CADET-BISON QUINTS OPEN SERIES TONIGHT

TICKETS PLACED ON SALE TUESDAY FOR MILITARY BALL

LIMITED NUMBER OF TICKETS ALLOTTED FOR STUDENTS AND DOWN TOWN DANCING CLUBS.

TOUSSAINT CHOOSES PROM PARTNER

MISS CARRIE JESPERSON, FORMER STUDENT, TO BE PARTNER OF PROM LEADER AT ANNUAL BALL.

By Stewart Schlipf.

One hundred and fifty tickets for the annual Military Ball were placed on sale Tuesday, according to Frank Leakey, assistant manager, who has charge of the sales campaign. Of these, one hundred are to be sold on the campus to members of the cadet corps and other students, while the remainder will be allotted for down town sale. The price will be the same as last year, $2.50.

These tickets may be procured from any member of the Scabbard and Blade fraternity or any of their pledges. The number is limited and prompt action will be essential to make sure of getting a ticket. Down town sales will be handled through the managements of the various dancing clubs. A certain number of tickets will be allotted to each and Fargo friends of the college will be able to get their tickets from them.

Miss Carrie Jesperson, recently a student at the Agricultural College, and now attending the University of Minnesota, has been chosen by Mr. Toussaint as his partner. Miss Jesperson attended school here for the two years previous to last year.

The committee in charge of the music for the ball have secured Bagrud's eight-piece Royal Club orchestra for the evening, thus assuring the dancers a worthy and enjoyable musical program.

The favors and musical programs have been combined in a unique manner this year. The programs will be complete with metal covers embossed with the seals of the cadet corps and the college together with three gold stars, distinctive of the three times honor college. The clever design and skillful workmanship embodied in the favor-programs will make them a worthy successor to favors of Military Balls of other years.

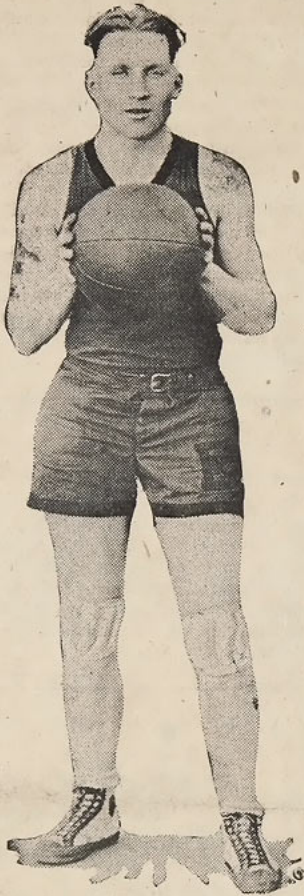

Scabbard and Blade reports definite and rapid progress in the perfection of party plans, with committees working overtime to make the annual event the best in college history. Within a short time a list of honor guests for the ball will be announced and a resume of the feature program given.

TWO INITIATED BY PHI U'S ON SUNDAY

SIGMA TAUS, KAPPA PHIS AND TAPPA KEGGS ARE VICTORS

KAPPA PHIS SPRING SURPRISE, DOWN 1925 CHAMPS 32-11 IN FIRST GAME OF TUESDAY'S CAMPUS TOURNEY.

SEVERTSON GETS EIGHT BASKETS

TAPPA KEGGS SUBDUED SIGS IN 42-12 VICTORY—SIGMA TAUS BEAT THETA CHIS IN FIRST START, 16 TO 6.

Alpha Kappa Phi, Tappa Kegg, and Alpha Sigma Tau quintos came through Tuesday's play in the "Y" Campus league with wins. The Kappa Phis overwhelmed the Alpha Gamma Rho quint, last year's champions, 32 to 11; Tappa Keggs subdued the Sigs, 42 to 12, and the Sigma Taus, in their first start, won from the Theta Chis 16 to 6.

