STATE STUDENTS ELECT "HAM" AS STUDENT COMMISSION EXECUTIVE.

Last Friday in the annual student commission election, the students of the State College conferred the highest honor in their power upon a prominent member of the Junior class in Chemistry, Hamlet Larson, in recognition of his long and faithful services to the institution in many different capacities during his years as a student at this school. "Ham" has always been a hard worker at whatever he took up and has been one of the school's leaders all thru his college years. Possibly his best work has been done through the Y. M. C. A., which also rewarded his efforts during the past week by elect-

EVENTS OF THE THIRTEENTH ANNUAL INTER HIGH SCHOOL MAY FESTIVAL

ANNUAL INTER HIGH SCHOOL MAY FESTIVAL.

Will Take Place at the State College on May 20, 21, and 22, 1920.

Contests open to all bona fide high school students. Superintendents and principals are requested to announce the same to their respective student bodies.

The Vocational Teachers' Conference scheduled to take place at the same time has been called for the purpose of bringing together all men and women in charge of vocational training work in the high schools in the state of North Dakota.

Exhibits of the handiwork of the young men and women taking vocational courses in the North Dakota high schools will be one of the features of the Arts and Crafts Exposition.

Y. M. C. A. ELECTION RETURNS COME IN

The Y. M. C. A. elections held in the lobby of the main building on Thursday, March 11, from 8 A. M. till 4 P. M. were characterized by an unusually large percentage of the active members of the College Y. M. C. A. casting votes for the various candidates. The Y was very fortunate this year on its selection of officers and obtained some very powerful men among its chosen leaders. All of the competing candidates were excellent men and the voting ran very even. This was especially true in the cases of the two men running for President. Both of these men, Mr. McKinstry and James Horne, have proven often heretofore that they have the welfare of the school and the Y at heart and either of them would have made a very good executive. It fell to the lot of Wm. McKinstry to receive the plurality in the votes cast and it is felt certain that his natural ability as a leader combined with his strength of purpose will make the Y. M. C. A. a still stronger force in the student life than it has ever been before.

The following officers were elected.

Unique Decorating Scheme of Friday Night's Dance One of the Features of the Evening.

Starting at eight-thirty in the evening and dancing until two o'clock, last Friday evening, the guests of the Junior class enjoyed an evening that will never be forgotten. The floor was in excellent condition and the music of the seven-piece Malchow orchestra retained its wonderful exhilarating pep throughout the evening.

The dinner served from eleven to one, in the balconies of the armory made the affair complete in this respect and did much to add to the effect of the general plan.

The programs started at nine o'clock after a half hour of informal dancing. There were twenty-four dances listed, four of which were to be spent at the dinner, only a certain number could be accommodated at one time with the table facilities so

Y. M. C. A. RECEIVES GIFT OF BOOKS.

—oo—

Milton Ladd has presented to the Y. M. C. A. a number of books for boys, which are very much enjoyed by the younger students. This addition to the Y library brings the total number of books donated since the first of the year up to twenty-nine. It is by such increases as these that the Y library may be perpetuated and improved and every gift of this nature is of the greatest help to the organization.

MUSIC AND THE COLLEGE BREAST.

To be alone is very sad
In this black world, and yet
'Tis better than to raise a son
Who plays a Clarinet.

—Kansas City Star.

A son who plays the clarinet
Is horrid, dears, we know,
But better far than one who wields
A shrieking piccolo.

Daily Illinois.

To play the piccolo is bad,
The clarinet is worse.
But happier they than beings who
On Jewsharps do discourse.

The clarinet, say you, the harp,
And eke the piccolo?
Are guys who use these half as bad
As saxophoners? No!

—Daily Princetonian.

All the above applications
I could endure and grin,
But my son; self-instructed,
Plays on the violin.

—McGill Daily.

Sweet music these and pleasant too,
Each truly is a hummer.
But pity me; my boy, you see,
Is a would-be jazz-band drummer.

—Queens.

The mandolin, it makes a sound
Far worse than all of these;
It chirps in such an endless way,
My blood; it seems to freeze.

If music you so much desire,
Why, take a gramophone.
The amateurs all play it well,
You miss the shriek and moan.

