A. C. CADETS MAKE FINE SHOWING AT INSPECTION

CAPTAIN TEBBITTS OF U. S. A. INSPECTS BATTALION AND COMMENTS FAVORABLY ON THE SHOWING MADE.

Corporals Do Good Work

Have their squads well in hand. Marching was almost perfect. Butts' Manual a feature. Band makes splendid showing.

The great day long looked forward to with mingled dread and pleasant anticipation has now come and gone, and every one concerned wears a smile of satisfaction. Thursday morning dawned clear and bright, and as the sun rose higher the heat was tempered by clouds, so the cadets did not suffer from excessive heat and were enabled to put their best energies into the work of the day, which they did with remarkable success. Never in the history of the Agricultural College was so large a battalion inspected, and never before so well drilled or did they execute the various maneuvers with such precision and such perfect knowledge of the method of procedure.

The men were assembled at 9.00 o'clock, and for an hour and a half they were given the drills in which for the past eight months. As they had been so faithfully instructed marching was very nearly perfect, time and step being above reproach, and the lines straight as the proverbial string. In squad drill the corporals showed a more thorough understanding of their duties and a better control of their men than at any inspection heretofore. The extended order drill was carried out exceptionally well, never a hitch or a mistake being made.

A new feature at this inspection was the rendition of Butts' Manual by the entire battalion, to the music of the band. No part of the exercises was better carried out or pleased the spectators more.

The band was in fine trim, and their playing and marching was faultless.

All classes were excused during the hours of inspection, and a large crowd of students and visitors gathered to watch the maneuvers. Among these were our former commandant, Major Ulio. Lieut. Herron sighted him in the crowd, and, walking over to him, asked him to come onto the grounds and meet the inspecting officer. As the venerable Major stepped out into the open and was recognized by the people a hearty wave of applause greeted him, showing the deep feeling of friendship felt toward him by the A. C. people. The Major commended the showing made very highly.

After the exercises in the open the battalion was dismissed and all assembled in the Armory to witness a performance by the Crack Squad. This body has now come to be recognized as one deserving of high credit for their loyalty to the A. C. and for the spirit which they put into the work of the military department. Despite the sudden "piking" of one of their members, the drill Thursday was easily one of the best ever put on by the squad.

The inspecting officer was Capt. H. H. Tebbitts, of the General Staff at Washington. According to the rule of the Department, he assembled the officers and noncommissioned officers after the dismissal of the battalion, and gave them a talk on "things military." He gave the reasons for and benefits of military training, emphasizing the motive of patriotism. He remarked that in the army the idea of the United States being able to intervene in cases of international disputes was considered as a joke. The National Guard is not available except for the quelling of insurrections etc. The object of military

H. S. SENIORS OF FARGO AND MOORHEAD ENTERTAINED

BANQUET GIVEN IN THEIR HONOR IN THE ARMORY THURSDAY EVENING. THEY WERE SHOWN THRU THE BUILDINGS ON THE CAMPUS. AFTER THIS THEY ENJOYED AN HOUR OF DANCING.

The A. C. entertained the senior classes of the Fargo and Moorhead High Schools Thursday evening. The Delta Phi Beta Sorority and the Alpha Mu Fraternity acted as hosts and hostesses. A banquet was served in the college armory at 6 P. M. covers being laid for over 100. The decorations were prettily carried out in the college colors. Beautiful ferns in pots tied with yellow crepe paper added to the color scheme.

President Worst acted as toastmaster. Mr. Robinson, principal of Fargo High School, responded with a clever toast. J. R. Edwards, principal, spoke for the Moorhead institution. Miss Katherine Keye represented the Senior class of Fargo High School in a neat toast and Miss Delphia Kittelsrud gave a brilliant toast for the Moorhead High School.

The serving was done by ten of the Freshman and Sophomore girls. In their pretty white dresses they added much to the beauty of the occasion.

After the banquet, the guests were shown thru the various buildings on the campus. They expressed their appreciation of the many opportunities it was evident our students enjoyed.

After this tour of sight seeing, the guests were conducted back to the armory where an excellent program consisting of two readings by Miss Katherine York, a vocal solo by David Sonquist and several numbers by the college orchestra, was given. An hour of dancing closed a very pleasant evening for entertainers as well as the guests.

