Girls Entertained at Stumber Party.

In response to invitations, which because of their meretricious witch sign language required several hours of study, ten girls from the juniors and senior class met at Miss Bertha Gunderson's home on Friday night.

At a late hour the girls gathered in a circle on the floor and a luncheon was served consisting of Pumpkin pie, sandwiches, pickles, doughnut and cider.

The social life of a state educational institution must be of such a nature that it will satisfy all who are in any way connected with it, in order to encourage other lines of legitimate college activity gin at seven-thirty in the evening and close at half past seven. From seven-thirty to eight thirty a program varied in its nature and one in which the different college organizations will participate will be given.

The seven other parties will be in charge of the students. In order to develop a greater class spirit, which will eventually mean a greater alumni spirit, the four college classes will each be given an opportunity to hold a party of their own.

DOBIE STILL GLOOMY BUT PROMISES SPEED.

Proverbial Calamity Howler Deplores Injuries and Lack of Material.

By Rex Kay.

Coach Dobie, of the University of Washington, has at least partly convinced the Student Body, as well as his squad, that there is no ground for much confidence.

The confidence among the old players was the bane of Dobie's existence, but the retirement of Captain Shields and other regulars to the bench until they were ready to dig in with the old fight, brought a change of sentiment.

In a small South Carolina town that was "finished" before the war, two men were playing checkers in the back of a store.

Tree Surgery. We are all glad to hear that "Boob" Abbott's limb, (I almost said leg) is rapidly mending after a bad injury received in foot ball.

Oh My Eyes. Cheer leader Mendanhall's ice cream pants made such a hit at the F. C. game, that we expect to "Christ" blossom out at the University game.

Girls Will Be Girls. Some young ladies who returned to Ceres Hall late Saturday evening found their bedding all sowed together, some wild shrieks broke the stillness when their little pink toes came in contact with some wet towels concealed twixt the sheets.

Some people are complaining that the Allies are too much on the defensive, but Punch suggested that it is hard to be as offensive as the Germans.

have to bear the necessary incidental expenses. The nature of the party will be left entirely to the Freshmen. It will be their party.

The three different groups of students attending the institution will have charge of the other three parties. These parties will be open only to the members of the different groups.

All of these functions—the three All College Parties, the Four College Class Parties and the three Group Parties will be annual events in the social life of the institution.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

The new uniforms have arrived, at last, and are quite conspicuous on the campus. A large percentage of the men in A and B companies, have their olive drab uniforms, and the indications are that these uniforms will improve the appearance of the battalion remarkably.

As all classes were dismissed Friday afternoon, for the F. C.—A. C. game, Captain Macon gave a written examination in the Little Country Theatre.

THE POLYTECHNICAL SOCIETY.

The Polytechnical Society of the North Dakota Agricultural College is perhaps not as clearly understood by the students as would be desirable. This society, composed of members of the faculty and the experiment station staff, presents every fortnight a popular technical program to which all upperclass students are invited.

POSTAL SAVINGS INCREASE GREATLY.

The war in Europe is proving a big boon to postal savings in this country. From the very day hostilities opened across the seas postal-savings receipts began to increase by leaps and bounds and withdrawals fell off, a result quite contrary to the predictions of many well-informed persons who, in their imagination, saw lines of feverish depositors at post-office pay windows anxious to again return their savings to the boot-leg and body-belt depositories whence they came before entrusted to Uncle Sam.

added greatly to the general administrative duties of the system, but has brought up many new and interesting problems which have called for the careful personal consideration of Postmaster General Burleson and Governor Dockery, Third Assistant Postmaster General. But their task has been lightened somewhat by the promptness of depository banks in furnishing additional security to meet the abnormal deposits.

CHANGE TO VESPERS.

Beginning next Sunday, November 8, the afternoon meeting in the Armory, which has heretofore been conducted by the Y. M. C. A., will be changed to a vesper service, for both men and women. It will be held at four o'clock, and will be over in plenty of time for supper, and the young people's meeting at the various churches.

