BISON WIN FOUR OF FIVE GAMES ON TOUR

CREIGHTON TROUNCES DEWEY TEAM 41-18 IN ONESIDED CONTEST

TWO HARD GAMES PREVIOUSLY PLAYED HAVOC WITH NORTH DAKOTANS

ARNOLD GOES WELL

DES MOINES, ST. THOMAS, MIDLAND AND WESLEYAN FALL TO TOURISTS

By EUGENE FITZGERALD

North Dakota Bison cagers returned this morning from a successful invasion of foreign courts, for it was really a successful invasion, the Bison capturing four out of five contests played, the only reverse being suffered at the hands of the two-time conference champion Creighton quint.

Have Tough Trip

While the overwhelming score rolled up by the Bluejays was unexpected, the heavy schedule indulged in by the Bison showed its effects. Two nights previous play worked havoc with the Bison when they faced the strong Creighton quint, the tourists seemingly being unable to get started when a few counters would have put them within reaching distance of the Creightonians.

The Bison opened their invasion with an extra period game on Thursday when they downed the St. Thomas Cadets, 29-24. The Bison showed their mettle when they came from behind at half time to squeeze out a five point win. The Bison dropped in 14 points in the last half while the Cadets were counting five. Dewey used his substitutes plentifully in this game and remained true to his word that he would work his reserves on the trip. Cy Arnold had on his shooting toes and acquired 12 of the Bison total. Greenfield also amassed an even dozen points, two coming in the extra period.

Des Moines Beaten

On Friday night the Bison encountered the Des Moines Tiger quint and got the better of a 26-20 count. Again Arnold came through in good shape and got the better of Harry Knapp, considered all-conference caliber, by acquiring four baskets and a gift shot for a total of nine points while the Tiger star was getting three baskets and two tosses from the line for a total of eight points. Greenfield and Newgard each came through with three baskets apiece. The count at half time found the Bison on the long end of a 14-5 count, an unusual feat for the Bison lately.

Saturday night the Bison met their only reverse of the trip, the Creighton Bluejays finding the basket for a total of 41 points while the Bison could not come half way and took the short end of a 41-18 count. Miller and Arnold played championship ball, Miller finding the hoop for three double counters, followed by Arnold, who counted twice from the field. Trautman, sensational bird performer of the southern quint, looped five double counters. Every Creighton performer who started the contest amassed at least six points. Creighton had on their shooting togs and made their chances good, despite the fact that Miller and Arnold put up a wonderful exhibition of goal tending.

Coyotes Beaten

The second non-conference contest netted another Bison win, the traveling quint downing the Midland college five 39-15. The Bison held a six point advantage at half time, 14-8. Greenfield and Thompson did the bombarding for the Bison, by scoring 10 and 9 points, respectively. Rumpeltes was ejected from the game on rough play.

The Bison won their third conference game of their southern jaunt by putting 36 points through the net while the Nebraska Wesleyan Coyotes

One shot, one-eighth of an inch from a spot smaller than a dime, cost the A. C. rifle team the winning of their match with the University of North Dakota last week. Both scores were much lower than those of the first match, the A. C. team suffering from a slight attack of over confidence. Parkinson led the local team with a total of 383.

TIGER GRAPPLERS WIN OPENING BOUT OF YEAR

Des Moines, Iowa, Feb. 10.—Coach Pareut's proteges won their first regular scheduled match of the season here recently when they defeated the Simpson college grapplers by the score of 16 to 7.

Parker and French won their matches by falls, while Waggoner, Cawkins and Jorgenson won by a big time advantage, although they were unable to throw their men. McLaughlin lost his match by a fall and Stubbs lost his match by a decision.

The Tiger matmen have two more meets scheduled for the present season. One here on February 14 with Iowa State Teachers, and another on February 28 at Cornell.

Following their invasion of Nebraska, in which they split even in their games, the Tiger basketball team faces another week with two important games. On Tuesday night they play Central college here in an important Iowa conference game. On Friday night they opened the local North Central Conference season when they clash with the strong North Dakota Aggie team. The latter team is one of the strongest in the conference, although it lost recently to South Dakota State, and Coach Cowell is pointing his men to this initial clash between the two teams.