There will be an important meeting of the Student Council today at 8:30. The business manager of the Spectrum will give his report.

training in our schools and colleges is to prepare men so some could take charge of volunteers in case of need. Army men know enough about the horrors of war, and do not care to have war, but rather wish to have conditions such as to prevent war. Captain Tebbitts expressed himself as being very well pleased with the showing made by the cadets, stating that as far as he had been able to learn from previous reports there had been a marked improvement since previous years. The officers and non-commissioned officers came in for very high praise for their efficiency.

Too much credit can not be given to Lieut. Herron for his untiring efforts to raise the standard of the military department at this institution. That he has been extraordinarily successful was fully demonstrated by the events of last Thursday.

The cadet officers speak very highly of the spirit exhibited by the men, and of the showing made by them. Cadet Major Ogaard, when questioned as to how the inspection looked to a man on the inside replied: "Darn good".

The last regular drill was held yesterday, and consisted of a practical try-out for the positions of the various officers for next year. Next Thursday is Memorial Day, and according to custom the band and company will take part in the parade. That will close the military operations for the year.

UNIVERSITY LEAVES WITH GAME A TIE

WITH THE SCORE 2 TO 2 AT END OF THE NINTH THE U. COMPELLED TO LEAVE TO CATCH TRAIN.

Bentley Pitches Fine Game

Struck out ten men. Allowed only Three Hits and one Pass. Wirtenberger and Berfening make sensational three baggers.

Saturday's game with the U. was undoubtedly the fastest game of the season and it is to be regretted that with the score a tie and victory for our boys apparently near the game was called in order that the bunch from the University might catch their train. The game was fast from start to finish and the score stood 2 to 2 at the end of the ninth inning, the details were in our favor, Bentley having struck out ten men to Robinson's five, walked one to the University's three and allowing but three hits to their six. The sensational plays of the game were the three baggers by Wirtenberger and Berfening.

OUR TRACK TEAM SHOWS GREAT IMPROVEMENT OVER LAST YEAR

A. C. Gets 6 Firsts out of a Possible 13 and Broke two State Records.

U. Gets 73 Points. A. C. Gets 48.

Wirtenberger Wins Three First Places. Berg Surprised All By Smashing Record in Pole Vault. Nolet Runs Half Mile in Record Time.

Altho handicapped in the forenoon by a wind, the weather could not have been better in the afternoon for Saturday's dual meet with the University. Dacotah field was in ideal condition for the various events. The greater number of entries by the University gave them the meet as the local team equaled the Grand Forks bunch in number of firsts won and had the added glory of smashing two state records. The "U" team scored 73 points to our 48. A large bunch of "U" students accompanied their team and it is estimated that fully 500 people witnessed the meet. One of the most exciting of the forenoon events was the breaking of the state record for the half mile run by Nolet of A. C. Tho the last man to leave the mark, Nolet passed two men in the last eight and won by fully 20 yards making the record breaking time of two minutes and five seconds. When Berg of the A. C. broke the pole vault record there was another period of intense excitement. Berg was our only hope in this event, while three good men were entered by the U. He cleared the bar at ten feet six inches with about half a foot to spare, thus raising the state record in this event one inch. There was considerable excitement manifested at the finish of the 220 yard low hurdles when Wirtenberger forged ahead of Kneeshaw of the "U" after the two had crossed the last hurdle together. In the 100 yard dash Wirtenberger won by a big lead over Hemp of the "U" team just missing the state record by 1-10 of a second. Wirt was high man for the A. C. winning three firsts, a total of fifteen points. The meet was refereed by Coach Watkins of Fargo College, Attorney Richardson acting as starter.

The events were as follows: 120 yard hurdles—Taubert, University 1st, time 18 sec. Wells U.

Eighth Inning.

Evans strikes out. Sagen Hit, takes first. Blewett dies on 1st. Dryden strikes out.

2nd Half. Foss caught out on fly to left field. Grant out, pitcher to first. Bentley strikes out. Wilson out, third to first. Hackett out, pitcher to first.

Ninth Inning.

Berfening strikes out. G. McClintock dies on 1st. B. McClintock dies on 1st.

2nd Half. Wilson dies on 1st. Hackett dies on 1st. Hanson dies on 1st.

