The Men Who Fight For Our School Against F. C. and The U This Week

The dope is against us. You can't get away from that. According to comparative results in the games that have been played already this season we are beaten by both the F. C. and U. teams. That means a fight against the odds of at least apparently superior forces. Our men are ready to enter into these battles knowing that the athletic prowess of our college for this year, rests upon their shoulders. They are ready and willing to do this because they believe that the school is back of them ready to fight with them till the fast whistle is blown and then will still be with them regardless of the outcome. It's up to us to show them that we are. Every one of us has got to get back of that team and boost for all he is worth to make those odds as light as possible. In the first place in order to back our men right we should know them and their records.

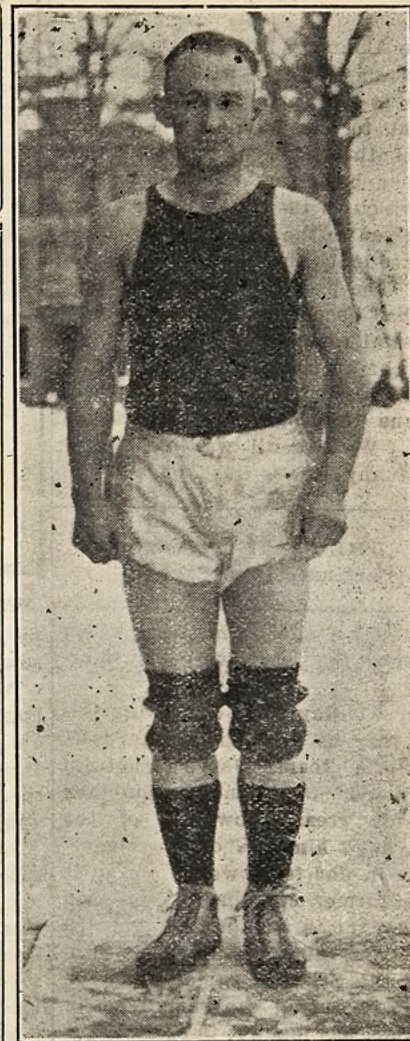

We have first, this year's captain, Roy Reis, who is playing his third year of regular basket ball with us. He was an all-state forward last year and acknowledged to be the fastest man in the state. His eye for the basket is exceptionally good and his floor work is marked by an uncanny speed. Roy has been sick for the past five weeks and consequently has missed practically all of the games this season, which in part accounts for the reverses that the team has suffered. He played the last few minutes of the So. Dak. State game and showed his calibre by counting two field goals in the short time that he was in the game.

"Curly" Movold, our veteran fourth year man, who was captain of the team of '16 and '17. Curly has been an all-state forward for several years and has always been one of the fastest and trickiest men with the ball in this conference. As a master of basket ball knowledge and an able player Movold has but few equals in the state.

"Happy" Peterson, another veteran upon whose excellent work and steady playing much of this year's basket ball work has been based. Happy's guarding is as steady and airtight as could be asked and his strength, power and ability are phenomenal. The flu laid Pete out for

THE STUDENT VOLUNTEERS MOVEMENT

(By a prospective volunteer)

The Student Volunteer convention held at Des Moines, Iowa, Dec. 31, 1919 to Jan. 4, 1920, was attended by about 7,500 delegates. These delegates came from 1,000 schools of higher education in the United States and Canada, and represented an aggregate of 300,000 students. Representatives from at least forty countries were present.

The State of North Dakota was represented by forty delegates selected from the Normal Schools, Colleges, and University. Each delegate attending the convention represented about 150 of his fellow-students.

The sessions of this international convention were not only characterized by great increase in attendance but by the formulation of plans which will mark a distinct forward movement in the history of the Christian church.

This great movement of the students of the colleges and universi-

COUNTRY LIFE ASSOCIATION DOING EXCELLENT WORK UNDER HANDICAPS

The Country Life Association is progressing rapidly with their play, "Back to the Farm," which they will present to the public on February nineteenth. Much of the work thus far, has been centered on the first act, which, with a little more attention given to the finer points, will be in excellent shape in a very few days. The present epidemic of sickness has been a great hindrance to successful rehearsals. Now with the return of the members of the cast to school, in good health, the play will continue to progress with renewed vigor. We are all waiting to see, "dat funny feller, Gus" once more.

two weeks a short time ago, which weakened the team very considerably.

