BAND GIVES PROGRAM

Is The Convocation Attraction On Monday

The A. C. Cadet Band made its The A. C. Cadet Band made its initial concert appearance in convocation on Monday. This is the first time that the band has undertaken a concert appearance with the exception of the appearance made at the Masonic Temple on Thursday. The program rendered was well received and many complimentary remarks were heard after the program had been completed.

There were thirty-five pieces in the band on Monday.

One of the numbers was "A Perfect Day" by Carrie Jacobs-Bond, which was rendered by the Saxophone quintet, Dr. Putnam making

FOUNDER'S DAY

Founder's day was fittingly observed last Thursday evening by the local chapter of Alpha Gamma Rho in the form of a banquet followed by a theatre party. A large number of the alumni were present for the occasion.

Founders' Day is an annual affair at all the chapters of Alpha Gamma Rho, commemorating the founding of the fraternity at Ohio. One of the unique features at this time is the drinking of a toast by all the members at the same time. Alpha Gamma Rho is a national Agricultural fraternity and now has chapters at all the leading colleges of the U. S., among them being Cornell, Wisconsin, Missouri, Pennsylvania, Ohio State, Illinois, Indiana and North Dakota.

Large sums of money will be spent in the next five years based on the $75,000,000 federal aid for public highway work. This work is to be done under the direct super-vision of the Office of Public Roads and Rural Engineering. Surveys and Rural Engineering. Surveys and plans must be made which show and plans must be made which show the location, grades, drainage, bridges, special and unusual fea-tures, and the probable cost. All of this must be done under engineer-ing supervision. There is a large amount of highway work being done as shown by an item from an engineering magazine. "A demand engineering magazine, "A demand for highway engineers exists today, cording to statistics compiled by e National Automobile Chamber Commerce, whose headquarters e in New York city. of Commerce, whose headquarters are in New York city. It is claimed that nearly 1,600 engineers are now employed by the twenty-four state commissions, and in addition about 2,000 are employed as county and city engineers in nineteen of the states; salaries of highway engineers range from $900 to $5,000 a year, the average being about $1,800."

Men eligible for employment in this work should have a training in civil engineering, especially in the lines of surveying, roads and pavements, drainage, bridges, reinforced concrete, masonry construction and contracts and specifications. The Board of Regents desires the State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts to give special emphasis to this line of work and this is a wise move.

MINARD TO NEW YORK.

AT CERES Prof. A. E. Minard left on Friday for New York where he is in attendance on the annual meeting of the National Asociation of English Teachers.

Ceres Hall was the scene of a very delightful reception Saturday evening when Mrs. Dial, the Misses Borthwick, Neth, Kammeyer, and the girls of Ceres Hall were at home to all women of the college.

The large reception parlors were decorated in yellogy and green, huge obuquets of Chrysanthemums and ferns being artistically arranged throughout. The guests were received by Miss Mable Wold, president of student government, Mrs. Ladd, Mrs. Dial and the Misses Borthwick, Kammeyer, Neth and Guy.

From the reception rooms the guests were taken to the gymnasium which had also, been prettily deeostrated with flowers, ferns, pennants and innumerable cozy corners, which gave the room a most cheering and inviting appearance.

The hostesses had arranged a short the received saturday which then took the registration, and the late registration fee will be applied to all students who

TEAM AND SEASON

CAN A. C. AFFORD NOT TO

The local Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. are at present working together with other college associations on a worthy mission. The need of the numerous Prisoner-of-War camps in the warring countries of Europe has been presented and these organizations, thru the agency of the various college associations are endeavoring to alleviate, in a measure, this need.

The picture which this condition presents is one of the darkeest. Here are thousands of men and boys—for the dire need of the belligerent nations has necessitated the drafting of mere boys into the service—existing within barb wire entanglements where nothing is being done to relieve their condition, or until recently that was the case.

into the service—existing within barb wire entanglements where nothing is being done to relieve their condition, or until recently that was the case.

Now the Y. M. C. A. has gained the permission of all the nations at war, with the exception of Turkey, to open up Association buildings in these camps. This project will require a large sum of money and the different colleges throughout the country are doing what they can to provide for this fund as a token of sympathy for their fellow students in Europe, who instead of enjoying the privileges and pleasures of college life are literally wasting away in the camps of Europe. The approach of another winter with no prospects of immediate peace, makes the need exceedingly urgent and the efforts to fill the need are being doubled on that account.

