HERD WINS OVER NODAKS 19-10 SEVENTY NINE PLEDGE TO FRATERNITIES

SEVEN SOCIALS AND PROFESSIONALS 'PIN' LAST FRIDAY EVE

PLEDGING ENDS FIVE WEEKS OF INTENSE RUSHING BY FRATERNITIES.

20 LOCAL MEN OBTAIN FRATERNAL BUTTONS

ALPHA KAPPA PHI GET 24; "AGS" CHEMISTS AND ENGINEERS PLEDGE.

Five weeks of intensive rushing ended Friday evening at 7:00 o'clock, when 77 rushees were pledged by seven of the college fraternities. Fraternities who participated in the pledging of prospective members are: Alpha Kappa Phi, Delta Kappa Sigma, Theta Chi, Alpha Sigma Tau, Delta Pi, Alpha Gamma Rho and Kappa Psi.

After the protracted period of being catered to for every whim and fancy, pledges will begin their usual "hike" through rookerydom. As "rookies" they will be subjected to various trials before gaining full membership to their respective organizations.

Honors for the greatest number of pledges fell to the Alpha Kappa Phi fraternity. Twenty-two men pledged.

The Alpha Gamma Rho, professional and social agricultural fraternity, pledged Lawrence Rannes, Lisbon; Lawrence SeSautel, Grafton; Wilfred Plath, Davenport; and Kenneth McLain, Mohall.

The Alpha Kappa Phi, social fraternity, pledged Albert Hermes, Geo. Hermes, Archie Crooks and Cyril Peschel, Wahpeton; Fossum Narum, Hans Tronnes, Frank Calkins, Elmer Hanson, Eugene Elerding, George Elerding, Sanford Munson and Daniel Bolley, Fargo; Robert Hahn, Wilmar; Ole Benson, Valley City; Harvey Steedsman and Marvin Spielman, Larimore; Alois Wambach, John Diemert, Ralph Smith, Moorhead; Lester Price, and Carl Brandt, Fessenden; Robert Billings, Lakota; Marty Engh, Moorhead; and George Fisher, Wahpeton.

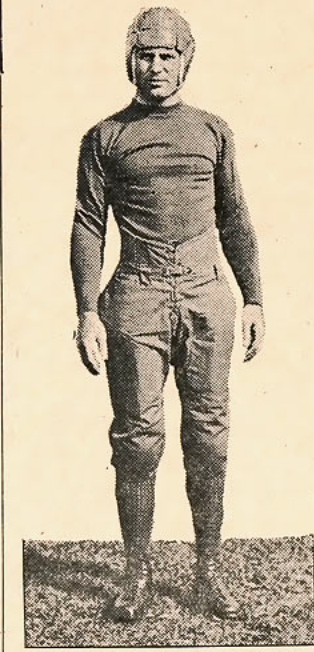

Talks were given after the pledging service at the Alpha Kappa Phi Chapter House by Dr. W. T. Pierce and Dr. A. F. Schalk, George Mayoue and Al Sivertson of Fargo, alumni.

Pledges of Theta Chi, national social fraternity, are: Russell Freeman and Donald Peterson, Fargo; Curtis

INDUSTRIAL SHOW TO OPEN FRIDAY NIGHT

The Industrial Show which is held every year at the Little Country Theatre under the direction of Prof. A. G. Arvold, will open at 7:30 P. M. next Friday evening. Classes in power machinery and the farm hand-bandy courses will show exhibits. Last year's exhibit, which was held in December, was very successful with handiwork of the respective classes and of the home economic department, being shown in an excellent display.

THE BISON FULLBACK WHO WILL BE ALL-CONFERENCE.

BEN RUMPELTES, Fullback.

DOC, PEP LEADER FOR 23 YEARS, MAKES PROPHECY

"Doc" Putnam, veteran of twenty-three seasons of pep instilling and band leading at the College, is not given to making prophecies; but at Friday afternoon's rally he did make one. It was just prior to the start of the Frosh grid battle between the Flickers and Bison that he made it. Not to put "Doc" in bad, his prophecy related to Saturday's Varsity game at the University.

"That game will be lost or won in the fourth quarter. You rooters can win that game," was the band leader's forecast.

