All three literary societies are confident of victory. The character of the plays to be presented this year is a little above the ordinary. The Athenian Literary Society will present "A Newly Married Couple," the Pythian Literary Society "Op-O-Me-Thumb" and the Philomathian Literary Society "The Ghost of Jerry Bundler." All of these plays have been presented by the best professional companies in London and New York and have scored unusual successes.

New Book By T. A. Hoverstad Recently Published

There has just come from the press of the Hans Jervel Co., a new book by T. A. Hoverstad on "The Norwegian Farmers in the United States." Its chapters deal with such subjects as are indicated by the following chapter headings: The Norwegian Farmers in the United States, in North Dakota, as business men, as mechanics, as laborers, and The Character of the Norwegian Farmer. On the whole, it is an interesting book to those interested in the subject, and as the book points out, since 29.4 per cent of the farmers of our state are of Norwegian descent, we should all be interested. President Worst in commenting on the book, says, "constitutes a very brief outline of the Norwegian population and the part Norwegians have played in the development of the Northwest." The book is illustrated with many of the Norwegians in the state.

The Student Commission wishes to thank the Freshmen Class for entertaining the North Dakota University students at a dance at the College Armory Saturday evening, November the sixth.

Freshmen Prove To Be Royal Entertainers

Large Crowd Of College Family and "U" Boosters Attend

The Class of '19 were hosts to the student body, the faculty and those of the "U" rooters who stayed over at a very enjoyable informal dance on Saturday evening. The date had been set aside for the annual Freshman party, but owing to the fact that the University bunch were to be here on the same night, and the feeling that some entertainment should be provided, the Freshmen threw their party open to the entire student body, and the delegation from Grand Forks.

A large part of the A. C. student body turned out to help the Freshmen entertain the visitors, and throughout the whole evening, good spirits and hospitality were much in evidence. Every one present responded to the call of good music and pleasant company.

The Armory was effectively decorated with bunting and pennants while the stage was lined with ferns. Most effective and appreciative were the blankets belonging to the football men placed under the balcony in groups. Throughout the evening, frappe and wafers were served.

The dancing began at 8:30 and lasted until 11 o'clock when the guests of honor had to leave in order to catch their train. The music was excellent throughout the whole evening as was evidenced by the universal comments heard afterward.

"DICK"

By Aaron McGaffey Beede

Distinguished men with heart and hand
Have made the Aggie College grand,—
But don't forget the janitor
Who knows what basement reckon for.
Then here's to Dick
With never a "kick."

Where idle breezes came and blew
O'er flower-ghost faces in the dew.
The College full of beauty grew
While Dick the keeper "kept" things new.
Then here's to Dick
With never a "kick."

Just like a gliding eagle-wing
Dick gets there with an easy swing,
And asked what his opinion is
He speaks with no false vanity.
Then here's to Dick
With never a "kick."

For twenty times twelve moons and more
Dick ne'er was known to sleep and snore,
When this and that thing could be done
To help along great deeds begun.
Then here's to Dick
With never a "kick."

Dick's picture lingers in the heart
Of all who from the College part,
A picture full of grace and grit
With lines and shades of mother wit.
Then here's adieu
To Dick,—Adieu!

After Playing A Remarkable Game For Three Quarters, Allowed "U" To Score In The Fourth

The School System Of France Discussed

Professor Dolt spoke in chapel Monday morning on "The School System of France." He said in part: "The school system of France is made up of two great divisions, first the primary division which consists of the grade school, the high school and normal school. The second division is known as secondary which consists of the college work and beyond that the university.

"The primary division aims chiefly to train the agricultural and industrial classes, except the normal which trains for teaching.

"All through the primary system the boys and girls are kept separate. Even though it be a small village there is a separate school for the boys and girls. The boys are taught by men and the girls by women.

Children enter school at the age of five and the laws require them to stay in school until they are thirteen years old.

"The primary school places special emphasis upon the teaching of politeness, rhetoric, spelling, and writing. Economy is also taught by means of a school savings bank.