The Kappa Phis sprung a surprise in downing the Gamma Rhos, it being generally conceded that this would be one of the hardest fought battles of the tourney. Wall and Olson gathered in six and five field goals respectively for the winners, while the Phi defense kept the Rhos from getting short tries at the net.

The Tappa Keggs, while recognized as a strong quint sprung a surprise in downing the Sigs by such a wide margin. The Sigs, by virtue of their win over the Theta Chis last week was considered as one of the strong quintos and it was presumed that the Keggs would have a tough battle. Severtson of the Keggs quint scored nine baskets and was the outstanding performer.

Two baskets, both by Frosaker, was all that the Theta Chi five were able to score in their tilt against the Sigma Taus. Two free throws, one by Revell, and the other by Griffith made up the Chi total. Boerth, Andrist, and Allison scored two field goals and a frete throw apiece for their team, for high scoring honors.

HEAD OF AMES AG SCHOOL TO VISIT HERE THURSDAY

UNBEATEN MURRAY QUINT SHOULD FORCE BISON AT TOP SPEED

FRIDAY'S CONTEST TO START AT 7:30 TO ALLOW FANS TO ATTEND PETROLLE-WAGNER FIGHT.

SMITH AND DADY CADET MAINSTAYS

ARNOLD OUT OF CADET TILTS ON ACCOUNT OF PAINFUL LEG INJURY—ABSENCE OF STAR GUARD INDEFINITE.

By Eugene Fitzgerald.

Cyril Arnold, Bison all-conference guard who received a painful leg injury in a practice tilt Tuesday, will be unable to take part in the Cadet series and it is probable that he will also be unable to make the trip around the south end of the loop with the Bison next week.

Arnold will probably be replaced by Tilton in the Cadet series, or it is also possible that Thompson may be shifted to guard and Newgard take his regular post at forward. Arnold's injury puts the Bison mentor in a queer predicament. Newgard is not sufficiently recovered from his recent attack of mumps, and in case Thompson goes to guard, Newgard will be forced to go to his regular post for the greater part of the game.

Coach Jake Murray's undefeated Cadet quint from St. Thomas will be guests of the Bison basketeers over the week end in a two game series Friday and Saturday evenings.

Friday evening's tilt will open at 7:30 in order to allow fans to attend the Petrolle-Wagner fight classic at the Fargo Auditorium that evening. Saturday's contest will be held at the usual hour.

Murraymen Tough.

Murray's quint should furnish the Bison with the stubbornest opposition they have met this year, with the possible exception of that offered by Doc Meanwell's University of Wisconsin quint.

In Captain Paul Dady, center, and Clarence Smith, forward, Murray has two of the classiest pair of performers which Bison followers will be privileged to see. Dady is playing his fourth year, as is Smith, and both have been mainstays of the Cadet five throughout their four years. Smith was named All-American forward at the Stagg tournament at Chicago in 1922, while a member of the Duluth Cathedral quint who went to the finals of the play with the Lexington, Ky. quint who won the tourney.

At the other forward berth Murray will start either O'Phalen or Bauerly, both of whom have come through with brilliant performances this year. At the guard posts Peterson, Brick and Sommers will all probably see service.

The Bison lineup will see McPherson at center, Blakely and Newgard or Thompson at forward and Miller or Tilton at the defense posts.

Admittance to both games will be the same as in the past, students entering the west entrance, with the other two entrances reserved for Bison Boosters and general admission tickets.

The usual dance of the letermen's club will follow each contest.

ORGANIZATION SPIRIT.

The fine class of spirit which has manifested itself in play so far in the annual "Y" Campus league tourney is a fine tribute to the organizations upon this campus.

The supposedly bitter rivalry between fraternities has absented itself, much to the happiness of every fraternity man on this campus.

But then, why should there be anything but a spirit of fair play manifesting itself in this tourney? For the most part, the tourney is made up of fraternity men, and as is oft repeated, fraternity men are picked because of their type, character, and other good requisites. If a fraternity man cannot conduct himself in an orderly, gentlemanlike manner, and act sportsmanlike, then what can college officials expect of the rest of the student body, if the statement that the fraternity man is the outstanding man upon the campus does not hold true?