Aces Named Soon

Announcement of the ballot and rules governing the Bison Ace contest will be made in Tuesday's Spectrum, according to Marie Smith in charge of that section. Each of the three upper classes will name their eight most representative students who have done well in various lines of endeavor. The faculty and the Bison staff will also have a vote on the ace section. Any attempts at framing will be promptly stopped.

The ballot will be carried in the Spectrum on Tuesday and Friday of next week and the contest will close on Saturday at noon. All ballots must be signed.

MILITARY BALL IS FINEST IN YEARS

ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE COUPLES ATTEND ANNUAL BALL

One hundred and twenty-five couples attended the tenth annual Military Ball held in the college Armory on Friday of last week. The attendance was one of the largest crowds to ever gather for a college formal function.

Music Features Party

Music for the ball was furnished by the Leland Parker hotel seven piece orchestra of Minot. Their dances were encored time and again by the dancers, the music being the finest that even the old timers could recall.

Scabbard and Blade sponsored the party, which was under the management of Leslie Narum, assisted by J. Ogden Brauer and Frank N. Leakey. Mr. Narum's partner for the prom was Miss Edith Skurdall of Larimore.

Decorations were carried out in patriotic colors. Bunting, guns, flowers and festoons were used in abundance to form an appropriate setting.

No formal lunch was served, light refreshments taking their place.

PLAY PROGRESSES IN Y CAGE TOURNAMENT

TAPPA KEGGS LEAD RACE WITH FOUR WINS, ONE LOST GAME

The trophy tournament in basketball that is being staged by the Y is progressing nicely and is drawing a great deal of interest.

The most interesting game played last week was the one in which the Kappa Phi team defeated the Tappa Keggs by the score of 40 to 31. Phil Boise starred for the Kappa Phis, while Erickson was the leading basket-keeper for the Keggs.

The Campus Specials, the new team to enter the tournament last week are not eligible to play for the cup and their standing will not be listed in the following tabulations:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Tappa Kegg	4	1	.800
Gamma Rho	3	1	.750
Kappa Phi	3	1	.750
Delta Sigma	3	1	.750

Hood college students celebrate a pay day every year, on which occasion everybody in college settles all debts and starts the year clean. A central point of meeting is decided upon for this purpose.

ORCHESTRA TO GIVE CONCERT ON MONDAY

FARGO-MOORHEAD FEDERATION OF CHURCHES SPONSORS PROGRAM

The A. C. orchestra will give a program at the Orpheum theater next Monday at 8 o'clock under the direction of Dr. C. S. Putnam. The concert will be given under the auspices of the Fargo-Moorhead Federation of Churches and the general public is invited to attend.

"Doc" has arranged a program which promises to be as good as he usually puts on with the band. The pieces to be given are as follows:

- Overture, Pique Dame.....Suppe
- Intermezzo from "Pregiwa's Marriage".....Crist
- Spiritual from "From the Cotton Fields".....White
- Valse des Fleurs from "The Nut Cracker Suite".....Tchaikowsky
- Aria for Bass, "O Guard, Have Mercy from oratorio, "St. Paul".....Mendelssohn
- Vocal solo with orchestral accompaniment..Prof. H. C. Hoffsommer
- Scene from Czarda "Hejre Kati".....Hubay, Op. 32, No. 4
- Violin solo by Thelma Edelbrock, concert mistress of the orchestra.

The orchestra now numbers about thirty instruments. The string section is made up of several A. C. students and the advanced students of Professor Hoffsommer from the Dakota conservatory. The wood wind, brass and percussion sections are made up of A. C. students with Mrs. Tarbell, piano instructor, at the piano.

Miss Ruth Glasier of the Dakota conservatory is now assisting Mrs. Tarbell with her large piano class. Mrs. Tarbell finds running a home and such a large piano class at the same time to be a little too strenuous.