"After passing thru the grade school the student enters the high school. The high school is the nature of a boarding school, and the discipline is very strict. The bugle blows at 6:30 in the morning and the boys are given fifteen minutes to dress and to get to the study room where the study hall master hears them recite their lessons and then the students are given half an hour to study the points they are weak in. They then have breakfast and return to their rooms and make their beds before starting to the eight o'clock classes.

"The normal course requires three years of hard work beyond graduation from the high school.

"On graduating from the high school the student receives a bachelor's degree which is a prerequisite for university entrance.

Life in the university is very free, the instruction is chiefly by the lecture method and the students come and go as they please. Before receiving their degree the students must at the end of their course pass an examination in all subjects studied during their university course.

"The student in France at the age of eighteen is as far advanced as the student here is at twenty-one.

"A graduate of the French high school has a more thorough grounding in the fundamental subjects than does the graduate in this country. "The French schools are all uniform."

NOTHING NEW.

"I see," said Bilkins, "that a French scientist has discovered a method for shoving off old age."

"Well, what of it?" demanded Wilkins. "There's nothing new in that. A man can tave off old age by jumping off Eiffel tower, or dropping a lighted match in a powder barrel while sitting on it, or by rocking the boat when he's out on the water, or by riding over Niagara falls sitting astride of a log. Those French scientists make me tired with their hullabaloo over nothing."—Harpers Weekly.

HIS JUSTIFICATION

"Why did you strike this man?" asked the court.

"He told me to use my head," pleaded the prisoner.

"Well, that's no crime, is it?"

"But, your honor, I was crushing stone at the time."—Buffalo Express.

Injuries Assert Themselves, And "U" Wins 20 to 0

With a light breeze blowing, which was sufficient to cool the players, and not too much for the comfort of the spectators, the A. C. students and their supporters saw the championship fade in the fourth quarter of the game Saturday.

One of the largest crowds ever seen on Dacotah field witnessed the contest, which until the fatal fourth, was all that could be asked in the line of foot ball.

Gill brought thirty men along in anticipation of putting his second string men against our team as he did with Fargo College, we suppose, but until the last part of the game, it took the best he had to hold our cripples down.

On the whole, the game was a little surprise for the spectators, who were probably misled by the University's assertions that the score would be 40-0. The fight displayed by our men was wonderful, and there is no other explanation for it.

After that memorable first half, fans felt a little sorry that our team was battered up and that the real strength of the team was not adequately shown. With due respect to the North Dakotans, we feel that of our men had not had so many injuries, that the score would have been different. Considering the game from the stand point of the "finer points" of the game, the first and second quarters were about even. The University had the credit of gaining more yards, but the Aggies defense against the strong line plunges and end runs was nothing short of thrilling. At the first kick-off Bolsinger got thru the lines of the U. men and McKay was the only man between him and the goal. But he was shoved out of bounds. The ball then swayed back and forth in the middle of the field. Once the University had the ball on the A. C. 1 yard line, but fumbled on the 4th down and A. C. recovered, and there was nothing doing as far as scoring was concerned until the 4th quarter. During this period the University seemed to take a brace and in spite of the A. C. bull-dog defense, and tore thru the lines for long gains. After the first touchdown the upstaters came back for more blood and again the A. C. men could not stem the onslaught of Gill's men.

You are beaten to earth? Well, well, what's that?
Come up with a smiling face,
It's nothing against you to fall down flat,
But to lie there — that's disgrace.
But the harder you're thrown, why the higher you bounce,
Be proud of your blackened eye —
It isn't the fact that you're licked that counts —
It's how did you fight — and why?

We, the student body, can fittingly dedicate these lines to the foot ball team for the splendid article of foot ball they displayed, and the sportsman like way in which they took the defeat.

Dean Boley's Work Is Recognized

Professor Boley, Dean of the department of Biology, receives the following commendation in the current issue of "Illustrated World" also known as "Technical World."

"For twenty-five years Henry L. Boley of the North Dakota Experiment Station has been preaching the gospel of salvation for the faint crop. He has made the saving of flax to the United States and linseed oil to the American paint industry his job. He has studied flax on the steppes of Russia, the plains of Siberia, and beside the river Lys in Belgium. He knows nearly all about flax in the big flax producing countries, India, Holland, and Argentina. Now it seems that his efforts will succeed. Growers are becoming interested, and the supply is on the increase.

