ONCE MORE

It would seem that it takes the student body of the Agricultural College about so long to wake up. The interest taken so far in the basketball games has been very meagre. The team has now passed the rudimentary stage of the game and are now about to enter upon the real part of their schedule. The games played thus far, with the exception of that with Minnesota University, have been won by good margins, although the reports indicate that the outcome of the game at Wahpeton last week was for a while doubtful. But be that as it may, the fact remains that the team is not getting the support that it deserves. The members of the team this year with the exception of Hauser and Movold are new to the game, so far as the A. C. is concerned. This fact makes the necessity for more support from the student body more imperative. These men have not as yet become accustomed to their new surroundings and they need every familiar face to enable them to play as they should. As one of the players said, "We surely do miss the sight of those whom we see every day on the campus, and although they may say that we do not hear them when they yell, still we can note the great silence that usually attends the games so far this year."

The team plays the fast D. B. C. team in a return game tomorrow evening. This time they will be playing on a strange floor and they will need all the support from the students, that they can get.

On February 8th they will leave on a five day trip through South Dakota. These games will largely tell how the remainder of the season will turn out. They will encounter some of the best there is in that state and will be put in condition for the four big games with which they will close the season. The final games of the season will be for the state championship and these are the game which we must win. To do this we will have to win the preceding games and then every student will have to turn out and help win the last games.

Before that time we would suggest to the yell leaders that it would be a good plan to organize a number of the good rooters into a rooters' club. Then the "great silence" will not be a feature of the coming games.

The coming week is full of events for the student body. Tomorrow there will be the basket ball game with the D. B. C. and at the same time the Fuller Sisters will give their program. On Friday comes the twenty-second annual college declamation contest. On Saturday evening will come the First Annual Co-ed. Prom. The Preps also have a basketball game. On Monday morning the Cadet Band will give the regular convocation program. Tuesday is the date for the first production of the play by the Icelandic Club "The Raindrops". Thursday the basketball team will leave for their South Dakota trip. So there is much to do if one is to keep up with all the things that are going on at the college. Get your dates straight and then keep them.

The War Department is desirous of obtaining the names of any graduate of the college who are eligible for appointment as a commissioned officer in the regular or volunteer army of the United States in time of war.

Eligibility is limited to citizens of the United States of good moral character, sufficient education and military training, physically fit and over 21 years of age. For 2nd Lieuts. eligibility terminates at 32 years; 1st Lieuts., 36; Captains, 40; Majors, 45. This limit is for appointment in the Infantry, Cavalry or Artillery. For appointment in the Quartermaster, Engineer, Signal Corps or Medical Department, there is no age limit. Ex-veterans of the Spanish-American War who had rank of Captain and who are not over 55, may be listed for the grade of Major.

No one except as provided above, will be reported, recommended, or listed as qualified for appointment in any arm of the line who, within the preceding 10 years, has not had military training in the arm for which recommended substantially equivalent to that prescribed below.

Second Lieutenant.—One year in the Regular Army, or three years in the National guard, or one year of which was in a grade above that of private, or two years in an educational institution under a Regular Army officer, or three training camps.

First Lieutenant.—One year in the Regular Army in a grade above that of private, or three years in the National Guard, or one year of which was in a grade above that of corporal, or three years at an educational institution under a Regular Army officer, or one year of which was in a grade above that of private, or three training camps, in one camp of which a grade was held above that of private. Captain.—One year in the Regular Army in grade above that of corporal, or three years in the National Guard, or one year as a commissioned officer, or four years at an educational institution under a Regular Army officer, or one year as a commissioned officer, or three training camps, in one camp of which a grade was held above that of corporal.

Major.—One year in the Regular Army in a grade above that of sergeant, or three years in the National Guard in grade above first lieutenant, or four years at an educational institution under a Regular Army officer, or one year of which was in a grade above that of first lieutenant, or three training camps, in one camp of which the person recommended performed the duties of a company commander.

The training camps referred to above are camps similar to the Plattsburg Camp conducted by the government.

In addition to the above necessary qualifications, one training camp for four weeks duration, or three months service in the National Guard in the service of the United States, is required before appointment.

Any graduate of this college, who is interested in this may obtain further information by calling upon, or writing to, Lieut. Carrithers, Commandant at the A. C.