Two important results have followed; thousands of people, largely of foreign birth, accustomed to send their savings abroad, are now patrons of our postal-savings system; and enormous sums of actual cash have been released for commercial uses among our own people at a time when the need for every available dollar is pressing.

The growth of postal savings in the United States has been steady and healthy and the system has filled an important gap between the tin-can depository and the factory paymaster. On July 1, when affairs were running smoothly here and abroad and the transmission of money across the Atlantic was safe and expeditious, there was approximately $43,000,000 of postal savings standing to the credit of about 388,000 depositors.

A GOOD CHARACTER AFTER ALL.

Someone has advanced the opinion that the letter "e" is the most unfortunate character in the English alphabet, because it is always out of cash, forever in debt, never out of danger and in hell all the time. For some reason, he overlooked the fortunates of the letter, so we call his attention to the fact "e" is never in war and always in peace.

GRAND FREE LECTURE COURSE

Dr. Lewis Thurber Guild will speak on the subject below, in the Grand Theatre, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. This is especially called to the attention of all students:

A Medieval Progressive. A unique interpretation of Savonarola. Dr. Guild visited Florence and the haunts of the heroic mystical monk whose shadow still falls over the square in front of the palazzo Vecchio. He finds some things in his career which are startlingly apropos to the present time. It has been pronounced one of the great orations upon the most dramatic character of history.

North Dakota Agricultural College: In my opinion Dr. L. T. Guild ranks high as a platform speaker. He possesses a remarkable fund of information which he punctuates with anecdote and humor in a most interesting manner. Never dull, and always entertaining, he frequently rises to flights of oratory that would do credit to the most distinguished lecturer of the day. I consider Dr. Guild a remarkable man with a remarkable gift of expression, whether viewed as speaker or writer.

FIFTH PROGRAM.

Free Weekly Industrial Motion Pictures. Physics Lecture Room Friday 4:45 P. M.

The first reel will be that of the "History of the Typewriter," showing the history of development and some of the modern methods of manufacture. The second reel will show some scenes from the Mentor Knitting Mills; interesting in that they not only show industrial manufacturing conditions of sweaters and knit goods, but of the welfare work possible in connection with this kind of manufacturing.

If more time is available after the above reels are shown, "The Manufacture of Clocks and Watches," or the "Manufacture and Use of the Cream Separator will be shown. There was a very fair sized crowd out last Friday evening to see the exceptionally fine films on pipe manufacture. This film was also accompanied by an excellent lecture by Prof. Keene, which added much to the interest of the film.

Nov. 13—Four reels, showing the Education of Mr. and Mrs. Thrifty along electrical lines. Highly instructive as well as entertaining. Nov. 20—Anthracite coal mining. Nov. 27—Safe methods of bituminous coal mining. These last four reels are being shown to develop an interest in mining problems, safety in mining and in metallurgical problems.

Dec. 4.—Safety first. Two reels of the best motion pictures ever made: of interest to the student of industry as well as the welfare worker. Several slides of special interest will also be shown.

Fargo College Forfeits Game

OTHERWISE EXCELLENT GAME MARRED BY DISAGREEMENT OVER TECHNICALITY.

Friday afternoon 2000 spectators witnessed the annual gridiron battle between the two local colleges, Agricultural College and Fargo College. The game while it lasted was a hummer but the final result was a disappointment not only to the supporters but to the players as well. After seven minutes of play in the fourth quarter Coach Watkins took his team from the field thus forfeiting the game to the Aggies; 1 to 0. The disagreement arose when Bolsinger who was taken out in the first quarter because of injuries was illegally returned in the third quarter and was immediately sent out and the Aggies penalized half the distance of the goal. At the beginning of the fourth quarter Capt. Caulkins asked the referee if Bolsinger could again enter the game the answer was in the affirmative. Accordingly Bolsinger was sent in again and after seven minutes play Coach Watkins called Richardson's attention to the fact that a suspended player was in the game. Richardson reported the fact to umpire Shave who immediately called the referee's attention to rule 3 section 2 of Spaulding's official football guide, which prohibits any suspended player from again entering the game. However as the referee had given Bolsinger permission to play he did not feel justified in penalizing the Aggies for his mistake, but sent Bolsinger to the side-lines and wanted the game continued. Fargo College was not satisfied with having the man removed and would not continue the game unless a penalty of half the distance of the goal line was inflicted. After several minutes of discussion Coach Watkins ordered his team from the field and the game ended.