At no time in the play so far has it come to the writer's attention that some fraternity man entirely forgot himself and cast unbecoming remarks at a rival organization's player. This is a record which the organizations, and the school at large can be proud of.

There is no reasons why organizations should let their poor judgment rule their conscience. After all what is there amongst fraternities that should make them enemies instead of friendly rivals? The bitter hatreds, which organizations, not only here, but at other schools as well, are nothing more than petty jealousies. These petty jealousies at their worst are mere trivialities when compared with the much more important work which each organization is, or should be, interested in, that of maintaining a bigger and better college.

We like the spirit, as we said before, that is manifested at these games and we trust it may keep up.

BIG TEN CHAMPS?

Saturday night, by virtue of Ohio's defeat at the hands of Chicago, Wisconsin led the Big Ten basketball race with three wins and no losses. Now just think back a month or so and recollect the showing the Bison made at Madison. Sixteen to eleven the score was, in favor of the A. C., on Wisconsin's floor.

Both teams were just beginning the season, both developed latent ability in the next month, but at the time, both had an even break on early season form. History repeats itself, so would the Bison if given a chance.

It's time we started high-hatting instead of kow-towing to the Big Ten.

WHY NOT?

Concordia may have lost the basketball game, but they won the hearts and applause of the crowd with their quartette and its harmonies. All credit to them; they deserved it.

Which brings us to the question, why not a quartette also for the Bison, as well as for the Cobbers and Flickers. This is merely a suggestion, merely a hint. The quartette is not vitally essential, but it would fill in the long waits between halves and would demonstrate Bison versatility to our friends and neighbors.

And so the Spectrum makes a motion to that effect.

Inquiring Reporter

Claudie Miller, an Ace in last year's annual: "Many students do not vote, and those who do vote do not always take all of the college activities into consideration when voting."

William Gray, Commissioner of Elections on last year's student commission says: "Less than fifty per cent of the students voted in college elections last year. The problem is to get a larger vote in these contests, thereby expressing the vote of the student body."

Everett Wallum, college humorist: "I am not in favor of a Bison Ace section. I would, however, gladly sanction a Bison Deuce section, wherein I would have a chance to step in and carry off the honors."

Ralph Hollands, sophomore, states: "Features similar to the Bison Ace contest are successfully conducted in hundreds of colleges in this country, and there is no reason why they can't be conducted here—if they are managed in a proper manner. Politics plays a very small part in them, and I think the ace contest was successful last year."

"Many students," says Wade Boardman, Bison Ace and associate editor of the Bison, "are deserving of places in the Bison Ace section and aren't placed there. Some of the most deserving ones lose out by a very few votes."

T. W. Johnson, instructor in journalism, advances a new method of selecting Bison Aces. Says Mr. Johnson: "Pick about twenty students from each class who have the highest averages, and vote upon them. A student's average must be kept up to hold a place of honor in one of these sections. The more retiring students, even though they are more deserving, are frequently displaced by those in the campus 'spotlight.'"

Miss Carrie Dolphin, editor of the 1927 Bison, gives as her reasons for not including an "ace" section in the yearbook the fact that such a contest is more often a test of popularity than of worth, and if the contest is admittedly one of popularity it ouches to closely upon individual personal pride, so that those who are given prominence in the annual because of a likable personality or pleasing appearance become the object of covert antagonism from others on the campus that reaps no profit for the chosen few, for the rejected many or for the yearbook. A contest of skill, such as the Limerick contest, as the feature section of the annual, gives credit where it has been justly earned and cannot give rise to any political campaigns or favorites, for favorites, or any unpleasant aftereffects for the winners, as are more apt to characterize popularity contests.

"Popularity contests arouse jealousy, and create cliques on the campus," is Miss Ruth von Sien's opinion. "There is usually a great deal of criticism of them because of the general opinion that 'politics' plays too significant part in choosing the favorites. I have heard the recent editorial in the Spectrum praised as one of the most worthwhile discussions ever presented there."

