ART EXHIBIT THIS WEEK

Art Collections From Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago to Be Shown.

An exhibition of painting, drawings, and illustrations by students in three of the most important art schools in America will be opened to students and the public Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. and also the following Sunday afternoon between 2 and 5 o'clock.

The Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts at Philadelphia is the oldest art organization in America, dating back one hundred eleven years. However, the student work from this school is the most modern in treatment following the theory of a new movement in art which treats a picture as a design or decoration and not as something which tells the story.

The Art Institute of Chicago is a comparatively young institution but it has done great things for art in the middle west, and some of its students have become famous artists and sculptors. Lorado Taft, who lectured in Fargo last winter was for many years at the head of their department of Sculpture.

National Conference On Marketing And Farm Credits To Meet

December 4-9 Set For Meeting in Sherman Hotel In Chicago

The fourth annual meeting of the National Conference on Marketing and Farm Credits will be held in Chicago from December 4-9 at Hotel Sherman. The national conference is an open forum where farmers' organizations and those interested in the development of American agriculture for more businesslike organization of the distribution of farm products and the financing of farm business may meet to work out harmonious agreements as to national policies.

Some of the topics to be taken up by the various associations represented will be those which have had much discussion of late. One of these will relate to improving the methods of producing and marketing whole milk in the territories tributary to the large cities of the country. Delegates and suggestions are expected from New England, New York, Iowa, Ohio, Minnesota, Wisconsin, California, and Missouri.

The investigation of the conditions surrounding the marketing of livestock will also be discussed. The Market Committee is working with prominent members of the livestock industry to gather and present data that will prove the need of a thorough investigation and that this should be done by the Federal Commission. Prominent stockmen from all over the West will be present and will present evidence to show that no investigation in the past by federal or private agency has been adequate or authoritative. The committee will seek the endorsement of the Conference in prosecuting their fight to get the Federal Commission to carry out this work.

THE LECTURE COURSE

The young man or woman who goes away to school does so for the purpose of enlarging his or her outlook upon life. This object is attained in various ways. Primarily, he goes to increase his knowledge of some particular subject, such as agriculture, engineering, chemistry domestic science or a combination of these. But the one who confines himself to his books does not attain his end in the truest sense of the word. In order to become the well rounded man that he should be he must take part in and enjoy the outside activities of the school. He learns to approach, meet, and act with his fellow man. He learns to feel at ease when addressing an audience by taking part in the literary society meetings. He increases his knowledge of the outside world and its problems through reading and by listening to noted speakers and lecturers which it is his privilege to hear. But the average student is handicapped in his desire to hear noted speakers and performers by the fact that he usually does not have an over abundance of capital and these attractions usually come high.

An effort has been made at A. C. to overcome this obstacle by means of the Citizens' Lecture Course. The attractions of the past few years have appealed to many of the students and have been appreciated by the citizens of Fargo. This year the course so far as the student body is concerned is on a different basis. Each student who has paid fees at the Secretary's office is entitled to a ticket which will admit him to all the numbers of the course given this term. In this way the student will be able to hear such men as Walter Rauschenbusch and Opie Read. The other numbers of the course to be given next term will also be open to the students.

Through the medium of the lecture course the student will be able to hear some of the most celebrated lecturers, musicians, and to see some of the standard plays. His desires for high class entertainment will be met by the Fuller Sisters and the Portman-teau Theatre. In short the demand for information on world problems and the desire for the best in the musical and theatrical world will be amply met by the Citizens' Lecture Course.

"HICKING".

Just recently we published an article on the "campus hick," lamenting the fact that there was such a creature at State College. It may be that it is not generally understood what a hick is, or on the other hand, it may be that those who are doing the hicking are new arrivals. At any rate, a hick is an individual who has absolutely no faculty for locating the common walks on the college campus. He is the type of individual who prefers to cut the campus because he places his own momentary convenience above his college spirit and pride in the institution.

The hick is an individual for which the student body of State College has absolutely no use and who should immediately abandon his pernicious habits in order to remain in the good graces of his fellow students. Several methods for reforming the hick have been suggested at different times. Why not try some of them out? Simply telling the hicks how obnoxious they are never will appeal to them as sufficient cause for reform.

South Dakota State College has a favorite term which is used to indicate the person who persists in cutting corners. We have no such term but we have the same class of persons. Each institution seems to be afflicted with this specimen of humanity and each is wondering as to the best method of correcting this evil or eliminating him.

