

Local Association Working for Building

FIRST DAY GIVES ENCOURAGING RESULTS.

The campaign for raising funds for the new Y. M. C. A. building was formally presented to the student body at Convocation, Monday. There were a number of speakers who presented the proposition from different view points.

Mayor Emery was the first of these, and he spoke on the 'Power of a Vialon'. His main thought was that to have a purpose, and to achieve that purpose was one of the biggest parts of a man's life.

The view of the student body was presented by Ward Porter and Arnold Christianson.

President Worst was the closing speaker. In short, he said that he believed the alumni and the students had confidence in him and knew that he would not support an unworthy cause. This cause, he said, was worthy, and he gave it his heartiest endorsement. He believed that each student should have a part in this campaign for two reasons: First, because of the value to himself in having a purpose and carrying it through; and second, because of the actual good the new building would be on the campus.

The Committees in charge of the campaign met for their first noon meeting, Monday, in the Philomathian Room, which is campaign headquarters. A total of $6250 was reported, of which over $5500 was given by 98 students. There were thirty $100 pledges turned in, and a few larger ones.

This makes the outlook for the campaign very promising. The committee hope to exceed the $10,000 mark long before Friday night. This, with the support promised from outside, makes the building practically assured.

Personal Department

J. M. Gazette:—Am in a great predicament. At the Copper Kettle, I meet every day a young lady who seems very congenial. We get along beautifully, and I only wish the noon-hour were longer. Would you consider it proper for me to ask her to a show? Let me know at once.

Consult Mr. Lawrence's letter. It will answer your question I think.
MR. ROY LAWRENCE:—There is a young lady who eats at the Copper Kettle every day. I have managed to meet her and we have the most enjoyable times together. What would you advise me to do, take her to hear a Sunday night lecture at the Grand or something else? Am at a loss to know what to do.

Since you and Mr. Gazette seem such good friends I suggest that you be real rash and invite the attractive young ladies to go to the Garriek. A party of four makes a good combination, and this thing is often done; so I'm told. Let me know if you succeed. Remember I'm ready to help and guide each doubtful heart for $5.

Percy Beals:—It was impossible for me to read your writing. Please next time write only on one side of the paper, and enclose a stamped envelope if you wish an early reply. Will keep the $5 till I hear from you.

Grace:—Am a blue-eyed, brown-haired lassie of sweet sixteen. Wgt. 175.87654 lbs.; height 5.50 ft. Complexion a ruddy hue like a freshly blown apple. Do you think I am good-looking? I greatly enjoy seeing inter-class basket-ball games and am thinking of acting as chaperone to short-course girls, how shall I go about it?

I should advertise in this paper for a few select young ladies who would like a chaperone to the game, of course they will haunt your very steps, but do not accept more than 1 dozen at a time. Incidentally charge a small fee of $1 or so per game, per girl. Glad you like the department, a great many other people express great curiosity as well as anxiety and "watchful waiting" as regards it. We are at all times "prepared" for any sort of intrusion.

Am in receipt of an avalanche of letters in regard to "who that Junior frat fellow is. Well now, I'm swamped—Can't you see how guilty he

PYTHIANS HOLD MEETING.

The weekly meeting of the Girl's Society "Pythia" was held Friday evening at seven o'clock in the Lecture room at Ceres Hall. There was a good attendance out to hear the program. The society is endeavoring to be of practical benefit to its members, and with this end in view, each member was requested to make a contribution or suggest an improvement. A short business meeting, the speaker turned over to the Little Country Theatre. Hear Miss Hanson, who was the society's representative in the Declamation Contest.

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING CAMPAIGN

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING HELD AT CERES.

The Young Men's Christian Association's campaign for the new building was formally opened on Saturday evening with a banquet, at which President Worst, Dr. Walters, and Howard T. Beaver were the guests of honor. About one hundred students, representing all classes and courses, as well as a number of the faculty, were present.

Previous to the banquet, an informal reception was held in the parlors of Ceres Hall, where all strangers met each other and all met the guests of honor.

