Largest A. C. Delegation In School History Set to Take The U. N. D. Special

Midwest Press Delegates Back From Annual Meet

REPRESENTATIVES OF STUDENT PAPERS IN N. C. I. CONFERENCE PRESENT; THORFINSON AND SCHLIFF WENT FOR SPECTRUM; BETTER ATHLETIC RELATIONS AND PUBLICITY THEME OF ACTION TAKEN.

With six of the eight Conference schools represented, the Mid West Press Association, meeting at Brookings, South Dakota last Friday, and Saturday, went on record as favoring the establishment of closer relationship between the school papers. Conference Editors were appointed by the various publication editors to handle the inter school news, in accordance with a resolution adopted.

Fifteen delegates representing North Dakota University, North Dakota Agricultural College, Creighton, Morningside, South Dakota University, and South State assembled at the latter school where the meetings were held. This was a decided gain in attendance over last year when only three colleges sent delegates to Grand Forks. Maynard W. Brown of the Extension Department, and Snorri Thorfinson and Stewart Schlipf of the Spectrum staff represented the A. C. The delegates made the trip by auto leaving Fargo early Thursday.

Several interesting sessions were held, including addresses by the editor of the Brookings daily, Coach West of State, and Mr. Mayo, the South Dakota representative of the Associated Press. Charles Evans, editor of the North Dakotan presided as president with Larson of South Dakota State acting as secretary. That more cordial relations between the college papers might be established was the prevailing sentiment of the meeting. Measures were adopted to insure the exchange of news, especially athletic dope and illustrations were appointed by the various editors of the teams. Conference editors at the meeting. Stewart Schlipf is to assume this position with the Spectrum.

The session closed with the balloting for new officers and the selection of the 1924 meeting place. Evans of North Dakota was reelected president, while Barnhart of South Dakota University, and Olson of Morningside were elected vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively. Morningside College, at Sioux City, Iowa, was chosen as the next meeting place.

Copies of the six papers represented were judged on their respective merits by Mr. Mayo. First place was awarded to the "Collegian Reporter" of Morningside, second place to "The Dakota Student" of North Dakota University, and third to "The Volante" of South Dakota University.

"U Special" Is Assured Fact Now; Will leave 8:30

Ticket sales for the U Special Train as turned in last night assures us that the train is to be an actuality this year and will leave Fargo at 8:30 A. M. Saturday.

Some three hundred students are expected to go up by way of train and the team and band will have special cars on the rear. Bison Boosters and interested townspeople, will take advantage of the reduced rates altho just exactly how many has not yet been really approximated.

Tickets are still on sale. For the benefit of student purchasers who have not already obtained their passes, the registrar is keeping a number of tickets on sale.

When the first whistle blows there will be a hundred percent attendance of A. C. people on the east stands and end of the field reserved for us.

The sale of band tags reached the desired amount yesterday morning and for the first time in several years the band will have every ticket paid for by student backers.

Herbison Heads Senior Class; Rydstrom Juniors

Herbert W. Herbison was elected president of the Senior Class of the North Dakota Agricultural College in the annual class elections held Friday.

Carlton Rydstrom was chosen junior president; Llewelyn Howell, sophomore; and James Stamp, freshman. Other senior officers named included: Snorri Thorfinson, vicepresident; Violet Erickson, secretary; and Viola Larson, treasurer.

The juniors named J. Ogden Brauer, vicepresident; Gregory Moore, secretary; and A. Hook, treasurer.

Sophomore officers included: Cyril Arnold, vicepresident; Marie Smith, secretary; and Mildred Sheldon, treasurer.

Fordyce Heilman was named as freshman vicepresident; Dorothy Stout as secretary; and Majorie Gullickson as treasurer.

Drive for Student Work Is Very Successful

MANY POSITIONS FOUND BY BUSINESS MEN OF FARGO FOR STUDENTS NEEDING SAME LAST WEEK; LIST OF JOBS ON FILE AT COLLEGE "Y" DESK.

Around a hundred positions have been located for A. C. students through the canvass made the last few days by the Associated Service Clubs' Student Employment Bureau. Many more will be forthcoming thinks Secretary Thompson when the questionnaire all come back.