Grand Forks, N. D., Jan. 30.—Spring vacation will be abolished at the University of North Dakota, according to Dean Vernon P. Squires, chairman of the administrative committee. Good Friday and the following Saturday are the only days to be allowed.

Commencement has been set one week ahead and there will be two days less of school as a result of the measure taken. The plan has been adopted in the belief that the summer enrollment will be increased and that the students will be given more opportunity to find work for the summer months.

EBULLITIONS OF EBONY BLOTT

By Ebony Blott—Himself.

"Nobody knows what a red headed mama will do." The same holds true of blondes, brunettes, and gray haired females, says Slip Shod.

Yup. Fargo must be a better town than Grand Forks. Fargo has two 5 and 10 emporiums.

Slip Shod attended a wedding last week. An elegant affair it was. You should have seen the bride. Dressed in white, the contrast, with her dark complexion, was vivid. She had red pumps with stockings of a delicious emerald color. Purple pansies adorned her waist. A more gorgeous creature would be hard to discover. And the minister. He was too glorious for mere words. The dignified air he assumed in his black frock coat with grey striped trousers befitted the occasion admirably. His shoes were constructed from patent leather, and the trouser legs were just far enough from his oxfords to display a beautiful pair of yellow socks. To complete his attire, he wore a tie with salt and pepper design set off with the appropriate background of a flowery vest. Old shoes—very old shoes—with slightly use drolling pins gave the interior of the church a pleasant atmosphere. The music was furnished by the "Threatening Three" who donned Kemal Pasha suits for the occasion. Yes, sir, that was some grand affair. And the groom? Why doggon it, the groom failed to show up.

"OH, HOW I MISS YOU TONIGHT," HISSED THE BISON SHARPSHOOTER AS HE MISSED THE TARGET FOR THE TWENTY-SIXTH TIME.

Absolutely NO, Oswald, a mushroom is not necessarily your sister's parlor

Dear Ebony: I am greatly perturbed. I usually don't have much faith in the newspapers, but I read in the Shagtown Screech yesterday that Abraham Lincoln was dead. Knowing your integrity, I wish you would tell me the truth. I didn't even know Abe was sick. Quick with the answer. ANE SHENT.

Mr. Shent: I wish you would be more explicit when you write. Who in the deuce is Abraham Lincoln?

DearEb: My mother has made up her mind to marry the Earl of Percheron. He is a nice man, but as I am financially crippled—even maimed—and he is sorely twisted if not broke, I hesitate. Do you think we can live on a title? IDA CLARE.

Miss Clare: Such foolishness, Ida! I know a couple who lived on graft, until they got work.

Dear Ebony: My girl want sme to take her to the show tonight, but there are 70 reasons why I can't. Each reason is a penny. Tell me: how can a fella take a mamma to a show when he is broke? OFF. L. FLAT.

Mr. Flat:....I'll bite, how?

Lim'rick Contest

This contest, sponsored by the Bison of 1927, is proving a success far beyond our expectations. The interest evinced by the students more than justifies the Bison staff in offering valuable prizes as an incentive to competition. The subject of this week's lim'rick, George McPherson, should be a popular one for those addicted to "lim'rick-itis", a very pleasant disease. Those of you who aren't immune to this malady will send in one, or more, last lines by four o'clock this afternoon.

Of our Sophomore center, we hear He's the basketball "find" of the year.

He don't mind at all
The fact that he's tall—

Would you like $15? Or even $2? Conjecture a winning last line to the above lim'rick, and you may win both money prizes and receive your individual picture in the Bison as well.

C. E. DEPARTMENT MAKES DISPLAY

The window display in the Merchants National Bank this week, showing the necessity of good roads was arranged by Professors Slocum and Folk of the civil engineering department. A great deal of time and effort was spent by these gentlemen on the preparation of the four charts, whose purpose it is to show the benefits derived by proper road improvement and maintenance. It has been intended that this display, in part, shall show that North Dakota development depends largely on the quality of its roads.

