WE TUCK AWAY TWO

AGGIES SPRING SURPRISE BY DEFEATING FAST "Y" TEAM

In the hardest fought game so far this season, the Aggies, on their own floor met and defeated the fast "Y" team to the tune of 25 to 12.

The Aggies won by the excellent team-work which they exhibited and by their accurate shooting. The whole team should be given credit for their victory as they worked together in fine style. Capt. Kraemer and Flem both played a great game, not only proving themselves adept as guards, but being able to take the ball down thru the "Y" defense. Van Arnum and Sivertson worked good together and were our chief point getters.

A great deal of dope can now be obtained as to the possible outcome of the city championship as the "Y" quint defeated Fargo College earlier in the week and by our victory over the "Y" we can be pretty sure of keeping the city championship at home.

The Lineup:
Aggies "Y"
Van Arnum F. Nesbit
Sivertson F. Knutson
Hildre C. Dawson
Flem G. Burns
Kraemer G. Liefer

Substitutes—Trowbridge for Sivertson; Sivertson for Van Arnum; Bute for Kraemer; Kraemer for Hildre; Ward for Knutson; Harrington for Ward; Hamilton for Dawson; Hagen for Liefer.

Field goals—Van Arnum 3; Sivertson 3; Trowbridge 3; Kraemer 1; Nesbit 2; Dawson 3.

Free throws—Flem, 5 out of 8; Dawson, 3 out of 5.
Referee—Tierney.

AGGIES WIN SECOND GAME FROM THE K. C.s

In the return game played with the K. C.s at their hall on Tuesday evening, the Varsity won by a score of 41 to 20. The team showed remarkable improvement over the last game, and much credit is due Coach Bohler.

The quint exhibited great team-work at times, characterized by the short passes that proved so successful in the last game. The basket shooting of the team as a whole was poor, due to the fact that they were playing on a strange floor. As far as the comparative merits of the two teams are concerned it can be said that, had the score been 70 to 20 it would have been a fair estimate of the relative strength of the two teams.

Van Arnum, Flem and Captain Kraemer played a stellar game for the Varsity while Clemens starred for the K. C.s.

Following is the line-up:
A. C. Pos. K. C.
Van Arnum F. Clemens
Sivertson F. Coleman
Hildre C. Trulson
Kraemer (capt.) G. Breyer
Flem G. Duffy

Substitutes—Trowbridge for Van Arnum; Bute for Flem; Mares for Hildre; Grieves for Hildre; Murek for Coleman; Hanley for Murek.

Field goals—Sivertson 7; Trowbridge 5; Kraemer 3; Van Arnum 3; Clemens 4.

Free throws—Flem, 4 out of 8; Coleman, 3 out of 5.
Referee—Tierney.

SECOND ANNUAL MEETING OF LOVED AND LOST HELD

SENIOR HOME ECONOMICS TO HAVE HOUSE

"Better Wives" Is Their Slogan

The department of home economics has opened a house for the demonstration of an opportunity to put into practice the training which a college course in home economics gives, in actually carrying on the duties of an organized household under as nearly as possible normal conditions.

Seniors Take Turns in Work
The senior class will be divided into groups of five, each group living in and taking complete charge of all the activities of the household for one month. Each member of the group serves during the period in each of the capacities into which the duties are divided, namely: cooking, cleaning, laundering, chamber work, marketing, and accounts, all linked together with household management.

The menus are made with a good wholesome family diet in mind, considering correct feeding of the individuals of the group, economy of money and time, and attractiveness. Definite data will be kept so that students may be well informed on

SUMMER CAMP TO BE AT FORT SNELLING

Camp To Open In June

Members of the R. O. T. C. who desire to attend the summer camp during the coming summer should see Major Carrithers and have their names put on the list. The camp this summer will be held at Fort Snelling, Minnesota. This location is ideal for this section of the country as it combines ample territory for military instruction with facility of getting into either St. Paul or Minneapolis. Fort Snelling is located on the St. Paul-Minneapolis street-car line mid-way between the two cities. Men going to camp will be paid five cents a mile from the college to Fort Snelling and return, furnished with uniforms, quarters, meals, equipment, medical care, etc., while at the camp. Members of the Advanced R. O. T. C. course who go to camp will, in addition, be paid at the rate of one dollar a day while attending camp.

