

JUN 1 '56

BIMONTHLY BULLETIN

*UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
CITRUS EXPERIMENT STATION*
of the
NORTH DAKOTA AGRICULTURAL EXPERIMENT STATION

May -- June 1956

Vol. XVIII

No. 5

Fargo, N. D.

Table of Contents

WILLISTON RELOCATION	151
Growth of Oil City Has Absorbed Old Experiment Station Property; New Buildings Rising on New Site
By Howard M. Olson
HOG MARKETING	160
Most of Our Pork is Marketed in the Winter, When Prices are Lowest; Earlier Farrowing Urged
By W. Warren DeKrey and Clayton Hauge
DAKOTA'S CORN	164
More and More of it is Going into Silos, Making for Different Requirements of Earliness, Forage and Bulk
By William Wiidakas
FERTILIZED CORN	173
It Gets Quicker Start in Southeastern Counties, Tassels and Silks Earlier, Matures Quicker, Beating the First Frost
By Armand Bauer, E. B. Norum, J. C. Zubriski and Earl Skogley
SILAGE AT WILLISTON	175
Corn Silage Dependable Forage Crop Up In Northwest Area; Fertilizer Response Great on Irrigated Acreage
By Howard M. Olson
THE GOOD BLACK EARTH	177
"Chernozem" is Term for Black Earths in Russia, Argentine, Australia and Our Own Red River Valley
By H. L. Walster
COSTLY MISTAKES	179
Good Husbandry Includes Parasite Control Through Clean Housing and Yards.
By R. F. Shumard
MEASURING CROP THIRST	182
Water Requirements of Five Irrigated Crops Grown in Souris River Areas Have Been Measured
By H. Holmen
PRICES OF NORTH DAKOTA FARM PRODUCTS	186
All-commodity Index April 15 up Seven Points Over Previous Month, But Still Below Point of Year Ago
By Perry V. Hemphill

OUR COVER PICTURE, as every school child knows, is of the Wild Prairie Rose—rosa blanda or arkansana—which was named the official state flower for North Dakota some 50 years ago. Engravings courtesy of Ben Meier, Secretary of State.