

BIMONTHLY BULLETIN

THE NORTH DAKOTA AGRICULTURAL EXPERIMENT STATION

reports upon

Durum Wheat

Acreage trends
Price relationships
Canadian acceptance
Micro-processing

Insecticides

Against potato insects
Against flies and cattle lice

Busy Bees

Plastic Screens

Production and Prices

---

Vol. IX

March - April
1947

No. 4

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Durum Wheat Acreages in North Dakota and Price Relationships—By L. R. Waldron.....	99
Stewart Durum Accepted in Canada (H.L.W.).....	104
Micro-processing Equipment for Durum Wheat By R. H. Harris.....	105
Effect of Insecticides on Tuber Yield and Control Recommendations for 1947—By J. A. Munro, R. L. Post, and Wm. G. Hoyman.....	109
Transparent Plastic Screen Cloth Ideal for Rearing Cages By R. L. Post and Wayne Colberg.....	111
North Dakota Farms.....	112
How Doth the Busy Little Bee—By H. L. Walster.....	113
Condition of Ranges and Condition of Sheep and Cattle.....	114
Wool Production and Income 1935-46—By C. J. Heltemes and O. E. Grenier.....	115
Jan. 1, 1947 Annual Livestock Report—By C. J. Heltemes and O. E. Grenier.....	116
North Dakota Farm Prices—By P. V. Hemphill.....	117
Summer Fly Spraying with DDT Controls Cattle Lice—By R. B. Knapp and Arden Aanestad.....	119