Annual inspection by the Federal Board of the college R. O. T. C. battalion will be made Monday. The inspection will continue throughout the day and classwork at the college will be suspended during it progress.

General Staff Officers Review.

Lieutenant-Colonel Lewis Brown, Jr., cavalry, and Major Martin C. Wise, infantry, both of the general staff at Washington, D. C., will review the unit and determine whether the Bison unit will be awarded its fourth Gold Star rating.

College and military officials have been cooperating with business men of the city and the day will be made a gala affair.

Mess Call to Sound.

Capt. Thomas S. Smith has made arrangements to give cadets, cadet officers and sponsors lunch at the Armory at noon. A committee of business men has raised the funds among the businessmen of the city to furnish the mess.

The battalion will go through its last inspection prior to the Federal officers' review when sponsors and the Boy Scouts review the unit today. The corps was reviewed ednesday by the G. A. R., Women's Relief Corps, American Legion and members of Co. B. and Headquarters Co. 164th Inf. on that day.

Tentative Program.

The tentative program made out for the day by Captain Smith follows:

The day will be divided into two parts. In general, the morning program (A) will be devoted to ceremonies, drill and practical exercises; the afternoon program, (B) will cover class room work including the practical drills, and mechanical features pertaining to weapons. In case of inclement weather "A" will be substituted for "B" and vice versa, providing that is possible.

"A"—Morning.

8:00 A. M.—Assembly. Battalion formed and reported as usual in full field equipment.

8:15 A. M.—Adjutant's Call—Ceremony of Review followed by inspection of arms and personnel.

9:15 (approx)—Completion of above. Company "A" march to athletic field, pitch tents and display equipment. Co. "B" puts away packs, organize eight details of eight men each, old guard, and report to main parade ground for "Formal Guard Mount," or reverse, Co. B pitching tents, etc.

Runner to report Co. A ready for inspection. Following inspection Co. A will re-roll packs, return same to Armory and report to main parade grounds.

10:00 A. M.—Co. B re-formed into three platoons for close order drill by company and platoon commanders and selected students, company, platoon and squad.

Co. A take up "X" formation within platoons and be available for extended order drill by platoons, section and squad.

INSPECTION, ARMS!

Monday the college battalion will go through the crucial test given them annually by the Federal army inspection board. The Bison unit has gained the Gold Star and distinguished rating three years in succession. It is their herculean task to get another.

The winning of the ratings has always finally depended upon the individual student himself. In past years, he has responded with his best. Under the guidance of Captain Smith and his assistants, the unit has been given all that external forces can apply and still stimulate leadership and initiative qualities in the man.

It is not without experience that our seniors stress the observance of details. The inspection officer has traditionally had a reputation as being a ferret-eyed individual, and general staff officers Lt.-Col. Lewis Brown, Jr. and Major Martin C. Wise should certainly not have become astigmatic in vision after glimpsing down barrels of some thirty R. O. T. C. units since March.

So then, it is the small units, the minute things, buttons, ties, beards, and other accoutrement that afflict the inspecting officer. The battalion is a corporation, a human machine, if you will, just as is the football team. When you get on the field each cadet should synchronize himself with his neighbor.

Our military men at the college have always met us more than half way. Each officer and non-com attached to the college's staff has coached a team or aided in ways other than athletic outside their department. How many instructors deliberately go outside their field looking for work?

The militarism as we have come in contact with it is not a subverting process; but rather stimulating to leadership. Not more than a month ago, the writer, recalled the shaky stance of a junior officer before the "Old Guard." His commands quavered and it is not altogether certain that his legs and weapons did not do likewise. Nevertheless that student will have learned, doubtlessly has learned to command himself.

Monday's inspection will have its innovations. It is not known whether the college has hitherto been graced with a mess line or a bread line. "When do we eat?" has always been the yearning question after the ferocious attack on the enemy hidden in the target pits. Then sponsors will be there to bolster the morale in their respective platoons; visitors will participate, especially the reviewing officers.

Captain Smith says, "Yours for a gold star. The Spectrum supplements it with "yours ofr a fourth star."