"Jarve" Hayes, now playing his third year as first string guard on the State team. Jarve's natural speed and fearlessness combined with his great knowledge of the game make him one of the biggest factors in our team work. Jarve is also a former captain, having been elected captain of the '18 and '19 team. A sprained ankle in the middle of the St. Olaf game, which he played on during the remainder of the game, has made it impossible for him to play before next week. Thus we will be weakened in these two games for this week by losing one of our keystone guards.

Floyd Borderud is one of the older men on the team and during the past year has developed into an exceptionally fast guard. Bordy plays the game for all that is in him and his fast guarding is always a source of trouble to his opponents.

"Lefty" Hunter is a former all-state Minnesota forward from St. Thomas and has shown himself to be phenomenally fast with the ball this season with the State. The flu laid him out in the middle of the season and his loss was another hard blow at our team. Lefty has been back in the game for the past few weeks and is going again with all his old speed.

Among the new men on the squad we have "Crab" Murphy, who has been forced out of basket ball during this term on account of scholastic deficiencies caused by sickness in the latter part of the fall term and the first part of this term. Crab's terrific offensive and fighting defense made him one of the mainstays of the team during the first part of the season.

Jack Kramer is playing his first year of basket ball with the A. C. this year and has proven to be a very able player and a master hand with the ball. Jack has been doing good work both as a center and as a guard during the games of this season.

Vernor Trowbridge is one of our freshmen forwards whose speed and ability has made him an important factor in several of our games of this season. He is rather light but is very fast on the floor.

Percy Flem, former all-state high school man, has proven an outstanding guard in his work with the squad this year. The influenza also numbered him among its conquests and for the past two or three weeks he has been unable to practice.

From the information given above we can see the many adverse accidents that have occurred during this season and we can derive the hope that we at least have a chance to win the F. C. and U. games during this next week. We also have the fact against us in the case of the U game that it is not to take place on our floor. This can be obviated to a large extent however if we back our team by filling a Special for the Grand Forks game, with Aggie rooters.

Whether or not we have a special train depends entirely upon us as the student body. If we have the school spirit we should have, the Special is already assured, but this seems extremely doubtful as, not the slightest hint of any definite action being taken in regard to this matter has been heard outside of this medium as yet.

The big thing for the present is to get out 1200 strong for to-night's game and show our team that we have the school at heart as much as they. Let's GO AGGIES.

The piano department is again running in full force after having been crippled considerably by the epidemic of influenza. The students taking piano have nearly all returned now and Music Hall again resounds with echoes from the piano.

"YOU'D BE SURPRISED."

Following out the idea of trying to make the regular Friday afternoon dances at the Armory real get-together affairs, the Cadet Corps added a little more spice and variety to the affair by making the last one a Leap Year Hop. Following the announcement which appeared on the bulletin board in the morning rumor was rife among the fair sex and the Old Guard of Heart Smashers of the masculine sex that the thing wouldn't go thru. Of course not! How could it when they took their support away from the move. Undoubtedly it was going to be a stale affair. At first the sceptics weren't going to attend, but on second thought, reversed their decision and decided to be present at the funeral.

And, oh, girls, it was a lively funeral, wasn't it? When Doc Putnam's classy cadet band struck up the first chords of the dirge (?) the Spirit of Nineteen-Twenty moved

True, there were a few of that variety who carry yard long address lists who didn't run true to form, but on the whole, you'll have to admit fellows, that the A. C. girls are there and over. CERES HALL GIRLS ENTERTAIN

The girls of Ceres Hall delightfully entertained their gentlemen friends at a dance last Friday evening after the South Dakota game in the gymnasium in that building. The early part of the evening was spent in dancing and later light refreshments were served. This is the second party given by the girls and reports of the fine time have spread so rapidly that the girls are now talking of duplicating the party later in the school year.

Entered at the North Dakota Agricultural College as Second Class Matter.