SADDLE AND SIRLOIN NOMINATE HEADS

Officers nominated by the Saddle and Sirloin club at their last meeting were as follows: For president, Lloyd Ryall, Ray Harding and Alvin Oederkirk; secretary, George Landsverk and Fred Schroeder; treasurer, Theodore Piper and Raymond Douglas; historian, Charles Fleming and Ted Martell. No nomination was made for vice president, this office being filled by the one receiving the second highest vote for president. The election will be held at the next meeting which will be held the first week in March.

The Saddle and Sirloin club is one of the most active clubs on the campus and puts over a number of major events every year, and among them is the Little International Stock show, the Portrait Gallery banquet, where the pictures of prominent men of the state are added to the hall of fame. Other activities which the club sponsors but which have not yet taken place are the Collegiate Students Judging contest, which is open to all students of the college, and the high school judging contest in which teams from high schools from all over the state take part. The final activity for the year will be the Gaycat Day Bawl on the evening of Gaycat day.

FRATERNITIES PLEDGE EIGHT MEN THIS TERM

Fraternities of the college pledged seven men at winter term services held at the various chapter houses on Friday of last week. The Alpha Kappa Phi group pledged five, Donald Bishop, John Spielman, Clyde Herreid and Robert Hallenberg.

Carlton Lindquist and Earl Kerns were pledged to membership in the Delta Kappa Sigma fraternity, while the Theta Chis pledged Joe Norton.

CREIGHTON WILL INVADE ARMORY FOR CONTEST SATURDAY NIGHT

Athletic Director Stan Borleske announced this morning that the crowds for the South Dakota University and Creighton games will be handled in the same manner as they were for the South Dakota State contests.

Students and those holding passes will enter from the west door, while cash customers will enter the east or main door. Students are asked to refrain from the seats on the south side of the Armory, confining themselves to the north, east and west sides.

By EUGENE FITZGERALD

Two N. C. I. games are carded for the Bison on their home court when the University of South Dakota Coyotes and the Creighton Bluejays open their invasion of the Northern half of the circuit.

Coyotes Open Week

The Coyotes will be the first to encounter the Bison over the week end, being the guests of the Bison tomorrow night, while the Bluejays will be guests at a Valentine party on Saturday night, which promises to take the form of a hard fought basketball battle in repayment for the crushing defeat handed the Bison on their visit to the Creighton stronghold last Saturday.

While the Bison are favorites to cop the Coyote contest, the southerners should furnish Dewey's charges with a big evening's assignment in an effort to get a high rating in the conference race. The Coyotes are not an aggregation to be toyed with as their even break with the Bunnies earlier in the season indicates. The Bison at the present time are not playing up to the form expected of them earlier in the season and this fact coupled with the determination which the Coyotes will undoubtedly assume, should lead to an interesting battle.

Friday the 13th?

Friday the 13th, superstitiously a jinx day, should make both teams fight harder in an effort to leave their jinx to the opposition. Coach Montgomery can present a strong lineup, for in Captain Johnny Hinman, Deklotz and Redfield, he has a trio of stellar performers. The Coyotes have suffered two reverses in their season's conference play, but these were early in the season and reports indicate that they are going strong at the present time.

The migration of the Bluejays northward in an endeavor to retain their nesting place on the top perch of the N. C. I. should be witnessed by the largest crowd of the season. The Bluejays are, undoubtedly the strongest aggregation of tossers to invade Fargo this season. Creighton is rated as one of the best quints in the country at the present time, their overwhelming victories over several Missouri Valley conference quints attesting to that. The Bluejays have suffered but one defeat in their season play, that coming in their first game against the University of Minnesota.

Since their Minnesota reverse the Creightonites have downed the University of Iowa quint, which defeated Minnesota.

The 41-18 defeat of the Bison last Saturday at the hands of the Bluejays means little, as the Bison realized be-

In Memoriam!

A week ago today students of the Agricultural college paid final homage to the late Marcus Flaten, who would have been a Senior this year.

In the passing of Marcus the school and faculty have lost an asset that can not be replaced. He was a friend to everyone. He was well liked and was a credit to the school.