The four charts in the display show the following things: a comparison of the gas consumption of a two-ton truck on a 100-mile trip on various types of road, the test being made by the White Motor company; a comparison of the gas tax per gallon of all states and the average motor license fee in each of these various states; results of a test made at Washington State college showing the wear of tires on dirt roads is fifty-seven times as great as the wear on paved roads, and the fourth chart is a plot of the ton mileage per gallon of dirt, gravel and paved roads.

The window arrangements were made by Miss Alice Moshier of the bank personnel.

Prep Notes.

Class Play Considered.

The members of the senior class play committee have carefully read and considered the following plays: "Clarence", "The Scrap of Paper", "Captain Rackett", and "Chicken Feed." If there is anything in a name, there is every indication that we will have a splendid play to present April 19 as one of the outstanding features of Prep School campus life. Miss Challey of the Public Speaking department, will select one of these four plays and will announce tryouts for it within two or three weeks.

Debate Team.

It is to be regretted that Richard Randlet has withdrawn from the Prep debate since he is an old debater of ability. His place has been filled by Lawrence Zink, alternate. The teams are working hard on their question and will hold a trial debate soon.

Hi-Y Party.

A competent committee is busy with plans for a Prep School party to be held in the near future. We had some fine "Y" parties last year and this one will be even better. Watch for the date.

News!

This may or may not be "news" to you, but the last issue of the Spectrum carried a strictly high school news item in the "Knewsy Knosey Kampus Kolumn". How can we keep the "Prep Notes" up if we do not give our news items to either Al Bordeleau or Elizabeth Schultz?

This giant hydro-electric unit weighs 750 tons and consists of a vertical shaft hydraulic turbine attached to an electric generator delivering 52,000 kilowatts at 12,000 volts.

Bigger Generators— Cheaper Electricity

A 70,000 horsepower hydro-electric unit recently installed at Niagara Falls utilizes the same amount of water as seven former 5,000-horsepower units, yet does the work of fourteen such units. And it saves 700,000 tons of coal yearly for the nation.

As more and still more uses are found for electricity, larger and more economical generators are installed. At the power plant, as well as at the consumer's end, important changes and startling developments have steadily reduced the cost of electricity for light, power, and heat.

And wherever electricity has blazed its trail—in towns, cities, industrial centers, and rural communities—comfort and progress have come to stay.

Generating and distributing electricity concern the technical student. But electricity's application in the betterment of industry, the professions, and home life concerns every educated person. Cheap electricity means many startling achievements today, but countless and unbelievable possibilities tomorrow.

BISON RIFLE TEAM SCORES SHOW MARKED INCREASE

Shooting averages of members of the A. C. rifle team showed a marked increase in their last week's match with Western Maryland college. From a team score of 3139 out of a possible 4000, Captain Andrews' men have raised their team total a full 200 points to show a 3357 total against the Maryland team. The former score was made in the Kansas university match the week previous.

In their latest match, score show, Ted Fuller to be leading his mates with an outstanding percentage of 366. His nearest rival, Ronald Millard, falls sixteen points below with a 349 average to be followed by Shook and Hack with 346 and 343 respectively. Fuller's high score is easily understood by his showing a 95 in the standing position. The averages show the ranking man to have a percentage of 80 for the standing fire, which is the weakest position of fire.

Next week the Bison marksmen will fire a second stage of the corps area match. They also fire with Kansas State and Iowa State colleges and the University of Cincinnati.

The debate teams to represent the college preparatory school have been chosen and their first forensic date set for Friday, Feb. 26. The members of the affirmative side are: Lyness L. Loyd, E. Woolsey Pease, and Richard Randlett. Lewis E. Beals, Carroll H. Anderson, and Clinton Mogen and Lawrence Zink uphold the negative side of the question: "Resolved, That the national child labor amendment should be adopted."