We had an election Wednesday. Mr. Parrott and his assistants held a few personal interviews. The result was 164 Bison boosters were induced to vote. They are certainly to be congratulated, for there were about 799 others that were unable to vote in any fashion.

Perhaps the non-voters are justified in this instance for not expressing their will. There were several confictions. The Commission should have made it possible to vote on each measure instead of using a blanket ballot. The grave error was made of trying to get the students to vote on a measure wherein it was stated that an election is only to be valid providing all votes cast are equal to one-third of all possible voters, and then expecting to curtail the length of time the polls were to be open. It is not unreasonable; the students did have some kick coming.

But again it was not altogether expedient to stay away from the polls because of grievances. A constitutional election is possibly more important than is election of officers. There are about 300 votes cast when the election portioning the different portfolios is held. We would venture to say that the vast majority of these are fraternity and sorority votes.

Voting is one of the agents by which the materials of our student body may be amalgamated. The Student Commission stands ready, as the most representative of the student body to promote school spirit. In a statement, otherwise given in the paper, they have given their stand. Conducting a student court, formulating rules, hounding the footsteps of a student that he walks not upon the grass is a pleasant task for the commission and its representatives. It is invariably the small boy's will to be the pitcher; it has been many a student's policy at this school to play the same role. It is cooperation the student governing body wants; it is personal contact with the students; not the paper hangers with their green paint, they need.

Avery Chadwick Wins First Place in Annual Art Exhibit

ART EXHIBIT, SHOWING THROUGH WEEK, HAS VARIETY OF ATTRACTIONS.

A labyrinth of art, combining Greek and Roman architecture, Japanese, Korean, and Filipino with the quaint and colorful art of oriental style was opened to the public Wednesday evening at the art exhibit held by the students of the department of architecture. The art exhibit, under the direction of Prof. Walter T. Rolfe, will continue throughout the Festival.

Avery Chadwick, junior in architecture, won first place in both the architectural drawing and sketch contests. The problem for the competition in architecture was a school of Architecture. Knute Henning won second, Einar Smeby, third, with Charles Bowers, Leonard Reger, Hugh McMath, Millard Rudd, and Rae Kneeshaw, placing in order.

Judges for the contests were E. H. McFarlane, Jamestown; Joseph Bell DeRemer, Grand Forks; and Prof. W. T. Rolfe. The former two are members of the North Dakota Association of Architects. A memorial volume of sketches by Bertram Grosvenor Goodhue was given Mr. Chadwick by the association.

In the sketch contest, Charles Bowers placed second, with William Shine, a freshman taking third.

There were about 500 drawing on exhibit. The collection of 51 wood blocks in color, shown by Kappa Tau Delta, architectural fraternity attracted much attention.

The prints are done by Elizabeth Keith, an English artist. The wood cuts from which several of the prints were made were lost in the Japanese earthquake.

A night scene of Hong Kong, with the light of the city peeping out of the mountain buttress, character sketches of Lama priests, Baiguet men, Moros and wedding scenes are outstanding.

DECLAMATIONS TO BE GIVEN TODAY

The declamation contest will be held at 4:00 o'clock in the Little Country theatre. Entrants and their selections are: Ethel Alinder, Buffalo, "The Gift of the Magi"; John Langford, Cooperstown, "A Perfect Tribute"; Doris Fisher, Fargo, "The Return of Enoch Arden"; Madge Dewey, Forman, "Angel's Wickedness"; Charles Finch, LaMoure, "Address of Harding at the Burial of the Unknown Soldier"; Marion J. Steller, Lidgerwood, "The Music Master"; Eloise Kuzee, Mohall, "Bobby Shaftoe"; Gladys Stevenson, Fargo, "Jane" from "Seventeen"; Ruth Hilborn, Valley City, "A Wild Olive Wreath"; Donna Allen, Walcott, "When the Fleet Goes By"; William Erlanson, Wyndmere, "Toussaint L'Ouverture."

EBULLITIONS OF EBONY BLOTT

By Ebony Blott—Himself.

"May Festival is here," shouted one student in glee, and forty boys clamored for her address.