Due to the number of students who must find some kind of work on the side to keep themselves in college, and the number of business men who can use part time employees, and those college men, the campaign was instituted by the combined clubs of Fargo co-operation with the employment bureau of the college Y. By making a systematic canvass of downtown districts, just what is open, and the kind of a man desired, is on file and thru recommendation by the secretary both employer and student employee is mutually benefited.

Students desiring part time work will do well to leave their names at the employment desk or talk with Thompson personally.

A Year of Activity Is Saddle and Sirlain Policy

A bigger and better "Little International", the Second Annual Portrait Gallery Banquet, an all-college jamboree, and awarding the members of the National Dairy and Livestock Judging Teams with gold medals are a few of the things on the list of the Saddle and Sirlain Club's activities for the year, as outlined in the first meeting of that organization held Tuesday evening in the new Ag Building.

A drive for members is being made this week and the executive committee and old members are particularly interested in having every freshman student enrolled in the college of Agriculture or Veterinary Science become a member of the Saddle and Sirlain. The club is a live wire outlet for the cumulative pep and ability of all Ag men and in an organization that any one at all interested in livestock and agriculture in the state of North Dakota, and the nation at large, can be proud to hold membership in.

Last year, the club presented the individual members of the Dairy Judging Team, (which by the way took the sweepstakes at the National Dairy Show) and the National Livestock Judging Team with gold medals engraved appropriately; the same thing will be done this year and, in all probability, the next and the next until the college sees fit to acknowledge the good work and good name the men do for A. C. and in so doing tender the customary awards given the same activities in other institutions.

Headwork, Brawn and Speed in These Fighting Bisons

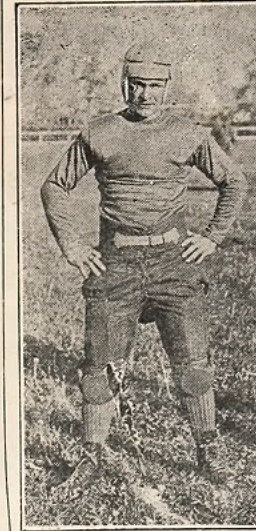

STANLEY E. BORLESKE—COACH

The man behind the gun. Coach Borleske knows football; he puts out a fighting team whether he has material or not and when he has a bunch of comers like this year's squad something has to happen. Just watch him grab the conference.

"BIG BEN" RUMPELTES—CAPTAIN

Big Ben is the terror of them all, a steady hard hitting bear cat that never slows down. Time after time he has broken thru to spill the backs for losses in games this year. He has two more years to play.

"ZIP" BUTTE—QUARTER

Zip has enough speed and grit to more than make up for his being lighter than the men he has to buck up against. For three years he has played the same consistent game and is always around to spoil the other fellow.

Bison Eleven Showed Real Class In Holding Des Moines Tigers To Tie Score In Thrilling Battle

Bisons maintain Clear Record in Bid for Conference Football Honors; A. C. Aggregation Outweighed Fifteen pounds per Man, and Playing on Foreign Field after gruelling Trip displayed Solid Defense; Defensive in Punting sums up Game fairly well; Rumpeltes, Boise, played either Role.

About 200 Men Take Part In A. C. Athletics

ATHLETIC FACILITIES BETTER HERE THAN AVERAGE STUDENT REALIZES; MANY FORMS OF RECREATION AVAILABLE TO SUIT TASTES OF PARTICIPANT; MANY MEN NEVER TRAIN.

Over two hundred men students and faculty took part in some form of athletics last winter at the N. D. A. C. This is more than the average person might suppose yet it is only one third of the number that might have taken advantage of the many varied sports that are included in the Agricultural College athletic program.

Far too many think that the varsity teams are the only place for athletic training and that if you can't "make the team", you must sit back and grow fat and soft. But this is not the case, as the above figures show, for only about twenty-five or thirty men were out for varsity and High School basketball teams. Where then, you ask, do the others get their exercise? In inter-cases and inter-organization basketball, volley ball, skiing, skating, boxing, wrestling, and bowling.

In the fall and spring there is also tennis, as well as the regular football, baseball and track events. Every student could—if he would, take an active part in some form of sports. Last year seventy five students played in the intra-mural Basketball tournament and dozens more played volley ball, bowled or boxed. A few skid or skated for their exercise. A higher percentage of faculty men than students took part in regular athletics in the form of basketball, volley ball, and bowling. This does not speak very well for the students. The co-eds are far ahead of the men in this respect, for every girl unless physically unable must take part in some physical training. In the fall it is hockey and tennis, (Continued on page 3.)

