DR. FOGHT AT CONVOCATION

—oo—

Last Monday morning Dr. Foght, now the head of the Aberdeen Normal School, formerly the executive of the Rural Schools branch of the U. S. Department of Education, delivered an excellent address on the subject of "Land Waste," discoursing at some length upon its detrimental effect upon our country's resources. He cited cases thruout the United States where land had been used extravagantly and is now reduced to a barren waste. The old principle of farming was brot out very clearly, that a man should so farm as to, each year, leave his land in better condition than when he started. Dr. Foght's subject was a very timely one and was of great value to his audience.

LORADO TAFT

Lorado Taft, the American sculptor, who will give his demonstration the sixteenth of February is too well known to Fargo audiences to need any comment. He is a graduate of the University of Illinois. His work as a sculptor has won for him medals at the Chicago World's Fair, the Buffalo Exposition and the St. Louis World's Fair. He is the author of The History of American Sculpture. His lectures always prove popular, interesting and instructive to those fortunate enough to hear them.

All students of the North Dakota Agricultural College will be admitted upon presentation of their registration cards. For the general public admission to this number will be fifty cents. DRAMATIC

FARCE, "ENGAGED" UNDER WAY

—oo—

Practice has begun on the English farce, "Engaged," under the supervision of Prof. Arvold. This is one of the best of the W. S. Gilbert comedies, being an original mixture of wit, humor and melodramatic tragedy. It is the story of a close-fisted, tho wealthy, young Englishman, who is cursed with a disastrously anatory disposition, in that he falls in love with every young woman he meets. His father, realizing this fact, pays one of his influential comrades an annuity of 1,000 pounds, so long as his son remains single. This sum is to be turned over to the father-in-law of the young lady the boy marries, in case he overcome his friend's influence.

The first act takes place in Scotland, where, due to the Common Law custom of that country, the young man, Cheviot Hill, is unknowingly married to a strange young lady in search of a wealthy mate. From the outset, the play is a sequence of comical situations, mix-ups and muddles of all kinds. Cheviot waxes suicidal in his despair near the end, but suddenly, as a fitting climax, his troubles are all cleared up by the denouement and the play ends as it began with a laugh for all.

The cast, listed below, will be ready to present the play on the 17th and 18th of this month. Two performances will be given each day at 4:30 P. M. and 7:30 P. M. The customary small admission charge will be levied upon the general public while students will be admitted upon presentation of their registration cards.

EDWIN BOOTH COMEDIATES ON FEB. 24

—oo—

We are now able to publish the date of the presentation of the comedy, "Too Much Johnson," the list of characters and comment of which has appeared in an earlier issue. Tuesday evening, February twenty-fourth, is the date set for the production of this justly famed comedy. The cast has been working diligently for the past few weeks and will have the play in a high state of perfection at this date. The opportunity to witness this play is one that no student or other person can afford to overlook and we anticipate a full house for every performance. Your registration cards will admit you, so come early and get a good seat. Remember the date, February 24.

The above is a play which we do not have to push or advertise beyond a mere mention of the title, as its reputation from past performances assures us that our anticipation of packed houses, during its run at the Little Country Theatre will be more than fulfilled. It is to be put on on February 19th at 4:30 and 7:30. The Farm Husbandry men composing the cast have been laboring overtime to make this the best production of the season and are deserving of a good crowd to watch them do it.

instead of getting single copies as has been done up to this time, this year. The subscription price is $.75 for these last two terms of the year in which there yet remain to be printed some twenty issues of the paper. Mr. Floyd Borderud has been appointed manager of the subscription department and will receive all payments for subscriptions, either by mail or at any time in the Spectrum office, in the Mechanics Arts Building.

This plan has been decided upon as the best way of eliminating the irregularity with which the faculty have been receiving their copies of the Spectrum, and to facilitate the proper distribution of the paper to the students.

Hereafter the copies of the Spectrum will be delivered to the students, in person, from the old book-store office in the right wing of the Main Building. The office will be open practically all day on Tuesdays and Wednesdays of each week, which should be sufficient time for every student to call for his copy or the Spectrum. In case any student is unable to call in this time, we may get his copy from the Spectrum office.