Although no particular injury is done the lawns so treated at this time of the year each one who indulges in this habit is apt to find that it is one which will not be easy to break when spring comes and there is danger of injuring the lawns. For that reason it would be advisable to curb the formation of the habit now when the habit is not firmly established.

CHAS. F. DOLE ADDRESSES CONVOCATION

Discusses 'The United States As A World Power'

Convocation on Monday morning was addressed by Charles F. Dole, of Boston, Mass., who took as his subject "The United States as a World Power."

In introducing his subject, Mr. Dole said that the United States was bound to become a world power because of her size, her population, and her great wealth. But the question involved was what kind of a world power would this country make. In answering this question, we would have to decide on our international policy and this would show what kind of patriotism we were to have.

The question of our international policy hinges on the old questions as to what constitutes life, happiness, success, or distinction. The idea that was formerly kept in mind in swerving this question was that of getting for one's self all that he could. It was egotistical. The motion was all inward. The other idea is that life consists of expression and implies a motion outward.

This latter idea of life finds expression in the home. It is this idea that binds the home, the village, the nation, and finally the world together. Real patriotism acts on this principle. It cries "the city, the state, and the nation first." Patriotism in this sense is democracy. It knows no boundaries. It is not limited to the confines of some particular state or nation.

On this basis we are able to divide the world powers into two classes: those where imperialism predominates and those which are democracies. In many respects, Mr. Dole thought that the United States could be classed with the former class. He suggested some remedies for this condition:

First among these was the suggestion that we treat the peoples over the seas the same as we do our own people, and that we reach out the hand of sympathy and helpfulness to those less favored. But we should first manage and build up our own country so that these people will see that we are succeeding in our efforts to help our own people in a way that was never dreamed of. As yet, Mr. Dole said, we were not doing this. He cited the condition of the 10,000,000 negroes in the South without a single representative in Congress, and the conditions that exist in the slums as his reason for saying that we were not succeeding. In our efforts to help the people of Europe he suggested that we cease the efforts to build up a large army and navy and that we devote some of the money to establishing schools in the foreign countries which are being devastated by war. He advocated the abandonment of the Monroe Doctrine as the statement of an obsolete principle. He said that we should send teachers and not soldiers into Mexico. In short, men were needed and in conclusion he quoted the poem "God Give Us Men."

Music was furnished by the College Octette.

INDUSTRIAL DEMONSTRATION FRIDAY

The annual competitive industrial course demonstration will be held in THE LITTLE COUNTRY THEATRE Friday afternoon at 4:30. The competition this year is confined to the Power Machinery Club and the Agricultural Club.

Albert C. Heine will represent the Power Machinery Club and will demonstrate Oxyacetylene Welding and Cutting. This is a modern application of science and should interest a large number.

The Agricultural Club representative Frank Martinson will show how the tests for moisture and salt in butter are made.

Rivalry between these two organizations is keen and the interest manifested is good. Therefore there will probably be a large number on hand to see the demonstration on Friday in THE LITTLE COUNTRY THEATRE.

EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION HERE

SEVERAL NOTED SPEAKERS ON PROGRAM.

A. C. FACULTY TO ADDRESS DIFFERENT SECTIONS.

The North Dakota Educational Association meets in Fargo on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. This is the thirtieth annual meeting of the association whose members now total nearly 2000. This means that there will be a large number of visitors in attendance at the various meetings to be held during the week. In addition to numerous speakers who are well known locally the executive committee has made arrangements for having several outsiders in to address the various gatherings.

Governor Ferris, President Kirkpatrick, and President Vincent are the lecturers that have been secured for the 1916 meeting of the North Dakota Educational Association to be held at Fargo November 15-16-17. Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris of Michigan not only is a statesman but he is widely known as an educator and author. He is president of the Ferris Institute. He is dated for Wednesday and Thursday. President E. A. Kirkpatrick of Fitchburg, Mass., is another specialist in educational work, who is to appear on Thursday's program. He is primarily a western man although located at the present time in the East.

President George E. Vincent of Minnesota University is scheduled to speak on Friday. He is well known among the teachers of North Dakota and needs no introduction to the people of Fargo.

Besides these lectures the executive committee has secured the noted baritone singer Oscar Seagle who will give a song recital in the Armory on Wednesday evening. All registered delegates are admitted free to this concert, the general audience being 50 cents.

Following the recital the faculty of the Agricultural College will tender a reception to the visitors in the parlors of Ceres Hall.