LIBRARY NOTES

Some Interesting Things in Print

Our magazines have had some especially interesting articles the last few weeks. Have you read the startling article in a recent Harper's, "Should students study?" The author is the president of Reed College, Portland, Oregon, and a close observer of student life.

North Dakota has won recognition in recent numbers of the Literary Digest and the Outlook through the "Farmers' revolt," as it is called. Country life and School and Society also have given space to timely articles on some of the new movements in our state.

The November number of National Geographic magazine is devoted to "The larger North American mammals." The material is written by the assistant chief of the U. S. Biological survey and is beautifully illustrated from the paintings of Louis Agassiz Fuertes. This is only one of a series that the magazine is to issue at a cost of $40,000. If you not have time to read the articles, it will pay you to glance at the illustrations.

"Who is Patience Worth?" is a question frequently asked today by lovers of the mysterious. Read the article in a recent Forum in regard to this subconscious character who speaks through the ouija board of Mrs. J. H. Curran of St. Louis.

The System magazine is becoming very popular among the men of the institution. If you are planning to enter the business world it will pay you to read this publication every month. The last number has an interesting list of Henry Ford's rules for success in addition to the usual articles on Scientific management.

Among the excellent articles in the New Republic is a comment on the German Chancellor's speech on the responsibility of the war, written by Professor Stowell of Columbia.

DANISH BEAUTY ON THE SCREEN.

Valkyrien, Winner of the Danish Government's Beauty Contest, to Appear in "Hidden Valley."

"Hidden Valley," the Pathe Gold Rooster Play produced by Than-houser, which opens at the Strand Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, is Valkyrien at her best. Never, after seeing the film, could the most critical question that the judges did well when they gave her the prize as the most classically beautiful woman in Denmark, her native land.

In "Hidden Valley," she displays her grace and beauty in classic dances. Valkyrien loves all outdoor sports. She is a splendid swimmer and a daring motorist.

The Irish, b'gosh, always rave of "colleens."

And the Spanish Cavaliers of "Senoritas" have dreams: The Germans say "Madchen," The French "Mademoiselle," The Italians, no doubt, Have them named just as well; But—of all the races, And from all the climes, My American "chicken" Is the pick of the times.—Ex.

Many of us had much difficulty in willing away the long convocation hour which was left to our disposal this week, but the always alert Sophs took advantage of the opportunity and in view of the fact that the legislature is going to visit us in the near future, collected a crew of the "yearlings" and put a polish on that fountain that will simply charm the most obstinate politician who visits our campus.

An exchange says: A company of young people were trying to find words that could be spelled the same either forward or backward and somebody mentioned "reviver." Then "madam" and "level" were brought out and finally it was remarked that there was a whole sentence that could be read backwards. The company laughed at the idea but the speaker said: "Reverse this sentence: 'Snag and raw was I ere I saw war and guns.'" and you will find it reads just the same.

Nobody ever asks for the kind of biscuits his wife used to make.

During the winter season scrambling will destroy the identity of a July egg.

In professors' homes where spaghetti is all the rage, whiskers should be abandoned entirely or driven back near the mouth. Any kind of scissors will do.

WHAPEYTON GOES DOWN AGAIN Aggie Quint Wins Fast Game 33-21

In a fast, clean game of basketball the North Dakota Agricultural College quint defeated the Wahpeton Science School, 33 to 21. Though defeated, the Scientists put up a game battle.

The Aggies took the lead after the first few minutes of play, holding and increasing it through the game.

Hauser, center, was the scoring star for the Aggies, with Wrighton a close second. The work of Snyder for the Scientists featured.

The lineups, and summary:

Aggies Pos. Wahpeton
Movold .....F..... Ripperton
Wrighton .....F..... Snyder
Hauser .....C..... Linn
Heidner .....G..... Butte
Peterson .....G..... Billings

Substitutions: Aggies—Ebling for Heidner, Heidner for Wrighton, Wilson for Peterson.

Field baskets: Movold 3, Wrighton 2, Hauser 6, Heidner 2, Peterson 1, Ripperton 1, Snyder 2, Linn 2, Butte 2.

Free throws: Movold 1, Snyder 7.
Time of halves: Twenty minutes.