The colleges of the Northwestern states, such as Wisconsin, North Dakota and South Dakota, are rallying to the support of this noble cause. They have contributed large sums for this work. The University of North Dakota has responded to the call with about $1200. South Dakota State College has given $1,930. Dakota Weslyan has sent $1700. The average for the 14 colleges of this district is $1,000.

A preliminary canvas has been made of the local students, the results have been very gratifying. But only 150 have responded, and the question is asked "Is this to be taken as a fair representation of our student body?" It is believed that others will give, especially when they learn that as small sums as one dollar are acceptable. It is hoped that A. C.'s gift will approximate $1000. In order to realize this, it will be necessary to have 400 additional members of the student body and of the faculty contribute $1.00 each. Can we do it? The answer seems to be overwhelmingly "Yes".

A SUGGESTION.

There has come to the attention of the Editor several in-quiries as to why the Library found it necessary to close during the day.

Now we are not familiar with all the inner workings of that valuable asset to our college, but we are prone to ask the same question.

valuable asset to our college, but we are prone to ask the same question.

Under the present system, the Library is closed at 12:00 M. for one half hour and again at 5:30. It often happens that members of the student body and of the station staff find that it is most convenient for them to use he Library at these times, especially in the evening from 5:30 to 6:15. Their other duties demand their attention previous to that time and they are compelled to put off their reading. Under the present conditions they hesitate before going to the Library, knowing that they will hardly have time to finish any article of any length and as a result they do not receive the advantages which would otherwise be theirs.

So we are tempted to ask why arrangements could not be made which would provide for keeping the Library open continuously, instead of the present system.

WILL YOU DO YOUR PART.

The tryouts for the intercollegiate debate with Montana have been announced for next Monday. The debate itself will be held in Fargo on January 12, 1917. The debate is the second of a series, last year's debate having been lost.

It is hoped that the results will be more favorable this year. But in order to insure success it will be necessary to have a large number of contestants from which to choose those who will represent the A. C.

(With Profound Apologies George Ade.)

Once upon a Time there was a High-Brow Jane that fairly Percolated Culture.

At the Girls' Preparatory Institute she was known for her Love of Art (Hand-painted China and Futurists Gowns) and her Devotion to Music was Fairly Mushy.

She could tell a Van der Dyke by its Smell and could always distinguish a Whistler from a Bass Viol. Her Lingo, Too, was awfully Classical. Even Cicero had Nothing on This Dame.

When she decided to enter Princevard it was with the Idea of Imbibvard it was with the Idea of Imbib-ing Deeply at the Fount of the Muses.

She said herself that she wanted to sit at the feet feet of Athenae and Intoxicate herself with the Gushmust be Initiated into their Quaint Customs.

She came to the Famous Educational Asylum and breathed Deeply the Classical Ozone.

She said the Odor was so Bookish and Intellectual.

The students, too appeared very Studious.

So, to the Young Eligible with Thick Glasses, she Confided the Fact that she Deeply Loved Bach.
Shocked, the Thing replied that he was a Temperance Man and Besides he didn't know that it was Indulged in except at Easter-tide.

Sadly Rebuffed she Wended her way from this Ignorant Specimen and Resolved to Specialize in Professors.

To one of the Keepers, therefore, she Said that she Fairly Doted on Paderewski.

BASKET BALL NEXT

The next number on the athletic calendar is basket ball. Now that the football season is over and while the football men are recuperating from their football experiences the new men are beginning to turn toward the Armory and to seek out the resting place of the basketball. Organized practice has not commenced as yet, but it is expected that the first call will come next week. This will be only for the new men and will be devoted mainly to basket shooting and to passing. Regular practice for the entire squad will probably not start until after Christmas.

Those in charge are busily engagdein arranging a schedule for the coming season and this will be announced in the near future.

The class in Social Science 7 was given a treat at its regular meeting on Wednesday. Prof. Trimble had made arrangements to have Dr. J. E. Boyle of the Experiment Station talk to th eclass on Rural Communities.

Dr. Boyle took up the subject from several different points of view and discussed each as his time would permit. He said that the rapid increase in landlordism was due to the continued growing of one crop, in this state wheat, and to the high price of land. That there was considerable class discontent was shown by the development of class consciousness on the part of the tenants.