A. G. Band Makes A Hit at Grand Forks

"One of the best advertisements the North Dakota agricultural college ever put before the public is the splendid band that has been in Grand Forks today."

This organization of young musicians has kept things in the business section all day and is this afternoon making the crowd merry at the baseball game at Athletic field between the university nine and the aggies.

The band is composed of thirty players. It arrived in the city shortly after 8 o'clock this morning and immediately began to play. Business men hurried down to their offices to popular tunes. Later in the forenoon shoppers were entertained and just before noon the band gave another street concert. Early this afternoon the visitors paraded the streets and played another program of joyful tunes. All along the way the boys were cheered and several business men stepped into the street and extended the glad hand to "Doc" Putnam, leader of the organization.

The drum major who looks all of seven feet tall with his high hat on was the talk of the fair ones this afternoon.

In their natty gray uniforms the players made a splendid appearance and their marching set everybody to talking and to calling other spectators to the doors and windows."

—Grand Forks Evening Times.

Ed Parizek received a telegram Friday evening telling of the death of his sister in Montana. He left Saturday afternoon to attend the funeral. He will probably return the last of the week. His absence was keenly felt by the baseball and track teams Saturday afternoon. The news of her death was a great shock to him as he had not heard a word of her illness until he heard of her death.

Two Mile Run. Solvason, U. first, Time 11; 11. Zipoy, U., 2nd. Stumpf, A. C. 3rd.

This has been by far the A. C.'s most successful year in track events and much of this success is undoubtedly due to Prof. Kalmbach, who has had complete charge of the track events and Prof. Miller who has been coaching the field events. With Kalmbach in charge of track work, another year ought to bring us the meet.

Preps. Pull Candy And Have Good Time

The senior preps were royally entertained by the second year students Friday evening at Ceres Hall. Upon the arrival of the guests, an indoor baseball and bat were produced and a game of ball was indulged in upon the lawn around Ceres Hall. After this the two classes clashed in a potato planting contest, in which the Seniors came out ahead. At this point, the taffy was announced as ready and everyone went inside; strings were hung along the ceiling and doughnuts tied to them and an exciting doughnut eating contest followed. Taffy was then dealt out and everybody proceeded to get busy. Most of the students were very successful in working their taffy, but a few were lamentable failures; all they could do was to lick the taffy off their fingers. While the taffy was cooling ice sherbet and cookies were passed around. The hosts and hostesses were complimented upon their ability to make such excellent sherbet.

After everyone was thru licking their plates, cards were passed around with numbers and names upon them, which represented different stories. When each set of people had grouped themselves together, they dramatized their story and the audience had to guess the name of the story. When some of the animals began howling together it sounded as if some circus menagerie had broken loose. A few more games were played after which the Yellow and the Green was sung under the leadership of Mary Gibbons. A few yells were given and the guests voted their hosts excellent entertainers.

Misses Haggart and Donaldson acted as chaperones during the evening.

Miss Barbara Heidner, who has been ill for over a week, hopes to return to school in time for commencement.

A Farmer's Institute train will stop at all towns on the Northern Pacific allway. Would it not be a splendid thing if our band could accompany the "Better Farming Special" on this trip? Transportation would probably cost nothing. The only cost of taking the band on this trip would be the board of the players and incidental expenses. The band would add greatly to the attendance and at all the meetings, in fact, would make the visit of this train an event long remembered by each town and would insure making this train an annual event.

It would give the people of North Dakota a chance to hear the best band in the state and it would be a splendid thing for the band itself as well as for the A. C. We believe the impression which the band would make would be worth all it would cost even if the institution had to bear it.

The next issue of the Spectrum will not be out until the Commencement exercises are over. All persons who want their Spectrums sent home must notify the Business Manager of the Spectrum before next Tuesday morning.

"YE LITTLE BOOKE."

For a number of years there has been a rather vague and indistinct recognition of the fact that there should be something in the nature of a "guide" or information book for the use of students, particularly new students, when they first arrive at the beginning of the Fall term. At other institutions of any size the Young Men's Christian Association publishes each year a handbook which fulfills the requirements very fully. This year the energetic and ambitious head of the "Y" at this institution conceived the idea that the time was ripe for our association to fall in line and prepare a similar book, and proceeded to act on his convictions by appointing Clarence Walter as chairman of the handbook committee.