About 6:45, all adjourned to the dining room, where a sumptuous repast was provided, to which all did justice.

Professor Smith was the toastmaster of the evening, and after a few remarks, among which was the statement that all the speakers with the exception of "Bill" were to have as much time as they wanted, introduced the first speaker, Dr. Walters, who spoke on the "Building and Fargo's Interest in the Same." He assured the gathering that, considering the well-known fact that there was a decided lack in the religious training in the small towns of the state, and that the students who went out from here were to have the opportunity of bettering these conditions, the Student Association could feel sure that the citizens of Fargo would do all in their power to make possible the realization of the plans for the new building.

The next speaker was William Mendenhall, who had as his subject "The Y. M. C. A. Building and the College Student." He briefly outlined the plans for the building and showed how much it would mean to the students to have a good meeting place where the surroundings would be of an uplifting character.

Mr. Beaver discussed the importance of the period of a man's college days and the effect on his subsequent life.

President Worst spoke on the Building and the College. He said that he was confident that the building would be erected and that it would be one that we and our children should be proud of.

The last speaker was Mr. Williams who is here as campaign manager. He dwelt largely with the plans for the work of this week, and the result of the same. The banquet was a great success as was manifest by the enthusiasm of all present.

GET TICKETS FROM MISS GRASSE

Students who wish to hear the concert given by the great singer, Mme. Olive Fremstad, may secure tickets by calling at the studio of Miss Edythe Grasse, of the Music department. The concert will be given Monday evening, Feb. 21st, at Concordia College Auditorium, Moorhead, and the prices are $4.00, $3.00 and $2.00. No student's tickets will be issued and all seats are reserved. Olive Fremstad comes straight to Minnesota from New York for this concert, going back at once, as she is a member of the Metropolitan Grand Opera Co. of that city. This is an opportunity of hearing one of the really great singers, and should not be missed.

Prof. Thompkins was called to his home in Iowa last Friday. He is expected back during the week.

looks, as he walks along with shoulders hunched up, and hands in pockets, and that blue-eyed stare? Methinks that's cue 'nuf.

CO-EDS PROMISE A SURPRISE

ISSUE NEXT WEEK'S SPECTRUM

The Co-ed issue is fast becoming a reality; it will undoubtedly be the best one yet. A surprise is forthcoming, which will make you all "sit up and take notice". "Will there be anything about the boys?", some-one asked. Oh yes, indeed, there will be lots about them—don't worry. The girls aren't selfish enough to monopolize the WHOLE paper.

This issue will be especially interesting to each and every girl in this college, or in fact, any college. Pursue this paper, girls, and you will deem it alone, worth the price of subscription. So be watching.

The staff are at present, very busy getting material and writing it up, so if they go about with a frowning, analytical, countenance, don't be alarmed. (If this gets past the editor, it won't be our fault).

Miss Clara Dolve says she is unable to be on the staff, because of extra school work; Miss Myrtle Johnston has kindly consented to take her place, and she will have charge of Organizations.

Kathryn Ferguson Wins Declamatory Contest

On Friday evening Feb. 4, occurred the twenty-first annual college declamatory contest. An interested audience listened to the program which was as follows:

- President of the evening Katherine Ladd
- Music Selected
- "What Dat Scratchin' at De Kitchen Do" Lillian Hanson
- "The Going of the White Swan" Kathryn Ferguson
- Music Selected

The judges awarded first place to Miss Ferguson and second place to Miss Hanson.

The program, while short, was very good. Each speaker was able to assume a different personality with ease of manner. The stage presence of both was good. Although at times, it was a little difficult to hear, the program was well worth attending.

The Students of the Agricultural College and the citizens of Fargo, especially the Wisconsin Alumni Association of this city, are co-operating to provide a most enjoyable entertainment for the members of the University of Wisconsin Band when they arrive in Fargo on next Saturday morning. The band, some sixty in number, will be entertained at breakfast at the Waldorf Hotel upon their arrival and the balance of the morning will be spent in visiting various places of interest in Fargo.