"Professor Boley has saved American flax seed growing from extinction," writes the editor of the chief organ of the paint industry. "If it hadn't been for the timely aid of Professor Boley," declared another, "the United States, the greatest consumer of paint among nations, would soon have been dependent upon Russia, Argentina, and Canada for its supply of linseed oil."

"State after state has taken up its culture and state after state has abandoned it; and probably, but for the work of Professor Boley and a few others, the supply would be constantly diminishing."

"The production of disease resistant seed is another feature of Professor Boley's method of saving flax. Seed is sown year after year on the same plot, the best of the product each season being planted back the following spring. The plot becomes thoroughly "flax sick" after awhile. All weak plants die off and those that are left represent the "survival of the fittest." The seed they produce when planted in the open field will be practically immune to disease. The North Dakota Experiment Station is growing this resistant seed and supplying it to farmers. By the use of the seed old lands in North Dakota considered to be usually "faxed out" have been made to bring forth splendid crops. Where ever this has happened a community of farmers has been won over to Professor Boley's cause, and looks upon flax with favor."

More voices are needed for the Boy's Glee Club. Rehearsal at 7:30 Monday evening, November 15.

Dr. F. N. Seerley at A. C.

Friday afternoon a large crowd of A. C. men listened with keen interest to the pleasing address of Dr. F. N. Seerley of Springfield, Mass., on the subject of Social Hygiene. When the bell rang at the close of the hour the men demanded by acclamation that Dr. Seerley go on, "as long as he wished."

"The biggest job we have, said the speaker, "is to hold the mastery over our mind, our thinking and our imagination." "The man who holds up through life must know himself and must hold eternal control over self." The doctor went on then to show, by quoting from the lives of men whom he had known, how a man must guard and protect his own freedom from domination by the things which press about him and tend to pull him down. He devoted a great deal of time to showing the men how medical fakirs play upon the ignorance of young men, college men and others, regarding matters related to their personal lives.

Many of the men who came away from the Armory at the close of the address realized that a valuable treat had been given them. No man who heard Dr. Seerley should ever have to plead ignorance as an explanation of difficulty in leading a clean life. The kindness of Lieut. Carrithers in granting Dr. Seerley the drill hour for the address was greatly appreciated by the men in that they gladly remained long after the usual dismissal time.

FRESHMAN ISSUE

Watch for the Spectrum of December 1st. The Freshman class have decided that they will use this issue to demonstrate their literary ability. They will meet today to elect their staff and thus get to work at once in making the best Freshman Issue yet. In the past, the Freshman Issue has been one of the feature issues of the year, and the one this year will probably be no exception. From the entertainment provided last Saturday, we know that they can do things.

The season of the year for declamation contests, oratorical contests, literary festivals, debates, etc., is here once more. Once more there is heard the call for all those who have any ability along this line. This year, the work of the Public Speaking department promises to be very successful. There are requests from several schools for debates with A. C. Oregon A. C., Montana, Wisconsin and Minnesota have all signified their willingness to meet our representatives in debate. Now its up to everyone who has had any experience or who wishes to gain such experience, to get in touch with Professor Arnold, and start preparing for the tryouts.

PHI Upsilon OMICRON ENTERTAINS DELTA PHI BETA AND FRIENDS

The young ladies of the Phi Upsilon Omicron sorority were hostesses last Thursday evening at one of the most delightful student affairs of the season thus far, when they entertained the Delta Phi Beta sorority, young men friends of both groups of young ladies, and several of the faculty at a dancing party given in the Sons of Norway hall.

Preceding the pleasing program of dances, for which music was furnished by Cliff's orchestra, there was a conversational game in which all participated, various topics of conversation being inscribed on small, printed cards and the topics for the ladies and gentlemen being arranged so that conversational groups of two each were formed.

A short program was also a much appreciated feature of the affair. It consisted of a vocal solo, The Banjo Man, by Prof. B. A. Orr, head of the music department at the A. C., who responded to several insistent encores, and a James Whitcomb Riley reading, Beyond Endurance, by Miss Linwell of the dramatic department of the college, who also responded to several hearty encores, giving favorite child readings by Riley. The ite child readings by Riley. The grand march which opened the program of dance numbers.

