BISON TO PLAY BADGER QUINT

BISON LEAVE FOR CADET GAME

CADETS WILL MAKE DETERMINED EFFORT TO AVENGE DEFEAT HAVE WIN AND LOSS IN TWO LOOP GAMES

Coach Ion Cortright and twenty of his Bison grid men leave on Great Northern train No 4 this afternoon for St. Paul where they play their ancient rivals, St. Thomas College, in the annual homecoming day program for that school.

Bison Upset Dope.

The Bison upset the dope bucket in downing the Cadets 20-0 last year and Coach Joe Brandy of the St. Paul team declares that the Bison were lucky in getting a win over his team last year, and also declares that he will take every precaution to stop a repetition of last year's fray.

The Cadets have played two North Central teams this year, scoring a win over Des Moines 14-6, and losing to Nebraska-Wesleyan 10-0. The fact that the Bison trimmed Des Moines by the same score as did the Cadets furnishes grounds for belief that this year's battle should be decided largely through the breaks of the game. In being defeated by Nebraska-Wesleyan the Cadets lost to a team that is at the top of that conference heap in a ripple tie with the Bison and Bluejays. The Bison-Cadet game should furnish also a somewhat definite conclusion of the comparative strength of the Bison and Nebraska-Wesleyan.

Four Bison Finish Career.

Capt. Wallace Thompson, center, Allan Keltner, guard, Cy Arnold, quarterback, and Ben Rumpeltes, fullback, will be playing their last grid contest in Bison spangles, and much may be expected of these four men in helping to keep the Bison 1925 grid record unblemished. Earnie Stoudt and Thomas Regan, members of the squad will also appear in Bison colors for the last time.

EDUCATION CLUB ADD TWENTY TWO MEMBERS

Twenty-two students, members of the education curricula were initiated into membership in the Education Club, at the organization's meeting held last evening.

After the initiatory services the new members were introduced to some novel guessing games. A lunch was served in the Log Cabin of the Little Country Theatre which closed the activities for the evening.

The new members who were initiated Tuesday evening are: Marian Northrop, Hazel Harris, Louise Christensen, Martha Thompson, Ruth McCarthy, Angela Sweeney, Sarah Brandvold, F. C. Williams, Martin Altenberg, A. M. Carlisle, John Johnson, P. J. Hanson, Marian Wyatt, Allen Mortenson, Harry Wold, Leonard Pitchford, Bowden Wyatt, Irene Stende, Dorothy Kretschmar, Adelaide Brooks, Bertha Strand and Mrs. Baker.

ALPHA KAPPA PHI HOLDS DANCING PARTY SATURDAY.

Fifty pledge, active, and alumni members of Alpha Kappa Phi attended a dancing party held at the Broadway Hall, Saturday evening. Coaches Cortright and McAndrews and Mrs. Cortright were guests of the fraternity. Prof. and Mrs. Al Severson and Mr. and Mrs. George Moyoue were chaperones. Music was furnished by Bagrud's Royal Club orchestra. Earl Olsen and James Dusbabek were in charge of arrangements for the party.

BOOSTERS' CLUB TO BE REORGANIZED AT WEDNESDAY MEETING

CLUB TO SPONSOR DANCE DEC. FOURTH; WILL PROVIDE ENTERTAINMENT DURING INTERMISSION OF GAMES.

Reorganization of the Boosters' Club, the cheer rooters' organization, will take place Wednesday evening in the college armory, according to Fred Sorkness, president of the group. Mr. Sorkness expressed the belief that the organization is still too small and wished to get in touch with all those who wished to become members.

The body will soon buy uniforms for the entire personnel of the organization and will concentrate the cheering at all of the home contests played by the Bison quint this year. Stunts will also be featured between halves of every game to provide entertainment during the intermission.

The St. Thomas-Bison football game at St. Paul, Wednesday afternoon, will be received play by play over the gridgraph which will be erected in the armory. This entertainment will be in charge of the Boosters' Club as it has been in the past. The Club will also sponsor a dance to be held in the Armory on December 4. Arrangements for this party are now in the hands of a committee of the club and announcement of the final plans will be made public within the next week.

WALSTER TO ATTEND AGRONOMY MEETING

H. L. Walster, Dean of the School of Agriculture, North Dakota Agricultural College, will attend the annual meeting of the American Society of Agronomy at Chicago, November 16 and 17, and on the afternoon of the second day will lead the symposium discussion on "Control of Quality in Crops."