For several weeks the committee has been gathering material, and at this writing the book is nearly ready to go to press. It will contain information about the college, its athletics, literary and technical societies, public speaking activities, advice and instructions to new students as regards registration etc., greetings from the President, from the Y. M. C. A., from the pastors of the churches, a Fargo church directory, the college yells and songs, the college publications, and other matter of interest and information.

The booklet is to be for free distribution, the expenses being defrayed by a number of well-chosen advertisements. Its publication marks another step by the "Y" toward their aim of true helpfulness toward the student body.

HIGH SCHOOL CLASS PLAY.

Saturday evening, before a large audience of students and townspeople the graduating class of the Agricultural and Manual Training High School presented their class play, "The Cool Collegians", a comedy in two acts. This is the first class to complete the three-year course of our high school, and the presentation of their play proved them to be the equal or superior of any graduating high school class. At 8:20 the curtain rose, and for an hour the audience was kept in a roar of healthy, hearty laughter.

The first scene was laid in the room of one of the "Cool Collegians", Fred Parks. Parks had just received a letter from an aunt inviting him to spend the summer at her home, offering as an added inducement the presence there of a young niece, Fanny Morrison. But Fred had made his plans to spend the summer at Saratoga, chiefly because Mollie Wainwright, whom he had met there the summer before was to be there again. At this juncture his chum, Harry Meredith arrives upon the scene, and together they attempt to devise a method of escape. Parks had just proposed that Meredith take his place at the aunt's home when the valet announces the arrival of Mrs. Huntoon and Miss Morrison. Mrs. Huntoon had not seen her nephew since his childhood, but instantly recognizes him, when Meredith steps into the breach and announces that he is Fred Parks. A conversation ensues in which Meredith keeps up the deception with a fair degree of success. In the meantime the true Fred Parks and Fanny slip out for a walk, leaving Mrs. Huntoon alone with her supposed nephew. Meredith is soon at his wits end, but by a series of preposterous lies which greatly grieve the old lady's heart he manages to prevent her from discovering the fraud. During the conversation it develops that Mollie Wainwright is not going to be at Saratoga at all, but at the home of Mrs. Huntoon.

Mrs. Huntoon and Fanny soon make their departure, with Fred's promise to be with them soon. When the real Fred learns that his lady love is to be at his aunt's home, greater perplexity than ever is his. But as the old lady had given Fred special permission to bring any of his chums with him it was finally decided to carry the deception thru the summer and both go to Duxbury, hoping to explain at the earliest possible moment to Miss Wainwright and win her on their side.

The second act opens at the home of Mrs. Huntoon at Duxbury, just as the supposed Fred arrives. He is soon left alone with Miss Wainwright, who seems doubtful of the identity of her friend of the previous summer, altho he reminds her that he then wore a full beard, which he has now shaven. He soon attempts to explain the real situation, but the conscientious young lady does not take kindly to it. The real Fred, now Harry, soon arrives, and resumes his suit. With the aid of his friend he writes a letter to Mollie, expressing his love, etc. After a mix-up due to the apparent stupidity of Muggins, the valet, which promises at first to upset the entire scheme every thing turns out satisfactorily and the closing scene gives promise of a happy life ever after.

The six persons who composed the cast enacted their parts in a commendable manner. Jack Kerr and Wilbur Rankin, as Fred Parks and Harry Meredith, resp. took the parts of the "Collegians" in a way that showed they were not at all novices. Kerr especially played the role of the ardent suitor to such perfection that it hardly seemed to be mere "acting". Mabel Ewen played the part of Mrs. Huntoon, and presented a creditable imitation of a sentimental old lady. Rizpah Ladd was Fanny Morrison, and Lillian Hume assumed the part of Mollie Wainwright. Theirs was the difficult part of perfectly natural young ladies, which they carried out perfectly. Arnold Christianson who starred as Muggins, the negro valet, had a part in which he could give full and free range to his natural proclivities. From constant practice he was able to give a very perfect impersonation of a person with a well ventilated cranium.

Next Saturday evening the class will give their class program, and will receive their diplomas.