At noon they will be given a luncheon in the dining room at Ceres Hall and this will be followed by a little one act play and program in the Little Country Theatre. After the concert at the Armory in the afternoon the members of the band will be given a dinner by the Alumni of the University of Wisconsin. The concert in the A. C. Armory is at 3 o'clock p. m.

NOTICE.

All students who have not as yet obtained their basketball tickets are asked to do so before Friday noon, as no tickets will be given out at the game on Friday evening.

Signed,
I. W. Smith.

MAJOR E. SAUGSTAD
Conductor of the University of Wisconsin First Regiment Band which will play in the A. C. Armory, Saturday afternoon, February 12th, at 3 o'clock p. m. Admission fifty cents.

A Clock In The Tower

The proceeds of the matinee concert by the University of Wisconsin Band, which will be held in the A. C. Armory on Saturday afternoon, February 12th, will go toward a fund for the purchase of a large clock for the tower of the Main building. A three-faced electric clock is being contemplated. One side will face Ceres Hall, another the main entrance and the third the library and Science Hall. The present Senior Class hopes to complete the fund.

Such a clock would be a valuable addition to our campus and every student and faculty member should be glad of the chance to contribute towards it. At the same time we have the opportunity of listening to one of the snappiest band concerts ever given by a student organization. The personnel of the Wisconsin band is almost exactly the same as that which played at the Panama Pacific Exposition last summer. The admission is fifty cents for all.

CHANGED FOURTH OF JULY

The students who make up the First Regimental Band of the University of Wisconsin which plays on Saturday afternoon, February 12th, at the A. C. Armory, had many novel experiences while on their western tour last summer and can relate many funny incidents in connection with the trip.

One which is hard to believe and which might revolutionize history if widely known is the fact that Round-up, Montana, celebrated its Fourth of July on the 22nd of June last summer in order that the Wisconsin boys might be the chief attraction at its celebration. Every day seemed to be the Fourth of July while the boys were in the state of Montana.

One of the unique features in connection with the First Regiment Band of the University of Wisconsin which plays here on Saturday afternoon, February 12th, at the A. C. Armory is the fact that it participated with sixty other similar organizations in one of the greatest conventions of the year at Seattle, Washington, last July. The occasion was the Imperial Council meeting of the Mystic Shriners and bands representative of all sections of North America were present for the event. The Wisconsin band was the escort to the Bagdad Patrol and representatives from Butte, Montana, and took part in both of the official parades creating a very favorable impression upon the visitors there present.

Dr. Barker Is Popular Speaker

GIVES STUDENTS VALUABLE ADVICE AS TO HOW TO LIVE.

Dr. Charles E. Barker, former medical adviser to Ex-Presidents Roosevelt and Taft, made a decided impression on all who heard him last week. In his stay in Fargo he made a large number of addresses, of which the students of A. C. were privileged to hear four. Dr. Barker was the speaker at convocation last Monday, January 31, and spoke to different groups of students on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. In addition to these addresses he appeared as the third number of the Citizen's Lecture Course.

In this address, Dr. Barker told "How to Live to be One Hundred." He said that the discoveries of scientists are every day bringing nearer to realization the desire of the human race to "live to a ripe old age, and never be sick a day in that time, and simply die of being worn out." In getting and maintaining good health, the attention should be given to four things, the elimination of impurities from the body, diet, mental condition, and regular exercise. The lecture was made more real by the demonstration of the various simple exercises which Dr. Barker declared every person not afflicted with serious heart trouble should take daily.

The other addresses of Dr. Barker were equally interesting and the audiences were in each case large and appreciative.

The Round Table Club had their first regular meeting Saturday at six o'clock at the Gardner.

Following dinner at which Judge Pollock was the guest of honor a general discussion was held on subjects that were of interest to all present.

The Interclass games are proving good drawing cards, besides giving the participants good exercise. Many are probably receiving training which will make them valuable men in the teams which will represent A. C. in the future.

PLANS FOR BAND TRIP COMING FINE.