—The Gateway.

But all of these, so cursed above,
And any other things,
Are better far than my life's bane,
My boy, he simply sings.

There will be good speakers, and some good musical numbers by members of the Industrial Course. Tickets are being sold at forty-five cents per plate. The capacity of the room will be sold. REPORT OF THE DES MOINES CONVENTION.

The conventions of the Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions have "literally marked epochs in the missionary and religious life of the students of Canada and of the United States." Of the series which began in 1891, the Eighth Convention has just been held in Des Moines, Iowa. Certainly it was the greatest of the series in the number of students and professors present, in the number of institutions represented and in the number of students from foreign lands who shared in its great sessions. Moreover, as a result of the new vision coming to students growing out of the great War and its aftermath of world unrest, combined with the vision of the world's spiritual need and Christianity's answer thereto, as set forth in the addresses and discussions at Des Moines, this last Convention gives promise of being fully as epochal as those which have gone before.

Convention messages, as presented in platform sessions and in section meetings will be made quickly available both for delegates and for those not privileged to be at Des Moines, in a report volume for which orders received at the Student Volunteer Movement Headquarters, 25 Madison Avenue, New York City, before March 15, and accompanied by remittance will be accepted at $2.00, carriage prepaid. The price of the volume when published will be $2.50.

IT'S NEVER YOUR SCHOOL, IT'S YOU.

"If you want to belong to the kind of school
That's the kind of a school you like,
Don't go and pack your clothes in a grip
And start on a long, long hike.
You'll find elsewhere what you left behind,
'Cause there's nothing that's really new;
It's a knock at yourself when you knock your school,
For it isn't your school—It's you."

HAVE YOU WON OR LOST?

The game's over for this trip. It is time to cash in your chips and check up on your gains or losses. You've been playing in a mighty easy game and if you have lost there is no one to blame save yourself. All of the odds have been with you and now in the final showdown that comes the last three days of this week there is no excuse for having a poor hand. How many of us are coming out ahead in this heat? Not ahead of each other but ahead of the game itself. That's what counts in the long run. It is not how much more the other fellow lost than you. It is how much you took out of the game that was run for your benefit. You can't expect to bluff a poor hand thru in the last few moments with any certain measure of success. You may get by once in a while that way but when you have got by and come out apparently ahead, you will find when you check over your winnings that you have gained nothing but the worthless checks of a lucky bluff.

Give the game its due; it isn't made to be stolen by chicanery and falsity; it is made to be conquered by sheer force of knowledge and is so constituted that in being conquered it strengthens the conqueror as it falls. You can deal from the bottom in this game practically every time and not get caught but the gains received from this practice are empty and wither at the touch of the hard hand of real knowledge.

However you play your game, play it steady. Don't vary. If you are playing the other fellow's hand, play it all the time and when you get burnt; take it like a man and don't squeal. If you are playing the game straight you already know the true worth and value of your course and need no caution to continue on the same course. The best method to find out the right way is to let fortune guide your footsteps after you have chosen your path and if you are going wrong she will bring you up sharp in short order. Then is the time to heed the warning, not to wait for a second one, and you will possibly gain more real actual good out of it than you would if you had not received the blow. We profit far more by our mistakes than we do by our victories for the mistakes temper our minds and give us poise and caution while easy successes weaken the strength of the individual by softening him and rendering him more vulnerable to the crushing power of defeat and diminishing his power to come back and call for more even after he has nothing left to fling in the face of an attack.

Go into your exams this term end with the determination that you are going to receive your just dues from this term's work and that if they be small and disgraceful in themselves they are only what you have coming and the lesson derived from receiving them is worth more than unjust high returns would have been to you. Let the experiences you gain in the losses of today be used in tomorrow's game, to turn the losses into winnings and these winnings will be based on a firmer foundation of knowledge and experience than would have been the weaker winnings of a thoughtless yesterday. Go to it and no matter how much the whip stings, hit the line with a yell for more.

