

OSTMAN PICKS '24 AGASSIZ STAFF

CONTRACTS FOR ENGRAVING AND PRINTING TO BE LET SOON; LARGER AND BETTER EDITION IS PLANNED

An Agassiz that will show as much progress over the publications of previous years as the spirit and growth of the school this year over all former years, is the aim of the staff of the 1924 Agassiz, according to plans announced by Arthur Ostman, editor in chief.

Contracts for engraving and printing will be let within the next two weeks, Mr. Ostman announced, and photography work for the annual will begin at once. There is to be no official photographer this year, it is announced. None of the downtown studios are willing to offer rates on cuts so each individual may select his own photographer. The Agassiz advertising solicitors will set out next week and all the photographers will be visited. A list of the photographers in good standing with the Agassiz advertising crew will be posted within a week.

A new plan for the high school section of the Agassiz is also announced. The editor-in-chief plans to offer the high school more responsibility. They will be asked to handle their own material, send in their own cuts and specify just what space they will need. A business manager will be named to take care of raising the funds necessary to put out the high school edition of the book. Mr. Ostman will name the high school editor sometime next week.

An early start, an early finish, less worry, less confusion and a better Agassiz is the program of the 1924 Agassiz staff.

The staff, which may be added to later, has been announced as follows:
 Adolph Norgaard—Associate editor.
 Harriet Ostbye—Activities
 Leo Osman—Military
 Clarence Sagmoen—Music
 Violet Erickson—Organizations
 David Buchanan—Athletics.
 Howard Bateson—Art
 Viola Larson—Individual writings.

NORTH DAKOTA'S CHAMPION DAIRY COW JUDGES

Complete figures on the contest, held this week at the National Dairy show at the Minnesota fair grounds which was won by the team representing the North Dakota Agricultural college proves how decisively North Dakota won out over its competitors. The team standings were as follows:
 North Dakota, 3757.3; Oregon 3646.7; Iowa 3643.9; Indiana, 3610.3; Massachusetts, 3,602.9; New Hampshire, 3,593.1; Tennessee, 3542.5; Michigan 3509.0; New York 3501.7; Kentucky, 3492.8; Missouri, 3484.8; Ohio 3477.4; Minnesota 3456.3; Wisconsin, 3452.4; Texas 3425.5; Nebraska 3424.9; Kansas 3373.8; Illinois, 3409.4; West Virginia 3256.7; New Jersey 3173.8.

The possible score was 4800. It will be noted that N. Dak. was 100 points in the lead of the second team in the contest, while less than 100 points separated the second team and the sixth team, New Hampshire, and only 200 points separate the second team and the 13th team, Wisconsin.

The North Dakota team in addition to winning the sweepstakes in judging all breeds, was first in Ayrshires, third in Guernseys and third in Jerseys.

Harper Brush, who was second individual high man in the contest, was also high man in Jerseys, second in Ayrshires and tied for eighth place in Guernseys.

Brush was also tied for high man at the National Dairy congress judging contest held at Waterloo, Iowa, a couple of weeks ago, receiving for that feat a silver loving cup.

The hardware, as Professor Dice refers to it, in the form of silver cups is on exhibition at the Merchants National Bank and will be on display for the next year at the college library. Unless won again by us next year they will not remain in our possession as a three year win in succession is the price of permanent possession of the same. Kansas did it last year and we can duplicate this year's victory again and again.

MONTANA COMES HERE WITH A CLEAN RECORD—BOBCAT BACKFIELD OUTWEIGH BISONS

Bison followers will have their first chance to see the team in action that will meet the University when the Bisons meet their first strong opposition tomorrow in Coach Romney's Bobcats from Montana State College on Dakotah field here.

Athletic relations between the two schools will be resumed after a lapse of eight years, when the Bobcats defeated Coach Hood's Bisons in 1914 by a small margin. Last year the Bisons showed they had a team on a par with the University of Montana eleven, which defeated the State aggregation and consequently both teams will enter the battle on a par.

The Bisons under Coach Cutting have shown improvement in every game, but still seem to be weak in the kicking game and tackling in the open. Blocking and picking holes has been considerably improved since their first game. Unless injuries occur before the Bobcat game, followers of the Bison eleven are promised one of the snappiest teams in the history of the school.

