BIOGRAPHY

On July 3, 1884, twenty-four residents in northeastern Dakota Territory filed with the Cass County Board of Commissioners to organize Berlin Township. Most of the settlers had come from Berlin, Wisconsin, and chose the name for that reason. Sam Edwards covered miles with his horse and buggy to collect signatures on the petition. The first recorded township meeting was July 26, 1884.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

This collection consists of Poll and tally lists for primary and general elections, of Berlin Township in Cass County, N.D.
