FARGO TAKES FESTIVAL MEET BISON TRACKSTERS LEAVE FOR SIOUX CITY

DEWEYMEN MAY COP POINTS IN ANNUAL CONFERENCE MEET

TENNIS TEAM TO PARTICIPATE IN LOOP NET TOURNAMENT

TO STOP ENROUTE

BRIDGEFORD HAS CHANCE TO SET NEW POLE VAULT RECORD

Coach George "Ad" Dewey and six Bison tracksters will leave for Sioux City, Iowa, in the morning where they will participate in the annual North Central Intercollegiate track and field meet, being held at Morningside college Friday and Saturday. In addition to the track men, Dewey will take along a tennis team composed of three or four men, the exact number not having been determined this morning.

The men and the events they will enter at the meet follow:

Miller, 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, and 220 yard low hurdles.

Day, 1 mile run and 2 mile run.

Scow, 880 yard run and 1 mile run.

Bechtel, 440 yard dash and 220 yard low hurdles.

Mortenson, 880 yard run and 440 yard dash.

Bridgeford, pole vault, high jump and high hurdles.

The men who will accompany Dewey and his track squad as members of the tennis team are Narum, Wright and Ernest Stoudt. In case Dewey decides to take a third man he will choose between Yocum and Dick Stoudt.

The team will stop at Brookings or Sioux Falls Wednesday afternoon where a short workout will be held and will start out Thursday morning, arriving in Sioux City Thursday evening.

Made No Points Last Year

Bison chances for a victory are not overly bright, but they at least have a chance to place in many of the events. Last year the Bison failed to make a point in the meet but with a well balanced team this year Dewey hopes to place in several of the events in which he has entered.

Day and Scow have been doing good work in the distance events and one or both may place in the meet. Mortenson may also place in the 880, while Bechtel demonstrated that he is able to do good time in the 440. Miller has been doing the century dash in 10:3 and may run a faster race at the meet, which will enable him to place in one of the heats. In the low hurdles Miller and Bechtel are entered, and may give some of the aspirants a battle for a place. Bridgeford looks like the surest point winner for the Bison, having done 11 feet 6 inches in the pole vault in practice recently. This mark is but 3 inches short of the conference record and under favorable conditions. Bridgeford may make a bid for a record. Bridgeford may also win points in the high hurdles and the high jump events.

Tennis Chances Good

In the tennis meet Dewey will enter Narum and Wright in the doubles event and in case four men go, Dewey will enter two doubles teams. All the men will play in the singles events. Narum stands an excellent chance in the singles, having taken tournaments in recent years, but was incapacitated last year on account of a bad knee. Wright, who is the second ranking player of the team, may also stand an excellent chance of coping off in the singles. In the doubles this pair will go far, provided they play up to their usual standard. Ernest Stoudt is a newcomer to Bison tennis ranks, but his past record bears out the fact that he will give battle to a majority of the men in the meet.

Cadet Battalion to Hold Formal Review Friday

A formal review of the entire cadet battalion will be held Friday morning. The review will consist of the transfer of the battalion by the seniors to the juniors. The battalion colors will be decorated with two gold stars and two streamers by President John Lee Coulter.

All sophomores, who have signed contracts for advanced drill, will be made cadet lieutenants and will drill companies and platoons at this drill. Freshmen will also be appointed corporals and sergeants at this review, advancement being made according to class standing.

All sponsors for the various companies will be present at this drill and will witness the review with the cadet lieutenant colonel and his staff.

CHAPMAN SPEAKS ON STATE SOIL SURVEY

"Fargo clay and glue are both colloids, so you may draw a comparison," said James E. Chapman in his lecture on "The History of the Soil Survey in North Dakota," which was given before the Polytechnic society last Wednesday evening. He defined Fargo clay as a soil having a small quantity of mineral and animal matter but with such clay.

"Colloidal soils are precipitated out of still bodies of water," said Mr. Chapman, "and the fact that Lake Agassiz once had a depth of 190 feet on Fargo's present site and once extended to the old beach line, which marks roughly the western boundary of our east range of counties, accounts for the gummy and poor draining qualities of Fargo clay."