Over half the term is gone, vanished and likewise disappeared and there are only too many of us who have nothing whatever to show for it. The fall term went the same way, but we comforted ourselves by saying, "O well, it always does take some time to get into the swing of things again". But we cannot even make ourselves believe such an excuse this term. We all got a good start and knew what we had coming, be we freshmen or seniors or in between. Now it is an old and long-established custom of the loafer gang to spurn Dame Study until the last week of the term or a few days before. This is the logical term and time of the term to cease this practice and start on a new basis of having the term's work completed when exam time draws near. The winter term is the easiest one in which to concentrate attention upon one's studies; it is the time of year when one's mental faculties are at their height of efficiency, not being deadened by hot days and nights such as we find at the end of the spring term. There are less than five weeks of school left in this term, considering the last three days of the final week as regular school days when in reality during the exams one cannot hope to make up any back work or do any profitable studying. Thus there are really only four weeks left in which to get the term's work in hand properly and there is not a one of us that can afford to waste any of that time. Now is the time to start if we want good grades for this term. Work this term that you may have decent average to get thru on in the spring term, when it will be infinitely harder for you to get your work done as well or as efficiently on account of that spring fever that gets even the most industrious of the students.

WILL YOU?

It has been suggested that in addition to the class editions of the Spectrum which are to be scheduled in the near future, that the faculty also put out one issue of the Spectrum, in order that they may have their proper representation and proper chance to express their opinions upon the various questions of joint interest to the student body and the faculty. If this question is considered by the faculty and some faculty member or committee is assigned to the work, the management of the Spectrum will be only too glad to set a date for their issue at any time they may desire.

GET INTO IT

The U game is less than a week off and the time is almost upon us when this year's student body will show whether they have the staunch old A. C. spirit; no spirit at all; or better yet have started a new spirit, a post war spirit that is similar to the old spirit in its depth and its fineness but is based upon the newer conditions, which should make it a stronger feeling than ever before.

The older men in this institution are trying to put this thing across and do it right, but they cannot do it without your aid and you cannot do these things in the future when you are the upper-classmen and the older heads among your fellow students, unless you start now and learn how. By not gaining the spirit of the movement and working hard to make this and every other movement that the students try to put across, a real success, you not only will lack the knowledge to do these things in the future but you will also lack the incentive, the love and pride in your institution and its ideals and traditions which inspired those who have done the greatest things for our school in the past. Get started now and show what kind of stuff you have in you and if you have any talents let your institution develop them by using them in its service and thus benefiting both itself and you by so-doing.

THE VOICE OF THE CAMPUS

Mr. Editor:—

Can you give us any data as to the recent actions of the Student Commission on the matter of the "Change-of-name" petitions? Have these documents, too, been lost and forgotten like a number of other projects the Commission has begun and left unfinished? Can you give us any reason why these petitions were not completed and sent to the Postoffice Department before Christmas, thus saving the trouble of canvassing the large number of students in the Short Course (unnecessary as it ought to be) with the attendant difficulties of such an act? Will you kindly print any "inside dope" the executive of the Student Commission can furnish as to any contemplated moves in this matter—especially if any move before next June is that of?

—College Student.

How about this Mr. Student Commissioners? It rather looks as tho we've slipped up a bit, doesn't it? This is one of the many questions that the few students at this institution who have any genuine school spirit and have the best welfare of the school at heart, are asking each other. This letter merits an official explanation from the Commission, let's have it.

An Appeal For Fairness

To The College Students:

The following is the opinion of the High School student body.

The High School has half as many students as College, Farm Husbandry and Power Machinery courses combined and surely has the right to a fair deal and equal treatment.

We patronize College activities fully as well and in many cases far better than the average College students. We are as loyal to the athletic teams as any of you and attend as many of the athletic and other forms of student activities. It is no more than fair that in return for this loyal support, the College should give us a square deal.

Since the original organization of the high school department its student activities have been slighted and in most cases ignored by the College. During all this time the H. S. students have been expected to attend all the College plays and games and have always fulfilled this expectation to the best of our ability and yet you do not hesitate to change the dates of your college parties so that they will conflict with our games or other affairs. One of the most notable examples of this in the year 1918 was the concurrence of dates in the cases of a College and our inter-state debate of that year. This year, in order not to be outdone by your last year's performance, you give a Colonial All-college dance on the night of the same occasion. Is this done deliberately or merely thoughtlessly? We helped choose the social executives of the school and yet receive no consideration at their hands. Is this condition of affairs fair or even tolerable?

Do you realize that we produce ten College students to any other high school's one, that attends the College department of this institution? Do you know how many of the leaders in College activities have been given their start and inspiration in the preparatory department of the school?

Consider these facts carefully and then judge our importance to the institution and as to whether you are doing the just thing when you spend time and money to attract other H. S. students thruout the state to the school and then ignore or deliberately snub the students of your own H. S.

