

Accessibility to the Restoration Process

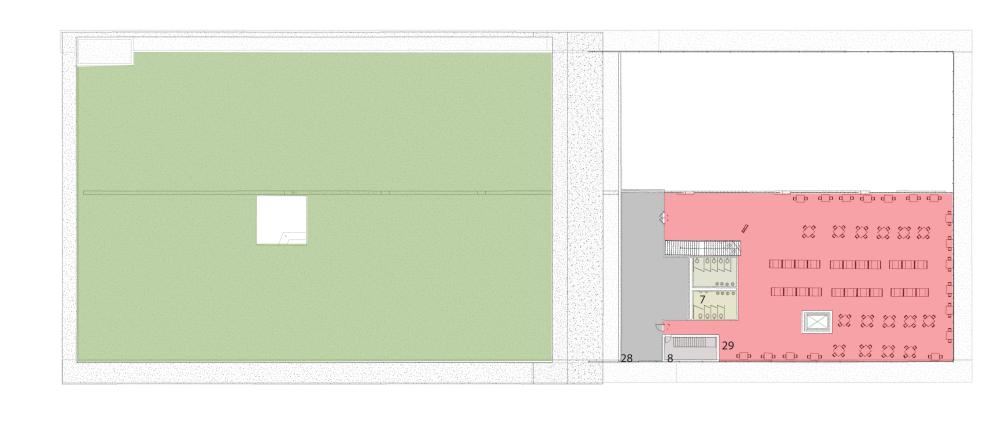

Stairs with Retail Books

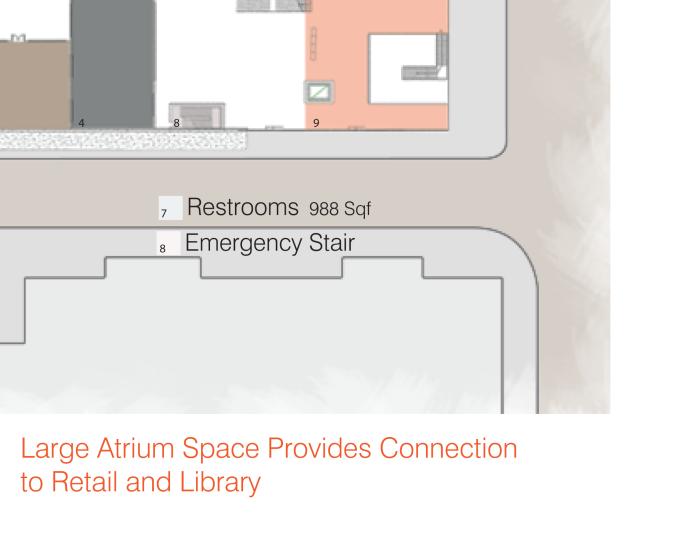