The plans for the proposed trip of the Band are working out very satisfactorily, according to reports. Several places have been heard from seeking information on the subject of concerts. New music is being rehearsed, and the boys are feeling very optimistic over the prospects. The trip will probably come at the end of the Winter term, and will cover a week, during which time several of the larger schools of the west, such as Ames, Minnesota Farm school, Nebraska A. C. and South Dakota A. C. will be visited.

Get Your Pictures For The Agassiz Now

The staff of the 1917 Agassiz are working overtime in their efforts to turn out the best Agassiz yet. All the members are doing their best to get their material in, but there is a part in which each student in the institution will have to help in, and that is the matter of photographs. All College Seniors and Juniors; the Third Year Farm Husbandry, Power Machinery, and Home Makers; and those finishing the two-year course in Pharmacy are expected to have individual pictures. Further, all the organizations and classes will have group pictures. Arrangements have been made with McCracken Studio to take these pictures when you get ready to have them taken. The time is getting short. The engravers are already asking for material, so it is imperative that the Staff have the co-operation of every one interested for the next two weeks. Watch the Bulletin Boards for the time of the taking of the groups of which you are a member and then BE THERE; also see to having your individual taken immediately; then there will be no delay in the issuing of the Agassiz and you will have a book which will recall many fond memories of your school days when you look at it a few years hence.

Everything must be in by March 1st. DO IT NOW.

Library Notes

The English department has recently purchased a large number of new books on the subjects of philosophy, religion, modern drama and poetry, fiction, and miscellaneous essays. As the books will be kept in the library, the public will have ready access to this interesting collection. Authors and titles will be published soon.

One of the enthusiastic members of the Icelandic Club has loaned to the library, Grittir, the Outlaw, a story of Iceland by Baring-Gould. We are very glad to place on our shelves works of good quality that will appeal to our readers.

There have been a good many visitors here the last two weeks, who have expressed a desire to be shown about the library. One gentleman remarked that as he paid taxes to help support the institution, he thought he ought to see what is being done. Another man remarked, "My ain't that fine. Why, we can find something about everything in the U. S. here." It is always a pleasure to show interested visitors our library, especially to point out some of the work behind the scenes, of which the public knows so little.

We have had several visits from President Crawford during the last week. The last time he stepped in, he gave us a copy of Madison Cooper's book on Cold Storage, a work that will be much used in our library.

Perhaps the members of our institution do not know the increasing value of our magazine collection. Have you ever noticed that we have a file of Living Age from volume one, 1844, to date, a file of the Nation from volume two, 1856, to date, and the Engineering Magazine from volume one to date? The Atlantic and the Century both date from 1881 and very often these older numbers are consulted.

Sports Notes

BOXING TO BE ADDED TO THE A. C. SPORTS

The art of self defense is to be taught to those interested. The sport should prove very popular here as it is in all the larger colleges. Alex Nemzek is the trainer.

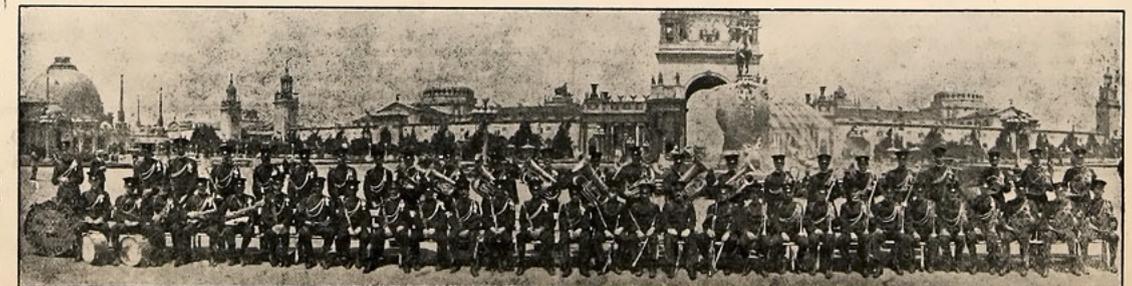

CROOKSTON AGGIES DEFEAT FARM HUSBANDRY.

