

BIMONTHLY BULLETIN

NORTH DAKOTA
AGRICULTURAL EXPERIMENT STATION
FARGO, NORTH DAKOTA

The Advance of Farm Science
in
North Dakota

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
What are the important North Dakota crops?.....	3
Seed treatment increases yield from light weight seed barley..	5
Thirty-six years of barley production in North Dakota.....	6
Small grain, flax and potato diseases in 1944.....	8
Ergot in spring rye.....	12
Flaxseed treatments .....	12
Will delayed seeding reduce damage caused by the sweet clover weevil?.....	13
Baking quality of flours of five hard red spring wheats.....	15
The granary weevil.....	18
The increase and distribution of Mida wheat.....	19
Tumbling mustard .....	20
Enrichment of flour.....	20
Land market activity in North Dakota, Last Quarter, 1940— Third Quarter, 1944.....	21
Perennial wheats .....	26
Sprays for killing potato plants .....	27
Treating spinach seed.....	27
The plant breeder serves North Dakota agriculture.....	28
Bacterial blight of Austrian field pea.....	30
Biology and control of the sweet clover weevil.....	31
Sweet clover diseases.....	34
Geographical distribution of gastro-intestinal parasites of sheep in North Dakota and adjacent areas.....	35
North Dakota farm prices.....	37
The Station staff.....	39