It is with deep regret that the Spectrum chronicles the death of the former student. The attendance at his funeral was evidence of the place he held in the hearts of the students.

WHO PAYS?

What profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his soul? From the Bible, a rare source of inspiration for a college editorial, comes a quotation that might well be said of the North Dakota Bison cage team.

Starting the season with a card of 33 games ahead of them their management had evidently sought to "gain the whole world." Last week they went south in quest of the "soul" in question, the North Central conference flag.

Creighton won, not because they have a better team, they may have, but because the Bison quint were not super-men. Starting their twentieth game of the year with nearly 6,000 miles of travel behind them it is not to be wondered at that they lost.

Their shot at a record is a noble one but a valuable lesson to future schedule makers. The Bison certainly made a fine name on the Pacific coast but—will games won against Washington and the rest bring home a North Central flag? The answer is obvious.

We will have the same team next year, Creighton will lose several stars. Let a word to the wise be sufficient; let us win our games where they boost the per cent mark.

ANOTHER STUDENT SPEAKS

There is one thing on the A. C. campus that is woefully lacking. That a literary society. There are social institutions without number, forensics, dramatics, athletics, agriculture, education. Any student can affiliate with whatever interests he has on the campus but unless he has a journalistic turn of mind there is no literary opening. There are people on the campus who have literary interests; we have a coming dramatist and a short story writer who even now publishes her efforts, but there is no society in which we can concentrate this talent. We have no way of bringing it out.

Something should be done about it. The writers of tomorrow are fully as important as the pugilists, or the athletes. Let's get together and organize a worthwhile literary society whose purpose is mainly in stimulating creative work.

A BAD EXAMPLE

But recently the papers have been full of startling disclosures concerning student life at the University of Wisconsin. If half the reports which have been revealed are true, conditions there must be in a deplorable plight. Whether or not "wild life" is getting the best of these college men and women we can not say. But we do know that it won't be long until every reformer in the country will be advocating "down with our colleges and universities; our youths are going to the dogs." Simply because one group or so at a large state university have so far forgotten themselves as to bring discredit, not only upon themselves, but upon their university and their state.

Whether there be truth in the matter or not makes no material difference. Wisconsin has stirred up something which will leave a bad taste in the mouths of many. She is setting a bad example, and, though existing conditions there may not be the fault of the university itself, yet it reflects back upon that institution and she gets blamed for it.

From time to time we have heard of this school and that getting into disrepute, usually through the thoughtlessness of a group of "low brow" students who have no care nor pay heed to the fair name and good reputation their alma mater enjoys. Certainly the great majority of men and women at Wisconsin are not involved in any scandal. And yet the few that are, are casting discredit upon the entire group. Truly, the sins of the few are visited on the heads of the many. It is an unfortunate state of affairs—one which all college men and women will be sorry to hear of.

Fats-Leans Both Dangerous Says Dr. Caroline Hedger

By BRUCE RINDLAUB

"Both lean men and fat men are dangerous, in spite of Shakespeare's protection of the fat man," declared Dr. Caroline Hedger of Chicago, one of America's foremost authorities on health education, in an address on "Positive Health," to the student body at convocation Monday morning.

Leans Are Tubercular

"Thin men are easily susceptible to tuberculosis," according to statistics gathered by Dr. Hedger. "I have seen only two men who were overweight brought down by this disease. Neither fat or thin men are healthy. The latter is under a constant nervous pressure, and are in constant danger because of their susceptibility to focal infections."

"The condition of fat men is even more dangerous, as is recognized by all the leading life insurance companies, who refuse to take them as a risk."

"Thin men have a much easier time correcting their condition than those of the other type. All they have to do is to sleep lots and eat lots. The path of correction for the fat man is truly one of denial. He must refrain from eating and must exercise consistently."

Health Is Growth

"Health is not solely absence from disease, according to the foremost theories advanced by the medical profession today," said Dr. Hedger. "Ten years ago the great change in the aim of the medical profession from the cure of disease to the prevention of disease came about. At present the new theory is being formulated, which intends to keep every individual in the best possible health."