"Doc" might well have made another prophecy, but he did not. The Gold Star Band needed an even score of "cart wheels" to start them on their journey into Flickerville. Never did the Bison students respond better, as returns at the rally showed that the boosters went over 320 per cent in making up the shortage of the 54-piece band. The band went over fully as strong as did the students. They have always driven the Bison on.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR NOTICE

Both the Junior and Senior Classes will have individual pictures in the Bison of 1927. It is absolutely necessary that all members of these classes have their picture in the hands of the Bison Staff on or before November 15 to assure a space for them in the annual. Call at the Bison office immediately and get your certificate entitling you to a sitting at McCracken's Studio. The sum of $3.00 will be required to obtain the certificate, which entitles you to a special reduced rate on a dozen photographs, offered only to Bison students. This also covers the cost of your cut and the final makeup of your picture in the book. Remember, all pictures must be in by the 15th of November.

LIEUT.-COL. DOCKERY REVIEWS BISON UNIT

BATTALION SHOWED WELL; ARMY IS USING R. O. T. C. GRADS.

Fall inspection of the College's R. O. T. C. unit was made Monday afternoon at 1:30 by Lieut.-Col. A. B. Dockery of the Seventh Corps Area Headquarters at Omaha.

In commenting upon the progress of various units he has inspected, Lieut.-Col. Dockery said that "all had made progress in their fall work."

"We have 91,000 commissioned officers in the United States at the present time," stated Col. Dockery, "but from that number ten thousand vacancies occur every year, either through promotions or retirements. The replacements that fill these commissions are chiefly forthcoming from the ranks of the R. O. T. C. units throughout the country. That the field of college officers' training corps is not yet crowded is shown by the fact that R. O. T. C. commissions satisfy but one-half of the ten thousand vacancies occurring. Of the five thousand commissions given college graduates every year, 3,500 become officers of the line while the remaining 1,500 elect to serve in the medical, dental and other professional fields.

"Expansion of the R. O. T. C. is handicapped by a budget. Costs for new units and upkeep of the present forty units in the Seventh Area Corps have increased with that of other corps areas. The exhaustion of surplus war equipment has much to do with such costs"

Lieut.-Col. Dockery is inspecting officer for the Seventh Corps Area. The present inspection is a preliminary one to the final spring review. The reviewing officer will inspect the Battalion of the University today and then complete the southern half of his itinerary for the closing fall inspection.

RALLIES REQUIRE A FIVE HOUR SCHEME

On days of Convocation this year, classes will be shortened to provide for a fifth hour in the morning schedule. Because of the irregularity of Convocation hours last year, classes of one subject suffered more than another. The new schedule calls for the following arrangement:

8:00-8:45 8:50-9:35 9:40-10:25
10:30-11:15 11:20-12:05

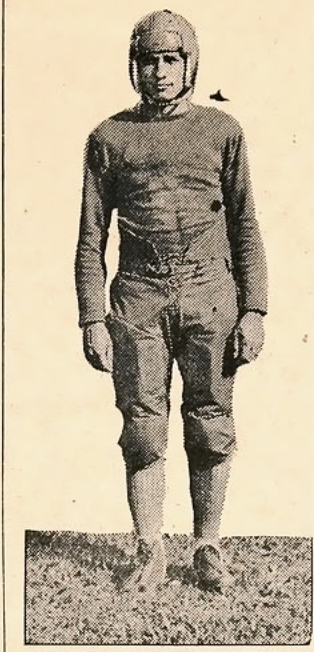

Afternoon classes will not be affected by the added hour.

Mr. A. H. Parrott also wishes to announce that beginning next Monday the half hour of noon day drill will be discontinued. Classes will resume the old schedule of starting at 1:15 P. M.

All condition examinations will be held next Saturday. Students who have conditions to remove must arrange to see their proper instructor before noon of next Friday so that questions may be made out.

There will be no issue of the Spectrum on Friday on account of mid-term examinations.

PRESS MEET DUE HERE; CREIGHTONIAN WINS 1ST

At the final session of the North Central Conference Press meeting, which was held at Vermillion, South Dakota on Friday and Saturday of last week, the association of college newspaper delegates voted to hold next year's meet at the North Dakota Agricultural College here.

Every year the Press Association with its delegates convene for the purpose of arranging its business and determining the winning publication for the college year.

This year's prize winning publication was "The Creightonian", published by the student staff of Creighton University, Omaha. "The Highlander," issued by Des Moines University news staff took second. Third place was awarded "The Volante" of South Dakota University.