Fighting the heavy Des Moines University aggregation to a scoreless tie last Saturday, while the Jackrabbits were putting the Hilloppers out of the conference race, the Bisons kept their conference slate clear and put themselves in a position to step into the North Central Conference high honors next Saturday with a win over the Flickertails.

Eleven fighting Bisons went through the full 60 minutes without a substitution. Completely outweighed, the Bisons settled down to a conservative style of play, with the excellent punting of Boise the most important factor in keeping the Tigers away from the scoring zone. The Bisons lost a wonderful opportunity to score in the first period when Gunderson knocked down a forward pass that barely slipped from his grasp, while he was in the open with three of his mates to run his interference.

TIGERS WERE HURRIED

Sitting through in the critical moments of the game, the Bison linemen hurried the Tiger backs or threw them for a loss that spoiled their chances to score. On the offense, the Bison forward wall put up a solid front on kick formation and Boise got off his punts in a brilliant manner. Captain Ben Rumpeltes again played in a stellar role and broke through the Tiger line to block kicks and break up plays when the Bison goal was in danger. Buchanan, shifted to tackle from guard, took care of the other side of the line in a very commendable manner. Boise and Spears took care of the wing positions with little trouble. Captain Knox, played a star game for the Tigers.

The summary:

N. D. A. C.	Des Moines

Crack Squad Tryouts Are Coming This Week

Tryouts for positions in the N. D. A. C. Crack Squad will be considered the rest of this and all of next week according to Frank Leaky who is in charge of this phase of military activity this year.

All members of last year's organization are urged to come out again, and rejoin the squad. Every other freshman and sophomore who can do the manual fairly well has a good chance with his neighbors to make it. Practice began Wednesday night and the full quota is not expected to turn out until next week sometime.

Last year the squad appeared on several public entertainments and gained much popularity for themselves as a troupe. In past years their organization has been booked on theatrical circuits and the World's Fair a few years ago found the N. D. A. C. Crack Squad on the list of entertainment features there.

Annual Class Play Contests November 27

CLASS HEADS URGED TO APPOINT COMMITTEES AT ONCE TO PICK PLAY, CAST, AND STUDENT DIRECTORS TO CONFER WITH MARJORIE LIEBERG.

Tuesday, November 27, 1923, is the date of the Annual Class Play Contest to take issue among the four collegiate classes of the institution. Keen rivalry has always marked this phase of the year's program and it is believed that this year will prove to be no exception in this particular field. Class presidents are urged to appoint a committee today to choose a play, pick the cast, and select a student director as soon as possible. The committee is to confer with Marjorie Lieberg immediately.

Rules and Regulations. The rules governing the contest are as follows:

1. Except by faculty action, no student is eligible to participate in any public contest or any public program who shall not in the previous term have successfully carried at least ten hours per week and be registered for and successfully carrying at least fifteen hours per week in the term in which such contest or program is to occur.
2. In form plays must not be more than one act. Each class is limited to thirty minutes in presentation.
3. Judges in making their decision will take into consideration the following: (1) The character of the play; (2) the interpretation; (3) the setting; (4) the lighting; (5) the costumes and the make-up.

Membership Drive Now Under Way on Campus

A FOOTBALL CONTEST BEING WAGED ON A POINT BASIS BY TWO TEAMS; DRIVE ENDS SATURDAY NIGHT; THREE CLASSES OF MEMBERSHIP OFFERED.

A gala spread followed with the checking in of shakels gathered in during the day and the announcing of the standing of the two membership teams out for support takes place in the college "Y" dining room every night this week. Voluntary subscriptions towards the upkeep of the "Y" activities at the college are being solicited by two teams under their respective leaders, each dollar being turned in checking as two points to be tacked on the football scoreboard. As we go to press reports are favorable. (Continued on page 3.)

Junior and Senior Men Class in Friday Game

The huskys from the Junior and Senior classes will tangle for football honors Friday afternoon, on the hockey field at four o'clock. The winners of that game are to be matched with the Freshman squad, winners over the Sophs in Saturdays intramural contest. Next week will decide the class championship.