The decorations for the occasion were most effective. The effect of the large Phi Upsilon Omicron blanket, in cream and gold, hung at one end of the hall, and of the Delta Phi Beta blanket, in black and white, hung at the other end of the room, was enhanced by numerous tall baskets of yellow chrysanthemums, and when the refreshment hour arrived, the guests were seated at small tables bearing tiny Japanese baskets filled with dainty yellow pompoms. The menu served was also in keeping, being ice cream in yellow and white, with which were served small individual cakes frosted in white, and bearing the Greek letters designating the entertaining sorority, in yellow. Frappe was served during the evening. The dance program also corresponded with the predominating color scheme, being inscribed with the name, Phi Upsilon Omicron, in yellow, and having the tiny pencils attached to them, of yellow. All the guests at last evening's affair voted the members of the Phi Upsilon Omicron to be royal entertainers.

All students who wish to enter the Inter-collegiate debate try-outs will kindly hand their names to Mr. A. C. Arvid, Room O, Main building on or before November 18, 1915.

GLADYS PLATH AND LELAND SMITH TIE FOR FIRST HONORS

In the Seventh Annual A. and M. T. High School Declamation Contest held in the Little Country Theatre last Friday, Gladys Plath and Leland Smith tied for first place, with Thor-dur Thordarson in second. There were four contestants between whom the decision was very close, as each handled their selection well. Decorations were in the colors of Castalia, purple and gray; and those of Hesperia, cherry and gold.

The program follows: President of the evening—Carl Lolland Music—Hesperian Literary Society Happiness and Liberty—Thor-dur Thordarson The Swell—Esther Heidner The Deathbed of Benedict Arnold—Leland Smith The Lie—Gladys Plath Music—Castalian Literary Society

A ROUSING MEETING HELD BY PHILOS

Last Friday, with one of the most successful programs in its history, the Philomathian Literary Society started a season that promises to be one of great activity. A reception of eight new members was the occasion for much enthusiasm. Following is the program: Flax Inspection—Dick Byornson Vocal Solo—Ward Porter A Summer's Trip Thru the West—Arthur Schollander My Horticultural Work at Mitchell, S. D.—Harry Loftus Music—Ray Drewry What Literary Societies Mean To Me As a Graduate—Theo. Stoa Extempo Talk—Roy Dynes Declamation—J. L. McConnell All the numbers were of merit, and Mr. Schollander's vivid description of a pleasure (?) trip up Pike's Peak via burro was a delight. A well prepared lunch then put the members into good condition for songs and yells.

It was decided that Philomathia should stand high in the competitive events of the year, and with its promising new members, should furnish debating stock which well retain the honors gained by our school during the past few years.

SIGNS.

"Jack has given up smoking." "U-m! Don't say so?" "Yes, and I hear he has resigned from his club." "Well, that's going some." "And he's quit playing golf, too." "That confirms the rumor that he's married."

EXPERIENCE is a good school, but that ain't any excuse for always stayin' in the same class. When you're done tryin' out the "pretty fair" smokes, try VELVET, the smoothest.

MILITARY AND MUSIC

The work of the Military Department has been a marked success so far this year. The long course students have squad and company drill on Monday and Friday, and the short course men drill on Tuesday and Thursday. On Wednesday all the companies meet and listen to a lecture on some military subject by Lieutenant Carrithers. These lectures are of much interest to the students as they apply to everyday life as well as to military. After a few weeks, target practice will begin in the shooting gallery in the Gym.

The following program was given at Grand Forks last week under the direction of the Musical Section of the North Dakota Educational Association of which Professor B. A. Orr was President:

5. In the Tavern—Jensen The Venezian Suite—Nevin March of the Bojars—Halverson Selection from "The Mikado"—Sullivan University Philharmonic Society William W. Norton, Director

Beginning next Monday there will be regular rehearsals for both the Boy's and the Girl's Glee Clubs. Director Orr would like to have a few more try out, as there is still plenty of chance for anyone who sings, especially is this true of the Boy's club. See Mr. Orr at once.