In election of officers of the Association for the coming year, Eugene Fitzgerald, editor in chief of the Spectrum was elected secretary-treasurer. Kenneth Hatfield, of South Dakota State College was renamed president. Hugh Fogarty received the post of vice president. Presiding at the various sessions of the two-day meet, Edward Yocum, former student of the NOTICE.

There are many students and faculty members on the campus who have not as yet obtained their copy of the 1926 Bison. There are still several copies of last year's annual ready for those people who want them at a greatly reduced price. Call at the Bison office, in the basement of the Administration, any time between the hours of 10 to 12 A. M. or 1:15 and 4:00 P. M. Don't delay as the supply is limited and you certainly want one of these books to make a complete record of your college career.

BOOTY PICKS UP FUMBLE TO GIVE FLICKERS TOUCHDOWN; NEWGARD DOES IT FOR HERD.

Securely perched at the top of the Conference heap, the Bison eleven will complete their grid schedule by playing non-conference games. Concordia will be the Bison opponent next Saturday on Dacotah Field. After last week's victory over the University, a victory which eliminated the Flickers from the Little Eight race, the Cortright herd should trample the Cobbers for their third consecutive win. On the other hand, Watkins' men can be looked for to revive the old fighting spirit that characterized his elevens at Fargo College. Concordia will be fresh from victory also on Saturday. St. John's eleven fell prey to the Lutherans by a score of 14 to 7. Cortright's regulars who fared of the usual quota of bruises and injuries in the University game undoubtedly will be given a respite in the Cobber-Bison game. Unless the going gets bad the entire herd will be given an opportunity to stampede. Cobber resistance is not of the negligible type, however, as is shown by the narrow Bison victory of 13 to 9 over them last year.

"Red" Grange swung east Saturday into regions where All-American teams thrive, leaving the west in need of a "double" for him. Claudie Miller was it. Aided by the beautiful blocking and interference of his mates Miller was able to scamper through Davis' Nodaks at University Field Saturday for two touchdowns and a second grid victory of 19 to 10. Davis had prepared no particular defense against Rumpeltes and Miller. It would perhaps, have been futile, as Rumpeltes at full was a human thunderbolt to the Flickers' line. Fortune played no favors in Saturday's game. Goal line fumbles brought about by hard tackling gave each team a touchdown. A dry field and beautiful weather was a part in the setting of an ideal football afternoon.

Harry Blakely has issued a call for all Freshmen basketball men to report for practice on Thursday or Friday of this week. Some of the men have already reported, but because of the week being taken up with mid-term examinations basket ball will not make a serious beginning until next week.

DR. WORST STILL BOOSTS AFTER THIRTY YEARS.

A booster who saw the North Dakota Agricultural College through twenty-one years of progress writes from Ashland, Ohio, congratulating over the Bison win over the University eleven Saturday. Dr. E. J. Worst, who was president of this college from 1895 to 1916, writes as follows:

Dear Friend Parrott,
Agricultural College.
Noticed in today's Cleveland Plaindealer: "North Dakota Aggies 19; University of N. D. 10".
We said "Hurrah!"
"Bully for the A. C. team!"

Respectfully,
(Signed) E. J. WORST.

YOU LATE RUSHEES.

Friday evening at seven o'clock, you entered upon a new phase of fraternal life. As with so many things in life, your predecessors have deemed it necessary that a fraternity to retain its worth and progress must not be an object obtained without some honest effort upon the part of the pledge who desires to enjoy the fruits of hospitality and culture as exemplified by a body of harmonious manhood.

You perhaps have not realized that an objective easily gained is one the less to be cherished. The matter falls largely back upon the economic graph of the amount of sacrifice and the amount of desire or value you place upon the commodity, not only of fraternity alone, but of everything. Perhaps the amount of sacrifice and the amount of value involved in each of our lives determines our social scale. The haunting belief often voiced that man chooses the path of least resistance is not better illustrated than in school life, fraternal life and later in business life. We hate to be burdened whether it is in a physical, mental or social way.

The "rookie" stage of fraternal life is a protective barrier in one sense. Of course the state, to which "rookedom" is a barrier is determined by the code of each fraternity.