"Health, according to John Dewey, philosopher, is something which makes a person fit to meet every emergency in any given period of his life. It is growth."

"The three underlying principles of good health are: 1. The development of the highest possible personal beauty; 2. development of your unconscious body; 3. development of vigor," according to Dr. Hedger. "The youth of today, while they should be storing up vitality as the prudent man saves his money, are throwing it away."

Work Necessary

Work is essential to health as is play. By work we do not mean intense energy destroying, nerve deadening, labor but healthy use of one's mental and physical powers; by play we do not mean watching other people perform, but rather rational recreation, indulged in by everyone. "Spiritual growth is directly dependent upon physical condition," said

Dr. Hedger. "At present our spirit is compelled to live in a material body, and because of this we must keep our bodies in the most nearly perfect condition possible."

"Eating affects our conduct in spite of all assertions to the contrary. Modern diet causes focal infection and poor teeth, the running down of the human system, thereby robbing us of our resistance to most serious diseases."

The fundamental duty of any person is to keep his weight in the correct relation to his height.

Dr. Hedger took several minutes in demonstrating to her audience the correct posture, giving them the four following orders:

1. Keep your weight forward, on your toes.
2. Keep your shoulders easy.
3. Keep your chest up.
4. Keep your chin in.

MILLER PRESIDES AT AGRICULTURAL SEMINAR

Professor Cap E. Miller presided at agricultural seminar last Friday afternoon. Various live topics of the day were discussed and a number of reports given by the members present. Herbert Herbison gave a lengthy report on census work. Herbie has been at the state capital for two months engaged in census survey and was able to relate some very interesting facts and incidents relating to the work for the benefit of those present. The next meeting of the seminar is scheduled for next Friday at 4 p. m.

The story of "The Wren" deals with Eusebia Elds, a young girl who can't help mothering and managing all the people around her. The weight of her troubles lies heavy on her shoulders. The hired man at Cap'n Olds' is scared of her and her gentle tyranny over the old Captain himself is so oppressive to that worthy that he sighs over the irony of Fate's having selected one of his eight children to boss him. Even before his first stroke sentences him to a wheel chair, she has led him quite a life. For he always wanted to marry somebody or other, and such sentimental desire demanded a good deal of his daughter's attention. As the play unfolds, you find Eusebia, the little wren, with ruffled plumage. A lackadaisical young painter who has been her special charge and worry, has become caught in the coils of a young matron from New York. The comedy deals with the wren's successful routing of this gaudy bird of prey. As the final curtain falls, the agitated Captain, sweeping the coast with his binoculars, discovers that his daughter has gone forth to keep the helpless young painter from getting lonely. And she knows just how to go about it.

Several changes have taken place in the band since James Stamp has left. George Dinyer of Glen Ullin, a two year Pharmacy man, has been placed in the second cornet chair with a trumpet. Several of the men have been moved up to fill the place of Stamp in the first solo chair. Fred Byerly has been advanced to first solo, Paul Dickey to second solo, Ralph Hollands to first cornet and Dinyer to second first cornet.

SPILLMAN WILL BE INSTITUTE SPEAKER

Many North Dakota farmers will have an opportunity to hear one of the leading farm economists of the country, W. J. Spillman, consulting specialist of the United States department of agriculture, at a series of twelve meetings to be held in the state from Feb. 16 to 28. These meetings will be held under the joint auspices of the farm management department of the Agricultural college and the North Dakota Farmers Institute board.

Mr. Spillman will talk on three subjects—Economics of Wheat Production from the World, National and State Statistics; Economics of Flax Production, and Economics of Flax Production.

"These meetings will be held at points well distributed over the state according to the interest exhibited by the various communities in the information offered," Mr. Willard declares. "Economics of sheep production will be of special interest in the eastern and northern parts of the state in connection with sow thistle control."