POLYTECH MEETING POSTPONED TILL NEXT WEDNESDAY

The Polytechnic Society meeting which was scheduled to have taken place last Friday was postponed till Wednesday evening, February 11th, when the meeting will be opened at eight o'clock in the engineering building, to be addressed by Mr. J. C. Gillam, the general manager of the Western Union Telegraph offices of Fargo. Mr. Gillam will speak on, "High Velocity Methods and Telegraphy or As Business is Being Conducted Today." During his talk, the speaker intends to cover the history of all signalling as well as that of telegraphy. Starting with the ancient flame and smoke signals of the semi-civilized people, then carrying the theme down thru the ages until the discovery, that by breaking an electric current, signals could be transmitted with much greater rapidity and accuracy than theretofore and culminating in the transmission of messages without wires or other man-made mediums for unbelievably long distances. After covering the history of signalling he will take up the development of some of the more interesting of the mechanical and electrical devices connected with modern telegraphy, such as the multi-plex, which renders possible the transmittal of a number of messages over one wire at the same time. The last topic which the speaker will take up, is to be the association of modern telegraphy and its relation with, modern business and the important role which this factor has held for the past few years.

NORTH DAKOTA.

Have you ever in the morning
Seen the great red sun arise;
Seen the glorious flood of sunlight
Spread across the morning skies;
Felt the touch of cooling breezes;
Caught the scent of new mown hay;
Sensed the great unuttered promise
Of a North Dakota day?

If you have, you've seen the beauty
Of the boundless western plains,
Felt the strength of powers unfettered
By our civilization claims;
From the east received a promise
Of the Freedom that should be,
In the west have seen the sequel:
Love, and Home, and Liberty.

WASHING MILK BOTTLES

The milk bottle if not washed as soon as emptied should be filled with cold or lukewarm water till it is washed. The albumen and casein harden and stick fast when they dry as well as when heated. So that if hot water is poured in the bottle or can that has had milk in it the albumen and casein will harden and stick. After washing with lukewarm water use hot water which removes the fat and rinse in boiling water or steam to kill the bacteria. —Extension Div. N. D. A. C.

HEADS UP!

The big day is only a week a half off now. "What big day?" whispers the deadhead to his neighbor. The day of the North Dakota A. C. vs. the University, game, is the one referred to and it occurred the TWENTY-FIRST of FEBRUARY, a WEEK from next Saturday. That means that a Great Northern train has got to highball out the Fargo yards, on that Saturday morning, loaded to the guards with Aggie supporters and you're supposed to be one of them Mr. Reader. This is your business as much as it is mine or anybody else's. We want a special train again this winter for that game and we're going to have one, make up your mind to that and get your little old, crumpled five dollar bill ready to give to the R. R. ticket seller. Half our student body is the mark we've set for the number of Aggies we want on that train. If you can't get time to go yourself lend your pal enough money so he can go, cause you've got to help keep up the average. Of course if you can both go, so much the better, probably two other pals are both broke. Be out to every rally from now on, get that little pep bug working in the spirit of every student you see and above all add your name to the pile that is going to hit the 500 mark. Bring your cough-drops with you and YELL your teeth loose—the U game is going to be a hard battle and we've got to fight like fiends to beat them.

GET INTO THE SWIM!

Pull your feet out of the mud! Don't stand on the shore watching the soft warm mud of idleness ooze between your toes. Oh it feels good alright, but it will never get you any place. Get into the middle of the stream and swim with the other live men of the world. The water will be mighty cold at first and the rocks in the shallows will be sharp, but it is the one who gets farthest out in the stream the earliest, that gets upstream the quickest. It doesn't hurt half as much to sink while you're young in the race, because you don't know how, as it does to go under when you are old because you are winded and didn't get in the proper condition at the start. Don't let the trippings and duckings administered by an adverse fate or malicious rivals, discourage you or make you cease your struggle to properly strengthen and harden yourself in all ways for the long up-current battle, which you will find before you when you drift out of this collegiate eddy, in which you are lucky enough to be now. The more thoroughly you train yourself while in college, the more quickly and easily will you make the journey to success. This training must not be limited to one or even just a few branches of activities but must be as nearly universal as is possible and its value will vary directly with the extent of the field which it covers. You must not only possess the knowledge and skill necessary to breast the currents of life's stream, but you must also be able to pick the optimum course to follow, thus judgement is required, as well as ability. Remember that no bit of knowledge or information is too insignificant to be of value to you in your future; gather in all these bits of information, whenever you have the opportunity, for in so doing, you increase your capacity for learning, as well as the amount of learning that you possess.