In spite of these facts this department has always and still does support the college in all its activities as faithfully as you yourselves do. But this one-sidedness can not last forever. We will not tolerate this treatment in the future and in all fairness ask you if we can be blamed for the stand we are taking? We don't ask for help or pity. We can and will stand alone, as we always have. But we do want fair play and the consideration that our deeds merit us and which up to this time has been denied us.

A High School Student.

ties of the world is primarily in the interest of the foreign missions. Thinking people of the world have been forced to realize that if the world is to become better and conditions are to improve, that it must be brought about by a world betterment rather than by national betterment. The unity of purpose and that as expressed by the students from all nations indicated more of the feeling of democracy and brotherly love than was ever manifested by any other similar gathering.

Religious leaders and students from Canada and France, state, that, in spite of the obstacles placed before them by the war, they are going forward with the story of the risen Christ and of his power to save. Because of the conditions brought about by the war, the world is standing on the threshold of a new day.

Returned missionaries declare that in many parts of the world people are not only coming individually and accepting Christ as their personal Savior but are coming in large masses and asking to be taken into the church. The waiting lists, containing the names of thousands of convert applicants, show to some extent the great need for more extensive effort in this Christian pioneer work. The converts in many of these frontier districts have been waiting for years to be taken into the church. When it is remembered that the non-Christian religions are striving to strengthen their influence in these same districts, it becomes apparent that there will need be some action taken in the very near future. These converts will either have to be taken into the church or they will become tired of waiting and will turn to other religions that will minister unto them. The decisive step in foreign missionary work will have to be taken within the next few years in China, India and Africa if these countries are to be saved for Christianity.

The question of money is not the most important one in the foreign missionary work today. Workers, who are willing to devote at least a part of their lives to the great cause of Christ and humanity, is the crying need of the day. Where there are fifty or seventy-five people in this country being reached by the gospel, there are ten-thousand people over in China and India who would gladly accept its teachings if it were only made known to them.

There is a great deal of criticism, today, by those who are standing afar off and viewing the struggle from a safe and comfortable distance. The world does not need criticism so much as it needs people who are willing to get into the great battle and sweat sweat and blood in the effort to help their fellow men. Money will not take the place of men. What is needed today is for men and women to go and face the great tasks on the frontier. The foundations in this country have been built; those in the foreign countries are in the process of construction. If the world is to be saved for Christ it must be done by the Christian young men and women.

Up to the present time there have been between 10,000 and 11,000 volunteers, from the Student Volunteer Movement, who have sailed to take up work in the foreign missionary fields.

There is scarcely a school of higher education in the state of North Dakota that does not have several students who are seriously considering entering the foreign missionary work. The old prejudice in regard to such work does not exist to such an extent as formerly and as a result students are responding to the call in ever increasing numbers.

February 29, of the present year, will be a notable date in the history of the Student Volunteer Movement. At this time in all of the schools of higher education there will be issued a challenge and a call to service. Foreign missionaries and leaders in the Movement will address the students and present the needs and opportunities of the work.

AGGIES CRACK ST. OLAF

The St. Olaf basket ball team was defeated last Monday at the hands of the Aggies in what proved to be a very interesting game of basket ball, neither team being able to claim the victory till within the last few minutes of play.

St. Olaf started the scoring with a free throw which was followed by a field goal by the Aggies, who held a one or two point lead throughout the game. Both teams played a five man defense which neither was able to carry the ball thru and making long shots necessary. Hayes dropped in a couple of long shots for the Aggies which was followed by a pair by Cole which ended the half.

The second half started with a rush on the Aggies' part which the St. Olaf guards were unable to meet and within a few minutes the Aggies started building up their point column. The St. Olaf team was forced to resort to the long shot method due to the strong defense which held the Saints to one basket in the last half.

The game was featured by the long shots of Thompson and Hayes. The line-up and summary:

A. C.		St. Olaf
Movold	F	Thompson
Hunter	F	Christensen
Kraemer	C	Swensen
Flem	G	Cole
Hayes	G	Hange

Substitutes: Trowbridge for Hunter; Peterson for Flem.

Field goals: Hayes 4; Hunter 3; Movold 1. Kraemer 1; Cole 2; Swensen 2; Christensen 1.

Referee: Pete Tierney.

Attendance: 1,200.

SOUTH DAKOTA STATE DEFEAT AGGIES

SISTER STATE PROVES TOO STRONG FOR STATE LINEUP.

