Problem Statement

Removing all mobile homes, increasing housing amount by 228%.

Standing Problems

- Lack of sewer and water.
- Lack of public spaces and urban planning.
- Many great chiefs such as Crazy Horse, Sitting Bull, and Pe'sla, which makes these places the most sacred of sights in the Black Hills, Bear Butte, and Wounded Knee.
- Alcoholism and poverty are prevalent.
- Although the media portrays the reservation negatively, there are still many who live there.
- The project site is in an area in America that is in extreme need.

Oglala Lakota Sioux History

- The reservation is one of 7 subtribes of the Lakota, along with the Nakota & Dakota to make up the Lakota nation.
- One of the places that the Lakota have lived is Wounded Knee.
- The Battle of the Little Big Horn occurred here.
- 2000 feet South of Wounded Knee is Oglala.
- 45 years Pine Ridge.
- In 1877, the Pine Ridge Reservation was established.
- 1877 people per home.
- 17 current houses.
- 26% of the population is unemployed.
- Pine Ridge average annual income is $3,000 higher than U.S. average.
- Many great Chiefs such as Crazy Horse, Sitting Bull, and Pe'sla, just to name a few. All of these places are our most sacred sights, the Black Hills, Bear Butte, and Wounded Knee.

Why is Pine Ridge Important?

The Pine Ridge Indian Reservation is in extreme need. Not many are aware of the 3rd world country status, and I feel that it's an important place to implement a project that will serve the needs of the people living there.

Elements of a Pow Wow:

- Pow Wows, gatherings.
- Powwow - "spiritual leader" lasting 1 day to 1 week.
- Dance competition honoring Native American heritage.

What is Cohousing?

- Promotes community and public spaces.
- In Oglala, cohousing was incorporated through the implementation of duplexes.
- The main form of transportation through Oglala is on foot, bike, and horse. A hood over a number of years. Horseback is also a mode of transportation through Oglala.
- Horseback is also a mode of transportation through Oglala.
- A path that has been created in the north neighbor is accommodated for foot, bike, and horse. A hood over a number of years. Horseback is also a mode of transportation through Oglala.

Master Planning Oglala

- The plaza space is an important area for the residents of Oglala. It can be used as a meeting and gathering space for vendors to set up their shops, and for visitors to relax between the traditional Pow Wow dances.
- The area is equipped for the hundreds of visitors that come to view the Pow Wow and the vendors that also promote community and public spaces.
- In Oglala, cohousing was incorporated through the implementation of duplexes situated around neighborhood garden and park space, promoting family ties and helping one another out. That's why it was implemented in the area.

Craft Boot Camp / Food Vendors

- Many great chiefs such as Crazy Horse, Sitting Bull, and Pe'sla, just to name a few. All of these places are our most sacred of sights, the Black Hills, Bear Butte, and Wounded Knee, and 100 feet north of them is Oglala.
- 5' 100 feet. 20' 500 feet. 18' 2,878 Standing Lower Rosebud.
- 228% increase in housing amount.
- Pine Ridge Reservation 17 current houses.
- 3,468.86 miles / 2,000,000 acres.
- Rolling mixed grass prairie and badlands (sandhills).
- Population: 1,229 persons in 5 households, 229 families.
- Amenities: recreation center, community gardens/lawn, community playground, open lawn, children's playground, parking lot, community gardens/lawn, community gardens/lawn.