Montana comes here with a clean record this year, having won all their games by large scores. Both teams will be on a par in weight on the line, with the Bobcats having the edge in the backfield due to Bowdman, 190 pound fullback, who has been tearing up opposing lines with apparent ease.

Cottage Cornerstone Laid Tomorrow

Laying of the corner stone for the new home economics practice cottage will be observed as a part of women's day at the college on Saturday, October 21. Miss Minnie J. Nielson, state superintendent of public instruction, Dr. John Lee Coulter, president of the college, Mrs. Ralph Weible, an alumna of the home economics department of the college, and a member of the senior class of the department will speak at the cornerstone laying exercises.

Nearly 1,000 invitations have been issued to high school girls and club women of the state for the event. All senior high school girls of Fargo and Moorhead, girls at the Moorhead State Teachers college, presidents of all women's clubs in the state and all members of women's clubs in Fargo and near vicinity have received invitations for the affair.

Plans are being made to entertain the high school girls at luncheon on the day and they will also be guests of the college at the A. C.—Montana football game to be played in the afternoon on Dakotah field.

The corner stone exercises will begin at 10 a. m. The college band is to furnish music for the occasion.

NOTICE

A staff meeting of all members of the Spectrum Staff and anyone wishing to try out for some place on it will be held this afternoon at 4:00 o'clock sharp, in the Spectrum office, (second floor of Barracks.) Be there.

Acoth sorority held open house for students Saturday evening from 8 until 10 p. m.

Jamestown college failed entirely in their hopes of duplicating the tie scores of the past two seasons in the clash with the North Dakota Bisons on Dakotah field last Saturday. It was a 48 to 0 rout for the Bisons with scoring right at the start of the game. Jamestown was forced back after the first kickoff until they were forced to try to kick from behind the line. The Aggie line tore thru and spoiled the kick. Latimer fell on the ball and the first six points was chalked up for the Bisons. Robbins kicked goal.

It was a splendid revenge for the Bison squad. Chaney went over the line for the Bisons before the quarter ended and Robbins again booted true making the count 14 to 0. Only at rare intervals did the Jimtown crew manage to hold the Bisons. Time after time powerful plunges thru the line gave the Aggies ten yards or more.

In the second quarter the local eleven made two more touchdowns. Only kick failed so the tally at the One kick failed so the tally at the per went over with the first touchdown of the second period shortly after the quarter opened. Several completed passes aided materially in bringing the Bisons within scoring distance again and Boise went over. Jamestown was never within scoring distance in the first half and spent most of their time kicking out of danger.

The Bisons kept hitting the line in the second period. Jamestown stiffened at times but Flow was sent over for another touchdown soon after play commenced. Earl Bute carried the pigskin over for another six points just a little later. In the third quarter Chaney went over the line for the second time during the battle. Robbins' (Continued on Page 2-

Vachel Lindsay Here Oct. 30th

Vachel Lindsay, well-known American poet-lecturer, will give interpretive readings from his poetry at convocation here, Monday, October 30 at 10 o'clock in the armory. The famous author of "The Congo," "The Chinese Nightingale," and other poems is his usual press reference.

Mr. Lindsay has consented to autograph any copy of his poems that is brought to him following convocation" states A. E. Minard in charge of convocation. Lindsay is a striking character. There is something of the old minstrel in him as indicated by the travels he made in the southwest on foot, and which resulted in such bits of work as his "Handy Guide for Beggars."

Hi! There! You!

It is not too late to try out for that yell leading place. See Ted Greenfield at once or climb over the fence and make them take you. Seen the new costumes yet? ATTRACTIVE PRIZE LIST FOR ANY AND ALL COLLEGE STUDENTS FILMS FREE TO FIRST 6

Two big contests to bring out the very best pictures of campus life and the furnishing of the 1924 Agassiz with cover and panel designs that truly represent the best in the institution is the initial step of the 1924 Agassiz staff in putting out a real honest to goodness student publication that is not a mere staff product. Full particulars of the proposition are as follows:

Howard Bateson, art editor of the book, announces a contest of threefold purpose. First, Mr. Bateson wants a cover design. The design must be simple, small, not as large as the design of last year and suitable to decorate a leather cover, 11 by 7 inches.