Camp will open about the middle of June and will close the last of July. Talk it over with men who went to the camp last summer and then see Major Carrithers. This is a good way to meet men from other colleges, get more instruction than it is possible to give here and get in line for position as cadet officer during the next college year.

Moving Picture Machine Being Installed

Educational Films Will Be Shown

Moving pictures will be a regular part of the weekly entertainment program at the North Dakota Agricultural College, beginning with the opening showing at the convocation hour next Monday morning, it was announced at the office of the department of visual instruction of the extension division. ## "DAVID HARUM" COMING FRIDAY NIGHT

THREE ACT COMEDY SCHEDULED FOR ARMORY

Large Attendance Expected

"David Harum," a comedy in three acts, dramatized from the famous novel, David Harum, a story of American life by Edward Noyes Westcott, will be presented by The Little Country Theatre Players in the Agricultural College Armory on Friday evening, January twenty-first, nineteen hundred and twenty-one. The curtain will rise at eight o'clock sharp.

It is needless to say that everybody who reads knows the story of David Harum, the Homeville horse-trader and banker. "Sca' my, 'tis a good sight easier to git a fish-hook in, than 'tis to git it out." "Trouble's good for a feller sometimes. Yes, sir, a reasonable amount of fleas is good for a dog, keeps 'im from broodin' over bein' a dog, mebbe," will never be forgotten by the countless hundreds who have enjoyed this typical American book, and the play is just as good as the book. At least William Crane and Guy Nichols, two veteran actors, thought so, or they would never have played in it to over a thousand audiences. In presenting the play to the public The Little Country Theatre Players are sparing no pains to make it one of the best productions ever given at the Agricultural College. The characters have been selected to fit the parts and trained to interpret them in every respect.

With special scenery, excellent costumes and a splendid cast, the drama will doubtless be greeted by a packed house.

All students of the North Dakota Agricultural College will be admitted upon presentation of their registration cards. A general admission fee will be charged the public. Children's tickets may be secured at cheaper rates.

STUDENT STRIKE CONTEMPLATED

Shorter hours and less study asked

What is thought to be one of the greatest undertakings of its kind ever held by the students of the North Dakota Agricultural College, has been launched recently. The students have banded together, formed a union, and have drawn up certain drastic measures that will be submitted to the faculty at their annual meeting held once a month for their approval. The union has set the limit as the first day of the short month of February for the present conditions to be adjusted to that of the planned schedule. This is not a threat as some of our God-fearing professors have said, but an open determination of students to obtain their true and irrevocable rights as witnessed by the signing of a pledge in blood obtained from "Fat" Nichols, who volunteered his excess amount as a supply; consequently "Fat" has reduced, but he is trying to keep up his manly form and has been eating candy and so forth to bring his body back to its original shape and form. This bloody pledge was signed on December 32, just as the setting sun was rising in the west and the little fishes were cuddled in their nests, and as a kitten climbed up a tree a Frenchman holered out, "We, We." The place was back of the old hog shed in the front parlor of the power house.