MRS. J. H. SHEPPERD WILL ADDRESS CONVOCATION.

Mrs. J. H. Shepperd, who accompanied her husband, Prof. Shepperd on his trip around the world from which they recently returned, will be the speaker at the Convocation to be held during the third period on Wednesday morning this week.

Mrs. Shepperd will address the students on the subject of her experiences in the Near East and Holy Land.

IMPORTANT MEASURE PASSED AT STUDENT COMMISSION MEETING

STUDENTS LAX IN ATTENDANCE AT MEETINGS ACCORDING TO SECRETARY.

The following story, handed to the Spectrum editor by Commissioner of Elections Keltner, who automatically is secretary of the Student Commission, is taken verbatim from the minute book of last Wednesday's meeting:

On Wednesday evening all the members of the Student Commission attended a meeting in the Main building to which all students had been invited. The meeting was intensely interesting, lasting for over two hours and the measures passed were thoroughly considered and discussed. Keeping before themselves the paramount issue of the welfare of the school, and to establish more permanently her traditions, the following motions were passed:

1. That the Student Commission recommend that the Athletic Board of Control elect a student manager, or student managers for each major sport, who will be subject to the direction of the Director of Athletics.

2. That a copy of the above motion be sent to the Athletic Board of Control.

3. That Commissioner Newgard be authorized to pay one-half of the expense of the Bison Roundup dance, not to exceed thirty-five dollars, ($35.00).

4. That the Sophomore class hold a meeting to formulate plans by which all Freshmen will be required at some near future date to bring their Baby Bison Bibles with them upon the campus. The Sophomore class shall be authorized and commanded to see that this date is set and enforced, and also that all Freshmen regulations in this Bible be strictly enforced.

5. That Freshmen be compelled to wear a regulation cap until it is deemed advisable for them to discontinue same by the Student Commission.

Sale and regulation of caps to be in the hands of the Lettermen's club.

Enforcement to be in the hands of the Sophomore class supported by the upper classmen.

6. That the Student Commission go on record as being in favor of the Freshmen regulations applying to women as well as men, and steps be taken to bring about this action.

Notice!

There will be an important meeting of the Spectrum Staff in the Bison-Spectrum office in the basement of the Administration building this afternoon at 3:45. Every member of the staff must be present at this meeting as the final formation for the remainder of the year will be taken up at this meeting. If any staff member is unable to attend this meeting get in touch with the editor at once. This is very important and urging should not be necessary.

GIRL'S SOCCER OPENER INDEFINITELY POSTPONED.

Because of unfavorable weather conditions the soccer game scheduled for Wednesday between the Freshman-Junior team and the Sophomore Senior team was postponed. Miss Dorothy Cole, physical education instructor, introduced soccer football for girls this year. Previously, hockey had been the main fall sport. Special practices have been held in order to work the teams into shape for the first game which will be played off as soon as the weather permits.

STOCK JUDGING TEAM LEAVES FOR TRIP TO LARGE STOCK SHOWS

GROUP TO MAKE STOPS AT AMES AND ILLINOIS; TO VISIT SEVERAL OF COUNTRY'S LARGEST STOCK FARMS.

Charlie Fleming, Hamilton, Ted Schroeder, Valley City; Bill Touissant, Leonard; Howard Lewis, Binford; and George Landsverk, McIntosh, Minn., members of the stock judging team, and Ray Douglas of Eckman and Prof. E. J. Thompson, of the animal husbandry department make up the party which leaves Fargo tonight on a tour which takes them to the two largest stock shows in the country and several of the largest stock farms in operation.

The party will arrive in St. Paul tomorrow morning and will spend a day at the Junior Livestock Show, and will then spend one day at the University of Minnesota farm. The team will leave St. Paul Thursday night for Kansas City where they will judge at the Royal Livestock Exposition, and will then spend several days at Iowa State College and the University of Illinois. The team will judge at the International Livestock Exposition November 21 and will leave for Fargo about Wednesday of the following week, arriving home about Nov. 27th.

ALPHA ZETA AWARDS CUP TO CLYDE BARKS

Clyde Barks, Sophomore in the school of agriculture, was awarded the cup for the highest scholarship attained by a freshman in the department of agriculture during the past school year, last Tuesday at the meeting of the Alpha Zeta. The cup is awarded annually by the Alpha Zeta, national honorary agricultural fraternity of the college.

Professor Jackson, instructor in agricultural education, gave a talk on agriculture as a business profession. The meeting was closed with a smoker given by the fraternity.