The second division if the contest calls for panel designs suitable to use in framing the individual pictures to be used crosswise over the page. Any convenient working scale may be used but panels must be in proportion of three to one, that is one side three times the shorter side. The panels need not be for individual views from junior and senior classes of the regular college, high school seniors, pharmacy seniors, power machinery seniors, farm husbandry and home-makers. You may make your panel for a particular organization if you wish. "Avoid fancy designs," is the caution issued by the art editor.

Enrollment Tops 1000 Tuesday

With almost 200 students enrolled during the first day of registration in the industrial courses at the North Dakota Agricultural college which opened October 17, indications point to a total enrollment of 250 before the end of the week, according to A. H. Parrott, registrar. The total enrollment of the college is now 1,000 and with the registration of the winter short course students January 2, some 250 more will be added to the enrollment. Industrial courses which open this week include courses in agriculture, home economics, power machinery, and drafting and building.

WHO? AND WHY?

A famous historian once said that history repeats itself again and again. That this was a true statement, seems to be proven by a recent occurrence on the campus.

In the old days, when people believed in witchcraft, and even today in Africa and some of the South Sea Islands, it is believed that a person who is sick in any way is afflicted with devils. It is customary to scare out these devils with the aid of tom-toms, much wild and weird dancing. Whether or not this is a cure has long been and is a matter of serious speculation and profound thought.

Not many days ago a group of sophomore philosophers, known as the soph clinic, held a consultation to determine the best method of curing one of the prominent men of A. C. who seemingly was affected with the devils of indifference, lack of class spirit, and lack of respect for traditions. Said one, "Tis a most sad state of affairs. I believe that we must adopt the ancient practices of our forefathers and by the aid of tom-toms and noise scare out these devils that would blight this man's happiness. He should be one of us, and while he feels as he does, that can never be." And so it was decided. The clinic caught the student and applied a thoro massage, the victim supplying the noise and dancing. The beat of the tom-toms was heard far and wide. Then the student donned the badge of rejuvenated youth, and expressed himself as willing to invest in accident insurance to the extent of one dollar. The three devils seemed scared away, but a fourth, the devil of superiority, now took hold of the victim, causing him to obtain sundry and divers sealed documents showing him to be an individual above student tradition. The Clinic saw these impressive papers, destroyed them, and redoubled their efforts to rid the man of this, the worst affliction. The beat of the tom-toms rose louder than ever, and, after one of the most complete and impressive massages and treatments ever given free of charge, the clinic expressed themselves as hopeful that the patient would recover and be from now on a human being and a fellow student.

However, contrary to all natural laws and traditions, these hopes would seem to lack justification in the patient's latest actions. Even mud baths are seemingly inadequate. The problem confronting the Clinic and followers is indeed proving to be one of baffling proportion.

A being so dead as to belong to no class must necessarily be too dead to merit consideration as a member of anything. Like the proverbial bat he is neither bird nor beast and without classification is doomed to the consequences of single bliss and his own resources entirely. 'Tis the little failings that go to make up the man as he is and by these for the most part we are judged by our fellow men.

YOU, and YOU, and YOU!!

Where is our yelling? Is the old warwhoop of our rooters to become a relic of bygone days, like other things of the past? Is our lung development stunted or do we just lack pep? The former can hardly be the sole cause, for those who do yell are doing admirably well. What is the trouble then, you ask? Just this, there aren't enough of you really yelling.

Some of you don't know the yells—learn them. Some of you are afraid to open your mouths—get a pair of pliers and pry those long locked jaws open, no one is going to eat you for the noise you make. And some of you lack enthusiasm—you who haven't the pep to let the world know you're living, are the ones hardest of all to cure. Can't you help that team fight? Haven't you enough desire to see them play hard to get into the game yourself and help keep that old pigskin going in the right direction. Can't you be anything but just luke warm? SURE YOU CAN, AND FOR YOUR OWN GOOD, TRY IT AND SHOW THE FELLOWS THAT YOU MEAN BUSINESS. No one can enjoy a game to the fullest extent until he gets into it himself and enters into the spirit of the contest, fighting right along with the team.

A. C. is no place for deadheads and if you want to be that kind of an animal look for another school. We need enthusiasm and we are going to have it. Why do some of you have to sneak off to the wings and stand shivering all thru the game with that glassy stare? Looks fine, yes it does, nice example to our freshmen and a fitting display of A. C. spirit to our visitors and boosters from down town. You expect something from the school, the town, and the team itself. Then why, in the name of all things sensible, won't you give just a little towards piling up the N. C. I. championship this year?