An interesting game was played last Saturday evening between the basketball team representing the Northwestern School of Agriculture at Crookston and the Farm Husbandry team. The game was well played but the local quint received the small end of the score, the final being 42-12.

Although the Farm Husbandry men have a strong class team, they were outclassed by the visitors.

The experience gained on the trip, which ended so favorably, should be very valuable to the basketball team, and we will undoubtedly see some high class ball in the games remaining on the schedule.

WELCOME HOME.

Harrah for the Team! They have just returned from one of the longest trips ever taken by an athletic team of the Agricultural College, and with what results! Every game played was won. This is a better record, when we consider that they had only two nights in which there was no game, and that there were long jumps each day. The trip covered parts of four states and the teams played were of the best in their section. Yet our worthy players finished on top in each contest.

The prospects for the rest of the season look very bright. The preliminary part of the season is over. Now it will be hard work, but in most of the games still to be played, the team will be cheered on by the Students of A. C.

Now students, all together! Are we going to fall down? Not by a long way! Well then lets give Nine Rahs for the Coach; and Nine for the Team!

A. C. TAKES ANOTHER STEP FORWARD

This week will be looked back to with no little pride by those who come after us. The College Young Men's Christian Association is tackling one of the biggest of problems and yet one which will be far-reaching in its effects. They are working for a new building, which will enable them to carry on their work more efficiently. Further, they are trying to fill one of the long-felt needs of the College: they are trying to provide a center for the Men of the institution. At present there is no such center on the Campus. In the future we hope there will be. At any rate, the first day's results are encouraging and there seems to be no reason why the campaign should fail.—A. R. M.

Dope Box

CONTRIBUTIONS SOLICITED.

It has been suggested that persons who see need of improvement in anything pertaining to this institution should use the "Dope Box" to make known their ideas to the world. Yours truly sees two things which appeal to her as being very plainly in need of betterment.

First comes the matter of the song books for chapel. There are at chapel a few song books on the front seats, while the rear seats have absolutely none; consequently, when the songs are being sung a large number of students are unable to join in. Being thus left unoccupied, they naturally take to communicating with each other regarding trivial things, such as Julia's eyes, Leah's fairy tales, Jim's beautiful complexion, and other things somewhat out of keeping with the spirit of the hour.

Now, why should there not be song books so that these rear-seat occupants may also help with the singing? It may be argued that these students should take seats nearer the front, but a regular attendant at chapel will know that during the winter term the front seats have been well filled, so putting books on only the front seats can not be regarded as an attempt to remedy the rear seat evil. If the supply of books is insufficient, it is time that more were purchased; but there is a supply of them in the Little Country Theater, and this supply might well be utilized. How about it?

The second matter referred to above is the manner in which the doors of the Administration Building are hung. These doors, both front and rear, swing inward—a condition which is certainly not conducive to the safety of the occupants of the building, in case of a fire. Furthermore, the front doors are a decided inconvenience to a gentleman who wishes to hold the door so that a lady may enter. The doors are heavy and require considerable strength to open them and hold them open; so a gallant male specimen must, perforce, open the door and PRECEDE the lady in, then hold the door in order that she may enter. This embarrassing difficulty would be obviated by having the doors swing outward, since the man could then hold the door and allow the lady to enter first. In the case of people leaving the building, the difficulty would not be so great as now exists on entering, since the floor inside affords a firmer footing—which firm footing is needed, in order to be able to push open the heavy doors—than does the slippery tiling outside. This tile, by the way, is below the level of the floor, thus increasing the present difficulty in entering.

As a matter, not only of convenience, but also of safety, why should not the doors of our Administration Building open outward? Ann Nonnymuss.

There has been launched a great movement at the Agricultural College to erect a Y. M. C. A. Building. This building is to serve as a Men's fellowship center and as a meeting place for College Organizations, committees etc. Everyone who is liberal in his views and who is interested in the welfare and happiness of his fellow men can see that an appropriate community center is absolutely necessary at any College. There should be a fellowship center here. But will a Y. M. C. A. Building such as is to be built here and managed under the present policy of the Y. M. C. A. serve the purpose? Is the present campaign just to all?