North Dakota Mapped in 1901

Soil survey work was first recorded by the Hebrews of Biblical times. China has records dating back to 2261 B. C., but modern methods of mapping and surveying soils began in Prussia in the 18th century. Work in America did not begin until 1899. Through federal and state aid North Dakota was mapped in 1901. The survey has steadily progressed since then.

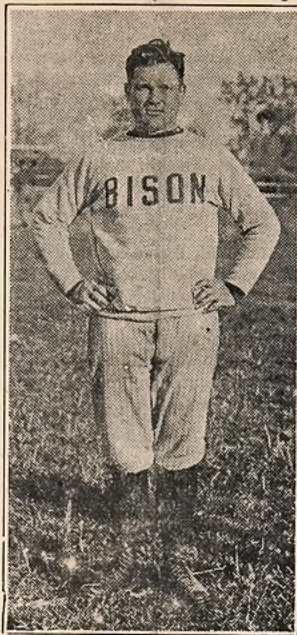

The first object of the soil survey here was to get the analysis of a strip of soil representative of the state. In this manner the soil experts have been able to divide the state's area into three large sections of nine distinct soil characteristics. "In this manner we hope to prevent farmers from being influenced by bulletins issued from other sections of the country," Mr. Chapman remarked.

Williams county loam is the general name of all soil west and south of the Missouri river. It is characterized by its grayness of color.

Barnes county loam includes most of the territory west of the old beach line and extends westward to the Missouri river. Some of the best soil of the state is to be found here.

Fargo Clay Good

Fargo clay and Fargo silt loam combine to make the Red river valley. The latter is remarkably fertile and has good drainage qualities. It resembles another soil, Bearden silt loam, which is to be found on glacial drift areas and is the better of all the others. "Fargo clay is excellent if it receives little rain, otherwise, it is wretched. It calls for good drainage," Mr. Chapman concluded.

Stanley E. Borleske

BORLESKE TO GO IN BUSINESS IN FARGO

Stanley E. Borleske, for the past five years athletic director here, has definitely announced his retirement from the coaching game to go into business in Fargo. Borleske and Clifford A. Moher, better known to close followers of athletics as "Luke," recently bought out the Mary S. Hart Sports Goods shop and will take active management of the establishment June 1.

Borleske came to the A. C. in 1919, when the "Aggies" as Bison teams were then known, were equipped with barely enough uniforms for a full team. Borleske has built up the Bison athletic department to a point where it is one of the best equipped and most feared of athletic teams in the northwest.

Under Borleske's guidance the Bison make one of the most presentable appearances of any team in the conference, whereas when he first arrived the football jerseys were of various shades of green, and the same may be said for the basketball team.

Leaves Good Material

Borleske also has a good record as a coach, having defeated the university during his first year, and repeated the performance again last fall. Borleske is leaving a wealth of football material, which is well developed for his successor, Ion J. Cortright.

While Borleske did the coaching of basketball teams but one year, much of the success of the court teams may be traced directly to him, as it was through his influence that the mentors of the basketball teams were secured for the Bison school.

Schedules arranged by Borleske have been some of the best afforded any school in the northwest, his schedules never failing to include several big home games, as well as big games abroad.

The extension division of the University of Minnesota expects to offer a short course in embalming next semester.

Senior Ball Plans Nearing Completion

The annual Senior Ball will be held in the Armory Saturday evening commencing at 8:30. The committees in charge of the ball, headed by J. Ogden Brauer, ball manager, announced this morning that all preliminary arrangements are nearing completion and indications are that it will be the most successful ball held in many years.

The grand march, which is scheduled to come first on the program, will commence promptly at 9 o'clock. Miss Emma Hatlie and Miss Edith Skurdall will lead the grand march, accompanied by J. Ogden Brauer, and Leslie Narum, class president.

Mr. Brauer requests that all seniors who have unsold tickets turn them in at once to Kenneth Keating, who is in charge of the sale.