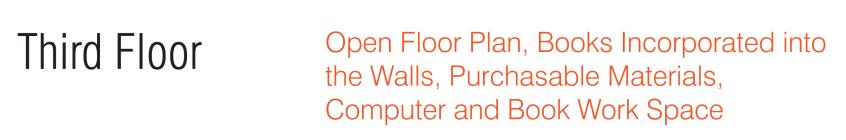

Formal Seating 1424 Sqf 26 Offices 736 Sqf 8 Emergency Stair

28 Kitchen 1671 Sqf 7 Restrooms 386 Sqf Restaurant 7662 Sqf 8 Emergency Stair

Restaurant Provides views of the Lake and Surrounding Area

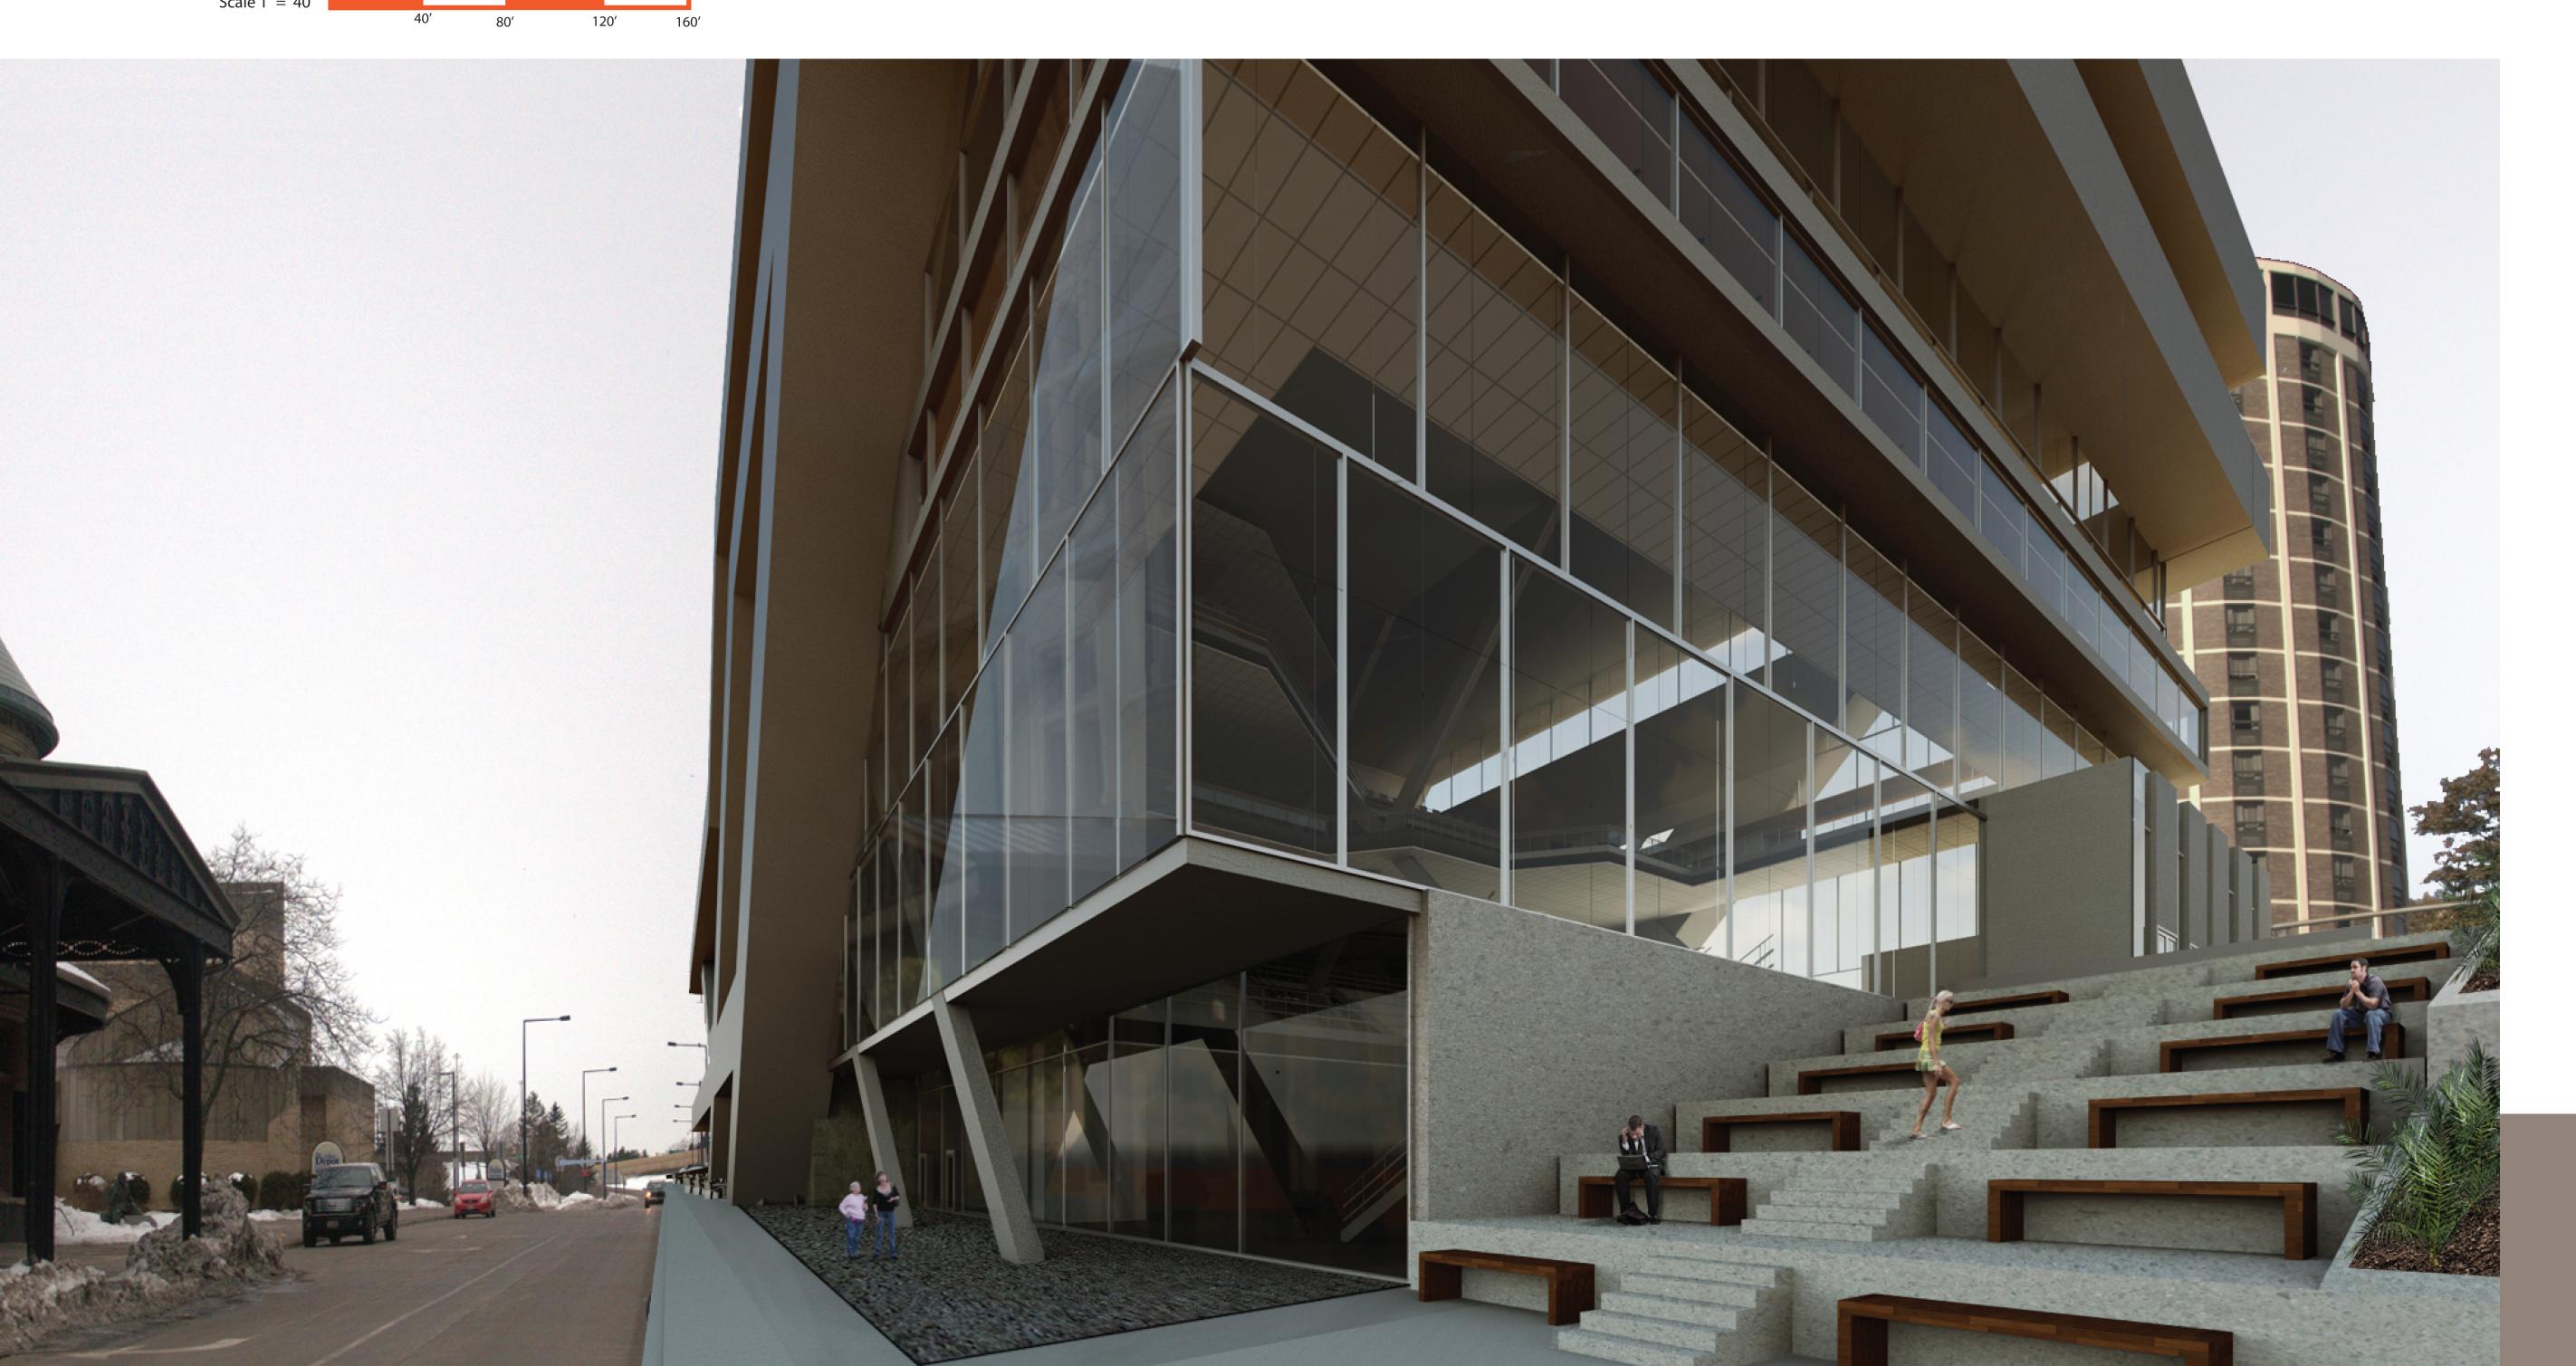

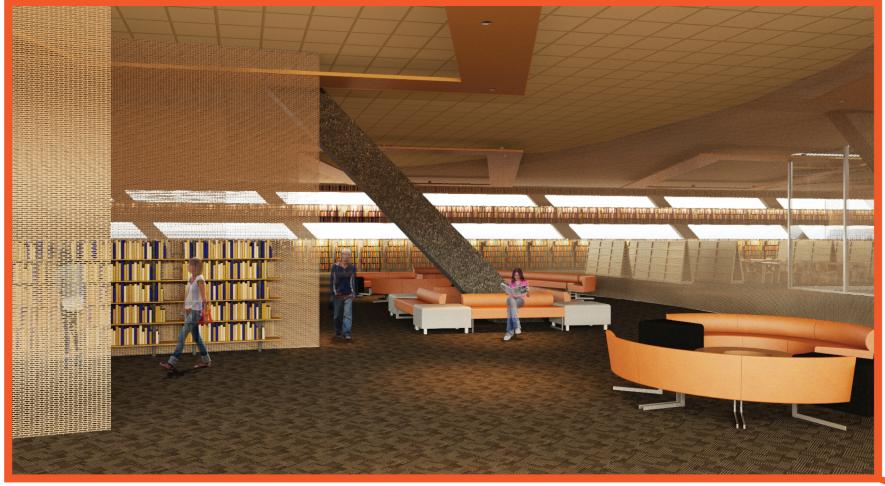