The fact that the score stood 7 to 7 with the ball on Fargo College's thirty yard line leaves things in a most unsatisfactory condition. The referee before leaving left this statement with the reporter in which he further argued that the penalty which Fargo College asked for was offset by the penalty on the F. C. team for Watkins coaching on the sidelines and that the playing should have been continued.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter when Bolsinger went into the game the ball was on the A. C.'s 16 yard line so that if the penalty which Watkins wished to have inflicted had been given the A. C. would have been put back 3 yards for the penalty would have to be taken from the place where the ball was when Bolsinger went into play while if the penalty for coaching from the sidelines was inflicted on F. C. the ball would have been advanced into F. C.'s territory 7 yards. The penalty for coaching on the sidelines being 15 yards. The facts are here given and it is left to you to draw your own conclusions.

The Game In Detail

Fargo college kicks off to Catlin on the twenty-yard line; Catlin return ball two yards; Bolsinger makes two yards through right, and Catlin makes three yards through F. C. right. Catlin tackled for a loss of one yard in attempting run around right end. A. C. fails to make distance; F. C. ball. Ray makes two yards around right end. A. C. penalized 5 yards for off side. Sims makes eight yards through right. Say is tackled for a loss of two yards. A. C. penalized two yards for off side. Ray makes five yards through right. Carpenter makes three yards through right and Holmes fails to gain through right. Sims makes two yards through right. Bolsinger makes two yards through right, and one more around left. Sims makes 1 yard through left. Bolsinger makes an incomplete forward pass to Carpenter. Tries another pass but fails. A. C. ball. Bolsinger

Ellis makes fifteen yards through left, and Overby makes two yards through right. F. C. makes a forward pass which is intercepted by McQuillan giving the ball to A. C. Catlin makes one yard around left end. Bolsinger makes one yard through right, then fails to gain through same side on next play. McQuillan punts thirty-five yards to Overby who returns ball seventeen yards. Ray makes four yards through right, then one more through left. Bolsinger passes to Ray for no gain. Another pass is not completed and A. C. gets ball. Bolsinger tackled for loss of three yards, but makes six yards through right on next play. Bolsinger makes four yards through right. A. C. penalized fifteen yards for holding. McQuillan punts thirty yards to Overby who returns ball seventeen yards. Ray makes one yard through right, and Bolsinger makes three yards more through same side. Nemzek goes in for Bolsinger. Sims makes eight yards through left, and Ray makes two more through right. Bolsinger attempts a forward pass which is intercepted by McQuillan.

End of first quarter. Score 0-0. Calkins goes in for Movold at quarter. Agricultural college fails to make downs and McQuillan punts 40 yards to Boise who returns ball 5 yards. Fargo college penalized 15 yards. Fargo college makes 4 yards to right, then Ray punts 35 yards to Catlin who returns 10 yards. McQuillan makes pretty forward pass to Nemzik for 20 yards. Agricultural college fails to make distance and ball changes hands. Sims goes through right for 6 yards, and Holmes makes 8 yards through right and 7 yards more through left. Fargo college on held for downs, and Ray punts 35 yards out of bounds. Agricultural college makes distance three times bringing them within kicking distance but is penalized 15 yards for holding and punts 30 yards to Catlin who returns it 15 yards. Two incomplete forward passes and half ends. Score at end of half—F. C.-0. A. C.-0.

Nemzik kicks off to Pollock on his 15 yard line, and Pollock returns ball 30 yards. Fargo college fails to make downs and ball goes to agricultural college. Agricultural college fails to make distance and McQuillan punts. Fargo college makes distance in three downs through A. C. left by a series of hard drivers, Ray then tries left side but fails. Sims, his left side but is not successful, and ball changes hands. Agricultural college makes 8 yards then fumbles and Fargo college recovers ball. Colby makes 2 yards through the right, and Bolsinger makes 15 yards through left. With the ball on the 22 yard line the return of Bolsinger is protested and agricultural college is penalized one-half the distance to goal. Bolsinger carries ball for 2 yards, Sims makes 1 yard, Holmes makes 7 yards, and Pollock carries ball over for a touchdown, and kicks goal. Score 7 to 0 in favor of Fargo college.