"Rooking" is not the narrow scheme of one man asserting his authority over another in a humiliating way. It is a trial. People have come to be so close in daily relations that they are no longer independent of their fellows. The time is always occurring when you must "give in" to society. Only the backwoodsman was independent. He possibly was not always the hero so often conceived of but was perhaps the individual, who, rather than give way to society, chose to keep on its border. "Rooking" has as its underlying motive the breaking down of self centeredness. It seeks to teach one to be tolerant. It should never seek to break a spirit. It usually does not, for the one who drops out has usually not the spirit to begin with but rather a substitute of boldness, false courage, or else too much pride.

If you are a "rookie", remember that one's aim should be always to develop oneself in all directions. If you are backward, a fraternity will help to bring you out. A man must be almost as a chain—no stronger than his weakest link. If you already have social attainments you should not let a fraternity carry you off your normal base. A schedule of anything is hard to keep but the false idea of doing the "Charleston" at a time when moments are golden is not the best in late literature on the "climb to success."

The combined band of the two schools, between halves, was a pleasing sight and sound. It was perhaps the only cooperation shown by opponents on the field unless the exchange of rooters could be cited.

Last Line Contest Is Here; Come On Limerick Lispers

COLD CASH PAID FOR LATEST WRINKLES IN GREY MATTER.

Did you go to Grand Forks Saturday? Then you should be able to supply the last line to the first Bison limerick in the Bison Limerick Contest, printed below:

A dashing young half is our Claudie
The pride of the whole student baudie
He didn't get rough
But he strutted his stough

A little mental gymnastics might net you the $2 prize given by the Bison for the best limerick of the month, and remember that the monthly prize winning jingles are the ones considered for the Grand Prize of $15 at the end of the Limerick season, March 31, and that the photograph of the winner of the Grand Prize will be a prominent feature of the Limerick section in the Yearbook.

With this opportunity for fame and fortune hanging around outside the door waiting to be introduced, will you do yourself justice by letting her ass by without even getting acquainted? Nohow, and contrariwise, an Tweedledum and Tweedledee declared. Begin submitting you "last lines" now, for the more monthly prizes you carry off the greater chance you will have for the Grand Prize.

Rules Governing Contest

1. The last line furnished for the limerick must have the same metre and length as the first two lines, and must rhyme with the first two lines.
2. The new limericks will be presented in the Tuesday edition each week of the Spectrum. "Last lines" submitted for each limerick must be in the Spectrum mail box or at the Bison-Spectrum office before four o'clock in the afternoon of the Friday following.
3. Limericks winning the monthly prizes will be the only ones considered for the Grand Prize of $15 at the end of the contest.

4. Four limericks will be presented a month, one each week. Of the four "last lines" chosen for consideration in the monthly prize award, those who do not win the prize will be given honorable mention, and be given a place in the Bison Limerick section of the annual.

5. Every student on the campus is eligible to the contest, excepting the editor and business manager of the Bison.

Judges who will select prize-winning limericks are: T. W. Johnson, of the Publications Department; Dr. W. C. Hunter and Dr. C. S. Putnam.

FLICKER FROSH TRIM YOUNG BISON

WAMBACH AND ENGH STAR; HERMES PASS BRINGS FIRST SCORE

NODAK SAFETY MEN DO SENSATIONAL FUMBLING TO HELP BISON.

BAD PUNT OFFERS WAY TO NODAK WIN

THAWED FIELD SLOWS UP HERMES WHO KICKS FOR BISON SCORE.

By Dick Hackenberg.

The breaks of the game favored the Flicker Frosh in the ratio of 13 to 9 last Friday afternoon and the "U" youngsters trimmed the Bison yearlings by that same score. Both teams fought hard and brilliantly at times, but poor tackling and lack of good interference spoiled an otherwise sensational struggle. The fatal jabs at the left side of the Bison forward wall counted the invaders their two touchdowns. Two of Al Hermes' long spirals were fumbled by the Nodak safety and recovered by the Bison in scoring territory. A long pass, Al Hermes to Engh, scored the only Bison touchdown of the game and a 33-yard drop kick by Dutch Hermes added three points to the Aggie score. After leading 9 to 6 at the half the Bison were pushed back to their goal and Al Hermes was elected to punt out of danger against a strong wind. The oval roled out of bounds on the Bison 16-yard line and shortly afterwards the Flickers pushed over the winning counter.