Seniors, however, like Miss June Commencement best.

If you want a high school student impressed with our college, let him walk on the campus where the grass is most luxuriant. He will be most speedily knicked.

Slip Shod is all at sea, which, however, does not mean that he is all wet, over what these gala athletic events are all about. "They call it a broad jump," he says, "but the boys are much better at it."

The buildings are to be open to everyone. Here is a wonderful chance for the students to see what their class room looks like.

If all of the structures are at the disposal of the public, let's dispose of the Armory at once.

Be polite to the visiting students, and be sure to say "thank you" when you accept the money you will have to borrow from them.

Don't be too severe on our cattle in the stock judging contest as they haven't had much experience judging.

"I feel terrible sheep," blushed the stock judge as he inspected the lamb.

There is no truth in the rumor that stock calculators are compelled by ethics to smoke "Bull Durum."

"You sure are a prize egg," cackled the hen as she left her nest.

A fifty-fifty proposition may sound fair, but in tennis it's a deuce of a fix.

Be loyal to your school. Accept no change but that in buffalo nickels.

If you look at the exposition in Ceres Hall, remember that girls hate to be stared at.

Some things are arranged rather queerly. After we are host to visiting schools for three days, we present a spectacle "The Festival of Welcome" on the eve of their departure.

Girl's baseball should be popular as it is such a striking affair.

Girls can't hit the ball very well, but their unanimous talking makes the pastime a high sounding game.

The fact that girls acquire a double chin so easily only proves that exercise develops muscles to a superlative degree.

In baseball the girl is especially noted for her ability in executing the squeeze play.

SORORITIES HOLD PAN-HELLENIC TEA

Six sororities of the college hold their annual Pan-Hellenic tea tomorrow afternoon, at the Phi Omega Pi house, 1125 Fifth St. N., for the young women who are attending the Festival. Hours are from 3:00 to 6:00 p. m.

Helen Newton, president of the Pan-Hellenic association will head the receiving line followed by Eva Wilner, Dorothy Stoudt, Eloise McArdle and Mavis Peterson.

Members of the various committees are: Eleanor Morrissey, refreshments; Beatrice Sjoquist, dining room; Ruby Oscarson, decorations; and Evelyn Blakeslee, invitations.

BOARD NAMES BISON SPECTRUM STAFFS FOR COMING YEAR

HACKENBERG HEADS BISON; MATSON TO SPECTRUM; HOLLANDS, HENDRICKSON, MGRS.

Richard Hackenberg and Wallace Matson were named respectively as editors of the Bison and Spectrum for the coming year at a meeting of the Board of Publications at the college Wednesday evening.

Other appointments made by the Board were Earl Hendrickson, business manager of the Spectrum and Ralph Hollands, business manager of the Bison.

Everett Wallum was also appointed to the Spectrum staffs features editor. Mr. Wallum writes under the famed pseudonym of Ebony Blott. The new editors will assume their duties two weeks before the close of the school year.

Richard Hackenberg succeeds Carrie Dolph to the editorship of the Bison. He is a freshman in the School of Science and Literature and a member of Delta Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Miss Dolph is a junior in the same school and member of Phi Kappa Lambda.

Wallace Matson will succeed Eugene Fitzgerald as editor of the Spectrum. He is a sophomore in Science and Literature and a member of the Alpha Kappa Phi fraternity.

Fitzgerald to Forum. Mr. Fitzgerald, who has edited the paper for the past year, has retired to accept a position as sports writer with the Fargo Forum. He is a junior in the School of Science and Literature and a member of Alpha Kappa Phi fraternity.

Earl Hendrickson, former assistant business manager, will succeed Paul Revell, a senior, as business manager. Both enrolled in science and literature and are members of Theta Chi fraternity.

Ralph Hollands, activities manager for the Bison, is a junior in the same school and member of Alpha Sigma Tau fraternity.

Emery Putnam, present business manager of the Bison, is a junior and member of Delta Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Everett Wallum, a freshman, is the Spectrum's columnist and is a member of Alpha Sigma Tau fraternity.