As I understand, every student is to be asked to contribute to the building fund, which is perfectly legitimate. It is to be the opportunity of all to help to promote the cause of a movement that is "virtually religious". If a student does not feel that he can help this movement, should he be branded as one at the A. C., and not of the A. C.?

Among the reasons for erecting the building are: "Our effort is first of all virtually religious—every committee man is being trained for leadership in the church." Should an organization having these views become a controlling influence at an institution of this type? Will it be able to draw into its folds those who really need a fellowship center? Are the men going to feel at home; will they come to this fellowship center in preference to some place where there will be no such strong religious attitude?

Committee rooms are to be provided for the various College Organizations. Certain members of these committees will not feel that they should be asked to attend meetings in the building of a religious organization. There can be no doubt but that the Y. M. C. A. will become the great power at the A. C. thru its building. All matters of students interest will be discussed here, and it is only natural that the leaders of this religious organization will have great influence over the students who gather here, and this way this organization will control all student activities. The student will be crushed under the heel of a religious organization. Those with different religious beliefs will be in the hopeless minority. The great danger is that in the future there will be tendencies toward Temporal Power. College Organizations should not be forced to hold their meetings in a religious organization's home.

It is only natural that those who do not favor this campaign are to be branded as knockers, and they are asked to propose something as a substitute. We need a Men's Building but would not a Men's Union serve as a fellowship center? This building would be shared by every student. Every student would have the right to vote on all questions that could be brought up as to the welfare, management, rules, and upkeep of the building without having to agree to any pledge or belief. There could be no danger of any group, the object of which is virtually religious, would become the controlling factor in student life.

On the other hand, if the policy can become so broad that all students can see the value that they as a body can derive from this proposed building, if all students are to have equal rights here, then let the campaign have the support of every student. R. J. O.

WHAT NEXT?

Now who would have thought it? The other night, Miss Olive Guy a young lady residing in Ceres Hall, at this here college, she deliberately walked out and no-body could tell where she went. Great pandemonium reigned till finally the nymphs at the hall of plenty discovered a notice in the paper, about a dance in Assembly Hall — this will be continued in our next.

Team Returns With A Clean Record

The A. C. Basketball team returned last Saturday noon over the Milwaukee from Wahpeton, where they finished their trip through four states. They played six games on this trip and won all of them, although many good teams were met.

On their return, they were met by a large body of students, who escorted the team to the Dacotah Cafe where dinner was served. After dinner, the team were guests at a box party at the Grand where a good show was seen and some stale jokes cracked.

The team closed their series of games by defeating Wahpeton Science to the tune of 47-19. As the score shows there was little trouble in winning this game.

TAKE IOWA BY STORM.

The fourth game of the series was played with Luther College at Decorah, Io. This game was characterized by close guarding and good basket shooting by the Aggies team. The final score was 22-15. Our team had little difficulty in maintaining their lead throughout the whole game.

The next day, the team continued their journey by travelling to Fayette, where they met the Iowa champions, Upper Iowa University. They started the game with three subs in the lineup, but these gave good accounts of themselves.

Again the feature of the game was close guarding. The final score was 26-22.

Owing to the delayed trains, the team was not able to play the game which had been scheduled with Rochester Y. M. C. A. of Rochester, Minn. The team had played four games in the preceding four days, so the rest was not out of place.

All the men who made the trips, report an enjoyable time, and very good treatment. Those who made up the squad were Coach Davis, Capt. McKee, Bolsinger, McQuillan, Movold, Crawford, Kinneberg, E. Houser and M. Houser.

The Trip's Happenings

The only conversation between coach and Duch was by Duch. "Coach when do we eat?"

Mac, "Have any of you fellows seen my golashers?"

One of the professors from Gustavus Adolphus met the team at Kasota Junction and told them of the game with Macalaster College. "We played Macalaster to a tie score last night, 17-16."