ORIGINAL MASQUE GIVEN IN ARMORY

"The Chalet Girls Dream," an original dancing masque, written by the Misses Ruth Andrews and Frances Root, will be presented in the college Armory Thursday, May 21, at 8 o'clock. The masque is based on Norse mythology. Scenes are depicted in Niflheim, the Norse hell; Wallhalla, place for fallen heroes; and Asgard, the heaven of gods and goddesses.

Story Given

The masque opens with a prologue, introducing the Chalet girl, homesick and lonely, she falls asleep on a mountain side while watching the people in the valley wending their way to church. As she sleeps she dreams that she is led by Immortal Youth through Niflheim to the festival of the gods. In order to gain permission to Niflheim Immortal Youth must forfeit her bracelet to Loki, God of Mischief. After gaining possession of the bracelet, however, the wily god disappears, the two girls pursuing him.

The two girls, Immortal Youth and Mortal Youth, go to the festival of the queen, where they expect to find Loki. After their arrival at the festival he is taken captive by the queen's attendants. The bracelet is restored, Loki loses his immortality and is banished to Niflheim.

The epilogue portrays the awakening of the Chalet Girl and closes the masque.

Characters Named

Characters for the pantomime are as follows: Chalet Girl, Ruth Von Sien; Immortal Youth, Dagny Hanson; Loki, Catherine McKee; Hela, Queen of Hell, Margaret Olson; Freya, Queen of the Gods, Stella Sivertson; Balder, Dorothy Louden; Nanna, Catherine Cockrell; Goddess of Sleep, Mary Ross.

Dancing characters are as follows: Edna Johnson, Mary Ross, Pauline Fjelde, Christine Rudd, Grace Lackman, Anita Mary Blake, Beatrice Sjoquist, Dorothy Louden, Althea Reed, Nellie May Root, Edith Skurdall, Alice Dahlen, Mildred McComb, Virginia Sands, Mary Klinsman, Neva Trowbridge, Helen Hurley, Charlotte Blake, Dorothy Stoudt, Grace Bayliss, Connie Melchoir, Grace Ross, Olive Winslow, Ruby Oscarson, Eva Wilner, Mary Warner, Mable Ryhkus, Evelyn Frederickson, Norma Devol.

Miss Root is custodian of costumes; Mildred McComb, business manager; Professor Rolfe, designer of properties; Marjorie Lieberg Pearson, assistant in the direction of the pantomime, and the art class has also given some able assistance.

ELEVEN OF FOURTEEN RECORDS GO BEFORE ANNUAL ASSAULT

FARGO RELAY TEAM MAKES FAST TIME TO BREAK STATE RECORD

LEE IS HIGH MAN

HIGH JUMP, HIGH HURDLES AND SHOT PUT ONLY MARKS NOT BROKEN

Eleven field and track records fell after results of the May Festival meet held here last Saturday showed Fargo high school having 52 points to Valley City's 40 7-10 total.

When in the final event, the half mile relay, Haas of Fargo tore by the stands with contorted features, he personified the effort and fight shown by entrants. Fargo won the event, as it had the meet.

As it happened Valley City could not cope with Kimball's avaricious speed demons.

O'Connor Takes High Jump
To quell all hopes for the Hilliners, O'Connor high jumped 5 feet 4 inches to beat Brown, Valley City, who had been a favorite in the event. Oddly, five men tied for third and fourth places in the jump.

Lee High Point Man
Lee of Valley City was high point man of the meet with 15 1-10 points. Powlison accrued 13 points for Fargo.

The two hurdle races were quite inverted in results. In the 220 low hurdles, Fargo took the first three places. In the high pickets, Valley City retaliated. Powlison ran the low hurdles for a new record of 26 3-5 seconds. Haas and Lonsborough, both Fargo men, finished ahead of Ebery of Valley City. Brown took the high hurdles in 17 1-5 seconds. Allison of Fargo started bad in this event and finished fourth.

In the pole vault, Lee broke a tie with his teammates, Eberly and Sooras of Valley City and also a festival record by reaching 10 feet 2 inches. Sweeney of Milnor and Johnson, Fargo's jouster, tied for fourth place.

That the fact be not forgotten, this meet possibly holds the record for eccentric ties. Five events show knots, one of which boasted five co-equals.