Mr. Willard will also be on the program at the meetings. He will discuss the agricultural regions of the state showing the average production of various crops, production trends and effect of damage factors. His talks will be illustrated with lantern slides. At the meetings in the northeastern part of the state he will discuss the results of a survey of the sheep enterprise as it is now operated on the farms of the state.

were gathering a total of 17 points. The half way mark found the Bison with a lead of four points, 16-12. Newgard hit his stride in this contest and came through with five field counters. Dewey used all his men in this contest and with the injection of Miller and Blakely in the second half the Bison took on a determined air and outplayed the Coyotes in every phase of the game. A smooth passing attack, coupled with close guarding, led to the downfall of the Coyotes and the Bison trotted off the court victors, 36-17.

Y BOWLING TOURNEY CLOSES FIRST WEEK

The Y. M. C. A. bowling tournament is off in full swing and with a week's progress is holding the attention of most of the college pin topplers.

The bowling trophy as well as the medals for the first three places are on display in the Y lobby and several interested parties have already been noticed looking at them with an air of proprietorship.

The standings for the bowling tournament at the end of the first weeks run are as follows:

forehand that they will have to battle every minute in an effort to send the Jays back with a reverse or to hold the score close.

Coach Schabinger, who guides the destinies of Jay quints, was evidently taking no chances with the Bison last Saturday and he kept his strongest lineup in the game all the way. Schabinger undoubtedly will respect the ability of the Bison here and will take no chances on being downed by the Bison, who may spring a surprise, as they are about due to hit their stride again.

Both contests will be called at the Green theme paper is used in certain classes at Wisconsin U, as a relief for the eyes.

The luncheon was of the "kind mother used to make" variety so we wish to thank Mrs. Schurr for her kind thoughtfulness.

Inquiring Reporter

At some of our rallies we have a fair percentage of the students present, at others the per cent is not so high. What struck us as most pathetic was that the latter percent seemed to predominate. The rally last Friday, before the Jamestown game, was probably one of the best, in regards to attendance, that has been held for some time. We wondered why all the rallies could not be as well patronized as the one held last week and so the Inquiring Reporter was put on the trail of a clue to this problem. Here is what he gleaned from some of our students and faculty:

Doctor Putnam, director of music, says: "It is not necessarily the fault of the student that the rallies are not more successful. We can't expect students, who live a long distance from the school to get home at noon, eat dinner, and return to the college by 12:45. If rallies could be held at some hour in the morning, one day a week, they would be more of a success and at the same time give the students a better chance to associate with one another and thus make for a stronger unity of feeling and expression among the student body."

FARGO, N. D.

Mr. Wewill D. Linquish thinks that there are somewhere around 300 students on the campus who think the word "rally" signifies something good to eat.

Ed Wright, Alpha Kappa Phi, thinks that the rallies should be held at 1:15 instead of at 12:45.

Bill Grey, Delta Kappa Sigma, says: "The Freshmen on the campus have too many liberties. At other institutions the Frosh are compelled to attend rallies; if not wilfully, more persuasive measures are taken in the form of the proverbial oaken staff. However, the upper classmen should set an example by attending rallies regularly."

Ed Yocum, editor-in-chief of The Spectrum, says: "The tickets for the games should be given out at the rallies, thus making it imperative that the students attend in order to witness the game."

E. Verle Deach, Theta Chi, says, "Offer a prize to the last one in."

Discuss this matter freely. If you have an idea on the subject let us know about it by way of the drop box in the Main building.

Card of Thanks

The Theta Chi fraternity wish to express their most sincere thanks to the several organizations on the campus for the sympathy and consideration shown them in the recent loss of one of their members.

PLEASANT PEOPLE

"Store manners" may not be as important as ballroom manners but we think they are. Every store that has become an Institution holds to the same doctrine. When you come to this store, every one here becomes your host as truly as though you visited them at their own homes. As a guest you expect courtesy without stiff formality, careful attention to your wants without impertinent suggestion, and a pleasant echo of the welcome that greeted your arrival when you leave. All this is assured you whenever you call, but you are reassured NOW, because we want you to know that we are glad to have you come and see the new spring shoes and other merchandise, just arrived, even though the thought of purchase may be weeks away.