The class in play production under Professor A. G. Arvold will give a series of five one-act plays in the Little Country Theatre this evening, the first play commencing at 7:15.

The productions will be typical of various foreign countries, the plays to be presented having been translated from Russian, Chinese, Dutch, and German.

VIKINGS TO OPEN BISON QUINT HOME BASKETBALL SEASON

CARROL COLLEGE OF WAUKESHA, WIS., TO BE PLAYED DECEMBER 4, ON WISCONSIN INVASION.

BADGERS ARE TOUTED AS FORMIDABLE TEAM

Coach Ion Cortright is in receipt of contracts from the University of Wisconsin and Carrol College of Waukesha, Wisconsin, for basketball games to be played against these institutions on December 4 and 5. The Bison and Badger will tangle at Madison, Saturday, Dec. 5 and Carrol and the locals the night previous at Waukesha. Cortright has also secured a game against the Valley City Teacher's College for Nov. 28, on the Bison court, as a preparation game for the Wisconsin invasion.

In tackling Wisconsin the Bison are getting into a class of basketball recognized as far superior to any offered in the rest of the schools of the Big Ten. Wisconsin has always managed to work its way far up the list in the final standings. Dr. Meanwell, basketball mentor of the Badger quint, is recognized as the dean of basketball coaches, and a coach who turns out teams which are feared by every quint the Badgers meet.

Carrol, according to a local man who has faced the Carrol quint upon several occasions, reports them as having a very classy team and one which ranks high among the Wisconsin college teams.

The Valley City Teachers should furnish the Bison with plenty of opposition in their opening game and put the Bison in as good condition as their opponents will be for so early in the season. The Vikings have a formidable aggregation and won their conference for the past few years.

Bison Nearly Veteran.

When facing their early season opponents the Bison will be the same formidable aggregation as faced the teams on the coast trip and in conference play last winter, with the exception of Ted Greenfield, forward. To replace Greenfield, Cortright has Fuller and Hanson, from last year's Frosh quint. McPherson, Millard, and Tilton will also make a determined effort to land a berth on the quint, and if injuries do not crop out before the Badger scrap the Bison stand an even chance of establishing a nationwide standing in the basketball world.

FIVE HUNDRED ATTEND "Y" MIXER SATURDAY

About five hundred students attended the Annual "Y" All-College Mixer which was held in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Saturday evening. The party was in the nature of a trip "around the World," with dancing and refreshments at hand. Countries visited were China, Holland, Iceland, and "Awey Down South." The series of booths served as refreshment canteens for the guests. They ranged in design from one trimmed with native fall products to another which represented a snowy igloo from which (Continued on page 4)

WHAT PRICE FOOTBALL?

We have come to the point where we take the University conclusions with a grain of salt. We are proud to say, at least, that we have some spirit and a sense of what sportsmanship consists of. We do not care to be continually wrangling over petty things such as the sportsmanship shown by the University, but they have shown in their writeups, attitude, and in nearly every conceivable manner that they do not possess the true spirit of sportsmanship.

We can quote several articles that deal with the Bison-Nodak contest at Grand Forks on Oct. 31 as instances. First we will present what Coach Cortright has authorized us to use and things which were perhaps not so outstanding as they were to our coach. No one met the Bison at the train nor came to tell them what they were to do upon their arrival in Grand Forks Friday evening. There was no straw on the Bison side of the field while the Nodaks had all they could use. The field was not marked, truly as much a disadvantage to both teams but nevertheless a thing which cannot be classified as sportsmanlike.

As for what can be gathered from the student publication of the University, we certainly take exception to nearly everything they say in their sport column. One writer has gone so far as to say that the chances for a Nodak victory next fall are good. We have no objection to them boosting their team in this manner, but when they name the players who are to be lost to the Bison they end up with the sentence "and rumor has it that Claudie Miller is slated for the big time next year." Where was this rumor started and why put it in print without even a semblance of tracing down such a statement? Miller has given no indication that he will not be with the Bison for the remainder of his school career, and the statement is just that which blooms in the mind of a hard loser, and a poor sport.