Marty Engh, the Bison left end, was easily the outstanding man of the game. The entire aerial attack depended on him for completion of passes. One of which was good for the tying score in the first period. The fumbled punts that placed the A. C. frosh in scoring position were recovered by the fast wing man and his defensive work was a revelation. Fisher at the pivot position for the green-clads also played an excellent game. Poor interference and a slippery footing kept Dutch Hermes from pulling any of his long runs which have been the feature of past games. Eberle and Lee, Flicker ends, and Wombach, Nodak half, were the invading stars.

The Flickers rushed the Bison frosh off their feet in the first three minutes of play and pushed over a touchdown on a series of plunges over the left wing of the Aggies' line. The try-for-point failed. The Bison received the kickoff and were forced to punt. The Flickers made one first down but the Catlin clan stiffened and the invaders were forced to attempt a dropkick which was wide. The Bison took the ball and were checked on several attempt at the line. Al Hermes sent up a high punt which bounded out of Kinn's arms into the ever-ready Marty Engh's. Two line plays netted four yards and on the third down Al Hermes sent a beautiful pass to Engh who made a spectacular catch of the spiraling pigskin and roled over the goal with the tying points. George Hermes missed the dropkick for the extra point.

Another of Al Hermes' punts was too hot for Wambach to hold and again Marty Engh recovered the ball on the Flicker 42 yard line. A pass, Al Hermes to Engh, was good for 22 yards, bringing the ball to the 20 yard line. Here Dutch Hermes dropped back to the 33 yard line and placed a perfect dropkick between the Flicker bars. The half ended 9 to 6 in favor of the Bison yearlings.

In the third period a well placed Flicker punt roled out of bounds on the Bison five-yard line. Al Hermes, punting from behind his own goal and against a heavy wind, wroved the ball to the 16 yard line where it rolled outside. Steady pounding at the Bison line brought the Nodaks first down and three more thusts eook the pill over the line. The attempt at goal was successful. The Bison fourth quarter rally was well under way until Peschel dropped a pass in the closing minutes of play with a clear field ahead of him. The game ended a few minutes later with the Nodaks in possession of the ball on the Bison five yard line.

Now, Phideas Krinkle, early in his college course, would have no frills, either as regards scholarship or studies, or equipment. Hence, we found him (that is, some one did) buying a pen for $1.37 — today only — and putting the difference between that and the price of a Parker Duofold in books—good books, too, let it be understood. And passing charitably over some profane lapses, he got along with it till graduation, and then some. We're liberal—it would make a mark when you pressed it, frequently. But Krinkle, with this penny-grasping trait, went bankrupt three years after graduation. And he never did amount to much after.

Jack Free, on the other hand, had an eye to quality, beauty, and—oh yes—quality. His second week in college found him with a Parker Duofold. Makes no difference if he did steal it—he knew what sort to steal, and the victim bought another Parker, anyway. Well, to coin a phrase, that was just like Jack, and he graduated and signed his first check with a flourish and a Parker. And, due, it must be admitted in fairness by all, to this belief and insistence on quality at all costs, he went stony broke in two years.

So there really was little advantage in the Parker Duofold over the orphan-pen, except having something decent to write with during the period mentioned.

A bowling team has been picked to represent the North Dakota Agricultural College in the Woman's League of Fargo. Games will be played every Tuesday night from now until March with cups for the winning teams. The team is made up of Anita Mary Blake, Nelie Mae Root, Gladys Bockwaldt, Charlotte Blake, Ruby Oscarson and Dorothy Loudon as substitute. The A. C. team won from the Security National Bank team last week.

The boys at Sigma Tau who attended the "U" game were: Allan Meinecke, Albert Moore, Stewart Schlipf, Fordyce Heilman, Ralph Hollands, Gerald Hunter, James Emmerson, Raymond Fisher, Robert Rawe, Glen Reichert, Marion Egan, Homer Allison, Chris Haas, Edward Kacourek, Thomas Canniff, Hugo Thompson, Vaughn Kelly, and Donald Andrist.

Dr. W. C. Hunter, professor of history, was the first faculty member to subscribe for the 1927 Bison. This is a good precedent to be set by the faculty, showing their interest in the Yearbook. The rest of the faculty will be approached in the next few days. We hope the response will be as good as was Doctor Hunter's.

The active members of the Kappa Delta sorority entertained their rushes at an old fashioned Hard Times Halowe'en party at the home of Lorinda Bechtel, 606 Ninth St. S., on Friday evening. Ghost stories and old fashioned games and dances were the diversions. Prizes were awarded for many of the stunts.