The ring leaders of this great undertaking are unquestionably the greatest scholars of the institution and what is transferred from their masterminds either by pencil or tongue can be considered as coming from minds of great men. They are Seamans, Brandenburg, Etesmith and Bagerud. Their demands, as submitted, were approved by unanimous vote and only after much persuasion were they allowed to be printed in The Spectrum, that vehicle of hot air. The following is the exact duplicate as submitted to the faculty:

1. Shorter hours (4-hour day).
2. Shorter lessons.
3. No homework.
4. 25 per cent increase in marks for over work.
5. Monday a holiday.
6. Wednesday afternoon off.
7. Paper and pencils furnished by school.
8. Students to choose lessons for next day.
9. School term six months.
10. A jitney bus to school each morning.
11. An ice cream parlor—ten minutes between classes for loafing.
12. Half-hour for movies each morning.
13. A study period before each recitation.
14. An act making it compulsory to patronize Spectrum advertisers, taking as a foundation for their beliefs the following:
Advertising is the most efficient and economical way the merchant has of letting his customers know about his stock of goods. To advertise effectively it is necessary for the merchant to itemize his wares and understand what he has on hand when the customer comes in as a reply to the advertisement.
The merchant who advertises is alive; he wants business and is will-

Dr. Wilson at Y. M. C. A. Sunday Afternoon and at Convocation Monday Morning

Dr. Gilbert L. Wilson of Macalester College will speak at the Sunday afternoon joint meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium next Sunday at 3:30 P. M.

The Young Women's and Young Men's Christian Associations are joining in bringing Dr. Wilson to Fargo. Every man and woman student, and every faculty member, whether man or woman, is cordially invited to hear this address which promises to be exceptionally fine.

Dr. Wilson has spent a large part of his life in the study of the Indians. He is an author of some note having done considerable work under the direction of the American Museum of Natural History of New York.

Included in his works are the following: "Myths of the Red Children," "Indian Hero Tales," "Good Bird, the Indian," "Hidatsa Shrine" "Wahenee, the Indian Girl."

Dr. Wilson will be the speaker at Convocation on Monday morning, January 24. His subject will be some phase of Indian life.

STAFF CHANGES

You will notice by the editorial page that two staff changes have been made, namely: Delbert Sage has succeeded Winifred Tarbell due to the laxity of the latter in getting all the news about athletics. We think that Mr. Sage will give the school a very vivid description of all athletic activities. Mr. Henry Nelson has succeeded Mr. Ostman in the capacity of Associate Editor as Mr. Ostman is unable to devote the time to it, due to outside work, but we are sure that if he were able to spare the time The Spectrum would be benefited. Mr. Nelson is a man who has a very vivid imagination and we are certain that his addition to the staff will be a better Spectrum.

The following is a program of the twenty-second annual Tri-State Grain Growers' convention which opened in Fargo Tuesday and will continue until Friday. It is of particular interest to us at the college as we are all more or less interested in agriculture and many interesting speeches and exhibits are on the program.

Their first game was with Jamestown Tuesday evening; and from there they go to Aberdeen for a game with the Normal school located in that city; and next in line are games with Huron College, and two with the South Dakota Aggies; returning to Fargo on Monday morning.

The men who will make the trip are Captain Kraemer, Flem, Van Arnum, Trowbridge, Sivertson, Hildre, Reis and Borderud.

Let us wish them good luck on their trip and we are sure that they will come back with a string of victories hanging to their belts.

"DAVID HARTUM" SAYS, "SHE STANDS WITHOUT HITCHING"

On January 21, there will be presented in the Armory, one of the greatest comedies ever presented on the American stage, named "David Hartum." In order to produce this play, The Little Country Theatre management has gone to a great deal of expense in paying royalties, etc., and in order that such magnificent production can be brought before us in the future we have to boost it along by telling our friends about it and getting them to come. The students will be admitted free on the presentation of their registration card. This play has been seen twice by the writer, once when presented by the original cast and once in stock and he can say from a non-critic's standpoint that it will be a production that will satisfy the humorous American. From the raising of the curtain in the first act to the lowering of the curtain in the last it is one continuous laugh. Don't miss it, and you are doing your friends and parents a rank injustice if you do not encourage them to see it. It is a play that does not stop in Fargo and we are to congratulate ourselves that we are able to stage it at THE NORTH DAKOTA AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

YOU MAY COME AND I MAY GO, BUT THE AGASSIZ GOES ON FOREVER.