The Bison, due to the record they have made this fall, certainly deserve more than one man on the mythical all-conference selection. The Nodaks can see but one Bison on this mythical selection, Miller, and with a team such as the Nodaks have they are boosting three men, two more than the Bison with an unblemished record. Rumpeltes is undoubtedly the outstanding full-back in North Central conference play this fall, and we say this with no reservations. The "Dakota Student" column writer picks Bertoglio of Creighton for the position, and adds "Rumpeltes is second to Captain John in our estimation" and we question, what is your estimation worth? Frankly, it is worth nothing. The student writer of the above has not seen Bertoglio in action this year, we are almost positive. The writer of this editorial, (it may not be editorial, we are pretty hot under the collar about now over such petty methods employed by the upstate writers) has seen both Rumpeltes and Bertoglio in action, and better than that, pitted against each other. Bertoglio is without a peer in smashing the line in the conference, but can do nothing else. Rumpeltes is by far speedier than Bertoglio. Miller is the only Bison regular who has more speed afoot than Rumpeltes, the difference being very slight. Rumpeltes is an outstanding place kicker, his toe having kept the Bison from defeat in the South Dakota State game. Rumpeltes is without a superior as a defense man in backing up the line and can also pass and kick if necessary. We would suggest that one making mid-season all-conference selections see the men they are picking in action first.

Truly North Dakota has a wonder team, one much less experienced than the Bison, but one that is bound to come through in years to come. We believe no team; give them credit for everything they do and treat them as we expect our team to be treated when away from home. Why take credit away from the Bison for their victory? They state that had Moore not fumbled in going over the line they would have beaten the Bison. Hard tackling caused that fumble, not luck. The Bison got one fluke touchdown, so did the Nodaks. Allowing Moore his touchdown the Flickers would still be short of the necessary points for a victory. Miller did not beat the Flickers single-handed, he had ten helpers. No man can beat another team single-handed, they can be outstanding. At the press conference, which the writer attended recently, Rumpeltes seemed to be more in favor for an all-conference selection than did Bertoglio. We don't like this razzing another school and we are going to end it with this. We expect true sportsmanship from every school the Bison meet, and we will accord every team the true sportsmanship treatment when at Fargo. If the students here do not accord the right kind of sportsmanship treatment to other teams we will be not only as prompt but more prompt to call them to task for their misdeed than we have in the case of the outside school.

Why should there be feeling of hatred between two colleges over an athletic contest? We have been beaten but have borne no feeling of hatred toward the Bison conquerors. We like sportsmanship.

Czecho-Slovakia Y Secretary Addresses Students Sunday

SECRETARY SAYS "Y" SERVES MUCH NEEDED PURPOSE IN REPUBLIC.

Vaclav Vavrina, a "Y" secretary in Prague, the capital city of Czecho-Slovakia, addressed students at the College Y. M. C. A. on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, upon the subject "The Y. M. C. A. in Czecho-Slovakia." Started After War.

"The 'Y' had its inception in Czecho-Slovakia at the close of the war, because of the need there for social organizations of its type. The north Slovakian Republic, which lies north of the Danube and adjoins the southern boundary of Germany, was a province of Austria Hungary prior to the Versailles Treaty. At the close of the war its inhabitants turned from the Austrian government and church, which left a great field open for 'Y' work.

"Prague, the capital city, is at the present time in a very crowded condition. A University city, it has been crowded further by its having become the seat of government. Buildings cannot be found to rent. Y. M. C. A.'s have been constructed by government aid. A home building law requires the state to donate fifty per cent of the cost of structures. This along with city aid has enabled the 'Y' to build at an outlay of $30,000 a building that would cost them $200,000 in America."

Has 4,000 Members.

The "Y" in Prague of which Mr. Vavrina spoke and had illustrations, has a membership of 4,000 students. It is modern and has a cafeteria that supplies 3,000 meals a day. Meals are served at the unbelievably low cost of eleven and nine cents to students.

"There are places of amusement in Prague. Students not only go to the 'Y' for amusement but also use it as a study place and a point at which to await trains leaving the city.

18 Nations Represented.

"The Slovakian government has solved the students' transportation problem by giving them free rail transit.

"The Y. M. C. A. beside greatly alleviating the poor living conditions of the students in an over-crowded city, serves as a melting-pot of nationalities. Eighteen nationalities are represented at our "Y". Many of these nationals have come to forget their national enmities through better acquaintance. Work and funds are forthcoming through the Student Friendship Fund in which America has played an important part. The present secretary of the "Y" having 4,000 members was supported for a time by student donations from Ohio State University. Fifteen branches have been established throughout Czecho-Slovakia by American aid. A "Y" dormitory now nearing completion in Prague will have a capacity of 400 persons and will be the largest building of its type in the city."

The Republican government has made many legal innovations, one of which is the subsidizing in part of social movements such as the "Y". Another Slovakian law provides for a pensioning system for aged persons.