OUR INDUSTRIAL COURSE STUDENTS AND THEIR POSSIBILITIES

By this time the Industrial Course students have left us. Some no doubt forever. But many others to return this next year and the years to follow, to become a newer, better, bigger part of our school than before. We hope that every one of them has been sent out a booster for the A. C. They are not college students nor are they for the most part anywhere near up to that standard, but they are a part of the school life and their influence thruout the state cannot be profitably overlooked. We have profoundly affected the lives of most of these students. The chance that they have had to watch the college students has no doubt instilled in their minds the desire to emulate examples set by these higher students. It is possible to develop most of these men into excellent college men. They are for the most part young and are as good material as any high school students, for that is what they are. They should even make better college material than the average high school student for we have the three or four years that they must spend here before entering the college department in which to give to them the college spirit and to teach them the college traditions and ways that make it a life in itself. We can do these things in the future much better than we have done them in the past and for the good of our school it is imperative that we do so. In the future it should become a custom to teach these students the things they should know and thus to raise their standard high enough to make their department one which we can gaze upon with a certain amount of pride or at least toleration. Here's to a better development of our student resources in the years to come. Are you with us?

SPORTING NEWS of NORTH DAKOTA

AGGIES DEFEAT ST. JOHN

32 TO 23.

The North Dakota State College won the final game of the season from the St. John's University team by a score of 32-23. The Aggies started off with a rush and Borderud started the scoring within less than a minute of play when he scored a field goal.

St. John's was forced to play a defensive game as the Aggies sprung a surprising offense which kept the Saints on the jump. The Aggies outplayed the Collegeville men, who never threatened the State men at any time during the game. Reis at forward was in great form, gathering in eight baskets during the play. Peterson at guard displayed his usual high class work, keeping the Collegeville tossers on the jump at all times when in shooting distance of the basket. The game was more one-sided than the score indicates, and four men were run in for the State team during the last half. The line-up follows:

N. D. A. C.		St. Johns

BASEBALL CALL SOUNDED

With the basket ball togs all stored away until the 1921 season, the call for base ball and track has been sounded with indications for winning teams in both branches of these sports.

Especially in base ball the outlook is very promising with the number of men in school who are experienced base ball players and who have been playing summer ball throughout the state. Twenty-four experienced base ball men are expected to heed Coach Borleske's call. Coach Borleske predicts a team that will have to be reckoned with in deciding the State and Conference honors.

Coach Borleske has issued a call for candidates for indoor practice commencing this week. The work at first will be for the most part battery work, although some batting practice will be given.

Curly Movold is the only letter man from previous years that is back to school and will undoubtedly be elected captain of the team.

A tentative schedule has been arranged. Two games with the University of North Dakota and Moorhead Normal have been definitely scheduled. The tentative schedule is as follows:

April 17—Moorhead Normal at A. C.

April 21—Concordia College at Concordia.

April 24—Wahpeton Science at Wahpeton.

April 28—Moorhead Normal at Moorhead.

May 1—Concordia College at A. C.

May 5—Open.

May 7—Ellendale Normal School, at Ellendale.

May 15—Fargo College, at Fargo College.

May 24-28—Minnesota trip.

May 29—University at A. C.

June 2—Fargo College, at A. C.

June 4—Manitoba U at Winnipeg.

June 5—University, at Grand Forks.

HIGH TOURNAMENT WILL BEGIN FRIDAY

For the first time in the history of the North Dakota High School league, eight teams will compete in the final tournament for the state basket ball championship to be held at the A. C. Armory Friday and Saturday of this week. The state was divided into eight districts instead of four, as has formerly been the custom. In that it is the first time in several years that the Fargo high school quint has been in the race for state honors, the tournament is of more than usual interest to local fans. The contests will all be played at the Agricultural College Armory. Besides Fargo, the other teams which will compete here are Valley City, Ellendale, Mayville, Mandan, Kenmare, Devils Lake and Towner.

FIRST ALL-A. C. BASKET BALL LINE-UP SUGGESTION

A man who has followed A. C. base ball for a good many years, during his time in the school here and after he finished has conceived the idea of placing a hypothetical All Aggie base ball team composed of the best men the school has seen in its years of base ball. This scheme is an excellent one for a good many reasons and the question should prove of interest especially to the old-timers who have watched the game for a number of years and should be the best judges. It also gives our men of the present and future something to work for. The originator of this idea believes that Dr. Schalk, as one of the most enthusiastic and best informed base ball followers of A. C. athletics should be able to give us some good suggestions in regard to this matter. There are also a good many others among the faculty, alumni and older students whose opinions would be of value in this matter. Let us take some interest in this matter and give this a place among our other athletic traditions of the school, which at present are far too few. Formulate your ideas and send them in to the Spectrum and we shall be only too glad to print them.