According to rules drawn up and adopted last year regarding intramural sports on the campus, all men who have been out for any varsity practice this fall are declared ineligible. Letter men who have not been out within the past year for varsity practice are declared eligible to participate in this year's interclass sports. Any disputes or conflicts are to be brought to the attention of Philip Boise, who has charge of this branch of student activity as commissioner of Athletics.

A. C. Claims Half of Paint Men in Nation

The North Dakota Agricultural college furnishes 50 percent of the chemists in paint and varnish factories in the United States, according to a survey by Dr. W. T. Pearce, head of the paint chemistry department of the college.

"Forty graduates of the chemistry school are now scattered among the various states of the union and applying to the practical tests of the knowledge gained at the A. C.," he said. "As the total number of paint and varnish chemists is small it may reasonably be said that the North Dakota graduates have an active part in directing the paint industry of this country. Their influence might almost be said to dominate this industry."

In the October Issue of Chemical Age, appears an article by Dr. Pearce which tells of the service of the technical school of industry and the people. This treatise gives the history of the development of research and instruction at the North Dakota Agricultural college and traces its rapid growth from 1907 to the present.

"What They Think" To Be Repeated In Fargo

OCTOBER 25, AND OCTOBER 30 SET AS DATES FOR PRESENTATION OF POPULAR PRODUCTION BY L. C. T. PLAYERS BEFORE SHRINERS AND KIWANIS.

The play "What They Think" by Rachel Crothers, which was very successfully presented October 5 at the Cass County Teacher's Institute, is to be again presented in the private performances. The play which was a one act, appeared in the Ladies Home Journal of February 1923. It is a clever play of domestic turbulence, wherein two irate parents endeavor to reprimand their offspring for staying out late at night. The parents become so irate that they display their true characters to their children, who change the trend of affairs and reprimand the fond parents with a few ultra-modern remarks.

The cast of characters of the play in order of their appearance is as follows:

The Boy.....	Charles F. Wells
The Girl.....	Marjorie Gullickson
The Mother.....	Helen Kruger
The Father.....	Claude Ebling

Time of play: Three O'clock in the Morning.

Ibsen's "Doll House" To Be Fall Term Play

NOVEMBER 21ST SET AS DATE OF PRESENTATION; TRYOUTS FOR CAST POSITIONS IN L. C. T. BEING LOOKED OVER CAREFULLY.

The Edwin Booth Dramatic Club has selected for its fall term play, A Doll's House, a play in three acts by the famous Norwegian dramatist, Henrik Ibsen. The play is well known to students of drama for its perfect construction, and for its development of plot. It is a domestic problem play showing the "Sacrifice of feminine individuality", there is a certain suspense and tenseness that holds one to the end.

A Doll's House has been produced in Fargo many times, the first showing being made a number of years ago in the old Fargo Opera House, with the now famous motion picture actress, Nazimova, in the leading role of "Nora." The play was again successfully presented in Fargo two years ago by Madame Borgny Hammer who carried the lead and Mr. Hammer as Torwald Helmer. The motion picture version of the play was shown here last year with Nazimova. (Continued on page 3.)

GLIMPSES OF HOBO DAY AT SOUTH DAKOTA STATE

Hobo Day at South Dakota State College is an event. It corresponds to our Gay Cat Day, but is more complete and has some very good features. Some of these might be worth adopting at this college.

For two weeks previous to Hobo Day, none of the men students shave; whether or not the coeds do—I was unable to learn. Hobo Day is combined with Home Coming Day and the alumni play on active part. One of the features was an alumni band composed of men from last year's class back to those of the vintage of '95. Following a monstrous parade thru the streets of Brookings, a parade made intensely interesting by the varied floats—the students went from door to door begging for hand outs in true hobo style.

Our Gay Cat Day and Ag Jamboree would be helped a great deal by some honest to gosh whiskers, providing the students can grow 'em.

MID TERM'S

"Midterms" are soon here. What will your midterm report show? Will it show that you've done well or not, that you've tried hard or simply drifted? Will it show that you got your grade honestly or by unfair means? Silly questions maybe—but after all we are here to study, and while our grades are not absolute guides, they at least show what the faculty think we are doing.