Meet the Bison Staff.

"Who would have thought that the baby girl born to the Dolphin family in the bleak winter of 1906 would ultimately become Editor-in-Chief of the Bison of 1927?" puffed the mighty Bison, shaking his shaggy head. The intrepid Spectrum reporter had found the noble beast in his office in the basement of the Administration building in an unusually receptive mood.

"Yes, yes, go on!" he urged eagerly, his sensitive nose for news quivering. "Where did the child gain her journalistic experience?"

"Preliminary instruction under the polished tutelage of Maynard W. Brown, now gone from this institution, and may he rest in peace," the buffalo puffed amiably. "Your own paper, too, helped mold her adolescent stule, together with work on the 1926 Bison. Employment on the Fargo Forum as cub reporter and feature writer was undisputedly and aid in training the girl for the position as head of the 1927 Bison, which will undoubtedly be the greatest book in the history of the institution, in view of the fact that a greater assured appropriation than ever before will finance the book, also in view of the fact——", etc., etc. The conceited animal, unable to restrain his tendency to braggadocio longer, burst forth into glowing estimates of how the Bison of 1927 would enhance his fame.

"Yes, yes," agreed the Spectrum reporter sympathetically, hoping to stem the torrent. "Has the editor conferred with you on the general plan of the book this year?"

"In a word," snorted the Bison, "the aim of this year's annual will be to establish direct, personal contact with the reader in every department; to make the book an example of student life and student thought in every particular; to informalize, if I may use the word, the make-up and reading matter so that the whole will be of real and readable interest without losing the dignity essential to such a representative undertaking."

"Ah!" declared the reporter, intelligently, "an annual of the students, by the students and for the students?"

But the Bison's eye was already shutting sleepily. "That's what I said, isn't it?" he demanded unreasonably.

It was time for the Spectrum reporter to go.

So he went.

"Million Dollar Band" Leader Given Start by "Doc" Putnam

BACHMAN RETAINS DAKOTAN BAND KEPT INTACT IN WAR AS ENGINEERS.

The fact that musical fame is assured through concentrated work and effort is a proven fact in the case of Harold Bachman, former A. C. student and member of the college's cadet band.

Mr. Bachman will be best remembered throughout the state and nation because of his direction of the noted "Million Dollar Band."

He has had much to contend with and many difficulties to overcome during his musical career. Born in Illinois, he early moved with his parents to a ranch at Lakota where his youth was spent. There he attended a rural school from which he graduated at the age of twelve years.

His musical career began at the age of ten, when the Silver Cornet Band of Grano was organized. Harold began his march to musical fame by playing a B flat clarinet. He was not satisfied with the musical school of Grano, however, so in the fall of 1908 he entered the North Dakota Agricultural College and became a member of the school's band. It was here that Harold met "Doc" Putnam, who later became his friend and benefactor.

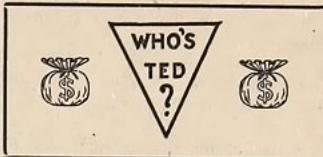

During the summer following his year in college he joined a circus band to play a run of thirteen weeks. While playing on that band, Harold met other good musicians. As a result, he was later to study with some of them at Chicago in 1913.

While attending the A. C. Harold was registered in the School of Agriculture. He was very prominent in all college activities. As a charter member of the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity and also as a member of the Theta Chi fraternity, he did not restrict himself to musical activities alone. Mr. Bachman completed his college course in 1916 and then accepted a position as band director at Harvey. With good material from which to choose he soon had a 25-piece band in action.

With the entrance of the United States in the World War, Mr. Bachman was instrumental in organizing the 2nd N. D. Infantry Band. This band was later transferred to the 116th Engineers with which unit it remained during the war.

The band saw much service overseas. On Christmas Day of 1917 the band gave a concert. The occasion resulted in the organization's receiving its famous name. When General Liggett turned to Colonel Walker and commented at the close of the concert: "That band is worth a million dollars to the U. S. army!"; he created the name under which the famous unit toured the homeland in 1919 for 33 weeks. Incidentally, the itinerary of Bachman's band began at Fargo and was completed by a concert at the Palace Theatre of Chicago.

Mr. Bachman with his famed band now plays at Palm Beach, Florida, during the winter and during the summer sojourns at Atlanta, Ga.

Lim'rick Contest.

Who's the lucky fella?
Who heads the list of last week's limerickers?

