ENGINEERS TO HOLD ANNUAL WILD WEST BALL THIS EVENING

NOVEL ENTERTAINMENTS AND FEATURES OF EARLY WILD WEST LIFE BILLED FOR GREATEST OF CARNIVAL DANCES.

By Walter B. Booth.

It has been said that Horace Greeley did a remarkable thing when he advised the youth of America to journey westward, but had that grand old man been living in these parts for the past few days and seen the activities of the local engineering students in making preparations for their Annual Wild West Carnival ball, he might have told his proteges of the experiences they could gain here. The frontier has long since been pushed ahead of civilization until it has ceased to exist. But to commemorate those gallant souls, the pioneers, the engineering society at the college stage this annual frontier ball once each year. When one thinks of pioneers, immediately the thought of hardships encountered during the early days of settlement comes to his mind. But there are other pioneers, known as the pioneers of industry, that have done and are still doing great things for the furtherance of civilization and for the welfare of mankind. This pioneer is embodied in the personage of the engineer; the man who must design, develop, and put into practical use every article that is to help the growth and progress of industry. So it is to these great pioneers of industry that the Engineers' Ball is dedicated.

To Open at 8:00.

The Carnival Dance to be held this evening promises to be the largest that has been staged here. The additional room in the Armory will afford more space for amusement than ever before. Several novel entertainments have been arranged for and there will be something doing every minute to interest those who do not care to dance. Doors will be opened promptly at 8:00 o'clock and the din of the midway will greet the first visitor.

Probably one of the outstanding features of the ball will be the presence of many prominent characters of filmdom and "otherdom." At the last moment Charles Chaplin sent his regrets stating that another equally important engagement prevented his being here. It is expected that no others will decline at the eleventh hour, so the merry-makers present at this gala affair will have an opportunity to meet many prominent people. Ernest Torrence, Noah Beery, and Jack Holt are only a few who have been sent invitations to this great event.

Straight Jackets Present.

Another person who is well known in Fargo and on the campus, and has signified his intention of being present is the great musician, composer and Director, Prof. Raegh Queneeshawgh, founder of the great and prominent organization known as "Kneeshaw and His Straight Jackets." The professor will be there to entertain the guests with his latest triumphs and because of his general good nature and ability for getting about in crowds has promised to do another service to the ball by seeing

DELTA KAPPA SIGMA HOLDS INFORMAL PARTY.

JOHN DARLING DIES SUDDENLY TUESDAY

ENGLISH INSTRUCTOR, TAKEN ILL MONDAY, IS VICTIM OF BRAIN LESION.

John Wesley Darling, professor of English here, died suddenly at 3 p. m. Tuesday in a local hospital, after a 22 hour illness. Mr. Darling was taken ill at his home, 1035 Twelfth Street north, Monday noon after returning from class examinations. He had been confined to the hospital earlier in the year with pneumonia but had fairly recovered at the time of his illness.

Mr. Darling joined the A. C. faculty in 1922 after having received his master's degree at the University of Chicago and done work towards a doctor's degree. He returned to Chicago during the Christmas vacation and while there married Miss Mabel Henderson.

Professor Darling was born near Kingston, Ontario, 34 years ago and was a graduate of Queen's university, Kingston.

Surviving Mr. Darling are a wife, mother, two brothers and one sister. Interment will be made at his Canadian home where his remains were shipped Wednesday evening.

LETTERMEN ENTERTAINED BY HOME ECONOMICS GIRLS

Fifty-one guests were present at a banquet given for football and basketball lettermen by girls of the Home Economics department on Tuesday evening at the college "Y".

An elaborate program of entertainment was marked by a series of novel stunts staged by the hostesses. Tables were arranged in a hollow square, the center of which served as the scene of one of the most spirited and picturesque rallies the school has ever enjoyed. Throughout the evening, speeches were taboo and the girls entertained by the giving of yells, and songs that were marked for their originality. Decorations were in school colors. Cardboard grid warriors served as place cards.

Several dance numbers, a "Bisonette" rally and other features were participated in by all the girls. Miss Alba Bales, Dean of the School of Home Economics and Mrs. Cole, Dean of Women, assisted.