(Some of you don't like to be told about your shortcomings, naturally of course, but take it in the way it is given. If you are the right kind of a fellow you aren't in line for it anyway and can let some one else think about it.) Our new students put a good many of you to shame last Saturday and yet you stood by and let them show you up; you who ought to be setting a pace to blind the frosh with heel dust. Maybe a little paddling of disinterested upperclassmen between halves would help to liven up things a little. Do you want to have it tried out? The loyal rooters of A. C. would like nothing better than to see you fellows get the "board of education"—it's the time proven panacea for all ills you know, yours included and at present is very popular and well up in the public favor.

All right then we won't need anything of the kind. And we beat Montana Saturday? Good—Of course we can all pull together just a little throwing aside of indifference that's all.

JUST FORGET THAT ASSUMED OR IMAGINED DIGNITY OF YOURS AND ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON COME OUT IN FULL FORCE—AND EVERYBODY—STUDENT OR PROFESSOR—YELL, YELL! AND YELL 'TILL THE FINAL WHISTLE BLOWS!! ALRITE? Meeting adjourned.

ALUMNAE, BOOSTERS, AND STUDENTS OF A C TAKE HEED

A. C. is going to stage the biggest and best Homecoming Day on November 4th, that ever struck the Northwest and, with the Bison Boosters, a grand old army of Alumni, and a thousand up-and-going students back of the days program, the collegiate world will hear our noise for years to come. How can we do it?

The alumni association is sending out a challenge to each and every old grad to miss that University-Aggie game if he dare, and from the bottom of their hearts are stirring up old memories of the bygone days of A. C. and the dandy ones coming. A. C. spirit is stronger than ever and is staging a comeback among the alumni and business men of the town that will turn the world on its ear, at its present rate, in a very short time.

Coach Cutting, Borleske, and the team are putting on the biggest end of the day's fun and with conscientious training and working at a slave driving pace their followers can hear the Grand Forks Normal's weeping and wailing already, almost. To say we have a team isn't half saying it, we have a bunch of fighting football players under a captain and two coaches that will beat the University. And you are going to be there to see it.

The student body is alive and going strong. To show the world what we have, the entire college, profs included, will meet and parade down town in ga'a array. Green and Yellow is the official color for the day and everyone will wear it. The fatted steer for the barbeque with his butchers and implements of warfare, will be in the parade as will also the University band and rooters, and a rally to wake the dead will be pulled down town.

Then the game—'twill be the game of games. To attempt an advance account of it would spoil it for you. Between halves, the alumni parade by classes, will hold the field after which comes the longest snake dance in captivity by none other than the A. C. supporters.

After the game comes the gigantic barbeque in the Stock Pavilion. Nice juicy toothsome beef, grilled to meet each individual taste together with a full menu of tasty victuals will add the finishing touches to a win over the University. Something new is the advance dope concerning this phase of the days' activity, so don't miss it.

In the evening comes a program of the best there is in A. C. tradition and talent to be found in North Dakota. The things of interest to the old timers will be played up and with them something to make you proud that you can say you are an "Aggie."

And then, a dance. Say won't you shake a wicked hoof after such a day of vengeance and real honest to goodness pleasure?

What else? The student body is getting ready to blow up about nine o'clock November 4th, and stay that way for a week. If we don't have a gay-cat or hobo day for you it will be because we have something better in every way to knock the lid off of everything, past, present and future. Leave that to us. We are here to give you everything we've got. We want you to be at A. C. to get it. It's yours.

We want a hundred per cent attendance of students, former and present. Do your share in putting it across.

final goal kick brought the count up to 48.

Yes, it was a splendid victory for the Bisons. It proved the assertion of the past two years that it was only the A. C. eleven's lack of practice that enabled the Jimtown college to hold them to tie scores. The victory also affirmed the opinion of the rooters that the Bison gridiron team of this year is out to make history. The University line didn't look near as formidable as it has in previous year when the Bison rooters saw the way the Yellow and Green warriors tore thru Jamestown last Saturday.

The play brought out again the bitterness of the fight for positions. "Coach Cutting does not need to worry about having substitutes to fill gaps in any part of the line or backfield if the showings made last week are a true criterion of what the candidates can do," is the opinion of followers of the team.

Yes! Writing without effort!