GIRLS ARE DEFEATED Lose First B. B. Game to Fargo High 21-24

The girls' basket ball team played their first game with the team from Fargo High at the Agassiz gym on Saturday. They were successful in gaining the small end of the score although the closeness of the score indicates a closely fought game.

Several other games are in sight, and here's hoping that they may turn out differently.

The lineup was as follows:

A. C. Pos. Fargo High
Rusch .....F..... Bergham
Sorenson .....F..... Gerar
Mikkleson .....C..... Blake
Steer .....G..... Jennings
Haagberg .....G..... Radcliffe

Substitutions: A. C.—Gilmore, Blake and Tjenstrom; F. H. S.—Chapman and Gilles.

The Prep of the A. C. Are Beginning to Find Their Stride

Quite a schedule of games is being arranged for the preps at the A. C. Tuesday evening they play Moorhead High at Moorhead and the preps of Fargo college on Saturday. Dates for the remainder of the games have not been finally determined yet tho a schedule of games has been arranged for, two with the Fargo college preps, two with the Concordia preps, two with Moorhead High, two with Fargo High, two with the Model school of the State university as preliminaries to the University A. C. games, and one with Tower City High.

Ten men are turning out for regular practice. Two of these were regulars and five were subs on last year's team. The boys are coming good so far and are gradually developing speed. Coach Bolsinger thinks that he has material which should be able to give a good account of itself before very long.

INTER-CLASS SCHEDULE Long List of Games Arranged to be Played

A schedule of forty games has been arranged for the inter-class league at the Agricultural College. The series may begin on next Friday. Several games a week will have to be played in order to complete the schedule before the end of the term.

Class spirit should again begin to display itself with the beginning of these games. For some time past one would hardly suspect that such a thing was ever known to have existed so utterly tame has it become.

Although the reward for the winning team has not been determined upon the possibility is that a banquet will be forthcoming and the possibility of a good feed should prove quite an inducement.

Y. W. PLAY COMES FEBRUARY NINTH "Breezy Point" by Belle Marshall Locke to be Presented

The Y. W. C. A. of the Agricultural College will stage its play "Breezy Point" on Friday, February 9th, in the Little Country Theatre. Another performance will be given later but the date for this has not yet been set.

The play is a three act comedy written by Belle Marshall Locke. The cast includes thirteen characters: Aunt Derby Dexter, mistress of Breezy Point, Miss Rose Neth; Eleanor Peel, of unknown parentage, Rosilla Ladd; Ashrael Crant, a workhouse wail; Lillian Hanson; Mrs. Hardscratch, with business propensities, Louis Rusch; the Hardscratch twins, "who never tell nothing"; Gladys Engle and Lyllith Rusk; Mehitable Doolittle, manufacturer of catarrh snuff and bitters, Josephine Pritchett; Bernice Vernon, Laura Leigh, Edith Norton, Clarice Feneleigh (Aunt Derby's summer boarders fresh from summer school); Gwendolyn Brown, Helena Horn, Eloise Waldron and Dorothy Price; Fantine, Miss Vernon's French maid, Marjorie Lieberg; Old Clem, the Gypsy, Edna Sherman.

The scene is laid at the country home of Aunt Derby Dexter. There is a heavy mortgage on "Breezy Point" and Aunt Derby is compelled to take in summer boarders in order to meet the payments "as they come due. Four boarding school girls, desirous of remaining together for the summer, come to Breezy Point. Shortly after their arrival Aunt Derby is called away on some mysterious errand, and the girls are left in charge of the place. They have some interesting experiences among themselves and with their neighbor Mrs. Hardscratch and her twins, "who never tell nothing."

The humor of the play is most apparent when the twins "have the stage or when the diverse characters of Fantine and Ashrael Grant are

STRATE OVER THE PAN
 Wonder which one "Bill" had in mind in that famous Freshman Issue poem.
 Say Fellows, has any one here seen Dick's new upper lip?
 Psst! Sssh! Did you get one of those Co-ed Hop Invites?
 And Carl is still wondering how Hamlet found it out.
 Fussed Shorthorn (after shooting-the-shoots on the Administration Building steps)—"Gosh Durned, if the things ain't slipp'ry."
 "Agony" question:—What makes Enoch look so down-hearted lately?