The meetings on Thursday and Friday will be largely departmental. Each of the different divisions of the Association will meet and listen to the program which has been arranged for its division. Several of the members of the local faculty and station staff are on the program for addresses before the various divisions.

On Thursday afternoon Dr. M. L. Dolt will address the division of Higher and Professional Education on "The Tenure of Teachers in North Dakota State Institutions." Mr. A. P. Hollis will speak on "Home Credits" before the section of Rural School Education on Thursday. Wednesday morning at the Presbyterian Church Miss Jensen will give a paper on "Practical Suggestions for the Domestic Science Teachers" before the section of Industrial Education. The musical numbers of the meeting of the entire Association at the Fargo Auditorium on Wednesday afternoon will be furnished by the department of Music of the A. C. The College

Octette and the Saxophone quartet will furnish part of the program.

The complete program is available and there are several numbers on the evening programs which will appeal to the students who intend to take up the teaching profession in the future.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS SELECT PIN

The seniors have selected their class pins which are of a novel shape and have been approved by all. These will be ordered as soon as the necessary deposit fee has been paid. DO IT NOW.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS MAKE TOYS

During the warm weather of a week ago the high school students taking drawing were busily engaged in making drawings out of doors, specializing in farm animals. From the sketches of their living models they have made designs for toys and are now working in the woodshop cutting out their animals. When this part of the work is completed the toys will be finished by giving them a coat of enamel, a paint used for this type of work.

The work was undertaken in response to the desire of the students to experiment on ways and means of meeting the shortage of toys due to the war.

A PRACTICAL APPLICATION

Professor Nelson had just finished the discussion of metabolism with his high school class in bacteriology, and had made the statement that an old apron could be converted into sugar. The class was much impressed. In response to the request for any questions, Val, seated in a front seat, spoke up: "Can you make rags into cane sugar?"

CONCERT GIVEN AT WHEATLAND

A. C. FACULTY AND STUDENTS APPEAR IN LYCEUM COURSE.

Dr. Putnam and Prof. Henrikson, assisted by the Saxophone quartet, appeared in concert at Wheatland, N. D., on last Friday evening as the first number of the Lyceum Course of that place. A good crowd greeted them and the program rendered was well received.

The program consisted of cornet solos by Dr. Putnam, violin solos by Prof. Henrikson, readings by Dr. Putnam, and selections by the quartet.

The numbers given by Dr. Putnam and Prof. Henrikson need no comment as all are familiar with their work. But it might be said that this was the first appearance of the Saxophone quartet and their rendition of their numbers was very good. This marks the beginning of a new feature of the band work under Doc. Putnam. It is hoped to make this a feature of the future appearances of the Cadet Band.

The Saxophone quartet is composed of Duncan McLeod, 1st alto; Hawkinson, 2nd alto; Park TARBELL, tenor and Al Matters, baritone and accompanist.

The following program was given with great success to an appreciative audience:

- I. A Perfect Day ----- Bond Just Awearin' ----- Bond Saxophone Quartet.
- II. Sparks ----- Simons Dr. C. S. Putnam.
- III. Mazurka de Concert ----- Musin Professor Hendrickson.
- IV. Serenade ----- DeKovea Sweet and Low ----- Barnby Saxophone Quartet.
- V. Reading from Foley ----- Dr. Putnam.
- VI. Serenade ----- Drigo The Rosary ----- Nivlin Prof. Hendrickson.
- VII. I Hear You Calling ----- Marshall At Dawn ----- Cadman Dr. Putnam.
- I'm a Longin' for You ----- Swanee River ----- Fostef Saxophone Quartet.

PARK RIVER WINS
Defeats Lidgerwood in The Battle for Championship
The High School championship for North Dakota was decisively settled by the game between Park River and Lidgerwood on Decatur Field on Saturday. The day was cold and raw but a large crowd watched Park River beat Lidgerwood 37-0. From start it was evident that Park River had the better of the argument and although the Lidgerwood boys made several notable efforts to carry the ball across for a touchdown they were unable to do it.

Park River is famed as an eleven man team and they surely showed that they had had much practice and they won the game easily. Personally, we should have liked to have seen Lidgerwood win as "Dutch" Schroeder was their coach. But Park River deserved to win.

The A. C. band furnished the music for the game and although they nearly froze in doing so they kept it and entertained the crowd with stirring marches.

Where is our student? Is U. N. D. Ashamed of Their Writup Of Our Defeat?