The South Dakota basket ball team defeated her sister State school last Friday night to the score of 21 to 12. The game was the poorest that the Aggies have played this year and their inability to score was one of the most prominent features of the game in the first half. The Aggies started a new combination that proved very weak after the first few minutes of play, giving the South Dakota State a lead that the Aggies were unable to overcome in the second half. Both teams resorted to long shots but the Aggies failed to connect with a field goal in the first half but succeeded in counting a lone free throw which ended the half 13 to 1 in favor of the visitors.

The second half found a new combination that proved too strong for the visitors who were outplayed in every department of the game. In this period Peterson and Kraemer held the State men to very few shots and helped on the offense to a great extent. The second half was a marked contrast in the Aggies playing and during spurts it looked like a winner for the Aggies. Captain Reis played the last ten minutes and displayed his true form in developing teamwork with his running mate, Movold. Hunter showed up well in the last half.

Thune and Carey were in the limelight for the visitors. The game was handled in a very fast style by referee Lynch of St. Cloud.

Line-up:

Aggies		S. D. State
Movold	F	Walseth
Hunter	F	Carey
Mares	C	Thune
Borderude	G	Willidson
Kraemer	G	Culhane

Free throws: Aggies, 4 out of 21; S. D. State, 3 out of 6.

Field baskets: Hunter 1, Reis 1, Borderude 1, Carey 2, Walseth 2, Thune 3, Willidson 2.

Referee: Lynch.

Attendance: 1,000.

LISBON IS VICTIM FOR PREPS.

Lisbon high school basket ball tossers were defeated by the Preps 45 to 13. From the first whistle the game proved to be a walk away for the Preps. The Preps displayed excellent teamwork in handling the ball and carrying it through the opponents' defense. The first half ended 21 to 7 in favor of the Preps.

The second half was a repetition of the first, giving the Preps a chance to cage a few more baskets. For Lisbon Harris and Risk played the best game, while Fitzgerald and Peterson scored at will for the Preps. Following is the line-up:

A. C. Preps		Lisbon H. S.
Peterson	F	Risk
Fitzgerald	F	Harris
Rathje	C	Ling
Brauer	G	Aherin
Bohnsack	G	Bale

Substitutes: McCracken for Brauer, Horseman for Bohnsack.

Field goals: Fitzgerald 9, Peterson 8, Rathje 4, Bohnsack 1, Risk 2, Harris 2, Ling 1.

Free throws: Peterson 2, Harris 5. Referee: Bolsinger.

FARM HUSBANDRY TEAM WINS

It is the policy of the band to appear at all athletic games at the school, and it generally does when conditions will permit it.

Play "Engaged" To Be Put On After F. C. Game.

Tonight, on account of the Fargo College game, which is scheduled for 8:15 P. M., the play, "Engaged" will be given after the game has been played.

The original starting time was to have been seven o'clock but with this starting hour the play would be likely to conflict with the first few minutes of the game. Therefore, it has been decided to allow the game to be played first and then to finish the evening with the play.

Last week, due to a mistake, the list of the cast was omitted. It is given here below:

DUAL DEBATES TO BE HELD FRIDAY, FEB. 20

Next Friday evening at eight P. M., the second annual inter-state high school debate will take place in the Little County Theatre. The question is—Resolved: That the United States should grant independence to the Philipines. The A. C. affirmative is to be represented by Jonas Sturlangson, Sander Anderson and Thordur Thordason of the A. M. & T. H. S. and the negative by Harry Sutton, Bernard Nelson and Victor Nelson who argue for the Morris H. S. at Morris, Minnesota. The negative A. C. team which will debate the same evening in the enemy's camp is composed of George Madsven Snorri Thorfinson and Dora Dighton and will be opposed by three of the M. H. S. debaters, who are as yet dark horses.

In 1918 the first interstate high school debate between North Dakota and Minnesota took place. Morris lost here but won at home making the debate a tie. This tie must be broken this year.

The teams have been working hard since the Christmas holidays and deserve support from the college as well as the High School students. High school students turn out strong for college events and it is up to the college to show a little of the same spirit towards the high school.

In the past the college has sent debating teams to other states and won its share of honors. This year the high school is the only part of the institution that is carrying on this important activity and for this reason should have the united support of the college.

Supt. Carlson sends a special request to all high school students to be present.

Students will be admitted upon the presentation of their registration cards. An admission of fifteen cents will be charged to the general public.