Ben Rumpeltes in commenting on the occasion said that "It was the finest thing ever put on for lettermen in his experience. It certainly shows the spirit and support that the Home Economic girls gave our team."

Faculty members who were guests were President and Mrs. John Lee Coulter, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Schalk, Coach and Mrs. I. J. Cortright, and Eric Thomsen.

DANTE'S INFERNO TO PROVIDE THEME FOR ANNUAL JUNIOR PROM

RED JACKETS ENGAGED TO FURNISH MUSIC FOR PARTY—DECORATIONS TO BE CARRIED OUT IN RED THROUGHOUT.

Plans of the various committees in charge of arrangements for the annual Junior Prom to be held in the Armory on April 16 are rapidly nearing completion, according to reports submitted to Elery Young, prom manager.

Decorations for the party will be based upon Dante's Divine Comedy, the entire Armory being turned into an inferno, which is the basis of the immortal book by this great author.

Guests upon entering the hall will be ushered through the gates of Hell, the entrance being decorated to symbolize the Inferno from Dante's book.

One end of the hall will be represented as Satan's den, while the other will depict the story of Faust's ride to Hell with Mephistoles. Both these scenes are taken from the scenes of Dante's Divine Comedy.

Decorations for the party will be carried out in red lights, and red streamers throughout. The feature dances, all of which are not yet complete, will be played upon with red lights.

Music for the dance will be furnished by the Red Jacket orchestra. This orchestra is well known locally, having furnished music at the Winter Garden all season. This orchestra is at present on a one month tour and will conclude their engagements at this party.

Many other features are still temporarily unsettled, but Mr. Young announced last evening that definite announcement of these features will be ready for publication early next week.

ALPHA GAMMA RHO FORMAL TOMORROW

FRATERNITY TO OBSERVE INSTALLATION WITH ANNUAL PARTY AT COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity will hold its 14th Annual Installation Ball tomorrow evening at the Commercial Club. A four course dinner will be served at 6:30, followed by formal dancing from 8:30 to 11:30.

Entertainment features will be furnished by the fraternity quartette and several other special numbers will be featured also.

Honor guests will be Dr. and Mrs. John Lee Coulter, Dean and Mrs. H. L. Walster, Prof. and Mrs. Cap Miller, Prof. and Mrs. J. H. Shepperd, Prof. and Mrs. C. B. Waldron, Prof. and Mrs. O. O. Churchill, and Prof. and Mrs. E. J. Thompson.

Leon Johnson is in charge of arrangements for the party. Decorations will be carried out in the fraternity colors, dark green and gold.

MISS BERTHA STRAND IS SPEAKER ON PROGRAM.

Miss Bertha Strand of the Agricultural college, and Herbert Hess of the Moorhead State Teachers' college, were the speakers at a meeting of the international relations round table held Monday evening in the Commercial Club. The meeting was sponsored by the Fargo-Moorhead chapter of the American Association of University Women.

CADET CORPS UNIT INSPECTION MAY 17

WILL DETERMINE WHETHER OR NOT SCHOOL ADDS FOURTH GOLD STAR TO RATING.

General spring inspection of the college's R. O. T. C. unit will fall this year on Monday, May 17, it is shown by the itinerary of the 3rd Army Area inspection board received recently by Capt. Thomas S. Smith, battalion commandant here.

The May 17th inspection will determine whether or not the Bison school's battalion may add a fourth gold star to their record. An outcome of the spring reviews will be the conferring of the gold star rating upon thirty exemplary units chosen from those college R. O. T. C. units reviewed by the several inspection boards.

Lieut. Col. Lewis Brown, Jr., attached to the staff of the Chief of Cavalry at Washington, D. C., and Major Martin C. Wise, of the Infantry General Staff are the reviewing officers making up the board. They recently began their inspection of the 7th, 8th and 9th Corps Areas, which include all territory west of the Mississippi. Beginning in the southern section of the country they will review the R. O. T. C. units of twenty-seven colleges listed from last fall's inspection.

Inspection of the South Dakota State College battalion will fall possibly on May 14 and the reviewing officers will arrive here on Sunday to inspect the Bison battalion all day on Monday, the 17th. Inspection of the University's unit will follow on Tuesday or Wednesday.