Junior-Senior Game To Be Played Friday

Long Heralded Game To Be Played On Dacotah Field at 4 o'clock—Both Teams Working Hard To Whip Men in Shapc

The great Senior-Junior game is to be played Friday afternoon at Dacotah field, weather permitting, as near four o'clock as is possible. An effort is to be made to secure the suspension of military and musical requirements during the afternoon for about half an hour, or from 3:30 to 4:00 o'clock.

Capt. McKee of the Seniors feels confident that his team is in condition to meet the speedy Junior team. He has the makings of a wonderful backfield and his ends are fast. The team has been shifting during the last week and it is that that at the sound of he whistle on Friday that each man will be in his position.

The Juniors have been working equally as hard. Hampered by a lack of material and time they have been doing the best they can with what they have. Capt. Slingsby is not as pessimistic as one would think. His backs are fairly fast and his line is being whipped into shape. The ends will be held down by Ed. Hooper, Mendenhall and Sid Hooper, Rierson, Chally, Tarbell, Beals. And Hooper will be in the back field and will be guided by Slingsby. Bellmer, Tarbell, Bender and Rasmussen will be on the line as will other strong men. McKee will also be on the line and in the back field. If you want to see a real game, come out Friday.

Delighted crowds around them stand to hear the rascals rage. Their bodies creak in every joint, They speak with bursting brain; And when the judges miss the point All three at once complain. They talk their way into a show; Conductors always fall, They'll talk their way to the Pearly Gates, Into the Golden Hall. St. Peter surely has no show. With men of solver tongue; "Debaters, all, may enter here," On the pearly gates is hung.

Playing a strong defensive game for three quarters and holding Brookings scoreless, Huron, in the last period weakened, and discouraged by a blocked punt resulting in a touchdown, was forced to taste defeat by a score of 25 to 0.

The Rhodes scholarship test papers have been twice lost on sunken ships, and a third set of papers have been printed and shipped. The Arabic took to the bottom the original examination sheets, and the second set was lost on the Hesperian, when she was torpedoed. The submarine was not to rob American youths of the chance to study in England however, for the third set came over high and dry.

OREGON RETAINS ATHLETICS

Following close upon the heels of the public statement of Governor Withcomb of Oregon that he favored intercollegiate athletics, came the announcement this week of the decision of the faculty at the University of Oregon to retain the intercollegiate sports, with the exception of basket ball. The faculty decided, however, that a number of reforms must be made in the present system, favoring the abolition of official "scouts" whose duty it is to secure athletes for the university.

Cheigton University of Omaha is building a gymnasium that will cost over $100,000. The building will have three stories, and will be modern in all its equipment. It will be more than a mere gymnasium because of the fact that billiard rooms and club rooms of various sort have been provided for besides the swimming pool, running track, hand-ball court and basket ball floor, which are the usual apartments in a gym.

The dope was unset again Saturday when Gonzaga university, playing the seven-times champion team from the University of Washington in Spokane, held the Doble men to three touchdowns and a field goal and put over a touchdown and goal kick, score 21 to 7. The Gonzaga team played an excellent defensive game and it was only in the last frame, when they were exhausted, that the Seattle backs could gain consistently.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE.

Miss Stoner attended the meeting of the Educational Association in Grand Forks last week and she brings back some interesting reports of the work done for the advancement of Home Economics.

Up to this time, the Industrial Section has included Manual Training, Agriculture and Home Economics. When the section met, the Home Economics teachers petitioned the organization to organize the H. E. as a new section in the state association. The important matter was discussed and it was unanimously decided that such a course of action would greatly improve the work of that division and as a result a section for Manual Training and one for Home Economics were formed. The details of the organization of the new section were left in the hands of a committee.

Miss Stoner requested that the teachers of H. E. in North Dakota meet here sometime in March to plan for the organization of the N. D. H. E. Association, which will be affiliated with the American H. E. Association.

These movements indicate that Home Economics in North Dakota is rising to meet the needs of the state, and to reach the great numbers that the leaders of this work are striving to influence.