F. C. kicks off to the twenty yard line. Catlin returns ball ten yards. Then with a series of whirlwind plays in which Nemzek played the stellar role, the A. C. rips up the

C. makes forward pass, Boise to Sims, with a gain of fifteen yards. Another forward pass is intercepted by Catlin who is downed in his tracks. With a series of smashes which brought the ball within thirty yards of the goal, the A. C. having made her downs fourtimes, Watkins protests the return of Bolsinger, and refuses to continue game until he is removed and the penalty granted. Bolsinger is put out but referee refuses to grant penalty, contending that Watkins had incurred an equal penalty for coaching from the side lines. After a long delay the F. C. team left the field, forfeiting the game to the A. C. by a score of 1 to 0.

FINE POSITIONS

Would you not like to be cashier of the First National Bank, manager of the Standard Oil Co., manager Fargo Mercantile Co., manager Union Light, Heat and Power Co., manager Interior Lumber Co., or to be at the head of some equally good establishment by the time you are 30 years old?

GOOD positions require special preparation. The road to the top of the business ladder is through the business office—a through business training is the first of the stepping stones. Ordinary schools can't and business men are too busy to give you that training. But ex-business men can.

Dakota Business College

For the express purpose of training young people for business positions with big futures, This school gives very thorough course in Bookkeeping, Rapid Calculation, Penmanship, Shorthand and Typewriting, Banking, Salesmanship and general business efficiency. Its teaching is the RESULT of many years of successful business experience. And

Ceres Hall Notes

Misses Oliva Guy and Trixie Lamb left for Trixie's home Friday, where they spent the week end.

Miss Louise Clayton spent the week end with her parents. She returned Monday morning for school.

Some excitement was caused around the Hall Hallowe'en evening by a crowd of boys from Fargo. But after a group of A. C. boys put in an appearance the crowd took to their heels. This resulted in three of the boys being taken to the Police Station.

Mr. and Mrs. George Manikowskie of Morton spent Saturday evening with Cecile. They returned home Sunday morning.

Some of the young ladies in Bacteriology showered Prof. Nelson with tin cans Saturday morning. The Prof. had requested that if any of the young ladies had tin cans at home and would bring them, he would appreciate it. So the girls took him by surprise and each one as she marched into class placed a tin can on the desk.

Miss Grace Shelton, a former student of the A. C. was the guest of Miss Olvia Wild at Dinner Sunday. After dinner she spent her time with old acquaintances.

Mrs. Gilbert gave a surprise Hallowe'en Party in Ceres Dining Room, Wednesday evening to all her boarders. The room had been cleared of the tables and took on the appearance of an old Witch's home. In the centre was a large kettle suspended from poles under which a fire was burning. Pumpkins had been hallowed out and were used to light the room. A fine lunch was served and all enjoyed the affair very much.

The Misses Try and Myrtle Waechter, Olvia Wild, May Hartney, Ethel Poole, Ruth Olsen and Elsie Stank were entertained at a spread in Ceres Saturday evening. After the spread, games were indulged in to a late hour.

Some of the young Ladies who returned to the Hall late Saturday evening found their bedding all sewed together and wet towels in their beds. Some O! were heard to break the silence of the night.

The Misses Elsie Stark, Ethel Poole, Bolette Frojen, Margaret Hutchinson, Lena Honett and Bertha Gunderson were entertained by Misses Bertha Gunderson, Sully Gress, Barbara Heidner and Louise Fitzgerald at Mrs. Gunderson, Robert Street. The occasion being a Hallowe'en Slumber Party. Games and stunts were enjoyed till twelve o'clock when a very fine lunch was served. The girls departed for slumberland, but it was useless because there were demons in the house. The next morning a very sleepy lot of girls sat down to the breakfast table. One fine affair was reported by those present.