Success never floated down to a man, altho some men have been fortunate enough to have an apparently, downstream swim to the goal. At any rate, get out of the mud and into the swim, if you do no more than scratch your feet on the rocks near the edge, for they will, at least, force you to move on to better fields.

SNAPSHOTS FOR THE AGASSIZ WANTED

Help the Photo Man of the Agassiz by collecting all the interesting and comical snapshots that you can find and dropping them in the Agassiz box in the lobby of the main building. Ninety per cent of the beauty and value of such publications as the Agassiz lies in the pictorial element and the snapshot department is the most important single factor in this part of the book. If you haven't any snapshots and don't know where to get any for the Agassiz, start taking some right now, at any rate get something in and something done for the Agassiz, don't pass the buck to the other man in an issue of the importance to the best welfare of your school that this one is.

Watch for University Game Rallies and be there ready to back the "Special" movement with 100% A. C. Spirit.

On account of the basket ball game held that evening (Friday) the meeting was dismissed early without the customary formalities; every member promising to attend the contest with lots of pep ready to back up their declamers to the end.

SPORTING NEWS of NORTH DAKOTA

ST. JOHNS WINS

St. Johns' University, Feb. 2.—In what proved to be the fastest game of basket ball ever played at St. John's U, the North Dakota State College team tasted defeat in the last two seconds of play by a score of 16 to 18.

The State team started scoring after about two minutes of the hardest kind of basket ball fighting, when Hayes dropped in a pretty one. This was followed shortly by a successful long shot by Barry for St. Johns, who were fortunate enough to drop in three more in quick succession. This made the game look like a walk-away for the Collegeville aggregation, when the State team sprung an offensive of the St. Mihiel variety which swept away the St. Johns' defense; the first half ending 9 all.

The rooters were just regaining their breath when the whistle sounded for the second half and the fight was on. They started in where they left off in the first half with Movold counting a foul; Hunter dropping one and Hayes scoring again. St. Johns' recovered from the set-back given them by the Aggies by using some very clever teamwork. Hanes counted a nice one as a result of this teamwork. The Aggies held the lead thruout the entire second half till the last three minutes of play when Barry scored again making the game 16 to 16. Both teams then settled down to a defensive game allowing no shooting in their halves of the floor. The loss of Hayes in the middle of the second half had weakened the Aggie team however, and in the last twenty seconds of play Barry shot another long one giving St. Johns' the lead. A foul was called and time was up giving St. Johns the game.

The game was the fastest battle ever staged at St. Johns' and was characterized by the excellent team work displayed by both teams and the ability to shift from offensive to defensive fighting quickly. For St. Johns' Barry and Hanes were the consistent scorers, with McDonald and Bronney covering the State forwards in very good shape. Hunter, Movold and Hayes were the outstanding Aggie men; Movold displaying uncanny speed in team work and helping to work the ball over the enemy's offense. Hunter made two baskets at crucial moments in the game and his work on the defense was exceptionally clever. Trowbridge rewarded the teamwork of Kraemer and Borderud by shooting two baskets.

A. C. PREPS TAKE GAME

Last Tuesday night the State College Preps defeated the Fargo Independents in a slow, one-sided game ending 33 to 11. The game was very erratic, the Preps, at times showing some real basket ball in the line of fast team work. The Independents showed a very feeble attack and were forced to take only long shots by the fast work of the Prep guards, McCracken and Bohnsack. Gray, the F. I. center was their point-getter, while Gullickson showed up well in the defense. Peterson was the outstanding Prep man, netting them twelve points from field goals and breaking up much of the F. I. attack.

Line-up:—
 Aggie Preps F. I.
 Fitzgerald F Murad
 Peterson F Gullickson
 Ratchye C Gray
 McCracken G Richmond
 Bohnsack G Leff

Field goals: Fitzgerald 3, Peterson 6, Ratchye 4, McCracken 2, Murad 2, Gullickson 1, Gray 3.

FARM HUSBANDRY DEFEATS H. S. ALUMNI

The Farm Husbandry team defeated the High School Alumni men last Tuesday night in a hard fought battle with a final score of 28 to 15. The game was one of the most interesting of the class games played thus far this season. It was marked by the well developed team work displayed. The Farm Husbandry men played a very good game on the whole, both offensively and defensively; Greive being the point-getter and Hammond the defensive grant. For the High School has-beens, Mares and Latimer were the shining lights. Latimer did some excellent work in breaking up the attack of the Farm Husbandry men and recovering the ball for his team mates.