It is a mighty easy thing to get into the habit of drifting—just simply getting by from day to day—but—where does it get you? Employees are unreasonable creatures. They don't ask whether you are a social lion, whether you can dance five days a week, or even if you are a rabid movie fan. They want results—and results mean work. College isn't such a bad place to learn how to work in, and it's a fine place to learn to do things you don't like.

College will not give you a formula for success, nor a sure fire method of getting rich. But a college education, if you give it some co-operation will teach you to think—and that is what counts.

Your grades are a fairly accurate measure of your thinking ability. What does your report tell you? Are you tending to business or are you following the line of least resistance and loafing?

ON TO THE U

Saturday, the season's classic in North Dakota Football will be played on the University gridiron at Grand Forks. Some of us, all of us we hope, will see the game. It will be a clash of trained machines, a battle of brawn and wits and a meeting of two invisible undefinable realities, our school spirit—and theirs. Will ours be the stronger? That depends on all of us. We have never failed in the past to outcheer any University aggregation on our own or their field. Let's do it once more.

Every minute of that game, pull for our team, your team. Root for clean, hard playing. That's what counts. The "knock 'em down, drag 'em out" variety usually has a yellow streak back of it. Other things being equal, the clean hard driving team wins.

We have the best team. We know it. Make them know that we know it and then we'll all know it.

We're going on a special train with one special purpose—to beat the U. Let's have a special school spirit too and act in such a manner that the average football fan will think "That is a real live bunch", and the average citizen attending the game will look us over and say "I reckon A. C. will be a good place to send my children." Let's go—and win!

THE N. C. I. CONFERENCE

The North Central Inter-Collegiate Conference is still rather vague to many students. Just who make up the N. C. I.?

There are eight schools—Morningside College (Maroons) of Sioux City, Iowa; University of South Dakota, (Coyotes) of Vermillion; South Dakota State College, (Jackrabbits), of Brookings; Creighton University, (Hilltoppers), from Omaha, Nebraska; Nebraska Wesleyan, (Methodists); Des Moines University, (Tigers), from Iowa; the Flickertails from the University of North Dakota, and the North Dakota Agricultural College Bisons. There are over eight thousand students in these eight institutions. Morningside is the smallest, but has good athletic teams. There is no reason why the N. C. I. Conference should not become one of the best in the country. All the members of the conference are young growing colleges and universities and each year will see growth and improvement. The Big Ten is big because its students and alumni think it's big and boost it. The N. C. I. also depends on its students. We can make it big, and successful, and it is in our power to make N. C. I. stand for clean Inter-collegiate competition. Boost!

FRIENDSHIP.

"Thou mayst be sure that he who will in private tell thee of thy faults, is thy Friend, for he adventures thy dislike, and doth hazard thy hatred; for there are few men that can endure it, every man for the most part delighting in self-praise, which is one of the most universal follies that bewitched mankind."—Sir Walter Raleigh.

MATRIMONIAL WEATHER

A gentleman not long ago kept a meteorological diary of his wife's temper. Here it is:
 Monday—Rather cloudy; in the afternoon rainy.
 Tuesday—Vaporish; brightened a little toward evening.
 Wednesday—Changeable; stormy; inclined to rain.
 Thursday—High wind and some peals of thunder.
 Friday—Fair in the morning; variable till afternoon; cloudy at night.

Davis Will Use These Three Men Saturday

AL BRODIE

Brodie is a big fellow and a fighter thru and thru. Basket ball fans have seen him perform here before. He gets thru somehow and is responsible for breaking up fancy plays for the other outfit.

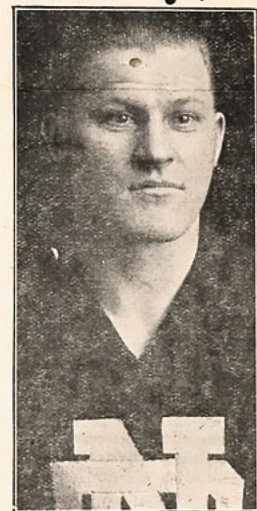

BUSDICKER

One of the cleverest pass handlers in the conference. He spars them no matter how they come and goes down the field like a deer. He is a tall rangy fellow, aggressive, and has a pretty slick football education. Watch him Saturday.

JUD MAYER

Mayer is a husky Junior from Grand Forks. He is going better than last year the deopsters tell us and tears up the biggest ones when he is feeling good. He'll be in the lineup Saturday.