And Still We Send to Africa for Ivory.

No doubt you have noticed that a number of trees have been planted on the campus during the last week, but probably you did not hear about some of the difficulties attending the planting of said trees:

While digging a hole near Frances Hall one lusty knight of the shovel struck what he supposed to be a very tough "root;" one that resisted the attack of his shovel. Finally sir knight hunted up an axe and cut the "root." Much to his surprise another "root" was encountered on the opposite side of the hole, and it too succumbed to the strokes of the axe. Later, when the dirt was removed from the hole, our laboring friend found that he had cut a section three feet long out of the underground cable that connects the lights on the campus! Can you believe it?

We will not dwell on the fact it took on whole day to repair the damage done in a few minutes by a brainless wonder.

And yet we pay $15 for billiard balls.

ODE TO FRESHMEN.

Who is this being, young and green,
Who climbs the hill with timid mien,
And clutters up the peaceful scene?
The freshman.

Who is the grafter's natural prey?
Who throws his father's cash away
On chapel tickets (so they say)?
The freshman.

Who drives the rhetoric profs to drink?
Who spatters walls and floors with ink?
Who puts decorum on the blink?
The freshman.

BUT who will play football next year?
And with our foes the landscape smear?

THAT REMINDS ME

By D. A. M.

I was going . . . . .
To a dinner party . . . . .
Last night . . . . .
And intended to walk . . . . .
To get up an appetite . . . . .
For five courses . . . . .
But it looked like rain . . . . .
And I took an umbrella . . . . .
And a street car instead . . . . .
Two other fellows . . . . .
Went with me . . . . .
We got in a street car . . . . .
And there were a lot . . . . .
Of other people in the car . . . . .
Riding for exercise, I suppose . . . . .
They were sitting down . . . . .
Standing up . . . . .
And hanging on . . . . .
And there was not a place . . . . .
For us . . . . .
Except a little . . . . .
Foot square place . . . . .
Near the door . . . . .
We got in . . . . .
And the motorman . . . . .
Was evidently a green hand . . . . .
For he shot her in low . . . . .
Or whatever you do . . . . .
To start a street car . . . . .
And away we went . . . . .
Al was first . . . . .
Joe was second . . . . .
And I was last . . . . .
On a trip to the other end . . . . .
Of the car . . . . .
And then the car hesitated . . . . .
And we started back . . . . .
And tried to turn . . . . .
But couldn't . . . . .
And ran backwards . . . . .
To the other door . . . . .
And I beat them . . . . .
To it on the back haul . . . . .
When we got to Fifth St., . . . . .
The car stopped . . . . .
For a moment . . . . .
And then the man at the wheel . . . . .
Fired again . . . . .
And a man . . . . .
Who was sitting down . . . . .
Yelled "Go!" . . . . .
And Al beat us . . . . .
To the front door . . . . .
But on the rebound . . . . .
Caught his foot . . . . .
In an umbrella . . . . .
And reached for a strap . . . . .
And missed it . . . . .
And stuck his hand . . . . .
In a sack . . . . .
On a woman's lap . . . . .
And his thumb . . . . .
Made a plunger . . . . .
Out of the paper top . . . . .
Of a pint of ice cream . . . . .
And there was the damndest row . . . . .
In that car . . . . .
That you ever heard . . . . .
And the next time I take a car . . . . .
With a crowd in it . . . . .
And a green motorman . . . . .
I am going to take . . . . .
A rope . . . . .
And lash myself . . . . .
To the handle on the outside . . . . .
Of one of the doors . . . . .
—Crookston Times.
(This listens like a Fargo street car ride. Ed.)

Why, that's our little brother, dear,
The freshman.

Always the Case.

I love to speak to crowds of which They've told me. "It is cold
If for applause you vainly itch,
'Twill do no good to scold."
For all such audiences I've found
Are always quite the best,
And treat a man of sense and sound
Just like an honored guest.

But when they tell me, "Say! we've got
The very finest bunch!"
I go lie down and weep a lot
For that's a fallish bunch
The audience so praised to you
Will act as if they'd lost
Their only friend—whatever you do
Will be a perfect frost.