BISON LOOP LEADERS TO FACE BETA CHIS ON ARMORY COURT

UNIVERSITY FIVE UNDEFEATED—TITULAR PLAY MAY BECOME PERMANENT ARRANGEMENT IF FOUND SUCCESSFUL.

Beta Chi fraternity cagers, 1926 champions of the University of North Dakota campus loop will face the Alpha Kappa Phi five, holders of the local campus title on the Armory floor here tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Saturday's contest will be in the nature of an experiment for both schools, and if found successful will probably become a permanent arrangement, the two champions of their respective loops meeting at the close of each season.

The local champs resumed active work Wednesday afternoon under the guidance of Cy Arnold.

The Beta Chi five went through its season undefeated, winning the title in the National league, and downed the Phi Delta Theta quint, American league champions in two straight games for the campus title, last week.

The Kappa Phi suffered one reverse during the season, the Delta Kappa Sigma team turning them back 14 to 18, in the third start for both quints.

The Beta Chi five boast two men who placed on the mythical campus selections, Young, center, and Doane, guard, being awarded berths on the first quint, while Doe, forward, was selected for one of the forward positions on the second team.

The probable lineups for the Nodak five will be Doe and Broen, forwards, Young, center, and Doane and McWhinney, guards.

Arnold will make no announcement of his starting lineup until shortly before game time, but it is probable that Olson and Wall, forwards, Al Hermes or Fisher, center, and Peschel or Fitzgerald and Al Hermes, guards, will be amongst the starters in tomorrow's battle.

STEVE GORMAN HOST TO BASKETBALLERS

Members of the basketball team will be the guests of Steve Gorman, manager of the Grand Recreation Parlors, at the boxing show being sponsored by the Elk's lodge in their new home this evening.

The main bout of the evening is scheduled between Tommy McGough and Newsboy Shelly, the 100 pound amateur boxing title of North Dakota being at stake. Several other good bouts are also on the card.

FORMER STUDENT PLACES IN MEET

Bruce D. Rindlaub, a former student here, won a tie for second place in the fence vault at the 32nd annual inter-clas indoor meet of the Corps cadets at the United States Military academy, held at the institution on March 15, according to report received by the Spectrum this week.

Mr. Rindlaub was a student here last year and received his appointment to West Point last May.

JOHN WESLEY DARLING.

Death claimed its second victim from the faculty during the present school year on Tuesday. John Wesley Darling, instructor in English being a victim of a sudden demise.

Mr. Darling came to the Agricultural College as instructor in English in 1923, and at once established himself as an able teacher in his chosen profession.

He was comparatively young in years, having just finished training in quest of a Master's degree in English. It was his plan to further himself in the work which he loved by seeking a Doctor's degree having barely commenced work toward this degree when he accepted the position which he held at the time of his death.

His sudden death was a blow to all who knew him, being regarded as an able instructor by all.

It was the personal fortune of the editor to have taken courses in English under Mr. Darling's supervision, and he can truthfully say that he received a greater knowledge of the intricacies of the language under Mr. Darling's guidance than that received at any other time.

THE ENGINEERS' BALL.

The greatest annual fun fest of the season, the Engineers' Ball, is scheduled for the Armory at 8:00 o'clock this evening.

The Engineers in the past have been known as great entertainers, and there is little or no reason to believe that their party this evening should be any deviation from the rule of the other years.

Formal parties come often, but it is only once a year that the engineers entertain, and when they entertain, they entertain.

Formal clothes will be much out of vogue this evening, the gaudier the clothes worn, the more spectacular the party. Shootaing affrays, gambling, drinking, and chasing Indians are not one bit out of the way at tonight's dance, but are entirely within the letter of the law.

In addition to the regular dance music the engineers have engaged that famous band which instilled pep into the student body before the Nodak-Bison basketball games, "Kneeshaw and His Straight Jackets" will be on hand to entertain, several new ash cans having been added to the repertoire of this well known organization. The Straight Jackets will also give several versions of their famous introductory hit, "We Don't Give a Damn for the Whole University."

If you aint heard Kneeshaw and his gang sing, you aint heard nothin'.

THE INTER-CAMPUS GAME.