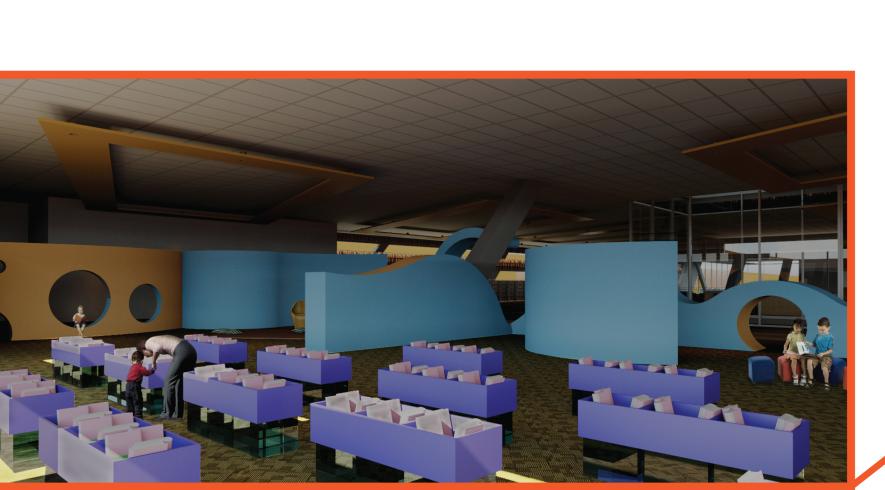

Walkway provides reading space and city views, Teen Section and Special North Shore Collection