BALDY BURKMAN—CAPTAIN

Baldy is the biggest man on the Flickertail eleven and will be giving everything he has to beat us Saturday. This is his fourth year and it finds him one of the strongest backfield and triple threat men in the conference.

in the winter basketball and aesthetic dancing, in the spring baseball, hockey, and tennis.

Too many of our men students do nothing more strenuous than chewing gum or more exciting than matching pennies. We have made a good start but the possibilities for improvement are infinite. We need more athletics — not extreme development of a very few, but some healthful exercise for all. If every man in college made use of the athletic facilities that the school offers we would not only have a healthier and happier student body—but we would see the thermometer of student scholarship rising rapidly—and the doctor could take a vacation.

The Edwin Booth presentation of the play will be given in the Little Country Theater, Wednesday, November twenty-first. Tryouts for the play were held Monday, October 22, but at the present writing the cast has not been announced, work on the play is to begin at once in order to develop it into one of the best plays presented by the club.

A class C membership entitles its holder to all the privileges of the "Y" free of charge save 2½ cents a line for pin-setting hen bowling; a class B membership takes in any pledged amount and moral support and entitles the holder to all the general privileges of the association; the class A membership card costs nothing, and is merely a token of your good will and a card entitling you to voting privileges in determining the policies of the association.

Saturday night has been set as the deadline for the subscription contest. At that time Milo Brandmeyer and Peter Hollands will find out which has piloted the winning team.

Noon Hour Drills Are Almost All Over Now

Much sadness is being displayed among the ranks of the fresh and sophomore cadets who have heard that beginning with November 1, there is to be no more drill periods forced on them every noon hour whether they want them or not.

The special drill periods will be dispensed with following Tuesday and will give the cadets a rest until next spring when the same system as last year will be installed again. While these special periods have seemed to have had to miss other work, quite a handicap to many individuals the majority of the corps have been greatly benefited, both the men in the ranks who have been learning fundamental stuff, and the officers learning to drill their companies in a creditable manner. Great progress has been made and inspecting officers visiting here at intervals this fall have been loud in their praises of the work the battalion is doing.

Needless to say, the entire battalion and staff of instructors is going to keep our Honor Rating and the gold star sleeve we earned last year for our increased efforts.

Handbook Soon Ready For Its Distribution

The 1923-24 edition of the Handbook, the student's bible, is almost ready for distribution according to word received this week regarding the progress being made with it. It will be given every student on the campus, absolutely free as per usual.

Included in its pages are all kinds of information dealing with the college, its organizations and their heads, activities and their scope, faculty members and their addresses, the songs, yells, and traditions of the institutions, the location of all the fraternities and sororities, a list of their members, and a short writeup of each.

and last but not least a complete directory of the students of A. C., their addresses, telephone numbers, class, and home addresses.

The book is being made pocket size, is well bound, and not too cumbersome to put in your pocket. It is being published under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and edited by Ernest R. Mortenson.

Girl's Hockey Tourney Opened Monday Night

With the Sophomore girls triumphing over the Upper Class team, composed of Junior and Senior girls, the girl's class hockey tournament opened Monday evening. A complete schedule is worked out now and the teams are organized as to personnel and nights of playing.

Membership on the class team exempts one from gym classes. It is required that everyone on the team attend all practices called by the captain or Director Andrews.

Grace Bayliss is piloting the freshmen this year, Edith Skurdall is captain of the Sophomore club wielders, Pearl Brayton guides the destinies of the Upper Class squad, and Christine Rudd is in charge of the High School outfit.

Rally Tomorrow

Tomorrow is our day off and everything for the raising of bison wim, vigor and vitality is in line. A pep fest has been tentatively promised us for sometime tomorrow morning, so watch the bulletin board for the hour and be there with your Yea Bison. Full particulars regarding purchase of game tickets, hours of leaving and return, music, yelling—and anything else the occasion demands is on the bill of fare. Greenfield will be in charge with Doc right there with the zip.

The Bison Dope

The second season of the North Central Intercollegiate Conference football is half over, and the dope box has been upset so often that the dope has all trickled away.

