

Fifty-two Seniors To Receive Degrees June Thirteenth

Largest Class in History of Institution will Receive Diplomas President E. F. Ladd will Present Diplomas For First Time.

When Pres. E. F. Ladd presents the diplomas to the fifty-two members of the senior class, he will not only have the honors of presenting the diplomas to the largest graduating class in the history of the institution...

Ursula Grest Fargo High School. "Suly" is a Home Economics graduate and expects to teach in Lake Park High School next year.

Maud Engle Enderlin High School. During her two years at the A. C. Maud has maintained an unusual scholastic standing. She is a member of the Y. M. C. A., Achoth, Athenian and was one of the Home Economics seniors elected to Phi Kappa Phi.

Barbara Heidner Agricultural and Manual Training High School. Barbara is one of the standbys of the class having been with us in high school days. She is a member of Y. M. C. A., Athenian, Edwin Booth Dramatic Club, Student Council 1914, Intersociety Debate 1913, intercollegiate debate 1914, Phi Upsilon Omicron.

Edith Gross Fargo High School. Edith is a willing and capable worker and has successfully managed various social affairs. She had charge of the decorating for the 1915 prom and the 1916 senior ball.

Clara Dolve Mayville Normal School. Through her three years here as a Home Economics student Clara has maintained a high scholastic standing and has been interested in various student activities.

Louise Fitzgerald Fargo High School. "Fitz" manages many student affairs. Some of her interests have been intercollegiate debate 1914-15, intersociety debate 1915, President Phythian 1915, Phi Upsilon Omicron, Agassiz staff 1915, Editor-in-chief of coed issues of Spectrum 1915, 1916, associate Spectrum editor 1914, and president of Edwin Booth Dramatic Club 1916.

College in her sophomore year, and, altho so late in entering, has been one of the most active members of the Senior Class. As a prominent worker in the Y. M. C. A. and a proctor in Student Government at Ceres Hall she has been most prominent.

Ruth Olson, Home Economics Hannaford, N. D. As a resident of Ceres Hall during her first years at school Ruth became a proctor in Student Government there.

Marvin Kirk, Agriculture Devils Lake, N. Dak. Mr. Kirk is another senior having the distinction of claiming membership in the Phi Kappa Phi honorary fraternity.

Lynn Leslie, Civil Engineering Oakes, N. Dak. The girls and the library will be the losers when Lynn leaves our college. His high scholarship brought him membership in the Phi Kappa Phi this year.

Ward Porter, General Science Fargo, N. D. In Porter the school has one of its most able men. As Student Manager of Athletics this year and as star in a number of plays, he has ably demonstrated his talent and his managerial ability.

Ray Bolsinger, Burlington High, Burlington, Iowa, Agriculture. In Ray Bolsinger the College will lose one of the greatest athletes that ever donned a uniform.

Ray R. Gibbens, Cando High, Cando, N. D. It will be with extreme regret that those remaining on the campus will witness the graduation of Ray Gibbens, always jolly and pleasant, one who has taken an active part in college affairs and a "fair to middlin' fusser."

Edwin Booths Prove Royal Hosts

SHAKESPEARE FEST-IVITIES BROUGHT TO GRAND CLOSE.

The Edwin Booth Dramatic club entertained the entire casts of the Shakespearean plays which were given in Fargo during Shakespeare week at an informal dance in the college armory Monday evening.

Preparations are being made for the State High Schools track meet to be held on the college grounds next week.

Faculty Senior Reception First Number of Events

The seniors of Ceres Hall, the Misses Myrtle Waechter, Agnes Hutchinson, Leila and Ruth Nelson, Agnes Bader and Cecile Manikowske, and Mrs. Gilbert were hostesses Thursday evening to the faculty of the college and the members of the senior class at a faculty-senior reception in the parlors of Ceres Hall.

Decorations were tastefully carried out in pink and white throughout the rooms. This scheme showed itself also in the refreshments which were ice cream, macaroons and lady fingers.

Work has begun on the clock in the tower of the administration building. The clock which is a gift of the senior class will be unveiled on June 12.

Many Girls Will Graduate From Home Economics Dept. Department Very Complete

Home Economics has been a department at the North Dakota Agricultural College since 1897. Since that time it has steadily grown until now it offers a complete course, including Domestic Science, Domestic Art, and Physical Training.

Teaching methods and practice teaching are included in the course and students are well prepared to fill positions in high schools as well as other lines of work. This year the department graduates twenty-four girls, and at this writing all but four have already accepted positions for the coming year.

AGGIES DEFEAT N. D. U.

The "U" was defeated in a 12 inning game by a score of 8 to 7. The game was played at Grand Forks and umpired by a student of the university.

Thorinnson started the game for the Aggies but his teammates failed to support him, and after two innings, Bachman was sent in to pull the team together. 6 runs were made by the "U" in the first 2 innings, due to the numerous errors on the Aggies. Bachman allowed but 3 hits and 1 run in the ten innings he pitched.

In the first of the eighth, the Aggies tied the score, making it 6 to 6. The "U" failed to break the tie. In the first of the twelfth, the Aggies crossed the plate twice, making the score 8 to 6. The university came back strong but made only 1 run, giving the victory to the A. C. by an 8 to 7 score.