Field events were responsible for most of points gathered by the other schools. The rating of other schools by points is Grand Forks, 20 1-5; Detroit, 10 3-5; LaMoure, 9; Milnor, 8 1/2; Gilby, 5.

Forks Strong in Distances

Grand Forks' strength lay in the distance events. Allen of that team ran an excellent mile race to break the festival record with his time of 4 minutes 49 2-5 seconds. Velzy tallied 3 points for Valley City with his second. Bennett and Veum of Fargo started off at a fast clip in the race but lacked stamina to hold such a pace. They finished third and fourth in the order named.

Haven, a Forks man, stepped fast to take the half mile. The time was 2 minutes 8 1-5 seconds. His teammate, Allen, beat out Meath and Bennett, both of Fargo, for second place. Another festival record had fallen.

It fell to Rindlaub to win the two most gruelling races of the meet, the 220 and 440 yard dashes for Fargo. Powlison, another Midget meteor, pushed him hard to make the time of 23 3-5 seconds in the shorter dash. In fact, Powlison made 23 1-5 seconds in the event on Friday during the preliminary trials, which stands as a new record. Finch counted tow points for LaMoure by finishing third. Bristol of Fargo was fourth.

In the 440 Rindlaub pulled out from the crowd and showed a wonderful finish. He has stamina and the heart to go with it. Another record of 53 1-5 (Continued on Page Three)

GOOD LUCK, STAN

Athletic Director Borleske has announced that he will retire from active coaching and will go into the sporting goods business in Fargo.

Borleske in his stay at the Bison school, in charge of athletics, has built up this department from a mediocre part of the school to a place where it is recognized as one of the foremost departments in the institution.

While it has been emphasized several times that Borleske has obtained equipment, built additions to the Armory, and done a good job of coaching, few students realize the department Borleske has built up in class room theory. Borleske came to the A. C. in 1919, when there was no such thing as a class in coaching. The results of his work are beginning to show in the number of men who have taken this course under him who are now scattered out in various parts of the country coaching. This part of the curricula is every bit as important as mathematics, science or English, as far as some students are concerned, for without it many would be unable to secure positions in the high schools, especially where an athletic coach is wanted to run the athletic end of the school as well as teach.

Borleske's record as a coach is truly enviable, for even though he did not coach the basketball teams, which have acquired a name for themselves the past two years, his influence was directly responsible for securing the services of the basketball mentor, George Dewey. Material with which he had to work after his first year was not near as good as was afforded in some of the smaller colleges, still his teams always managed to hold their own against all opponents.

Borleske was one of the prime movers in the organization of the North Central Inter-collegiate conference, which is recognized as one of the strongest conferences in the country. Borleske's teams have never won a conference championship, but have always succeeded in giving plenty of opposition to the team which did finally win out.

Borleske in leaving his coaching duties at the Bison school is leaving a wealth of football material for his successor, Ion J. Cortright. If Cortright is fortunate enough to win the conference gridiron title next fall much of the credit must be shared with Borleske, for Stan has left some good material, which is not only good, but which has been correctly developed.

The writer has had the pleasure to come in contact with Borleske upon numerous occasions in securing stories for the Spectrum, and upon every occasion he has been given all the information and help which Borleske could give.

In going into the sporting goods business, Borleske is going into a business which he knows thoroughly, as he has demonstrated by the way he has equipped his teams. The Spectrum believes the student body join it in saying, "Good luck, Stan!"

BOTH LOOP TITLES MAY BE DECIDED IN THIS WEEK'S GAME

THETA CHIS MEET SIG NINE FOR AMERICAN TITLE THIS AFTERNOON

CRIBE-GORDER MEET

KAPPA PHIS-GAMMA RHOS MEET THURSDAY FOR NATIONAL TITLE

Important clashes in both loops of the campus league are scheduled for this week. In the American league the title will be definitely settled when the Theta Chi and Delta Kappa Igmna nines meet this afternoon at 4:30.

The iSgs and Theta Chis have both defeated the other two teams in the league and this afternoon's contest will mark the close of the American league season.