We have been waiting with a good deal of eagerness to see the last issue of the STUDENT, the student publication of U. N. D., in order to see how they would write up their victory on the 4th. But we have decided that they must be ashamed of their efforts and that they do not desire that we should see it as we have not received our weekly copy although it is now several days past due.

Maybe it has taken so long to select the proper modes of expression that they have had to delay the publication of this issue. Again they may be waiting for the result of last Saturday's game so that they might crow over their winning the interstate championship. But that hope is now shattered as S. D. beat them 14-7.

FARGO COLLEGE COMES TO GAME BEHIND TRACTOR
A peculiar sight greeted the citizens of Fargo Monday afternoon. They beheld a small tractor followed by a couple of scenery wagons and an old stage coach which were loaded with what appeared to be a dozen or so bundles of rags. No one seemed to know what it was supposed to represent but there were several conjectures as to what such a sight might mean. Occasionally a head would appear and this led to the declaration that there were some human beings on board but no information could be gathered as to the nature of the rest of the load. The pace was too slow and the weather too cold to hazard a guess that this was some means of boycotting the taxis or the street cars, but developments proved that that was really what they were trying to do.

The train passed through the business districts without a stop and headed for the A. C. As this point was reached a few more heads appeared and finally it was found that all of Fargo College, except the buildings (and they had plenty of room for them also) and the members of the football team had managed to pile onto the three wagons and had used this means of transportation from their home on the south side to our premises.

Many conjectures have been made as to why they should have selected such a means of transportation, and why they did not have it wait for them after the game. But we surmise that they anticipated that they would not be able to get away from the scene of their defeat fast enough with their gas horse so they sent it on ahead and planned on catching up after the result of the game was known.

At any rate they have to be given credit for the spirit they showed, and we regret to say that some of our supporters might do well to imitate some of their pep.

The band has at last been able to purchase a much needed snare drum. The drums which have been used the past two years have served their period of usefulness and are now ready to be discarded. The new drum is a latest model Leedy with a 16 inch head and a 10 inch shell. The outfit also includes a fiber case. Such an addition has been needed for a long time and now that the need has been supplied the band may be expected to keep better time on the march.
A new trombone player has been added to the band roster in the person of Harry Critchfield. Harry played in the band two years ago and will materially aid the 'bone section.
The band has had to make two difficult appearances this past week. They played for both the High School game on Saturday and for the A. C. F. C. game on Monday. Both days were cold and considerable difficulty was experienced in keeping the instruments from freezing up, not to say anything about the members of the band. On Monday they made the trip around the loops in an open car and advertised the game. "Time out" had to be taken near the First National Bank to thaw out both instruments and players, but on the whole the trip was without serious mishap.
The saxophone quartet made its initial appearance at Wheatland on Friday and will appear again before the Educational Association this afternoon. Considerable difficulty has been experienced due to the fact that the whereabouts of one of the instruments is unknown. It was sent to the factory for repairs and has not been heard of since. Hopes for its return are still held out.

WAR DEPARTMENT
The Adjutant General's Office, WASHINGTON.
October 31, 1916.
The following is communicated to the authorities of the educational institutions with the view to affording and graduates thereof an opportunity to enter the competitive examination for provisional appointment as second lieutenants of the Army:
1. A large number of vacancies now exist in the grade of second lieutenant in the line of the Army. The next examination of candidates to determine their fitness for provisional appointment as second lieutenants will be held beginning January 29, 1917, and candidates desiring to undergo this examination should forward their applications to the adjutant general of the Army at as early a date as is practicable and, in any event, in time to reach the Adjutant General's office not later than January 15, 1917, as applications received after that date may be too late for proper consideration in connection with this examination.
2. Candidates must be between 21 and 27 years of age when appointed.
3. The educational requirements for entrance into the Army as second lieutenant are given in General Orders No. 64, War Department 1915, copies of which, together with application blanks are inclosed herewith. Additional copies may be had by making application at this office. Graduates from recognized colleges will be exempted from examinations in subjects in groups I, pars. 21 or 23 of the order cited, upon proof of graduation.
4. The pay of a second lieutenant is $1,700 yearly. Officers receive 10% of the pay of the grade for each term of five years service not to exceed 40% in all. Due to the increase of the Army, provided by the National Defense Act, approved June 3, 1916, promotion of officers entering at this time promises to be unusually rapid.
By order of the Secretary of War:
H. P. McCAIN,
The Adjutant General.