What George S. Parker has achieved for students with the 25-Year Duofold

THIS lacquer-red pen with jet black tips is not only handsomer than gold—it's a perfect classmate for the college man or girl.

Better penmanship for every one—without effort or fatigue—on any paper—at study, at classes or at lectures.

Mr. Parker achieved it by producing a native Iridium point as smooth and life-enduring as a jewel bearing, and a leak-proof barrel with a grip that is balanced with scientific precision and symmetry.

Such perfect poise and super-smoothness in writing relieves the nerves of tension. The Duofold glides under your subconscious direction of its own balanced weight!

You think of only what you're writing—not how. So your thoughts come easier, clearer, more composed.

We will let you have the Duofold for 30 days to demonstrate. You'll never be content to write the old way after that. Even before they tried this 25-Year point, 62 men in 100 chose the Duofold for its classic beauty and balance from a tray of assorted pens. Its popularity has never been equalled.

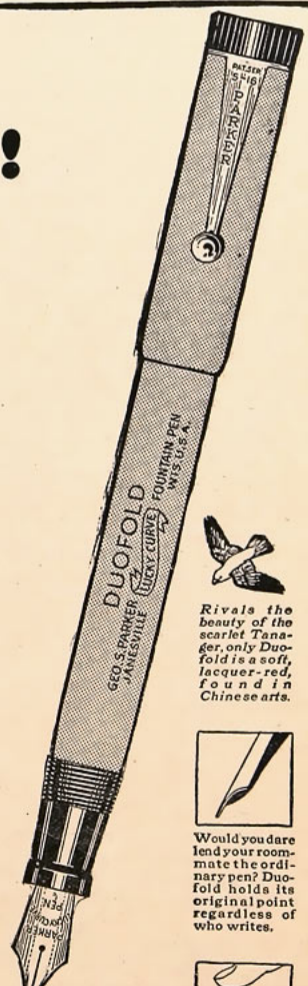

Oversize Duofold—a real HE Pen holds a double ration of ink, $7. Duofold Jr. and Lady Duofold at $5 are like it in everything save size. Come in and try the points—extra fine, fine, medium, coarse and stub. Students are always welcome here.

Parker Duofold

The 25 Year Pen

OVER-SIZE $7

Duofold Jr. $5 Same except for size
 Lady Duofold $5 Handbag size with gold ring for chatelaine

Rivals the beauty of the scarlet Tanager, only Duofold is a soft, lacquer-red, found in Chinese arts.

Would you dare lend your roommate the ordinary pen? Duofold holds its original point regardless of who writes.

Press the button and Duofold drinks its fill. No pump—no lever to catch on clothing and spill ink.

opening the various sections of the Agassiz. The title pages wanted are: sororities and fraternities, classes, organizations, activities, military, athletics, dramatics, music.

Everything must be drawn in black India ink in firm even lines and on a good grade of paper. Persons interested and desiring more information are urged to get in touch with Mr. Bateson. The contest is open to the entire school but Mr. Bateson issues a special appeal to the Art Club and Architects.

A cash prize of $5 will be paid for the cover design accepted by the Agassiz editors and any panel design or title page design accepted for the Agassiz will entitle the designer to a free Agassiz.

Adolph Norgaard is conducting a photo contest to secure pictures of student activities, athletics, campus buildings and other attractions. He has announced a splendid prize list. The first six persons signifying their intention to enter the contest will each receive a roll of films free. "Leave your name and the number of the film your kodak uses at the book store," is Mr. Norgaard's announcement.

For the best athletic pictures presented two enlargements have been offered by the Fargo Kodak Finishing company. The enlargements will go to the persons entering the two best pictures. Mrs. Rindlaub, art instructor, will offer a prize, to be announced later, for the photo showing the best composition. Ralph Nafziger, instructor in journalism, will offer a prize for the photo containing the best material as related to news value. This prize will also be announced later. President Coulter has offered a prize to be given for the best picture of student life.

In addition Roy Corbett, college photographer, has offered a loving cup as a sweepstakes prize to the contestant presenting the best collection of pictures. Mr. Corbett is also offering the films that go to the first six entries in the contest.

The photo contest will last until Thanksgiving. The art contest will run during the entire fall term.