Cheating Your EYES?
 From a sense of false economy or as a result of pure, inexcusable thoughtlessness, you may be deferring the wearing of eye-glasses — the one thing needful to your now defective sight.
CAN YOU IMAGINE PEOPLE ROBBING THEMSELVES?
 Think this over, think of your eyes, think of your folly and then—think of us who will gladly furnish you — at small profit—the very kind of glasses a correct and thorough examination proves that you may badly need.

BAND AT CONVOCATION
 The Cadet Band will appear at the regular convocation hour next Monday morning. A program of new pieces is being arranged and will be presented at that time.
 The A. C. Concert Orchestra gave a short concert at the Grand theatre on Sunday evening previous to the address by President Ladd. The various numbers were well rendered and well received.
 Miss Pauline Holl furnished the special music for the Men's mss meeting in the Chemistry building yesterday afternoon. The address of the afternoon was given by the Reverend Brighton of the Christian Church of this city.
 The Girls' Quartet will furnish the eral numbers at the reception to be given tomorrow afternoon in honor of the Fuller sisters.
BAND MEET COMPANY B
 The Cadet Band with the Cadet
 Battalion will be out in full force to meet the returning Company B of the N. D. First Infantry. The exact date for their return is not known at present but the details will be so arranged that "fifteen minutes" notice will be sufficient to get the band out for the occasion. Among the returning companies there are several of the students of the A. C. Fred Gram, who has been missed from the band this year is one. Curran Rourke who held the position of drum major last year is another. So this will show the returning soldiers that although North Dakota may have some cold weather there is still a warm place in our hearts for those who have been separated from us for the past six months.
 The next downtown appearance of the band will probably be on February 18th, when they furnish the program for the Grand Lecture Course.
 The A. C. Orchestra will furnish the program for the community program on Sunday afternoon, February 25 in the Fargo Auditorium.

 party and it's Improvement" was given by Miss Rost. Raymond Putnam gave a talk on the basket-ball games played so far this year by the A. C. team. He was followed by Liefson who discussed a topic dealing with the present legislative session at Bismarck. Up to the minute current events in North Dakota were reviewed by William Braatz. The final number on the prepared program was a reading by Trezek.
 After the prepared program the different students were called on to speak extemporaneously. By programs built along these lines and presented in a partially formal way it is hoped to teach the student how to "stand on his feet and talk."

 PHI U INITIATES
 The Phi Upsilon Omicron sorority formally initiated the Misses Olive Berg and Mable Wold at the home of Lylith Rusk on Saturday afternoon. After the initiation ceremonies the members enjoyed a banquet at the Dacotah Hotel.
 Miss Helen Lewis was hostess to the Delta Phi Beta sorority on Saturday afternoon. Miss Gladys Jensen, and alumni member, was a guest of the afternoon. The afternoon was spent in a social way and refreshments were served.
 Tomorrow afternoon, the Misses Fuller, who will be here as the fifth number of the Citizens' Lecture Course, will be the guests at a reception to be given in the Little Country Theatre and the Hayloft. A program will be given in the afternoon followed by a luncheon which will be served in the Hayloft.
 The second Cadet Hop of the term was given on Friday and as usual was enjoyed by a large number of the students. These are proving such popular affairs that there is the prospect of there being one each Friday from now until Lent. The Cadet Band furnished the music.
 At a meeting of the Sophomore class last Friday the editor and the business manager for the 1916 Agassiz were chosen. Hamlet Larson and Glenn Livingston were chosen. They will select and announce their assistants some time in the near future.
 Theo. Stoa entertained a few of his friends on Saturday evening. Cards were enjoyed and delightful refreshments were served later in the evening.

SMITH SPEAKS TO COMMONS CLUB.
 Pricpal Smith addressed the Commons Club of Fargo one evening last week. He spoke on "The Mathematics of Investment." Street paving and the new high school building erected in Fargo were used to illustrate the points discussed. Mr. Smith is an expert mathematician as most of the students are well aware and his talk was appreciated by the Commons Club.
 We see by statistics from the office over 400 students' parents are farmers. Parents who are in other walks of life are indicated and we say that the students whose parents are sailors didn't get home for Christmas.