What is so rare as a student that is interested in the welfare of the Agassiz, unless it is greenbacks growing on rose bushes. As it stands now there are about fifteen people from a college enrollment of a 1,000 that are interested in the fact that the college has a good year book. What is the Agassiz? a good many of you will ask. First, it is a book published by the Junior class, taking in all the student activities of the year; second, it is a book that we all want to keep a place in a prominent part of our home and when we get lonesome for the A. C., look thru its pages, review our college life, and picture ourselves back on the campus having a of a time. Now how can this be done if we do not get all the activities of the year in it? It can't be expected that only a few people can accomplish this feat, but if the whole student body will turn out, write humorous poetry, funny stories, jokes, and get in odd snapshots we will have an Agassiz that we will all be proud of and cherish. So if a few of you students that are dead from the neck both ways will remove yourself from the chair that you are constantly sitting on, perhaps you will wear your pants out somewhere else besides the seat and get busy and help make the Agassiz a great book.

CONSTITUTION of Student Commission

There are a great many of the students that do not know of what the student commission is composed of, what its functions are, and what powers it has. It is for this reason that we are publishing the constitution of the commission so the students will know what their governing body is composed of. It is the wish of the commission that every student will read this constitution and help them in every way. Due to the limited amount of space we will not be able to print the entire constitution this week, but as the space permits we will try and publish it all in the next two or three editions.

operating and feeding requirements. The work in a practice house is one of the best means of checking up on a girls' ability plus the training which is offered in her college course. Besides the actual work of the course, there comes that finer training in home interest, co-operation, and building up of the real home spirit which is impossible to get in laboratory work. The house secured was that of Mrs. W. R. Addison, 804 Ninth Street North. Mrs. Addison will be the roomer and chaperone and automatically will be the martyr if the cooking has an undesirable effect on her.

given considerable space and praise. "The Little Country Theater was founded seven or eight years ago under the leadership of a clear-eyed, blond-haired, upstanding American viking, Alfred G. Arvold of the North Dakota Agricultural College at Fargo," reads the article.

Mainspring of Movement

"Here was the mainspring of the community theater movement on the agronomic side, and in that vicinity and throughout the northwest nearly 100 Little Country Theaters flourish, showing that the cult has taken root."

Just how Mr. Arvold raised money for his Little Country Theater and its equipment is explained by the writer, Henry McMahon.

Says Mr. McMahon in speaking of Mr. Arvold: "Going to Fargo to teach about 12 years ago, he resolved to make the lessons in literature just as practical as the lessons on soils, plants, crops and livestock. He encouraged the students to write plays, and fostered the growth of half a dozen dramatic societies for amateur production. Without endowment, subscription list or state subsidy, he at last got a theater for his pupils. "The Little Country Theater."

Start of Theater

Mr. McMahon tells of the staging of three productions for Mr. Walker, then manager of the Fargo opera house. Later the opera house burned down and billed productions were put on in the armory and with the percentage the college received $488. Mr. Arvold started his theater.

"With this net profit, Mr. Arvold and the students bought 200 good theater chairs. On the second floor of the college administration building was a disused chapel. Above it was a large attic. Mr. Arvold had recently induced the president of the college to allow the platform or the old chapel to be altered by the construction of a proscenium opening and a stage. He now replaced the awkward and cumbersome school desks with theater chairs.

"A place to work will always put folks on their mettle and encourage the thinkers. Not only the students but grownups from all over the countryside came to Mr. Arvold with their ideas. "Mr. Arvold's idea is that every community can have a Little Country Theater. The first essential is an assembly room and stage in the local high school building or village hall."

SWEETMAN WRITES OF CHINA
Former "Y" Secretary Doing Great Work in the Orient.

H. Ray Sweetman, General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Nanking, China, is now in charge of the student work in Nanking. There his work reaches thousands of the students of that great Oriental center. Sweetman writes interestingly of his work there. The great need of China and the opportunity for service on the part of college men there is brought out with wonderful clearness in his letter. His many old friends here will be delighted to peruse his letter which will be continued in the next issue.