Who Is The Most Popular Girl

BOOST FOR HER WHEN THAT AGASSIZ SALESMAN COMES AROUND—EACH CENT IN DOLLAR IS VOTE

Many fair damsels have a "big drag" here, and "kick up quite a cloud of dust there" and so on, 'tis rumored but interviewing fails to find anyone agreeing with anyone else about the "one" so the 1924 Agassiz editor seeing the splendid opportunity for a real argument is capitalizing on an idea that will be a source of real fun and rivalry this year.

So Mr. Ostman announces a "go-gettun" popularity contest, to run thru the greater part of the school year, or until the Agassiz comes out in May Here it is just as it stands:

Every person paying money toward the purchase of an Agassiz will receive a coupon worth a certain number of votes. These votes, the purchaser may hand in to the Agassiz Contest Editor and credit them to the name of any of the State college's popular coeds. It is not to be an entirely independent contest, however, the editor is asking the different fraternities, sororities and other organizations to come out in support of one certain fair lady and make it a business to collect votes for their "queen." Representative fraternity men have already been approached on the subject and it is considered almost certain that the fraternities will come out in favor of their selected "queens" next week.

The first lay in the contest will start on Wednesday, October 25. Regular bulletins of the votes credited to each contestant will be posted about the campus and issued in The Spectrum. At the opening of the contest the usual first payment will be asked on the Agassiz. One dollar will be the smallest amount accepted. Each cent in the first dollar is worth one vote but every penny paid in over one dollar in the first ten days of the contest will be worth two votes.

Oliver Thoreson, circulation manager of the 1924 Agassiz, will conduct the contest. He is anxious to get salesmen or saleswomen in each organization. His hint is sell Agassiz subscriptions yourself and talk your purchaser into turning their coupons over to you to place to the credit of your "queen."

 Watch bulletin board for further announcements.

CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS No. 1.

The Education Club

The A. C. Education Club was organized by the students enrolled in the School of Education and only students of that department may become members. The club is one of the youngest of our campus organizations, it being organized in the fall term of 1921 with seventeen charter members. The officers elected were: President, Bernice Noyes, Vice President, Lester Bullard, secretary Marian Pennebaker, Treasurer Huber McLellan. The other charter members were Louella Smith, Rebecca Brosten, Olga Brosten, Opal Knight, G. H. Mikkelsen, Edgar Hanks, R. R. Ruelle, Clarence Jensen, Howard Bateson, George Anderson, Florence Isensee, Marian Hunter and Mildred Moeller.

The club has for its purpose the discussion of problems in the field of education and the promotion of the interests of students preparing for the profession.

The A. C. Education Club is evidently fulfilling its purpose efficiently for its membership is already double that of last year. The officers now at the helm are: President, Howard Bateson, Vice President, James Howe, Secretary Huber McLellan and Treasurer, Marian Pannebaker.

(Note: This is the first of a series of historical and informational articles about each of the Campus organizations. Next week—Alpha Zeta.)

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS TAKE HIKE

The A. M. A. high school girls took themselves a nice long hike last Friday evening under the chaperonage of Mrs. Allen and Miss Amy Euren for the purpose of getting together for a good time and at the same time stir up a little needed pep and enthusiasm for the coming year. As planned at a previous booster meeting, a regular "dyed in wool" A. C. rally was held out in the wilds after supper and put the outfit in a mood to make things hum around these parts for the next nine months—and there are more of them coming.

Altar Lights Burn 50 Years.

For 50 years seven lights have burned day and night in front of a statue of the Blessed Virgin in one of the Catholic churches in Chicago. These lights commemorate the escape of the edifice from destruction in the great fire of 1871.

Admonitory.

Someone says: "In private watch your thoughts; in the family, watch your temper; in company, watch your tongue." That is mighty good advice, and we are not hurting it any when we add, "and in a crowd, watch your watch."—Boston Transcript.

Bird's Moving Day.

It is now a well-established fact, says an authority, that when the female woodcock desires to remove her young she takes them out, one at a time, between her feet and flies off with them to a place of safety.

Alpha Kappa Phi fraternity announces the pledging of Cyrus Murgins.

Where is the frosh that was going to mob a gang of sophomores after the game Saturday? Too bad, and no padded chairs in the class room either.

North Dakota University cleaned up South Dakota U 7-0 last Saturday. Maybe they're not so slow after all by the creek.

Charlie Struble left for Salt Lake City this week to resume business duties after spending a couple of weeks editing the folks and friends here.

Open house for all women students of the college was held Saturday evening by the Phi Upsilon Omicron sorority.