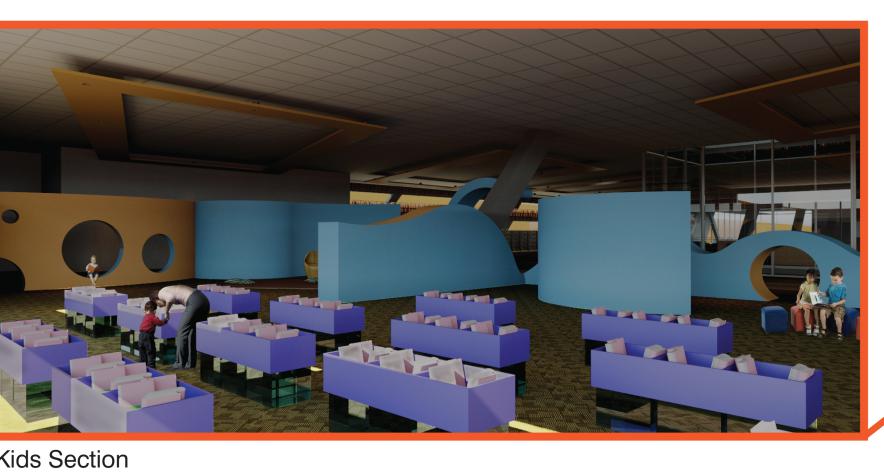

Public Computers, Open and Enclosed Study Spaces, Office Space, Community Spaces

to being user friendly. They can be confusing to navigate, public use through new methods. often feel cramped, and have not adapted to an only be a place for books, but can continue to emphasize use and enrich the experience of the public. their importance.

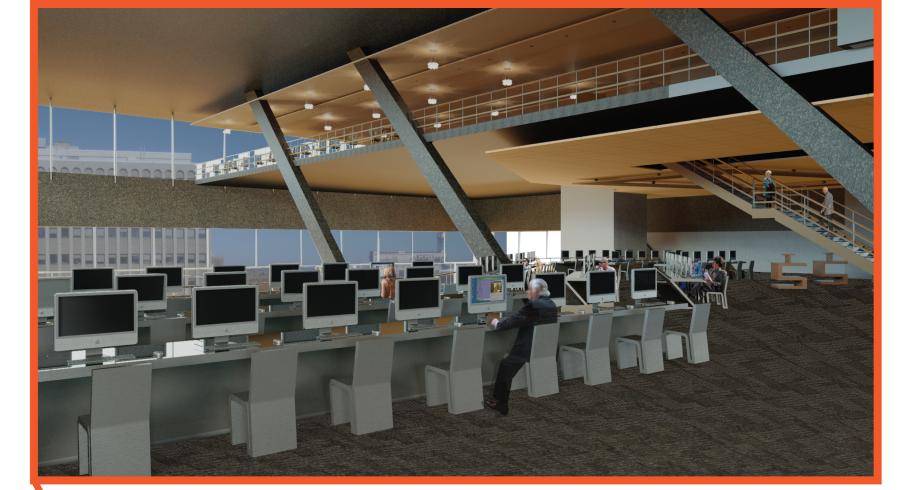

traditional typology must be re-evaluated to address the street by providing retail and restaurants on the the correct floor, and row.

Traditional libraries all face similar issues when it comes problems facing the current model, and increase first two levels of the building, with outdoor cafes along West Michigan Street.

librarians occupy each floor for assistance, and books surrounding downtown area and Lake Superior Lift The new Duluth Public Library encourages pedestrian can be looked up personally with easy to use kiosks at Bridge. The main staircase features floor to ceiling Amidst technological and societal advances, the interaction between the building and the depot across the end of each book stack which direct the patron to bookshelves with books available to purchase, mixing the renting and retail experience.

18' 36' 54' 72'

increasingly technology - driven society. With access to Treating the library as a mixed use typology opens up Books line the walls and become adornment as well as Ample space is provided for reading and working with The fifth floor features over fifty computers available instant internet information, the library can no longer alternative methods with which to increase building material, and the Library features an open floor plan technology, and the main atrium, fourth floor walkway for public use, as well as classrooms and conference which provides flexibility for future needs. Reference and sixth floor restaurant provide views of the rooms for public education and use.

Public Computers

Fourth Floor Walkway and Reading Space