Peimenchiao, Nanking, China, October 16, 1920.

My Dear Ted:—

If you will excuse an attempt on a borrowed machine I will try to get off a few lines to you, just reporting the commonplace happenings that occur to my mind. I think sometimes we folks out here are apt to write too much about general missionary business and not enough stuff for the "personals" column. But since coming down from Kuling mountain, where I had six weeks this year on vacation and language study, and where the wife and children and I are glad to report we had more than three months relief from the hot weather of Nanking, life has been crowded full of what you might call decidedly personal things. A new baby, moving into a new suite of bare walled rooms, getting Fall work started and jumping into Famine Relief work, not to mention Swiss goats business and getting plans completed and work started on our new cottage at Kuling, have kept me jumping at a lively clip. I am happy to report, however, that now after nearly a month back in the City I am seeing all of these items on my agenda list well under way. The new baby is moving right along at the rate of one ounce per day, some weeks as much as eleven ounces—so I guess he will soon make up for his light weight at birth—less than four pounds. The other two kiddies, Jean and Billy, are as robust as they make 'em. Billy weighs 36 and Jean better than 40. They are active as young calves and having all the play, food and sleep they can get away with.

We came down the mountain, Kuling, on the 23rd of September, luckily striking a clear day, and not too hot. I walked ahead of the coolies carrying the sedan chairs so as to keep them from racing at favorable spots. We stopped all night at the River port in an old Englishman's establishment, called the Farm, and it seemed mighty good to me. The next morning we boarded the good ship, Chang On and were off for home.

On Saturday morning four hours before the Yangtze River steamer Chang On was due to dock at Nanking we found a high east wind blowing and the usually calm surface of the great river ruffled up into a choppy sea. The old boat was loaded to the line and rode as steady as a rock. The heavy wind cut down our speed, in spite of the fact that we were headed down stream in a current that measures just now about seven miles per hour and so the Sweetman family, or at least four out of the five of us, were enabled to have lunch before landing at Nanking. It was well that we did for landing at one of these river ports as I did with a wife, two kiddies, and a three weeks old baby, seventeen pieces of hand-baggage and twenty-two trunks, baskets, and boxes, (for several servants' numerous bundles are all carried on boat along with our own) is an experience a man needs to be well braced for. After being almost rushed off the deck by ten hungry coolies who scrambled after our hand luggage I managed to pilot the family down to the gang plank and over to the street or "bund" where, out of a half dozen horses and carriages, I picked out one which seemed somewhat less worn out than the rest, and after having commissioned our trusty servant Chiao Hua to hang on to the grips and see that the driver didn't beat the poor old horse to death I started them off for their five mile ride up to our section of the city. After engaging five more carriages and paying out some two or three pounds of Chinese coppers in coolie fees I managed to get the baggage off for home.

AGGASSIZ NOTES

The spirit of the student body at the North Dakota Agricultural College has been a commendable feature of the school life this year. The Freshmen gave a valiant account of themselves; the upper classmen firmly enforced college traditions; and the entire student body backed the football team with a spirit that has not been witnessed at the old school for years. And now that we are started, let's keep going. We want to draw to the A. C. next year a bigger and better student body than the worthy class that registered here this fall. The right kind of spirit will do it, but how are we going to let prospective students know about it? As a state institution we do not advertise to the extent that many independent colleges do. The outside world hears only of us thru an occasional newspaper account; when our athletic teams make their trips; or thru the medium of The Spectrum, which, naturally, has only a limited circulation among the high schools of our state. Our one safe bet is the student body. But the great majority of us are not silver-tongued orators of convincing power; we know the many opportunities and advantages offered to students at the N. D. A. C. but lack the ability to tell others in a convincing manner.