Delta Kappa Sigma fraternity entertained the freshmen boys at a "smoker" at the home of Ed. Olwin Friday evening.

Phil Balsley is back again after chasing hailstones around over the state all summer. Business is good, states Phil and the little ol' Packard rolls right along.

Emil Ahness and "Nosey" Trumbull, the last of the barbarians, drifted in to school Monday morning after an extensive tour of the divers parts of North Dakota's bad lands.

Achoth sorority entertained at a dinner party for "rushees" at the home of Mrs. George Rusk, one of the patronesses, Thursday evening, October 12.

Among the old birds to report to Parrott this week are: Ted Meldahl, "Black" Oderkirk, Elmer Grieve, Don Peet, Neal Coit, Chris Benson, Nosey Trumbull, Clarence Jensen and Phil Balsley. So now the school can start going.

COMMENT
 Scabbard and Blade, National Honorary Military fraternity has elected the following officers of the Cadet Corps into active membership: Captain Walter Bohnsack, Captain Braur, Capt. Leakey and Lieut. Keating.

"The alleged Bisons down at Fargo mopped up the Fargo Legion 54-0, but we're willing to bet they played all afternoon. Even at that, they'll need some one-sided scores to counteract the coming tragedy on November 4th," says Alfalfa Bye in his latest chatter column. Well it may be so, but I don't know, it sounds so mighty queer—Bye. Better wait a little while before saying all those awful things.

Saddle and Sirloin Meets Tuesday Night
 BARBED WIRE ORCHESTRA, BARNYARD CHORUS, DOUGHNUTS, ALL SET FOR BIG YEAR

Tuesday evening, October 24, and Francis Hall is the time and place set for the first meeting of the North Dakota Saddle and Sirloin Club, this school year. An interesting program of educational and highly entertaining numbers has been planned out and the first "Hayshaker Get-together" promises to set a fast pace for subsequent dates. At this time the clubs activities for the coming year will be presented by the president and discussed.

At present, the Saddle and Sirloin consists of sixty five college men enrolled in the school of agriculture. Membership in the organization is open to all collegiate agricultural students who may be sufficiently interested to be a worthy member of it. All freshmen are cordially invited to come out to the meetings and see who and what they consist of.

The national Saddle and Sirloin club of Chicago is offering a hundred dollar Ruth medal to the undergraduate student presenting the best essay on "Factors in Livestock Production," full particulars of which will appear in next week's paper.

MOWRIS HEADS N. D. P. C.
 Lyle Mowris was elected to head the North Dakota Pharmacy Club at the first meeting of the school year, Tuesday afternoon. With twenty three old members back and an enrollment of forty nine students in the school of pharmacy this fall the outlook for a successful year is very bright. To start the ball rolling in the right direction the club entertained in honor of the frosh pillmixers at the annual weiner roast in Oak Grove, Wednesday evening and from all reports the party served to get everyone acquainted, even tho the entertainment and eats were in the hands of Kunert, Malkwick, Hanson, Esther Swenson, Geigen and Morin.

HUNSAKER LEADS GROUPS
 The college association conducts a number of voluntary discussion groups each year on some phase of the world's life vital to the college men of today. Each year a number of men derive great benefit and enjoyment from these discussion groups, which are open to all men.

Weird, mystic forces of time and eternity, the throbbing life force of a love that could not die, beautiful Hindu costumes, rich in depths of tone and color; all this enshrined in an oriental atmosphere of ancient eastern lore which is brought out by cleverly arranged light effects, has been created by the intuitive mind and facile pen of Miss Simmons, author of "Crosses," "Dahkotah" and several other dramas.

Rehearsals will soon be held under the direction of a committee directed by Miss Elsie Skadeland in cooperation with Miss Simmons.

RESERVES LOSE TO LISBON
 Lisbon high won a 23-7 victory over the A. C. reserves last Saturday in a practice game marked by fumbles and failure to stop end runs. The scrubs in every day language, galloped up to Lisbon in search of amusement and got it. While not making a brilliant showing against the end runs and passes of the Cheyenne Dwellers the boys enjoyed the tussle very much and are out for more of them. Their lineup is as follows: Forrest, Regan, DeBeau, Hanson, Soueres, Marks Wahl, Eastgate, Bailey, Griffiths and Ives. Subs: Nemzek, Bruns.