We have seen many lists of all-state teams, all-conference teams, all-American teams, but never have we seen an all-college team. By all-college teams we mean the pick of the lot which has represented one college. We submit the following as an all-A. C. base ball team:

Catcher—Foss. Polly was a real catcher. He could hit, throw, and hold anything that wasn't thrown over the grand stand. Crawford (1915-1916) was good, but couldn't work his pitchers like Foss did.

Pitchers—Baker (1910), Otis (1914). Baker was a small man but knew how to use what he had. Used to go way back for his fast one and could 'dink' them up there in good style too. Yes, sir, Baker and Foss were the best battery A. C. ever had. Another man who can't be left out is Crum Otis. Otis had lots of stuff and won a lot of games, but he had one great fault. He always tried to slam 'em past the batters by main speed. Good hitters like Bob Unglaub of the Fargo-Moorhead club used to stand back and pickle those fast ones a mile. Give Otis a good change of pace and Crum would have been great.

First baseman—Charley Hein, (1915). Charley gets this job because he could hit like a fool. Charley was like Ping Bodie—give him two hits and the game was over. Never seemed to care who won.

Second baseman—Ed. Parizek (1913-1914). This bird could hit, field, and run bases to a queen's taste. Give me Ed. Bert Haskins did some fine work for a perfect 54.

Shortstop—Wirtenberger (1913). This guy only hit .395 in 1913. Wow! Anybody else? I guess not.

Third baseman—Ralph Movold (1915). 'Rat' was and is a fine ball player. In the field he reminds one of Heinie Groh and he hits like a fiend. Driving in runs is Curley's specialty. For an aggressive, up and at 'em infielder, give us Curley.

Outfielders—Rose, Whiting and Catlin. Rose was one of the best ball players A. C. ever had if not THE best. Played minor league ball for a number of years after leaving school. Whiting was A. C.'s Babe Ruth. Man, how that bird could smear that ball. Swung his bat like Frank Schulte and drove in runs like the Babe. Great ground coverer too. Catlin—fast, hard man to pitch to, and a pretty fielder.

Batting order:—
Wirtenberger, s. s.
Parizek, 2b.
Movold, 3b.
Whiting, lf. f.
Rose, r. f.

Hein, 1b.

Catlin, c. f.

Foss, c.

Baker, p.

Otis, p.

What do you say, Dr. Schalk? You've seen a few.

FARGO Y DEFEATS CADETS

In a preliminary game the Fargo Y. M. C. A. team defeated the Cadet five after some forty minutes of slow and uninteresting basket ball. Neither side displayed enough real teamwork and ability to merit any praise. The spurts of speed were so few and so rare as to scarcely be worthy of mention. It was plain to the spectators that none of the men had their hearts in the game, and that they were all playing to get through with it. The final score showed the Cadets to be outclassed, altho they had held a long lead thruout the greater part of the game. The score was 24 to 19 in favor of the visitors.

ST. JOHN'S EASY FOR FARGO COLLEGE QUINT

March 13.—Playing one of the best games of the season, the Fargo College basket ball five closed the 1920 season last evening, defeating the quint of St. John's University, Collegeville, Minn., by a score of 27 to 12. A large crowd saw the game. At no time during the game was the Fargo College lead in danger. In the second half, Coach Watkins of Fargo College substituted all his second string men for regulars. Capt. John Keye was not in the game because of injuries suffered in the A. C. game.

Barry was the individual star for St. John's, scoring eight of his team's 12 points. Murray, Fargo College center, scored five field baskets and made three free throws. The line-ups and summary:

St. John's		Fargo College
Barry	F	Ward
Haines	F	Carlson
Zicker	C	Murray
Rooney	G	Burns
McDonald	G	Chaney

Subs—Aamodt for Carlson; Horwitz for Aamodt; Murie for Ward; Ulrich for Chaney.