Tacloft and Campbell were Gill's choice for a battery, and it was not a disappointment to himself or to the fans. The slender boy stepped into his first varsity game with all

You Need a Typewriter

Every college student needs one. You need it first for your own work. And if you wish, you can make a nice income from it by doing work for others. Every student knows this. "I wish I had a typewriter," is what students say every day.

the confidence of a veteran and started his work by fanning the first batter to face him. The good work he kept up until the end of the sixth, when he retired in favor of Moore. He had 12 strike outs to his credit, and but three hits had been garnered from his offerings.

Moore more than lived up to his good reputation of last year. In his two innings he had the Scientists at his mercy till two men were out in the ninth when a scratch hit was picked off his delivery, but he retired the side without a score.

The Sophs. were victors in the interclass track meet.

Minnesota college will not permit any man to play in an intercollegiate game until he has secured a minimum of 12 hours credit. This rule begins in 1917. No more one-semester athletes.

The staff of the Gopher, the annual book published by the students of the University of Minnesota, have inaugurated a unique scheme for selling the issue. In each college prizes of money and valuable presents are offered to the student turning in the most subscriptions. On the first day 1,644 subscriptions were taken, and the Minnesota Daily is running a thermometer on the first page of its issue, showing the gain each day. Here is co-operation and PUSH that should be an example for any college that is less alive.

Under a San Francisco date line there has appeared in Northwest newspapers an article expressing the belief that the Washington State college track team has a good chance to win the Pacific coast meet in the southern city next month. All of this adds to our belief that the football team of last fall spread the word of truth regarding Northwest athletes and athletics.

OUR WEEKLY MORAL.

He was feeling awfully lonely. He was hungry, he was sad. He ate a dairy luncheon, Where the food was rotten bad.

He had counted on the Banquet. Given for the entire school, But he put off buying tickets

'Till they were all gone—the fool.
MORAL—Get your tickets to the Boosters' Banquet while the getting's good.

The Dummy is running out of ideas for Morals. We can't see why some of the "dear readers" don't loosen up with contributions.

THE DUMMY'S WEEKLY CRUSH.
Chief didn't come through with his crush, so we had to write it for him:

AN ODE TO HELEN.
Dear Helen fair, your eyes so blue Recall to me the azure hues Of summer skies or Thracian lands, When we were won to clap our hands And sigh and dream and sit entranced Dreaming of Trojan victories past.

PARIS.
(You know Paris didn't say this, but we didn't want to embarrass chief by signing his name to such mush as this.)

We notice that Pat Keeley's nose is scratched.
"Did you fall down too, Pat?"

After twenty years work, the veterinarians of the United States have secured the passage, in the house, of the Hays bill, which authorizes the appointment of veterinarians in the army with the rank and pay of regular army officers. There appears to be no reason for its not passing the senate this session. This will open up another field for the veterinarian who is qualified along this special line of work.

The members of the class are Messrs. Mendenhall, Drewry, Baumgartel; Misses Poole, Frojen, Ball, R. Ladd and Rasmussen. Those who contributed to the program are to be thanked for their work.

ALPHA MU PLEDGES PASS TESTS

Last Thursday and Friday nights the members of the Alpha Mu Fraternity initiated the pledges in an up-to-date and thoro manner. It took two nights to do the job as only three "Rooks" were put thru at a time.

On Thursday night Carl Lolland, Johnny Kelly, and Harvey Copeland were sent on the long trial and on Friday Mortimer Keeley, Marc Troyer and Leonard Johnson were initiated.

This was followed by a big feed at the chapter house which seemed to tickle the palates of all who partook.

STAFF TRYOUTS NOW ON.

In accordance with the new ruling those who wish to serve on the Spectrum staff next year will have a chance to show their ability or inability during the coming week.

The closing day of the tryout is next Thursday morning, June First. Those wishing to try out should see the editor immediately for particulars.

Local Students To Try Out For Vaudeville

David Warfield, John Drew, Robert Mantell, etc. will appear in Fargo this week. At least those are a few of the nicknames that are being handed to five students of the college, who are to appear at the Grand Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week in a satire on college life in one act by E. C. Maxwell, western playwright of note.

The five are: Byron Box, Percy Beals, Ernest Pile, Harold Mayer and Harry Britton. If the play is a success, a contract will be secured for the summer to tour the west.

Much interest is being displayed in the outcome of the venture as the students are inaugurating a new method of securing money to go through school with.

It is unnecessary to state that any local support will be received with enthusiasm.

Last Thursday night witnessed the initiation of the Alpha Kappa Phi Fraternity. The initiation stunts were supplied freely, and accepted most gracefully by the pledges, no fatalities having been reported so far.

DELLA PHI BETA ENTERTAIN.

A very delightful affair of last Saturday evening was the Delta Phi Beta party given in honor of the Phi Upsilon Omicron girls and their friends in the college armory. The armory was very effective in white and green with large shields of the two sororities on the two sides. The music was furnished by Malchow's orchestra. The hostesses were assisted throughout the evening by their pledges, who served frappe during the dancing and the refreshments at the tables in the balcony later in the evening. They also provided entertainment in the form of feature dances and stunts. The faculty members present were the Misses Stonez, Hadley and Taylor, Coach and Mrs. Davis, Professor and Mrs. Darner, and Mr. Dynes.