The "Better Farming Special" train which will tour the state over the Northern Pacific this year will be a great deal larger and more instructive than the one that was sent out two years ago. The train will leave Fargo about June 10th and will be on the road continually for three weeks. It will visit three towns daily and as there are 10 cars in the train and two lecturers in each car, they will give from 40 to 60 lectures each day. Certain features of this train will make it one of the best agricultural trains ever sent out in any part of the United States.

The first car will be a flat car which will be devoted to poultry. It will have a model poultry plant on it with an incubator and brooder house. This car will be in charge of Prof. Dynes.

The second car will also be a flat car but will be devoted to stock. There will be a lecture platform on one end with pens for hogs and sheep at the other. This car will be used in conjunction with the next one, which will contain horses and cattle. This car containing the latter—will however be a baggage car. When lectures are to be given on horses or cattle, they will be led out on the lecture platform of the flat car and the lectures will be much more instructive than they were in the previous trip. These two cars will be in charge of Professors Richards and Thompson.

The fourth car will be in charge of Prof. Martin and will be the dairy car. It will be a day coach and with one side of seats removed. The space thus formed will be given over to illustrations. Lectures will be given on dairy problems.

The fifth car will be given over to "Prevention of Disease" and will be similar to car number four. This car will be in charge of Drs. Van Es and Crew.

The next coach will be devoted to Agronomy and will be in charge of Professors Shepperd and Donehue. They will take up grasses, grains, cultural crops, soils, rotations, etc.

The seventh car will be the "Good Seed" coach. Three fanning mills will be on exhibition and the lecturers will take up treatments for diseases, and weeds.

The eighth coach will be a day coach also and will be devoted to chemistry of which Dean Ladd will be in charge. Soils, pure and impure food, flours, etc., will be discussed and illustrated.

The next car will be the horticultural coach and will be a baggage car. Living trees that have been potted, shrubs and vegetables will fill this car and it will be under the charge of Prof. Waldron.

The last car will be the home economics car which will be under the supervision of Prof. Keene and Dean Hoover. Sewing, cooking, house appliances, ornamentation, ventilation, heating, lighting and home nursing are some of the things which will be taken up here.

Besides these coaches will be a dining car and sleepers, these to accommodate the lecturers and officials of the railroad. As this train gets to so many people and since everything on this train is directly associated with the Agricultural College and has direct bearing with the general public it is one of the best advertisements that can be sent out.

Some may say you can never surprise an Irishman, but that theory was completely shattered when T. X. walked into a Lab. Exam. last Wednesday afternoon in a place where he expected to enjoy a good afternoon's snooze.

It is now rumored that the reporter who gave such a detailed account of the trip made to Muskoda by our embryo Geologists was slightly in error, as it is quite certain from photographic evidence that some one did find the bung hole of one of the beer kegs.

Uncle Jack, who was visiting them for the Christmas holidays from the West, wished to talk to Elizabeth's father at his office. He could not find the telephone directory and thus appealed to three-year-old Elizabeth for information regarding the phone number. "Elizabeth, what does mother ask for when she talks to daddy at his office?" he inquired. Elizabeth was wise for her days. "Money," she lisped. — Ladies' Home Journal.

Small Billy—Why can't I have a ride on a donkey, mother?

Ceres Hall

Miss Nellie Ewen is visiting her sister Miss Mabel Ewen, who graduates from the High School this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox and little Miss Eleanor, spent Saturday and Sunday with the Misses Mabel and Marion of Ceres Hall.

The Misses Fosbourg, Poland and Blanco, entertained at a dinner party last Sunday. The guests were Mr. Elliott, Mr. Dynes and Mr. Botsford.

Miss Emma Eastgate of Hillsboro, visited her sister Miss Elizabeth Eastgate, over Saturday and Sunday.

About thirty young men graced the Ceres Hall dining room Saturday noon. The excitement was intense among the young ladies, many appetites suffered because of other interests.

Miss Harriet Griffin entertained at her home in honor of Miss Jean Donaldson. A linen shower was the chief feature of the afternoon. was served.

The Class in millinery has been displaying an interesting exhibit of hats the past week.

CONVOCATION.

The convocation Monday was addressed by Mr. Childs, who in the interest of the Y. M. C. A., is making a tour of the educational institutions of the Middle West. In this tour he has visited thirty-five institutions.