Your pardon, folks, the judges were too much of one mind. The result is a tie, absolutely and without question. See for yourself that the judges, Dr. Putnam, Dr. Hunter and Mrs. T. W. Johnson, did not do wrong. These perfect limericks were submitted by Everett Walum, of the Class of 29, and Mrs. Ruth Bayly, of the Class of '27.

Mr. Wallum added:

And Mrs. Bayly equalled it with:
And where were the Flickers, Oh
Laudie!

These last lines will be among those considered for the monthly prize of $2.00 and if not chosen as first in the monthly contest, will be given honorable mention and will be given space in the Bison Limerick feature section of the yearbook.

Both of these lines were chosen, according to the judges, because they fitted in best with the idea expressed in this limerick and agreed well with the rymth and rhyme of the first four lines.

The response to the first limerick was excellent, according to the editor, indicating that the idea had taken firm hold on the campus already.

The next mind-twister to keep your mind off the high cost of going to the movies instead of studying is:

We know a young lad from the prairie
A keen judge of things literarie
Said he "You're a wise 'un

It wont be hard to find something that ends in "ary", so the last line ought to be a knockout.

The "Prof" may not admit it —but it's true

HE probably will not tell you that clean, neat, typewritten work brings better marks—but it does—and the reason is obvious. It relieves him of that tedious task of deciphering longhand, and keeps him in perfect "reading humor". ## RHOS TO PRESENT WATCH TO BOY CLUB MEMBER

Work accomplished in a crop or livestock project by the most outstanding boy club member in the state will receive recognition at the annual Achievement Institute held at the North Dakota Agricultural College, December 15 to 18, through the award of a 15-jewel watch presented by the Alumni members of Alpha Gamma Rho, national agricultural fraternity at the college.

Can Win Only Once.

Any boy who has been engaged in club work for at least two years is eligible to compete for the award, according to the terms of the contest as announced by William Guy, chairman of the committee which formulated the plans. No member may win it more than once. Each county may submit the name of one boy for the contest, and a special committee appointed by the donors will make the award. Names will be submitted by the county agent, or by the leader in club work, in counties having no agent. Getting the facts before the committee is left to the initiative of the county agent.

The award will be made on the basis of the quality of work, as shown by inspection of records, letters or other information furnished; attitude towards the work, club meetings and club organization; progress made as result of club work, and the quality of the original records kept by the contestant.

Committee Named.

The committee which will decide upon the winner consists of the State club leader, the Noble Ruler of Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity, and one alumni chosen by the other two committeemen.

The winner and the contestants who attend the Institute will be guests of Alpha Gamma Rho at a dinner at the Chapter House. If sufficient interest is manifested in the contest this year, it will be made an annual award, Mr. Guy says.

Eskimo pies and ice cream emanated. Another typified a Dutch windmill with a young lady serving victuals therefrom. It made a veritable haven for hungry Don Quixotes. Guests could have their fortunes told or steep themselves in cider.

Several features of the party were: A dancing exhibition by "Bill" Hurt, dance artist; a minstrel show directed by Miss Cole and a twenty-piece band led by Dr. C. S. Putnam. The minstrels sang familiar southern melodies while Miss Sherman played the piano. Dance music was furnished by Vaughn Kelly and Glen Pritchford. Eric Thomsen, "Y" Secretary, was aided by Vernon Peterson and members of the two "Y" Cabinets in arrangement of the all-college affair.

Important Measures Pass Student Commission

7. That the Chair appoint a committee, headed by Commissioner Boardman, to suggest revisions to the constitution after thorough investigation as to power and limitations.

A lengthy discussion was carried on concerning the establishing of not only school traditions but also class traditions and as to their value to the school as a whole.

The Student Commission is an active body with real ideas in mind. The presence of students at these meetings would greatly aid the representative efficiency of this group and encourage them in attempting to better the school.

PATRONESSES OF SORORITY GIVEN FAREWELL BANQUET

A dinner in honor of Mrs. W. J. French and Mrs. W. W. Fuller was given Friday night at the Gardner Hotel by the Phi Kappa Lambda sorority. Mrs. French, a patroness of the sorority, will leave shortly for Austria where her husband, Dr. W. J. French, who has been head of the Child Welfare Demonstration work here, has been transferred.

Miss Catherine Cockerell, on behalf of the Sorority, expressed appreciation of her interest in the group while she has been in this city and regret at her departure. She was presented with a silver spoon engraved with the sorority insignia. This is a traditional present to departing members and patronesses.

Miss Carrie Dolphin welcomed Mrs. Fuller as a new patroness.