The Jackrabbits from South Dakota State College were doped to beat us on the 13th and the Flickertails down the Red River were supposed to trample on the Coyotes from the University of South Dakota. In both cases the dope was spilled. Last Saturday the Creighton "Hilltoppers" were expected to win over West's Jackrabbits and again the dope was wrong. The Bisons held the powerful Des Moines Tiers to a tie and Nebraska Wesleyan Methodists held the Coyotes to a 0-0 game. That's hard on the dope. So far the Tigers, Bisons, Coyotes, and Nebraska Methodists have not been defeated. Morningside showed strength in trouncing Kalamazoo Michigan Normal 68-0.

The Jackrabbits demonstrated in the last quarter of the game with Creighton, that they are by no means out of the championship race.

Next Saturday will give the dopsters a splendid opportunity. The Jackrabbits will invade Coyote territory and the Bisons will meet the Flickertails. It will be easier to predict the Champs after those contests.

"Big Ben" Rumpeltes is sure making a strong bid for all conference tackle. It will take a human cyclone with dynamite in each shoe to beat him.

"Charlie" Owens displayed his wares in unmistakable style in the second half Saturday. "Charlie" tore past the Creighton men in fine shape and handled passes as well.

Frank Welch showed what a fine field general he is and Creighton simply couldn't fathom his paces. The Welch to Welch pass proved a winner.

Phil Boise booted the pigskin for fifty and over fifty yards consistently Saturday and displayed an educated toe hard to beat.

Burkman, Nelson, and Currie are doing good work on the Flickertail team and Thorvaldson plays his usual steady game at end.

"Cy" Arnold may be unable to play next Saturday, but he's a comer.

It's lucky Zip Butte doesn't weigh 180 or there wouldn't be much left of the other teams.

"Lard" Buchanan looked good at tackle Saturday. "Buch" hits the line hard and plays a steady game all the time.

There's going to be a hot time at Grand Forks when the "Bison Special" hits the town.—YEA BISONS!

"CY" ARNOLD—FULLBACK
"Cy" has had the misfortune of having his shoulder knocked out of whack and it is believed that he will be out of luck for the game Saturday. Cy has put fight into the team this fall and is one of the most aggressive of Bison backs.

CLAUDE MILLER—HALF
Miller comes to us from Fargo High where he performed in fine shape on the champion Midget eleven's team two years. Claude is fast and shifty and the handicapped somewhat in weight yet he makes things give way for him.

BOB BLISS—END
Bliss is a good end. There is no fooling around his wing when there are yards to be made. He's a husky boy, is well versed in the art of blocking, and can make gains when called upon to do so. His first year with the Bison eleven.

NO MORE GREEN CAPS
No green caps for the frosh are being seen this week since the interclass game Saturday. The sophos agreed to let the yearlings off if they were good enough to deserve the favor.

ALLEYS IN GOOD SHAPE

Faculty Volley Ball Tournament Opens Up

SCHEDULE NEARING COMPLETION WITH SOME TEN OR TWELVE ENTRIES FOR THE HONORS.

New life and pep is being shown by a good number of august faculty members this week since the opening games of the Volley Ball Tournament getting under way under the auspices of the "Y" athletic director.

A tentative schedule is listed this week with the director at the Y, and the middle of next week will find it drawn up as it will be for the fall term and early part of winter. Faculty teams will each play a series of games with the other contestants and their standings will be published each week on a percentage basis.

Those already in the swim say there is still room for a few more and any groups not already in something of the kind and craving some real arguments will do well to get busy today and arrange for dates.

All the leading nuts in the country may be found in the lineups and team personels of the faculty volleyball teams this year; that is as far as names go.

The teams are named after nut varieties this year. So far there are Grape, Wal, Pea, Hazle, Beech, Co-co, and Dough-Nuts.

Election of captains for the respective teams will be made next week it is announced.

The opening games this week went to the Grape Nuts and Hazle Nuts.

should have in common. More hours similar to Monday's will be set aside whenever convenient, thinks Dean Waldron.

Firing Range Open At All Hours of the Day

Every member of the cadet battalion is given a chance to fire on the college range now until cold weather with the department providing men to man the fun pits and keep tab on the scores made. Major Harrell asks that every cadet fire a few rounds at some time this fall if at all possible, leaving just that much less necessary work to be done next spring.

Hours can be arranged on a few minutes notice by seeing Major Harrell or Sergeant Culpepper on school days. All Saturday morning is given over to the work also for the benefit of students having a heavy schedule during the school week.