His talk was on the relation of the state institutions to Christian life and was in part as follows: "The great statesman, Bismark, was right when he said, 'As colleges go so goes the nation'. We of America believe in higher education because it fits men and women for true leadership. Looking into the past history of America we find that the people who held the most responsible positions were mostly college men. Today as then they are the leaders. But what kind of leaders? We look with shame on the college men who have gained their seats in the senate by bribing legislators. We also look with shame on political leaders who use their leadership for self advancement and will not give their best to aid the state which gave them their education.

Education is an opportunity for doing large service in the world, and more to colleges for leaders. In The industrial world is looking more the next generation the leadership will be held by college men. But what type of men will those be? Men who makes money at the expense of the life and health of laborers, or men who consider themselves as stewards and will do all in their power for the betterment of humanity? Will they be men who will prefer conditions of sanitation and child labor?

It is the privilege of college men to become leaders. Engineers should not only go out to perform mechanical or technical feats but should strive to better the conditions of the laborers who are working under them. All leaders should recognize the human factor in industry. In the teaching profession it is not alone the intellectual phase that needs attention but also the spiritual and moral. The condition in the secondary schools today present problems that teachers must solve. The time has passed in educational institutions when the only duty of the faculty is to instruct along intellectual lines. Today they must also guide the student to higher things, to moral and social betterment.

"A few men at the U. of W., having a vision of what the institution might be if under a Christian influence, in these years brought about a moral and spiritual regeneration. A great opportunity is offered at the conference at Lake Geneva where 700 of the cream of the educational institutions of the Middle West territory gather to receive instruction from leaders of the world in this work. Young men should strive to go to Geneva and come back and change the life of their institutions."

One evening last week Mrs. Zieffe entertained a number of young women at a miscellaneous shower party in honor of Miss Donaldson. The affair was novel and new. Each guest brought a package, containing some useful household article, which were deposited in a large milk can and delivered to Miss Donaldson. who on opening the can found many useful household articles.

The evening was spent in hemming dish towels which were presented to Miss Donaldson by the hostess. Each guest brought a placard on which she had illustrated the bride's future. These were original and caused considerable mirth. A delightful luncheon was served, the table being decorated with pink carnations and pink candles. Miss Donaldson is a very accomplished young lady of a genial favorite among the students and all disposition and has made herself a others who have gained her acquaintance.

Mrs. Zeifle went to St. Cloud, Minn., Saturday, where she will attend the commencement exercises of the High school and Normal. Mrs. Zeifle attended the Normal at St. Cloud before going to the Minnesota U. and has friends and relatives who will graduate from the High school this spring.

The Chemical Club held its monthly banquet at the Waldorf Saturday evening. This meeting was in the nature of a farewell to Prof. Sargent who leaves for the east about June 1st.

Brief farewell talks were made by Profs. Sudro, Zeifle and Dean Ladd and an original poem was given by Mrs. Shepperd. Prof. Sargent was called upon to respond and made a clever talk in which he expressed his appreciation of good fellowship and good feeling toward the members of the department. Prof. Sargent is an accomplished chemist and has made many sincere friends while here, who regret his leaving the college, but who wish him the best of success in his new line of work, that of Agriculture.

At the close of the meeting plans for the coming year were discussed, and a committee was appointed to arrange for some prominent chemist as speaker from outside the state to speak at the October meeting. In accordance with the usual custom, the September meeting will be the social meeting of the year at which the ladies are invited.

CERES BELES CAPTIVATE BOYS AT MASKED PARTY.

Miss Ruff, leader, makes a hit and Superintends Best Party ever.

At eight o'clock, Friday evening, twenty of the college rubes who frequent Ceres Hall at times, presented themselves per poetical invitations, in strange and various garbs, costumes, and countenances at the Armory where they were met by twenty Ceres Queens who were the hostesses of the evening. Dancing began quite promptly and Darkies Indians, Mexicans, Sailors and dignified cap and gowns mingled and a hilarious time was the result. Miss Ruff, who was in charge, led a short cotillion which was enjoyed by everyone. The favors consisted of various articles with Ceres Hall pennants prominently in demand. Masks were discarded and after recovering from several shocks of recognition, dainty refreshments were served. "Home Sweet Home" came all too soon. The boys speak highly of the entertainment and are looking forward to similar parties next year. Dean Hoover and Miss Griffin chaperoned.