But there is a medium which it properly used would be a powerful factor in drawing students to our college. That medium is the college annual, the AGASSIZ, a yearly record of the student activities—scholastic, athletic and social—faithfully reproduced in print and picture. As a book of and by the students of the A. C., it would exercise an appeal to a prospective student that no quarterly record of cut and dried curricula could possibly have.

The annual this year is under the direction of a live, energetic junior class that has given a good account of itself since its advent into the life of the North Dakota Agricultural College. They are determined to live up to their slogan: A bigger and better Agassiz. Will you help them; and in helping them become a booster for the school? Thursday—all day—will be Agassiz Tag Day. The price of the annual this year is four dollars. You will be asked to make a payment of one dollar as part payment on the purchase price of your book; the remainder to be paid when the Agassiz is delivered at the close of this term. Back the junior class and the school in a worthy cause by buying a tag on Thursday; and remember that in so doing you are encouraging them to further effort in producing a good Agassiz and proclaiming that you are an ace-high booster for the old A. C.

Preps. Win Three Straight

K. C. Juniors, Tower City and Glyndon Are the Victims.

As a preliminary to the varsity game last Tuesday evening, the Preps played the K. C. Juniors, defeating them by a score of 19 to 7. The Preps took the initiative all thru the game and showed that they have had much hard training, and also the right spirit which goes to make up a good team. Rathje, Ellefsen and Fitzgerald were the main point getters for the Preps while Snyder starred for the Juniors. We would not be amiss in saying that the majority of the College students in this institution do not know that we have a Prep team and a good one at that, and while they should not demand the center of attraction they should at least be given a little encouragement. Next week we will print a schedule of the Prep games and let's see a good attendance at their games as they too are representing the institution. Capt. Kraemer of the Varsity is their coach.

The line-up is as follows:
Preps Juniors
Fitzgerald F. Canoil
Ellefsen F. LaFleur
Rathje C. Snyder
Brauer G. Rost
Fitzgerald G. Gorman
Subs—Krabslack for La Fleur; Hubertz for Snyder.
Field goals—Ellefsen 3; Fitzgerald 1; Rathje 1; Snyder 1; Canoil 1.
Free throws—Fitzgerald, 5 out of 8; LaFleur, 1 out of 5.
Referee—Tierney.

AGGIE PREPS WIN FROM TOWER CITY

The Aggie Preps' basketball team defeated the Tower City high school team in a hard fought game last Thursday night at Tower City by the score of 15 to 11.

The Prep boys scored first on a goal by P. Fitzgerald and held the lead from then on. The first half ended 12 to 7 in their favor.

Rathje, Ellefsen and P. Fitzgerald played well for the Preps. Fitzgerald and Ellefsen doing the scoring, while Rathje's floor work and passing gave them the ball for their shots.

Nelson was easily Tower City's best man.

The game marked the third victory within one week for the Aggie high school boys.

The line-up and summary:

GLYNDON DEFEATED

Playing on a small floor, and without their two regular guards, the Preps defeated the Glyndon High School quint 9 to 5.

The Preps scored after five minutes of play on a pretty field goal by Ellefsen. Fitzgerald followed a few minutes later with a free throw. From this point on the Preps held their lead, the first half ending 5 to 1 in their favor.

The line-up and summary follows:

YELLOW DOGS ORGANIZE

Last Wednesday evening, Sam Nelson, Keeper of the Meat, of the Grafton Kennel No. 1, established Fargo Kennel No. 7, giving the rituals of the organization to Matthew Tindahl, Jack Kraemer, Anton Flamer, Wm. Gass, Bert Wick, Wayne Underwood and Jonson Roach. Mr. Nelson was assisted in the initiation and rituals by Delbert Sage, Seth Walsh and Ravine Latimer, former members of the Grafton Kennel. With a charter membership of 10 men the club will organize and elect officers in the near future and will then enter upon a campaign of membership. This being the seventh kennel and one of a great many in the United States, this organization is of no small size. It was founded by a branch of the army and after the war had terminated it was organized into a national lodge and great things are expected from it in the future.