The factors which had to be conmunity were briefly enumerated un-der the following several heads: educational, religious, social, politi-cal, economic, aesthetic and recreacal, economic, aesthetic and recrea-tion. Dr. Boyle then took up each and showed how each had its bear-ing on the life of a community. The talk was enjoyed by the class as well as being very instruc-tive

Betty had been punished. Her aunt did not know that, and, when she came into the room and found Betty sitting disconsolately before the window, she aid: "Why, look at our little Betty, She looks ready to cry, What is going to happen, I wonder?" Betty looked up and then said solemnly: "It has happened."

Victim of Man's Cupidity.

The releatiess warfare on the white whale was checked short of actual extermination by the discovery of the bowhead in 1612. Two hundred years of increasing pursuit drove this whale into the remotest fastnesses of the Arctic ocean, and so reduced its numbers that, now, when whaling has practically ended, its recovery of lost ground is exceedingly doubtful.

Your Success.

Success for you is not the same thing as success for other people. Raphael's success was to paint great pictures, and Shakespeare's success was to write great plays, and the success of another may be trimming a hat, or raising flowers. The only way to be successful is to do the thing you are fitted to do, in the best way you are capable of doing it.

Thoughtful.

Jean, three and a half, was going through the cemetery with Aunt Mattie and noticed a magnolla wreath upon a new grave. Evidently familiar with shining leaves of the milliner, she said, "Auntie, is that wreath off the hat of the lady w.o is buried down there?"

Modern Politeness.

Where the crowds rub elbows, the polite man is now too often one who has something to sell. He is suave, bland, conciliatory, and complimentary, and it is an axiom in business that the poorer the article, the smoother must be the salesman. A grotesque situation—this assumption of the unnatural for a purpose clearly visible to the one it is desired to influence—often by the concealment of truth—Alan Southern in Harper's Magazine.

Shattered Father's Excuse.

Little Marie, aged four, had been very much impressed by her mother's discussion of a charge account at one of the local department stores. At breakfast one morning she said to her father: "Papa, I want you to get me a little brother." "Why, dear," her father answered, "a little brother is very expensive, and papa can't afford to get you one," "But, papa," she answered, "you can get it charged."

Seniors of the High School held an important meeting Thursday. At that time students were elected to edit the High School section of the Agassiz. James Horne was chosen editor, with Freda Huitberg and Thomas Buxton associate editors. A committee consisting of Amy Euren, Aleck McKenzle and Emil Sandquist was elected to work up material for the Agassiz. The matter of the High School party was considered and a committee appointed to co-operate with commitates from the other classes in arranging the party.

there will be a dinner given in Ceres Hall on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, at which all those who are unable to go home and who have no other invitation out for dinner will be guests. This dinner will be free of charge to all who attend and will in a measure fill the lack of the regular home-cooked dinner.
Following the dinner a social time will be enjoyed in the parlors of Ceres Hall, and a short program of music and readings is being

 JUDGE POLLOCK INSTRUCTS CIVIC'S CLASS.

CIVIC'S CLASS.

Monday afternoon the High School civics class assembled at the Cass County court house. They spent the half hour from one thirty to two in inspecting the county jail under Mr. Ross, a son of Sheriff Ross. The different wards of the court house were all shown to the students and the equipment explained. Then the class went over to the district court room where Judge Pollock addressed the class. He pointed out the different sections of the court room and their uses. He then told in detail how a civil or criminal trial is carried on. In closing his talk Judge Pollock showed the class why the expensive machinery of justice must be carried on, our part in its maintenance and how it looks out for the interest of the individual. This kind of instruction helps the students as no amount of class room work would and be-

ERYBODY work for a good basket ball team.

Three delegates, Jim Horne, Hardwere elected to attend the Jamestown conference of the Y. M. C. A. bow's clubs of North Dakota that was held on Friday, Saturday and Sunday of last week. The boys had to pervade Ceres Hall even at this a great time staying at the Jamestown college dormitory and attendible to some of the decorations they wished every fellow could have been there.

O yes, they came back feeling extra strong after drinking so much iron water, as Jamestown water is mostly iron. The members of the Alpha Mu fraternity enjoyed a dinner and theatre party on Thursday evening, the guest of honor being Lloyd Kelly, who left on Saturday to take up his duties with the New Jersey Zinc Company at Palmerton, Pa.

The dinner was served at the Annex and was attended by about thirty of the active and alumni members. A few informal talks followed the repast and then the gathering adjourned to the Grand where a pleasant hour was spent.