Field goals—Murray 5, Carlson 2, Ward 2, Burns 2, Barrey 2, Rooney, McDonald 1.

Free throws—Barrey 4; Murray 3.

A. C. CADETS SWAMPS INDEPENDENTS 34-8

March 12.—The North Dakota Agricultural College Cadets' basket ball team swamped the Moorhead Independents in a slow, uninteresting game in the A. C. armory last evening, 34 to 8. The first half ended 18 to 2 in favor of the Cadets. Murphy and Sivertson scored five and six field baskets, respectively.

The Independents came back strong in the second half, but could

FARGO INDEPENDENTS

LOSE TO A. C. CADETS

March 10.—The A. C. Cadet basket ball team had little trouble defeating the Fargo Independents last evening in the A. C. armory by a score of 40 to 17. Hunter and Sivertson were the big pointgetters for the Cadets, each getting seven field baskets. The line-ups follow:

Independents		A. C. Cadets
Messer	F	Sivertson
Doran	F	Hunter
Dunham	C	Coleman
Pratt	G	Chaney
South	G	Borderud

Subs: Stevenson for Doran, Morud for Stevenson, Gardner for Coleman, Mathune for Borderud.

NORMAL SCHOOL WINS

FROM SCIENCE QUINT

Wahpeton, March 13.—Wahpeton Science basket ball team met defeat this evening at the hands of the Moorhead Normal team by the score of 19 to 18. The game was one of the fastest ever played on the local floor. The locals took the lead at the beginning of the game and kept it throughout the first half. They outplayed the visitors and seemed in a fair way to win the game. The first half ended with the Wahpeton quint in the lead 14 to 9. In the second half the Moorhead five seemed to wake up and they played around the local team. The score for the second half was 10 to 4 in favor of the Normal school, making the score for the game 19 to 18 with the visitors at the big end.

CARLETON COPS CONFERENCE

Northfield, Minn., March 6.—Showing superior style of play in almost every department of the game, Carleton cinched the college conference basket ball championship, defeating Hamline here tonight by a score of 19 to 13.

N. D. U. TREMS MANITOBA

Winnipeg, March 13.—Playing a brilliant unbeatable game, the University of North Dakota five won from the University of Manitoba tonight in a one-sided contest, to the tune of 52 to 25.

FOOTBALL SCORING SYSTEM IS GIVEN APPROVAL BY FARGO MAN.

The proposal of Coach Zuppke, of the University of Chicago to change the scoring system in football has a supporter in Seth Richardson, well known Fargo attorney and formerly a star athlete.

Briefly, Coach Zuppke's proposal is that instead of allowing six points for a touchdown, one point be given a team when it crosses the opponent's 20-yard line, another point for crossing the 10-yard line, a third for crossing the five-yard line and three additional points when a touchdown is scored.

Mr. Richardson says that the new system would do away with scoreless ties, which indicate nothing of the strength of the elevens, and give recognition to teams having merit. "Under the present system," he added, "a team may carry the ball over the opponent's 20 or 10-yard line a dozen times in a game without scoring a touchdown."

The proposed new scoring system is getting a lot of attention in the east. Some supporters point out that a weaker team may score a touchdown on a fluke, and defeat a team that played a vastly better game, both on the offense and defense. The system is expected to be given attention when the football rules committee meets.

"Where did we first hear of the electric current being used commercially for lighting purposes?"
"When Noah made the arc light."

The owner of a chicken coop one night was making the rounds when he thought he heard a sound. He immediately asked, "Who's in here?" A reassuring voice breathed out, "S-s-s-h nobody heah, ceptin' us chickens."

"What do they call you at school, my boy?"
"Oh, they always call me 'corns.'"
"Why such a pretty name?"
"Guess it's cause I'm always at the foot of the class."

"But mother, I only stand there for a second."

"Well, I believe I've heard a third and a fourth occasionally."

"All right back there?" called the conductor from the front of the car.

"Hold on," cried a girl's voice. "Wait till I get my clothes on."

Everyone in the car turned to gaze with great interest at the door, and a young lady came in carrying a basket of clothes.