Only two hundred seats will be sold for the Fifth Annual College Literary Society Festival Friday evening, November 12, 1915, to be held in THE LITTLE COUNTRY THEATRE.

ALUMNI

Walter Botsford and George Steward came in for the game Saturday. They are both graduates of last year's class.

Joseph Dwire, John Swanson, Leonard Wirtenberger, and Edgar Olson were all in for the A. C. U. N. D. game. They were guests at the Alpha Mu house while here.

A number of A. C. Alumni attended the meeting of the Minnesota Educational Association, which was held in Minneapolis a short time ago. They were: Miss Jennie Simmons, '13; Mr. Melvin Ostby, '14; Mr. Homer Dixon, '15.

Another A. C. alumni has recently joined the ranks of the benedictines. Mr. Arthur J. Anderson was married to Miss Margaret Duggan of Grand Forks. The couple left for Chicago and other eastern points to be gone until December first. After that date they will be at home in Binford, N. Dak.

Paul Heath was in Fargo last week and was a guest at the Mu house. Mr. Heath has been connected with the R. E. Cobb Co., St. Paul as chemist for the past two years. He is now on his way to Alaska where, being interested in mining, he expects to stay for six or seven months.

Mr. Evan W. Hall, '09, has been at the Agricultural College the past week attending the meeting of the county agents of the Better Farming division of the North Dakota Experiment Station. Mr. Hall is meeting with great success as county agent of Williams County. A recent issue of Wallace's Farmer contains a picture illustrating some of the phases of the work that Mr. Hall is attempting among the younger farmers of Williams County. During August, Mr. Hall took forty-eight boys on a hike through the country, visiting the better farms of the community. They carried tents along with them for sleeping quarters and a cook car for serving meals. Undoubtedly the young men were given a great many valuable object lessons they will not forget in a long while.

Several H. S. Alumni of last year have been heard from. Among them are:

Elmer Steinhaus, who is attending the Northwestern Dental School at Chicago.

Olga Schmitt is studying to be a nurse in a training school in Boston.

Lois Parks is at Eckelson, North Dakota where she is teaching. She enjoys her work there.

Hilda Welo is teaching near Chisago's Ferry, and Mary McCormick at Crete, North Dakota.

"Tommy" Buxton, whose parents reside at Jameston is going to school there.

Anthony Persky begins his work at the State Normal at Valley City.

High School Notes

HIGH SCHOOL BASKET BALL
 A meeting of the high school basketball fellows was held in the basement of the Library and Emil Sandquist was elected captain and Culver Ladd, business manager for the coming year. Nearly all of last year's players are back and a large number of new students have already signified their intention of trying out for the team. This leads the High School to believe they will have an even more successful season than last year.

The management is co-operating with the coach and Professor Smith is arranging the schedule and hopes to be able soon to announce a very complete one which will include several schools over the state.

SENIORS—HIGH SCHOOL
 At a meeting of the fourth year High School, held in Room M of the Main building, the following officers were elected for the year:
 Wm. Mortenson ----- President
 Martha Landers ----- Vice President
 Willis Boots ----- Secretary
 Antie Walters ----- Treasurer
 Pink and green were selected to be the class colors. Among other business transacted was the appointment of a committee to select a class motto.

Library Notes

Miss Eaton, librarian of the Normal school at Superior, Wisconsin, called at the Library last week to get "pointers" for the new library which is to take the place of the one recently burned.

This week we wish to call your attention to some valuable publications that may be overlooked by the public. In addition to the many periodicals taken at the Library, do not forget the farm papers kept in the last drawers of the magazine rack. On the slate shelf west of the magazine rack are bulletins and reports from the U. S. Department of Agriculture that are free to any one who wishes them. We are rapidly accumulating a pamphlet collection of miscellaneous topics of the day. Inquire at the desk for material, on any subject in which you are personally interested, it may be we have just what you want.

The North Dakota State Library Association met in Grand Forks, November 4th and 5th. Miss Pearson went as representative from the A. C. library. She was asked to discuss two recent books worth while. In addition to the round table discussion in the librarians took part, there was an address by Matthew S. Dudgeon, Secretary of the Wisconsin Library Commission. The delegates also heard some of the noted speakers of the Educational Association, such as Irving Bacher, Booker T. Washington, and Hon. P. P. Claxton.