Line-ups:—
 Farm Husbandry H. S. Alumni
 Greive F Flamer
 Heine F Bohnsack
 Hammond C Mares
 Greive G Latimer
 Hanson G Tatter

Field goals: Greive 5, Heine 3, Hammond 4, Greive 1, Hanson 1, Flamer 1, Bohnsack 2, Mares 2, Latimer 1, Tatter 1.

Max Murray of the Fargo College team was the strong man, both offensively and defensively, displaying great accuracy in his shooting and passing. Christianson of the Saints was their outstanding man and proved to be very fast on the floor. Fargo College plays the U Wednesday night.

Line-ups follow:—

 Aamodt F Christianson
 Murray C Severson
 Burns G Haug
 Keye G Cole

Substitutes: Murie for Aamodt and Carlson for Murie.

SHARON TEAM GETS OUT OF ITS DEPTH.

The hitherto undefeated Sharon team came out of the West and toddled back home again under a haze of poor sportsmanship and defeat. The City Y. M. C. A. team took the laddies for a score of 22 to 20 but with supreme generalship Captain Ellingson called his men off the floor three minutes before the game was over. The excuse was a raw deal on a foul called on one of his men. The pettiness of this stall was emphasized by the fact that the Y had been fouled 7 times to Sharon's 4. prior to this time of the game. The Sharon men were manifestly outplayed all during the second half, altho the first half was even, ending 10 to 10.

Deer pal:—
 Every since I been at this school I think we should run it. By we I means us students. Why aint we capebul to run it we ask each other and we all say yes? Hoo are we to be told, you better do this and don't do that by a glass ide prof hoo never shovelled off his own wock even and now tells us we gotta quit shooting pool if we want a diploma from him and to study at nites. As things is now us students has to little voice in the way things is run here or rather we has to much voice and not enough powre. Anyhow by all the best argumentz in the world aint we the lodgical rulers of the schools. Evry paper you glants over says The working class should rule the Rulers so that the Rulers cant work the workers huh Slim well aint we the workers. Sure.

Now just for instants if we was runnin things. The meeting of the board of Reagents wood take place and of coarse we wood be there representing each other. Someone wood say we need a new gim and you or I wood say ya we need it damn bad. Then they wood say no you cant have none this year cause the U needs some siloes to go with thers. Then weed say you go to blazes or something worse if we was mad by then. weer goin to have a new gim or we'll open up our duck pond. Then they'd probly get scared an say well if your goin to be mean about it why go ahead and build your old gim. But the profs dont say them things, they just say all right we will still be alive next year and gims will cost more money so your the loser and go away thinking how badly they slipped it over on the reagents. That reminds me I think weve been boarding them reagents long enough it would be allright if we boarded them at Cereys hawl but they stay at the Gardener where we used to steal the stationery and evry time they meat the manager of the hotel has all the chicken thefts in town working day and nite.

Well old man we havnt changed any of these things as yet but I dont doubt a bit but what we will long before Eljayef is President of the United States at any rate I will giv you some frekwent bulletins on the matter often.

So long for you,
 Asee

MUSIC

GREAT LAKES STRING QUARTET AT ARMORY

Last Thursday evening, February 5th, the Great Lakes String Quartet entertained in the college armory with a recital of chamber music. The Great Lakes String Quartet was formed at the U. S. Naval Training Station at the Great Lakes by Messrs. Herman Felber, Carl Fasshauer, Robert Dolejsi, and Walter Brauer. These four young men served together with the navy all through the recent world war and were assigned to the U. S. S. George Washington, on which ship they entertained President Wilson and the members of the Peace committee who were enroute to and from France.

The quartet is composed of young men with exceptional musical ability. The program consisted wholly of classical and higher grades of music. The technique, expression and perfect harmony of the quartet was exceptionally good.

VIOLIN SECTION LARGE.

At the last rehearsal of the College Concert Orchestra last Tuesday evening eleven violins reported. There are at present fourteen violins among the instrumentation, some being absent. Other members of the string section are the viola, and the cello—the string bass still being absent. Although the string section of the orchestra is exceptionally well balanced this year there is still room for more, so get busy, you talented ones.