Tomorrow night's game between the winning quints of the campus loops of the University and the Agricultural College is an indication of the true spirit of sportsmanship trying to be built up between the two schools, and if the battle proves a success may be the means of building a better feeling between the two rival institutions if they are continued between the title-holders in future years.

It has always been the policy of this school to antagonize no opponent, but rather to make of them mere rivals, to build a rivalry between opponents of this school which will be only that of true sportsmanship, and not that of petty jealousies.

Games such as these may become a tradition between the institutions, and may be looked forward to in future years with much eagerness.

The University should have no differences to settle with the Bison, nor should the Bison have any differences to settle with the Nodaks. The game was scheduled merely in the hope that it would build a rivalry between the two schools in athletics other than the varsity teams of the two institutions.

May it prove a successful venture.

Mr. Eric Thomsen, N. D. A. C. Y. M. C. A.

Dear Sir

You will find enclosed herewith my check for $5.00 which I present to the Agricultural College "Y" with my best regards to all the past, present and future members thereof, for the purpose of carrying on the noble work of which it was my wonderful privilege to have a part from 1916 to 1922. I hope that you can keep the "Y" functioning with all of its usual efficiency in the highly important work of moulding the character of the youth who are enrolled as students in the good old "A. C." I see that your enrollment has now passed the 2,000 mark and I wish to express my sincere delight in the continued growth and progress of our Alma Mater. However, it is not the number of her graduates that matters most but the ideals with which it fills their minds while they are under her tutelage and mental nurture and protection, and the ambition to succeed with which she inspires them.

After one has been away for a certain time one realizes the wisdom in the words of our fathers, when they warned us from forgetting the parental roof and its ever waiting hospitality. I am located here in the southwestern corner of the state in the practice of law with Mr. E. C. Wilson, but I hope to be back in Fargo some day and then I'll come and "visit." With best wishes, sincerely, Goodwin ("Goodie") T. Westlund.

The Goodyear Rubber quint stretched things too far when they put the Edison out of the running in the A. A. U. tourney.

Anyway, they ended a good year for the local five.

It wouldn't be a bad idea, while appropriations are in order, to set aside some lucre for the establishment of life guards and mud guards for the campus pedestrians this time of the year.

The real "Vanishing American" is the man who stole my history book.

Why isn't there an official "Fathers' Day"? Of course we have "Mothers' Day." Every dog has his day, but there is no "Dads' Day." To cap it off we have Venus contests but no Apollo contests. According to most "Dads" their day comes at the end of every month.

Speaking of Venus contests, we heard the other day of a woman who was ruled out of a "Fork Centers" contest because one of her arms wasn't broken off.

Dear Ebony: I am very much in love with a boy in my home town. I am sending you a letter that he sent me, and I want you to tell me if he loves me. Here it is:

Beloved of mine: Your magnificent, gorgeous superscription, even now, lovet, holds me enthralled, enraptured! May the infetisimal judge smile upon the caricature of your fair Rand McNally. I tremble with a faint ague even now, fair one, in dread and terror of the bare possibility of your not accepting my love with unfeigned satisfaction.

In faith of your loving footsteps, loved one, may I say that the purgatorial scoundrels who manifest loud their intentions to be my rivals lack the refinement or culture befitting the suitor of so charming a maiden. It would serve the rapsallions right to have their dust soiled necks twisted to an angle of 90 degrees in the opposite direction of which their evil countenances may be facing.

Now as that morsel of outburst of rightful indignation penetrates your sadly upholstered, subconscious mind, may I turn my supermuman mental facilities to a more inviting, more tempting channel? Trusting that the last interrogative was accepted with glee, I deign to remark that you,—ah,—sugar plum—you are the inevitable one for so noble a prince as the pleasant unadulterated supremely handsome figure a mirror would reflect if your humble servant were vertically before it.

It is with an intermingling mass of emotion then that I inform you that my mind would be degraded in a chaos of bewilderment and grief; that I would with all adaucity consume a mattress, thinking it to be the queenly dish of shredded wheat, were you to cast me aside. That isn't so bad, is it, kid?

BARON DE GRUB.

Do you interpret this to mean that he loves me?

GONNA STRAY

Dear Gonna: I am sending back your queer manuscript which I want you to translate into English and return.