During a lull in the South Dakota game while the state school was putting in a few more subs.

Curly: "Still they come, and worse they get."

Anyone who thinks that Kinneberg is quiet had ought to ask the time keeper at Gustavus Adolphus.

Bolly: "What have you got on your feet Mac?"

Mac: "Coach calls 'em golashers. They are a sure cure for spavs. I wear 'em all day so when I take 'em off at night my feet are that much lighter. You had ought to get some about 2 sizes too large for you."

A thief was found on the train between Brookings and Winona. McQuillan found his golashers were missing. After a great deal of confusion, they were discovered in the rear of the car between a dark skinned man and woman. The dark skinned man said that they were not there when I left the train for lunch, but must have been left by the man who sat with his black honey while he was gone.

Bolsinger kept in good condition by running from one end of the car to the other, to change shirts. Every morning he put on an old brown shirt but every time a good looking girl got on the train, Bolly headed up for the other end with his satchel and reappeared all fussed up. When the girl left, it was back to the brown shirt for Bolly. Mac called him the dude.

A regular play was staged in the hall of the Winneshiek Hotel at Decorah, Iowa. McKee leading actor. Midnight. Enter McKee in pink pajamas.

McKee: "McQuillan, let me in." Mac: "I don't want any ice water." McKee: (Next door) "Sammy let me in."

Sam: "Ha-ha." McKee (At third door): "Coach, let me in."

Coach: Snore — Snore — McKee: "Mac let me in, someone's coming."

Mac: "I said I didn't want any ice water. Now beat it before I throw a golasher at you."

Lady approaching from one end of hall and McKee disappearing at the other end.

CURTAIN.

INTER-CLASS GAMES

The inter-class games are now under way. They are proving fast and close, assuring the spectators interesting contests and the champions a hard fight before they reach the coveted place. Professor Darner is officiating in a very satisfactory manner. The Seniors has as yet no team in the field, but hope to be able to play soon.

FRESHMEN DEFEAT POWER MACHINERY.

The Freshmen squad made a good beginning by defeating the Power Machinery men. The game was fast and rough throughout. The final score was 23-21 in favor of the first year men.

HIGH SCHOOL AND JUNIORS PLAY.

The Juniors were handed a defeat by the fast prep team in their first game. The High school team seemed to have everything their own way in the first half, the score being 15-1. However, during the second half the Juniors outplayed their opponents, but not enough to win, the final score being 28-18.

The High School team were the champions last year and expect to be near the top this year.

In one of the fastest games played between classes at A. C., the Sophomores defeated the Farm Husbandry team the other evening. The game was fast from start to finish, and had the crowd on their feet during the whole game. During the first half, the Sophomores had the advantage, piling up 17 points to the 11 of the Farm Husbandry team. But the second half was a thriller. It was featured by close guarding by both teams. Neither team seemed to have the advantage, judging from the score, but the lead of the first half gave the Sophomores the victory. The final score was 26-21.

INTER-CLASS GAMES.

In a fast game the Juniors were defeated by the crack farm husbandry team by a score of 41 to 4. In one of the best games ever witnessed, the "preps" defeated the Juniors 21 to 13.

The games between the Freshmen and Seniors, Sophomores and Juniors were postponed.

The "Preps" were handed a defeat by 2 points in the game played with Fargo high. Hiedner was the star for the preps, shooting 2 baskets and 10 fouls. The final score was 16-14.

S. D. STATE "U". Coach Ewing received word last week that the board of control of athletics at the University of Minnesota had ratified the university football schedule for 1916 in which State College is given the date of October 7, the first game on the Gophers schedule. State occupies the same place in the practice division of the university's schedule as that formerly held by Ames.

Freshmen women of the Ohio State University were compelled to clean the steps of the college building. Armed with tooth brushes, wash rags, mops, scrub brushes, and other aquatic instruments, they were forced to get down on their knees and work under the supervision of the '18 girls.

Miss Jeanette Westley was quite ill several days last week and unable to attend classes.

The Misses Bailey, Waechter and Brainard were guests of Miss Dot Keene Friday evening.