Rhos. Kappa Phis Thursday
The Alpha Kappa Phi and Alpha Gamma Rhos, last year's champions, will meet Thursday afternoon, this contest probably deciding the title in this loop. The Gamma Rhos have not played this season, while the Kappa Phis defeated the Barracks last week, 1-0, "Big Ben" Gorder letting the dormitories down without a hit.

Morrow and Corny will probably oppose each other on the mound this afternoon, the contest promising to be a pitcher's battle. The winner of this game will meet the champions of the National league in a three game series for the championship, starting on Gaycat day.

Bridgeford, Miller Out
Gorder will be opposed on the mound by Cripe in Thursday's contest between the Rhos and Phis. Cripe pitched the Rhos to the championship last year while Gorder has a victory over the strong Casselton nine to his credit, having turned them back Sunday while pitching for Enderlin. The Kappa Phis will be short two of their regular members, Bridgeford and Miller, who are at the conference track meet at iOsux City. Fuller will cover Bridgeford's place at the initial corner, Rumpeltes replacing Fuller at the hot corner. Oscar Thompson will cover Miller's field in Thursday's contest.

seconds was made. Haven of Grand Forks and Lonsborough fought bitterly for second, the upstate man winning second. Maas finished close as fourth. Detroit high school's pet events seemed to be the discus and shot put. Bakke' a blocky built youngster, heaved the Greek relic for a distance of 111 feet 5 1/2 inches. The old record had been 106 feet 9 inches.

New Mark for Javelin
Lee upheld the Hilliners' prestige in the javelin. His distance beat those of Erickson and Zeck, Detroit, and Tronnes of Fargo. Incidentally, 153 feet 9 inches is the new record.

Forty feet 3 inches was made in the shot put by Ringdahl of Milnor. Sweeney, a fellow laborer, took second. Again Valley City and Fargo argued over back seats. Axelson had to concede the third place medal, but that alone, to Shamp, Fargo.

LaMoure's quartet of Shock, Peterson, Loppnow and Finch, who ran in the half mile relay, were outdistanced badly by Bristol, Haas, Lonsborough and Powlison, who broke the state record of 1:37 with their time of 1 minute 36 2-5 seconds.

FLICKER TRACKSTERS DOWN MACALASTER

By BILL MOELLER
Three North Dakota university track and field records were broken Saturday when the Nodaks defeated Macalester in a dual meet by a score of 66 to 60.

Captain Bub Nelson, holder of the N. C. I. conference and the university records, tossed the spear for a distance of 183 feet 2 1/2 inches, breaking his former record of 173 feet 8 inches. Bub did not extend himself, for the weather would not permit it. Swenson broke his second record this season when he nosed out Wilcox in the 220 yard low hurdles, making the distance in 25 3-5 seconds. His first record was made in the 220 yard dash the previousaturday, 22 3-5 seconds. Ronnie Davis, the smallest Nodak, duplicated his feat performed in the inter-class meet, running the 100 yard dash in 10 seconds flat. Davies was penalized 1 yard after jumping the gun twice, but it seemed to make no difference in his time. The former record was 10 1-5 seconds, made by Reed in 1922.

Swanson Is High
Swanson, Flickertail, was the individual high scorer of the day, garnering two firsts and a second for a total of 13 points. He won the 220 yard dash and the low sticks race handily, but Wilcox bested him in the high hurdles. Wilcox, Macalester, was second with one first and two seconds for a total of 11 points. Kersey, Macalester, and Laemle, North Dakota, each scored two firsts for 10 points each.

The North Dakota team scored firsts in the pole vault, high jump, javelin, discus, shot put, 100, 220 and 440 yard dashes, 220 yard low hurdles, and the half mile relay. Macalester made clean sweeps in the half mile, mile and two mile runs and in the broad jump.

The North Dakota relay team surprised all the fans by their splendid

HAVE YOU BOUGHT YOUR NEW ENSEMBLE?

Fashion favors the Ensemble for most occasions and one's wardrobe, to be complete, must have one.

First, it is a smart frock, either of plain or fancy material. Next, it is a fashionable coat which may be worn with any dress. Then, it is a most charming combination of coat and frock together in the form of an Ensemble suit.