SOCIETY

Fred Gram had as guests during a portion of last week, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Gram of Enderlin.

The Delta Phi Beta Sorority entertained at luncheon previous to the game Saturday, the guests being the alumni members who were in for the game.

Melvin Holten was among the former students who saw the game Saturday. "Muti" is engaged in banking this year.

Word has been received to the effect that Miss Annie Ulio, daughter of the late Major Ulio, who will be remembered by the older students as the Commandant of the military department, was recently married in Honolulu to Reginald Backus. The newly married couple will make their home in Honolulu where Mr. Backus is a well-known business man.

The Second Annual Industrial Course Demonstration Contest is scheduled to take place on Friday evening, November 19, 1915 in THE LITTLE COUNTRY THEATRE. Three students representing the Agricultural Club, The Power Machinery Club and the Aurora Club will contest for supremacy in demonstration work.

Tell your friends about the Fifth Annual College Literary Society Festival to be held in THE LITTLE COUNTRY THEATRE on Friday evening, November 12, 1915.

Percival Chubb of St. Louis, Missouri, President of The Drama League of America visited THE LITTLE COUNTRY THEATRE Friday afternoon.

LOCALS

About the 15th of this month Professor Ladd will be in Washington, D. C. attending the meeting of the Committee on Food Standards and Definitions of which he is a member.

The entire active membership of the University chapter of the Sigma Chi fraternity were in attendance at the A. C. U. game Saturday. They were entertained by the local chapter of the fraternity at luncheon and attended the Pan-Hellenic banquet in the evening.

Reports from the Sub-stations on crop yields for the past season show some very good results. The Hettinger station lead in wheat yields, having 53.4 bushels per acre; Williston had 52.3; Langdon, 50; and Edgeley, 46 bushels. 130 bushels of oats per acre were raised at the Williston station, 83.4 bushels of barley, and 30 bushels of flax. At Edgeley, the highest yields were 107 bushels of oats and 51 bushels of barley per acre. These results speak well for the system of farming used in these so-called dry parts of North Dakota.

According to the action of the High School League of North Dakota taken at their meeting in Grand Forks last week, after January 1, 1916, anyone over 21 years of age cannot compete in interscholastic athletic contests. This decision has come as the result of considerable agitation the past year. Another matter decided was that of keeping a record of athletes. This record shall consist of the date of his birth, the date of his entrance into high school athletics, and his record as an athlete.

Quite a number of the faculty attended the meeting of the North Dakota Education Association at Grand Forks last week. President Vorst discussed "Academic Freedom." Dean C. B. Waldron presided over the Department of Science and Mathematics. Bertrand A. Orr presided over the Department of Musical Education and directed a musical program. Professor Arland D. Weeks read a paper on "The Leadership Function in Higher Education." Dean E. S. Keene gave an address on "Color Photography," which was illustrated by a number of slides. Professor A. P. Hollis delivered an address on "A Better Way." Director Thomas P. Cooper addressed the Association upon the subject of "Extension Work."

Ceres Hall

Marion Dixon visited with her sister Mrs. Sherman Friday night.

Miss Kellogg of Ellendale visited with her sister Anne Marie Kellogg, Friday and Saturday.

Miss Liela Nelson has been ill but we are glad to see that she is able to be around again.

Miss Mary Barnes and Ruth Jones of the University spent Friday and Saturday with Myrtle and Ivy Waechter.

Messrs Harlan McGlenn and Rudy and Rolfe Shellenberger were the guests of Miss Pearl Torstolf and Lucile Stuart Sunday. Miss Eliza Clough was an invited guest also.

Wednesday evening the Ceres Hall girls are going to have a "youngster's party." Every year the girls plan to give a series of parties and this will be the first one this year.

Last Wednesday night the spoofs of Ceres Hall were busy. When Miss Peterson returned to her room after being "out" she was greatly confused as to whether her room was really her own room or not. Things looked different somehow. Nothing appeared in its customary place. What had happened? Oh, the supreme joy of straightening out a "stacked" room.