Several dormitory girls enjoyed a sleighride Friday evening.

Vera Poe wishes to contradict the fact that Wm. Wright came to see her last week. It was Cecil Manikowski he called on.

Miss Gladys Plath was ill Friday and had Desdemona Archibald as company, the former suffering from a severe cold and headache and the latter from neuralgia.

Miss Lucile Stuart received a large box from home Wednesday and as a result she entertained a large number of girls that evening. Everyone enjoyed the contents of the box very much.

SOCIETY

The staff for "the Co-ed issue" started their work suggestively by a "get together" meeting and lunch at Miss Rasmussen's Thursday evening. Their plans speak well for the coming issue.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Arvold entertained the old and new members of the Edwin Booth Dramatic Club, at a banquet at the Gardner Hotel. At five thirty the members and Mr. and Mrs. Arvold and Miss Simmons sat down to a six course dinner at which Dr. Barker was an invited guest. Following the banquet the entire company departed for the Garrick to spend an enjoyable hour watching film dramas.

The third part of the evening was spent at the Arvold flat on Broadway, where three groups of new members each put on a stunt, after Miss Simmons had read the history of the Dramatic Club. Al Simonitsch Reg. Colly and "Chris." gave an original imitation of one of the previous stunts. Dr. Barker told some stories and the company departed after having a wonderfully enjoyable evening.

Marjory Lelberg: Oh, yes! our team is going to debate Mr. Mayone and another girl.

"Dick" Bjornson and Andrew Challey left Saturday afternoon for Pennsylvania State College where they will represent Epsilon chapter of Alpha Gamma Rho in their convention. They expect to be gone about two weeks.

Prof. Arvold is at present in the East, where he is giving a series of lectures. He will visit his old home at Whitewater, Wis., before returning.

LOCALS

Target practice is now going on in the Armory range. Some good scores have been made by the new men.

The convocation period on Monday the 21st will be taken up by President Crawford of the State Board of Regents. He will speak on Washington.

On Washington's birthday, February 22nd, the Band will give a concert in the College Armory. Patriotic selections will be the main feature.

Mr. Robert Lyness of Fessenden, N. D. and Alex McDonald of Glencoe were visitors on the campus Saturday.

In convocation next Monday, Prof. Bolley will speak on "Discoveries of Fossil Remains in California." Prof. Bolley has recently been in California where these remains are now being found. The lecture will be interesting and very instructive.

Lieutenant Carrithers has been authorized by President J. H. Worst to purchase a saber which will be contested for by the five companies of cadets sometime in March. The saber will cost from twenty-five to thirty dollars and will be worn by the captain of the winning company.

Nearly 400 students are now taking "English" as one of their subjects. There are 96 college students, 100 high school students, 100 industrial course students and 100 short course students. The "English" department is one of the fast growing departments in the college.

Prof. Thompson attended the State Live Stock Association meeting at Grand Forks last Friday. This meeting was held in connection with the Corn and Clover show. Many A. C. men were present and an interesting program on the care and management of live stock was held. Prof. Thompson obtained a donation of $60 from the association to hold a stock judging contest.

Home Economics

Misses Vera Roe and Charlotte Horn entertained President and Mrs. Worst, Mrs. Gilbert, and the Misses Haggart, Pearson, Stoner, Hadley, and North at a six o'clock dinner on Thursday last week. The dinner was very prettily served in the department dining room under the direction of Miss North. This was the last of a series of meals given by the senior home maker girls.

Misses Gunderson and Howe demonstrated the preparation of meat soup to the short course class on Wednesday afternoon of this week.

Who is attending Junior cooking since Monday, the rich or the poor?

Edith Gross demonstrates the use of cleaning preparations before the Young Women's Auxiliary on Tuesday evening at seven-thirty o'clock.

The car service has been very poor of late. Evidences of it appear from eight till later. Eight o'clock classes are but thirty minutes in length.

The first year home makers served a breakfast at twelve o'clock on Thursday of last week under the direction of Miss Hadley.