William Toussaint arrived Monday morning from Columbia, Mo., where he has been attending the National Alpha Gamma Rho Convention. This is an annual meeting and the members of Theta Chapter at the University of Missouri were the hosts this year. The convention was held October 29, 30 and 31.

The girls at the Practice House entertained the members of the Senior Home Economics class Thursday at a Halowe'en party. The evening was spent with games and dancing. One of the features of the evening was the secret chamber.

Eloise McArdle, Rita Morris, Lorinda Bechtel, Hazel Heald, Inez Lundeen, Helen Anderson, Ida Anderson, Marie Webster, Gladys Barton, Robina Miller, Carol Pepper and Edna Summerfield attended the game at the "U" Saturday.

The Woman's Athletic Association has arranged for lessons in rifle practice every Wednesday evening from 7 to 8 at the Armory. Captains Smith, Andrews, and Millard will act as instructors.

Chris Benson was among those who came back to the Rho house on the special Saturday evening. Chris has been working in Montana this summer.

The Hesperian Literary Society held a formal dancing party at the "Y" Auditorium Friday evening. About fifteen couples were present.

Howard Henry, former A. C. student spent the latter part of the week in Fargo, going up to the Forks for the football game Saturday.

Harold Austin and A. M. Ingebretson spent Sunday with friends at Mayville on their return trip from the game at Grand Forks.

Marion Sorlie spent the week end at her home at Buxton and also attended the U.-A. C. game.

Miller and Rumpeltes Star Against Varsity

Augustine made a nice return. Failing to gain the Bison was forced to kick. Miller's kick went to the Flickers' 42 yard line. The Davis men then began a drive that Cortright's men tried vainly to stop. Four yards, eight yards, six yards; down after down was being made at the Bison's expense.

With the ball on the A. C. 8 yard line, "Doc" Putnam signalled his trumpeters to sound A. C. Call. In seeming answer to the blast, Moore was sent to drop the ball; as he went over the Bison goal line. Miller gathered up the pigskin and went 79 yards before Booty, stellar Nodak tackler, ran him to earth. The subsequent Bison drive was stopped on the 13 yard line on a grounded pass.

North Dakota punted. Miller, catching the pigskin and still hot from his late sally, started off from his 45 yard line on an angle to his right. Arnold blocked off the first oncoming tackler, but as the Flickers started across Miller's path he doubled back of his mates and with Davis' men blocked away from him he ran for the first Bison counter. Rumpeltes missed goal.

With the opening of the second quarter, Rumpeltes continued to batter the Flickertail line for substantial gains. As the Nodak's defense tightened, Boe intercepted a Bison pass on his own 35 yard line. They advanced to their 49 yard line by the effective work of Arndt, but there were held. Boe punted to the Bison 11 yard line.

Miller, after two plays, punted poorly to his 39 yard line. The University came within scoring distance of the A. C. line. At the 13 yard line the Bison held. University lost the ball and Miller dropping back to kick, fumbled the low pass from center. Before he could grasp the oval securely Booty had tackled him. Booty regained the fumble and went over for a touchdown. Boe kicked goal to put his mates in the lead.

The second half began with Ben Rumpeltes still puncturing the Nodak line. But finally an exchange of punts and the interception of a Bison pass by Nemic found the ball in mid-field. A pass, Boe to Arndt, put the ball on the 30 yard line. Arndt was gaining consistently. On the 16 yard line a pass, Boe to Rabe put the oval five yards from the Bison goal. The Bison held and Boe dropkicked to make the score 10 to 6.

Early in the third quarter, after Rumpeltes had grabbed a University pass, Miller punted to the Flicker's 10 yard line. On the first play Marks broke through and tackled Drew so hard that a fumble resulted. "Jug" Newgard caught the tumbling pigskin and went over for the second touchdown.

Miller punted after the kickoff. The Bison were solving the Nodak's attack nicely. Augustine, who had been foiling Flicker pass attempts all afternoon, grabbed a Davis air pellet on the Varsity 32 yard line.

Not content, on the first play Miller got away again with great interference being given him. He skirted his right end, neglected the Flicker wingman and loped under the shadow of the Davis goal posts to point the Bison's second argument at 19 to 10. Miller had again "queered" the hopes of a Conference championship for the Davis team—a team that was able to score against Minnesota, last year's nemesis of Grange.
